2		RAYMOND ZAR: AFFIRMED
3		CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. SWAN:
4	1.	Q. Good morning. In the matter of
5		KingSett Mortgage Corporation, applicant, and 30
6		Roe Investments Corp., respondent, this is the
7		cross-examination of Raymond Zar on his affidavit
8		sworn November 7, 2023 in respect of a pending
9		motion for a discharge order and ancillary
10		relief.
11		Mr. Zar, have you affirmed or given an
12		affirmation this morning?
13		A. I have.
14	2.	Q. And you understand that the giving of
15		that affirmation means you are to give evidence
16		that is truthful, that represents the whole truth
17		and nothing but the truth?
18		A. I do.
19	3.	Q. And you understand that there are
20		consequences for not doing so?
21		A. Yes.
22	4.	Q. Mr. Zar, your affidavit that was
23		delivered on November the 7th, 2023 was actually
24		due by the 16th of October, 2023 by the order of
25		Justice Osborne. Therefore, KingSett is

1		conducting this examination on a without-
2		prejudice basis to its position that the
3		affidavit can be struck by the Court on the
4		return of this motion.
5		Mr. Zar, you were served with a Notice of
6		Examination to attend this cross-examination this
7		morning?
8		A. Yes.
9	5.	Q. And that Notice of Examination
10		indicated that the start date for the examination
11		was 10:00 a.m.?
12		A. I believe so.
13	6.	Q. Not only you believe so, you know it
14		to be so, don't you?
15		A. Mr. Swan, we are here. Let's proceed
16		with the examination.
17	7.	Q. Do you know it to be so, that the
18		Notice of Examination indicated that the
19		examination started at 10:00 a.m.?
20		A. Yes.
21	8.	Q. And you arrived for your examination
22		this morning at 10:40 a.m., didn't you?
23		A. Around that time, I believe, yes.
24	9.	Q. And is there a reason that you were
25		40 minutes late for your examination?

1		A. Yes. I had to inflate one of my
2		tires due to the change in temperature.
3	10.	Q. Was your tire flat?
4		A. No, but the alert system on the
5		dashboard was flashing. It said it's below the
6		required psi for a Mercedes S-Class.
7	11.	Q. What car was this?
8		A. It's a Mercedes S-Class 2022. The
9		tires have to be at a psi of 36 and this morning
10		my tires were at a psi of between 27 and 28.
11	12.	Q. And where did you inflate them?
12		A. I went to the Shell near my home on
13		the corner of Avenue Road and Haddington.
14	13.	Q. And that took 40 minutes?
15		A. Mr. Swan, it took as long as it did.
16		I'm here and I'm ready to proceed with the
17		examination.
18	14.	Q. Did it take you 40 minutes to inflate
19		your tires this morning?
20		A. Mr. Swan, I e-mailed you and I
21		advised you I believe at 9:30 a.m. that I would
22		be about half an hour late, and so
23	15.	Q. So by 9:30 I'll just be a bit more
24		precise. No sense guessing. In fact, you
25		e-mailed me at 9:45. Do you have that e-mail?

1		A. Yes, and it says, 'Mr. Swan, my ETA
2		is 10:30 a.m.', and I believe I arrived here
3		around that time.
4	16.	Q. You arrived here at 10:40 a.m.
5		A. Well, Mr. Swan, I'm happy to stay
6		later if that is what you're asking.
7	17.	Q. At 10:45, did you realize that your
8		tires were supposedly low? Sorry, at 9:45, did
9		know that your tire was low?
10		A. I believe by then I was already at 11		the gas station. It was taking longer than
12		expected.
13	18.	Q. Longer than expected to do what?
14		A. To inflate the tires.
15	19.	Q. Why was that?
16		A. Because you have to park the car by
17		the inflation station and then you have to tap
18		the credit card each time for each tire, and the
19		reader was having trouble reading it on a few
20		taps.
21	20.	Q. So just to be clear, your evidence
22		was it took you 40, four zero, minutes to inflate
23		your tires?
24		A. My evidence is that when I e-mailed
25		you, it was when I realized that I was going to

1		be late.
2	21.	Q. That's not my question, sir. My
3		question is, is it your evidence under oath that
4		it took you 40, four zero, minutes to inflate
5		your tires at the Shell gas station?
6		A. I don't know.
7	22.	Q. Well, did it or didn't it?
8		A. You have my answer, sir.
9	23.	Q. I have a nonanswer, which is you
10		don't know. Approximately how much time did it
11		take you to inflate your tires?
12		A. I don't recall.
13	24.	Q. This was an hour ago?
14		A. I believe, if I'm maybe twenty to
15		thirty minutes.
16	25.	Q. To inflate your tires?
17		A. Yes.
18	26.	Q. So quite apart from that, you were
19		going to be late anyway?
20		A. I note that the parking entrance to
21		this building is closed on two sides. So I think
22		that had something to do with it because I
23		actually valeted my car at the St. Regis because
24		I couldn't get into your parking. I can show you
25		the valet tag if you would like. Here it is.

1		Here's my va	alet ticket for St. Regis because your
2		parking was	closed.
3	27.	Q.	And the vehicle that needed the air
4		is a 2022 Me	ercedes S-Class?
5		А.	Yes.
6	28.	Q.	Is that owned or leased?
7		Α.	It is owned.
8	29.	Q.	By which entity or person?
9		А.	Myself.
10	30.	Q.	Raymond Zar personally?
11		А.	I don't know exactly. It's either
12		myself or i	t's one of my holding companies, but
13		in any even	t, I'm the owner, the direct or
14		indirect own	ner of it.
15	31.	Q.	And did you purchase that vehicle in
16		2022?
17		А.	2023.
18	32.	Q.	I see. What was the purchase price?
19		А.	Mr. Swan, is this an examination for
20		this upcomin	ng motion or about my car?
21	33.	Q.	What was the purchase price?
22		Α.	I don't recall.
23	34.	Q.	Approximately?
24		Α.	Probably in the range of $150,000.
25	35.	Q.	Is it the case that one of the other reasons or one of the reasons that you were late 1 2 this morning is that you were revising your Notice of Motion for this next court attendance? 3 I don't believe so because those 5 changes were in the works regardless. So if 6 you're asking if I had arrived here, say, at ten, the Amended Notice of Motion wouldn't have been 7 ready in any event. So I don't think the two are 8 9 connected. 36. Q. Were you the person revising it or 10 11 someone else? 12 I had to put in the final wording and 1.3 then serve it. So it wouldn't have been served 14 -- what I'm trying to say is that the -- my being late only resulted in you receiving the Amended 15 16 Notice of Motion prior to the examination as a 17 matter of courtesy or convenience. 37. 18 That doesn't answer my question, sir. 19 Is one of the reasons that you were late this 20 morning, that you were working on your Amended 21 Notice of Motion? No. Perhaps by ten minutes while I 22 was in this conference room before we started, 2.3 24 when I was editing it on my iPad before we went 25 on the record. So I would say ten minutes.

1	38.	Q. So you were editing it this morning
2		after 10:00 a.m. and before we started this
3		examination?
4		A. Yes, because as a matter of courtesy,
5		I thought you would appreciate having it before
6		the examination.
7	39.	Q. And was it you personally that
8		prepared or revised the Notice of Motion or do
9		you have a lawyer that you're working with?
10		A. I can't speak to any dealings with
11		lawyers. That would be privileged.
12	40.	Q. Well, my question did not seek
13		solicitor-client-privileged information. I asked
14		you if you personally prepared and revised the
15		Notice of Motion.
16		A. Yes.
17	41.	Q. And the final revisions that you made
18		to it, you made after 10:00 a.m. this morning?
19		A. Mr. Swan, the Amended Notice of
20		Motion was served after 10:00 a.m. That is a
21		fact.
22	42.	Q. That wasn't my question. That's my
23		next question, but my current question is, you
24		made amendments to your Notice of Motion after
25		10:00 a.m. this morning?

1			Α.	Yes.
2	43.		Q.	And you then served it after 10:50
3		a.m. th	is mon	cning?
4			Α.	In front of you, yes.
5	44.		Q.	How old are you, Mr. Zar?
6			Α.	Thirty-one.
7	45.		Q.	You were born in Iran?
8			Α.	Yes.
9	46.		Q.	And where did you attend high school?
10			Α.	How is my birthplace relevant to the
11		motion?
12	47.		Q.	That's not my question. Where did
13		you atte	end hi	igh school?
14			Α.	Toronto.
15	48.		Q.	After high school, did you pursue a
16		univers	ity de	egree?
17			Α.	No. It was after, later on.
18	49.		Q.	Did you take some courses from the
19		Ontario	Real	Estate College?
20			Α.	Yes, back in 2011/'12, around that
21		time, I	belie	eve.
22	50.		Q.	And the Ontario Real Estate College
23		is not a	an act	tual educational college, is it?
24			Α.	At that time I don't believe it was
25		even the	e Onta	ario Real Estate College. I believe

1		it was just the Ontario Real Estate Association
2		that did the courses.
3	51.	Q. So you took some courses from the
4		Ontario Real Estate Association?
5		A. Yes.
6	52.	Q. Were these in person or on online?
7		A. I think they were both. It was
8		hybrid.
9	53.	Q. In 2011?
10		A. Yes. It was hybrid in the sense that
11		parts of it were in person, parts of it were
12		correspondence.
13	54.	Q. And how many courses did you take?
14		A. That is a very long time ago. I can
15		say I didn't finish the program when I started in
16		2011. I believe it was maybe one or two courses
17		at the time.
18	55.	Q. You took one or two courses?
19		A. Yes, and I failed, and so I didn't
20		complete the program when I started in 2011 or
21		'12. Later on in 2015, I applied to get my MBA
22		from Ivey and I was granted an exemption even
23		though I didn't have a bachelor's degree. I
24		failed the first term, so I was kicked out of
25		Ivey and

1	56.	Q. I'm not asking you about Ivey yet.
2		Well, finish your answer.
3		A. Well, yeah, I'm just trying to get to
4		the point.
5		So I failed the first term, which started
6		in 2015, and so I was kicked out of Ivey and
7		shortly thereafter, I was diagnosed with adult
8		ADHD. I received treatment for that, and so I
9		applied again to Ivey and I got back in and I had
10		to do the first semester twice, and I graduated
11		in 2019 with an MBA.
12	57.	Q. We'll come back to Ivey in a minute,
13		but I'm interested in what I actually asked about
14		for the moment, which is the Ontario Real Estate
15		courses. Did you complete those? You said you
16		took one or two courses in 2011 or '12. Did you
17		then and you failed?
18		A. Yes.
19	58.	Q. Did you then return and finish that
20		program or not?
21		A. Yes, I did.
22	59.	Q. When?
23		A. I don't recall the exact date. It
24		would have been a few years later.
25	60.	Q. Did you get a certificate,

1		designation or degree from that program?
2		A. I did.
3	61.	Q. What certificate, designation or
4		degree was it?
5		A. I don't recall the exact term it
6		uses. Obviously I'm not an active registrant. I
7		haven't been for several years. It would have
8		been whatever the typical real estate licence is
9		called. I don't recall the exact name of the
10		designation.
11	62.	Q. Did you have a real estate licence in
12		Ontario?
13		A. I did, yes.
14	63.	Q. Issued by whom?
15		A. By the Real Estate Council of
16		Ontario, RECO.
17	64.	Q. I would like you to produce to me
18		whatever certificate, designation or degree you
19		received from the OREA program.
20		A. Would you like me to just look it up
21		in my phone now?
22	65.	Q. No, I would like you to send it to me
23		over the next couple of days.
24		A. I'll take that under advisement.
25	66.	Q. Why is that?

1		A. Because I don't understand the
2		premise of your question. What does a real
3		estate designation years ago have to do with a
4		motion to discharge the receiver and approve
5		fees?
6	67.	Q. It goes to your credibility, sir.
7		U/T A. Ah. All right. In that case, I will
8		produce it.
9	68.	Q. Thank you. And you received a real
10		estate licence from RECO?
11		A. Yes.
12	69.	Q. What year?
13		A. It will say the year when I send it
14		to you. As I said, it would have been a few
15		years after 2011/2012. I can say for certain I
16		had a licence in 2017 or '18, because there were
17		some very large transactions I was involved in.
18		The reason I got my licence is because
19		when I left Skyline in two thousand I forgot
20		when, '16, '17, around there, I went into
21		consulting, Zar Advisory, and a lot of the
22		clients I was involved in were trading real
23		estate, and so because that requires anyone who's
24		receiving any sort of commission related to real
25		property to be a registrant, I did register with

1		RECO. I got my licence and any commissions I
2		received were channelled through a registered
3		brokerage.
4	70.	Q. All right. You'll send me a copy of
5		that as well?
6		U/T A. It is public record I believe in
7		RECO's database, but I will send you a copy of
8		can you be exact in terms of what you would like
9		so that it's clear?
10	71.	Q. Your licence.
11		A. So you want a copy of my real estate
12		licence?
13	72.	Q. Yes.
14		A. All right. And to be clear, I said I
15		had it for a brief period. I don't have it right
16		now. I'm not licensed right now. I didn't
17		continue my registration. I didn't renew it.
18	73.	Q. Did you receive a document indicating
19		that you were licensed?
20		A. Of course. I was also registered to
21		trade in real estate with Royal LePage
22		Terrequity
23	74.	Q. All right. You'll send me that
24		licence?
25		A and Remax Commercial. Of course.

1		I believe the intel you're getting is flawed,
2		but
3	75.	Q. You acknowledge, sir, that there is
4		no Ontario Real Estate College; correct?
5		A. No. At the time, before the
6		amendments were made by the government, it was
7		the Ontario Real Estate Association that
8		administered the program. So I believe it was
9		called OREA College.
LO	76.	Q. Okay.
L1		A. And years later, while after I was
L2		registered, I believe they changed it. They gave
L3		it to Humber College or another one of the
L 4		colleges to administer the program.
L5	77.	Q. I see. But this was not this was
L 6		something that you did both by correspondence and
L7		in person, you say?
L 8		A. Yes, but I had a real estate licence
L 9		issued by the Real Estate Council of Ontario.
20	78.	Q. All right. I would now like to ask
21		you another question. What year did you get your
22		MBA?
23		A. Well, I was in the program for a long
24		time, so I was effectively in the program from
25		2015 all the way to 2019. I believe I got the

1		MBA well, it would have been somewhere between
2		2016 and or '17 and no, '18 or '19. That's
3		when the graduation ceremony was. I mean, it's
4		published in The Globe and Mail. So it's a
5		public record.
6	79.	Q. So you think it was 2018 or '19?
7		A. I think so. I don't know exactly
8		right now off the top of my head.
9	80.	Q. And where did you do this program?
10		A. Ivey Business School at Western
11		University.
12	81.	Q. In London?
13		A. In London and at the Exchange Tower
14		in Toronto.
15	82.	Q. Did you do this full time or part
16		time?
17		A. Well, the program was I don't know
18		if it's designated as full time or part time. I
19		can say it was an intensive program. We had
20		sessions every week and we had week-long sessions
21		in London every two or three months, and we had
22		another session in China.
23		So it was an intensive program. It's the
24		same degree as Ivey's full time MBA. My diploma
25		says, Master of Business Administration from

1		Western.
2	83.	Q. Is this an EMBA?
3		A. Yeah. It was the EMBA route, the
4		Executive MBA, but the degree isn't EMBA. It's
5		just MBA.
6	84.	Q. What do you mean it was the EMBA
7		route?
8		A. Well, they have different routes. So
9		the EMBA is for working executives. They have a
10		part-time night MBA, I believe. They have a
11		full-time accelerated MBA.
12		So this was the EMBA route, but as they
13		explained to us, the diplomas are all the same.
14		They're Master of Business Administration.
15		There's no such thing as an EMBA from Ivey.
16	85.	Q. But in fact the program was in fact
17		the EMBA program?
18		A. No, it was the Master of Business
19		Administration program.
20	86.	Q. You just told us you took the EMBA
21		route.
22		A. If you'd like, I can produce a copy
23		of my diploma signed by the provost and
24		chancellor of Western that says, Master of
25		Business Administration. That's what the diploma

1		says.
2	87.	Q. Did you take the EMBA route?
3		A. I did, and after inquiring with
4		Ivey's office on which term to use, Ivey
5		confirmed that we can use the MBA beside our
6		name. That's approved by Ivey and Western.
7	88.	Q. Roehampton Capital is a corporation?
8		A. It is.
9	89.	Q. And Roehampton Capital is the owner
10		of 30 Roe Investments Corp.?
11		A. It is.
12	90.	Q. The sole owner?
13		A. I'd have to review that, but it is
14		the owner of 30 Roe.
15	91.	Q. What do you have to review?
16		A. Well, share structures. I don't know
17		off the top of my head different classes of
18		shares, et cetera.
19	92.	Q. Well, are there any other owners of
20		30 Roe Investments besides Roehampton Capital?
21		A. There may be. I'm not sure off the
22		top of my head right now.
23	93.	Q. And who might that be?
24		A. I'd have to review. I don't know.
25	94.	Q. You don't know who the owners of 30

1		Roe Investments Corp. are?
2		A. Well, I'm under oath, so I'm careful
3		to give only answers that I know for certain.
4	95.	Q. And you are the majority shareholder
5		of Roehampton Capital?
6		A. I am.
7	96.	Q. You have, what, 60 percent?
8		A. I'm the majority shareholder. The
9		exact percentage, I don't know right now.
10	97.	Q. Well, is it just over 50? Is it 90?
11		A. It would be over 50 because it's
12		majority.
13	98.	Q. Yes, I understand that, but what
14		percentage of Roehampton Capital do you own?
15		A. I haven't reviewed it in a long time,
16		so I'd have to review it.
17	99.	Q. Approximately what percentage?
18		A. Probably 60.
19	100.	Q. And do you hold that directly or
20		through some other entity?
21		A. I don't recall the exact structure.
22		There are some corporate structures, but I don't
23		recall off the top of my head right now, but at
24		the end of the day, I'm the majority shareholder.
25	101.	Q. And the minority shareholder is whom,

1		your mother?
2		A. Yes.
3	102.	Q. Is s	he the only other shareholder in
4		addition to you?
5		A. Yes.
6	103.	Q. And	how many employees are there at
7		Roehampton Capita	1?
8		A. Well	, including contractors or can
9		you clarify what	you mean by employees?
10	104.	Q. How	many employees are there at
11		Roehampton Capita	1?
12		A. Incl	uding its subsidiaries or just
13		Roehampton Capita	l as a corporate entity?
14	105.	Q. Well	, what subsidiaries does it have?
15		A. I do	n't know the exact number off the
16		top of my head.
17	106.	Q. Appr	oximately.
18		A. It w	ould be under twenty at this
19		point right now.
20	107.	Q. Woul	d it be closer to two or twenty?
21		A. No,	closer to two. Closer, sorry, to
22		twenty.
23	108.	Q. Clos	er to twenty employees at
24		Roehampton?
25		A. Yes.	No, I just sorry, you

1		changed my answer there. I said, including
2		subsidiaries, not just Roehampton as a sole
3		corporate entity.
4	109.	Q. Okay. What other entities are you
5		referring to?
6		A. The areas, interests in various
7		corporations, I don't know off the top of my
8		head. As I said, I'm under oath, so I can only
9		give you answers that I'm certain of right now.
10	110.	Q. What are the subsidiaries of
11		Roehampton Capital?
12		A. Well, as you know, one of them is 30
13		Roe.
14	111.	Q. I know that one. What others?
15		U/A A. I'll take that under advisement and
16		get back to you.
17	112.	Q. Sitting here today, you're not able
18		to say what subsidiaries there are of Roehampton
19		Capital?
20		A. There are various but I'm under oath,
21		and so I take my oath seriously and I can't just
22		blurt out answers. I have to be certain of them.
23	113.	Q. Well, tell me another subsidiary of
24		Roehampton Capital.
25		A. M Suites Inc.

1	114.	Q. Does Roenampton Capital own M Suites
2		Inc. in its entirety?
3		A. Yes.
4	115.	Q. How many employees does M Suites Inc.
5		have?
6		A. I don't know off the top of my head,
7		and the reason is there are different accounting
8		structures. So I wouldn't know sitting here
9		today which employee is paid their payroll
10		from which corporation exactly and which
11		corporation would be deemed their employer, but
12		I've said approximately twenty employees
13		including subsidiaries.
14	116.	Q. Okay. So you seem to know how many
15		employees there are including subsidiaries, so I
16		would have thought you could identify what the
17		subsidiaries are in order to have answered that
18		question. It seems to follow logically.
19		A. Mr. Swan, this isn't an examination
20		for discovery. It's an examination
21		cross-examination on an affidavit and you have
22		yet in the last hour to cross-examine me on my
23		affidavit.
24	117.	Q. Well, the way that it works is it's a
25		cross-examination in respect of a pending motion.

1		I'm not limi	ted to what's in your affidavit, sir.
2		What	other subsidiaries are there of
3		Roehampton C	apital?
4		Α.	Well, your Notice of Examination
5		specifically	said my affidavit.
6	118.	Q.	It refers to your affidavit but the
7		law is that	I can examine you on anything
8		relevant to	the motion.
9		So w	hat are the subsidiaries of Roehampton
10		Capital?
11		Α.	As I said, 30 Roe is one of them. M
12		Suites Inc.	is one of them. Mary-Am Hospitality
13		Corp. is one	of them. Just off the top of my
14		head, those	three.
15	119.	Q.	Mary-Am Hospitality is owned by
16		Roehampton C	apital?
17		Α.	Yes.
18	120.	Q.	A hundred percent owned?
19		Α.	Yes.
20	121.	Q.	M Suites is a hundred percent owned?
21		Α.	I believe so.
22	122.	Q.	Does M Suites have any employees?
23		Α.	You've asked that and I've answered
24		it.
25	123.	Q.	Does M Suites have any employees?

1		A. Asked and answered.
2	124.	Q. What's the answer?
3		A. You can review the transcript.
4	125.	Q. Are you able to name any employees of
5		M Suites?
6		A. No.
7	126.	Q. Are you able to name any employees of
8		Mary-Am Hospitality?
9		A. No.
10	127.	Q. Does it have any employees?
11		A. I don't know.
12	128.	Q. Does 30 Roe have any employees
13		besides you?
14		A. That would be a question for the
15		receiver.
16	129.	Q. To your knowledge, does 30 Roe have
17		any employees besides you?
18		A. I can't answer anything about 30 Roe.
19		It is in receivership. I wouldn't know. Perhaps
20		the receiver has hired an employee or hasn't. I
21		wouldn't know.
22	130.	Q. So you're not in you acknowledge
23		you're not in control of 30 Roe right now. The
24		receiver is?
25		A. No, I am in control to the extent of residual pow	ers that the receiver doesn't have.

131.	Q.	I see.
	Α.	But employees I believe is that aspect is co	nferred upon the receiver, to my knowledge.
132.	Q.	Prior to the receivership, how many employees di	d 30 Roe have?
	Α.	I don't recall.
133.	Q.	Approximately.
	Α.	Mr. Swan, you're referring to events
	approximatel	y two years ago.
134.	Q.	Well, the receivership order was made in May of 20	22. That's eighteen months ago. So
	prior to tha	t, just prior to the receivership
	order, how m	any employees did 30 Roe have?
	Α.	I don't recall.
135.	Q.	Was it closer to two or more than
	that?
	Α.	You have my answer.
136.	Q.	You don't know how many employees 30
	Roe had?
	Α.	I didn't say I don't know. I said,
	"I don't rec	all."
137.	Q.	Approximately how many?
	Α.	So you've asked the question three
	132. 133. 134. 135.	131. Q. A. aspect is concentrated in the concentration of the concentr

1		times.
2	138.	Q. Yes.
3		A. I would suggest that you move on.
4	139.	Q. I'm asking the question because it's
5		a question that you can answer.
6		Approximately how many employees did 30
7		Roe have just before the receivership?
8		A. I don't recall.
9	140.	Q. Does Roehampton Capital have any
10		employees?
11		A. Yes.
12	141.	Q. How many?
13		A. I don't recall how many but it has
14		employees, and I believe, Mr. Swan, I answered
15		this already, when I said close to twenty
16		employees throughout Roehampton including
17		subsidiaries.
18		I would appreciate it if you not ask the
19		same question twice, because if I've already
20		answered it, then you should conceivably move on
21		to the next question.
22	142.	Q. Does Roehampton Capital itself have
23		any employees?
24		A. I believe so. Well, yes, I can say
25		it does because I am an employee. So, yes, it

1		has employees, yes.
2	143.	Q. One, you?
3		A. At least one, yes.
4	144.	Q. Okay. You're aware of a lawsuit in
5		the Ontario Superior Court against you
6		personally, Zar Advisory Corporation and
7		Roehampton Capital commenced by an Alexis Girgis?
8		A. Yes.
9	145.	Q. And
10		A. If you're referring to that lawsuit
11		saying Roehampton has no employees, that has
12		changed.
13	146.	Q. When did that change?
14		A. Recently. I believe a few months
15		ago.
16	147.	Q. What happened a few months ago?
17		A. Tax planning changes. That's why I
18		can tell you with certainty here that I am an
19		employee.
20	148.	Q. So you say that as a result of those
21		tax planning changes, you became an employee?
22		A. Yes, and I know what you're going to
23		say. You're going to say that in that lawsuit we
24		said that Roehampton has no employees. Yes, at
25		that time, but that has changed.

1	149.	Q. So you acknowledge that in the Girgis
2		lawsuit you told Madam Justice Vermette that
3		Roehampton Capital does not have any employees?
4		A. Well, what is the date of that
5		hearing, Mr. Swan?
6	150.	Q. June 20, 2022.
7		A. Yes, at that time, there were no
8		hearings, and actually, I can confirm that it
9		wasn't a few months ago. It was several months
10		back, earlier in twenty twenty I want to say
11		mid-2023 is when I became an employee.
12	151.	Q. Mid-2023?
13		A. Because of tax planning changes,
14		yeah.
15	152.	Q. So when you told Justice Vermette on
16		June 20, 2022 that Roehampton did not have any
17		employees at that time, you say that was true?
18		A. Of course, and I can produce
19		documentation from the CRA to prove it if you'd
20		like. In fact, I insist since you're questioning
21		my credibility. I will produce a document from
22		the CRA showing that when we told the Court that
23		Roehampton did not have employees at the hearing
24		before Justice Vermette, that it was in fact
25		true. So I will produce that for you.

1	153.	Q. Well, I'm not asking for it.
2		A. Well, I'm going to produce it anyway.
3	154.	Q. Well, you can't just randomly produce
4		documents, sir.
5		A. Well, I have a feeling you're going
6		to bring this up, so we may put it in an
7		affidavit.
8	155.	Q. Well, you can't file an affidavit,
9		sir.
10		A. Well, then I'm making it clear for
11		the transcripts that I am willing to produce
12		evidence to show that, at the hearing before
13		Justice Vermette, Roehampton Capital did not have
14		employees.
15	156.	Q. All right. Let's
16		A. And if you are not going to take me
17		up on that offer, then you should not be able to
18		use that against me and I will rely on the
19		transcripts.
20	157.	Q. You know what, I'll take you up on
21		that offer.
22		A. Thank you.
23	158.	Q. Why don't you produce that to me?
24		U/T A. Thank you.
25		MR. SWAN: Let's mark a copy of the

1		decision of Justice Vermette dated June 24, 2022
2		in the matter of Girgis v. Zar et al. as the
3		first exhibit.
4		EXHIBIT NO. 1: Decision of Justice
5		Vermette dated June 24, 2022 in the matter
6		of Girgis v. Zar et al.
7		BY MR. SWAN:
8	159.	Q. And Mr. Girgis sued you and your
9		companies for wrongful dismissal?
10		A. Yes. The allegations are entirely
11		without merit and we have not even entertained a
12		settlement of them. That's why we brought a
13		motion for summary judgment as against Roehampton
14		Capital, but it is entirely without merit and I
15		believe it's been abandoned at this point.
16	160.	Q. He also sued you for sexual
17		harassment?
18		A. Yes.
19	161.	Q. And you brought a motion for summary
20		judgment?
21		A. If you're going to include that
22		document, you should also include our Statement
23		of Defence, which lays out exactly why it's
24		entirely without merit and why it's been
25		abandoned.

1	162.	Q. My question was this, you brought a
2		motion for summary judgment?
3		A. Roehampton Capital did.
4	163.	Q. Roehampton Capital brought a motion
5		for summary judgment?
6		A. Yes.
7	164.	Q. And it failed?
8		A. Well, Mr. Swan, the endorsement is
9		there. I don't recall exactly what occurred. I
10		believe the Court determined that while Justice
11		Koehnen had determined the matter to be fit for
12		partial summary judgment, Justice Vermette
13		decided that oh, I'm sorry, Justice Koehnen
14		determined that the matter was a summary
15		judgment, but Justice Vermette subsequently
16		determined it was a partial summary judgment, and
17		so on that basis she dismissed it. She didn't
18		dismiss it on the merits. She only dismissed
19		it Her Honour dismissed it because Her Honour
20		felt or found that we did not meet the test for
21		partial summary judgment.
22	165.	Q. Listen to my question. Roehampton
23		Capital brought a motion for summary judgment,
24		correct, summary judgment or partial summary
25		iudament?

1		A. I would like to see the endorsement
2		you're examining me on. Thank you.
3		Oh, you were up late, Mr. Swan. 1:42 a.m.
4		this document was printed. You had to stay up
5		until 1:42 to find this? Well, it says:
6		The defendant Roehampton brings a motion
7		for partial summary judgment asking for an
8		order dismissing the action against it.
9		Yes. As I said, we brought the motion for
10		summary judgment but Her Honour at the morning of
11		the hearing determined that it's a partial
12		summary judgment, and it was not dismissed on the
13		merits. It was dismissed solely on not meeting
14		the test for partial summary judgment. There was
15		no finding on the merits and this litigation has
16		been abandoned.
17	166.	Q. You acknowledge that the motion was
18		dismissed?
19		A. On procedural grounds, and if you
20		read the costs endorsement, you will see that Her
21		Honour reduced costs because the only reason it
22		was dismissed was assistance offered by the
23		judge, not by the lawyer in dismissing it on the
24		basis that it was a partial summary judgment.
25		There was no finding on the merits.

1	167.	Q. Just answer my question, sir.
2		Paragraph 44 says, Accordingly, Roehampton's
3		motion is dismissed.
4		Do you acknowledge that's what the judge's
5		order was?
6		A. That is what it says, yes.
7	168.	Q. And costs were awarded against
8		Roehampton Capital of $10,000?
9		A. I believe so.
10	169.	Q. And there was no appeal taken from
11		this decision?
12		A. We attempted to appeal. Blaneys
13		prepared the appeal materials and at the last
14		moment found that they made a mistake, that it
15		wasn't appealable to the Court of Appeal. They
16		had to seek leave, and by that point, we it
17		was too late, I believe, so we didn't. We
18		weren't able to seek leave, but there were
19		subsequent Court of Appeal decisions regarding
20		partial summary judgment, a case in Express
21		Ventures.
22	170.	Q. I don't need to know that.
23		A. And it actually changed the it
24		clarified the law. This would have, if it was
25		brought today, it would have met the test for

1		summary judgment.
2	171.	Q. All right. You did not seek leave to
3		appeal from Justice Vermette's decision, did you?
4		A. No.
5	172.	Q. Do you recall swearing an affidavit
6		in this proceeding on May the 5th, 2022?
7		A. No. Our affidavit is November 7th,
8		2023. This affidavit isn't being relied on on
9		the upcoming motion.
10	173.	Q. That's not my question. Did you
11		swear this affidavit on May the 5th, 2022?
12		A. I'm not going to be answering any
13		questions on anything other than the affidavit
14		being relied on in our Notice of Motion.
15	174.	Q. Well, you're not entitled to do that,
16		sir. This is an affidavit that you've sworn in
17		this very proceeding.
18		A. Well, on that basis then, we could
19		examine Mr. Pollack on his previous affidavits,
20		couldn't we?
21	175.	Q. Did you swear an affidavit on May the
22		5th, 2022? It's in the court file, sir. Did you
23		swear an affidavit on May 5, 2022?
24		A. I did.
25	176.	Q. And in that affidavit did you say at

1		paragraph 3,	At this time, which presumably was
2		May 5, 2022,	Roehampton Capital and its
3		subsidiaries	, including the Respondent, that's 30
4		Roe, employed	d 25 employees and assorted
5		independent o	contractors?
6		Α.	Yes.
7	177.	Q.	And who were those 25 employees?
8		Α.	I don't recall.
9	178.	Q.	Can you name any of them?
10		A.	I don't recall.
11	179.	Q.	You can't name a single one of them?
12		Α.	BDO. BDO is one of our contractors.
13	180.	Q.	BDO the accounting firm?
14		Α.	BDO Canada LLP, yes.
15	181.	Q.	My question was, can you name any
16		employees?
17		Α.	I don't recall exactly who was
18		employed on	that date, so I can't give you an
19		answer unless	s I'm certain.
20	182.	Q.	Can you name any employees as at May
21		5, 2022?
22		A.	I don't recall exactly who was
23		employed by m	which company on a specific date.
24		You're talkin	ng about events 18 months ago.
25	183.	Q.	You can't name a single of the 25

1		employees from 18 months ago. Is that your
2		evidence?
3		A. Well, the paragraph specifically
4		says, "and subsidiaries". Some subsidiaries have
5		high turnover. I know from signing various
6		year-end documents, that sometimes there's, you
7		know, 50 or 60 T4s issued because of turnover.
8		So I can't just start blurting out names.
9	184.	Q. Can you name a single employee of
10		Roehampton Capital or its subsidiaries from in or
11		about May of 2022?
12		A. Sure. Some of the long tenure
13		ones can I look at my phone?
14	185.	Q. Sure.
15		A. I just want to give you the correct
16		spelling. So Jay Joung has been employed for
17		many, many years.
18	186.	Q. Employed by whom?
19		A. One of the subsidiaries. I don't
20		know which one.
21	187.	Q. Which one?
22		A. I don't recall off the top of my head
23		at this examination which subsidiary accounting
24		allocates it to. I don't know.
25	188.	Q. Any other of the 25 employees that

1		you can name?
2		A. I can't because this is as of a
3		certain date. So I would be guessing, and I'm
4		under oath and I take my oath seriously. I can't
5		just blurt out answers, Mr. Swan. I can take it
6		under advisement and get back to you.
7	189.	Q. You refer to no, I want you to
8		tell me right now.
9		A. Well, I'm not prepared to right now
10		because I don't know right now.
11	190.	Q. I see. You refer in your CV to a
12		PROFIT 500 award?
13		A. Yes.
14	191.	Q. What was that?
15		A. At the time, I don't know if it's
16		still active, but it was Canada Business Magazine
17		or Canadian Business Magazine and they had a
18		program called the PROFIT 500. I think now they
19		call it the Growth 500. They named it a few
20		years ago. It ranks Canada's fastest growing
21		companies.
22	192.	Q. I see. So this wasn't something that
23		you won. It was a company?
24		A. No, it was I have the plaque. It
25		says my name on it.

1	193.	Q.	What company was one of the fastest
2		growing?
3		Α.	This was back in 2014, I believe.
4	194.	Q.	What company was it?
5		Α.	At the time it was the Mary-Am Group
6		of Companies
7	195.	Q.	Which?
8		Α.	Mary-Am Group of Companies.
9	196.	Q.	Mary-Am is your mother?
10		Α.	No, it's with a hyphen. It's sort of
11		a play on the	e name but
12	197.	Q.	What's your mother's name?
13		A.	M-A-R-Y-A-M. The Mary-Am Group of
14		Companies is	M-A-R-Y, hyphen, A-M. So it's a
15		play on the	name.
16	198.	Q.	Were you not working at Skyline in
17		2014?
18		A.	That's when I left and I went to
19		Skyline. So	the award, I believe we applied for
20		it in probab	ly 2013. So it was awarded probably
21		in spring of	2014 and shortly thereafter, I went
22		to Skyline.
23	199.	Q.	Let's have a look at your
24		November 7th	affidavit for a moment. Can you
25		turn to para	graph 238?

1		A. Yes.
2	200.	Q. And at paragraph 238 you refer to a
3		case conference before Justice Cavanagh?
4		A. Yes.
5	201.	Q. And at paragraph 241 you quote
6		something that I said at the case conference, and
7		then at paragraph 244 you quote at some length
8		from something that I said at the case
9		conference. Do you see that?
10		A. Yes.
11	202.	Q. And are you sure that's accurate?
12		Have you quoted it accurately?
13		A. If it's in my affidavit, it's
14		accurate.
15	203.	Q. And it's quoted because you recorded
16		that attendance?
17		A. It's from my notes that were made in
18		accordance with the Civil Practice Direction,
19		which allows self-represented parties,
20		journalists and I believe a few other categories
21		to supplement their notes with recordings solely
22		for the purposes of their notes. I can cite the
23		exact section of the practice direction if you
24		like.
25	204.	Q. Just to be clear, you recorded this

1		attendance, did you?
2		A. No. I took notes to supplement my
3		notes. Audio was recorded to supplement my notes
4		in accordance with the practice direction.
5	205.	Q. So you made an audio recording of
6		this attendance?
7		A. The Toronto Practice Direction
8		specifically permits self-represented parties,
9		journalists and I believe a few other categories
10		to supplement their notes with audio recordings.
11		I followed the practice direction.
12	206.	Q. Did you record this attendance?
13		A. I don't want to use the word "record"
14		because I've already said that to supplement my
15		notes I recorded the hearing, but I'm not going
16		to say I just recorded it, because that's not
17		what happened. I supplemented my notes.
18	207.	Q. I just want to be clear. You did
19		record this hearing on May the 8th, 2022?
20		A. To supplement my notes in accordance
21		with the practice direction.
22	208.	Q. But I need a clear answer from you.
23		A. That's the answer I'm going to give.
24	209.	Q. Did you record the attendance before
25		Justice Cavanagh on March 8, 2022?

1		A. Would you like me to cite the
2		practice direction?
3	210.	Q. No, I want you to answer the
4		question. Did you record the attendance before
5		Justice Cavanagh on March 8, 2022?
6		A. Paragraph 100(v), V as in Victor, of
7		the practice direction specifically says so
8		it's paragraph 100(v), and it says:
9		Unless the presiding judge orders
LO		otherwise, the use of electronic devices
L1		in silent mode in a discrete and an
L2		unobstructive manner is permitted in the
L3		courtroom by counsel, paralegals, law
L 4		students, self-represented parties and
L5		media or journalists.
L 6		And then it says under in subsection V:
L7		Only counsel, self-represented parties,
L8		the media and journalists are permitted to
L 9		use electronic devices to make an audio
20		recording of the proceeding and only for
21		the purpose of note-taking.
22		That's what the practice direction said,
23		and so a recording was made pursuant to paragraph
24		100(v) of the practice direction to supplement my
25		notes.

1	211.	Q. So you did make an audio recording?
2		A. For the purposes of note-taking, and
3		it was the notes that were used to draft this
4		affidavit.
5	212.	Q. Do you still have that audio
6		recording?
7		A. After my notes were completed, I
8		discarded the audio recording.
9	213.	Q. When were your notes completed?
10		A. I don't recall exactly. It would
11		have been probably shortly after. I usually try
12		to finish my notes shortly after events.
13	214.	Q. And are your notes verbatim notes or
14		summary notes?
15		A. It would have been summary at the
16		hearing and then they would have been verbatim
17		afterwards, which is what's stated in my
18		affidavit.
19	215.	Q. And then there was an attendance
20		before Justice Penny?
21		A. It's on page 100. It starts from
22		page 100.
23	216.	Q. Yes. On April the 11th, 2022, did
24		you record that attendance?
25		A. Well, Mr. Swan, that's an in-camera

1		hearing, and so I don't know if it would be
2		appropriate to answer questions about it on this
3		cross-examination.
4	217.	Q. I'm not asking about the substance of
5		the attendance. Did you record the attendance
6		before Justice Penny on April the 11th, 2022?
7		A. Sorry, where is this in the
8		affidavit? Page 150?
9	218.	Q. It's page 104
10		A. Oh.
11	219.	Q beginning at 264.
12		A. I don't recall. I don't believe so,
13		but I'm not certain. So I don't recall.
14	220.	Q. So you may have recorded the
15		April 11th hearing. You're not certain?
16		A. I don't believe I recorded it because
17		it was an in-camera hearing.
18	221.	Q. It was only partially in camera.
19		A. Well, I believe there was a court
20		reporter, so if the transcripts of that hearing
21		are needed, it's readily available.
22	222.	Q. I'm not asking for the transcript of
23		the hearing. I'm simply asking if you recorded
24		the hearing.
25		A. It was a long time ago, but I don't

1		believe I did because it was in camera.
2	223.	Q. So you may have but you think you
3		probably didn't. Is that right?
4		A. My answer is going to be that I don't
5		know. As I said, I'm under oath. I can only
6		give you answers that I'm certain of.
7	224.	Q. Sir, you do record all business
8		telephone calls, don't you?
9		R/F A. I'm going to refuse that question.
10	225.	Q. Why is that?
11		A. I'm refusing the question. I'm not
12		going to provide an explanation.
13	226.	Q. Do you record all of your calls?
14		A. Asked and answer.
15	227.	Q. Well, asked and not answered. Do you
16		record all of your calls?
17		A. You have my refusal.
18	228.	Q. Sir, I'm showing you an e-mail
19		exchange that you had with Jon Love on March the
20		3rd, 2022 and in it you say:
21		It gets worst. Sean forwarded the e-mail
22		to my lawyer putting my lawyer in a
23		terrible position since they both know I
24		record all calls.
25		A. Which exhibit is that in whichever

1		affidavit yo	ou're citing?
2	229.	Q.	It's not an exhibit, sir.
3		A.	If it's not an exhibit to an
4		affidavit, I	can't comment on it. It's not
5		properly
6	230.	Q.	It is if I ask you if you sent the
7		e-mail.
8		A.	All right. Would you like to
9		designate it	as an exhibit?
10	231.	Q.	Did you send the e-mail, sir?
11		A.	Once you designate it as an exhibit.
12	232.	Q.	Did you send the e-mail, sir?
13		A.	I will answer questions on documents
14		you enter as	s an exhibit.
15	233.	Q.	You're not entitled to do that, sir.
16		Did you send	d this e-mail?
17		A.	Well, this e-mail in particular is in
18		my affidavit	c, Mr. Swan.
19	234.	Q.	All right.
20		A.	So why are you producing it in this
21		way?
22	235.	Q.	So did you say
23		A.	Well, the problem is I don't know if
24		this printou	at is accurate. It's not in an
25		affidavit.

1	236.	Q. Is it in your affidavit?
2		A. It is. Let's go based on my
3		affidavit.
4	237.	Q. Turn it up.
5		A. So I'm going to give this back to
6		you.
7	238.	Q. Thank you.
8		A. And we can talk about what's in my
9		affidavit, because I don't know what that
10		document it could be altered. It could be
11		outdated. There's so many variables.
12	239.	Q. Are you suggesting I've altered
13		documents, sir?
14		A. No, I'm saying sometimes when things
15		are printed, formatting changes, paragraphs go
16		missing. It's best that it's in an affidavit,
17		and if that's already in an affidavit, then just
18		ask me the question based on what's in my
19		affidavit. I believe it would be at yes, it's
20		on page 89 of my affidavit, so paragraph 237.
21	240.	Q. All right. Well, that simplifies
22		your objection, doesn't it, because it's in your
23		very affidavit? So did
24		A. I pointed that out to you, sir.
25	241.	Q. Did you say in this e-mail that you

1		record all calls?
2		A. Well, yes, because Mr. Rosenberg was
3		actually in the middle of listening to a recorded
4		call between me and KingSett at the time this
5		inexperienced KingSett employee forwarded the
6		e-mail to Sean Zweig.
7	242.	Q. So just to be clear, since you
8		answered something slightly different, do you
9		acknowledge that you said in this e-mail to Jon
10		Love of KingSett on March 3rd, 2022, I record all
11		my calls? Did you say that?
12		A. That's what the e-mail says.
13	243.	Q. And is it true?
14		R/F A. I am not going to answer that
15		question. So refused.
16	244.	Q. Why is that?
17		A. You have my refusal.
18	245.	Q. Yes. What's the reason for your
19		refusal, sir?
20		A. I don't need to give you a reason,
21		sir. It's refused.
22	246.	Q. You're refusing to acknowledge
23		something that you wrote in an e-mail and put in
24		your own affidavit. Do I have that clear?
25		A. You have my refusal to your question.

1	247.		Q.	And you're refusing to give a reason
2		for the	refus	sal?
3			Α.	You have my refusal to your question.
4	248.		Q.	I'm asking you a subsequent question.
5		Are you	refus	sing to give a reason for your
6		refusal	?
7		R/F	Α.	I will not be providing reasons for
8		any ref	usals	. If I refuse a question, you should
9		note it	and r	move on.
10	249.		Q.	Well, I will do what is appropriate,
11		sir.
12			You a	attended before Justice McEwen on the
13		18th of	July	, 2022.
14			Α.	I believe we had counsel at that
15		hearing
16	250.		Q.	This is the initial sales process
17		approva	l ord	er.
18			Α.	Yes.
19	251.		Q.	Was that in person or by Zoom?
20			Α.	I believe it was via Zoom.
21	252.		Q.	Yes. And did you record this
22		attenda	nce?
23			Α.	No.
24	253.		Q.	You did not record this attendance?
25			Α.	I did not.

1	254.	Q. Why not?
2		A. We were represented by counsel.
3	255.	Q. There was another attendance before
4		Justice McEwen on December the 14th, 2022. Do
5		you recall that? This is for, among other
6		things, amendments to the sales process order.
7		A. I don't recall the exact date. I
8		recall there was some motion for an amended sales
9		process sometime in December.
10	256.	Q. I'm going to show you the order.
11		A. Well, it says the order is dated
12		December 14th, 2022.
13	257.	Q. So do you acknowledge that you
14		attended before Justice McEwen on December 14,
15		2022?
16		A. I don't know if it was December 14th,
17		but it was at whatever hearing it was to discuss
18		this, because the date of the order may not
19		necessarily be the date of the hearing.
20	258.	Q. Can I show you the counsel slip, sir?
21		A. Yes. Yes, it says, December 14th,
22		2022. So, yes, you're correct.
23	259.	Q. And you attended on that?
24		A. I did.
25	260.	Q. Personally? You were not represented

1		by counsel?
2		A. I attended self-represented, yes.
3	261.	Q. And
4		A. And, Mr. Swan, when do you think we
5		can take a washroom break?
6	262.	Q. We can take one in about
7		two minutes
8		A. Okay.
9	263.	Q if that's all right with you?
10		A. Yeah.
11	264.	Q. On December the 14th attendance, that
12		was by Zoom; right?
13		A. I believe so, yes. Yes, it was by
14		Zoom.
15	265.	Q. And during that hearing, you had told
16		the judge that you planned to hold a press
17		conference to broadcast the hearing. Do you
18		remember that?
19		A. I did not say that.
20	266.	Q. What did you say?
21		A. That hearing was held shortly after I
22		found evidence of KingSett's involvement in 935
23		Queen Street West. I was very, very angry, upset
24		and, you know, the first opportunity to air that
25		frustration was unfortunately before Justice

1		McEwen or former Justice McEwen, and certain
2		things were said and I regret the tone. I
3		certainly didn't mean any disrespect to the
4		Court, but it was all as a result of the
5		discovery of KingSett's role in 935 Queen Street
6		West.
7		I do recall there was talk about going
8		public, but that was not in respect of anything
9		other than the misconduct of KingSett.
10	267.	Q. Talk by you? You said there was talk
11		of going public. Was the talk
12		A. Yes.
13	268.	Q talk by you?
14		A. Yes.
15	269.	Q. Carry on.
16		A. But the term, and I believe you're
17		referring to the endorsement that says something
18		to the effect of hold a press conference. I
19		think if the transcripts of that hearing are
20		reviewed, and I believe there was a court
21		reporter oh, no, and in fact, the Court did
22		record that hearing. So it is recorded. It will
23		show that that's not what I said.
24	270.	Q. What did you say?
25		A. I don't recall the exact words, but

1 it was -- I remember at the very beginning I 2 specifically said, you know, good morning, I'm not here to talk about 935 Queen Street West, and 3 I said that because of an e-mail exchange I had 5 with Sean Zweig the night before where I revealed 6 to them that -- I'm not going to use the 7 expletive word, but that they are all -- to the effect of the games are over, I found the 8 9 evidence; and because the hearing was the next 10 day, I think that hearing became an outlet for 11 my, by then I believe fourteen, sixteen months of 12 frustration with everything that KingSett had 13 done to me, to my business, to my family, since effectively January 2022. 14 271. Q. Did you say at the hearing on 15 16 December 14, 2022 that you were going to hold a 17 press conference? 18 I may have used that term but it was 19 in reference to KingSett's wrongdoing. You see, 20 my audience at that hearing was KingSett. It 21 wasn't Justice McEwen and I, you know, I regret

having allowed my emotions to get into the way

Court at that hearing, but it was all directed to and I certainly regret any disrespect to the

1		My audience was KingSett. It was Scott
2		Coates and Rob Kumer watching the hearing on
3		Zoom. That was my audience. Unfortunately
4		Justice McEwen was on the receiving end of it and
5		I deeply regret that.
6	272.	Q. And did you say that you were going
7		to broadcast the hearing?
8		A. No, I didn't say that and I think the
9		transcripts will show
L 0	273.	Q. What did you say in that respect?
L1		A. I spoke of a press conference in
L2		relation to KingSett's misconduct, which is
L3		outlined in detail in my affidavit sworn
L 4		November 7th, 2023.
L5	274.	Q. Justice McEwen released an
L 6		endorsement that very day in which he said at the
L7		conclusion of his submissions, he, referring to
L8		Mr. Zar, stated that he planned to, quote, hold a
L 9		press conference, closed quote, and planned to,
20		quote, broadcast, closed quote, this hearing.
21		Do you say that Justice McEwen has it
22		wrong in his endorsement that he wrote that very
23		day?
24		A. I think the transcript of the hearing
25		shows what was said and what happened, and I

1 believe you are aware that the Chief Justice's 2 Office was contacted in relation to that hearing, and on the same day, actually a week later, when 3 the Chief Justice's Office concluded its review, Justice McEwen issued a supplementary endorsement 5 6 wherein His Honour retracted approval of the 7 receiver's reports and activities and directed a subsequent hearing into them so that they could 8 receive a proper hearing. 9 275. Well, that's not what happened at 10 0. 11 all, sir. It is if you would review the 12 13 supplementary --14 276. Q. At no point did Justice McEwen retract the endorsement that I'm reading from. 15 16 Α. May I see the endorsement? 277. 17 All that he did was indicate that the Q. 18 receiver's supplementary report would have to be 19 approved at a subsequent attendance. 20 May I see the original endorsement? 21 because it deals with everything and then there's 22 a subsequent endorsement that says, no, the 2.3 receiver's report isn't approved and that's going 24 to have to be dealt with at another hearing, and 25 that was after I had complained to the Chief

1		Justice's Office in relation to that hearing.
2	278.	Q. And, sir, you've referred several
3		times to the transcript of this hearing. Do you
4		have a copy of the transcript?
5		A. The Court has a copy of it. It was
6		recorded.
7	279.	Q. Do you have a copy?
8		A. I don't have a transcript of the
9		hearing. I can certainly request one and it will
10		show what was said.
11	280.	Q. Well, you said several times the
12		transcript would show what happened, but you now
13		say you don't actually have the transcript?
14		A. Well, I believe that the transcript
15		will show what happened because I know what
16		happened.
17	281.	Q. Do you have a copy of the transcript?
18		A. At this moment, no.
19	282.	Q. Did you ever have it?
20		A. No. I haven't requested it.
21	283.	Q. So you've never read the court
22		reporter's transcript of the hearing?
23		A. I read my notes.
24	284.	Q. Why don't you answer my question?
25		Have you ever read the court reporter's

Τ		transcript of the hearing?
2		A. I have not.
3	285.	Q. And what was it that you were going
4		to broadcast?
5		A. KingSett's misconduct as outlined in
6		my November 7, 2022 (sic) affidavit.
7	286.	Q. And justice you acknowledge that
8		Justice McEwen specifically asked you if you had
9		recorded the hearing?
10		A. I recall certain questions were asked
11		and I advised His Honour that I would not be
12		answering those questions.
13	287.	Q. You refused to answer whether you had
14		recorded the hearing?
15		A. Mr. Swan, the conduct of that hearing
16		was reported to the Chief Justice's Office and
17		former Justice McEwen issued a supplementary
18		endorsement.
19	288.	Q. Okay. We'll come to that since
20		you're quite insistent, but unfortunately you're
21		wrong about what it says, but that doesn't answer
22		my question.
23		Did you refuse to answer Justice McEwen's
24		question whether you recorded the hearing?
25		A. I don't recall. That's why at the

1		onset of this questioning, I said that the
2		transcripts show what happened and why. There's
3		no point of my opining on what happened and why.
4		The transcripts will show what happened and why.
5	289.	Q. I just want to be perfectly clear
6		about this because this is an important point.
7		Did you refuse to answer Justice McEwen's
8		question whether you recorded the hearing?
9		A. I don't recall.
10	290.	Q. Justice McEwen in his endorsement
11		written on that day said the following:
12		When I asked Mr. Zar if he recorded the
13		hearing, he refused to answer.
14		Is that an accurate statement?
15		A. I would have to review the
16		transcripts of the hearing and get back to you.
17		I can undertake to do that if you wish.
18	291.	Q. Do you have the transcripts of the
19		hearing?
20		A. I can request it of the Court. It
21		was recorded.
22	292.	Q. Do you have them now?
23		A. I don't have them but I can request
24		them.
25	293.	Q. Well, do you believe that Justice

1		McEwen has it wrong?
2		A. Counsel, you said fifteen minutes ago
3		or ten minutes ago that we'd have a washroom
4		break. I'm now at the point where
5		MR. SWAN: All right. Let's have a
6		washroom break for ten minutes.
7		Break commencing 12:32 p.m.
8		Upon resuming 12:48 p.m.
9		BY MR. SWAN:
10	294.	Q. Mr. Zar, on the 14th of December,
11		2022, Justice McEwen released an endorsement in
12		which he says that when he asked you if you
13		recorded the hearing, you refused to answer. Is
14		that true, that he asked you if you recorded the
15		hearing and you refused to answer?
16		A. I believe you asked me about this,
17		Mr. Swan, before the break. I would need to see
18		the transcripts in order to answer any questions
19		about what was said or what happened at a hearing
20		almost a year ago.
21	295.	Q. It's a pretty memorable event, that a
22		judge asked you if you had recorded a hearing.
23		Do you not remember that?
24		A. I don't. I mean, perhaps in a casual
25		conversation I could answer that, but I am under

1		oath and I take my oath very seriously. So I
2		need to make sure that what I'm telling you is a
3		hundred percent accurate.
4	296.	Q. And you refused to answer his
5		question, didn't you?
6		A. I don't recall. As I said, I need to
7		see the transcripts to answer any questions about
8		what was said at that hearing.
9	297.	Q. Sir, you're under oath here. Did you
10		record the hearing on December 14, 2022?
11		A. Well, I was self-represented at that
12		hearing, so I may have recorded it. I don't
13		recall for certain. I do know that the Court did
14		record it.
15	298.	Q. My question is, did you record it?
16		A. I don't recall.
17	299.	Q. You may have?
18		A. I may have, yes, in accordance with
19		the practice direction.
20	300.	Q. And have you gone back and listened
21		to or watched the recording?
22		A. Well, I disagree with the premise of
23		your question because I just told you that I
24		don't know if I did for certain.
25	301.	Q. Well, then you can answer whether you

1		did or you didn't. You can answer this question
2		to the best of your ability. Have you if such
3		a recording exists, have you subsequent to that
4		day listened to that recording?
5		A. I haven't listened to any recording
6		of that hearing recently if one exists, which, as
7		I said, I don't know if one does or not.
8	302.	Q. After beginning on December 15th,
9		2022 and thereafter, have you listened to that
10		recording if it exists?
11		A. I don't recall.
12	303.	Q. You don't recall one way or the other
13		whether you listened to it?
14		A. I just answered that.
15	304.	Q. No, you haven't. You don't recall
16		one way or the other whether you listened to that
17		recording if it exists?
18		A. That's what I said, yes.
19	305.	Q. And if you recorded it, did you
20		record it using the feature on Zoom?
21		A. No. That wouldn't be permitted by
22		the practice direction. If I recorded it, it
23		would have been solely in compliance with the
24		practice direction, and so it would be an audio
25		recording to supplement my notes.

1	306.	Q. And do you still have an audio
2		recording?
3		A. Well, Mr. Swan, this is the third
4		time you're sort of circling around to ask the
5		same question. As I said the first time you
6		asked, I don't recall if I recorded it or not.
7	307.	Q. Sir, a judge is going to read this
8		transcript and I just want to be absolutely clear
9		that you have a full opportunity to give the
10		answer that you want to give, and I'm going to
11		put it to you square up, sir. Did you record the
12		hearing on December 14, 2022, yes or no?
13		A. I did not record it because Justice
14		McEwen, I believe, ordered me not to record it,
15		so I did not record it.
16	308.	Q. No, he didn't do that. He recorded
17		(sic) you
18		A. That's my recollection.
19	309.	Q to destroy any recording that you
20		had.
21		A. Yes, and in doing so, I would
22		interpret that as being the same as not allowing
23		a recording, and so, no, I did not record it.
24	310.	Q. So your evidence now is that you did
25		not record it?

1		A. Well, you're giving me time to refer
2		to my memory about the matter and I do recall
3		that His Honour at the hearing, I did seek
4		permission to record and His Honour didn't grant
5		permission, so I did not record.
6	311.	Q. Well, this was partway into the
7		hearing. At the beginning of hearing, did you
8		start recording?
9		A. No. I would have recorded after
LO		seeking permission, but His Honour didn't grant
L1		permission and so I did not record.
L2	312.	Q. Well, on no other occasion when you
L3		were at a court attendance, including ones that
L 4		you may have recorded, did you ever seek
L 5		permission?
L 6		A. Exactly, and the direction practice
L 7		says unless a judge orders otherwise, and Justice
L 8		McEwen I interpreted it as ordering me not to
L 9		record it because I sought permission and His
20		Honour did not grant permission, and so I did not
21		record the December 14, 2022 hearing before
22		Justice McEwen.
23	313.	Q. Did you ask Justice McEwen to recuse
24		himself?
25		A. I believe so, yes.

1 314. Q. And why did you do that?

2 A. I don't recall the particular circumstances, but as I said before the break, 3 the days leading to the hearing before Justice 4 5 McEwen and especially the 24 hours prior to it were a very traumatic time because of the 6 7 receiver's misconduct regarding the police incident, because of my discovery of evidence of 8 KingSett's direct role in 935 Queen Street West, 9 10 all of those factors really put me in a state 11 where when I was at that hearing, I think I just 12 channelled all of that built-up negative energy 13 to that hearing and unfortunately, Justice McEwen 14 was at the receiving end of it and I regret that, 15 and I felt at the hearing that I was not being 16 heard, whether right or wrong, and I did, as I 17 said and as you know, I did write to the Chief 18 Justice's Office, and one week after the 19 conclusion of the Chief Justice's review of my 20 complaint, Justice McEwen issued a supplementary 21 endorsement wherein His Honour addressed some of 22 my grievances.

315. Q. Well, we're going to look at that in a moment, because that's not what happened, sir, but let's come back to my question. You

1		acknowledge that you did ask Justice McEwen to
2		recuse himself, right, on December 14, 2022?
3		A. I believe so, yes.
4	316.	Q. You're not certain?
5		A. I'm quite certain, but if I would see
6		the endorsement, I could tell you that I'm
7		certain. I'm quite certain without having read
8		the endorsement in a very long time.
9	317.	Q. And the reason for your request for
10		the recusal was what?
11		A. I don't recall the exact reason, but
12		as I said, and I won't repeat, it was a
13		culmination of events that had occurred in the
14		previous days and week, weeks, and I've outlined
15		some of the reasons I believe in my letter to the
16		Chief Justice's Office.
17		I believe it had to do with simply not
18		being given the opportunity to be heard, and as I
19		said, Justice McEwen did, subsequent to the
20		complaint to the Chief Justice's Office, address
21		those grievances and issued a supplementary
22		endorsement, which I was pleased about.
23	318.	Q. Well, we'll come to that in a moment
24		because that's not what happened, but
25		A. Well, that's my evidence, sir.

1	319.	Q. I just want to be clear. Did you ask
2		Justice McEwen to recuse himself because he
3		wouldn't let you record the hearing or because he
4		wouldn't allow you to be heard?
5		A. I don't recall exactly, but as I
6		said, the transcript of the hearing will show
7		exactly what was said.
8	320.	Q. You're not able to say why you asked
9		him to recuse?
10		A. It was almost a year ago, sir. I
11		don't recall every detail. There's been a lot of
12		hearings in this matter and that endorsement I
13		haven't read in a very long time.
14	321.	Q. Did you write to the Chief Justice of
15		the Superior Court?
16		A. No. I wrote to the counsel, special
17		counsel or counsel to the Chief Justice. I
18		forget his name, but he's the individual
19		designated as the person that you would need to
20		write to. I would never write directly to the
21		Chief Justice without going through the proper
22		channels.
23	322.	Q. That was Mr. Patlik that you wrote
24		to?
25		A. Yes. Yes, it was.

323.	Q. And in your e-mail you say:
	We understand you are counsel in the Office of the Chief Justice of the SCJ.
	Please bring this email to the attention of Chief Justice Morawetz. Roehampton is troubled by the comments Justice McEwen made at the hearing this morning and the refusal to recuse himself after ruling against Roehampton's request for permission to record the Zoom hearing.
	Did you write those words?
	A. May I see the e-mail that you are referencing?
324.	Q. You may.
	A. I note this e-mail was copied to the Service List, so you had a copy of it.
325.	Q. So what?
	A. No, I just want for the record that you did have a copy of this e-mail
326.	Q. So did you write that in the e-mail, that the reason you wanted him to recuse himself
	was because he refused to allow you to record?
	A. No. It says:
	Roehampton is troubled by the comments
	Justice McEwen made at the hearing this
	324. 325.

1		morning and the refusal to recuse himself.
2		So it's more to do with some of the
3		comments that were made.
4	327.	Q. I see. Can I have that back?
5		A. Yes. I'm just reading. Well, I also
6		note there was a we view it as a you know,
7		subsequent to that hearing, there was direction
8		from the staff at the Ministry of Justice to
9		that they are no longer dealing with the matter
10		and that we need to communicate directly with
11		Justice McEwen's assistant, and we felt that in
12		the circumstances, that wasn't the best process
13		and again, this was all brought to the Chief
14		Justice's Office, and I understand Justice McEwen
15		wasn't assigned to sit on these matters after
16		December 14th.
17	328.	Q. How do you understand that?
18		A. That is my understanding.
19	329.	Q. No, how do you understand that? You
20		just made that up, sir.
21		A. Well, there hasn't been any hearing
22		with Justice McEwen being assigned to hear it.
23	330.	Q. Do you have any evidence that Justice
24		McEwen was no longer that there was a
25		direction that he no longer be assigned to this

1		case?
2		A. That is my understanding.
3	331.	Q. Based on what?
4		A. That's my understanding.
5	332.	Q. Based on what?
6		A. Justice McEwen is no longer a judge
7		of the Court. There's no point of rehashing the
8		past. I think we should leave it at that.
9	333.	Q. This is all about the past, sir. So
10		you have no evidence that anyone directed that
11		Justice McEwen was not to sit on this case?
12		A. That was our request of the Chief
13		Justice. I believe they reviewed the video of
14		the hearing and our request was implemented
15		because Justice McEwen did not sit on any of the
16		hearings after that date.
17		So other than that, I'm not privy to the
18		inner workings or communications of the Court and
19		I don't think it matters because we made a
20		request and the request was implemented. Whether
21		directly or indirectly, that's up to the Court.
22	334.	Q. So the answer is you don't know, and
23		you asked for a Zoom copy of the hearing, did
24		you?
25		A. In that e-mail I did, yes.

1	335.	Q. And did you get one?
2		A. The request for it was to be able to
3		substantiate some of the relief we were seeking
4		in terms of Justice McEwen not sitting on the
5		hearing and that relief was granted, so we didn't
6		follow up after that.
7	336.	Q. Sorry. Again, you've said the relief
8		was granted. We've just been over this. You
9		actually have no idea what happened there, but
L 0		you didn't answer my question. You seem to
L1		prefer to answer questions other than those that
L2		are asked. So let me come back to the question.
L3		You asked for a copy of the Zoom
L 4		recording. Did you get it?
L5		A. In response to a request for the Zoom
L 6		hearing, which is the e-mail that's in front of
L7		you that you're citing, the Court and Justice
L 8		McEwen you see, Mr. Swan, I don't think it is
L 9		appropriate to drag judges, especially a judge of
20		the Superior Court that is recently retired, into
21		this matter. It really has no relevance. It's
22		been dealt with. The record is there. I think
23		it's time to move on.
24	337.	Q. This is the judge who you asked to
25		recuse himself, right?

1		A. I've already said that.
2	338.	Q. And the judge that you made a
3		complaint about to the Chief Justice?
4		A. I wouldn't characterize it as a
5		complaint. It was dealt with by the Office of
6		the Chief Justice.
7	339.	Q. All right. Do you remember my
8		question?
9		A. If you could repeat it?
10	340.	Q. If you don't remember what my
11		question was, what question did you think you
12		were answering?
13		A. Well, you just asked a series of sub-
14		questions there that I answered.
15	341.	Q. In your e-mail you say:
16		Roehampton now requests an immediate copy
17		of the Zoom recording so it can review it
18		with counsel and the authorities
19		investigating related matters before it
20		responds further.
21		Did you write that?
22		A. Yes.
23	342.	Q. So a number of questions. Did you
24		get a copy of the Zoom hearing?
25		A. I did not.

1	343.	Q. What authorities were investigating
2		this matter?
3		A. You have to understand that at that
4		time I
5	344.	Q. What authorities were investigating
6		the matter?
7		A. Sir
8	345.	Q. I don't need a speech. I need an
9		answer to my question.
10		A. If you're not going to let me give an
11		answer, I won't speak, but if I'm giving an
12		answer, you're going to have to listen to my
13		complete answer. So it's your choice.
14	346.	Q. What authorities were investigating
15		the matter?
16		A. You're taking that out of context.
1,7	347.	Q. Okay.
18		A. So I cannot answer a snippet from an
19		e-mail. There's context there that's important,
20		and you're also citing a judge, so we need to be
21		more considerate out of respect for the Court and
22		not create snippets like that that are out of
23		context.
24	348.	Q. I'm not citing the judge, sir. I'm
25		reading from your own e-mail to Mr. Patlik. So

1		what authority answer however you want as long
2		as you answer. What authorities were
3		investigating the matter?
4		A. What do you mean by the matter?
5	349.	Q. Well, you say:
6		'the authorities investigating related
7		matters before it responds.'
8		'Roehampton now requests an immediate copy
9		of the Zoom recording so it can review it
10		with counsel and the authorities
11		investigating related matters before it
12		responds.'
13		A. See, Mr. Swan, that's exactly why I
14		was concerned, because now when you read it
15		again, you say, "related matters". When you
16		initially asked the question, you didn't use the
17		word "related" which almost, you know, could have
18		had a reader reading this transcript mistakenly
19		perceive it to be in reference to Justice McEwen,
20		which it was not. It was related matters, and so
21
22	350.	Q. What authorities were investigated?
23		A. No, Mr. Swan, I need to make this
24		clear. When I said, "related matters", it is
25		clearly to distinguish Justice McEwen from

1		related matters which would be obviously in
2		reference to KingSett and KingSett's misconduct.
3	351.	Q. What authorities were investigating
4		related matters?
5		A. The related matters that the
6		related matters are in reference to KingSett's
7		misconduct, which were and are being investigated
8		by many authorities, including the Office of
9		Superintendent of Bankruptcy. You're well aware
L 0		of that, the Financial Services Commission of
L1		Ontario related to KingSett's mortgage licence.
L2		There are several Law Society investigations
L3		ongoing, as I understand, and they relate to
L 4		KingSett, but to be clear, my e-mail did not
L5		refer in any way to Justice McEwen. It referred
L 6		to related matters.
L 7	352.	Q. Did you file a complaint with the
L8		Canadian Judicial Council?
L 9		A. I did not.
20	353.	Q. You refer to Law Society
21		investigations. What Law Society investigations
22		are going on?
23		A. I'm not privy to the inner workings
24		of the Law Society. I can just tell you that it
25		is my understanding the Law Society does have a

1 file on the various complaints that have been 2 raised throughout these proceedings against different lawyers. Some of them have been 3 4 self-reported to the Law Society. Some of them 5 have, you know, included evidence, and I think my 6 affidavit details grounds for misconduct that the 7 Law Society would investigate and my affidavit is public, and so conceivably it would end up in the 8 9 hands of the Law Society as well. 354. Q. I'm not interested in conceivable or 10 11 conceivably. 12 Well, the answer is I don't know 13 exactly what the Law Society is doing. 14 355. Well, have you filed complaints with Q. the Law Society? Have you or Roehampton or 30 15 16 Roe filed complaints or caused complaints to be 17 filed? 18 Α. I don't recall if the complaints were 19 originated by us. I do know that the Law Society 20 does have or is keeping an eye on this matter 21 because it involves various -- many lawyers. 356. 22 Q. How do you know that? 2.3 I was told -- I forget who I was 24 told, but I was told by maybe another lawyer or 25 someone else in this matter that that's what

1		their understanding was. I don't remember who
2		exactly.
3	357.	Q. So it's your understanding that the
4		Law Society is keeping an eye on this matter and
5		you don't remember who told you that. Is that
6		it?
7		A. Well, I don't think it's any of my
8		business. I'm not a lawyer.
9	358.	Q. No, no. Just answer my question. Is
10		that what your evidence is, that you understand
11		the Law Society is keeping an eye on this matter
12		but you don't know who told you that? Is that
13		your evidence?
14		A. I don't recall right now who told me,
15		but I do remember hearing it. Again, I'm not a
16		lawyer. I'm not it's none of my business what
17		the Law Society does or doesn't do.
18	359.	Q. So you didn't actually answer my
19		prior question, which was, have you caused any
20		complaints to be filed with the Law Society
21		either personally, on behalf of Roehampton
22		Capital or 30 Roe? Have you caused any
23		complaints to be filed with the Law Society?
24		A. In relation to this matter?
25	360.	Q. In relation to these matters

1		involving 30 Roe and this receivership, et
2		cetera.
3		A. I may have provided certain
4		information to the Law Society but I don't
5		believe I have formally initiated any complaint
6		against any lawyer in relation to this matter to
7		the Law Society.
8	361.	Q. What information did you provide to
9		the Law Society?
10		A. I don't know if I can disclose that
11		because it was asked the Law Society asked me
12		for this information. So I don't feel
13		comfortable answering that at this moment because
14		I don't know what my legal obligations are, but I
15		did not initiate because they have a complaint
16		process. They have a form you fill out, et
17		cetera. I didn't go through that process. I was
18		asked for information.
19	362.	Q. By whom?
20		A. I don't feel comfortable answering
21		that. I don't know if I can answer that,
22		actually, given it's I honestly don't know the
23		what my responsibilities are in terms of a Law
24		Society investigation commenced by the Law
25		Society.

1	363.	Q. And about whom were you asked?
2		A. Same answer. I don't know if it's
3		appropriate for me to answer that.
4	364.	Q. Do you remember what lawyer it is,
5		lawyer or lawyers?
6		A. From the Law Society?
7	365.	Q. No, about whom conduct was under
8		consideration.
9		A. Here's the extent of what I can tell
10		you. No, I don't feel comfortable naming because
11		I don't know what the Law Society's prerogative
12		is. Maybe they don't want it to be known. That
13		I don't feel comfortable answering. I can say it
14		was someone senior from the Law Society. That's
15		all I can say.
16	366.	Q. Was it Deborah Clarke?
17		A. How do you know that?
18	367.	Q. Was it Deborah Clarke?
19		A. Well, you seem to already know that.
20		So, yes, it was.
21	368.	Q. It's no great mystery, Mr. Zar, that
22		you wrote to Mr. Armstrong on December 20th, 2022
23		complaining about his conduct and copying Deborah
24		Clarke, counsel of the Law Society.
25		A. Can I see that e-mail? Oh, yes, this

1		was after they reached out to me. So it would
2		make yes, this was December 20th, 2022 and it
3		says, copy. Yeah, it says, Cc: Deborah Clarke.
4		Yeah.
5	369.	Q. You cc'd Deborah Clarke in an e-mail
6		to Mr. Armstrong, right?
7		A. I also copied the Deputy
8		Superintendent of the Office of Superintendent of
9		Bankruptcy.
10	370.	Q. Why don't you answer my question?
11		You cc'd Deborah Clarke on an e-mail that you
12		sent to Mr. Armstrong, right?
13		A. Yes.
14	371.	Q. And, sir, let's just be clear about
15		this. There is no chance on earth that the Law
16		Society just began investigating Mr. Armstrong of
17		its own volition?
18		A. No. No, I never said that. It
19		wasn't I can say it wasn't about Mr.
20		Armstrong. That I can tell you.
21	372.	Q. I see.
22		A. So whatever discussions were had with
23		the Law Society were not about Mr. Armstrong.
24	373.	Q. So why did you cc Ms. Clarke on this
25		e-mail that you sent to Mr. Armstrong?

1		A. I think at that time there were
2		discussions with the OSB to have them participate
3		in the hearing. They then determined that first
4		the judge hearing the matter should deal with it
5		and then the OSB can determine if it wants to
6		intervene, et cetera. I think my objective was
7		really just to
8	374.	Q. Threaten Mr. Armstrong?
9		A. No, absolutely not. I didn't I
LO		don't even say anything against Mr. Armstrong in
L1		this e-mail. No. It was just to keep them
L2		informed. I had copied the Deputy Superintendent
L3		of the OSB. I also copied my contact at CIBC,
L 4		Christina Kramer, head of Canadian business
L5		banking at that time, and I copied Deborah
L 6		Clarke. But, no, to be clear, there was not any
L7		inquiry from or to the Law Society in relation to
L8		Mr. Armstrong or anyone at Goodmans, including
L 9		Mr. Dunn.
20	375.	Q. Has there since been?
21		A. No, there hasn't.
22	376.	Q. In your e-mail to Mr. Armstrong you
23		wrote:
24		Out of respect for the Court, at least
25		pretend to be impartial and disinterested

from now on. If you want the allegations 1 2 to go away, you should focus on preparing 3 evidence to support your defence instead of excuses to avoid accountability, 4 excuses which amount to a violation of 5 6 your professional obligations to the Law 7 Society. You then copy Ms. Clarke at the Law 8 9 Society. Is your evidence that you weren't meaning 10 11 to threaten Mr. Armstrong? 12 I haven't filed a complaint against 13 Mr. Armstrong with the Law Society. 14 377. That wasn't the question I asked. Is Q. it your evidence that you were intending or not 15 16 intending to threaten Mr. Armstrong with this 17 e-mail? 18 A. No, I absolutely was not intending to 19 threaten Mr. Armstrong. If I thought to threaten 20 him, I would have filed a complaint with the Law 21 Society, which I did not. Copying Deborah Clarke 22 was just to keep her in the loop on related matters, as I said, and if anything, you know, 2.3 24 being a nonlawyer faced with dealing with counsel 25 at firms such as Goodmans, I think at the time I felt a little comfort having the Law Society 2 copied, but it was not -- I do not in the e-mail say that Mr. Armstrong or anyone at Goodmans has 3 breached the Rules of Professional Conduct. I 4 merely remind them that they do have obligations 5 under the Rules of Professional Conduct. That's 6 7 all. 378. So your evidence is you were not 8 Q. saying to them that they had breached the Rules 9 of Professional Conduct? 10 11 Well, that's not for me to determine, 12 whether they breached it or not. I just wanted 13 to, in the circumstances, remind them of their obligations and I expected them to honour their 14 obligations. That's all I ask. 15 16 379. Q. So when you said, you should focus on preparing evidence to support your defence 17 18 instead of excuses to avoid accountability, 19 excuses which amount to a violation of your 20 professional obligations of the Law Society, did 21 you write that? Well, Mr. Swan, I don't know the 22 2.3 context. 24 380. Q. No, did you write that, sir? 25 I don't know. You're looking at it. Α.

1		I'm not.
2	381.	Q. Did you write that?
3		A. Well, this e-mail is in relation to
4		the receiver.
5	382.	Q. Sir, did you write the words that I
6		just read at the bottom of the first page?
7		A. No, because this e-mail thread shows
8		that this is all in relation to the receiver. It
9		has nothing to do with Mr. Armstrong.
10	383.	Q. Could you turn to page 1 of this
11		chain of e-mails, which we will mark as Exhibit 2
12		in just a moment? Would you read the last
13		sentence on that page? Read it aloud.
14		A. I'm not going to read anything aloud.
15		You can read it. This is in relation to the
16		receiver. Mr. Armstrong is counsel for the
17		receiver. I'm not talking about anything Mr.
18		Armstrong is doing wrong, but one of the Rules of
19		Professional Conduct is to, you know, obligation
20		of all lawyers as officers of the Court is to
21		ensure that the truth comes out, that the Court
22		has all the facts, that it's not misled, et
23		cetera.
24	384.	Q. Sir, did you send this e-mail at 8:06
25		p.m. to Mr. Armstrong copying Mr. Frydenberg,

1		Zweig and Dunn?
2		A. You have no affidavit evidence. I
3		can't confirm random pieces of paper that you're
4		holding up, so no.
5	385.	Q. You didn't send this e-mail?
6		A. I can't confirm it because it's not
7		in an affidavit. So I have no idea if it's
8		altered. I have no idea
9	386.	Q. Do you have your e-mails with you?
10		A. I don't. I don't have all my e-mails
11		with me.
12	387.	Q. I think you probably do, sir.
13		A. Well, I can't confirm random pieces
14		of paper. If you would put forth a responding
15		affidavit, if you had, then we could have had a
16		more productive session and you wouldn't need my
17		confirmation, but what you're attempting to do
18	388.	Q. Sir, have a good look at this e-mail.
19		A. I looked at it already. There's no
20		way
21	389.	Q. You tell me if you sent this e-mail.
22		A. I don't know if this thread has been
23		altered.
24	390.	Q. The first page. Look at the first
25		page to Mr. Armstrong.

1			Α.	I'm not looking at random pieces of
2		paper.
3	391.		Q.	You have to, sir.
4			Α.	I'm looking at it.
5	392.		Q.	You're here under oath to tell the
6		truth a	nd you	a have an obligation to cooperate.
7		Right n	ow you	ı're lying.
8			Α.	That's improper.
9	393.		Q.	It isn't.
10			Α.	It is improper and if you continue
11		that, I	will	end this examination.
12	394.		Q.	Sir, did you send that e-mail to Mr.
13		Armstro	ng?
14			Α.	That is highly inappropriate.
15	395.		Q.	Did you send that e-mail
16			Α.	You're impeaching the integrity and
17		charact	er of	a witness. That is improper.
18	396.		Q.	All right.
19			Α.	And if I had counsel with me, they
20		would be	e shoi	rt of yelling at you for just doing
21		that.
22	397.		Q.	Sir, let's leave all that alone. Did
23		you
24			Α.	It's highly improper, Mr. Swan, and
25		if it h	appens	s again, I will leave this

1		examination. I will show the transcript to the
2		Court to censure you.
3	398.	Q. You don't have to do that because I
4		am going to.
5		A. You cannot impeach the integrity and
6		character of a witness. It's improper and you
7		know better.
8	399.	Q. Actually, that's an important part of
9		examinations.
10		A. You cannot call a witness a liar.
11	400.	Q. I didn't call you a liar.
12		A. The transcripts will show that you
13		did.
14	401.	Q. I said you were lying.
15		THE DEPONENT: Madam, could you please
16		read the
17		BY MR. SWAN:
18	402.	Q. Sir, we're not reading it.
19		THE DEPONENT: I'm asking could you please
20		read the transcript?
21		BY MR. SWAN:
22	403.	Q. It's my examination, sir.
23		A. No, I get to ask as well.
24		THE DEPONENT: Please read the
25		transcript

1		MR. SWAN: Read it back.
2		THE DEPONENT: what Mr. Swan said
3		calling me a liar?
4		BY MR. SWAN:
5	404.	Q. I said, "you're lying."
6		A. Please let the court reporter read
7		the transcript. You called me a liar and you
8		will apologize if you want to continue this
9		examination today.
10		MR. SWAN: Go ahead, Madam Reporter.
11		COURT REPORTER: He does say, "Right now
12		you're lying." (Question 392)
13		THE DEPONENT: Yes, so louder for the
14		MR. SWAN: Pardon me?
15		COURT REPORTER: "Right now you're lying."
16		MR. SWAN: Exactly.
17		THE DEPONENT: Yes. You called me a liar.
18		BY MR. SWAN:
19	405.	Q. I said, "you're lying."
20		A. You called me a liar.
21	406.	Q. The reporter has just read it.
22		A. Yes.
23	407.	Q. All right. Sir
24		A. Please apologize, Mr. Swan.
25	408.	Q. No.

1			Α.	Please apologize.
2	409.		Q.	No.
3			Α.	I'm not continuing if you don't
4		apologi:	ze.
5	410.		Q.	Sir, you sent that e-mail?
6			Α.	You called me a liar. That is
7		imprope	r.
8	411.		Q.	I said you were lying. Mr. Zar,
9		let's ge	et on	with the examination. Your
10		affidav	it wi	ll be struck out
11			Α.	Please apologize.
12	412.		Q.	if you walk out of this
13		examinat	tion.	I'm not apologizing to you.
14			Pleas	se answer the question. Did you send
15		that e-r	mail,	sir?
16			Α.	I'm continuing this examination in
17		protest	•
18	413.		Q.	Fine.
19			Α.	And reserving all rights.
20	414.		Q.	Excellent.
21		R/F	Α.	And I have already answered your
22		question	n aboı	ut this. I will not be commenting on
23		random p	pieces	s of paper. If you would like to put
24		a respon	nding	affidavit forward, you could have
25		done tha	at.	You haven't. I have no way to know

415.

if this piece of paper is authentic. I have no way to know if it's altered, and so I won't be answering questions about it.

- Q. So I just want to be clear about what's happened, sir. I've shown you a chain of e-mails that concludes with an e-mail that you sent to Mr. Armstrong on December the 20th, 2022 and in it you make reference to various items, including a violation of Mr. Armstrong's professional obligations, and you're refusing to answer any questions about your e-mail. Is that what's happening?
- A. What's happening is you're trying to circumvent having your client examined by not filing affidavit evidence, cross-examining on mine, which I'm fine being examined on because I actually tell the truth, but then you're presenting random pieces of paper that's not an affidavit and you are seeking to cross-examine on it as a hostile witness.
- Q. Sir, let me be very, very clear, and you can go and ask Mr. Morse if you want to call him, I am entitled on a cross-examination to put to you e-mails that you have sent and ask you if you sent the e-mails and ask you about the

1		content of those e-mails.
2		A. If they're not in an affidavit, how
3		do I know that they're true?
4	417.	Q. That is not what is required, sir.
5		A. Well, I can't deal with them unless
6		they're in an affidavit. I don't know. I've
7		sent hundreds, maybe thousands of e-mails in this
8		matter. I don't remember every single one. I
9		don't know if that thread you're showing, maybe
10		the printing machine altered it. It happens all
11		the time, and so I can't answer it, but if you
12		had put forth an affidavit, which you chose not
13		to do, we wouldn't have this problem.
14	418.	Q. Okay. We will ask the Court to draw
15		inferences from the fact that you refuse to
16		answer questions about an e-mail, and let's just
17		be perfectly clear, sir. You have your computer
18		here. If you want to verify that you sent or did
19		not send this e-mail, go ahead and have a look.
20		I'll pause to let you do that before I continue.
21		Do you want to do that?
22		A. Mr. Swan, there's hundreds of e-mails
23		in my affidavit you could be examining me on.
24	419.	Q. Yes, but I'm examining you on a
25		different e-mail that isn't apparently in your

1		affidavit, because the e-mails you've put in your
2		affidavit are those that you've selected.
3		A. You're bringing up new matters at a
4		cross-examination that we haven't had the
5		opportunity to respond to. You're raising new
6		issues.
7	420.	Q. That is not how cross-examinations
8		work. What I'm doing is perfectly proper and you
9		can check with Mr. Morse if you'd like. Would
10		you like to check with Mr. Morse? Why don't you
11		look in your e-mails, sir, and see if you sent
12		this e-mail? I'm giving you that opportunity.
13		A. I would like five minutes to
14	421.	Q. Go ahead.
15		A. Off the record.
16		Break commencing 1:28 p.m.
17		Upon resuming 1:34 p.m.
18		MR. SWAN: Let's mark as Exhibit 2 this
19		e-mail chain involving the e-mails that began
20		with the e-mails to the Office of the Chief
21		Justice and then concluded with the e-mail to Mr.
22		Armstrong dated December 20, 2022.
23		EXHIBIT NO. 2: E-mail chain starting with
24		e-mails to the Office of the Chief Justice
25		and concluded with e-mail to Mr. Armstrong

1		dated December 20, 2022.
2		BY MR. SWAN:
3	422.	Q. And, Mr. Zar, you've refused to
4		answer questions on it because you've alleged
5		that perhaps I have doctored the e-mail before I
6		gave it to you.
7		A. I did not say that.
8	423.	Q. Why are you refusing?
9		A. It isn't relevant to the upcoming
10		motion.
11	424.	Q. That wasn't the reason you gave
12		earlier.
13		Now, as it happens, this e-mail was sent
14		to Mr. Dunn, who is here, and has all of his
15		e-mails and has offered to allow you to read the
16		electronic version of it. Would you like to do
17		that?
18		R/F A. No, because it isn't relevant to the
19		upcoming motion.
20	425.	Q. So you now have a new reason for not
21		wanting to answer any questions?
22		A. You are the head of litigation at
23		Bennett Jones and I see partners from Goodmans
24		here, and I took five minutes to receive some,
25		what you could call a little bit of legal advice,

1 and I think I'm entitled to that, and so it's not a change in answer. It's simply better informed 2 of what the rules are and what my rights are. 3 So, no, it's not relevant to the motion. 4 I'm not answering it. 5 So when this e-mail says, 'excuses 6 426. Q. which amount to a violation of' -- this e-mail to 7 Mr. Armstrong says that you wrote, 'excuses which 8 amount to a violation of your professional 9 obligations to the Law Society', whose 10 11 professional obligations are you referring to? A. Mr. Swan, this isn't relevant to the 12 13 motion. Please ask questions that are either within my affidavit or are relevant to the motion 14 returnable November 27, 2023. 15 16 427. Q. Sir, you filed a 151-page, 412-17 paragraph affidavit that covers everything that 18 happened from the beginning of this loan to the present and you put --19 20 Α. And I am here to be cross-examined on 21 it. 428. You're here to be cross-examined on 22 2.3 issues on the motion but you literally put 24 everything in issue by filing such an affidavit, and do I now understand you're refusing to answer 25

1		any questions about this e-mail to Mr. Armstrong
2		in which you make reference to his professional
3		obligations to the Law Society? Is that what's
4		happening?
5		A. Mr. Swan
6	429.	Q. Is that what's happening?
7		A. Mr. Swan, I'm prepared to be
8		cross-examined on my affidavit but you have yet
9		to cross-examine me on my affidavit.
10	430.	Q. No, you're not here simply to be
11		cross-examined on your affidavit. You're here to
12		be cross-examined on the issues in the motion.
13		A. Yes, on the issues in the motion.
14	431.	Q. I'm not limited to asking you
15		questions about what you say in your affidavit,
16		as Mr. Morse or anyone else
17		A. Please don't quote Mr. Morse. I
18		don't know why you're bringing Mr. Morse into
19		this.
20	432.	Q. So having said that, I just want to
21		be perfectly clear. Are you refusing to answer
22		any questions on an e-mail that you sent to Mr.
23		Armstrong in December 2022 where you speak of his
24		professional obligations to the Law Society?
25		A. I'm refusing to answer any questions

1		which I deem are irrelevant to the upcoming
2		motion on November 27th, 2023.
3	433.	Q. And are you refusing to answer any
4		questions about that e-mail?
5		A. The e-mail that you have shown is
6		irrelevant to the upcoming motion.
7	434.	Q. So you are refusing to answer any
8		further questions about that. Is that right?
9		A. No. It is irrelevant.
10	435.	Q. Are you refusing to answer questions
11		about it?
12		A. I'm not refusing because it's not a
13		proper question. If it's not a proper question,
14		there's nothing to refuse. It's an improper
15		question.
16	436.	Q. No, you're refusing the question.
17		A. No. I'm saying it's not relevant to
18		the hearing, and if you disagree, you have your
19		remedies in that regard. You can have a judge
20		decide if it's relevant or not.
21	437.	Q. The risk, sir, is if you refuse to
22		answer questions, your affidavit might be struck
23		out, proper questions.
24		A. No, sir, because you haven't even
25		started to cross-examine me on my affidavit. All

1 you're doing is trying to impugn my character, but I would say so far, two hours into this, 2 you're not -- three hours into this, you're not 3 doing a very good job. We'll see about that. 5 438. Q. 6 Α. Well, we're waiting. 439. 7 So when we left off, I had asked you Q. about whether you had recorded the hearing on 8 December the 14th, 2022, and you told me you 9 10 didn't remember and then you later said that you 11 did not. Is that your evidence? 12 Well, I have a tendency to blurt out 13 answers. I think it's my ADHD, but as you were 14 asking me and as I took time to think about it, I recall that Justice McEwen specifically, if I 15 16 remember correctly, of course, but I'm quite 17 certain told me not to record it, and so, no, I 18 didn't record it. 19 440. Did you record the attendance before 20 Justice Steele on February 7, 2023 where she 21 granted approval and vesting orders for PH04 and PH09? 22 I believe -- well, was I represented 2.3 Α. 24 by counsel? 25 441. Q. You were.

1		A. All right. If I was represented by
2		counsel, there's no way I recorded it because
3		that's not permitted and I would never do that.
4	442.	Q. And did you record the attendance on
5		May 18, 2023 before Justice Steele? You were not
6		represented by counsel. This was the attendance
7		where you sought costs.
8		A. No, I didn't record that hearing. I
9		was making submissions. I wasn't really taking
10		any notes. I didn't see a point of taking notes
11		when I was the one I was the moving party. It
12		was my motion. I was focussed on making
13		submissions.
14	443.	Q. So your evidence is you didn't record
15		it?
16		A. No. You're talking about the motion
17		for costs, correct?
18	444.	Q. Correct, to have fees paid from the
19		estate heard by Justice Steele and dismissed on
20		May 18, 2023.
21		A. With costs issued and costs paid,
22		right? That one where I paid the receivers
23		$5,000 in costs?
24	445.	Q. I didn't ask you about that.
25		A. But is it that one?

1	446.	Q. It is that one.
2		A. All right. The one where I paid the
3		receiver's costs, yes.
4	447.	Q. You're certain you didn't record
5		that?
6		A. Absolutely.
7	448.	Q. And what about the attendance before
8		Justice Osborne on May 29, 2023? Did you record
9		that?
10		A. I believe there was a court reporter
11		present, so it is recorded by the court I
12		don't believe I recorded it, no.
13	449.	Q. Are you certain?
14		A. I'm quite certain because really
15		after May, maybe earlier, there was no need to
16		concern myself about anything other than
17		focussing on suing KingSett after the receiver's
18		discharge.
19	450.	Q. You've had a number of lawyers in
20		this proceeding, haven't you?
21		A. I think that's a loaded statement.
22	451.	Q. You've had more than one lawyer in
23		this proceeding, haven't you? Let's just review
24		who they were.
25		A. Well, the first lawver was Ken

1 Rosenberg of Paliare Roland and he became a 2 witness in this matter because your partner Sean Zweig made defamatory statements to him and 3 admissions to him of improper conduct by KingSett 5 that turned him, meaning Ken Rosenberg of Paliare 6 Roland, into a witness in the matter and thus in 7 a conflict of interest position and left him with no choice but to have to resign. 8 452. 9 And you have commenced a lawsuit 10 against Mr. Rosenberg, haven't you? 11 A. A Notice of Action has been 12 commenced, as I made you aware before the start 13 of this cross-examination and which we even 14 viewed on my phone, and leave is sought in our Amended Notice of Motion that was served before 15 this examination. Mr. Roland and Paliare are 16 17 named as defendants in that Notice of Action, 18 yes. 453. Q. As is Mr. Starnino of Paliare Roland, 19 isn't he? 20 21 Α. Yes. 454. 22 Can you produce to me a copy of the Notice of Action in which you have sued KingSett 2.3 24 and others? 25 A. Well, I don't know if the Notice of

1		Action I know that a Notice of Action is not
2		served. It is merely to preserve the limitations
3		period. It's the Statement of Claim that's
4		served. So once the Statement of Claim is
5		completed, it will be served on all the
6		defendants.
7	455.	Q. Yeah. I've asked you to provide me
8		with a copy of the Notice of Action. Are you
9		prepared to do that?
10		A. It is public record. You can
11		certainly look it up, but as a matter of mere
12		convenience, I can provide you a courtesy copy,
13		but it shouldn't be deemed as serving you with
14		anything because it's merely a Notice of Action
15		to preserve the limitations period. The
16		Statement of Claim will be served in due course.
17	456.	Q. So to be clear, you are undertaking
18		to produce
19		A. No, I'm not undertaking. I'm not
20		providing.
21	457.	Q. You are agreeing to produce or
22		provide to me a copy of the Notice of Action?
23		U/A A. I will take it under advisement.
24	458.	Q. You've sued my client and a number of
25		others and I've asked you for a copy of the

1		Notice of Action.
2		A. The reason I hesitate is because I
3		will not be the one acting on that action. There
4		will be counsel, and so I don't want to meddle in
5		matters that I shouldn't be dealing with. I'm
6		here solely in relation to the upcoming motion.
7		So I will take it under advisement but I
8		note that you can it is public record, so I
9		imagine you can very simply look it up. It is
10		filed with the Court. It was filed November 17th
11		with the Court.
12	459.	Q. And it was issued by the Court on
13		November 17, 2023?
14		A. Yes.
15	460.	Q. And the defendants are the receiver,
16		KSV?
17		A. They are listed in our Amended Notice
18		of Action.
19	461.	Q. Well, I just want to go through who
20		it is. The defendants under this Notice of
21		Action include the receiver KSV?
22		A. Can I see it? I don't have a printed
23		copy. Thank you.
24		The defendants are the individuals and
25		entities listed in paragraph 3 of 30 Roe's

1		Amended Notice of Cross-Motion dated
2		November 20th, 2023 served today, November 20th,
3		2023.
4		I will note there was a minor typo in the
5		Notice of Action where KSV Restructuring Inc. was
6		accidentally listed as KSC Restructuring Inc.,
7		and I understand that's in the process of being
8		corrected today.
9		MR. SWAN: Well, that's very important.
10		Thank you.
11		So let's mark the amended notice, sorry,
12		Amended Notice of Motion as Exhibit 3 just so
13		that we have track of it.
14		EXHIBIT NO. 3: Amended Notice of Motion.
15		BY MR. SWAN:
16	462.	Q. And you say that the following
17		entities have been sued, entities or persons.
18		I'd just like you to confirm it. Number 1, the
19		receiver KSV?
20		A. Well, that is the objective, KSV, but
21		again, there is a typo. It says KSC but
22		obviously it is intended to be KSV.
23	463.	Q. Sir, just answer the question. Is
24		KSV a defendant in this Notice of Action?
25		A. I don't know how to answer that

1		because ther	e was a typo that counsel is
2		correcting.	So, yes.
3	464.	Q.	Is KingSett Mortgage Corporation a
4		defendant in	this action?
5		Α.	One moment. Yes.
6	465.	Q.	Is the Estate of Deepak Ruparell a
7		defendant in	this action?
8		Α.	Yes.
9	466.	Q.	Rajeev Ruparell a defendant?
10		Α.	Yes.
11	467.	Q.	Silver Hotel Group?
12		Α.	Yes.
13	468.	Q.	729171 Alberta Inc.?
14		Α.	Yes.
15	469.	Q.	2692201 Ontario Inc.?
16		Α.	Yes.
17	470.	Q.	Is that not a company that you
18		incorporated	?
19		Α.	Yes.
20	471.	Q.	Queen Street West Fund I Inc.?
21		Α.	Yes.
22	472.	Q.	Paliare Roland Rosenberg Rothstein
23		LLP?
24		Α.	Yes.
25	473.	Q.	Ken Rosenberg?

1		А.	Ken T. Rosenberg, yes.
2	474.	Q.	Massimo C. Starnino?
3		А.	Yes.
4	475.	Q.	Blaney McMurtry LLP?
5		Α.	Yes.
6	476.	Q.	Jeffrey Warren?
7		А.	Yes.
8	477.	Q.	And Jeffrey Warren is a partner at
9		Blaney McMur	try?
10		Α.	Yes.
11	478.	Q.	Lou Brzezinski?
12		Α.	Yes.
13	479.	Q.	He's a partner at Blaney McMurtry?
14		Α.	Yes.
15	480.	Q.	Mervyn Abramowitz?
16		Α.	Yes. He's a former partner I believe
17		at Blaneys.	He's left or been fired, I guess. I
18		don't know tl	he circumstances, but as of
19		October 2023	, is my understanding, along with Lou
20		along with	h Lucas Strezos.
21	481.	Q.	Is Mr. Strezos a former partner or an
22		associate?
23		А.	He's a former associate who was
24		who left or w	was fired from Blaneys in October
25		of 2023.

1	482.	Q. And do you have any evidence that Mr.
2		Abramowitz or Mr. Strezos were fired?
3		A. No. I said either left or were
4		fired.
5	483.	Q. I see. So that's just complete
6		speculation on your part?
7		A. Well, Mr. Abramowitz is no longer
8		practising law and they left at the same time and
9		they were both the lawyers that dealt with the
10		appeal of the sales approval and the lawyers
11		involved in KingSett's interference in our
12		retainer at Blaneys, which we have evidence of, I
13		assure you.
14	484.	Q. So you think maybe you forced Mr.
15		Abramowitz to retire from the practice of law?
16		A. No, I think you did. I think your
17		client did. I should say not you, but I think
18		your client did.
19	485.	Q. And well, you're the one suing
20		him; right?
21		A. No, your client did that.
22	486.	Q. Who's suing him, you?
23		A. Or Statement of Claim will detail
24		who's suing who but, you know, the plaintiffs on
25		the Statement of on the Notice of Action are

1		listed as Raymond Zar, 30 Roe Investments Corp.
2		and Roehampton Capital Corp., but the Statement
3		of Claim will detail.
4	487.	Q. So you and 30 Roe and Roehampton
5		Capital are suing Mr. Abramowitz?
6		A. No. Those three, the three: Raymond
7		Zar, 30 Roe Investments Corp. and Roehampton
8		Capital Corp., are the plaintiffs in the Notice
9		of Action.
10	488.	Q. Yes.
11		A. But the Statement of Claim will
12		detail who's suing who. I can't speak to that at
13		this moment.
14	489.	Q. But under the Notice of Action, 30
15		Roe, Raymond Zar and Roehampton Capital are the
16		plaintiffs?
17		A. That's what the Notice of Action
18		says.
19	490.	Q. And did you review and approve the
20		Notice of Action before it was issued?
21		A. I did, Mr. Swan, and it's issued. No
22		one is taking issue with that. What I'm saying
23		is the Statement of Claim will detail it. These
24		are complex proceedings. Not all the plaintiffs
25		are going to be suing all the defendants. Maybe

1		by the time the Statement of Claim is issued,
2		some defendants may not even be listed.
3		So and I'm speculating, but the point
4		is it's the Statement of Claim that's going to be
5		served that's going to detail all this.
6	491.	Q. At the moment, under the Notice of
7		Action, 30 Roe, Raymond Zar and Roehampton
8		Capital have issued a claim against Mr.
9		Abramowitz; is that right?
10		A. Have issued a claim against all the
11		companies you read. Maybe you'd like to finish
12		reading all the
13	492.	Q. Including Mr. Abramowitz and Mr.
14		Strezos?
15		A. They are listed as defendants, yes.
16	493.	Q. And you made the decision to commence
17		a claim against them, didn't you?
18		A. Yes.
19	494.	Q. And another defendant is Goodmans
20		LLP?
21		A. Yes.
22	495.	Q. And again, you made the decision to
23		commence a claim against Goodmans LLP?
24		A. No, not just me. I'm not the only
25		plaintiff. Roehampton Capital is a corporate

Τ		entity. 30 Roe Investments Corp. is a corporate
2		entity. So you'll have to wait until the
3		Statement of Claim is issued to see who's suing
4		who.
5	496.	Q. Well, let's just take that for a
6		moment because I find that answer a bit
7		surprising.
8		First of all, in terms of the plaintiffs,
9		Raymond Zar, no one else controls Raymond Zar,
LO		just you; right?
L1		A. Yes, Mr. Swan, but the Notice of
L2		Action
L3	497.	Q. Just answer the question.
L 4		A doesn't list who's the causes,
L5		like, which plaintiff is suing which defendant
L 6		for what cause of action. It just lists, you
L7		know, everybody together. So that's my that's
L8		all. That's the only point I'm making.
L 9	498.	Q. However, sir, you personally as
20		Raymond Zar decided to be a plaintiff in this
21		proceeding that has been issued by Notice of
22		Action; correct?
23		A. Yes, but in the Statement of Claim it
24		may be that Raymond Zar isn't the one suing John
25		Doe number 1, right? It could be that it's, you

1		know, it's Roehampton Capital that's suing John
2		Doe number 2.
3		My point is that this is preliminary.
4		Well, I shouldn't say preliminary. This is not a
5		Statement of Claim yet. The Statement of Claim
6		will detail everything.
7	499.	Q. Make no mistake this is a lawsuit,
8		sir, that you've started, and 30 Roe agreed to be
9		a plaintiff, didn't it? 30 Roe is a plaintiff in
10		this Notice of Action, isn't it?
11		A. Mr. Swan, these are very technical
12		terms. I'm not a lawyer. I don't know the
13		answer to that.
14	500.	Q. You issued the Notice of Action, sir.
15		A. But I don't
16	501.	Q. You have it open in front of you. Is
17		30 Roe listed as a plaintiff?
18		A. Yes, and it says that in our Notice
19		of Motion, but my point is I don't have the legal
20		training to be able to answer some of these
21		technical questions. I don't know what
22		constitutes
23	502.	Q. I'm not asking you a technical
24		question, sir.
25		A being a plaintiff in the Notice of

1		Action. The	se are all very technical issues.
2	503.	Q.	You agree with me that 30 Roe is a
3		plaintiff und	der the Notice of Action?
4		Α.	It is listed as a plaintiff, yes.
5	504.	Q.	And Roehampton Capital is listed as a
6		plaintiff?
7		Α.	Yes.
8	505.	Q.	And Roehampton Capital is a
9		corporation (of which you are the majority
10		shareholder,	right?
11		Α.	You asked me that already.
12	506.	Q.	And the answer is yes, right?
13		Α.	I'm not going to answer the same
14		thing twice.
15	507.	Q.	Well, you told me earlier you were
16		the majority	shareholder.
17		А.	So why are you asking me the
18		question?
19	508.	Q.	So I assume that hasn't changed. And
20		you're also a	a director of Roehampton Capital?
21		Α.	Yes.
22	509.	Q.	And the president of Roehampton
23		Capital?
24		Α.	Yes.
25	510.	Q.	And the CEO of Roehampton Capital?

1		A. Yes, Mr. Swan.
2	511.	Q. And I'm going to suggest to you, sir,
3		that it was you that made the decision that
4		Roehampton Capital would be a plaintiff in this
5		Notice of Action. Right?
6		A. The company is independent from me.
7		It's a separate entity.
8	512.	Q. Yes, it is.
9		A. The company decided to be a party to
10		the Notice of Action.
11	513.	Q. And, sir, you well know that you on
12		behalf of Roehampton Capital decided to list
13		Roehampton Capital as a plaintiff, didn't you?
14		A. No.
15	514.	Q. You made that decision?
16		A. These are becoming very technical and
17		I perhaps is this worth spending time on?
18		because the Notice of Action says what it says.
19		I don't know what value it gets. No one's
20		denied.
21	515.	Q. Was there a meeting of Roehampton
22		Capital, its board, to decide to issue this
23		Notice of Action?
24		A. I believe there's procedures in the
25		Rules of Civil Procedure where you can inquire if

1		the corporation that commenced an action did so
2		with proper authority. So you can go down that
3		road to seek
4	516.	Q. You seem to have no trouble
5		understanding that. That's quite a technical
6		rule, sir, but you don't seem to know who made
7		the decision to list Roehampton Capital as a
8		plaintiff. Let's cut through this, sir, and just
9		let's be straight up because there's been far too
10		much circularity.
11		Did you make the decision on behalf of
12		Roehampton Capital to start this lawsuit?
13		A. I refer you to the Rules of Civil
14		Procedure. There are mechanisms for you to
15		ascertain if the claim was commenced by a
16		corporation with proper authority, et cetera. So
17		I don't see the purpose of me answering that
18		question.
19	517.	Q. So you're refusing to answer the
20		question?
21		A. It's not that I'm refusing. It's
22		that these are very technical matters and I don't
23		want to prejudice the corporate plaintiffs.
24	518.	Q. Well, I don't want to confuse you, so
25		let's take this in very small simple pieces.

1		At some point a decision was made on
2		behalf of Roehampton Capital to commence a
3		lawsuit. Do you agree with that?
4		A. I'm not going to speak to that. It
5		encroaches on privileged events because it speaks
6		to what the plaintiffs spoke to with their
7		lawyer, how they came to that decision, et
8		cetera.
9	519.	Q. I don't want you to tell me what you
10		spoke to about your lawyer, but at some point
11		Roehampton Capital had to decide that it either
12		would or would not commence a lawsuit against all
13		of these parties?
14		A. Mr. Swan, let me make it easier. I
15		can tell you I'm under oath Raymond Zar,
16		Roehampton Capital and 30 Roe Investments Corp.
17		decided to commence the Notice of Action and it's
18		filed with the Court.
19	520.	Q. Thank you. That's somewhat helpful.
20		And the decision on behalf of Roehampton Capital
21		was one that in the very least you participated
22		in?
23		R/F A. I'm not going to speak to that.
24	521.	Q. Why not?
25		A. It's irrelevant.

1	522.	Q. And in fact, you were the principal
2		person on behalf of Roehampton Capital who
3		decided to commence this lawsuit?
4		A. Mr. Swan, the lawsuit is commenced.
5		It's not going away.
6	523.	Q. That's not my question.
7		A. You can focus the time to prepare
8		your Statement of Defence, but the lawsuit isn't
9		going away.
LO	524.	Q. I have no Statement of Defence to
L1		prepare.
12		A. No, I know, but my point is that you
L3		should prepare for that because we are putting
L 4		significant resources to send you a Statement of
L5		Claim unlike probably anything you've seen in
L 6		recent memory, and so you should dedicate your
L7		resources to that.
L8	525.	Q. And on behalf of 30 Roe, who decided
L 9		to have 30 Roe participate as a plaintiff in this
20		lawsuit?
21		A. That I can speak to because it is
22		relevant, finally.
23		As the director of 30 Roe Investments
24		Corp., I exercised my residual authority and I
25		authorized 30 Roe to be a plaintiff in that

1		Notice of Action subject, of course, to a leave
2		if required by the Court and as outlined in the
3		relief sought in our Amended Notice of Motion
4		dated November 20th, 2023.
5	526.	Q. And so you acknowledge that you made
6		that decision on behalf of 30 Roe?
7		A. I exercised residual authority as a
8		director of 30 Roe.
9	527.	Q. So it was you that made the decision?
LO		A. In my capacity as director of 30 Roe,
L1		yes.
L2	528.	Q. And it was you in your capacity as a
L3		director of 30 Roe that decided to include all of
L 4		those defendants as defendants in the Notice of
L 5		Action, right?
L 6		A. No.
L 7	529.	Q. No?
L 8		A. No, because the plaintiffs are also
L 9		Raymond Zar and Roehampton Capital. Raymond Zar
20		and Roehampton are not subject to the
21		receivership order of Justice Cavanagh, and so
22		those parties have every right to sue whomever
23		they like. They can't sue the receiver without
24		leave, but leave is sought, but other than that,
25		they have the same rights as every other, I

1		believe, citizen of this country.
2	530.	Q. Okay. I now understand what you're
3		saying. So you say that exercising your residual
4		authority as a director on behalf of 30 Roe, you
5		decided to commence the lawsuit and you told
6		me that a moment ago?
7		A. Only in relation to 30 Roe.
8	531.	Q. Yes.
9		A. But in relation to Raymond Zar and
10		Roehampton Capital, those Raymond Zar and
11		Roehampton Capital are not subject to the
12		receiver's report.
13	532.	Q. So you're not really listening to my
14		question. My question is this. You told me
15		about 30 Roe. In respect of Raymond Zar and
16		Raymond Zar's inclusion in this proceeding and
17		the defendant's name, clearly you and only you
18		made that decision because you're Raymond Zar.
19		Right?
20		A. Well, I'm listed as a plaintiff,
21		so
22	533.	Q. Who made the decision to include
23		Raymond Zar in the lawsuit? Was that you,
24		Raymond Zar?
25		A. Yes.

1	534.	Q. Thank you. And who made the decision
2		to include Roehampton Capital in the lawsuit?
3		Was that you?
4		A. On that point, you can go through the
5		Rules of Civil Procedure and request
6	535.	Q. Why do I have to go through the Rules
7		of Civil Procedure? Just tell me who made the
8		decision.
9		R/F A. Because it involves privileged
10		discussions. I'm not prepared to answer.
11	536.	Q. Well
12		A. And I don't see the relevance to the
13		upcoming hearing. Roehampton Capital isn't a
14		party to the receivership order.
15	537.	Q. You refer throughout your affidavit
16		Roehampton Capital.
17		A. Fine, but it is not in receivership.
18		30 Roe is in receivership. I believe
19	538.	Q. Paragraph 5 of your affidavit of
20		November 7th:
21		I am a majority shareholder, director,
22		president and CEO of Roehampton Capital, a
23		parent of 30 Roe.
24		A. Fine, but if you refer to the
25		receivership order of Justice Cavanagh,

1		Roehampton Capital wasn't even mentioned.
2	539.	Q. Yes, but you've mentioned it in your
3		affidavit.
4		A. Fine, but the receivership order
5	540.	Q. So let's not go around in a circle,
6		sir.
7		A in a box
8	541.	Q. Just answer this question or refuse
9		it. Did you make the decision on behalf of 30
10		on behalf of Roehampton Capital to commence the
11		lawsuit against these various named defendants,
12		including KSV, Goodmans and other lawyers?
13		A. No, it wasn't just me. I'm not going
14		to speak more to that. The Rules of Civil
15		Procedure outline the steps you can go through to
16		get information on authority to commence claims.
17	542.	Q. So it wasn't just you, but were you
18		one of the people who made the decision on behalf
19		of Roehampton Capital?
20		A. Yes.
21	543.	Q. It wasn't so hard, was it?
22		A. Right, but the lawsuit isn't going
23		away.
24	544.	Q. That's not the point, sir.
25		A. It really isn't. It just it

1		isn't. I hate to break it to you, but you will
2		file a Statement of Defence. The proceeding will
3		go ahead.
4		It's one thing for you to say perhaps we
5		won't get leave to sue the receiver. We'll see,
6		but for us to be able to sue all these other
7		parties, there's no authority of which for you to
8		bar that claim. That would be anyone who's
9		heard of it, just laughs, and the fact that
10		you've cited no authority in even seeking the
11		broad release in favour of KingSett just shows
12		all these chuckling that you should do is to
13		yourselves.
14	545.	Q. All this what?
15		A. The chuckling, the constant
16	546.	Q. Chuckling?
17		A. Yeah, the especially this guy here
18		at the cross-examination, just the constant
19		chuckling, I don't know what you're laughing at.
20	547.	Q. I haven't chuckled, Mr. Zar.
21		A. No, you haven't. You haven't, but
22		our viewers here have.
23	548.	Q. You also at one time had Mr. Simon
24		Zucker and Solmon Rothbart act for you, didn't
25		you?

1		A. I had no
2	549.	Q. 30 Roe did.
3		A knowledge of who he was. I was
4		looking for a lawyer. The hearing date was
5		coming up and I consulted the list.
6	550.	Q. Can I just stop you for a moment,
7		sir?
8		A. No. I'm answering. I consulted the
9		list. He was on it and it was available, and he
10		was terminated very soon after that hearing.
11	551.	Q. Do you remember what my question was,
12		sir?
13		A. You mentioned Simon Zucker.
14	552.	Q. What was my question?
15		A. My apologies. Please ask.
16	553.	Q. Well, you just gave an answer. What
17		question were you answering?
18		A. You asked if I retained Simon Zucker.
19	554.	Q. And is the answer yes?
20		A. Unfortunately, yes.
21	555.	Q. Thank you. Things will go a lot
22		faster if you answer the question rather than
23		give speeches.
24		And you also retained on behalf of 30 Roe
25		Solmon Rothbart?

1		A. No, I thought that I was retaining
2		Solmon Rothbart but I retained Simon Zucker. We
3		met at Solmon Rothbart's office. He said he's a
4		partner there. He also said he's an experienced
5		insolvency lawyer, and Melvyn Solmon is well
6		known, so I simply assumed that he was telling
7		the truth. Little did I know that he merely
8		rents office space there.
9	556.	Q. And
10		A. And when he lost the receivership
11		hearing, realizing that he did a disservice to
12		his client, he offered to have this time Solmon
13		Rothbart do the appeal which, as you can see in
14		the evidence in my affidavit, he said was as of
15		right.
16		And so really I view them as one and the
17		same. I thought that Solmon Rothbart was
18		retained from the beginning.
19	557.	Q. Well, a lawyer from Solmon Rothbart
20		acted for you in the Court of Appeal, didn't she?
21		A. Yes, but she didn't act in the
22		receivership hearing. We had Mr. Zucker, who
23		couldn't even properly prepare a factum.
24	558.	Q. A lawyer from Solmon Rothbart acted
25		for you in the Court of Appeal in respect of this

1		receivership	, didn't she?
2		Α.	Yes.
3	559.	Q.	Thank you. And are you suing Mr.
4		Zucker or So	lmon Rothbart?
5		Α.	Can we go off the record?
6	560.	Q.	No.
7		Α.	Well, I simply wanted a break, but
8		fine. Can y	ou ask your question again?
9	561.	Q.	Are you suing Solmon Rothbart or Mr.
10		Zucker?
11		Α.	Well, they're not listed on the
12		Notice of Ac	tion, so at this time, no.
13	562.	Q.	Well, are you suing them in some
14		other procee	ding?
15		А.	At this time, no.
16	563.	Q.	Are you considering suing them?
17		А.	I can't speak to what we're
18		considering	or not. That's privileged.
19	564.	Q.	No, I'm asking you what you're
20		considering.
21		А.	I can't speak to what we're
22		considering	or not. I can speak on black and
23		white facts.
24	565.	Q.	Are you considering suing Mr. Zucker
25		or Solmon Ro	thbart?

1		R/F A. Refused.
2	566.	Q. Have you filed a complaint with the
3		Law Society about either Mr. Zucker or Solmon
4		Rothbart?
5		A. No.
6	567.	Q. Have you filed a complaint with the
7		Law Society about Mr. Rosenberg or Mr. Starnino?
8		A. I haven't.
9	568.	Q. Has someone else, to your knowledge?
10		A. I haven't filed a complaint. To my
11		knowledge, there are Law Society activities, as I
12		said earlier on in this cross-examination,
13		concerning all these events, but I haven't filed
14		a complaint, no.
15	569.	Q. Well, are there Law Society
16		activities in respect of Rosenberg and Paliare
17		Roland? Or let's just start with Mr. Rosenberg.
18		Are there Law Society activities in respect of
19		Mr. Rosenberg?
20		A. Well, I don't know for certain, so I
21		can't say. I know there are Law Society
22		activities concerning all these matters, but I
23		don't have direct knowledge, so I'm not going to
24		I'm not in a position to answer that.
25	570.	Q. And what about Blaney McMurtry? Are

1		there Law Society activities in respect of Blaney
2		McMurtry?
3		A. There is one complaint solely related
4		to actually, I don't know if I could disclose
5		the contents of a Law Society complaint on a
6		public cross-examination. As I recall, there are
7		privacy declarations on the complaint form.
8	571.	Q. So you filled out the complaint form,
9		sir?
LO		A. I think that should be struck from
L1		the record. There does say an undertaking or
L2		agreement not to speak publicly about matters
L3		while the Law Society is investigating.
L 4	572.	Q. Well, you're under oath and under
L 5		compulsion to be here. So I can ask you this,
L 6		sir. Did you fill out a Law Society complaint?
L 7		A. Well, if you're asking me, then I'm
L8		relying on you deeming that it's an appropriate
L 9		question since it relates to your profession.
20		Yes, a Law Society complaint was filed
21		against Jeffrey Warren specifically in relation
22		to his refusal to provide copies of documents on
23		a file that he had worked on. We're not sure why
24		he won't simply provide a copy, but that's the
25		extent of the complaint right now.

Τ	5/3.	Q. Have you filed Law Society complaint
2		against any of the other lawyers involved in this
3		case?
4		A. No. The only complaint that I have
5		directly filed is in relation to an unrelated
6		matter related to copies of documents or a
7		complete file from Jeffrey Warren.
8	574.	Q. And, sir, are you a defendant in a
9		lawsuit commenced by your mother?
LO		A. No. It was dismissed entirely. It
L1		was a motion we won. It was dismissed and then
L2		the claim was discontinued without settlement or
L3		anything. It was discontinued unconditionally.
L 4	575.	Q. She was suing you for control of
L 5		Roehampton Capital?
L 6		A. No. My step-sister's husband, I
L7		guess step-brother-in-law, if that's what it's
L 8		called, is a colourful individual and decided to
L 9		take advantage of personal issues and use her as
20		a proxy to get at me, and it was unfortunate.
21		She regretted doing that and it was dismissed,
22		but it was entirely without merit and she was
23		used as a proxy.
24	576.	Q. And, sir, are you involved in a
25		proceeding, another receivership proceeding

1		commenced by the Business Development Bank of
2		Canada?
3		A. Yes, but it's consensual.
4	577.	Q. Pardon me?
5		A. Yes, but it's consensual.
6	578.	Q. What do you mean that it's
7		consensual?
8		A. In that it is the opposite of
9		everything this gentleman Mr. Goldstein has done
LO		in the last two years.
L1	579.	Q. Are you saying you consented to the
L2		receivership?
L3		A. It is consensual in the sense that
L 4		no, we didn't initially consent but we
L5		discontinued our appeal and we reached an
L 6		agreement with the bank and the structure with
L7		the receiver. We're still in control and
L 8		possession, and the receiver is simply overseeing
L 9		on behalf of the bank.
20	580.	Q. And in fact, the Business Development
21		Bank of Canada brought a receivership application
22		against your company 170 Willowdale Investments
23		Corp.; is that right?
24		A. Mr. Swan, I just said that we reached
25		an agreement with them. There is a receiver. I

1		don't see the relevance to the upcoming motion.
2	581.	Q. Sir, 170 Willowdale Investments Corp.
3		is a company with which you are associated?
4		A. I'm associated with many companies.
5		What does it have to do with the upcoming motion?
6	582.	Q. Is that one of the companies with
7		which you're associated?
8		A. Yes.
9	583.	Q. I note that you acted as agent for
10		170 Willowdale.
11		A. Yes. I answered yes.
12	584.	Q. Thank you. And on the receivership
13		application before Justice Osborne that was heard
14		in May of 2023, you acted as agent for 170
15		Willowdale, didn't you?
16		A. No, but I'm going to I'm not going
17		to answer questions about a reported endorsement.
18		It says what it says. If you have any questions,
19		it's a public procedure. I assume you can ask
20		the receiver in that matter and they can answer
21		it to the extent that it's an appropriate
22		question, but I don't see the point of me
23		commenting on what a publicly released
24		endorsement of a judge says. It says what it
25		says.

1	585.	Q. Yes, and I'm entitled to ask you
2		about it, sir, and it says that you acted as
3		agent for 170 Willowdale Investment Corp., so
4		that must be the case. Is it?
5		A. The circumstances surrounding that
6		hearing, that event, that case, are complicated.
7		It is outside the scope of this upcoming motion.
8		As I said, the relationship with BDC is great.
9		We've reached an agreement. Our relationship
10		with the receiver there couldn't be better.
11		Everyone is happy. Wouldn't have it any other
12		way.
13	586.	Q. And
14		A. And so I know Mr. Morse acted on the
15		appeal. He's acted on that receivership. I
16		don't see the point. I mean, perhaps you can use
17		the time because my affidavit is long, but
18		you've yet to ask me really anything about my
19		affidavit.
20	587.	Q. Mr. Morse acted on which appeal?
21		A. He acted on that receivership, the
22		appeal of that receivership.
23	588.	Q. Okay. We'll come to that in a
24		moment. You did attend on the hearing before
25		Justice Osborne in May of 2023 and you made

1		submissions personally, didn't you?
2		R/F A. I'm not going to answer any questions
3		about that. It's irrelevant to the hearing.
4	589.	Q. And you asked Justice Osborne to
5		recuse himself, didn't you?
6		A. I'm not going to answer questions
7		about that hearing. It's irrelevant. Everyone
8		has moved on. It's a complicated matter. I
9		strongly suggest you just leave it at that.
10	590.	Q. Well, if only that's how it worked,
11		sir. It's a public document and I'm entitled to
12		ask you questions about it. So my first question
13		is, did you ask Justice Osborne to recuse
14		himself?
15		A. I don't recall.
16	591.	Q. And did you allege that he was biased
17		and had prejudged the matter?
18		A. I don't recall.
19	592.	Q. Did you allege that he should in
20		addition recuse himself because his former law
21		firm had at one time been retained by you?
22		A. I don't recall.
23	593.	Q. Did you allege that Mr. Justice
24		Osborne was biassed or that you had a reasonable
25		apprehension of bias because he had read or had

1		access to a confidential motion record?
2		A. I don't recall.
3	594.	Q. You don't recall any of that?
4		A. No.
5	595.	Q. On a matter that took place
6		six months ago?
7		A. I don't recall. I'm involved in
8		many, many, many, many different matters, many,
9		many, many different business interests, and a
10		quick search on the on CanLII will show
11		probably, I don't know, thirty different reported
12		decisions with my name on it, and if you look at
13		entities I'm involved in, probably fifty without
14		my name on it.
15		I have extensive litigation history in
16		Ontario and by my count, I've won more than I've
17		lost. So this KingSett matter is a blip in a
18		long history of success in litigation in Ontario.
19	596.	Q. Well, before Justice Osborne in May,
20		you opposed the appointment of a receiver, didn't
21		you?
22		A. I don't recall.
23	597.	Q. You don't recall whether you opposed
24		it?
25		A. I don't recall.

1	598.	Q. Six months ago?
2		A. Mr. Swan, this is irrelevant to the
3		upcoming motion.
4	599.	Q. And do you recall that a receiver was
5		appointed?
6		A. Yes, and I told you that it is
7		consensual and we have a great relationship.
8	600.	Q. And you made reference to the fact
9		that Mr. Morse was involved in the appeal.
10		A. He's the lawyer of record on that
11		matter.
12	601.	Q. What was the appeal for?
13		A. Mr. Swan, we've come to an agreement
14		with BDC. Everyone everything is consensual.
15		There's no appeal at present.
16	602.	Q. Well, there may not be an appeal at
17		present, but you said that Mr. Morse acted on the
18		appeal. I want to know what the appeal was.
19		A. It was a misunderstanding that's
20		resolved. Our relationship with BDC is great.
21		Everyone is happy with the current structure. We
22		wouldn't have it any other way.
23	603.	Q. The appeal was a misunderstanding?
24		A. Mr. Swan, these are complicated
25		matters, sensitive matters that should be left to

1 rest. 2 604. Q. Well --3 If you keep asking me questions about these matters, you're creating a situation where 4 5 I have to respond to the insinuations you're 6 asserting. 605. 7 Q. All that I'm doing is looking at Justice Osborne's publicly available decision on 8 CanLII. 9 10 And it says what it says and I told Α. 11 you that the receivership is consensual. We're supportive of it. We think it's great. The 12 13 receiver in that case is actually adding value. 14 606. Q. What it actually says is that you opposed the receivership order but it was granted 15 16 in any event. 17 A. I did not have counsel at that time. 18 After retaining Mr. Morse, we determined there 19 was a misunderstanding and we came to a 20 resolution with all parties. Everyone is 21 supportive of it. The receiver there is adding 22 tremendous value. He's doing a lot of the leg 2.3 work, in fact, in moving the asset forward. He's 24 unlocking value for stakeholders. He's assisting me as I'm dealing with other matters.

1 He's really, quite frankly, a gentleman 2 and a very, very honourable officer of the court and refreshing to deal with someone with 3 such integrity, honesty and competence, unlike 4 what we have experienced to date with Mr. 5 Goldstein and KSV. 6 607. So after Justice Osborne refused to 7 0. recuse himself at your request and granted the 8 receivership order, you directed that 170 9 Willowdale file a Notice of Appeal in the Court 10 11 of Appeal. Right? No. I retained counsel, and after 12 13 receiving advice, it became clear there were 14 misunderstandings. The matter was resolved. Everyone is satisfied, including me, including 15 16 the company, including BDC. Everyone is 17 satisfied with the result and we're moving 18 forward. 608. Did 170 Willowdale Investments file a 19 Notice of Appeal in the Court of Appeal from the 20 21 decision appointing a receiver, yes or no? 22 Α. Yes. 609. 2.3 Q. And the BDC then moved to quash that 24 appeal, didn't it? 25 A. Well, it's all reported publicly.

1		Yes.
2	610.	Q. Yes, they did, didn't they?
3		A. I don't see how my word has anything
4		to do with it. It is a public record. You're
5		looking at it in your hands. Yes, they did.
6	611.	Q. Thank you.
7		A. I believe months after.
8	612.	Q. Well, it did, sir.
9		A. Yes, months after, and not anywhere
10		as near adversarial as your conduct in
11		representing KingSett or the aggressiveness or
12		just the anyway, Mr. Swan.
13	613.	Q. Well, Justice Osborne's order was
14		made on May the 23rd and
15		A. Yeah.
16	614.	Q the matter was heard in the Court
17		of Appeal in August.
18		A. Yes, so three-and-a-half months.
19	615.	Q. So three months later?
20		A. Yeah, three months later, where as
21		yours was heard three weeks later, Mr. Swan, and
22		in that time BDC went out of its way to try to
23		resolve the situation, which we did, and we did
24		resolve it, unlike in your case where within
25		three weeks, you brought us to a panel motion and

1		you effectively quashed the appeal without any
2		sort of hearing or any sort of engagement on the
3		actual issues, and the result is your client is
4		suffering a shortfall as a result of its own
5		conduct and decisions.
6	616.	Q. And somebody by the name of David
7		Trafford acted for 170 Willowdale?
8		A. David Trafford is a partner at Morse
9		Shannon.
10	617.	Q. So it wasn't Mr. Morse personally?
11		A. No. Mr. Morse and Mr. Trafford are
12		the lawyers of record for 170.
13	618.	Q. Mr. Morse did not attend at the Court
14		of Appeal?
15		A. Mr. Morse is highly senior counsel,
16		more senior than you. He's not going to appear
17		at a Court of Appeal for an on consent motion to
18		quash. I think he has more important things to
19		do, but you can simply reference the file. He's
20		the lawyer of record. Jerome Morse and David
21		Trafford are the lawyers of record for 170 in
22		that matter.
23	619.	Q. Okay. Let's move forward.
24		A. What's the giggling? I don't
25		understand. Is it do I look funny? Do I

1		sound funny? Like, I don't understand. What do
2		you guys find funny about this, like, the four of
3		you? Like, I just said, Jerome Morse is the
4		lawyer of record for 170. Where does the
5		chuckling come from? I don't know how that's
6		funny. We do say some things that are funny but
7		that's just not funny.
8	620.	Q. All right. Let's
9		A. If you can't behave, then leave.
10		It's that simple. It's very simple and in fact,
11		I don't even know if all of them are entitled to
12		be here, but let's move on.
13	621.	Q. We earlier referenced an affidavit
14		that you had filed in this proceeding dated May
15		the 5th of 2022, just before the receivership
16		order was made. Is that the document you have
17		there?
18		A. No. I have
19	622.	Q. All right. Well
20		A. Yes, I have it.
21	623.	Q. Okay. So you do have it?
22		A. Well, you gave it to me.
23	624.	Q. Yes, I gave it to you. So you swore
24		an affidavit in this proceeding on May 5, 2022,
25		didn't you?

1		A. I did.
2	625.	Q. And if you look at that affidavit, in
3		paragraph 6
4		A. Yes.
5	626.	Qyou review some of the background
6		to the loan and mortgages; right?
7		A. Yes.
8	627.	Q. Paragraph 7 you talk about some
9		frustration you had with KingSett?
10		A. Yes.
11	628.	Q. Paragraph 8 you talk about the events
12		of or some of the events of December of 2021?
13		A. Well, Mr. Swan, it say what it says.
14	629.	Q. Yes. You acknowledge that it says
15		that?
16		A. I don't acknowledge your
17		characterization. The words are there. So I
18		don't see a question. You're asking me if the
19		paragraph exists. It does. It's there.
20		MR. SWAN: Let's mark that as the next
21		exhibit, Exhibit 4.
22		EXHIBIT NO. 4: Affidavit of Raymond Zar
23		sworn May 5, 2022.
24		BY MR. SWAN:
25	630.	Q. And, sir, that affidavit was

1		delivered the day before the May 6th hearing
2		before Justice Cavanagh, wasn't it?
3		A. I don't recall when it was retained.
4	631.	Q. Well, what's the date on the
5		affidavit, sir?
6		A. Well, it says May 5th. I don't
7		remember the date of the hearing, but
8	632.	Q. The date of the hearing was May the
9		6th.
10		A. Then it was the day before, yes.
11	633.	Q. Right, and at that hearing you Mr.
12		Zucker represented you?
13		A. Unfortunately.
14	634.	Q. But he did, didn't he? He was your
15		counsel of record at that hearing?
16		A. I don't no, I don't Mr. Counsel
17		Mr. Zucker was the lawyer that appeared. I'm
18		not going to dignify it and say he was the lawyer
19		of record that represented me.
20	635.	Q. He was the lawyer that appeared that
21		day for 30 Roe?
22		A. You know, James Wortzman has
23		represented me. Lawrence Thacker has represented
24		me. David Greenwood has represented me. Jerome
25		Morse has represented me. Simon and Jerome

1		Morse ha	s rep	presented me. Simon Zucker has never
2		represen	ted m	ne.
3	636.		Q.	Did Mr. Zucker appear
4			Α.	He appeared that day, yes.
5	637.		Q.	that day? Thank you. And it was
6		Mr. Zuck	er's	office that helped prepare your
7		May 5th	affic	davit, wasn't it?
8			Α.	I don't know. How am I supposed to
9		know wha	t Mr.	. Zucker did or didn't do? I can
10		tell you	that	t he was utterly unprepared and did
11		not know	how	to draft a factum.
12	638.		Q.	Did Mr. Zucker's office help you
13		prepare	your	May 5th affidavit?
14			Α.	Help me prepare it?
15	639.		Q.	Yes.
16			Α.	I didn't prepare the affidavit.
17	640.		Q.	Well, you signed it.
18			Α.	Yes, but what do you mean by prepare?
19	641.		Q.	Who drafted it?
20			Α.	Mr. Zucker.
21	642.		Q.	Thank you.
22			Α.	It's my affidavit. I'm not denying
23		that it'	s my	affidavit.
24	643.		Q.	Right, and you read it before you
25		signed i	t?

1		A. Yes.
2	644.	Q. And if you didn't agree with it, you
3		wouldn't have signed it or you would have changed
4		it; right?
5		A. You don't actually think I'm going to
6		go back on my affidavit?
7	645.	Q. I don't.
8		A. No. So if that's what you're
9		wondering, no, I don't plan on going back on my
10		affidavit. It says what it says. I signed it.
11	646.	Q. All right. And Mr. Justice Cavanagh
12		had your affidavit on the May 6th hearing?
13		A. No, it doesn't appear he did. It
14		wasn't uploaded properly. It wasn't served
15		properly. That was one of the big issues, is
16		Justice Cavanagh didn't have really any other
17		evidence.
18	647.	Q. Well, Justice Cavanagh at paragraph
19		33 says:
20		In support of this submission, the
21		Respondent relies on the evidence of Mr.
22		Zar in his May 5th affidavit.
23		A. But my point is that, in any event,
24		the misconduct that we're outlining in the
25		affidavit of November 7th, 2023 wasn't even in

1		our knowledge to put forth to Justice Cavanagh at
2		that date.
3	648.	Q. And you also played an audio
4		recording to Justice Cavanagh, didn't you?
5		A. I don't recall. I remember Mr.
6		Zucker did not upload a copy of that recording in
7		CaseLines properly. He didn't include it, and so
8		Justice Cavanagh couldn't find it, couldn't open
9		it, and there was e-mail exchanges of me in all
10		caps trying to assist Simon Zucker and his team,
11		whoever there was there in terms of trying to
12		educate them on what the Service List is.
13	649.	Q. And you spoke up and asked Justice
14		Cavanagh to allow you to play an audio recording?
15		A. I don't recall. I don't believe I
16		spoke. I wouldn't be permitted to.
17	650.	Q. Do you recall playing the audio
18		recording
19		A. No.
20	651.	Q for Justice Cavanagh?
21		A. No, I do not.
22	652.	Q. Do you deny that you played an audio
23		recording for Justice Cavanagh?
24		A. I simply said I don't recall doing
25		that. That would again, this is eighteen

1		months. How many months ago? This is a long
2		time ago.
3	653.	Q. Eighteen months ago?
4		A. Yes, it's eighteen months ago. So I
5		don't recall every detail. We're sitting here.
6		We've been at this for several hours. So, you
7		know, I'm not in a position to give you every
8		single detail of what occurred, but it shouldn't
9		be difficult to obtain that evidence, and I note
10		that your client could have put contra evidence
11		forward, but it chose not to do so, and if we're
12		going to talk about adverse inferences, I think
13		that is adverse inference number 1.
14	654.	Q. Well, you'll have a chance to argue
15		your motion when the time comes.
16		A. But one would expect at least an
17		affidavit that says, we at KingSett deny these
18		allegations, but Mr. Pollack is sitting here
19		today and I don't know why he couldn't spin out
20		another one of his usual boilerplate affidavits
21		that just deny everything.
22	655.	Q. It's Mr. Pollack.
23		A. Well, Mr. Pollack.
24	656.	Q. And, sir, it's not a matter of any
25		dispute. Justice Cavanagh granted the

1		receivership order, didn't he?
2		A. Yes.
3	657.	Q. Thank you. And you appealed that,
4		didn't you? 30 Roe on your instructions appealed
5		the receivership?
6		A. On the advice of counsel, which is in
7		my affidavit, we appealed that because we were
8		told by counsel, and that evidence is in my
9		affidavit, that the appeal was as of right.
10	658.	Q. And it turned out that the Court of 11		Appeal concluded that it was a matter that
12		required
13		A. Leave.
14	659.	Qleave to appeal, right?
15		A. Yes.
16	660.	Q. And the Court considered whether
17		leave to appeal should be granted and dismissed
18		it, correct?
19		A. No. My understanding was they didn't
20		deal with the merits. They merely said that it
21		doesn't meet the test for leave and any issues
22		you have, you can, you know, sue other parties
23		afterwards, but for now, the receivership is
24		proceeding.
25		That's what we've been told throughout

1		this proceeding. We've been told that this is,
2		you know, quick and fast justice because you can
3		seek your damages later. The party that's
4		seeking this relief is inherently undertaking to
5		damages.
6	661.	Q. Sorry, sir, what was my question that
7		you're answering?
8		A. Well, you asked if the Court of
9		Appeal dealt with the matters and I said no.
10	662.	Q. That wasn't my question. Listen to
11		my question. The Court of Appeal considered
12		whether to grant leave to appeal and concluded
13		that leave to appeal should not be granted,
14		correct?
15		A. Based on the evidence at that time,
16		but evidence was concealed because KingSett
17		engaged in fraudulent misrepresentation. That
18		evidence of fraudulent misrepresentation didn't
19		come to our attention until December 2022. It
20		was purposely concealed.
21	663.	Q. The Court of Appeal did not grant
22		leave to appeal in June of 2022 from the order
23		appointing the receiver, yes or no?
24		A. No, they didn't grant leave to
25		appeal.

1	664.	Q. So you agree with me? They did not
2		grant leave to appeal?
3		A. That's what the order says.
4	665.	Q. Thank you. It wasn't so hard, was
5		it?
6		A. But I just don't understand the
7		purpose of asking me what it says.
8	666.	Q. Don't worry about what the purpose
9		is. Just answer the questions.
10		And you did not seek leave to appeal to
11		the Supreme Court of Canada from the Court of
12		Appeal's order of June 17, 2022, did you?
13		A. No, because we had secured financing.
14		We had a commitment letter at the Court of Appeal
15		in our hands and we tried to close on that
16		commitment letter shortly after, but my affidavit
17		lays out all the obstruction we faced by KingSett
18		and the receiver.
19	667.	Q. So again, you don't have to give an
20		explanation
21		A. I do.
22	668.	Q that's lengthy, but you agree with
23		me that you did not 30 Roe did not seek leave
24		to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada from the
25		Court of Appeal's June 17, 2022 order, did you?

1		A. No, because we secured financing
2	669.	Q. Thank you.
3		A to pay out the receiver in
4		KingSett.
5	670.	Q. And Justice McEwen made an order on
6		July 18, 2022 approving a sales process, didn't
7		he?
8		A. Based on incomplete and misleading
9		evidence filed by the receiver.
LO	671.	Q. And you opposed that relief. You on
L1		behalf of 30 Roe or 30 Roe opposed that relief?
L2		A. See, this is where a distinction
L3		needs to be drawn. A receiver isn't supposed to
L 4		be an adverse party to a stakeholder. A receiver
L 5		is supposed to be impartial.
L 6		So as I've seen in the other receivership
L 7		that's done properly, the receiver consults with
L 8		other stakeholders, isn't best friends with an
L 9		employee of the appointing creditor, isn't
20		getting constantly in the way of business.
21	672.	Q. Sir, you don't have to give a speech.
22		A. I'm answering, Mr. Swan. Isn't using
23		the same lawyers as the appointing creditor in
24		order to advance an improper vendetta. Right?
25		That's not happening in the receivership.

the question.

1 So the Court relies on the receiver to be 2 giving it all the facts, and as we've seen in the affidavit of Raymond Zar and audio recording in 3 July with the receiver and its counsel regarding 5 the sales process, it's clear the receiver didn't 6 do that. It had no interest in bringing the 7 facts to the attention of the Court, and that's precisely what our lawsuit for damages, 8 negligence and improper conduct is going to deal 9 10 with. These are matters for trial. They're not 11 matters for some rushed motion, Mr. Swan. 12 trial of these matters is required and a trial 13 will be ordered. 14 673. Q. My question was this, sir. It was a 15 very succinct question. The receiver on 16 July 18th sought a sales process approval order 17 and 30 Roe opposed that order, didn't it? I

A. When this was booked, it was supposed to be a motion to discharge and then it turned into a motion to approve a sales process, and in any event, we secured financing, and so the context of any opposition was that, hey, we have the money to pay you out. Please give us our don't need a speech. I just need you to answer

1 keys back, and the response was, well, no, no, we don't want to give you your keys back until you 2 3 sign a release, and this is what this has always been about, and it's wrong and I don't think it 4 will stand. 5 6 I think, you know, in these rushed 7 commercial list hearings, you've had some success, but at the end of the day at trial, 8 that's not how this is going to work. Mr. 9 Pollack will --10 11 674. Ο. Pollack. 12 A. Well, can we get over my pronunciation of his name? I don't believe --13 14 675. Q. Except that you are deliberately mispronouncing his name. 15 It's not deliberate. I don't really 16 care about Mr. Pollack. What is the 17 pronunciation, Pollack? 18 19 676. Q. Pollack. 20 Mr. Pollack. To the extent to Α. 21 purposely mispronounce his name. Anyways... All right. Well, Justice McEwen 22 677. issued an endorsement on July 20th, 2022, where 2.3 he refers to 30 Roe's opposition to the order, 24 25 and is it the case, sir, that 30 Roe opposed the

1		order? Just say yes or no.
2		A. I don't know. These are events from
3		a long time ago. These are complicated. I can
4		say the evidence in the affidavit of Raymond Zar
5		November 7, 2023, which from now on I'll just
6		refer to as the Zar affidavit, clearly sets out
7		the misconduct and negligence of the receiver,
8		the misconduct of KingSett and all the other
9		parties.
10	678.	Q. All right. All right.
11		A. And so whatever
12	679.	Q. Let's move on, sir. This is not an
13		opportunity for you
14		A. Please don't interrupt.
15	680.	Q to give any
16		A. Please don't interrupt.
17	681.	Q. No.
18		A. I'm speaking. Please don't
19		interrupt.
20	682.	Q. No.
21		A. I'm answering the question.
22	683.	Q. You're not answering my question.
23		A. Then I will leave. If you raise your
24		voice one more time
25	684.	Q. You're wasting everyone's time with

1 speeches. 2 A. -- I will leave and I will show this transcript to the judge. 3 685. You don't have to worry about that. 4 I will continue my answer. All of 5 6 this misconduct is set out in the affidavit of 7 Raymond Zar. 686. Q. Yes, we know, sir. 8 None of it has been put forth before 9 10 the Court. In fact, your client has pressured 11 the receiver to not even publish the motion 12 record on its website in contravention of court 13 order. There is a court order in the appointment 14 order that says that the website manager, which in this case is KSV, needs to publish all of the 15 documents on its website. 16 17 My motion record is not on the receiver's 18 website. Why? Because KingSett doesn't want the 19 evidence of its misconduct to come out. You 20 can't make this go away. None of this is going 21 away. The Notice of Action is filed. KingSett is being sued. All the other parties are being 22 2.3 sued. The only question is if we can also sue 24 the receiver, and that's for the Court to decide.

Q. Sir, did 30 Roe appeal the July 18

1		sales process approval order?
2		A. There was no need to appeal. We had
3		secured financing and we assumed that the
4		receiver would act in good faith and not block
5		the refinancing. Why would we waste court time
6		and resources appealing an order that would have
7		effectively been a nullity, because we had
8		secured refinancing?
9	688.	Q. So the answer is 30 Roe did not
10		appeal or seek leave to appeal the July 18, 2022
11		order. Is that correct? I don't need an
12		explanation why or why not. My question is, 30
13		Roe did not appeal or seek leave to appeal from
14		the July 18 order?
15		A. Based on misrepresentations made by
16		Goodmans and KSV.
17	689.	Q. You did not appeal the order?
18		A. They made misrepresentations to us
19		that caused us to not appeal it.
20	690.	Q. Sir, you have to answer the question.
21		A. I did.
22	691.	Q. Can you confirm that 30 Roe did not
23		appeal or seek leave to appeal the July 18, 2022
24		order?
25		A. I've answered that.

1 692. Q. The answer is you did not, right? 2 Α. I've answered that already. 693. And in the July 18, 2022 order --3 Q. well, we'll just leave that. 4 A. Well, actually, it's a good thing you 5 6 bring that up, because in the July 18, 2022 7 order, the Court approves a receiver's report that is supposed to include a video of the 8 receiver's misconduct, and in its report, I 9 10 believe the first report, the receiver says that 11 they'll make arrangements to show the video to 12 court, and then we found out the receiver did not 13 do that, and this will come up at the hearing, 14 because the receiver has lied in its report. So at the very least, it's been 15 16 misleading, and so none of these matters have 17 received a proper review by the Court, none of 18 them. 19 694. Q. Mr. Zar, this isn't a free 20 opportunity for you to give a speech about 21 anything you want. I'm giving evidence. 22 695. 2.3 Q. If you attempted to do this before a 24 judge, you would be stopped very quickly. 25 I'm giving evidence and I'm going to Α.

1		rely on these transcripts.
2	696.	Q. I hadn't asked you a question, sir.
3		A. Well, it's the evidence in the
4		transcript.
5	697.	Q. No, you're not entitled to just give
6		a speech.
7		A. I'm answering the question.
8	698.	Q. You're obliged to answer questions.
9		A. I am. I'm answering the question.
10	699.	Q. What question did I ask you that
11		you're answering?
12		A. You asked about the July 18th hearing
13		and I'm telling you what happened at that
14		July 18th hearing.
15	700.	Q. And, sir, the original receivership
16		appointment order, you would have read it
17		carefully, I presume. You knew it contains a
18		provision that you can't commence a proceeding
19		against the receiver, right?
20		A. No, I did not actually read it
21		carefully. My focus was always on paying out the
22		debt and discharging the receiver or preventing a
23		receiver, and that's what I focussed on.
24		Unfortunately, KingSett beat me at that by
25		blocking all attempts to refinance in order to pressure me to sign a release so that its dealings with Deepak Ruparell and 935 Queen Street West and the City of Toronto would not come out.

	Perhaps you should put this as an exhibit,
	I just discovered, City of Toronto eighty-million-dollar deal for 935 Queen concealed.
701.	Q. Sir, would you please sit down and answer my question?
	A. No. I would like Mr. Pollack, or whatever his name is, to show this to his bosses.
	Actually, you know what, I'll give you a copy.
702.	Q. Mr. Pollack does not appreciate you repeatedly insulting him by mispronouncing his name.
	A. Please don't say that. I'm not mispronouncing his name. I'm pronouncing it as it's written, Pollack. Isn't it Pollack?
703.	Q. Yes, it's Pollack.
	A. Pollack.
704.	Q. Sir, the order that Justice McEwen gave preventing you from broadcasting any recording of the December 14 hearing, if such a recording existed, you didn't appeal that order, did you?
	702.

1			Α.	Justice McEwen reversed many of
2		much of	that	order in his supplementary
3		endorser	ment,	Mr. Swan.
4	705.		Q.	He didn't reverse any of it.
5			Α.	He did.
6	706.		Q.	You didn't appeal that order, did
7		you?
8			Α.	Could you bring could you show me
9		the orde	er and	d the supplementary?
10	707.		Q.	Did you appeal the order?
11			Α.	I need to see it.
12	708.		Q.	Yeah, sure. There's the order.
13			Α.	Well, no, I meant the endorsement,
14		not the	ordeı	c.
15	709.		Q.	There's the endorsement.
16			Α.	Well, this is the December 20th, 2022
17		suppleme	entary	y, which I keep referring to, but
18		where's	the o	original endorsement? Thank you.
19			Well,	, I recall at the hearing on
20		December	r 14,	2022, one of the major issues I had
21		with tha	at hea	aring and the reason for the
22		complair	nt to	the Chief Justice's Office was that
23		Justice	McEwe	en essentially said he's approving
24		everyth	ing th	ne receiver has asked for and that's
25		it, and	I fou	und that to be unfair, and that's why

1 after the complaint, the supplementary 2 endorsement came out and it reversed that, and Justice McEwen said in his supplementary 3 endorsement that the receiver's activities and 4 5 the rest of it except the amended sales process 6 is deferred to a future hearing, which I thought 7 dealt with my concern. 710. Q. Yeah. 8 A. So what is your question? 9 711. Q. My question is this, and I don't want 10 11 a speech. I just want an answer, although I'm going to continue with my questions till I get 12 13 answers. You did not appeal his December 14, 14 2022 order which prevented you from broadcasting any recording of that hearing if it existed? 15 16 Α. That was a miscommunication. I never 17 said that. 712. 18 Q. Stop with the speeches, sir. Yes or no? 19 20 Mr. Swan. Α. 21 713. Q. Did you appeal the order? Mr. Swan, if you raise your voice one 22 more time, I will leave this cross-examination 2.3 24 and I will bring your rudeness to the attention 25 of the judge and ask that you be censured if this

1		is to be rescheduled. You are not to yell at me,
2		and if you ask a question, you will hear the
3		answer in full. That is how this works. You
4		don't get to dictate what my answer is. Do you
5		understand?
6	714.	Q. Here's my question. Did you or did
7		you not appeal the December 14, 2022 order that
8		prevented you from broadcasting any recording of
9		the hearing? Did you appeal it?
10		A. It references today's hearing, so in
11		reference to the December 14, 2022 hearing, Mr.
12		Swan.
13	715.	Q. Yes.
14		A. It's not an umbrella order relating
15		to all hearings. It's specifically that hearing.
16	716.	Q. No one said that, sir. Did you on
17		December 14, '22 Justice McEwen issued an
18		endorsement preventing you from broadcasting any
19		recording of that day's hearing in the event that
20		you had one. My simple question was, did you
21		A. The appeal yes.
22	717.	Q. Did you appeal
23		A. Yes, we did.
24	718.	Q or seek leave to appeal?
25		A. We did. We contacted the Chief

1		Justice's Office. That was the better route to
2		deal with the issue.
3	719.	Q. Did you file a Notice of Motion for
4		Leave to Appeal or an appeal in the Ontario Court
5		of Appeal?
6		A. It wasn't necessary. The Chief
7		Justice's Office
8	720.	Q. Is the answer no?
9		A dealt with the matter itself.
10	721.	Q. Is the answer no, sir?
11		A. In fact, the endorsement was issued
12		and everybody moved on.
13	722.	Q. Is the answer no, sir?
14		A. Obviously we didn't, otherwise you
15		would have a copy of it.
16	723.	Q. Then just say so.
17		A. Then why are you asking? I don't
18		understand the purpose of asking.
19	724.	Q. And equally, Justice McEwen issued an
20		order on December 14, 2022 amending the sales
21		process. Do you remember that?
22		A. Yes.
23	725.	Q. And you didn't appeal or seek leave
24		to appeal from that either, did you?
25		A. Based on the information we had at

1		the time, no.
2	726.	Q. And later an order was made on
3		February the 7th, 2023 requiring that you
4		disconnect certain monitoring equipment at 30
5		Roe. Do you remember that?
6		A. I don't.
7	727.	Q. You don't remember that order?
8		A. I don't remember every single order
9		that's issued in this long proceeding, but the
10		order isn't against me to do anything. I believe
11		it was authorization to the receiver, nothing to
12		do with me.
13	728.	Q. And, sir, there was a motion on
14		February the 7th seeking approval and vesting
15		orders for PH04 and PH09. Do you remember that?
16		A. What I remember was Blaneys was
17		engaged again because they were supposed to make
18		things right after the fiasco in August 2022.
19	729.	Q. Would you like to see the endorsement
20		of Justice Steele?
21		A. I'm answering. In August 2022, when
22		KingSett pressured them to not bring the motion
23		to discharge, when we secured $3 million, and so
24		in December Blaneys was supposed to make things
25		right, and the idea was they were going to reach

1 a consensual agreement on everything, and this 2 time I said, I don't want a repetition of what happened last time, when you guys, you know, had 3 pressure from KingSett and you just left me high 5 and dry, and they said, okay, so we'll get a 6 written authorization from KingSett so KingSett 7 can't put pressure on us again; and on that 8 recommendation I agreed to retain Lou Brzezinski, 9 Mervyn Abramowitz and Lucas Strezos of Blaneys, 10 but what happened is on the 356th day 11 anniversary, the one year anniversary of this 12 matter, which really commenced January 17th, 13 2022, which was the first hearing, KingSett gave 14 its authorization to Blaneys, written authorization, and literally five minutes after 15 16 that, Mr. Armstrong of Goodmans, counsel to the receiver, sent a letter to me and said, by the 17 18 way, ten days ago we sold a unit and we recommend 19 you get counsel, and I found that to be just 20 beyond -- I don't want to use words to describe 21 it. I think it's clear what I'm meaning to say. 22 It was just absolute -- absolutely 2.3 disgusting, and what happened is I was then 24 locked into a relationship with Blaneys because 25 for ten days the receiver didn't bother saying,

oh, by the way, we sold a unit.

Had I known they sold a unit, I wouldn't have retained Blaneys. I would have retained Henein Hutchison, which could easily act against KingSett, but then I was stuck with Blaneys and the handcuffs that that came with.

Even so, Blaneys assured me that the matter that the written waiver from KingSett meant that KingSett couldn't play the games it did back in August 2022, as outlined in my affidavit and the audio recordings, and it then became our lawyer in that matter, and so, yes, it acted on the approval of those two sales.

The receiver at no point brought the matter of HST to the attention of the judge. There is now evidence that the receiver knew about the HST obligation. It failed or refused to get tax advice. It failed or refused to bring it to the attention of the judge, and it obtained approval of the sales process on misleading and incomplete evidence; and when the hearing before Justice Steele proceeded, unfortunately Her Honour said that she's bound by the decision of Justice McEwen, and at all times I was told none of this matters because at the end of the day,

1		whatever damages you suffer, you can sue KingSett
2		and you can seek leave to sue the receiver, and
3		that's what we've been waiting for.
4	730.	Q. Are you now referring to legal advice
5		you got, sir?
6		A. Well, I've been advised by
7		consultants.
8	731.	Q. Consultants?
9		A. Other businesspeople, others who have
10		been through this procedure.
11	732.	Q. Who? I actually don't care. Here we
12		go. Did you swear an affidavit on May the
13		sorry, on February the 6th, 2023?
14		A. Yes.
15	733.	Q. And in that affidavit beginning at
16		paragraph 8, you discuss the relationship with
17		KingSett?
18		A. No. That is to show that KingSett
19		had knowledge about the long the corporate
20		housing or short-term rental business, you know,
21		a fact that it, for some reason, still I don't
22		understand why it did this, it denied, it
23		pretended like we were making it up, and so we
24		said, okay, let's find evidence that KingSett had
25		this even before this dispute, and so we showed

1		that.
2	734.	Q. And
3		A. But it didn't matter because Justice
4		Steele said that she's bound by the decision of
5		Justice McEwen, and so we're back to the fact
6		that the receiver was negligent, and that's
7		something that has to be dealt with at trial.
8	735.	Q. So you did file this affidavit,
9		right
10		A. Yes.
11	736.	Q dated February 6th? Let's mark
12		that as the next exhibit, Exhibit 5.
13		EXHIBIT NO. 5: Affidavit of Raymond Zar
14		sworn February 6, 2023.
15		BY MR. SWAN:
16	737.	Q. And Justice Steele issued the
17		endorsement that you have, that I've just handed
18		you, dated February 7, 2023; correct?
19		A. Yes.
20	738.	Q. And she granted approval and vesting
21		orders for two of the units, correct?
22		A. Yes.
23	739.	Q. And 30 Roe sought leave to appeal to
24		the Ontario Court of Appeal?
25		A. Blaneys advised that we should appeal

1		and we followed Blaneys' advice.
2	740.	Q. And you agreed and you filed the
3		leave to appeal application?
4		A. On the advice of Blaneys, yes,
5		contrary to the false assertions out there, it
6		was Blaneys that yes, that is the legal advice
7		I received. Blaneys said to appeal.
8	741.	Q. So you're relying on Blaneys what
9		Blaney said as their advice to you; is that
10		right?
11		A. Yes. They were the lawyers of
12		record. I have no reason to disagree with their
13		legal advice.
14	742.	Q. And that appeal came before the
15		Ontario Court of Appeal in March of 2023 and you
16		asked that two of the judges to recuse
17		themselves from the hearing, right?
18		A. Not exactly. What happened was
19		Blaneys on the one hand said it recommended that
20		we appeal the Steele AVOs, and so we followed
21		that advice and said, okay, proceed.
22		Then Scott Coates called Scott Coates
23		of KingSett, so president of KingSett Mortgage
24		Corporation, called Steven Jeffery, KingSett's
25		main partner at Blaneys, and told Steven Jeffery

1		that he was very disappointed in Blaneys.
2		They're doing too well of a job for Raymond, for
3		30 Roe, and that Steven Jeffery needs to control
4		Lou Brzezinski, who was our lead lawyer on this.
5		Shortly after that
6	743.	Q. Sir, the question was
7		A. Mr. Swan, please don't interrupt.
8		Mr. Swan, I'm not finished.
9	744.	Q did you ask two judges of the
10		Court of Appeal to recuse themselves?
11		A. Mr. Swan, I'm not finished.
12	745.	Q. This isn't an opportunity, sir, for
13		you to give a speech.
14		A. I'm going to stop. Whenever you
15		finish interrupting, I will continue my answer.
16	746.	Q. This isn't an opportunity for you to
17		give a speech about whatever comes to your mind.
18		You do have to make a passing effort to answer
19		questions.
20		One of the things, just so that you know
21		and you're not taken by surprise, is we will be
22		asking the judge to read your transcript and have
23		regard to whether you have any respect for the
24		administration of justice, including by
25		attempting to answer questions that you're asked

Τ		on the cross-examination.
2		So my question, sir, was this
3		A. I'm not finished my answer, Mr. Swan
4	747.	Q did you or did you not ask two
5		judges of the Court of Appeal to recuse
6		themselves in the March 2023 hearing?
7		A. As I was saying, Mr. Coates of
8		KingSett called Steven Jeffery of Blaneys,
9		complained to him that Lou Brzezinski and Blaneys
10		were doing too good of a job for Raymond and 30
11		Roe, and that, in Lou Brzezinski's words to me,
12		and I can present audio evidence of this, he said
13		that Scott Coates yelled at Steven Jeffery and
14		threatened to pull all of KingSett's transaction
15		work from Blaneys if they didn't shut this down
16		right now, and it was after that call that Mr.
17		Brzezinski disappeared and Mr. Abramowitz
18		appeared and almost immediately Mr. Abramowitz
19		disavowed all the commitments and agreements made
20		with Lou Brzezinski, including financial
21		arrangements.
22		He then improperly brought motions to get
23		off the record, not just on this matter but on
24		five or six other major matters Blaneys was
25		acting on. He brought an exparte motion before

2.3

Justice Osborne without giving us notice. He then relied on that ex parte motion to bring a motion before Justice Steele to have KingSett -- have Blaneys withdraw, and it turns out that all of those processes and decisions were improper because the Court of Appeal actually dismissed Blaneys' motion to get off the record, called it unprofessional, and I won't repeat it, but anyone that's read it can see what the Court of Appeal felt about Blaneys' conduct, and in fact, Mr. Abramowitz and Mr. Strezos are no longer with Blaneys. I understand Mr. Abramowitz isn't practising law anymore. He was not anywhere near the age of retirement, and so you can come to your own conclusions about what happened there.

And so we were left at that hearing with counsel that just was -- had one goal in mind, and that was to save the amount of business

Steven Jeffery and Blaney was receiving from

KingSett, and so they refused to file even the factum that they prepared, and they entirely misled the Court of Appeal in terms of what happened, and I understand the appeal was dismissed in large part because the Court didn't have the factum and the Notice of Motion didn't include the relief that we were seeking,

2.3

including the appeal being moot and including the

HST not having been raised before Justice McEwen, and thereby Justice Steele erring and relying on

Justice McEwen's order, when the matter of HST was not even brought to Justice McEwen at that time.

The fact is a senior lawyer at Blaneys, a specialist, one of I think only three in Ontario, a specialist in bankruptcy and insolvency, Mervyn Abramowitz, has either resigned or been fired from Blaneys as a result of this matter, and so I think there is much for the Court to review, and this is all why we need a trial of these matters, not some rushed motion.

- Q. After the Court of Appeal rendered its decision on March 29th, 2023, you did not seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, did you?
- A. We couldn't because KingSett had succeeded in having Blaneys resign. The Court of Appeal decision was that Blaneys is to stay on the record until the conclusion of the Court of Appeal, and so at the conclusion we did seek to appeal it to the Supreme Court but Blaneys

1		refused to do so and they were off the record
2		because of KingSett and KingSett's improper
3		interference in our relations with Blaneys.
4	749.	Q. So you did not ever serve Notice of
5		Leave to Appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada,
6		sir?
7		A. I instructed Blaneys to do so.
8	750.	Q. You had fired Blaneys at the time.
9		A. I hadn't fired them. They sought an
10		order to get off the record.
11	751.	Q. I see. Okay. In any event, you
12		never did serve Notice of Leave to Appeal to the
13		Supreme Court of Canada, did you?
14		A. We couldn't. Our efforts to do so
15		were frustrated improperly by KingSett.
16	752.	Q. However it happened, you did not
17		serve Notice of Leave to Appeal?
18		A. The how matters when there's improper
19		conduct and there's fraudulent conduct. The how
20		is relevant.
21	753.	Q. The answer is either yes, you did or
22		no, you didn't. Is the answer no, you didn't?
23		A. You have my answer.
24	754.	Q. Sir, did you swear an affidavit on
25		May the 15th, 2023?

1		A. Yes.
2	755.	Q. And were you represented by a law
3		firm at this point?
4		A. I believe no, not formally, no. That
5		was the purpose of the motion.
6	756.	Q. Well, this was in advance of the
7		motion before Justice Osborne, actually.
8		A. Oh, I thought this was the fee
9		approvals. No, this is the
10	757.	Q. I'm sorry, you're correct.
11		A. Yes. It's the retainer approval.
12	758.	Q. The funding approval?
13		A. The funding approvals, yes.
14	759.	Q. And did you have a law firm or did
15		you draft this affidavit?
16		A. I drafted it.
17		MR. SWAN: Thank you. Let's mark that as
18		the next exhibit, Exhibit 6, affidavit of May 15,
19		2023.
20		EXHIBIT NO. 6: Affidavit of Raymond Zar
21		sworn May 15, 2023.
22		THE DEPONENT: Are you ever going to
23		cross-examine me on my November 14, 2023
24		affidavit? because we're going to be asking the
25		Court to grant our relief because you filed no

1		contra evidence. So our evidence is
2		BY MR. SWAN:
3	760.	Q. You've said that several times, Mr.
4		Zar.
5		A. Because you're just going through
6		affidavits that are already in court. They
7		don't
8	761.	Q. And Justice Steele filed or issued a
9		decision on May the 18th, 2023 denying your
10		request for funding and, sir, you did not seek
11		leave to appeal in respect of that, did you?
12		A. That was only in respect of funding.
13	762.	Q. Yes.
14		A. There was no other determination.
15	763.	Q. You did not seek leave to appeal, did
16		you?
17		A. No.
18	764.	Q. Wasn't that easy?
19		A. Well, the other ones are a bit more
20		complicated, Mr. Swan.
21	765.	Q. And later there was a motion before
22		Justice Osborne to approve certain other sales
23		with approval and vesting orders and certain
24		other ancillary relief. That came before the
25		Court and Justice Osborne issued an order on the

1		30th of May of 2023, and my question in that
2		respect is, you did not seek leave to appeal
3		Justice Osborne's order, did you?
4		A. Why would we appeal it? His Honour
5		granted three of four requests that we made.
6	766.	Q. You did not seek leave to appeal his
7		order, did you?
8		A. There was nothing to appeal. His
9		Honour granted our request.
LO	767.	Q. So the answer is, no, you did not
L1		seek leave to appeal. Correct?
L2		A. Appeal decisions that His Honour made
L3		in our favour? I don't understand how one could
L 4		do that. We asked provisional exclusion not be
L 5		granted. His Honour agreed. We asked that I be
L 6		listed as an agent and not as a guarantor. His
L7		Honour agreed.
L 8		The only item that His Honour did not
L 9		agree was that 30 Roe would be part of the
20		committee approving the sales along with KingSett
21		and CIBC. That's the only aspect.
22		His Honour granted all of our other
23		requests, and most importantly, His Honour
24		refused to grant provisional exclusion to the
25		receiver and accepted our argument that

1		provisional exclusion ought not to be granted,
2		and His Honour asked me if I intended to appeal
3		once His Honour approved and I said, I do not,
4		and I honoured my commitment to the Court and I
5		did not appeal.
6	768.	Q. Thank you.
7		A. And also, you forgot one. I'd like
8		to clarify something. When you referred to
9		Justice Steele's decision regarding the funding
LO		motion, Justice Steele did order that I pay
L1		$5,000 in costs, and that was because I failed to
L2		serve a Notice of Motion.
L3		At the time I didn't appreciate the
L 4		importance of the Notice of Motion and I didn't
L5		file one, and Justice Steele decided that I had
L 6		to pay costs.
L7		So I understand the importance of
L8		following the proper procedure, and as you can
L 9		see, this time I have filed the proper
20		documentation and I did pay the $5,000 in costs
21		sometime ago, so just to be clear.
22	769.	Q. Good for you.
23		A. Thank you. I must say I'm kind of
24		disappointed. I thought today's
25		cross-examination by Richard Swan would be a

Τ		little more, you know, edge of your seat sort
2		of I mean, you wrote a book on this and so far
3		you're just disappointing me, Mr. Swan.
4	770.	Q. Sorry to disappoint you, Mr. Zar.
5		A. You know I'm an enthusiast for these
6		things. So I thought I would witness some
7		compelling cross-examination, but so far you're
8		just having me confirm if judges said what they
9		said.
LO	771.	Q. Oh, I'm doing a little more than
L1		that. You may just not recognize it.
L2		A. Well, you're going to try to show
L3		that the courts have already dealt with this.
L 4		The problem is the courts couldn't have dealt
L 5		with this because the evidence in my affidavit
L 6		was only discovered as of late.
L 7		So when you have fraudulent
L 8		misrepresentation, you can't rely on past
L 9		decisions when there was active efforts to
20		conceal the evidence.
21	772.	Q. Mr. Zar, did you send this e-mail to
22		Mr. Coates and Mr. Love on April 14, 2022?
23		A. The one that says, I have no respect
24		for those that were handed everything they have
25		by their father, and buying a skyscraper will never change the fact that they will always be small because they have never had to fight for anything in their life and will always feel inadequate because they are?

773.	Q. Did you send the e-mail, Mr. Zar, or not?
	A. You mean that e-mail?
774.	Q. Did you send it?
	A. You see, April 14, 2022 I had none of the information that I have today, and if I had the information, there would be no need to send this e-mail, which quite frankly was meant to provoke a response to try to understand why
	KingSett was spending so much time and energy to bury me, because I had to know. I wasn't going to just give in.
	So, yes, I sent this e-mail to try to provoke a response out of them.
775.	Q. Thank you.
	A. To try and figure out what they were up to, and now we know.
	MR. SWAN: Let's mark that e-mail of April 14, 2022 as Exhibit 7.
	EXHIBIT NO. 7: E-mail from Mr. Zar to Mr.
	Coates and Mr. Love dated April 14, 2022.
	774.

1		THE DEPONENT: But I was not prepared to
2		bring it all to the attention of the Court until
3		I had evidence, and that evidence is now in my
4		in the Zar affidavit.
5		MR. SWAN: All right. Let's take a break.
6		We'll come back shortly.
7		Break commencing 3:18 p.m.
8		Upon resuming 3:42 p.m.
9		BY MR. SWAN:
10	776.	Q. Mr. Zar, who's Seth Cohen?
11		A. Seth Cohen is a part-time employee,
12		slash, contractor that works for me.
13	777.	Q. Seth Cohen was the chief of staff to
14		the CEO of Roehampton? That was his title?
15		A. Yeah. At that time it was more full
16		time but now it's more part time.
17	778.	Q. But he is an employee of Roehampton?
18		A. No, contractor.
19	779.	Q. He was an employee of Roehampton?
20		A. Independent contractor.
21	780.	Q. He was an employee at one time?
22		A. No, independent contractor.
23	781.	Q. Does he still work for you?
24		A. Part time, yes.
25	782.	Q. And what's his title?

1		Α.	Same thing, chief of staff.
2	783.	Q.	Chief of staff to the CEO?
3		A.	Yes.
4	784.	Q.	That's you?
5		A.	Here I am.
6	785.	Q.	And you couldn't think of his name?
7		A.	You said his name. What was there to
8		think of?
9	786.	Q.	You couldn't think of his name
10		before?
11		A.	He's a contractor, not an employee.
12		MR.	SWAN: I see. All right. Sir, those
13		are all of c	our questions.
14			Off-the-record discussion 3:43 p.m.
15			Upon resuming 3:46 p.m.
16		CROS	SS-EXAMINATION BY MR. DUNN:
17	787.	Q.	Mr. Zar, I'm going to ask you a few
18		questions or	behalf of the receiver.
19		A.	Yes.
20	788.	Q.	You were affirmed before you started
21		today?
22		A.	Yes.
23	789.	Q.	Okay. And you continue to be
24		affirmed?
25		Α.	Yes.

1	790.	Q. Okay. I understand that you've
2		commenced a Notice of Action against the
3		receiver?
4		A. And other parties, yes.
5	791.	Q. Among others?
6		A. Yes.
7	792.	Q. And you purported to commence that
8		one on behalf of 30 Roe, the debtor in this
9		proceeding?
10		A. 30 Roe is named as a plaintiff.
11	793.	Q. Okay. Just to be clear, you would
12		agree that you have not sought permission from
13		the receiver?
14		A. We have sought leave.
15	794.	Q. You have not sought permission from
16		the receiver to take the steps that you did?
17		A. We have and the receiver vehemently
18		objected, and so we sought leave.
19	795.	Q. When and how did you seek the
20		receiver's permission to take the steps that you
21		did?
22		A. I don't recall the exact date, but I am a hundred percent certain the receiver would 23
2324		not or did not simply tell us that we couldn't

1	796.	Q. So you asked the receiver for leave
2		you asked the receiver for written permission,
3		presumably, to commence the proceeding?
4		A. No, it wasn't written. It was in
5		conversation at some point. I don't
6	797.	Q. At what point
7		A. We did not no, we did not seek
8		permission in writing. It came up in
9		discussions, but
10	798.	Q. When were the discussions, sir?
11		A. Just to be clear sorry, could you
12		repeat the question? I think I'm
13		misunderstanding.
14	799.	Q. You just told me a minute ago that
15		you asked for permission to take the steps that
16		you did with respect to suing the receiver and
17		other parties from the receiver. Do you recall
18		giving that testimony?
19		A. I misunderstood. No. The receiver
20		was not asked in writing about suing the
21		receiver. That's something we've put in writing
22		in our motion for leave. So I'm confused with
23		those two.
24	800.	Q. No, you said that. You said the
25		receiver wasn't asked in writing?

1		A. Yeah.
2	801.	Q. But you also said that you asked in a
3		discussion with the receiver.
4		A. There were discussions but I don't
5		recall if it was specifically asking point blank,
6		you know, Mr. Receiver, can you give us
7		permission to sue you? I think it was in the
8		context of just having discussions about how
9		litigation would work. It wasn't really
10		anything
11	802.	Q. When were those discussions?
12		A. It was probably the last phone call
13		we had sometime in I don't recall the exact
14		date, whenever me and Noah Goldstein last spoke.
15		It wasn't anything formal. So I don't
16	803.	Q. And I take it, sir, that you recorded
17		that conversation?
18		A. I don't know.
19	804.	Q. Can you
20		A. I'm not relying on asking the
21		receiver for permission.
22	805.	Q. That wasn't my question. Did you or
23		did you not record that conversation?
24		A. I don't recall.
25	806.	Q. Okay. We can agree that you do not

1		currently have leave from the Court to commence
2		the proceeding that you did?
3		A. In the circumstances, we followed the
4		process as best as we could. We sought leave,
5		and even though we're not obligated to, we have
6		disclosed the issuance of a Notice of Action as
7		soon as it was issued to you and we've amended
8		our Notice of Motion accordingly.
9	807.	Q. And you are aware that there is a
10		court order that requires leave in order to sue
11		the receiver?
12		A. It's unclear to us and so out of an
13		abundance of caution, we have sought leave.
14	808.	Q. You are aware let's put it this
15		way. You are aware of the order appointing a
16		receiver, correct?
17		A. Yes.
18	809.	Q. And you are aware of what it says as
19		it relates to leave, correct?
20		A. No. Even lawyers that have looked at
21		it are unclear.
22	810.	Q. I didn't say if you understood it. I
23		asked if you were aware of it.
24		A. Well, without understanding it, I
25		don't know how you'd be aware of it.

1	811.	Q. Have you reviewed that provision?
2		A. We've reviewed the receivership order
3		and it's unclear to us what it means in terms of
4		suing the receiver and suing other parties.
5	812.	Q. So having reviewed the receivership
6		order, you are aware of what it says as it
7		relates to suing the receiver. Correct?
8		A. No, we are unclear. That's why out
9		of an abundance of caution, we have sought leave
10		in the upcoming motion, and I note this Notice of
11		Action, you know, the timing for it is very close
12		to the upcoming motion anyways. So there's no
13		prejudice suffered by anyone. These will be
14		dealt with at the upcoming motion.
15	813.	Q. Not my question, sir.
16		A. Then clarify your question.
17	814.	Q. I've tried to get at this a few
18		different ways. If you don't want to answer
19		whether you're aware of the order that you read,
20		that's fine.
21		Let's talk your mother has no current
22		role at 30 Roe, the debtor; correct?
23		A. What do you mean by that?
24	815.	Q. She's a minority shareholder but she
25		doesn't she doesn't have any position as an

1		employee o	r of	fficer of 30 Roe?
2		Α.	1	No, that's not true.
3	816.	Q.	(Okay. What is her position at 30
4		Roe?
5		Α.	V	Well, A, she's a shareholder.
6	817.	Q.	(Okay.
7		Α.	Z	And B, I understand she's an officer.
8	818.	Q.	V	What is her position at 30 Roe?
9		Α.]	I believe vice president.
10	819.	Q.]	Is she authorized to act on behalf of
11		30 Roe?
12		Α.]	I don't know.
13	820.	Q.	(Okay. Does she participate in 30
14		Roe's busi	ness	s?
15		Α.	7	Yes.
16	821.	Q.	F	Has she participated in 30 Roe's
17		actions as	the	ey relate to this receivership?
18		Α.	V	Well, she was the subject of cruel
19		and I'll o	all	it unusual treatment by and at the
20		hands of t	he i	receiver. So on that basis, I guess
21		she is inv	olve	ed.
22	822.	Q.	7	That wasn't my question. Often times
23		when you r	efei	r to the receivership, you refer to
24		yourself i	n th	he first person plural. You say, we
25		have taker	the	e step, we've agreed to this. Are

1		you referring to you and your mother?
2		A. No. Corporations are independent of
3		people.
4	823.	Q. So when you say, "we", you mean you
5		and the corporation that you control?
6		A. No, I mean the corporation.
7	824.	Q. So when you say, "we"
8		A. How would you refer to a corporation
9		when you're speaking? You would say, "we". When
10		you're a director of that corporation, you would
11		say, "we".
12	825.	Q. I wouldn't but what I do is not
13		particularly relevant.
14		A. I mean, corporations don't have
15		pronouns. I can't refer to 30 Roe as they.
16	826.	Q. Okay.
17		A. Them. They. What am I supposed to
18		refer to? Say, "we". I'm a director.
19	827.	Q. I just wanted to make sure. Have you
20		discussed this receivership with your mother?
21		A. After all this time, I'm pretty sure
22		she's aware of this receivership.
23	828.	Q. Well, is she?
24		A. You've been in contact with her. I
25		don't know.

1	829.	Q. Before December of 2022, had you
2		discussed this receivership with your mother?
3		A. I don't recall.
4	830.	Q. You don't recall?
5		A. No.
6	831.	Q. She's the vice president of the
7		company that a receiver was appointed over and
8		it's your evidence that you didn't discuss it
9		with her?
10		A. You just said a receiver was
11		appointed over. Residual authority is with the
12		board and I am the sole director. So I don't
13		know how to answer your question. I imagine the
14		receiver discussed it with her.
15	832.	Q. She founded the business in 2001?
16		A. What business?
17	833.	Q. The business.
18		A. No. All of the if you're reading
19		I don't know where you're getting that, but
20		you should
21	834.	Q. I'm getting that from the decision
22		A. Yeah.
23	835.	Q in the lawsuit that she commenced
24		against you alleging that you had improperly
25		taken control of 30 Roe from her.

1		A. No, 2001 that did not happen. The
2		assets were purchased after my involvement. That
3		was an inaccurate and misleading claim put
4		forward by her lawyer that was entirely decimated
5		in court. The land registry records show it.
6		All of the assets were purchased after I formed
7		Roehampton, not before.
8	836.	Q. Okay.
9		A. The only asset that was did exist
10		before was the operating company Mary-Am
11		Hospitality Corp. That did predate my
12		involvement but that had no value. The real
13		estate was all purchased after my involvement and
14		as a result of capital that I injected and
15		financing that I arranged, including the KingSett
16		mortgage in this matter and the CIBC mortgage and
17		the BDC mortgage, all of which I'm the guarantor
18		and she is not.
19		So the allegations put forth in her
20		Statement of Claim are entirely without merit and
21		have been dismissed by the Court.
22	837.	Q. Okay. So before the receivership, 30
23		Roe was providing active management of the
24		business?
25		A. What do you mean by that?

1	838.		Q.	It was providing housekeeping
2		services	3?
3			Α.	Before the receivership, 30 Roe was
4		operatin	ng as	Roe Suites, a short-term rental
5		business	offe	ering furnished accommodation.
6	839.		Q.	Was it providing housekeeping
7		services	;?
8			Α.	To whom?
9	840.		Q.	To tenants of the units.
10			Α.	It was providing housekeeping
11		services	s to g	guests, yes.
12	841.		Q.	Thank you. You had security cameras
13		installe	ed in	the halls?
14			Α.	With the permission of the property
15		manager	of th	ne condominium corporation, yes.
16	842.		Q.	Did I ask about permission from the
17		property	mana	ager?
18			Α.	I want to be complete.
19	843.		Q.	Okay. Let's try it again. You had
20		security	came	eras installed in the halls?
21			Α.	Asked and answered.
22	844.		Q.	And you continued to monitor those
23		cameras	after	the receiver was appointed?
24			Α.	Mr. Dunn, the cameras have been long
25		removed.

1	845.	Q. Not my question. You continued to
2		monitor those cameras after the receiver was
3		appointed, yes or no?
4		A. The receiver was fully aware of it
5		and I had every right to as a director of the
6		condominium corporation.
7	846.	Q. You continued to monitor those
8		cameras after the appointment of the receiver,
9		yes or no?
10		A. I wouldn't agree with the term
11		"monitor" because I didn't have the time or
12		inclination to sit there and watch the cameras
13		every day, but every time there was misconduct,
14		we went in to see if there was anything there,
15		and low and behold there was.
16	847.	Q. You used "we" again. Who's "we"?
17		A. 30 Roe Investments Corp.
18	848.	Q. In terms of a person, the only person
19		involved is you; right?
20		A. I don't know. That is subjective to
21		the context that you're asking it in.
22	849.	Q. In this case, you continued the
23		only human being who monitored these cameras
24		after the appointment of the receiver is you, yes
25		or no?

1		A. No. Others had access to the
2		cameras.
3	850.	Q. Who are the others?
4		A. Condominium management.
5	851.	Q. Who else?
6		A. I don't know.
7	852.	Q. Okay. So as far as reviewing it on
8		behalf of 30 Roe, the only person who did that
9		was you. Right?
10		A. I don't think evidence of wrongdoing
11		is going to be set aside based on technicalities.
12	853.	Q. I didn't ask that.
13		A. Lying to the police is serious and
14		the Criminal Code doesn't care about these
15		nuances.
16	854.	Q. Okay.
17		A. When you file a police report, you're
18		expected to be honest, and when it's found that
19		you weren't honest and you've committed public
20		mischief, it doesn't matter who you are, who
21		you're connected to. The law is the law.
22		So I don't know if this is helpful. The
23		evidence shows what it shows.
24	855.	Q. That's a great speech, Mr. Zar. What
25		question did I ask?

1		A. I did see a question there.
2	856.	Q. What question did I ask?
3		A. If you feel I haven't answered your
4		question, you can ask it again.
5	857.	Q. I will ask one more time and I would
6		ask you to please answer the questions instead of
7		making speeches on the record.
8		You are the human being who monitored the
9		security cameras after the receiver was
10		appointed, correct?
11		R/F A. I disagree with the premise of your
12		question, and so refused.
13	858.	Q. All right. I'm going to move on.
14		When the receiver was appointed, your mother was
15		living in penthouse 7; correct?
16		A. I don't know. The receiver was
17		appointed and the receiver took possession of the
18		property, changed the locks and dealt with all
19		occupants.
20	859.	Q. Right. But on the day that the
21		receiver was appointed, right, the receiver
22		started doing those things. The day before that,
23		you were in charge of those things; correct?
24		A. It's a bit more nuanced than that.
25		She, my mother, has always had keys to all the

1 units. She's always lived there, been there, and 2 what I struggle with is that it was the receiver that gave her the key to both penthouse 7 and 3 penthouse 1, and that's the part I don't 4 5 understand. 6 860. Q. Okay. Let's try again and I want you 7 to really listen to my question and then try and answer the question. Okay? Can you do that for 8 9 me? 10 That's what I'm doing, Mr. Dunn. Α. 11 861. Ο. Okay. When the receiver was 12 appointed, did you or did you not know that your mother was living in penthouse 7? 13 14 A. I don't recall. It's a long time 15 ago. 16 862. Q. Okay. Did you tell the receiver that 17 your mother was living in penthouse 7? 18 Α. The receiver barely acknowledged me. 19 The receiver and I had virtually no 20 conversations. Any communication was through Mr. 21 Armstrong and it was always this long Goodmans 22 letter which said that it would do horrible 2.3 things to me and that I better not do this or do 24 that. There was never any sort of constructive 25 dialogue.

1		The one conversation we had was that July
2		conversation, the recording of which is in my
3		affidavit. Other than that, it's just
4		adversarial e-mails from Goodmans, countless
5		attempts by me to speak with the receiver and
6		just outright being ignored by the receiver.
7	863.	Q. Do you remember the question I asked?
8		A. Yes, and I'm telling you that the
9		receiver barely acknowledged me. So what
10		conversations would I have?
11	864.	Q. Whatever the receiver acknowledged or
12		didn't acknowledge, did you or did you not tell
13		the receiver that your mother was occupying
14		penthouse 7?
15		A. I don't recall.
16	865.	Q. Do you have a copy of the receiver's
17		motion record with you?
18		A. I don't. I have mine
19	866.	Q. I'll pass you yours. I apologize,
20		there's a marking on it that you can ignore. I'm
21		showing you a letter that you wrote to the
22		receiver.
23		A. Yeah.
24	867.	Q. Do you see that, sir?
25		A. Yeah.

1	868.	Q. And do you see that you told the
2		receiver that penthouse 7 was a short-term
3		rental?
4		A. Yeah.
5	869.	Q. That was prepaid to July 25th, 2022?
6		A. Yes.
7	870.	Q. Do you see that?
8		A. Yes.
9	871.	Q. And you would agree that this let
10		me ask you this. When you before sending this
11		letter, I take it that you gathered the
12		information about the leases that were in place
13		as of the date of the receivership. Correct?
14		A. No. I had surgery around this time
15		and Goodmans was unrelenting, and it says you
16		can see even in this motion record with the
17		number of letters it was sending me demanding
18		information right away. So I did the best that I
19		could.
20	872.	Q. Okay.
21		A. I gave as much information as I could
22		in those circumstances.
23	873.	Q. And part of the information was that
24		penthouse 7 was a short-term rental that was
25		prepaid to July 25th, 2022. Do you see that?

1		Was that true when you said it? Can you answer
2		my question, please, sir? You're flipping
3		through something. I'm not really sure what
4		you're looking at.
5		A. I'm reviewing the materials.
6	874.	Q. What materials are you reviewing?
7		A. This is the affidavit concerning this
8		matter.
9	875.	Q. Whose affidavit?
10		A. My affidavit.
11	876.	Q. Okay. I didn't ask you any questions
12		about your affidavit. What I asked is whether
13		what you told the receiver was true.
14		A. This was dealt with at a hearing.
15		I'm simply looking up the materials of when it
16		was dealt with.
17	877.	Q. So sitting here today, I take it then
18		you don't know if what you told the receiver was
19		true?
20		A. Mr. Dunn, if you would let me answer
21		without interrupting.
22	878.	Q. I'm not interrupting because you're
23		not speaking, sir. You are flipping through
24		something.
25		A. Am I not allowed to think about your

1		question	n and	review the materials you put before
2		me?
3	879.		Q.	I don't know what you're reviewing,
4		and I as	sked y	you a very simple question.
5			Α.	The material I'm reviewing is in the
6		motion :	record	d, the receiver's motion record.
7	880.		Q.	What affidavit? Affidavit sworn
8		when?
9			Α.	It was sworn February 6, 2023. Ah,
10		here it	is.	Yeah. So paragraph 36 of that
11		affidav	it sag	ys:
12			Rezae	ee has indicated that her evidence is
13			that	Noah Goldstein of KSV gave her a copy
14			of th	ne new keys for PH01 and PH07, and a
15			сору	of that picture is attached as
16			Exhib	oit M.
17			So th	nat's you know, it was the receiver
18		that gav	ve hei	r access. It had nothing to do with
19		me.
20	881.		Q.	Let's again, sir, did I ask you a
21		question	n aboı	ut that?
22			Α.	You did.
23	882.		Q.	No.
24			Α.	You asked about penthouse 7.
25	883.		Q.	You told penthouse 7 you told the

1		receiver	that	penthouse 7 was a short-term rental
2		prepaid	until	July 25th, 2022?
3			A.	That's what the letter says, yes.
4	884.		Q.	Correct. And that is a letter from
5		you?
6			Α.	Yes.
7	885.		Q.	And was that true when you said it?
8			Α.	I don't recall. This is a long time
9		ago.
10	886.		Q.	So it may or may not have been true?
11			A.	I just know that the receiver gave
12		her the	keys.	That's undisputed.
13	887.		Q.	Who I don't think it's undisputed,
14		but who
15			A.	It is. I asked her and she sent me a
16		picture	becau	use I didn't believe it, and she sent
17		me a pic	cture.
18	888.		Q.	Who
19			A.	She even sent me a video. I'm not
20		making t	his u	up.
21	889.		Q.	Can you please answer my question,
22		sir? I	don't	want this to take longer than it
23		needs to). I'	m sure so you don't know whether
24		what you	ı tolo	d the receiver was true?
25			Α.	I didn't say that.

1	890.	Q. I just said, was it true? And I
2		believe you said, I don't know. So let me ask
3		you again. When you told the receiver that
4		Penthouse 7 was a short-term rental prepaid until
5		July 25th, 2022, was that statement true?
6		A. Yes.
7	891.	Q. Okay. Thank you. And I take it,
8		sir, that when you wrote that letter, you knew
9		who the short-term rental who had prepaid the
10		rent until July 25th, 2022. Correct?
11		A. No. I did the best I could in the
12		circumstances. It's confusing. There was a lot
13		of paperwork. This was a very stressful time,
14		you have to understand.
15	892.	Q. Okay. So
16		A. It wasn't just that the receivership
17		was implemented, but there were a lot of
18		stakeholder relations. Because of the
19		receivership, I had to communicate with a lot of
20		people. I had surgery that week and at the same
21		time I had Goodmans hounding me for this
22		information.
23		So I compiled it as quickly as I could and
24		the receiver took possession of the property and
25		gave Maryam Rezaee the keys to penthouse 7 and

1		penthouse 1.
2	893.	Q. So it's your evidence today that you
3		did not know that your mother was the short-term
4		rental that had been prepaid until July 25th,
5		2022. That's your evidence today?
6		A. I don't off the top of my head know
7		all the unit numbers and all the names of the
8		occupants, and as you know and is clear in the
9		evidence in these proceedings, my mother and I
10		don't communicate much, if any.
11	894.	Q. Okay. You never told the receiver
12		that there was anyone, your mother or otherwise,
13		who was entitled to occupy penthouse 7 after July
14		25th, 2022; correct?
15		A. I don't recall.
16	895.	Q. Okay. And if you look at your chart,
17		the same chart that you sent to the receiver,
18		penthouse 1 is a short-term rental prepaid until
19		August 27, 2022. That's what you told the
20		receiver about penthouse 1, correct?
21		A. Yes.
22	896.	Q. Okay. And you never told the
23		receiver that anyone, your mother or otherwise,
24		was entitled to occupy penthouse 1 after
25		August 27, '22; correct?

1		A. The receiver had no interest in
2		speaking to me or hearing anything I had to say.
3	897.	Q. I know that you feel that way, sir.
4		Can you please answer my question?
5		A. It's not how I feel. It's the
6		evidence.
7	898.	Q. Okay. Can you please answer my
8		question?
9		A. I don't understand what you're asking
10		me.
11	899.	Q. You never told the receiver that
12		anyone was entitled to occupy penthouse 1 after
13		August 27, 2022; correct?
14		A. I don't recall.
15	900.	Q. Okay.
16		A. But again, the receiver had changed
17		all the keys, so it's the receiver that was
18		responsible for securing the property.
19		So if it gave keys to anyone, then
20		conceivably it gave permission to whoever it gave
21		keys to to occupy the units.
22	901.	Q. Conceivably it did, but that's not
23		what we're here to talk about. What we're here
24		to talk about is my questions.
25		A. Yes.

1	902.	Q. Okay. Thank you. And let me when
2		you seek leave, you're seeking that on behalf of
3		30 Roe and on behalf of yourself and on behalf of
4		Roehampton Capital; correct?
5		A. Well, as I said to Mr. Swan in his
6		cross-examination of me just before yours, our
7		Statement of Claim will set out the details of
8		which plaintiff is suing which defendant and for
9		what cause of action and for what amount or
10		relief, et cetera.
11	903.	Q. Sure. Let me be more precise.
12		You're not authorized to be your mother's agent
13		in this proceeding, correct?
14		A. My mother isn't listed as a plaintiff
15		in the Notice of Action.
16	904.	Q. Great.
17		A. But I understand that, and I may be
18		wrong, but my understanding is she will be suing
19		the receiver and is consulting or retaining
20		personal injury counsel.
21	905.	Q. Right, but whatever she's going to
22		do, she's going to do. You're not doing it for
23		her, right? You just told me you don't even talk
24		that much.
25		A. Well, no. Well, no, but I'm bringing

1		the misconduct to the Court's attention
2	906.	Q. Sure.
3		Aas is my, I believe, fiduciary
4		duty because she is a shareholder of the subject
5		corporation.
6	907.	Q. Leaving that aside, so fast-forward
7		to December 9th of 2022. As far as you know,
8		your mother didn't have a lease in place with
9		respect to penthouse 07 or penthouse 01; correct?
10		A. I don't know what arrangement she
11		entered or didn't enter into with the receiver.
12	908.	Q. But as far as you know, there was no
13		arrangement that would give her legal access to
14		either of those units; correct?
15		A. Well, the receiver changed the locks
16		in end of July and gave Maryam Rezaee the keys to
17		both these units on that day and the police
18		incident happened in December.
19		So August, September, October, November,
20		you know, almost five months she was there and
21		the receiver knew about it, and as we can see in
22		Exhibit AA of the Zar affidavit, the receiver is
23		even caught admitting that he knew exactly who
24		she was, and so
25	909.	Q. Okay. Can you please answer my

1		question, sir?
2		A I can't reconcile those two things
3		together.
4	910.	Q. Okay. We're not here for you to sort
5		of reconcile things. As far as you are not
6		aware of any legal arrangement by which your
7		mother was entitled to occupy the either
8		penthouse 7 or penthouse 1, correct?
9		A. No, that's not true.
L 0	911.	Q. So what lease was in place?
L1		A. I don't know if I should be the one
L2		speaking to this. In any event, the receiver
L3		gave her the keys. She was there. She obviously
L 4		had some right to be there for that duration of
L 5		time. My limited understanding of the law, I
L 6		believe lease agreements don't even have to be in
L7		writing.
L 8	912.	Q. Not my question. You weren't there
L 9		when any keys were given, correct?
20		A. I saw a video of Mr. Goldstein in the
21		hallway looking at all the locksmiths or the
22		locksmith changing the locks and I saw a video of
23		the locksmith Mr. Goldstein hired changing the
24		lock for PH07 and giving the copy and the
25		receiver, Mr. Goldstein, giving a copy of the key

1		to Maryam Rezaee.
2	913.	Q. Okay.
3		A. She showed me a video of that.
4	914.	Q. She showed you a video?
5		A. Yes, and then I asked
6	915.	Q. Do we have that video in the record
7		today?
8		A. It is. It's in my prior affidavit,
9		but what I can do is I'm going to file that video
10		because it is kind of central to this.
11	916.	Q. I think the time for you to file
12		things have passed. In any event
13		A. No, it's already filed. I'm saying
14		I'll make easy reference to it.
15	917.	Q. I want to turn to
16		A. So I'll give you an undertaking to
17		produce
18	918.	Q. I didn't ask for an undertaking and I
19		don't want an undertaking, and to be clear,
20		you're not entitled to file new evidence.
21		A. Well, to make sure it's complete.
22	919.	Q. At paragraph 402 of your affidavit
23		you have a video in the record that was
24		A. Sorry, which paragraph?
25	920.	Q. Paragraph 402 refers to Exhibit Z,

1		which is a video of Mr. Goldstein taken at 12:49
2		p.m. Do you recall that?
3		A. Exhibit Z, yes.
4	921.	Q. Okay. And I take it, sir, that you
5		recall that after that, although this isn't
6		referenced in your affidavit, Mr. Goldstein
7		e-mailed you. Do you recall that, sir?
8		A. To clarify, I did not see that video
9		when Mr. Goldstein e-mailed me or around the date
10		it occurred. I saw this video after.
11	922.	Q. Not my question, sir. Mr. Goldstein
12		e-mailed you. Do you remember that?
13		A. I believe so.
14	923.	Q. Okay. Can you turn to page 259?
15		A. Of your motion record?
16	924.	Q. Of my motion record.
17		A. Two fifty
18	925.	Q. Sorry, E259 on the bottom corner.
19		A. Ah. Yes, I have it here.
20	926.	Q. And so Mr. Goldstein went to see who
21		was at two Mr. Goldstein specifically asked
22		you at 1:36 who the female occupant living in
23		penthouse 01 was who previously lived at
24		penthouse 07. Do you recall that, sir?
25		A. I'm reading the e-mail.

1	927.	Q. Sure.
2		A. Yes, I read the e-mail. What's your
3		question?
4	928.	Q. So we can agree that Mr. Goldstein
5		specifically asked you if you knew anything about
6		the female occupant living in penthouse 01 who
7		previously lived at penthouse 07. Do you see
8		that, sir?
9		A. I see the question and I see my
10		answer right on top.
11	929.	Q. Right. So you received this e-mail?
12		A. Yes, and I answered it. It's right
13		there.
14	930.	Q. I understand. And Mr. Goldstein
15		said:
16		Our records indicate that this person
17		should not be living there and we are
18		concerned that we have a squatter. We are
19		considering filing a police report today.
20		Please let us know if you know anything
21		about this person before 5 p.m. today.
22		A. So Mr
23	931.	Q. I haven't asked a question.
24		A. Go ahead.
25	932.	Q. So you received this question you

1		received this you received this e-mail and you
2		responded approximately 45 minutes later at 2:25
3		p.m.?
4		A. Yes.
5	933.	Q. And I take it, sir, you didn't take
6		any steps to ascertain who the person who
7		previously lived in penthouse 07 might be?
8		A. How could I? I didn't have access to
9		anything.
10	934.	Q. Well, you had access to the video
11		cameras.
12		A. What was I going to do, sit there and
13		watch days and days of videos and figure out
14		faces, who's going where? In fact, the emotional
15		toll this receivership was taking on me, I didn't
16		want to see any of the videos.
17	935.	Q. Well, you managed to check the videos
18		quite a few times, didn't you?
19		A. I did it only after severe
20		misconduct
21	936.	Q. Okay.
22		A and I had to produce evidence.
23	937.	Q. So it's your evidence that when you
24		received this e-mail December 9th of 2022, you
25		had no idea that the person who had previously

1		been living in penthouse 07, that you told the
2		receiver about, was your mother?
3		A. Absolutely not. I had no idea.
4	938.	Q. Okay.
5		A. And my e-mail specifically says that.
6		What Mr. Goldstein is missing is any mention that
7		the person he's referring to is my mother, a fact
8		that he knew.
9	939.	Q. So you're saying that Mr. Goldstein
10		ought to have told you that your mother was
11		living in the in penthouse 01?
12		A. Yes.
13	940.	Q. Okay. Because you had no idea that
14		that was the case?
15		A. Mr. Dunn, Mr. Goldstein changed the
16		locks. I wasn't even I couldn't even be at
17		the property. I had no keys.
18	941.	Q. But you're the one
19		A. I had no fobs. I had nothing.
20	942.	Q. I'm going to suggest to you, sir,
21		that you are the one who rented penthouse 07 to
22		her in the first place. Correct?
23		A. I know this is a theme you like to
24		create in these proceedings to say that I was
25		renting units behind the receiver's back. That's important to me.

absolutely untrue. I did not do that ever. 2 All that occurred was because of Simon Zucker's advice that the order was stayed between 3 May 13th or May 9th, I guess, when the receivership order was issued, and the Court of 5 6 Appeal decision of June 13, 2022, is we just 7 continued operations as normal. However, all funds received went into the corporation's bank 8 9 account. They were not touched and they were 10 transferred to the receiver upon the receivership 11 taking effect. Q. Sir, none of that has anything to do 943. 12 13 with my question. 14 It does because you're trying to Α. create a theme that I somehow -- like these 15 16 Sunrise Homes debtors. I don't need that. I 17 have more respect for myself than to go around 18 collecting rents illegally. What, a few

> So the receiver took possession. receiver changed the locks. Why am I being asked about who's there and when? It's the receiver that's doing these things, and in fact, the video thousands dollars? That's pocket change to me.

I would never do that. My reputation is more

1		shows the receiver acknowledging and it knows
2		exactly who she is.
3		So if anything, the receiver sent me this
4		e-mail in bad faith
5	944.	Q. Sir, can you let me know when you're
6		done speaking so that I can ask another question?
7		A. I will. Yes, I will.
8	945.	Q. Okay.
9		A. The receiver sent me this e-mail in
10		bad faith because he knew who it was and he was
11		trying to catch me in a lie, and my response is
12		clear. I said:
13		The last time I was at the property was
14		around three months ago when you changed
15		all the locks. I thought you were
16		managing the access. It's been so long
17		that I don't remember the unit's occupancy
18		status off the top of my head.
19		And then I say:
20		If there was forced entry, then as a
21		director of the condominium corporation, I
22		can direct property management to
23		intervene as it involves common elements.
24		And I didn't receive a response to that.
25		So I was kind of surprised that Mr.

1 Goldstein, the receiver, was asking me for this 2 information. Now I see that clearly he was doing it because he knew who it was and he was trying 3 to set me up to either lie or try to create some 5 sort of issue, and that explains the smirk on his 6 face in Exhibit AA when he's ecstatic to tell the 7 person on the phone, who could be KingSett, could be someone else, about his find, yet in the 8 9 police report he doesn't say that. 10 He doesn't say he knows who it is. He 11 lies to the police. He tells the police that he's the new owner. He tells the police that 12 13 this person -- he has no idea who this person is, 14 and that's why the police came. So anything the police did was because of 15 16 being misled by Mr. Goldstein. Next question. 17 946. Q. I'm going to ask you again, sir, can 18 you please answer my questions? 19 Α. There's no need to get frustrated, Mr. Dunn. 20 21 947. I'm not getting frustrated. Can you please answer my questions? 22 Of course. That's why I'm here. 2.3 24 948. Q. Okay. So turn to E53 within the 25 motion record -- or sorry, I apologize. You know

1		what, go to E144, going back to your letter,
2		because if you listen to the question, I'm going
3		to answer it I'm going to ask it again
4		A. Yes.
5	949.	Q and I would like it if you answer
6		it.
7		A. And I see this letter and it's dated
8		June 21st, '22. The events in question happened
9		in December. That's six months later, Mr. Dunn.
10	950.	Q. Let me know when you're done talking.
11		A. I'm done. Go ahead.
12	951.	Q. What question were you just
13		answering, sir?
14		A. You're trying to draw a parallel
15		between a letter I sent to the receiver, the
16		first week the receiver took effect, June 21st,
17		2022, when I was in surgery. I had, I don't
18		know, anesthetic in my body and I was quickly
19		trying to draft this because Goodmans was
20		hounding me nonstop for this and threatening to
21		bring a motion to make me produce documents, and
22		I was doing my best to provide as much
23		information as I could.
24		You're trying to draw a parallel
25	952.	Q. I haven't asked a question.

1		A between that and the December 5th
2		e-mail.
3	953.	Q. I haven't asked a question.
4		A. Please ask your question.
5	954.	Q. Please wait for me to ask a question
6		and answer the question.
7		A. Of course. Go ahead.
8	955.	Q. We're not here to listen to your
9		speeches.
L 0		So this refers to a short-term rental that
L1		was prepaid until July 25th, 2022. We can agree,
L2		sir, that short-term rental is not a short-term
L3		rental that the receiver entered into; correct?
L 4		That was a short-term rental entered into before
L 5		the receiver was appointed. Can we agree on
L 6		that?
L7		A. Well, this chart shows all units are
L 8		occupied and it's dated June 21st and the
L 9		receivership came into effect June 13th. So
20		conceivably these occupancies were before the
21		receivership took effect.
22	956.	Q. Not conceivably but in fact what
23		happened was, according to what you told the
24		receiver, 30 Roe entered into a short-term rental
25		with your mother that was prepaid until July

1		25th, 2022. Is that what happened?
2		A. I think you're adding a lot of words
3		that aren't there. It says what it says.
4	957.	Q. Okay.
5		A. At that date, I don't think we're
6		suggesting that the receiver entered into these
7		agreements.
8	958.	Q. That's my point.
9		A. The chart says what it says.
10	959.	Q. Right. So you entered into this
11		short-term rental with your mother?
12		A. No, I didn't say that. I just said
13		the chart says what it says and, look, that chart
14		may not have been accurate because of the
15		circumstances at the time. The fact is a few
16		weeks later the receiver took over everything,
17		changed all the locks, gave Maryam Rezaee new
18		keys.
19	960.	Q. Okay.
20		A. It chose to do that.
21	961.	Q. So I'm going to suggest to you, sir
22		sorry. So it's your evidence that when the
23		receiver was appointed, you didn't know who was
24		occupying penthouse 7?
25		A. No, it's my evidence that that letter

1		was sent quickly and in very stressful and
2	962.	Q. I didn't ask about the letter. Did
3		you or did you not know who was occupying
4		penthouse 7 and that it was your mother who was
5		suing you?
6		A. She wasn't suing me at that time.
7	963.	Q. Great. Did you or did you not know
8		that it was your mother?
9		A. Her lawsuit was dismissed in 2020.
10	964.	Q. Okay. Did you or did you not know
11		that it was your mother occupying penthouse 7?
12		A. I don't recall.
13	965.	Q. Okay. And you agree, sir, that the
14		fact of being your mother is not relevant to
15		whether or not the person occupying penthouse 1,
16		who previously lived in penthouse 7, had a right
17		to be there; correct?
18		A. I don't understand the question.
19	966.	Q. Sure. Let me rephrase it. The fact
20		that she was your mother did not confer on her
21		any right to occupy penthouse 1, correct?
22		A. The fact that she was a shareholder
23		and officer did.
24	967.	Q. Okay. So it's your evidence that
25		because she was a shareholder and officer, she was entitled to occupy penthouse 1?

	A. No, it's my evidence that because she was a shareholder and officer, she was entitled to certain rights and certainly was entitled to better treatment than being arrested and handcuffed by the police like an animal.
968.	Q. Did those rights include the right to occupy penthouse 1?
	A. I don't know.
969.	Q. Certainly 30 Roe never told the receiver that one of its officers was occupying
	penthouse 1, correct?
	A. The receiver already knew.
970.	Q. Certainly 30 Roe never told the receiver that one of its officers was occupying
	penthouse 1, correct?
	A. That's not true. The receiver already knew this information.
971.	Q. Certainly, as far as you know, 30 Roe did not tell the receiver that this woman, your mother or otherwise, was entitled to occupy
	penthouse 1; correct?
	A. My understanding is the receiver knew a lot and knew a lot from the Homelife agent it initially retained.
	969. 970.

1	972.	Q. Don't speculate about what the
2		receiver knew. Tell me what you told the
3		receiver.
4		A. There were certain communications
5		between that Homelife agent and the proposed
6		lender for the $3 million that has just come to
7		our attention and which we may bring to the
8		attention of the Court, but my point is that the
9		receiver knew much more than it led on or misled
10		the Court in its report.
11	973.	Q. Great. I'm not asking you what you
12		think the receiver knew. What I'm asking is that
13		30 Roe never told the receiver, as far as you
14		know, that one of its officers was occupying
15		penthouse 1; correct?
16		A. No, I think we did tell the receiver
17		during the tour.
18	974.	Q. Sorry. So your evidence now is that
19		you told the receiver
20		A. It's not now. You're just asking.
21	975.	Q. Sorry. So when did you tell the
22		receiver that your mother was occupying it?
23		A. I don't recall exactly, but it may
24		have been during the tour with the receiver.
25	976.	Q. When was that?

1		A. It would have been around the time
2		at the same time that the Homelife agent was
3		touring.
4	977.	Q. I don't know when that is.
5		A. So I think Mr. Goldstein wasn't
6		present but Mr. Tallat was.
7	978.	Q. Okay.
8		A. It was either Mr. Tallat or Mr.
9		Goldstein. I think it was Mr. Tallat. I don't
10		think Mr. Goldstein was present. I may be wrong.
11	979.	Q. Okay.
12		A. But the point is they had direct
13		communication with Maryam Rezaee. They gave her
14		the keys to both units, which is curious why they
15		would give her the keys to both units.
16	980.	Q. Again, sir, we're going to be here a
17		long time if you don't answer my questions.
18		A. We'll be here as long as you need,
19		Mr. Dunn.
20	981.	Q. So it's your evidence that you told
21		Mr. Tallat on behalf of the receiver that Maryam
22		Rezaee was occupying one of the units?
23		A. I said may.
24	982.	Q. You may have?
25		A. I may have. I don't recall exactly.

Τ	983.	Q. And that would have been sometime in
2		July that you told him?
3		A. It would have been earlier than that.
4		It would have been before the sales process
5		approval motion, so probably late June, slash,
6		early July.
7	984.	Q. Okay. I'm a little confused, sir. I
8		want to put two things to you that you've said
9		that are not completely consistent because I want
L 0		to be fair to you.
L1		You've told me two things. You've told
L2		me, one, that you didn't know that Maryam Rezaee
L3		was living in penthouse 7 and you've told me,
L 4		two, that you told the receiver that Maryam
L 5		Rezaee or that you may have told the receiver
L 6		that Maryam Rezaee was occupying penthouse 7.
L7		A. No, Mr. Dunn.
L 8	985.	Q. Can you explain to me how you could
L 9		have told the receiver that Maryam Rezaee was
20		occupying penthouse 7 if you didn't yourself know
21		that information?
22		A. No, Mr. Dunn, that's not what I said.
23		What I said is clearly in my e-mail response, and
24		it's that off the top of my head then and even
25		now, I don't know the exact unit numbers and the

1		occupancy. I'm not very good with numbers.
2	986.	Q. Not my question. I'm not talking
3		about your e-mail. I'm talking about your
4		testimony today.
5		A. When Mr. Goldstein e-mailed me on
6		December 9 and asked, I told him that I don't
7		know off the top of my head who is in which unit,
8		and also, you have to understand the tour that
9		I'm referencing occurred end of June 2022. The
10		police incident happened early December 2022.
11		That's July, August, September, October,
12		November. That's almost six months, Mr. Dunn,
13		six months that I wasn't at the property, that I
14		wasn't responsible for security at the property
15		and a period in which Mr. Dunn Mr. Goldstein
16		changed the locks and gave new keys to Maryam
17		Rezaee.
18	987.	Q. Okay. Great. Not my question.
19		A. Well, it's relevant.
20	988.	Q. My question it's not up to you to
21		decide what's relevant. I decide what's relevant
22		and then I ask you a question. You answer it.
23		That's how this works.
24		A. Because you're adverse on this motion
25		because of your fees. So we have to be careful.

1		You can't take snippets and mischaracterize.
2	989.	Q. I'm not taking snippets, sir. Did
3		you or did not tell me that you didn't know that
4		Maryam Rezaee was occupying any of the units?
5		A. At what point? We're talking about a
6		long period of time.
7	990.	Q. Ever.
8		A. No. I told you clearly that certain
9		times as a shareholder, as an officer she had
10		keys. She had access to the units.
11	991.	Q. So you did know that she was
12		occupying a unit?
13		A. No, because that would be knowing for
14		certain at a specific time.
15	992.	Q. Okay. Did you know when the receiver
16		was appointed, that she was occupying a unit?
17		A. By the time the receiver toured the
18		unit, I believe so, and that's when the receiver
19		would have met her.
20	993.	Q. Okay. So you did know that she was
21		occupying penthouse 7?
22		A. I don't remember exactly which unit.
23		You have to understand it's a floor. The carpets
24		all look the same. The doors look the same.
25		It's kind of disorienting. If you look at the

1		photo or the video of the hallway, they all look
2		the same. It's very hard, especially because
3		she's changing units all the time, it's very hard
4		to tell who's in which unit and which unit
5		number.
6	994.	Q. Right. So there is only nine units.
7		Right?
8		A. That's a lot.
9	995.	Q. And you only have one mother, right?
10		A. That's
11	996.	Q. And so you didn't know which unit she
12		was occupying?
13		A. At a point in time, no.
14	997.	Q. Ever? You never knew she was
15		occupying penthouse 7?
16		A. Now we know. Now it's clear, but at
17		that time
18	998.	Q. Did you know in July when you say
19		that you told Mr. Tallat?
20		A. When we're touring units, we're
21		knocking. If they're not answering, we're just
22		opening. We're not really looking at unit
23		numbers and registering that in our head.
24	999.	Q. All right.
25		A. It's almost like a hotel, right? I

1		mean, a hotel room, would you know what hotel
2		room somebody stayed in? It's the same thing.
3	1000.	Q. Yes.
4		A. No, you wouldn't.
5	1001.	Q. Okay.
6		A. It's different numbers.
7	1002.	Q. Okay. Let's cut through this. I'm
8		going to suggest to you, sir, because I want to
9		be fair to you and I'm going to make this
10		argument, that you obviously knew that your
11		mother was occupying one of the nine units that
12		your company was renting. Correct?
13		A. There's no evidence of that,
14		absolutely not.
15	1003.	Q. Okay. And I'm going to suggest to
16		you that when Goldstein e-mailed you on
17		December 9th, you knew that the female occupant
18		that he was referring was in fact your mother.
19		Correct?
20		A. Absolutely not, because I would have
21		assumed that Mr. Goldstein would have pointed
22		that out to me.
23	1004.	Q. Okay.
24		A. When he said, "squatter", it didn't
25		even occur to me that he was referring to my

1		mother.
2	1005.	Q. All right. And I'm going to suggest
3		to you that you didn't tell Mr. Goldstein the
4		truth when you said you had no idea who she was?
5		A. Why would I not tell him the truth if
6		I knew?
7	1006.	Q. Okay. Fair. If you want to
8		disagree, you can. I just want to I just
9		wanted to give you a fair opportunity.
10		I want to turn to this refinancing.
11		A. Yes.
12	1007.	Q. You depose in your affidavit that 3
13		million was tendered into a lawyer's trust
14		account?
15		A. Yes.
16	1008.	Q. Okay. And that lawyer was somebody
17		named Steve Chan?
18		A. He's a licensed solicitor in the
19		Province of Ontario just like you.
20	1009.	Q. I didn't ask that.
21		A. Well, but you're saying someone named
22		Steve Chan to sort of insinuate that it's
23		meaningless. He's a licensed
24	1010.	Q. I think one of the reasons that
25		you're having trouble, sir, and going off on to

1 these speeches is that you're trying to guess what I'm trying to do. Please don't guess what 2 I'm trying to do. Answer my questions and then 3 we'll leave. Got it? 4 5 A. Go ahead, Mr. Dunn. 6 1011. Q. Okay. So the lawyer whose trust account the funds were paid into was Steve Chan, 7 licensed solicitor in the Province of Ontario 8 just like me. Correct? 9 Yes. 10 Α. 11 1012. Ο. Okay. Mr. Chan is not the lawyer for the receiver, correct? 12 13 A. For the receiver? 14 1013. Hm-hmm. Q. A. You wanted us to deposit the money 15 16 into the receiver in those circumstances? 17 1014. I'm asking you a question, sir. Mr. Q. 18 Chan is not the lawyer for the receiver, correct? 19 The receiver never asked for the 20 funds to be deposited into its account, but the 21 funds were sent to Mr. Chan, specifically to sage KingSett or I guess the receiver's concern that 22 the funds didn't exist, and even when Mr. Chan 2.3 24 provided written confirmation that he was holding 25 the $3 million in trust, both KingSett's counsel

1		and the receiver's counsel disrespectfully did
2		accept a
3	1015.	Q. Can I stop you?
4		A. No.
5	1016.	Q. Please answer the question.
6		Aa solicitor's written commitment
7		and demanded to see a copy of the bank draft,
8		unprecedented, and so Mr. Chan, a licensed
9		solicitor, just because his last name, I guess,
LO		is Chan and he doesn't work at a big firm no,
11		I mean, that's what I'm sorry, but that is
L2		what a lot of people at the time perceived it as.
L3		He's a licensed solicitor, and because he doesn't
L 4		have a fancy office at Goodmans, you wouldn't
L5		take his word for it.
L 6		So he had to actually degrade himself and
L7		produce a copy of a bank draft. I've never heard
L 8		a lender or a solicitor for a lender having to do
L 9		that. A commitment letter is taken at face
20		value. When a solicitor says, I'm holding $3
21		million cash in trust, you accept that statement
22		out of respect for the profession. You didn't
23		accept it and you asked for a copy of the bank
24		draft and we produced a copy of the bank draft.
25		Next guestion.

1	1017.	Q. Please listen to my question and
2		answer it. Mr. Chan was not the lawyer for the
3		receiver, correct?
4		A. Not to my knowledge.
5	1018.	Q. Mr. Chan was not the lawyer for
6		KingSett, correct?
7		A. No.
8	1019.	Q. Okay. Mr. Chan was not the lawyer
9		for 30 Roe, correct?
10		A. Arguable.
11	1020.	Q. Mr. Chan was the lawyer for 30 Roe?
12		A. Arguable. I don't know. There are
13		different circumstances that, you know, he could
14		have been.
15	1021.	Q. Okay.
16		A. You can see some of the
17		correspondence that you produce in your motion
18		record where Mr. Chan is actually doing a pretty
19		good job at contesting the absurd fees and he's
20		actually refuting a lot of the, what he called
21		the hyperbole or he called he used a term to
22		address Mr. Goldstein's concerns, but
23	1022.	Q. 30 Roe was represented by Blaney
24		McMurtry, was represented by Blaneys on the
25		refinancing; correct?

1		A. Until KingSett told Blaneys to drop
2		30 Roe or else it would not get transaction work.
3	1023.	Q. Okay. That came after, according to
4		you, but on this refinancing that you're
5		referring to
6		A. And it's in this hearing, is that.
7	1024.	Q. Okay. But according to the
8		A. And it's uncontested evidence.
9	1025.	Q. Okay. In July, okay, of 2022 this
10		refinancing that you're referring to, Blaneys was
11		the lawyer for 30 Roe on that refinancing, yes or
12		no?
13		A. It was supposed to be.
14	1026.	Q. It was?
15		A. It represented to me that it would be
16		but then it breached its commitments by not
17		bringing the motion to discharge. So I don't
18		know how to answer that
19	1027.	Q. Okay.
20		A because if someone is my lawyer,
21		they should not be receiving instructions from a
22		party adverse to me and calling me and saying,
23		I'm really sorry, Raymond, but KingSett just
24		gives us too much transaction work and they're
25		Steve Jeffery's biggest clients and we can't

1		upset them. You know, that just isn't something
2		that you'd expect from your lawyer.
3		Mr. Morse, as an example, would never do
4		that. He can't be bought, but I guess there are
5		classic lawyers that, I don't know, will just
6		succumb to a self-proclaimed king saying, better
7		not cross me, and that's exactly what happened
8		and that's what the evidence shows, and Mr.
9		Swan's client has not produced any contra
10		evidence. So it's irrefutable, and I know Mr.
11		Swan has not even attempted to cross-examine me
12		on it because he knows it's true and he has no
13		contra evidence.
14	1028.	Q. Mr. Chan acted for the lender of the
15		proposed refinancing, correct?
16		A. Yes.
17	1029.	Q. Okay. Great. And you would agree
18		so at paragraph 365
19		A. Yes, but you don't understand
20	1030.	Q. No, sir. I have not I haven't
21		asked a question.
22		A. The lender
23	1031.	Q. I haven't asked a question.
24		A. The lender and us, the relationship
25		was such that I would say Mr. Chan was equally

1		acting for us in many of the circumstances,
2		especially in those circumstances, and his
3		e-mails to Mr. Armstrong and to Mr. Goldstein
4		directly show that. He's clearly advocating for
5		us.
6	1032.	Q. Sir, can you please wait for me to
7		ask a question?
8		A. I'm clarifying a previous question.
9		Go ahead.
10	1033.	Q. No, you're not. You're just talking.
11		So at paragraph 365 of your affidavit, you
12		say that you secured $3 million in unconditional
13		funding and had it deposited into a lawyer's
14		trust account and tendered it to bring KingSett
15		and the receiver's games to an end?
16		A. Yes.
17	1034.	Q. You would agree that no money was
18		ever tendered on either the receiver or KingSett,
19		correct?
20		A. No, absolutely not. I disagree with
21		your
22	1035.	Q. What money was tendered, to who and
23		when?
24		A. It was tendered to both KingSett and
25		the receiver.

1	1036.	Q. By who and when?
2		A. By both Steve Chan and Blaneys.
3	1037.	Q. So you're saying that Steve Chan sent
4		somebody $3 million? Who did he send it to?
5		A. Steve Chan and Blaneys were acting
6		for us collectively.
7	1038.	Q. Okay.
8		A. If you read the commitment letter,
9		you'll see that the relationship between the
10		lender and 30 Roe is very close. They
11		effectively become one, and so Steve Chan was
12		acting for us collectively but of course didn't
13		have you know, was not a litigator, did not
14		have insolvency experience, could not was not
15		qualified to bring the motion to discharge.
16		That's where we expected Blaneys to come in and
17	1039.	Q. Okay. Can you please stop talking
18		and let me ask my question?
19		A. I'm entitled to ask to answer.
20	1040.	Q. Do you know what it means do you
21		know what "tender" means? What does the word
22		"tender" mean in this context in your affidavit?
23		A. I'm not a lawyer, so I'm sure you
24		know what it means.
25	1041.	Q. Well, it's in your affidavit that you

1		wrote. So what do you mean when you say,
2		"tender"?
3		A. That's a legal question.
4	1042.	Q. Okay. What did you mean when you
5		wrote this in your affidavit, when you tendered 3
6		million when you tendered it, being the
7		$3 million?
8		A. I was advised by Blaneys that
9		whatever we did, everything we did was
10		amounted to tendering the funds.
11	1043.	Q. Okay.
12		A. I'm solely relying on that.
13	1044.	Q. Okay.
14		A. But I don't know how to answer it.
15		You're asking me a technical legal question.
16	1045.	Q. I'm asking you about a term that you
17		specifically used in your affidavit.
18		A. I was told that we tendered the
19		funds.
20	1046.	Q. Okay. Let's figure you were told
21		by Blaneys that they tendered the funds?
22		A. Yes, that our actions amounted to
23		tendering the funds.
24	1047.	Q. Who told you that?
25		A. Jeffrey Warren.

1	1048.	Q. Did he tell you that by e-mail?
2		A. Over the phone and I believe over
3		e-mail.
4	1049.	Q. So I'm going to tell you what I mean,
5		what I understand "tender" to mean, just so we
6		can use the term the same way. You can disagree.
7		Okay?
8		When I refer to the word "tender", it
9		usually refers to a specific process by which, in
10		the case of money, you actually try and transfer
11		it to someone. You actually try and pay the
12		money. Okay?
13		You understand that definition? You don't
14		have to agree with it. Okay? Do you understand
15		what I just said?
16		A. I'm not going to comment on what
17		amounts to legal advice, which is what you're
18		giving effectively.
19	1050.	Q. No. What I'm going to say is you
20		never paid any money, 30 Roe never paid any money
21		to either KingSett or the receiver. Correct?
22		A. No. I disagree. I believe we paid.
23	1051.	Q. So who did it pay and when did it
24		pay?
25		A. I believe we did pay the receiver and

1 KingSett, and that's exactly why a trial is required in these matters. 2 1052. Q. So leaving aside a trial, okay, you 3 are saying, it's your evidence today, sir, that 4 5 30 Roe -- because this is an important thing, so 6 obviously you would remember fairly clearly what happened. It's your evidence today that 30 Roe 7 in fact paid $3 million to either the receiver or 8 9 KingSett? Mr. Dunn, 30 Roe tendered $3 million 10 11 upon KingSett and the receiver. That is our 12 evidence. If you disagree, you're welcome to 13 participate at trial. 14 1053. Q. No, not how it works. A. Yes, it is how it works. 15 16 1054. Q. You just told me that tender -- so, 17 sorry, let's leave aside the word "tender" 18 because you say that you're confused about it 19 even though you used it in your affidavit. 20 I'm not confused about it. 21 1055. I'm going to suggest to you, sir, Q. because this is -- I want to make sure. Again, 22 there's a discrepancy between what you say and 2.3 24 what I think the facts are. None of this 25 $3 million was ever paid to KingSett, correct?

Τ		A. When you go to purchase real estate
2	1056.	Q. No.
3		A you
4	1057.	Q. No. Not my question.
5		A are asking to trade money in
6		return for effectively your name on title. I
7		think it's the same with a loan or a mortgage.
8		When you're seeking to pay a mortgage, you
9		prepare the funds. You tender it and then it's
10		incumbent on the lender's solicitor to give an
11		undertaking to discharge certain charges on, in
12		this case, a receiver.
13		So we tendered the funds. It was
14		sufficient to pay everybody out and it was the
15		active decision of the receiver, either on its
16		own or at the direction of KingSett to block that
17		tender
18	1058.	Q. Okay.
19		A to prohibit 30 Roe from paying out
20		the KingSett loan and discharging the receiver
21		unless 30 Roe agreed to sign a release so that
22		KingSett would not be held to account for its
23		role with Deepak Ruparell and 395 Queen Street
24		West.
25		That is a fact, and in fact, the reason

1		we're here today is because KingSett is
2		unrelenting in this effort. It has made a
3		with-prejudice offer to me to walk away from what
4		it says is 1 million or $1.5 million in losses it
5		has suffered simply if I sign a release.
6	1059.	Q. Sir, sit and answer the questions.
7		A. I am sitting down.
8	1060.	Q. Answer the questions.
9		A. Simply if I sign a release, and it
10		was a with-prejudice offer, and when I rejected
11		that offer, it found another way. It had the
12		receiver sneak in a clause into the discharge
13		order again granting KingSett a release, an
14		unprecedented move, and when asked to cite any
15		authority for it after telling us it would
16		produce it, it would produce it, it would be in
17		the factum, it has amounted to naught. It's
18		produced nothing.
19	1061.	Q. Okay. You've been talking for
20		two minutes now. Can you please stop
21		A. I have.
22	1062.	Q and answer a question?
23		A. That was my answer.
24	1063.	Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.
25		A. You can ask your next question.

1	1064.	Q. You said somewhere in the midst of
2		all that, you said that it was tendered, and I
3		just want to make sure that we're on the same
4		page because I asked a very simple question. I
5		got a very complicated answer.
6		So the simple question was, 30 Roe never
7		paid any money to either KingSett or the receiver
8		in exchange for any discharge of any mortgage or
9		receivership, correct?
LO		A. 30 Roe tendered funds to discharge
L1		the receiver to pay out KingSett. 30 Roe
L2		tendered $3 million.
L3	1065.	Q. So when you tender, you have to
L 4		tender it on someone. Who was the money given
L 5		to, sir?
L 6		A. Our evidence is that the funds were
L 7		tendered.
L 8	1066.	Q. I understand you keep saying that,
L 9		although you just said you don't know what that
20		means. Okay?
21		A. The funds were tendered.
22	1067.	Q. That's why I'm using simple terms.
23		Can we just agree you never paid anything to the
24		receiver or to KingSett in exchange for this
25		discharge? Correct? Can you please stop

1		texting, sir?
2		A. No, I'm not texting. I'm looking up
3		what you're saying because I think there's
4		miscommunications.
5	1068.	Q. I'm asking a really simple question.
6		A. Well, it's simple for you. You're
7		lawyer at Goodmans. It's not necessarily simple
8		for me. I'm telling you that I have been advised
9		that we did tender the funds specifically.
10	1069.	Q. That's why I got away from the word
11		"tender". I asked if you paid.
12		A. All right. Here it is. So according
13		to this memo by Landy Marr Katz, it says
14	1070.	Q. Who?
15		A. Landy Marr Katz.
16	1071.	Q. Please stop. Please stop.
17		A. Liability can turn on tendering. In
18		a sense tendering serves as evidence of a
19		party's readiness, willingness and ability
20		to close.
21		Mr. Dunn, that's precisely what we did.
22		We tendered the funds. We said we are ready, we
23		are willing and we are able. So, yes, I triple
24		down on what I said. We tendered the funds.
25	1072.	Q. Okay. Great. We've moved on from

1		the term "tender". Why don't we do it this way?
2		There was $3 million in Steve Chan's trust
3		account?
4		A. No. We tendered the funds.
5	1073.	Q. So you paid the funds to somebody.
6		Who did you pay them to?
7		A. To Mr. Chan to hold it in trust.
8	1074.	Q. Okay.
9		A. That's how you tender.
10	1075.	Q. That's what I asked, the question.
11		A. Mr. Dunn, you don't take a briefcase
12		of cash and just, you know, pour it on the table
13		and say, you know, here, I'm tendering. Right?
14		You don't do that, right? That's not how it
15		works. You would deposit it into Mr
16	1076.	Q. Did you just take out a wad of money
17		during the examination?
18		A. I'm showing you that that's not how
19		you tender.
20	1077.	Q. Okay.
21		A. How your tender
22	1078.	Q. I didn't ask you how you tender.
23		A is you deposit it to
24	1079.	Q. Okay. Can you please, please, please
25		answer my question?

1		A Mr. Swan's trust account and you
2		say, I'm holding it in trust, and then Mr. Swan
3		gives a letter and says, I'm holding it in trust
4		and my client is ready, willing and able to
5		close, and Mr
6		MR. SWAN: Would you like me to hold that?
7		THE DEPONENT: Yeah, you can. And then
8		Mr. Swan holds it and then he gives it to Mr.
9		Goldstein. Once Mr. Goldstein confirms, then he
LO		will accept it, right, but if Mr. Goldstein
L1		doesn't confirm he's going to accept it, Mr. Swan
L2		can't just take a bundle of cash and throw it at
L3		Mr. Goldstein. Do you understand that?
L 4		BY MR. DUNN:
L5	1080.	Q. Okay. Your evidence is the only
L 6		thing standing between this financing closing and
L7		the receiver being discharged is KingSett's
L8		request for a release. That's your evidence,
L 9		right?
20		A. Could you repeat that?
21	1081.	Q. It is your evidence that the only
22		reason this transaction did not close was because
23		KingSett insisted on a release, correct?
24		A. Well, that's the reason the receiver
25		refused to bring the motion to discharge. You see, the receiver was prepared to bring the motion to discharge if we agreed to KingSett's demand that the discharge order include a clause in favour of KingSett barring claims against KingSett without leave, and that's in my affidavit. It's the red line. I call it the Armstrong discharge order. That's there. Now, that's the one.

1.3

And then when the receiver refused, well, someone has to bring the motion to discharge.

Blaneys told us it would do that. It then tried to bring it and was told by KingSett that if it dares bring that motion, KingSett will stop giving it transaction work. So then Jeffrey Warren called me and said he's not able to bring the motion anymore.

Those two things go hand in hand. The receiver has a direct role in this. Had it abided by its duty to act as an impartial party, not as an advocate, and bring the motion to discharge and leave it to the Court to decide, then it wouldn't require us to have Blaneys do that, right?

And there is another problem. Even if KingSett, you know, succumbed to that pressure

1 and said, fine, we won't pressure the receiver to 2 bring that motion to discharge, here's the problem. KingSett threatened, not only 3 threatened, said that it would seek that relief 4 5 on its own. 6 Now, here's the problem. We secured $3 million cash in those awful circumstances all 7 with objective of paying everything out and then 8 assessing all the costs and going after KingSett 9 for damages. 10 What KingSett was saying was no, no, 11 12 you're going to take on the additional expense of 13 this 3 million and you're going to pay us what 14 was at that time something like 600 or $700,000 in costs, and the reason we're going after you 15 16 all this time, which you still don't know, you 17 can't pursue us on that either because you have 18 to sign a release. That's what KingSett was proposing, was forcing. 19 1082. Okay. Can you stop please so that I 20 21 can ask my question? 22 I'm stopping because I'm done giving 2.3 you the answer. 24 1083. Q. Okay. I'm showing you an e-mail 25 exchange that you had with my client, Mr.

1		Goldstein.
2		A. Well, the first page is redacted. Is
3		this in your report?
4	1084.	Q. It is.
5		A. Where's your report? I want to see
6		it in your report. I don't like random pieces of
7		paper.
8	1085.	Q. It's in the second supplementary
9		report.
10		A. All right. Show it to me in that
11		report. I don't like random
12	1086.	Q. PDF 43.
13		A. Well, show it to me.
14	1087.	Q. You know what? Let me just do it
15		this way. I'm going to read this to you. This
16		is what Mr. Goldstein wrote to you: We did ask
17		if KingSett would be prepared to agree to remove
18		the leave requirement, open bracket, not claims
19		bar for claims against KingSett from the
20		discharge order, and they have agreed to that,
21		but they have advised that they intend to seek
22		that relief separately on their own motion at the
23		same time as any hearing of the discharge order.
24		You received that, sir?
25		A. Where is that?

1	1088.	Q. So this is quoted from, I'm told, in
2		the second supplementary report. Do you deny
3		that you received this e-mail?
4		A. This is very odd, Mr. Dunn, because
5		how can this be true since the receiver is now
6		seeking that very relief? So which is it? Is it
7		the receiver seeking it or not? I'm entirely
8		confused.
9	1089.	Q. Mr. Goldstein told you August 30th,
10		2022 that KingSett would be prepared to agree to
11		remove the leave requirement, yes or no?
12		A. I don't believe that because now the
13		receiver is seeking even worse relief in favour
14		of or broader relief in favour of KingSett.
15	1090.	Q. I'm showing you an e-mail exchange
16		again.
17		A. Well, the receiver has to explain
18		itself on how these two things can be true at the
19		same time.
20	1091.	Q. That's fine. Do you deny receiving
21		that e-mail?
22		A. I don't recall.
23	1092.	Q. Okay. So you don't know if in fact
24		on August 30th, 2022 KingSett advised you or Mr.
25		Goldstein advised you that KingSett would be

1		prepared to agree to remove the leave
2		requirement?
3		A. Please give me a moment to read the
4		e-mail.
5	1093.	Q. You don't know if that's true or not?
6		A. You handed me a stack of paper. I
7		need to read it before answering.
8	1094.	Q. Sure. Can I have my motion record
9		back, please, sir?
10		A. Yes, you may. No assets. No money.
11		Bad intel. Well, Mr. Dunn, so far what I'm
12		seeing is a lot of the e-mails are marked
13		"Without Prejudice". Are you sure you want me
14		to
15	1095.	Q. Yes. I'm only asking you about that
16		specific e-mail.
17		A. Well, the problem is context is
18		important. So did you produce this in your
19		report?
20	1096.	Q. This is excerpted in the report.
21		A. Well, then you've already and then
22		why is this blacked out, this top part here?
23	1097.	Q. That is blacked out for privilege.
24		Can you
25		A. Is it e-mails between you and the

1		receiver or is it with me?
2	1098.	Q. It's not with you.
3		A. All right.
4	1099.	Q. Okay. So
5		A. Hold on. I'm still reading.
6	1100.	Q. And then I would like to mark this as
7		Exhibit 8.
8		A. So what's your question? because this
9		just
10	1101.	Q. We're marking this as Exhibit 8.
11		A. This only solidifies my position.
12	1102.	Q. I didn't ask about solidifying your
13		position.
14		Let's mark this as Exhibit 8. Take it one
15		at a time. Okay? So I'm marking as
16		Exhibit Number 8 a chain of e-mails between
17		Raymond Zar and Noah Goldstein ending August
18		30th, 2022.
19		EXHIBIT NO. 8: Chain of e-mails between
20		Raymond Zar and Noah Goldstein ending
21		August 30, 2022.
22		BY MR. DUNN:
23	1103.	Q. Now, Mr. Zar, what Mr. Goldstein
24		wrote to you
25		A. Yes.

1	1104.	Qis that KingSett, and I'm quoting
2		here, would be prepared to agree to remove the
3		leave requirement, open bracket, not claims bar
4		for claims against KingSett from the discharge
5		order.
6		A. Keep reading.
7	1105.	Q. You received that?
8		A. No. Keep reading.
9	1106.	Q. Okay.
10		and they have agreed to that but they
11		have advised they intend to seek that
12		relief separately on their own motion at
13		the same time as any hearing for a
14		discharge order.
15		A. Yes. And now tell me what's the
16		difference?
17	1107.	Q. Okay. So I'll tell you what the
18		difference is, sir.
19		A. What's the difference?
20	1108.	Q. What you say is that the receiver
21		refused to proceed without this leave requirement
22		being in the order, and you would agree with me
23		that that's not correct?
24		A. I would not agree with you.
25	1109.	Q. Okay. Mr. Goldstein specifically

1		told you that it had asked KingSett if KingSett
2		would be prepared to agree to remove the leave
3		requirement and that KingSett said yes, correct?
4		A. No, absolutely not.
5	1110.	Q. So I'm literally reading from the
6		e-mail to you.
7		A. That's not what I'm taking from the
8		e-mail put in front of me.
9	1111.	Q. Okay.
10		A. In fact, I point to the receiver's
11		actions. On this motion it is seeking relief in
12		favour of KingSett. It's seeking a release in
13		favour of KingSett, unprecedented in any
14		receivership in Ontario that
15	1112.	Q. I didn't ask that.
16		A we could find.
17	1113.	Q. I didn't ask that. I still haven't
18		asked that.
19		A. So your suggestion that the receiver
20		was prepared to act impartially, it just doesn't
21		reconcile with the fact that the receiver isn't
22		acting impartially today on this motion.
23	1114.	Q. Still didn't ask that.
24		A. Well, that's the fact, Mr. Dunn.
25	1115.	Q. Okay.

1		A. And facts are stubborn things.
2	1116.	Q. They are indeed stubborn things.
3		Your response was to tell Mr. Goldstein:
4		Don't worry. If I wanted to close your
5		shop down, I would have already. We can
6		discuss the future of your shop once
7		you're out of mine.
8		That's on the first page and that's what
9		you wrote to Mr. Goldstein?
10		A. You are choosing to open up without-
11		prejudice conversations and that's fine. So it
12		is in the record.
13	1117.	Q. This is not without prejudice, sir.
14		A. Well, it was in relation to, I
15		believe in any event, it's in the record. I
16		have no problem talking about it.
17		What I was referring to was KingSett and
18		Goodmans and KSV's and Bennett Jones' desire to
19		receive a release in favour of all these matters,
20		and I was assuring Mr. Goldstein that he needed
21		to get out of my shop and then we could talk
22		about his, but I wasn't going to negotiate with
23		him from a position of weakness. That was simply
24		what I was saying.
25	1118.	Q. Okay. So I just want to deal

1		quickly, because I know and I appreciate Madam
2		Reporter staying late with us. This is taking
3		much longer than I anticipated.
4		You swear at paragraph 362 of your
5		affidavit that Mr. Armstrong of my firm has, has
6		in present tense, a sworn duty to KingSett?
7		A. Absolutely.
8	1119.	Q. Okay.
9		A. And I say that you
10	1120.	Q. No.
11		A as a partner at Goodmans are in a
12		conflict of interest position
13	1121.	Q. Please. Okay.
14		A and we're proceeding in protest
15		effectively.
16	1122.	Q. Great. And the evidence is and I
17		take it, sir, I just want to understand, your
18		understanding that Mr. Armstrong has a sworn duty
19		to KingSett is based on your belief that any
20		lawyer who acts for a client has a duty to that
21		client to follow its instructions indefinitely.
22		Is that correct?
23		A. No. My conclusion is based on the
24		evidence of Christopher Armstrong when I
25		cross-examined him on Friday and I asked him, I

1		said, Mr. Armstrong, can you sue KSV? And so he
2		had to think about it and
3	1123.	Q. Okay.
4		A concluded that he can't.
5	1124.	Q. Sir, that can't be true.
6		A. And I said to you, sue KingSett.
7	1125.	Q. Sorry. Hold on. Stop.
8		A. He can't.
9	1126.	Q. Stop. We all have to move on with
10		our lives, sir. Please stop giving speeches.
11		A. When the answers are not hitting your
12		narrative, you get frustrated.
13	1127.	Q. Your evidence can't possibly be based
14		on what Mr. Armstrong said on cross-examination
15		because he gave it before he was cross-examined.
16		A. Yes, and I'm saying my evidence was
17		endorsed by cross-examining Mr. Armstrong.
18	1128.	Q. Okay.
19		A. That's the purpose of
20		cross-examining.
21	1129.	Q. Okay. So what you said was that Mr.
22		Armstrong is a KingSett lawyer, present tense?
23		A. Yes.
24	1130.	Q. And that he has a sworn duty to
25		KingSett, correct?

1		A. Yes.
2	1131.	Q. Okay. And the evidence that you gave
3		is an application under the Companies' Creditors
4		Arrangement Act. There's a document attached as
5		Exhibit W?
6		A. The document doesn't matter. What
7		matters is where it says, Christopher Armstrong,
8		counsel of record, lawyer of record to KingSett
9		Mortgage Corporation. We're not talking about
10		some distant KingSett subsidiary. We're talking
11		about the applicant in this matter and the
12		creditor and the primary
13	1132.	Q. All right. Can you please
14		A defendant in our action.
15	1133.	Q. Please answer my question. That's
16		the evidence you've given, right, is this
17		document?
18		A. And Mr. Armstrong's admission that he
19		did in fact act for KingSett.
20	1134.	Q. Right, he did. This is a 2018 court
21		file number?
22		A. No, and Mr. Armstrong also said that
23		he continued to act.
24	1135.	Q. I said this
25		A. I don't recall years but it was

1		after.
2	1136.	Q.	This is a 2018 matter number,
3		correct?
4		Α.	Yes.
5	1137.	Q.	Okay. Thank you. And do we agree,
6		sir, that if	Mr. Armstrong doesn't currently work
7		for KingSett	, he doesn't have a duty of loyalty
8		to KingSett?
9		Α.	Absolutely not. I have read the
10		Rules of Pro	fessional Conduct probably three
11		times on thi	s matter.
12	1138.	Q.	Can you please sit down, sir?
13		Α.	Mr. Dunn.
14	1139.	Q.	Sit down and answer the questions.
15		Α.	I'm walking. I can sit but
16	1140.	Q.	No. You're pacing and lecturing
17		and
18		Α.	Mr. Dunn. Mr. Dunn.
19	1141.	Q.	we've got to get out of here. Sit
20		down and ans	wer the questions.
21		Α.	I know you're trying to get snippets
22		for your exa	mination, but I've been walking as
23		exercise thi	s entire day and no one said
24		anything.
25	1142.	Q.	This is not you're not here for

1		exercise, sir, and you're not here to give
2		speeches. Please answer my questions.
3		A. Exercise and getting blood flow to my
4		legs, but you haven't taken issue with that till
5		now.
6	1143.	Q. Okay.
7		A. So I'm sitting as you instructed.
8	1144.	Q. So that is based on your
9		understanding of the Rules of Professional
10		Conduct, is that based on this 2018 matter, Mr.
11		Armstrong still has a sworn duty of loyalty to
12		KingSett. Correct?
13		A. You know what, history teaches us
14		that
15	1145.	Q. No.
16		A it's not the act. It's the
17		concealment. By hiding its solicitor-client
18		relationship with KingSett, Christopher Armstrong
19		shows that he does have a sworn duty of loyalty
20		to KingSett because he was asked multiple times.
21		It's in the record. Noah Goldstein was asked and
22		KingSett was asked. None of them agreed to
23		disclose it. It's the concealment. That's the
24		bigger problem.
25	1146.	Q. Okay. So you're not going to answer

1		my question?
2		A. I did. He has a conflict of
3		interest.
4	1147.	Q. Okay. So turning to paragraph 410 of
5		your affidavit
6		A. Yes.
7	1148.	Qthis is your damages calculation?
8		A. It shows the calculated equity in the
9		company 30 Roe before and after the receivership.
10	1149.	Q. Right. And I take it, sir, that the
11		primary difference is the receivership value is
12		you've calculated based on an income approach?
13		A. The value we've calculated is the
14		value and at trial you can come up with a
15		different value if you wish.
16	1150.	Q. I don't understand that at all.
17		A. You should. It is a matter for
18		trial. It isn't a matter to be dealt with on a
19		discharge motion.
20	1151.	Q. Well, you put this in your affidavit,
21		right?
22		A. We're simply seeking a leave to sue.
23		We're not seeking a judgment against you. You
24		will have an opportunity to respond to the
25		Statement of Claim like everyone else.

1	1152.	Q. Okay. So the asset value is
2		twelve-and-a-half million. This is what you
3		would call a going concern asset value, right?
4		A. That is our evidence. Our evidence
5		is the asset was worth 12.5 before the
6		receivership.
7	1153.	Q. And that's calculated as a going
8		concern, right?
9		A. It simply says, asset value 12.5.
10	1154.	Q. So this is made up?
11		A. If you disagree with it, you will be
12		able to submit your own evidence.
13	1155.	Q. Okay. Fine. So this is just a
14		number that is there and we don't know where it
15		comes from or how it's calculated?
16		A. No, actually. It's corroborated by a
17		substantial documentary record already in this
18		proceeding including, off the top of my head, the
19		conversation, the recorded conversation with
20		Scott Coates on September 27th, 2021.
21	1156.	Q. Okay. Great. It's calculated as an
22		en bloc sale, correct?
23		A. Mr. Dunn, it says, asset value. It
24		doesn't say anything else.
25	1157.	Q. Okay. So you won't tell me how it's

1		calculated?
2		A. It's not that.
3	1158.	Q. No problem.
4		A. It's that I'm not going to read
5		words into the affidavit that aren't already
6		there. It says, asset value 12.5.
7	1159.	Q. Okay. That's fine. So and the
8		sale price of $7.327 million
9		A. Yes.
10	1160.	Q that was an asset sale on a
11		unit-by-unit basis. Correct?
12		A. Yes, net of HST because of the
13		receiver's negligence.
14	1161.	Q. And the negligence right. The
15		negligence was not selling it as an en bloc going
16		concern, correct?
17		A. No. No, Mr. Dunn. The negligence
18		is the list is expansive and what I'm about to
19		say shouldn't be construed as all the
20	1162.	Q. Well, then don't.
21		A attempts, but at least not seeking
22		tax advice, not acting on tax advice, not doing a
23		proper due diligence on the asset to determine if
24		it should be sold as a going concern or as an
25		asset sale, not doing any of those things and not

1 bringing those facts that it had, according to that phone recording, to the attention of the 2 Court when seeking approval. So in effect 3 misleading the Court and being negligent in 4 conducting --5 6 1163. Q. Right, because it was really 7 important that the Court know about the potential tax consequences of selling it unit by unit as 8 opposed to en bloc. That's your evidence, right? 9 10 A. Mr. Dunn, the evidence is Mr. -- the 11 receiver, Mr. Goldstein of the receiver, knew of the HST liability --12 13 1164. Q. Not my question. 14 A. -- prior to seeking approval. 1165. 15 Q. Okay. 16 And either purposely or negligently, 17 whatever you call it, did not bring that material evidence to the attention of the Court. 18 19 1166. That's my point. Q. 20 It is the receiver's duty to do that, 21 not anyone else's. 1167. Okay. I think you just made -- I 22 think you just hit on my exact point. Your 2.3 evidence is that the receiver ought to have 24 25 brought to the Court's attention the material

1		evidence, which was that there was a potential
2		HST liability; correct?
3		A. Mr. Dunn, this isn't an examination
4		before trial. We're simply seeking leave to sue
5		the receiver.
6	1168.	Q. Again, sir, that is not at all my
7		question.
8		A. All we need to show is that the claim
9		isn't frivolous or vexatious. We don't have to
10		show a prima facie case.
11		So the questions you're asking, you're
12		trying to show that the claim has no chance of
13		success. That isn't the test. The test is
14		whether it's frivolous and vexatious.
15	1169.	Q. Please don't tell me what I'm trying
16		to do.
17		A. That's what you're doing.
18	1170.	Q. Please don't tell me what I'm trying
19		to do.
20		A. And I'm telling you it's not going to
21		work.
22	1171.	Q. Let's try asking my question. Okay?
23		It was a material fact the potential HST
24		consequences were a material fact, correct?
25		A. Let's see if this question is

1		actually answered in my affidavit at
2	1172.	Q. I think you're looking for paragraph
3		348, but I'm just asking a really simple
4		question.
5		A. 342. Yes, I am, Mr. Dunn. 342,
6		342(f) I specifically asked follow-up questions
7		about the HST warning I made and admits that he,
8		the receiver, does not know the answer.
9		This material fact was disclosed to the
10		receiver. The receiver acknowledges knowing of
11		it and the receiver was negligent in not seeking
12		tax advice and in not completing an analysis.
13	1173.	Q. Because this is an important fact
14		that the Court had to know, right?
15		A. That the receiver failed
16	1174.	Q. No, the HST advice.
17		A to bring to the attention of the
18		Court.
19	1175.	Q. Right. And that was a failure
20		because that was an important fact that the Court
21		needed to know, correct?
22		A. I think everything is important for
23		the Court to know.
24	1176.	Q. Okay. It wasn't important enough for
25		you to include it in your affidavit, was it?

1		A. I'm not the receiver.
2	1177.	Q. I'm handing you a copy of your
3		affidavit sworn July 18th, 2022.
4		A. Mr. Dunn, that is a laughable
5		attempt, to say that
6	1178.	Q. Laughable or otherwise
7		A a debtor in receivership
8	1179.	Q is that your affidavit, sir?
9		A has a duty to stakeholders to
LO		maximize value. That is the duty of the 11		receiver. I have no power to do those things. I
L2		can't even retain a tax expert. I have no access
L3		to the funds. Everything is in the control of
L 4		the receiver, and I get e-mails time and time
L5		again from Mr. Armstrong saying, don't do this,
L 6		don't do that.
L 7		The receiver has sole authority to do
L8		everything and now you're telling me that it's
L 9		incumbent on me to get tax advice from the
20		receiver? The receiver is a CPA. The receiver
21		is an accounting firm effectively and it still
22		failed. This is exactly why we need a trial of
23		this matter.
24	1180.	Q. Do you have the faintest idea what
25		question I just asked you?

1		A. Yes. You're asking why that isn't
2		in
3	1181.	Q. What question did I ask you?
4		A. You're asking why that isn't in my
5		affidavit filed for that matter.
6	1182.	Q. Let's take this one step at a time.
7		Listen to my questions and then answer it.
8		That is your affidavit, sir; correct?
9		A. Yes.
10	1183.	Q. That affidavit makes no reference to
11		the HST, does it?
12		A. Mr. Dunn, it makes reference to
13		allegations of information that the receiver
14		alleges I didn't provide, and what the evidence
15		at paragraph 342(f) of my of the Zar affidavit
16		shows is that while the receiver was seeking an
17		order compelling me to produce information
18		provided with information, it was ignored in the
19		information I was giving it.
20		So you can't these two things can't
21		happen at the same time.
22	1184.	Q. Okay, sir. So you're not going to
23		answer my question?
24		A. I disagree with the premise of your
25		question. It's not my duty. It's like saving,

1 why didn't you make sure that the locksmith 2 didn't give the wrong keys to the wrong person? 3 That's not my job. The court order appoints KSV as the receiver. KSV is supposed to act in my 5 and the company's best interest. It failed to do 6 so. 7 The moment the receivership order was granted, I was effectively --8 1185. Q. Sir, if I could interrupt your 9 10 speech, can I mark -- we're going to mark this as 11 Exhibit 9, please. This is the affidavit of Raymond Zar sworn July 18, 2022. 12 13 EXHIBIT NO. 9: Affidavit of Raymond Zar 14 sworn July 18, 2022. 15 MR. DUNN: Okay. Let's take a five-minute 16 break and then we'll come back and finish. 17 --- Break commencing 5:17 p.m. 18 --- Upon resuming 5:25 p.m. 19 BY MR. DUNN: 20 1186. Q. Mr. Zar, thank you. Those are my 21 questions. We're going to end the examination subject to I'm reserving my rights on behalf of 22 my client in respect of or in the event that 2.3 24 there is anything further required as a result of 25 the Amended Notice of Motion that you delivered

1		at around eleven this morning. So thank you.
2		A. No, Mr. Dunn. No. Stay on the
3		record. I'm here and I'm ready to be questioned.
4		After this I'm not going to be submitting to
5		cross-examination. You can examine me now if you
6		wish on any other questions.
7	1187.	Q. Thank you. I have your position.
8		A. All right. And you have I have
9		yours. You have mine. That's it. Great. We're
10		off the record?
11		MR. DUNN: No.
12		BY MR. SWAN:
13	1188.	Q. I too would like to reserve my rights
14		with respect to the delivery of the Amended
15		Notice of Motion, which would be the very first
16		time that my client is being sued, and through
17		the evidence that we learned this morning. So I
18		would like to reserve my rights as well.
19		A. Could you clarify, please? What do
20		you mean by reserve your right? Reserve your
21		right in what respect?
22	1189.	Q. Exactly what I said, sir.
23		A. Reserve your right to do what?
24	1190.	Q. In all respects.
25		A. To cross-examine me?

1	1191.	Q. I'm reserving all of my rights.
2		A. Well, you have my position, which is
3		the same as my position to the receiver. You've
4		known we are suing KingSett for over almost
5		for years. I don't know, at least a year now,
6		and you've certainly known of it in our Notice of
7		Cross-Motion that was served on November 7th,
8		2023. You knew in our affidavit of November 7,
9		2023 the allegations we made against KingSett.
LO		You knew all of this and you're saying that the
11		mere issuance of a Notice of Action has changed
L2		things for you.
L3		I think that's disingenuous and I think
L 4		what you're attempting to do is not file contra
L5		evidence to shield your client from
L 6		cross-examination, cross-examine me, get
L7		information and then use all of that as an excuse
L8		to then, as you said, reserve your rights, and I
L 9		think that just shows what this really is, and I
20		think the judge hearing this application, the
21		Court, sees right through it. Thank you.
22		Cross-examination is adjourned 5:28 p.m.

upon convening at 11:00 a.m. 1 upon commencing at 11:40 a.m. 2 3 CHRISTOPHER ARMSTRONG, affirmed 4 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. ZAR: 1. Q. So, Mr. Armstrong, you swore an affidavit dated October 4th, 2023, did you not? I did. Α. 2. Do you have that affidavit in Q. front of you? 10 Α. I do. 11 Mr. Zar, can you ask the MR. DUNN: 12 next question, please? 13 14 15 BY MR. ZAR: 3. Q. I would like you to look at 16 paragraph 5 of your affidavit and I would like 17 you to take note of the four figures listed in 18 paragraph 5, and specifically the taxes of 19 77,272.84. Let me know when you have finished 20 looking at that paragraph. 21 I have. Α. 22 Thank you. Now, I would like you 4. Q. 23 to turn to tab K of the receiver's Motion Record, 24 and any time I refer to the receiver's Motion 25

Record, I am referring to the Motion Record dated 1 October 13th, 2023. 2 Tab K? Α. 3 5. Q. Yes. 4 I am there. Α. 6. Q. On tab K, do you see the line that says "HST" and the corresponding amount for 148,694? T do. Α. 7. Thank you. Now, referring back Q. 10 to paragraph 5 of your affidavit, and any time I 11 say your affidavit in cross-examining you, I am 12 referring to your affidavit sworn October 4th, 13 2023. Now, going back to paragraph 5 of your 14 affidavit, the taxes of 77,272.84 in paragraph 5 1.5 are included in the HST expense on Exhibit K of 16 the receiver's Motion Record, and specifically 17 the interim Statement of Receipt and 18 Disbursements, are they not? 19 I did not prepare the interim Α. 20 R&D, so I do not know for certain. I think it's 21 a possibility. 22 8. Can you undertake to find MR. ZAR: 23 out? 24

4		MR. DUNN: Yes.
6	BY MR. ZAR:
7	10.	Q. Mr. Armstrong, please tell me a
8	little k	oit about your practice.
9		MR. DUNN: No. Refused. Relevance.	/R
10	11.	MR. ZAR: Let's go off the record.
11		MR. DUNN: No. Stay on the record,
12		please.
13	12.	MR. ZAR: This is my cross-
14		examination.
15		MR. DUNN: We're not going off the
16		record. Say what you have to say.
17	13.	MR. ZAR: Are you saying that you're
18		going to end the cross-examination if I
19		choose to go off the record?
20		MR. DUNN: No, that's not what I
21		said.
22	14.	MR. ZAR: Then I am instructing the
23		court reporter at the examination
24		MR. DUNN: We're not having any
25		conversations off the record. Any

1		conversations that happen today will be
2		on the record.
3	15.	MR. ZAR: So, you will not speak
4		unless it's on the record?
5		MR. DUNN: That's correct.
6	16.	MR. ZAR: That's fair enough. All
7		right, we are on the record.
8		MR. DUNN: Please ask your next
9		question, sir.
10	17.	MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, this is my cross-
11		examination, the witness will answer the
12		questions that I pose. I would like to
13		ensure that the questions are proper and
14		relevant before asking them. Quality is
15		more important that quantity.
16		MR. DUNN: We are
17	18.	MR. ZAR: And so, you are herethe
18		witness is here for examination, and you
19		can ask questions aboutif there's any
20		clarity you need in the questions, you
21		can refuse to answer, you can provide
22		undertakings, but you cannot run this
23		cross-examination. And if you continue
24		to interrupt, I will show this
25		transcript to the judge and ask that it be rescheduled. 1 MR. DUNN: You can do whatever you like, sir. We are here to answer your 3 questions, we are not here to watch you flip through pages, so please ask your question. 19. Mr. Dunn, I am looking at MR. ZAR: your Motion Record, the pages that you are referring to are your Motion Record, I am looking at the affidavit of 10 Christopher Armstrong... 11 MR. DUNN: Okay. 12 20. MR. ZAR: ...the basis for this 13 cross-examination. 14 To be clear, what we are MR. DUNN: 15 here to do is answer questions. There 16 is currently an inordinately long time 17 being taken between questions while you 18 flip through pages. So, please ask your 19 questions... 20 21. MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, I have said what 21 I had to say, please stop interrupting. MR. DUNN: ...so we can...please ask 23 your questions so we can get this done 24 in a reasonable time. 25

22. MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, please stop 1 interrupting. 2 MR. DUNN: I believe the record will 3 show that you just interrupted me twice. 4 23. MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, I am not going to engage on this. Please stop interrupting. BY MR. ZAR: 24. Q. Mr. Armstrong, I would like you 10 to look at paragraph 6 of your affidavit. At 11 paragraph 6, it says that Goodmans billed a total 12 of 794.4 hours in connection with this 13 receivership, did it not? 14 That is what my affidavit says. Α. 1.5 25. Q. Thank you. I would now like you 16 to turn to Exhibit C of your affidavit. 17 Α. Okay. 18 26. Mr. Armstrong, Exhibit C shows a Q. 19 summary of all of the professionals at Goodmans 20 that billed time on this manner, does it not? 21 It does. Α. 22 27. Thank you. And the chart is Ο. 23 arranged by order of highest hours billed to 24 lowest hours billed, is that correct? 25

A. That is correct.

29.

1.5

2 28. Q. Thank you. And can you read the name of the professional listed as first on the chart, in other words, the professional that billed the most number of hours on this file?

A. It's my name, Chris Armstrong.

Q. And can you explain to me why you billed at an hourly rate listed on your affidavit as $894.46, the most hours on this file?

A. I was the lead partner on this file in the context of a long-running, very challenging and highly-disputed case that required skilled advice for the receiver. We obviously, as you see from the balance of the list, many other junior lawyers, law clerks, involved in the file. But this file required an inordinate amount of partner time, given much of the opposition that you posed, and much of the resulting litigation that resulted from your opposition to the receiver's motions in particular.

30. Q. So, do I understand correctly that you are saying that this file required expertise that only you could provide at your firm?

MR. DUNN: That's not what he said. 1

BY MR. ZAR:

- 31. Let me rephrase my question. It Q. says here on Exhibit C of your affidavit that your year of call was 2008, does it not?
 - Α. It does.
 - 32. And there are other professionals Q. at your firm listed on this chart with year of calls from...and I am looking at the professionals that have billed a material amount of time, as there are some that have listed less than one hour or two hours, and so I am not looking at those. But of the ones that have billed a material amount of time, the year of calls range from 2008 to 2021.
 - That is a range of the year of Α. calls in this chart, if that is your question.
- 33. And so, what I am getting at is Q. 19 why was the majority, 289.9 hours of time billed 20 by a lawyer with the most years of experience, rather than delegating work to the other 200-some 22 odd lawyers at your firm, many of whom 23 are...which include law students, associates, 24 that have a more recent year of call and thus a 25 lower corresponding hourly rate?

1.5

A. The...so, the majority of the time wasn't billed by me. If you look, I billed 289.9 hours against the total of just under 800 hours, so, that aspect of that premise of your question is incorrect. In terms of how we allocate work, we always look to complete any file as efficiently as possible. Ms. Caldwell, as you see, performed about 30 hours less work than me.

We also look to involve, you know, consistent members of a team to complete the work, because obviously, you know, once people have a background to a file, it assists in getting the work done more efficiently. And again, I think the answer I gave you previously responds to your current question, which is this was a challenging file. We had six or seven fully-contested hearings, we had three appearances at the Ontario Court of Appeal.

And Mr. Zar, the reason it was a challenging file is because you opposed every single thing the receiver tried to do, from requests for information to every motion brought before the court, in addition to advancing a range of allegations against everyone involved in 1 the case. And those are serious matters that 2 require serious attention, and the involvement, 3 in this case, of me, to deal with them. 4 34. Q. Thank you. That is what I want to ask you about, specifically your expertise. 6 On your Goodmans website, you say that, and I quote, "...Chris Armstrong is a partner in Goodmans Restructuring Group, which is 10 widely recognized as Canada's leading 11 restructuring practice..." 12 You then list your most recent representative 13 work, and I will start from the top, 14 "...Loyalty One (Air Miles) representing 15 the Monitor in Loyalty One's ongoing 16 CCAA proceeding..." 17 Number two, 18 "...Cirque du Soleil, representing an ad 19 hoc committee of lenders in Cirque Du 20 Soleil, relating to..." 21 Mr. Zar, perhaps it would MR. DUNN: 22 be more efficient to mark... 23 35. MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, please do not 24 interrupt. 25

1		MR. DUNN: You're welcome to mark it
2		asare you going to read his whole web
3		profile?
4	36.	MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, please do not
5		interrupt.
6		MR. DUNN: Let'swhy do not we just
7		mark it as an exhibit, and then you can
8		ask you questions?
9	37.	MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, pleaseI
10		haven't asked a question for you to
11		object.
12		MR. DUNN: That is the very issue
13		that I have a problem with.

ZAR: Would you like me to read every word, or just the name of the party and the amount? MR. DUNN: You can do whatever you want, but if you're going to purport to 10 read it, then read it. 11 I will...I am looking at 42. MR. ZAR: 12 the webpage of Christopher Armstrong on 13 Goodmans, and I am reading the names and 14 amounts of the representative work that 1.5 Christopher Armstrong acted on. 16 not purporting to read every single word 17 on that webpage, to your point. MR. DUNN: That's not number three.

MR. ZAR: All right, let's start from the beginning. What I am going to do is

I am going to read the representative work listed on Mr. Armstrong's webpage on Goodmans. I am going to read the name of the party, the primary party...

MR. DUNN: Why don't you just ask your question?

45. MR. ZAR: ...and then I am going to read the amount in question. I am not going to read every word.

MR. DUNN: Why don't you ask a

Number 21 four, Harte Gold Corp., valued at over...I 22 apologize, valued at 200 million. Number five, 23 Clover Leaf, valued at 1.3 billion, and that's 24 at 300 million. Number five doesn't have an amount. Number six, Crystallex International valued at 1.3 billion. Number eight, Nortel Networks, valued at 7.2 billion, again, billion with a B.

I won't read the rest of them, I can say
the list is probably too long to efficiently

the list is probably too long to efficiently describe in this cross-examination. Suffice it to say, the figures are in the hundreds of millions and tens of billions. And so...

MR. DUNN: I do not think there's anything in the tens of billions.

MR. ZAR: 7.2 billion for Nortel.

You are right, just under 10 billion. I am sorry, I am not used to seeing such large figures.

48. And so, the reason I bring this Q. 19 up is you just mentioned that the reason you 20 billed a significant number of hours on this 21 file, and any time I say this file, I am 22 referring to KingSett v 30 Roe, the receivership 23 proceedings. The reason you billed the most 24 time, you said, is because of your expertise, 25 your expertise were required. And again, your hourly rate is the highest of the top five professionals that have billed on this file. And so, my question to you is where does your representation, in your acting on the 30 Roe file, fall within your list of representative matters?

I remind you that the mortgage that was being enforced in the 30 Roe matter was valued at 1.9 million dollars, that is the principle of the KingSett loan. And even if we consider the first mortgage of CIBC, which was roughly 4.3 million, we are still talking about 6 million dollars. So, how does Christopher Armstrong, that acted on some of the most complicated and some of the largest insolvency files in the country, end up working on enforcing a second mortgage on nine residential condominiums, worth around 8 million dollars?

MR. DUNN: Could you rephrase that question in a way that it's a little more clear? There was about a minute or two of speech leading into the question. Please just ask the question as a question, so that it can be answered.

49. Mr. Armstrong, at what stage did Q. you become aware of the size of the estate in this matter? Α. I was aware of the subject matter of the assets at issue, being the portfolio penthouse condominiums that you referenced, from the outset of the case. I can't give you a specific date, but whenever the receiver would have approached us about acting, I would have learned that. 50. And so, the 30 Roe matter is the Ο. smallest in terms of estate value that you have acted on for a receiver at Goodmans, is it not? Α. No, it's not. 51. He cannot take 20 his fare from the courthouse to the 21 Royal York Hotel via Oakville..." 22 And the reason I bring this up is in reviewing 23 the dockets that you have produced, it is clear 24 that there was a lot of activity at Goodmans in 25

MR. DUNN: And an accrual, is also referenced in that for fees after

September 30th, which accrual we are

Q. What you just referenced is on page 23 of your Motion Record and if I add those two amounts, $251,180 for the receiver and $583,581 for Goodmans, the total is $834,360.

And according to that same paragraph, this total excludes HST and disbursements. And so, if I merely take that total and given your testimony today, that your fees are subject to HST, and we know from the invoices produced by the receiver that the receiver's fees are subject to HST, and eating into as we speak.

we know that HST in Ontario, Canada is 13 1 percent. If I take that total of 834,360, and I 2 multiply it by 1.13, I get 942,826 as the total. 3 And so, would you agree that the receiver and you 4 as its counsel are seeking approval for just under 1 million dollars in these proceedings? The numbers are the MR. DUNN: numbers. You just read them out. We are seeking approval for the figures that are set out in the Motion Record. 10 11 BY MR. ZAR: 12 101. Mr. Armstrong, I would like you 13 Q. to go back to page 648, which is at tab K of your 14 Motion Record. 1.5 Okay. I am there. 16 MR. DUNN: Mr. Zar, I know you do not 17 want me to tell you to ask a question, 18 but I'll just note for the record that 19 we have been now sitting for close to 20 two minutes waiting for you to ask a 21 question. 22 102. MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, this is a very 23 long Motion Record that you have 24 produced, and it takes time to flip 25 through the pages. 1 Not if you're prepared. MR. DUNN: 2 103. MR. ZAR: I trust you have read our 3 responding Cross-Motion Record, and so, 4 if it comes to a non-lawyer being prepared in a Commercial List proceeding, I would suggest that this speaks for itself. BY MR. ZAR: 10 104. Mr. Armstrong, KingSett is Q. expected to suffer a shortfall in this matter, is 12 it not? 13 Correct. Α. 14 105. And according the receiver's Q. 15 reports, it has made disbursements to KingSett in 16 the amount of 1.4 million dollars to date, has it 17 not? 18 That is what the R&D that you Α. 19 turned us to says. 20 106. Q. Yes. And so, based on this, the 21 receiver has been unable to even recover the principle of the KingSett loan, which was 1.875 23 million? 24 professional fees of Goodmans and KSV as receiver, which according to the calculation we did together, amounts to just under 1 million dollars, and say we reduce that by 50 percent to $500,000, then whatever amount we reduce, be it

                50 percent, 100 percent, 2 percent, whatever

the exact same thing but for free? 1 111. MR. ZAR: Yes. Is that the hypothetical MR. DUNN: 3 you're asking? I guess he can answer 4 that. THE DEPONENT: Well, no, I mean, I think there would be no recovery for KingSett if the receiver and our firm had not undertaken the work to generate proceeds to repay KingSett. If you're 10 positing that the professional fees, if 11 they were less, would it result in more 12 value for KingSett, I agree with that. 13 14 BY MR. ZAR: 15 112. Q. All right. And in your view, is 16 1 million dollars in receiver and receiver 17 counsel fees proportionate to the enforcement of 18 a 1.9 million dollar residential mortgage on nine 19 condominiums? 20 MR. DUNN: Sorry, are you asking 21 hypothetically or are you asking if it's proportionate in this case? 23 113. MR. ZAR: No, I am asking 24 specifically in this case. I am not 25 asking hypothetically. 1 MR. DUNN: Sure, he can answer if 2 it's proportionate in this case. 3 THE DEPONENT: In the context of this case, yes. BY MR. ZAR: Why is that? 114. Q. MR. DUNN: I believe he has answered that question, but he can answer again. 10 THE DEPONENT: Because it has been a 11 highly contested and litigious case that 12 has involved a tremendous amount of 13 professional work. 14 15 BY MR. ZAR: 16 115. Right. And so, would you agree Q. 17 that...and so, let's speak about the first court 18 appearance that you acted on in this matter, 19 which was the July 18th, 2022 appearance before 20 former Justice McEwen, in respect of approval of 21 the receiver's sales process. MR. DUNN: So, that's not the first 23 attendance in this matter. 24

BY MR. ZAR: It is the first attendance of 116. 0. Goodmans as...it is the first attendance of the receiver in court post-appointment of the receiver. That's not true. Our first Α. attendance would have been the Court of Appeal, but the first motion brought by the receiver... 117. You weren't acting on the Court Q. of Appeal, you were merely observing. Α. We appeared at the Court of 11 Appeal. 12 118. You made no submissions, you 13 Ο. billed very little for the time, it was merely an 14 attendance. 15 MR. DUNN: I appreciate the 16 compliments about our billing 17 efficiency. I do not know that we need 18 to be bogged down into whether this was 19 the first... 20 119. MR. ZAR: It was the first motion 21 brought by the receiver. MR. DUNN: Why don't you ask your 23 question about it? 24

.7	155.	Q. So, Mr. Armstrong, we have just
.8		heard that you had said, and the transcript
.9		reflected, that you said the fees were higher
10		than they should have been had
:1		A. I think I actually said, "could
.2		have been", but the record will reflect whatever
:3		I said.
4	156.	Q. Well, why don't you clarify?
15		Please answer the question again clearly.

A. They are greater than they could have been, if you had not done everything in your power to oppose the receiver, failed to cooperate with the receiver, advanced allegations, take litigation steps that caused the fees to be higher.

157.

Q. Right. So, on page 158, that email, would you deem any paragraph of that email as being aggressive, combative...can you point me to anything in that email that is in any way out of the ordinary for a debtor in receivership?

Α.

This email reflects two of the key disputes in the case. One, is your position that you were on the verge of a refinancing.

1.5

Two, is your position that the unit should be sold as a going concern hospitality business.

Those two issues were the subject of extraordinary litigation that basically followed from this date through multiple hearings, through the Court of Appeal at least once, and really twice, because we had to deal with an issue with your counsel. So, in this particular email, you're raising issues that subsequently became the subject of significant litigation and in which the court ruled against you entirely, time and again, including at the Court of Appeal.

/R

O. Mr. Armstrong, my email of July 6th, 2022, points to the absence of a fundamental analysis by the receiver to determine whether the company should be sold for parts or as a going concern. We have talked about the professional fees around 1 million dollars being a substantial amount in this estate, and that is causing a shortfall in the principle of the KingSett loan. But what we haven't talked about yet is HST. Has Goodmans provided a tax opinion to KSV in respect of HST?

MR. DUNN: Don't answer that. That's the subject...the receiver's position on HST is set out in its reports, which are not the subject of cross-examination.

159. Q. Well, Mr. Armstrong, the 19 principles in Bakemates say that the onus is on 20 you and the receiver to demonstrate the value you 21 have produced in return for the money you're 22 seeking. And so, HST has proven to be a major 23 issue that...it is our evidence that the 24 receiver, and by extension your firm, acted 25 negligently on, in failing to seek tax advice, because if you had tax advice, you would have produced it, and you haven't. And so, I ask again, have you provided a tax opinion to the receiver in respect of HST in this matter?

MR. DUNN: So, I can tell you, since you have explicitly asked the same question, you're going to have the same answer, which is refused. All of this is set out in the reports, including the ways in which you drove up the costs relating to that issue.

BY MR. ZAR:

- 160. Q. Mr. Armstrong, what value have you created for the estate in this matter?
 - A. The value we have created is against significant, repeated, obstinate opposition. We have completed the mandate or assisted the receiver in completing the mandate that it set out to do as authorized by the court, which was selling these units, maximizing the value of the estate for the benefit of creditors.
 - 161. Q. Mr. Armstrong, you talk repeatedly about the opposition you faced from the debtor. I assume you effectively are 1 referring to me, personally. 2 Α. Yes. 3 162. Mr. Armstrong, the Court of Q. 4 Appeal quashed 30 Roe's appeal of the receivership order on June 13th, 2022, did it not? Sorry, just ask the question Α. again? MR. DUNN: Are you asking him to 10 remember the date? 11 12 13 BY MR. ZAR: 163. It's a major event. The Court of Ο. 14 Appeal quashed 30 Roe's appeal of the 1.5 receivership order on June 13th, 2022. 16 Α. Without looking at specific 17 dates, that sounds accurate. 18 164. All right. And so, you agree Q. 19 that the receiver's mandate was effectively 20 frozen from the date of the Cavanagh receivership 21 order and the granting of the motion to quash by 22 the Court of Appeal. 23 Α. No, we don't agree with that. In 24 fact, our position was the receivership order was 25 not stayed and the Court of Appeal affirmed that position.

- 165. Q. And you understand the position of the company was that the order was stayed and that, effectively, between those two periods, both the receiver, the company, KingSett, everyone operated assuming there was a stay?
 - A. No.

1.5

- 166. Q. Did the receiver move in to take control of the company until the Court of Appeal granted the motion to quash?
 - A. As I recall, we had significant engagement with your counsel at the time to effectively come up with a...what I will call, an interim preservation regime, pending the Court of Appeal determining the disputed issue as they did in upholding the receivership order and confirming it was not stayed. I think the receiver took a position not to, for instance, bring forward a sale approval order, while that motion...or that appeal and the related motion to quash was pending before the Court of Appeal.
- 167. Q. Mr. Armstrong, I am going to give you a copy of the Responding and Cross-Motion Record of the respondent, it is dated October

1		16th, 2023. It includes the Notice of Motion and
2		the affidavit of Raymond Zar, sworn November 7th,
3		2023, which I will refer to as the Zar affidavit.
4		I am going to show you page 117 of the Zar

10		MR. DUNN: I take it, sir, you have

12	168.	MR. ZAR: I have not.
13		MR. DUNN: Well then, you should take

15	169.	MR. ZAR: No, the affidavit
16		specifically says that producing this is
17		not a waiver of privilege. It is in the
18		record, the witness is being
19		presented
20		MR. DUNN: We're notif it's

22		seems to be privileged on its face. If
23		you want to waive privilege, we are
24		happy to take a look at it.
25	170.	MR. ZAR: Mr. Dunn, this is in the affidavit, it is filed before the court, 1 it is the Motion Record of the 2 respondent. 3 MR. DUNN: So, it's not privileged? 4 171. MR. ZAR: The affidavit says that the information therein does not waive privilege. MR. DUNN: So, is the thing that you're asking us to read privileged? 172. MR. ZAR: I am not a witness, I am 10 not being examined. Mr. Armstrong is. 11 12 13 BY MR. ZAR: 173. Mr. Armstrong, are you going to Ο. 14 read that email as instructed? It is on page 15 117. 16 So, just to be clear... MR. DUNN: 17 174. MR. ZAR: I am not a witness, Mr. 18 Armstrong. 19 I do not...hold on. Don't MR. DUNN: 20 open it. I am not prepared to face an 21 allegation from you that we looked at 22 your privileged information. If you're 23 saying it's privileged...I just want you 24 to fully understand, when you ask us to 25

                                Thank you.
                         Α.

                         Q.
                reading.
                         Α.
                                I am finished reading that.
        180.
                                Thank you. So, in that email,
                         Q.
                Mr. Zucker says, and I quote,
                         "...If we lose, we appeal to the Court of Appeal, which is as of right..."
10
                And so, the reason I bring this up is to put an 11 end to this assertion that the debtor acted 12 unilaterally or irresponsibly. The debtor had 13 legal counsel, sought legal advice and was 14 specifically told that the appeal is as of right.
15
                That is the fact. Now, do you agree that between 16 the time the receivership order was issued and 17 the time the Court of Appeal quashed the appeal, 18 that the receiver did not actively take steps to 19 commence its mandate?
20
                         MR. DUNN:
                                       He has answered that.
21
        181.
                         MR. ZAR:
                                     He hasn't.
                         THE DEPONENT: No. The answer is no.
23
                         We...the receiver sent, I think, several 24 information requests to you. As I 25

mentioned previously, it sought to negotiate an interim protocol on how we dealt with the conflicting views on the receivership order.

182. Q. All right. Mr. Armstrong, I would like you to open tab T of the Zar affidavit.

A. Looks like a letter from Roehampton to our office, June 16, 2022.

Q. Yes, and tab T includes three letters, the first is June 16th, 2022, the second is June 21st, 2022 and the third is June 29th, 2022. Mr. Armstrong, the Court of Appeal quashed 30 Roe's appeal on June 13th, 2022. Only three days later, the company sent you the letter that you're looking at tab T of the Zar affidavit, and that letter...I will summarize it. First, it expresses concern over the video of KSV misrepresenting itself to guests and tenants at Roe Suites and purporting to be the owner, a misrepresentation it continued to make even to Toronto Police...

Sorry, let me answer your 10 question. 11 189. ...dispute your appointment? Ο. 12 Let me answer your question. 13 Α. asked if anything in this letter was combative. 14 Well, the first paragraph of the letter alleges a 15 misrepresentation on the part of the receiver 16 that has been the subject of proceeding before 17 the court. The second paragraph of the letter 18 suggests you're going to bring a motion to 19 replace the receiver. sent on June 13th, 2022, is it not?

192.

- A. That...it actually says it's writing in response to a letter we sent June 15th, 2022, in the first paragraph.
- 191. Q. The first paragraph deals with the video of misrepresentation.
 - A. Look one up, the first sentence.
 - Q. Yes, you are correct. However, I think you sent a letter on June 13th with a specific list of requests for information.

 Perhaps there was a follow-up on June 15th, two days later, but my point is that between June 13th and June 16th is three days, and if we are to take the first paragraph of my letter June 15th, then that means we responded only one day later. Is one, two or three days an unreasonable amount of time for a debtor not represented by counsel to respond to a letter from Goodmans?
 - A. I think you were represented by counsel. I am also not sure because I just do not remember what the specific timeline of the requests for information were. I can actually go back and flip you through our Motion Record, and I believe our...the receiver's original requests for information was shortly after the receivership order was granted in early May. In fact, I am looking at a letter dated May 9th,

2022 from our office, which was the first of the requests for information that the receiver sent following the granting of the receivership order.

And so, the correspondence in mid-June was us following up on the receiver's letters from...or our office's letter, rather, from a month and a bit earlier.

Q. Mr. Armstrong, have you or the receiver tendered any evidence for the record before the court that the debtor, or Raymond Zar, had information in their possession and control that they intentionally refused to provide to the receiver in respect of this matter?

MR. DUNN: There are a lot of qualifications in that. The receiver's reports outline its requests of the debtor, and the debtor has failed to respond or cooperate. It's too broad of a question to be answered.

THE DEPONENT: I also do not think I can speak to your intention one way or the other.

                great deal of time asking this question at least 3
                half a dozen times in this cross-examination, but 4 can you point me specifically to evidence of the combativeness that you use to justify the disproportionate fees in this matter?
                                Yes. It's in the receiver's

BY MR. ZAR:

Q. Mr. Armstrong, back to your fee affidavit at tab A of your exhibit, let's go back to page 702 of your Motion Record and page 8 of that particular invoice. This is for your fees, Goodmans' fees for the period commencing April 26, 2022, so, that is prior to the receivership order being granted, and ending July 31st, 2022, so that is after the sales process had been approved. And it says here that you have billed a total amount of $137,000. And the majority of this work, or virtually all of it, is from after the Court of Appeal quashed 30 Roe's appeal and your docket entries reflect that because they really start from June 13th, 2022, which is when 1 the motion to quash was granted, and the 2 receivership went, effectively, into full effect. 3 And so, my question to you is, in the span of 4 what is really one and a half months, how did you rack up $137,000 in fees without even selling a single unit and appearing at one motion where you had no opposition, there was no factum filed, there were no cross-examinations. The only evidence submitted was a three-page affidavit... 10 MR. DUNN: 11

MR. DUNN: Okay. Nothing about this question is proper. The point that you're putting is incorrect, there was opposition. The three-minute wind-up is not appropriate. Ask a question.

Q. Mr. Dunn (sic), on page 701 of your motion record, page 7 of the invoice, on July 28, 2022, you docketed 4.8 hours, and I quote,

"...Revising OREA listing agreemnt..."

And OREA stands for Ontario Real Estate

Association, it is a standard form. Can you tell us how and why you spent almost five hours

revising a standard form? 1 MR. DUNN: He did not. Please stop 2 misrepresenting things to the witness. 3 4 BY MR. ZAR: 255. Q. Goodmans did. Α. Are you looking at...sorry, the 72822 docket of BCA? 256. Q. Yes. Α. So, that's Ms. Caldwell, the 10 first-year associate who assisted me on this 11 matter. And she was drafting a form of Agreement 12 of Purchase and Sale that was subsequently used 13 for all nine units that were sold for about 8.5 14 million dollars. You cannot just use an off-the-1.5 rack OREA sale agreement for a receivership sale. 16 There is a host of differences, you know, ranging 17 from court approval, to the "As-is, Where-is" 18 nature of the deal that makes an OREA, kind of, 19 form agreement entirely inappropriate. And so, 20 yes, she spent 4.8 hours drafting an agreement 21 that was then used to sell about 8.5 million dollars of real estate. 23 257. Now, that would be efficient, Q. 24 wouldn't it? 25

MR. DUNN: Thank you for the compliment.

3 258. MR. ZAR: I am waiting for an answer.

MR. DUNN: Okay, Mr. Armstrong,

please tell Mr. Zar if you think that was efficient.

THE DEPONENT: That was efficient for the first draft. I suspect if you looked in these dockets, there would be revisions and reviewing, further drafts, incorporating client comments, etcetera.

BY MR. ZAR:

259. Well, I commend you for looking Ο. 14 at me flipping through the Motion Record, and 1.5 anticipating that my next question to you, which 16 I am going to ask is, it wasn't just 4.8 hours, 17 was it, because if we go through these dockets, 18 we see that there were countless revisions to 19 this OREA form, and I am talking about 50, 60, 70 20 hours spent just on this form throughout this 21 receivership, which you said in your evidence was 22 supposed to be for all nine units, which would 23 have been efficient. But that wasn't the case, 24 was it? 25

Hold on, stop. I have no MR. DUNN: 1 idea what question you just asked. You 2 just threw out a bunch of numbers, you said there are countless revisions. Are you just asking if Mr. Armstrong thinks the process of drafting the APS was efficient in its entirety? 260. MR. ZAR: I think, Mr. Dunn, the transcript shows what was asked and what Mr. Armstrong answered. 10 MR. DUNN: I am instructing the 11 witness not to answer whatever that 12 question was. 13 /R 261. MR. ZAR: He answered it already. 14 1.5 BY MR. ZAR: 16 262. Mr. Armstrong, the most recent Q. 17 sales approval you obtained from Justice Osborne 18 back in May of this year included a mechanism for 19 the receiver to sell the remaining units without 20 needing to reattend court each time. That's 21 correct, isn't it? 22 Α. That is correct. 23 263. And that is efficient, in your Q. 24 view? 25

A. It was efficient in the circumstances of this case.

Q. Now why wasn't this efficiency implanted from the beginning, instead of going to court countless times for the same thing, filing motion materials, factums, holding hearings for each individual sale? Why did not you seek this, I will call it multi-unit approval mechanism from the onset, to save fees?

Α. I think, to address the premise of your question, we ended up having two sale hearings. The first one, by recollection, was in January 2023, and then the second was in May, and that was for two specific further sales, as well as the sale of the five remaining units. I think the position of the receiver evolved when it became apparent that every time we went before the court, we were going to be faced with not only opposition to the receiver's motion, on what I think should have been a fairly normal course motion, we were going to face opposition, as well as all other manner of tactics and allegations that would continue to drive up costs and take professional time to address. And that was the genesis of the determination to seek pre-approval of the sale of the five-remaining units.

- 2 265. Q. I would like you to turn to page

 737 of your Motion Record, and I would like you to look at the docket entry on March 2nd...I apologize, yes, on March 2nd, 2023, where it says

 preparing APS for condominium PH02.
 - A. You did not read the entire docket entry.
 - Q. "Preparing factum", right. And so, by this date, March 20 (sic), 2023, had you not already appeared before the court at least on one other occasion to seek approval for the same matter, which was approval of the sale of a condominium unit?
 - A. To answer the first part of your question, we had appeared for a sale approval. The part of your question that I just do not know, looking at this detail, is there were a range of hearings before the court in and around this time frame. There was, by recollection, a subsequent sale approval motion pertaining to the remaining units. There was a motion that you brought at some point, probably not quite yet, but at some point, for payment of the debtor counsel's fees. We were also dealing with, I think by this stage, the Court of Appeal, your appeal of the first sale approval orders in this time frame. And I just...looking at the detail that's right here, I do not know which particular factum, of all the various factums, that were going around when the receiver filed in that time frame that relates to.

267.

Q. So, in your insolvency practice, when you're preparing materials for court, such as in this case, let's say, specifically, the factum, in the span of the last two years, has the jurisprudence taken a controversial turn? In reviewing your factums, the primary authority cited is the Soundair Test. I haven't seen any new authority, and so, if the authority is the same, the law is the same, would it not follow that you need not draft a new factum for the same matter every time, even though you're appearing in court multiple times?

A. No. You need to file a fresh factum for every motion before the court.

268. Q. So...sorry.

A. You're right that the baseline, you know, sale approval Soundair Test has been consistent for a long period of time, but the facts of every motion were different. And also, 1 as I said in my previous answer, I am not 2 entirely certain what specific factum is referenced in Ms. Caldwell's docket there, as I said there were a range of factum dealing with a host of issues that we had to file to address the positions you took. 269. So, is it your evidence that all Q. of your factums are always drafted from scratch and that it is a blank Word document where a 10 lawyer goes in and writes everything all over 11 again, the headings, style of cause, back page, 12 all of that is drafted word for word? 13 That was not my evidence. Α. 14 270. Q. All right. 15 Α. We work from precedents, 16 absolutely, to try and be efficient. 17 271. Q. And so, it is then your evidence 18 that you do rely on materials you have previously 19 drafted? 20 Α. Yes, inasmuch as they are 21 relevant to whatever we are back before the court 22 to deal with, which in this case, may not have been the case, because the one other thing that we had to deal with, that I had forgotten until 23

this moment, was the writ of possession 1 litigation, where we had to bring a fresh motion 2 to evict your mother from the unit she was 3 occupying without the receiver's knowledge. So, 4 that was another factum being dealt with in this time period. 272. Thank you for bringing that up. Q. I am going to show you a video... MR. DUNN: No, you're not. Yes, and it's going to be 273. MR. ZAR: 10 in the transcripts. 11 I do not even know if it MR. DUNN: 12 can go in the transcripts. 13 274. Let's go off the record. MR. ZAR: 14 MR. DUNN: No, do not go off the 1.5 record. 16 17 --- DISUCSSION OFF THE RECORD 18 19 BY MR. ZAR: 275. Q. Mr. Dunn, you said earlier in this examination that you have reviewed the responding and Cross-Motion Record of 30 Roe. 23 MR. DUNN: I do not think I said 24 that. 25

276. MR. ZAR: I apologize, I meant Mr. Armstrong. 2 3 BY MR. ZAR: 4 277. Q. I apologize, I meant Mr. Armstrong. You said you have reviewed the Motion Record of 30 Roe. I have reviewed the written Α. Motion Record, I have looked at some of the videos that were linked into it, not all of them, 10 and the recordings as well. 11 278. Well, in...the transcripts will Ο. 12 show you did say that you have read the Zar 13 affidavit. And the Zar affidavit includes 14 exhibits... 1.5 I am not going to get into an 16 existential debate about whether or not I can 17 read a video. I can't. And I just told you what 18 I have done with respect to the videos and the 19 recordings that are linked or embedded in your 20 affidavit, which I have read. 21 279. Mr. Zar, I am going to play... Q. MR. DUNN: Move on. 1 2 BY MR. ZAR: 3 314. Mr. Armstrong, so that we make Q. 4 the most use of our time since Mr. Dunn is objecting to virtually everything I ask, what are 6 you prepared to answer during this examination? And the reason that I ask... MR. DUNN: Refused. We are here to be cross-examined on the fee affidavit. 10 Ask a relevant question, you will get an 11 /R answer. 12 13 BY MR. ZAR: 14 315. Q. Well, Mr. Armstrong, you're 15 asking for 1 million dollars in fees and you're 16 citing complications in this matter, but when 17 you're asked about those complications, you issue 18 a blanket refusal. 19 That's not what happened. MR. DUNN: 20 316. MR. ZAR: That is what the transcript 21 shows. Ask a question. Mr. MR. DUNN: 23 Goldstein is here and ready to start his 24 examination.

317. MR. ZAR: And I advised you that...I anticipate his examination will start at 2 2:30 p.m. 3 MR. DUNN: Just telling you. He is 4 here on time. 318. MR. ZAR: I appreciate that. And I appreciate that your office and his office are next door to this location, whereas I live in North York. MR. DUNN: Ask a question, please, 10 Mr. Zar. 11 12 13 BY MR. ZAR: 319. Mr. Armstrong, do you agree that Ο. 14 the nature of the assets involved were nine 15 residential condominium units in Toronto? 16 Α. Yes. The lion's share, I mean, 17 there were some residual assets, like rent 18 proceeds and the like. But certainly the lion's 19 share were the nine penthouse units. 20 320. Q. But the real property on which 21 the court appointed the receiver were the nine residential condominium units? 23 Α. No. It's broader than that. 24 It's the nine units plus...I am not going to turn 25

up the receivership order, but... 1 321. Ο. All right. 2 ...there were assets related 3 there, too, including the rent. 4 322. Q. But you... It's described on the face of the Α. receivership order. 323. But you agree that the secured Q. creditors, being CIBC in first position and KingSett in second position, that their security 10 was charges on title to the nine residential 11 condominiums? 12 Α. That was part of their security, 13 they also held, as I recall, assignment of rents 14 as well as in the case of KingSett, a general 15 security agreement as well. 16 324. Thank you. Mr. Armstrong, what Q. 17 degree of assistance did you expect from the 18 debtor in this proceeding? 19 I don'tt know that I had a Α. 20 particular expectation, other than that there was 21 a court order, and the court order should be complied with. 23 325. Q. Thank you. And do you agree that 24 the receivership order specifically empowers the 25

receiver, as receiver and manager, to deal with 1 the subject assets, being the nine residential 2 condominium units? 3 The receivership order says what Α. 4 it says. It broadly empowers the receiver to deal with the property that is the subject of the 6 receivership, including the nine residential units. 326. And so, you agree that that means Q. that the debtor is no longer to deal with the 10 said property? 11 The order provides that the power Α. 12 of the receiver, to the extent it exercises, is 13 to the exclusion of any other person. 14 paraphrasing, but I think you get the gist of my 1.5 response. 16 327. And you agree that it is the Q. 17 receiver that is obligated to manage, operate and 18 deal with the assets of the company and 19 receivership? 20 MR. DUNN: I think you're going to 21 have to be a bit more precise, like, the 22 order has specific language in it. It's 23 not really clear what this is. 24 328. MR. ZAR: It's quite precise. 25

Do you want to show him MR. DUNN: 1 the order and we can... 2 3 BY MR. ZAR: 4 329. Q. What I am getting at is, because you have said this on countless occasions and emails that are in the record, where you have written to me and you have said things to the effect of...and I am paraphrasing, "Mr. Zar, the receiver is empowered by court order to deal with 10 the asset to the exclusion of others, including 11 you." You have used that term frequently, that's 12 why I remember it. And so, do you agree that it 13 is the receiver that must be managing and dealing 14 with the property? 1.5 I agree that the receivership 16 order defines the scope of the responsibilities 17 of the receiver. 18 330. Thank you. And so, my question Q. 19 is what degree of assistance did you expect from 20 the debtor after... 21 MR. DUNN: He answered that. 22

MR. ZAR: ...the receivership order was granted, and the receiver was to exclusively deal with the assets?

331.

MR. DUNN: He has already answered 1 that. 2 332. He hasn't. MR. ZAR: 3 He has. You asked that MR. DUNN: 4 exact same question a couple minutes ago. 6 333. I did not receive an MR. ZAR: 7 answer. MR. DUNN: Yes, you did. 10 BY MR. ZAR: 11 334. Please repeat the answer. Q. 12 I am not going to repeat my 13 Α. answer, but the receivership order contains broad 14 powers that compel any person, including the 1.5 debtor or its principal, to provide records and 16 assistance to the receiver. 17 335. Q. Thank you. And so, do you agree 18 that the degree of assistance that ought to be 19 provided by the debtor to the receiver, the 20 extent of that assistance is in the appointment 21 order? 22 I think that is one aspect that 23 would determine the degree of assistance that any 24 person is required to provide to the receiver. 25

There probably is a host of other means of 1 requiring someone to comply and assist the 2 receiver. There was another specific order in this case that specifically compelled the debtor and, I believe, you personally, to provide specific information and property, and that also created a follow-on right for the receiver to compel specific information or records from you on notice and gave you a timeline to respond. 336. Q. Yes. And on that point, the 10 order you sought compelling production of certain 11 documents and information, which order, I 12 believe, was granted against 30 Roe and myself as 13 director of the corporation. Did you receive the 14 information you were looking for? 1.5 Α. No. 16 337. And so, is it your position that Q. 17 the debtor or Raymond Zar were in breach of that 18 order? 19 It's not my position. Α. I think it 20 is the receiver's position, yes.

> 338. And so, you're saying it is the receiver's position that Raymond Zar and 30 Roe are in contempt of court?

That is not what I said. Could Α.

it be construed that way? Potentially. 1 339. Have you sought to commence Ο. 2 contempt proceedings? 3 Α. The receiver has not sought to 4 commence contempt proceedings. 340. Q. Why not? I am not sure I can speak for the Α. receiver's intent. I think what I can say is there is kind of diminishing economies of scale here, once it becomes apparent that someone's not 10 going to provide information, it's obviously very 11 costly to continue to pursue motion practice to 12 compel the delivery of records. 13 341. You did not pursue contempt Ο. 14 proceedings because there was no basis to seek 1.5 contempt proceedings, isn't that true? 16 Α. No. 17 342. Q. And yet, you allege that 30 Roe 18 and Raymond Zar have not complied with an order 19 on the one hand, and on the other, you have made 20 probably a dozen court appearances on this matter 21 on trivial and significant issues, and yet, you 22 have never sought to hold Raymond Zar or 30 Roe 23 to what you say is a court order for them to produce documents which you say they haven't produced, and which you say thereby puts them in 1 breach of a court order? 2 No, the receiver specifically 3 sought an order. [inaudible] specifically sought 4 an order to deal with this issue. The court made a finding that's reflected in the record. 6 was the relief the receiver sought to address this issue. It has not sought to compel the delivery of records since it sought that subsequent on top of the existing receiver's 10 order. 11 343. Well, Mr. Armstrong, that doesn't Q. 12 appear to be true. And I would like you to go to 13 page 657 of your Motion Record. This is the 14 invoice of KSV Restructuring Inc., dated August 1.5 26, 2022, and page 3 of that invoice... 16 Sorry, to be clear, you just said Α. 17 it was dated August something, this invoice that 18 I am looking at says it's dated April 14th. 19 344. It is page 655 of your Motion Q. 20 Record. 21 My apologies, I turned over that Α. 22 23 page. 345. No problem. So, it's August 26, Q. 24

24

2022. And I would like you to turn to page 3 of that invoice and the second bullet point, which reads.

1.5

346.

"...Preparing a letter to Royal Bank of Canada dated June 13th, regarding the company's bank account held at RBC..."

So, Mr. Armstrong, if the receiver was already in touch with RBC in respect of 30 Roe's bank account, why was it seeking that information for 30 Roe? Why was it wasting judicial time seeking a court order for the company to produce that information?

A. I don't think I can speak to what the receiver was doing. The receiver sought out information from multiple sources. Typically, the easiest and most readily available source of information is the debtor or its principals, if they are prepared to cooperate. That was not the case in this proceeding, and so, the receiver pursued alternative means. I mean, the other thing I can say is, obviously, RBC has a very specific amount of knowledge. They would not have the vast majority of the records that the receiver sought from you, Mr. Zar.

Q. And yet, you managed to freeze 30 Roe's bank account, you managed to transfer the funds, you had no issue doing those things on the 1 one hand, while on the other hand, you told court 2 that you can't get access to information. Well, 3 I say that that is at the very least, inaccurate. 4 MR. DUNN: We're not here for you to say things, Mr. Zar. Ask a question. 6 347. MR. ZAR: This is my crossexamination. MR. DUNN: Right, it's a crossexamination, which is a series of 10 questions. So ask one. 11 Please stop filling the MR. ZAR: 348. 12 transcripts with words that really add 13 no value. 14 1.5 BY MR. ZAR: 16 349. Mr. Armstrong, the sixth bullet Q. 17 point on that same page, page 657, says, 18 "...Reviewing the letter from Canada 19 Revenue Agency dated June 14th, 2022, to 20 advise of certain trust amounts owing by 21 the company..." 22 As you must know, as an experienced 23 practitioner, the CRA gets notification of a 24 receivership being granted, it then takes steps 25 to contact the receiver. That communication 1 happens instantaneously, and in any event, it's 2 not something that the debtor is involved in. It 3 is virtually automatic. And so, would you agree 4 that at the very least, this point in the receiver's invoice shows that it had communication with the CRA as early as June 14th, 2022, the day after the appeal was quashed? Α. That, as I recall, is a maybe half-page letter that was sent by the CRA. I do 10 not know if it was sent to...the receiver or it 11 was sent to the debtor, it is somewhere in the 12 record. But by my recollection, all that letter 13 says is the CRA believes it has an approximately 14 $40,000 deemed trust claim for unpaid HST. 1.5 350. Q. That is not accurate, but we will 16 get to that. 17 Let's... Α. 18 We're running out of time MR. DUNN: 19 to get to anything, Mr. Zar, so move on 20 with it. 21 22 BY MR. ZAR: 23 351. Sometimes efficiency dictates and the receiver 1 may request, "Can you draft a...something to deal 2 with describing the Court of Appeal proceeding?" 3 by way of example, because that's more of a 4 lawyer-type thing. But KSV drafted all of these reports in this matter. 358. Mr. Armstrong, page 659, bullet Q. three. "...Attending at the premises on July 26, 2022 to oversee the changing of 10 locks on the units..." 11 Would you agree that by this point, July 26, 12 2022, the receiver had changed the locks and was 13 the only person other than the individual 14 occupants that had access to the units? 1.5 Α. document the details relating to 1 tenants' stay at the units, arranging 2 for new locks and keys for the units and 3 dealing with ad hoc issues raised by the 4 tenant concerning units..." Would you agree that a receiver was dealing with the tenants, it was changing locks, it was effectively fulfilling its mandate under the receivership order, and there's nothing controversial listed here? 10 Well, there's a bunch of MR. Q. 4 page says, "...Reviewing correspondence from Torys LLP, counsel to Airbnb to Goodmans in response to the Airbnb letter..." Did you draft a letter to Airbnb's counsel in respect of 30 Roe? 10 Whether I did, I honestly... Α. 11 Goodmans. 381. Ο. 12 ...do not recall. Goodmans did, 13 Α. yes. 14 382. All right. And so, you agree Q. 15 that by this point, at least the receiver's 16 counsel was in touch with Airbnb in respect of 30 17 Roe? 18 Yes, by my recollection, that Α. 19 letter was sent because the receiver couldn't get 20 occupancy information from you. And so, the 21 receiver resorted to reaching out to third parties like Airbnb. 23 383. Q. I do not know if that's true, but 24 I know it says on the last point on that page, 25

page 659, it says, 1 "...Reviewing information provided by 2 Torys regarding the listing of the 3 units..." 4 And it's a defined term, units refers to the nine penthouses of 30 Roe, on Airbnb. Would you agree that by this point, the receiver had direct communication with...through counsel, directly with Airbnb in respect of the units? Α. We received a letter or an email, 10 I can't remember what form it took, but some 11 written correspondence from Airbnb that provided 12 the information they had pertaining to the units 13 that were listed on Airbnb. 14 Thank you. And so, this, at page 384. Ο. 1.5 661, this invoice that we just went through 16 together is for the period ending July 31st, 17 2020. 18 MR. DUNN: No. 2022. 19 385. MR. ZAR: Yes, thank you. not see is any mention of it being unable to 1 fulfill its mandate because of the receiver feeling or...the debtor opposing or being 3 combative, or just being a bad person. Like, I 4 am asking this question, because it is a personal attack that the receiver and your firm has made in public court hearings, that you have published on the receiver's website, that you have used in your legal materials over and over again to paint this picture that Raymond Zar is somehow this 10 uncooperative, disgruntled borrower that's just 11 trying to impede the receiver, and it's... 12 Are you going to ask a 13 MR. 7	paragra	ph 1.3.1.
8		A. This is the restrictions.
9		MR. DUNN: The restrictions?
10	395.	MR. ZAR: Yes.
11		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
12
13	BY MR. ZAR:
14	396.	Q. All right. So, 1.3.1 says, and I
15	quote,
16		"In preparing this report, the
17		receiver has relied on the limited
18		records obtained from the company and
19		KingSett Mortgage Corporation, and
20		correspondence with Zar on behalf of the
21		company"
22	It call	s this the information. In 1.3.2, it
23	says,
24		"The receiver has not audited or
25		otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the 1 financial information relied on to prepare this report in a matter that complies with Canadian auditing standards..." It goes on to say that: "...Accordingly, the receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance contemplated under the CAS in respect of such information. Any party wishing to 10 place reliance on the financial 11 information should perform its own 12 diligence..." 13 So, Mr. Armstrong, you just said that I should 14 rely on the receiver's record to support your 15 allegations, yet the receiver's record says that 16 it relies on other parties, and it has not taken 17 any steps to verify those claism. 18 That's not what it says. MR. DUNN: 19 20 BY MR. ZAR: 21 397. Mr. Armstrong, what does it say? Q. It says exactly what it MR. DUNN: 23 says. 24 MR. ZAR: Please do not answer the 398. 25

THE DEPONENT: If you would like to just...while we are here, if you would like to see evidence on the receiver's dealings and request for information, you can refer to 3.1 of that first 10 report. You can also refer to 5.0, 11 which deals with the subsequent order 12 that was sought and granted by Justice 13 McEwen, compelling you to... 14 15 BY MR. ZAR: 16 399. Q. Yes. 17 ...deliver certain records and Α. 18 property because you had failed to deliver them. 19 So, in the first report, at least, and I know 20 there's other instances in the other reports, 21 there is significance evidence of the receiver about your noncompliance. 23 400.                 order was breached?
                         Α.
                                We never sought a finding that that order was breached.
        402.
                                 That doesn't answer my question.
                         Q.
                Is there a finding that that order was breached?

 - A. Yes, and as I said, I opened that recording, I listened to portions of it. I did not listen to the whole recording.
 - will proceed to transcribe the call and put the transcripts before the court so that it can be read, since you haven't listened to it. And it is important that exactly what was said on that call is before the court. The summary is, of course, in the affidavit. Mr. Armstrong, what were the results of your efforts, because this receivership was commenced by KingSett to collect on a 1.9 million dollar loan, and it has only received 1.4, while you're standing to gain, or at least trying to gain 1 million dollars for yourself and KSV?
 - A. That's not how much money we are seeking to get, but leaving that aside, the results of the receivership were completing the receiver's mandate as directed and authorized by the court, which was to maximize the value of the property for the benefit of stakeholders. We 1 certainly would have liked for there to be more 2 money available for creditors. Your conduct in 3 this case significantly increased the required 4 professional time to deal with it, and thereby reduce the amount the receiver is available to 6 distribute. Thank you. I do not think that's 413. Q. 8 true, because were it true, you would have sought a motion to bring contempt proceedings against 10 me... 11 Please ask a question. MR. You arrive at the property around 12:50 p.m. 1 on December 9. You are on camera telling 2 somebody that, "Oh, you won't believe this, it's 3 Raymond's mother that's here." And you have a 4 smirk on your face in the video. You go in the 5 elevator with full knowledge that it is my mother 6 and then you show up with four, five, six police officers. There is screaming, there is pleas for, "Please stop doing this to me," and we will get a translation, in case you haven't received a 10 translated version yet. But the translated 11 version will show that she said, "Please stop 12 doing this. Why are you doing this to me?" And 13 then... 14

You finally appear in the video to find 2 your conscience, and then after having, at 12:49 3 p.m. or 12:50 p.m., having admitted you know who 4 she is, after having lied to the police about not knowing who she is, this happens. 6 --- VIDEO PLAYS Stop. And we have never had an issue with that 17 in 25 years. 18 57. Q. You have been with KSV for 25 19 years? 20 Α. My firm has never had an issue 21 with that for 25 years. I have been with KSV for 13 years. 23 58. The reason I asked for the Ο. 24

dockets is because they are required under the case law, under statute, that is why Goodmans... 1 MR. DUNN: Please ask a question... 2 59. MR. ZAR: ...as an example, has 3 produced its dockets... 4 MR. DUNN: ...instead of making argument. Please turn to tab B of 1.5 your affidavit, which lists the time summary of 16 KSV's accounts from January 6, 2022 to September 17 30, 2023. You have billed a total of $251,180. 18 Does this amount include HST? 19 Α. No. 20 61. Q. All right. And to your 21 knowledge, is HST paid on receivership fees claimable by 30 Roe as an input tax credit? 23 Α. We bill HST on our invoices. 24 62. Q. Right, and so the company, 30

All right. So, if we look at Ο. this figure after HST, and the invoices show the HST, so I am not doing anything extraordinary. We take $251,180, multiply it by 1.13, we get to $283,833 for KSV. So, let's take that amount, and now let's look at the amount sought by your counsel, Goodmans, in respect of this matter. And specifically, let's look at Exhibit M to your Motion Record and the summary is at tab B of the affidavit of Christopher Armstrong. And so, we see here that the total sought by Goodmans after costs and taxes is $671,679.26. So, if we take your...the amount and Goodmans' fee amount, and we add them together, so $283,833 plus $671,679, we get to $955,512, which is the total amount that you are seeking approval from the court in respect of KSV and Goodmans' fees. It is just under a million dollars and presumably doesn't include amounts you are going to claim after... MR. DUNN: Is there a question, Mr.

Zar?

Q. According to your statement of receipt and disbursements, you have paid KingSett 1.4 million dollars, and you know that the KingSett loan has a principal of 1.875. Would you agree that you failed to recoup even the full principal of the KingSett loan?

MR. DUNN: The numbers speak for themselves.

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

BY MR. ZAR:

- agree that if Goodmans claimed or was awarded half of what it's claiming, so instead of the 670,000 and change it's claiming, let's say it was awarded half of that, so $335,000. Would you agree that that delta, in large part, or almost entirely, would then go towards paying at least the remaining principal of the KingSett loan?
 - A. Theoretically, yes.
- 66. Q. All right. And so, you agree that the legal fees of the receiver, so the fees of Goodmans, has a direct impact on the recovery of KingSett?
 - A. All professional fees have a

Mr. Goldstein, I am looking at Q. the very first invoice in this matter dated April 14, 2022, it's at page 653 of your Motion Record. It lists descriptions overall of what's happened 10 in the receivership, but I cannot find the key 11 pieces of information to determine whether your 12 fees are proportionate, whether they are 13 appropriate. I am looking for dates 14 corresponding with number of hours claimed, 1.5 corresponding with the name of the individual, 16 corresponding with their hourly rate. 17 MR. DUNN: Yes, those are the 18 dockets. You have asked for them. You 19 have our position. 20 161. MR. ZAR: And your position is you 21 are not going to produce them, correct? I would invite you to MR. Q. Would you agree? 11 Not given the level of obstacles 12 you have cause. I think we actually did a very 13 good job. 14 You believe that the fees are 165. 1.5 Ο. justified in light of the circumstances? 16 Α. Yes. 17 166. All right. So, let's go over the Q. 18 descriptions that we do have in your invoices. 19 Please look at page 657 of your Motion Record, 20 that's page 3 of your invoice. Bullet 2, you 21 said that you have prepared a letter to Royal 22 Bank of Canada on June 13th, 2022 regarding the 23

And so, you agree that by this date, the CRA was obviously aware of the receivership order and you were in communication 10 with the CRA? 11 Α. Correct. 12 173. Thank you. On page 659, bullet 13 Q. number 3 from the top, it says, 14 "...[You] attended at the premises on 1.5 July 26 to oversee the changing of the 16 locks of the units..." 17 Units being defined as the nine condominiums. - 190. Q. Mr. Goldstein, do you agree that as receiver, you are charged with managing the property, with managing the operations, with securing the units, with all the things you have actually listed in your invoice?
 - A. My firm, yes.
- 191. Right. And I...when I say "you" Ο. 12 I am referring to KSV and its representatives, 13 collectively. So then, would you agree that 14 these two things cannot be true at the same? On 1.5 the one hand, if the receiver is appointed to 16 deal with the assets and undertakings of 30 Roe 17 to the exclusion of others, then it cannot also 18 be true that Raymond Zar, as a director of the 19 debtor, is somehow obligated to work for the 20 receiver or to deal with operations, or to do 21 bookkeeping? 22
 - A. Cooperation is required under the receivership order by all persons, including the debtor.

192. Ο. Thank you.                                 Mr. Goldstein, would you agree
                         Q.
20 that this receivership was effectively an assets
                sale, a liquidation?
22
                                It was a sale...it was a sale

Motion Record says, and I quote, 1 "... The police then advise the receiver 2 that the occupant was Maryam Rezaee, and 3 that she was Mr. Zar's mother. This was 4 the first time that the receiver became aware of that relationship..." Does it not? MR. DUNN: Refused. /R 284. MR. ZAR: All right. 10 BY MR. ZAR: 11 285. Q. So, Mr. Goldstein, my final 12 question for you is, were you being deceitful in 13 the video showing you on December 9th, 2022 at 14 12:50 p.m. when you said you know it's Raymond's 1.5 mother in reference to the person... 16 MR. DUNN: You have already asked 17 this question, Mr. Zar. 18 286. MR. ZAR: ...in penthouse 1 and 9, or 19 were you being deceitful several hours 20 later, when you told the police that you 21 were the owner, and that you have no 22 idea who Maryam Rezaee is? Or were you 23 being deceitful when you were speaking 24 with Ms. Rezaee's counsel, Micheal 25

Simaan, when he called you, when you 1 said you had no idea who she was, or 2 were you being deceitful to Justice 3 Osborne wherein in this hearing, you 4 said that the first time you became aware of the relationship was when the police advised you on that day? MR. DUNN: Are you done? BY MR. ZAR: 10 287. So, which time were you being Q. deceitful? 12 MR. DUNN: Refused. Thank you, Mr. 13 /R Zar. 14 288. MR. ZAR: Those are my questions. 15 16 --- upon adjourning at 4:16 p.m.
