direct or indirect security for any Obligation; (d) any change in the existence, structure, constitution, name, objects, powers, business, control or ownership of any Debtor or any other person, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting any Debtor or any other person or its assets; (e) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantor may have at any time against any Debtor, the Creditors, or any other person, whether in connection herewith or any unrelated transactions; (f) any invalidity, illegality or unenforceability relating to or against any Debtor or any provision of applicable law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Debtors of the principal or interest under the Obligations; (g) any limitation, postponement, prohibition, subordination or other restriction on the rights of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to payment of the Obligations; (h) any release, substitution or addition of any cosigner, endorser or other guarantor of the Obligations; (i) any defence arising by reason of any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to make any presentment, demand for performance, notice of non-performance, protest, and any other notice, including notice of all of the following: acceptance of this Guarantee, partial payment or non-payment of all or any part of the Obligations and the existence, creation, or incurring of new or additional Obligations; (j) any defence arising by reason of any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to proceed against any Debtor or any other person, to proceed against, apply or exhaust any security held from any Debtor or any other person for the Obligations, to proceed against, apply or exhaust any security held from the Guarantor or any other person for this Guarantee or to pursue any other remedy in the power of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors whatsoever; (k) any law which provides that the obligation of a guarantor must neither be larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal obligation or which reduces a guarantor's obligation in proportion to the principal obligation; (l) any defence arising by reason of any incapacity, lack of authority, or other defence of any Debtor or any other person, or by reason of any limitation, postponement, prohibition on the Trustee's right on behalf of the Creditors to payment of the Obligations or any part thereof, or by reason of the cessation from any cause whatsoever of the liability of any Debtor or any other person with respect to all or any part of the Obligations, or by reason of any act or omission of the Trustee or others which directly or indirectly results in the discharge or release of any Debtor or any other person or all or any part of the Obligations or any security or guarantee therefor, whether by contract, operation of law or otherwise; (m) any defence arising by reason of any failure by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to obtain, perfect or maintain a perfected or prior (or any) security interest in or lien or encumbrance upon any property of any Debtor or any other person, or by reason of any interest of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in any property, whether as owner thereof or the holder of a security interest therein or lien or encumbrance thereon, being invalidated, voided, declared fraudulent or preferential or otherwise set aside, or by reason of any impairment by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any right to recourse or collateral; (n) any defence arising by reason of the failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to marshal any assets; (o) any defence based upon any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to give to the Debtors or the Guarantor notice of any sale or other disposition of any property securing any or all of the Obligations or any guarantee thereof, or any defect in any notice that may be given in connection with any sale or other disposition of any such property, or any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to comply with any provision of applicable law in enforcing any security interest in or lien upon any such property, including any failure by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of any such property in a commercially reasonable manner; (p) any dealing whatsoever with any Debtor or other person or any security, whether negligently or not, or any failure to do so; (q) any defence based upon or arising out of any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, arrangement, readjustment of debt, liquidation or dissolution proceeding commenced by or against any Debtor or any other person, including any discharge of, or bar against collecting, any of the Obligations, in or as a result of any such proceeding; or (r) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by any Debtor, the Creditors, or any other person or any other circumstance whatsoever, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, which might, but for the provisions of this Section 2, constitute a legal or equitable discharge, limitation or reduction of the Guarantor's obligations hereunder (other than the payment or extinguishment in full of all of the Obligations). The foregoing provisions apply (and the foregoing waivers will be effective) even if the effect of any action (or failure to take action) by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is to destroy or diminish the Guarantor's subrogation rights, the Guarantor's right to proceed against the Debtors for reimbursement, the Guarantor's right to recover contribution from any other guarantor or any other right or remedy.

3. RELIANCE ON AGENTS. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is entitled to assume, notwithstanding any investigation by or on behalf of the Creditors, the power of the Debtors and the Guarantor and the authority of the officers, directors or agents acting or purporting to act on behalf of the Debtors or the Guarantor, and any Obligations made or created in reliance upon the exercise of such power or authority will be guaranteed hereunder.

4. RECOURSE AGAINST DEBTOR. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is not required to exhaust its recourse against the Debtors or others or under any other security or guarantee before being entitled to payment from the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

5. SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS. Any account settled or stated between the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and the Debtors will be accepted by the Guarantor as prima facie evidence that the amount thereby appearing due by the Debtors to the Creditors is so due.

6. NO WAIVER. No delay on the part of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in exercising any of its options, powers or rights, or partial or single exercise thereof, will constitute a waiver thereof. No waiver of any of its rights hereunder, and no modification or amendment of this Guarantee, will be deemed to be made by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors unless the same will be in writing, duly signed on behalf of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and each such waiver, if any, will apply only with respect to the specific instance involved, and will in no way impair the rights of the Creditors or the liabilities of the Guarantor to the Creditors in any other respect at any other time.

7. GUARANTEE OF ALL MONEYS BORROWED. All moneys and credits in fact borrowed or obtained by the Debtors from the Creditors, will be deemed to form part of the Obligations notwithstanding any incapacity, disability or lack or limitation of status or power of any Debtor or of the directors, officers, employees, partners or agents thereof, or that any Debtor may not be a legal entity, or any irregularity, defect or informality in the borrowing or obtaining of such moneys or credits. Any amount which may not be recoverable from the Guarantor by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors on the basis of a guarantee will be recoverable by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from the Guarantor as principal debtor in respect thereof and will be paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors forthwith after demand therefor as herein provided.

8. STAY OF ACCELERATION. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Debtors in respect of the Obligations is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Debtor or any moratorium affecting the payment of the Obligations, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration will nonetheless be payable by the Guarantor hereunder forthwith on demand by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

9. REINSTATEMENT. If, at any time, all or any part of any payment previously applied by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to any Obligation is or must be rescinded or returned by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, the insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization of the Debtors), such Obligation will, for the purpose of this Guarantee, to the extent that such payment is or must be rescinded or returned, be deemed to have continued in existence, notwithstanding such application by the Trustee, and this Guarantee will continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, as to such Obligation, all as though such application by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors had not been made.

10. NO SUBROGATION. Notwithstanding any payment made by the Guarantor under this Guarantee or any setoff or application of funds of the Guarantor by the Trustee, the Guarantor will have no right of subrogation to, and waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to enforce any remedy which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors now has or may hereafter have against the Debtors, until all of the Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full; and until that time, the Guarantor waives any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security, whether real or personal property, now or hereafter held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for the Obligations.

11. ASSIGNMENT AND POSTPONEMENT. All present and future indebtedness and liability of the Debtors to the Guarantor is hereby assigned by the Guarantor to the Trustee and postponed to the Obligations and all moneys received by the Guarantor in respect thereof will be received in trust for and, unless prior written authorization from the Trustee to the contrary will have been obtained by the Guarantor, will be paid over to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors upon demand by the Trustee. If the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors receives from the Guarantor a payment or payments in full or on account of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder, the Guarantor will not be entitled to claim repayment against any Debtor until the Trustee's claims against the Debtors have been paid in full. In case of liquidation, winding up or bankruptcy of any Debtor (whether voluntary or involuntary) or if any Debtor will make a bulk sale of any of its assets within the bulk transfer provisions of any applicable legislation or any composition with creditors or scheme of arrangement, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to rank for its full claims and receive all dividends or other payments in respect thereof in priority to the Guarantor until the claims of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have been paid in full, and the Guarantor will continue liable hereunder for any balance which may be owing to the Trustee by the Debtors. In the event of the valuation by the Trustee of any of its security and/or the retention thereof by the Trustee, such valuation and/or retention will not, as between the Trustee and the Guarantor, be considered as a purchase of such security, or as payment or satisfaction or reduction of the Obligations or any part thereof. The foregoing provisions of this Section 11 will not in any way limit or lessen the liability of the Guarantor under any other Section of this Guarantee.

12. FOREIGN CURRENCY OBLIGATIONS. The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Obligation in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the Debtors are required to pay such Obligation. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Obligation to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in a currency other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Obligation only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is able to purchase at Toronto, Ontario with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Obligation, the Guarantor will indemnify and save the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

13. TAXES AND SET-OFF BY GUARANTOR. All payments to be made by the Guarantor hereunder will be made without set-off or counterclaim and without deduction for any taxes, levies, duties, fees, deductions, withholdings, restrictions or conditions of any nature whatsoever. If at any time any applicable law, regulation or international agreement requires the Guarantor to make any such deduction or withholding from any such payment, the sum due from the Guarantor with respect to such payment will be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deduction or withholding, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors receives a net sum equal to the sum which it would have received had no deduction or withholding been required.

14. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES; INDEMNIFICATION. The Guarantor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (a) incurred by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Guarantee, (b) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Guarantor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Guarantee, or (c) incurred by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

15. ADDITIONAL SECURITY. This Guarantee is in addition and without prejudice to any security of any kind (including other guarantees) now or hereafter held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and any other rights or remedies that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors might have.

16. SET-OFF BY TRUSTEE. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, set-off and apply any and all deposits at any time held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and any other indebtedness at any time owing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to or for the credit or for the account of the Guarantor against any and all of the Obligations of the Guarantor now or hereafter existing under this Guarantee even if (a) the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors has not made any demand hereunder, (b) Obligations are contingent or unmatured, or (c) the Obligations are not in the same currency as the offsetting deposits or indebtedness which may be owing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

17. [RESERVED].

18. RELEASE OF INFORMATION. The Guarantor authorizes the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to provide a copy of this Guarantee and such other information as may be requested of the Creditors by persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtors.

19. APPLICABLE LAW AND ATTORNMENT. This Guarantee shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Guarantee, the Guarantor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

20. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Guarantee will extend and enure to the benefit of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its successors and assigns and will be binding upon the Guarantor and its successors. The Guarantor's obligations hereunder will not be assigned or delegated. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time, and without notice to or the consent of the Guarantor, assign or transfer all or any of the Obligations or any interest therein; and, notwithstanding any such assignment or transfer or any subsequent assignment or transfer thereof, any such Obligation or part thereof so transferred or assigned will remain an "Obligation" for the purposes of this Guarantee and any immediate and successive assignee or transferee of any Obligation or any interest therein will, to the extent of the interest so assigned or transferred, be entitled to the benefit of, and the right to enforce, this Guarantee to the same extent as if such person were the Creditor.

21. TIME. Time is of the essence with respect to this Guarantee and the time for performance of the obligations of the Guarantor under this Guarantee may be strictly enforced by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

22. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Guarantee is determined to be illegal, unconscionable or unenforceable, all other terms and provisions hereof will nevertheless remain effective and will be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

23. COMMUNICATION. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Guarantee shall be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

24. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The Guarantor represents and warrants to the Creditors, upon each of which representations and warranties the Creditors specifically relies, as follows:

(1) Litigation. There is no litigation or governmental proceeding pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against the Guarantor which, if adversely determined, would materially adversely affect the financial condition of the Guarantor.

(2) Burdensome Provisions, etc. The Guarantor is not a party to any agreement or instrument, or subject to any corporate restriction or any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation, which materially adversely affects or, to its knowledge, in the future is likely to materially and adversely affect, its ability to issue the Guarantee or to perform its obligations under this Guarantee.

(3) Contingent Liabilities and Debt. The Guarantor has no contingent liabilities which are not disclosed on or referred to in the financial statements most recently delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors which would have a material adverse effect on its business or prospects.

(4) Full Disclosure. Neither the financial statements most recently delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors nor any other written statement furnished by or on behalf of and at the direction of the Guarantor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in connection with the negotiation or consummation of the transactions as contemplated hereby contain, as of the time such statements were so furnished, any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted as of such time, a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading, and all such statements, taken as a whole, together with this Guarantee, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements contained herein or therein not misleading.

(5) Material Adverse Change. Since the date of the most recent financial statements delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and except as otherwise disclosed to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in writing (i) there has been no material adverse change in the financial condition of the Guarantor as shown on its balance sheet as at that date; and (ii) the business, operations, properties, condition, financial or otherwise, or prospects of the Guarantor have not, so far as the Guarantor can reasonably foresee, been materially and adversely affected as a result of any act or event including, without limitation, fire, accident, strike, expropriation or act of any government in Canada or elsewhere.

(6) Consents. No consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, registration, filing or qualification with, or giving of notice to, or taking of any other action, in respect of, any Person, governmental authority or agency is required on the part of the Guarantor in connection with the execution and delivery and enforcement of this Guarantee.

(7) Due Execution, etc. This Guarantee has been duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Guarantor and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(8) No Default, etc. Neither the execution nor the delivery of this Guarantee, the consummation of the transactions herein contemplated, nor compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions hereof conflicts with or will conflict with, or results or will result in, any breach of, or constitutes a default under any of the provisions of any agreement or instrument to which the Guarantor is a party or by which the Guarantor, or any of its property or assets are bound or (except as contemplated by this Guarantee) results or will result in the creation or imposition of any encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of the Guarantor or results or will result in the contravention of any law or rule or regulation to which the Guarantor or its property or assets are subject and as a consequence of which the ability of the Guarantor to perform its obligations under this Guarantee is or would likely be adversely affected.

(9) Tax Returns. The Guarantor has filed all tax returns which are required to be filed and has paid all taxes which have become due as shown on such returns or any assessments received by the Guarantor where failure to do so would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of the Guarantor or its ability to perform its obligations under this Guarantee, except such taxes (if any) as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which a reserve reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is provided; and the Guarantor is not aware of any proposed additional tax assessment against it.

25. TRUSTEE. Subject to any rights or remedies available to the Trustee and the Debentureholders under applicable law or otherwise, no holder of any Debenture shall have any right to institute any action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity for the purpose of enforcing this Guarantee, unless: (a) such holder shall previously have given to the Trustee a written notice of the happening of an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) hereunder; and (b) the Debentureholders by Extraordinary Resolution or by written instrument signed by the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding shall have made a request to the Trustee and the Trustee shall have been afforded reasonable opportunity either itself to proceed to exercise the powers hereinbefore granted or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its name for such purpose; and (c) the Debentureholders or any of them shall have furnished to the Trustee, when so requested by the Trustee, sufficient funds and security and indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby; and (d) the Trustee shall have failed to act within a reasonable time after such notification, request and offer of indemnity and such notification, request and offer of indemnity are hereby declared in every such case, at the option of the Trustee, to be conditions precedent to any such proceeding or for any other remedy hereunder by or on behalf of the holder of any Debentures.

26. DEBTOR'S FINANCIAL CONDITION. The Guarantor is fully aware of the financial condition of the Debtors.

27. INTERPRETATION. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Guarantee, if any matter in this Guarantee is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or is to be acceptable to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If any provision in this Guarantee refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Guarantor, or which the Guarantor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Guarantee into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Guarantee. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Guarantee, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Guarantee to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Guarantee. If more than one person executes this Guarantee, their obligations under this Guarantee are joint and several. Any reference in this Guarantee to a "person" will be deemed to include an individual, corporation, partnership, trust, unincorporated organization, government and the heirs, executors, administrators or other legal representatives of an individual. All capitalized terms used herein without being otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

28. COUNTERPARTS. This Guarantee may be signed in counterparts and by electronic transmission, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

RECITALS:

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Debtor") and Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") are parties to an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

B. As a condition precedent to the issuance of the Debentures under the A&R Debenture Indenture, Emblem Corp. (the "Guarantor") is required to execute and deliver this Guarantee.

For valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby conclusively acknowledged by the Guarantor, the Guarantor hereby agrees in favour of the Creditors as follows:

1. GUARANTEE. The Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, jointly and severally, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the prompt payment and performance to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, forthwith upon demand by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, of all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of any kind whatsoever (whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured) of the Debtors to the Creditors under, in connection with or with respect to the A&R Debenture Indenture and the other Security Documents (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) (collectively, the "Obligations"). All amounts payable by the Guarantor hereunder will be paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at the address of the Trustee shown above or as otherwise directed in writing by the Trustee. Any amounts payable by the Guarantor under this Guarantee which are not paid forthwith upon demand therefor by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will bear interest from the date of such demand at the rate or rates applicable to the corresponding Obligations.

2. GUARANTEE UNCONDITIONAL. The obligations of the Guarantor under this Guarantee are continuing, unconditional and absolute and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, will not be released, discharged, diminished, limited or otherwise affected by (and the Guarantor hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law): (a) any extension, other indulgence, renewal, settlement, discharge, compromise, waiver, subordination or release in respect of any Obligation, security, person or otherwise; (b) any modification or amendment of or supplement to the Obligations, including any increase or decrease in the principal, the rates of interest or other amounts payable thereunder; (c) any release, non-perfection or invalidity of any direct or indirect security for any Obligation; (d) any change in the existence, structure, constitution, name, objects, powers, business, control or ownership of any Debtor or any other person, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting any Debtor or any other person or its assets; (e) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantor may have at any time against any Debtor, the Creditors, or any other person, whether in connection herewith or any unrelated transactions; (f) any invalidity, illegality or unenforceability relating to or against any Debtor or any provision of applicable law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Debtors of the principal or interest under the Obligations; (g) any limitation, postponement, prohibition, subordination or other restriction on the rights of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to payment of the Obligations; (h) any release, substitution or addition of any cosigner, endorser or other guarantor of the Obligations; (i) any defence arising by reason of any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to make any presentment, demand for performance, notice of non-performance, protest, and any other notice, including notice of all of the following: acceptance of this Guarantee, partial payment or non-payment of all or any part of the Obligations and the existence, creation, or incurring of new or additional Obligations; (j) any defence arising by reason of any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to proceed against any Debtor or any other person, to proceed against, apply or exhaust any security held from any Debtor or any other person for the Obligations, to proceed against, apply or exhaust any security held from the Guarantor or any other person for this Guarantee or to pursue any other remedy in the power of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors whatsoever; (k) any law which provides that the obligation of a guarantor must neither be larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal obligation or which reduces a guarantor's obligation in proportion to the principal obligation; (l) any defence arising by reason of any incapacity, lack of authority, or other defence of any Debtor or any other person, or by reason of any limitation, postponement, prohibition on the Trustee's right on behalf of the Creditors to payment of the Obligations or any part thereof, or by reason of the cessation from any cause whatsoever of the liability of any Debtor or any other person with respect to all or any part of the Obligations, or by reason of any act or omission of the Trustee or others which directly or indirectly results in the discharge or release of any Debtor or any other person or all or any part of the Obligations or any security or guarantee therefor, whether by contract, operation of law or otherwise; (m) any defence arising by reason of any failure by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to obtain, perfect or maintain a perfected or prior (or any) security interest in or lien or encumbrance upon any property of any Debtor or any other person, or by reason of any interest of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in any property, whether as owner thereof or the holder of a security interest therein or lien or encumbrance thereon, being invalidated, voided, declared fraudulent or preferential or otherwise set aside, or by reason of any impairment by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any right to recourse or collateral; (n) any defence arising by reason of the failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to marshal any assets; (o) any defence based upon any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to give to the Debtors or the Guarantor notice of any sale or other disposition of any property securing any or all of the Obligations or any guarantee thereof, or any defect in any notice that may be given in connection with any sale or other disposition of any such property, or any failure of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to comply with any provision of applicable law in enforcing any security interest in or lien upon any such property, including any failure by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of any such property in a commercially reasonable manner; (p) any dealing whatsoever with any Debtor or other person or any security, whether negligently or not, or any failure to do so; (q) any defence based upon or arising out of any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, arrangement, readjustment of debt, liquidation or dissolution proceeding commenced by or against any Debtor or any other person, including any discharge of, or bar against collecting, any of the Obligations, in or as a result of any such proceeding; or (r) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by any Debtor, the Creditors, or any other person or any other circumstance whatsoever, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, which might, but for the provisions of this Section 2, constitute a legal or equitable discharge, limitation or reduction of the Guarantor's obligations hereunder (other than the payment or extinguishment in full of all of the Obligations). The foregoing provisions apply (and the foregoing waivers will be effective) even if the effect of any action (or failure to take action) by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is to destroy or diminish the Guarantor's subrogation rights, the Guarantor's right to proceed against the Debtors for reimbursement, the Guarantor's right to recover contribution from any other guarantor or any other right or remedy.

3. RELIANCE ON AGENTS. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is entitled to assume, notwithstanding any investigation by or on behalf of the Creditors, the power of the Debtors and the Guarantor and the authority of the officers, directors or agents acting or purporting to act on behalf of the Debtors or the Guarantor, and any Obligations made or created in reliance upon the exercise of such power or authority will be guaranteed hereunder.

4. RECOURSE AGAINST DEBTOR. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is not required to exhaust its recourse against the Debtors or others or under any other security or guarantee before being entitled to payment from the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

5. SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS. Any account settled or stated between the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and the Debtors will be accepted by the Guarantor as prima facie evidence that the amount thereby appearing due by the Debtors to the Creditors is so due.

6. NO WAIVER. No delay on the part of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in exercising any of its options, powers or rights, or partial or single exercise thereof, will constitute a waiver thereof. No waiver of any of its rights hereunder, and no modification or amendment of this Guarantee, will be deemed to be made by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors unless the same will be in writing, duly signed on behalf of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and each such waiver, if any, will apply only with respect to the specific instance involved, and will in no way impair the rights of the Creditors or the liabilities of the Guarantor to the Creditors in any other respect at any other time.

7. GUARANTEE OF ALL MONEYS BORROWED. All moneys and credits in fact borrowed or obtained by the Debtors from the Creditors, will be deemed to form part of the Obligations notwithstanding any incapacity, disability or lack or limitation of status or power of any Debtor or of the directors, officers, employees, partners or agents thereof, or that any Debtor may not be a legal entity, or any irregularity, defect or informality in the borrowing or obtaining of such moneys or credits. Any amount which may not be recoverable from the Guarantor by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors on the basis of a guarantee will be recoverable by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from the Guarantor as principal debtor in respect thereof and will be paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors forthwith after demand therefor as herein provided.

8. STAY OF ACCELERATION. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Debtors in respect of the Obligations is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Debtor or any moratorium affecting the payment of the Obligations, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration will nonetheless be payable by the Guarantor hereunder forthwith on demand by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

9. REINSTATEMENT. If, at any time, all or any part of any payment previously applied by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to any Obligation is or must be rescinded or returned by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, the insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization of the Debtors), such Obligation will, for the purpose of this Guarantee, to the extent that such payment is or must be rescinded or returned, be deemed to have continued in existence, notwithstanding such application by the Trustee, and this Guarantee will continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, as to such Obligation, all as though such application by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors had not been made.

10. NO SUBROGATION. Notwithstanding any payment made by the Guarantor under this Guarantee or any setoff or application of funds of the Guarantor by the Trustee, the Guarantor will have no right of subrogation to, and waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to enforce any remedy which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors now has or may hereafter have against the Debtors, until all of the Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full; and until that time, the Guarantor waives any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security, whether real or personal property, now or hereafter held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for the Obligations.

11. ASSIGNMENT AND POSTPONEMENT. All present and future indebtedness and liability of the Debtors to the Guarantor is hereby assigned by the Guarantor to the Trustee and postponed to the Obligations and all moneys received by the Guarantor in respect thereof will be received in trust for and, unless prior written authorization from the Trustee to the contrary will have been obtained by the Guarantor, will be paid over to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors upon demand by the Trustee. If the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors receives from the Guarantor a payment or payments in full or on account of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder, the Guarantor will not be entitled to claim repayment against any Debtor until the Trustee's claims against the Debtors have been paid in full. In case of liquidation, winding up or bankruptcy of any Debtor (whether voluntary or involuntary) or if any Debtor will make a bulk sale of any of its assets within the bulk transfer provisions of any applicable legislation or any composition with creditors or scheme of arrangement, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to rank for its full claims and receive all dividends or other payments in respect thereof in priority to the Guarantor until the claims of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have been paid in full, and the Guarantor will continue liable hereunder for any balance which may be owing to the Trustee by the Debtors. In the event of the valuation by the Trustee of any of its security and/or the retention thereof by the Trustee, such valuation and/or retention will not, as between the Trustee and the Guarantor, be considered as a purchase of such security, or as payment or satisfaction or reduction of the Obligations or any part thereof. The foregoing provisions of this Section 11 will not in any way limit or lessen the liability of the Guarantor under any other Section of this Guarantee.

12. FOREIGN CURRENCY OBLIGATIONS. The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Obligation in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the Debtors are required to pay such Obligation. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Obligation to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in a currency other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Obligation only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is able to purchase at Toronto, Ontario with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Obligation, the Guarantor will indemnify and save the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

13. TAXES AND SET-OFF BY GUARANTOR. All payments to be made by the Guarantor hereunder will be made without set-off or counterclaim and without deduction for any taxes, levies, duties, fees, deductions, withholdings, restrictions or conditions of any nature whatsoever. If at any time any applicable law, regulation or international agreement requires the Guarantor to make any such deduction or withholding from any such payment, the sum due from the Guarantor with respect to such payment will be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deduction or withholding, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors receives a net sum equal to the sum which it would have received had no deduction or withholding been required.

14. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES; INDEMNIFICATION. The Guarantor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (a) incurred by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Guarantee, (b) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Guarantor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Guarantee, or (c) incurred by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

15. ADDITIONAL SECURITY. This Guarantee is in addition and without prejudice to any security of any kind (including other guarantees) now or hereafter held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and any other rights or remedies that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors might have.

16. SET-OFF BY TRUSTEE. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, set-off and apply any and all deposits at any time held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and any other indebtedness at any time owing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to or for the credit or for the account of the Guarantor against any and all of the Obligations of the Guarantor now or hereafter existing under this Guarantee even if (a) the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors has not made any demand hereunder, (b) Obligations are contingent or unmatured, or (c) the Obligations are not in the same currency as the offsetting deposits or indebtedness which may be owing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

17. [RESERVED].

18. RELEASE OF INFORMATION. The Guarantor authorizes the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to provide a copy of this Guarantee and such other information as may be requested of the Creditors by persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtors.

19. APPLICABLE LAW AND ATTORNMENT. This Guarantee shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Guarantee, the Guarantor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

20. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Guarantee will extend and enure to the benefit of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its successors and assigns and will be binding upon the Guarantor and its successors. The Guarantor's obligations hereunder will not be assigned or delegated. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time, and without notice to or the consent of the Guarantor, assign or transfer all or any of the Obligations or any interest therein; and, notwithstanding any such assignment or transfer or any subsequent assignment or transfer thereof, any such Obligation or part thereof so transferred or assigned will remain an "Obligation" for the purposes of this Guarantee and any immediate and successive assignee or transferee of any Obligation or any interest therein will, to the extent of the interest so assigned or transferred, be entitled to the benefit of, and the right to enforce, this Guarantee to the same extent as if such person were the Creditor.

21. TIME. Time is of the essence with respect to this Guarantee and the time for performance of the obligations of the Guarantor under this Guarantee may be strictly enforced by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

22. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Guarantee is determined to be illegal, unconscionable or unenforceable, all other terms and provisions hereof will nevertheless remain effective and will be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

23. COMMUNICATION. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Guarantee shall be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

24. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The Guarantor represents and warrants to the Creditors, upon each of which representations and warranties the Creditors specifically relies, as follows:

(1) Litigation. There is no litigation or governmental proceeding pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against the Guarantor which, if adversely determined, would materially adversely affect the financial condition of the Guarantor.

(2) Burdensome Provisions, etc. The Guarantor is not a party to any agreement or instrument, or subject to any corporate restriction or any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation, which materially adversely affects or, to its knowledge, in the future is likely to materially and adversely affect, its ability to issue the Guarantee or to perform its obligations under this Guarantee.

(3) Contingent Liabilities and Debt. The Guarantor has no contingent liabilities which are not disclosed on or referred to in the financial statements most recently delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors which would have a material adverse effect on its business or prospects.

(4) Full Disclosure. Neither the financial statements most recently delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors nor any other written statement furnished by or on behalf of and at the direction of the Guarantor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in connection with the negotiation or consummation of the transactions as contemplated hereby contain, as of the time such statements were so furnished, any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted as of such time, a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading, and all such statements, taken as a whole, together with this Guarantee, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements contained herein or therein not misleading.

(5) Material Adverse Change. Since the date of the most recent financial statements delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and except as otherwise disclosed to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors in writing (i) there has been no material adverse change in the financial condition of the Guarantor as shown on its balance sheet as at that date; and (ii) the business, operations, properties, condition, financial or otherwise, or prospects of the Guarantor have not, so far as the Guarantor can reasonably foresee, been materially and adversely affected as a result of any act or event including, without limitation, fire, accident, strike, expropriation or act of any government in Canada or elsewhere.

(6) Consents. No consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, registration, filing or qualification with, or giving of notice to, or taking of any other action, in respect of, any Person, governmental authority or agency is required on the part of the Guarantor in connection with the execution and delivery and enforcement of this Guarantee.

(7) Due Execution, etc. This Guarantee has been duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Guarantor and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(8) No Default, etc. Neither the execution nor the delivery of this Guarantee, the consummation of the transactions herein contemplated, nor compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions hereof conflicts with or will conflict with, or results or will result in, any breach of, or constitutes a default under any of the provisions of any agreement or instrument to which the Guarantor is a party or by which the Guarantor, or any of its property or assets are bound or (except as contemplated by this Guarantee) results or will result in the creation or imposition of any encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of the Guarantor or results or will result in the contravention of any law or rule or regulation to which the Guarantor or its property or assets are subject and as a consequence of which the ability of the Guarantor to perform its obligations under this Guarantee is or would likely be adversely affected.

(9) Tax Returns. The Guarantor has filed all tax returns which are required to be filed and has paid all taxes which have become due as shown on such returns or any assessments received by the Guarantor where failure to do so would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of the Guarantor or its ability to perform its obligations under this Guarantee, except such taxes (if any) as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which a reserve reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors is provided; and the Guarantor is not aware of any proposed additional tax assessment against it.

25. TRUSTEE. Subject to any rights or remedies available to the Trustee and the Debentureholders under applicable law or otherwise, no holder of any Debenture shall have any right to institute any action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity for the purpose of enforcing this Guarantee, unless: (a) such holder shall previously have given to the Trustee a written notice of the happening of an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) hereunder; and (b) the Debentureholders by Extraordinary Resolution or by written instrument signed by the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding shall have made a request to the Trustee and the Trustee shall have been afforded reasonable opportunity either itself to proceed to exercise the powers hereinbefore granted or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its name for such purpose; and (c) the Debentureholders or any of them shall have furnished to the Trustee, when so requested by the Trustee, sufficient funds and security and indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby; and (d) the Trustee shall have failed to act within a reasonable time after such notification, request and offer of indemnity and such notification, request and offer of indemnity are hereby declared in every such case, at the option of the Trustee, to be conditions precedent to any such proceeding or for any other remedy hereunder by or on behalf of the holder of any Debentures.

26. DEBTOR'S FINANCIAL CONDITION. The Guarantor is fully aware of the financial condition of the Debtors.

27. INTERPRETATION. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Guarantee, if any matter in this Guarantee is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or is to be acceptable to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If any provision in this Guarantee refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Guarantor, or which the Guarantor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Guarantee into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Guarantee. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Guarantee, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". RECITALS:

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Debtor") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Debtor and the Trustee.

B. To secure the payment and performance of the Liabilities (as hereinafter defined), the Debtor has agreed to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in the Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged by the Debtor, the Debtor agrees with and in favour of the Creditors as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Agreement, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings given to them in the A&R Debenture Indenture, and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Accessions", "Account", "Chattel Paper", "Consumer Goods", "Document of Title", "Equipment", "Goods", "Instrument", "Intangible", "Inventory", "Investment Property" and "Proceeds" have the meanings given to them in the PPSA.

"Books and Records" means all books, records, files, papers, disks, documents and other repositories of data recording in any form or medium, evidencing or relating to the Collateral which are at any time owned by the Debtor or to which the Debtor (or any Person on the Debtor's behalf) has access.

"Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement.

"Collateral" means all of the present and future undertaking and Personal Property (and specifically including any Personal Property that may be described in any Schedule to this Agreement or any schedules, documents or listings that the Debtor may from time to time sign and provide to the Creditors in connection with this Agreement) of the Debtor (including all such property at any time owned, leased or licensed by the Debtor, or in which the Debtor at any time has any interest or to which the Debtor is or may at any time become entitled) and all Proceeds thereof, wherever located.

"Contracts" means all contracts, licences and agreements to which the Debtor is at any time a party or pursuant to which the Debtor has at any time acquired rights, and includes (i) all rights of the Debtor to receive money due and to become due to it in connection with a contract, licence or agreement, (ii) all rights of the Debtor to damages arising out of, or for breach or default in respect of, a contract, licence or agreement, and (iii) all rights of the Debtor to perform and exercise all remedies in connection with a contract, licence or agreement.

"Default" means any "Event of Default" as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all industrial and intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trade-marks, industrial designs, know how and trade secrets and all Contracts related to any such industrial and intellectual property rights.

"Liabilities" means all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of every kind, nature and description (whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, matured or not) of the Debtor to the Creditors, under, in connection with or with respect to the A&R Debenture Indenture and the other Security Documents, and any unpaid balance thereof.

"Money" has the meaning given to it in the PPSA or, if there is no such meaning given in the PPSA, means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by the Parliament of Canada as part of the currency of Canada, or by a foreign government as part of its currency.

"Permits" means all permits, licences, authorizations, approvals, franchises, rights-of-way, easements and entitlements that the Debtor has, requires or is required to have, to own, possess or operate any of its property or to operate and carry on any part of its business.

"Personal Property" means personal property and includes Accounts, Books and Records, Chattel Paper, Contracts, Documents of Title, Equipment, Goods, Instruments, Intangibles (including Intellectual Property Rights and Permits), Inventory, Money and Investment Property.

"PPSA" means the Personal Property Security Act of the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement, as such legislation may be amended, renamed or replaced from time to time (and includes all regulations from time to time made under such legislation).

"Receiver" means a receiver, a manager or a receiver and manager.

"Security Interest" means any mortgage, charge, pledge, hypothecation, lien (statutory or otherwise), assignment, finance lease, title retention agreement or arrangement, security interest or other encumbrance or adverse claim of any nature, or any other security agreement or arrangement creating in favour of any creditor a right in respect of a particular property.

2. Grant of Security Interest. As general and continuing collateral security for the due payment and performance of the Liabilities, the Debtor mortgages, charges and assigns (by way of security) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in, the Collateral.

3. Limitations on Grant of Security Interest. If the grant of any Security Interest in respect of any Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit under Section 2 would result in the termination or breach of such Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit, then the applicable Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit will not be subject to any Security Interest under Section 2 but will be held in trust by the Debtor for the benefit of the Creditors and, on exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee. In addition, the Security Interests created by this Agreement do not attach to Consumer Goods or extend to the last day of the term of any lease or agreement for lease of real property. Such last day will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors and, on the exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, will be assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Debtor confirms that value has been given by the Creditors to the Debtor, that the Debtor has rights in the Collateral (other than after-acquired property) and that the Debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interests created by this Agreement to any of the Collateral. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(g) No Consumer Goods. The Debtor does not own any Consumer Goods which are material in value or which are material to the business, operations, property, condition or prospects (financial or otherwise) of the Debtor.

(h) Intellectual Property Rights. All registrations and applications for registration pertaining to Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Debtor, and all other Intellectual Property Rights of the Debtor, are described in Schedule A to this Agreement. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

(g) Limitations on Dispositions of Collateral. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. (l) Further Identification of Collateral. The Debtor will promptly furnish to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors such statements, schedules, permits and licenses further identifying and describing the Collateral, and such other reports in connection with the Collateral, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time reasonably request, including an updated list of any motor vehicles or other "serial number" goods owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment, including vehicle identification numbers.

(m) Notices. The Debtor will advise the Trustee promptly, in reasonable detail, of (i) any Security Interest (other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement and any Security Interest permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors) on, or claim asserted against, any of the Collateral, (ii) the occurrence of any event, claim or occurrence that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Collateral or on the Security Interests created by this Agreement, (iii) any change in the location of any place of business (including additional locations) or the chief executive office of the Debtor, (iv) any change in the location of any of the tangible Collateral (including additional locations), (v) any acquisition of real property by the Debtor, (vi) any change in the name of the Debtor, (vii) any merger or amalgamation of the Debtor with any other Person, (viii) any additional jurisdiction in which material accounts debtors of the Debtor are located, and (ix) any material loss of or damage to any of the Collateral. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

(n) Delivery of Agreements re Intellectual Property Rights. The Debtor will promptly, following demand from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, authorize, execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers that the Trustee may request to evidence the Creditors' Security Interests in any Intellectual Property Rights and, where applicable, the goodwill of the business of the Debtor connected with the use of, and symbolized by, any such Intellectual Property Rights.

(b) Demand Possession. Demand possession of any or all of the Collateral, in which event the Debtor will, at the expense of the Debtor, immediately cause the Collateral designated by the Creditors to be assembled and made available and/or delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at any place designated by the Creditors.

(e) Carry on Business. Carry on, or concur in the carrying on of, any or all of the business or undertaking of the Debtor and enter on, occupy and use (without charge by the Debtor) any of the premises, buildings, plant and undertaking of, or occupied or used by, the Debtor.

The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Court-Approved Disposition of Collateral. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the sale or foreclosure of any or all of the Collateral.

(i) Purchase by Creditor. At any public sale, and to the extent permitted by law on any private sale, bid for and purchase any or all of the Collateral offered for sale and, upon compliance with the terms of such sale, hold, retain and dispose of such Collateral without any further accountability to the Debtor or any other Person with respect to such holding, retention or disposition, except as required by law. In any such sale to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Trustee may, for the purpose of making payment for all or any part of the Collateral so purchased, use any claim for Liabilities then due and payable to it as a credit against the purchase price.

(j) Collect Accounts. Notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to the Debtor in respect of such Accounts directly to the Trustee and, upon such notification and at the expense of the Debtor, enforce collection of any such Accounts, and adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of such Accounts, in such manner and to such extent as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems appropriate in the circumstances. The Debtor shall give the Trustee any assistance requested by the Trustee with respect to such accounts as may be required to assess its value.

Appoint by instrument in writing one or more Receivers of the Debtor or any or all of the Collateral with such rights, powers and authority (including any or all of the rights, powers and authority of the Trustee under this Agreement) as may be provided for in the instrument of appointment or any supplemental instrument, and remove and replace any such Receiver from time to time. To the extent permitted by applicable law, any Receiver appointed by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will (for purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver's acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of the Debtor and not of the Trustee.

(p) Court-Appointed Receiver. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the Debtor or of any or all of the Collateral.

(q) Consultants. Require the Debtor to engage a consultant of the Trustee's choice, or engage a consultant on its own behalf, such consultant to receive the full cooperation and support of the Debtor and its employees, including unrestricted access to the premises, books and records of the Debtor; all reasonable fees and expenses of such consultant shall be for the account of the Debtor and the Debtor hereby authorizes any such consultant to report directly to the Trustee and to disclose to the Trustee any and all information obtained in the course of such consultant's employment.

The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may exercise any or all of the foregoing rights and remedies without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except as required by applicable law) to or on the Debtor or any other Person, and the Debtor by this Agreement waives each such demand, presentment, protest, advertisement and notice to the extent permitted by applicable law. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

- (i) Collateral may be disposed of in whole or in part;
- (ii) Collateral may be disposed of by public auction, public tender or private contract, with or without advertising and without any other formality;
- (iii) any purchaser or lessee of Collateral may be a customer of the Trustee;
- (iv) a disposition of Collateral may be on such terms and conditions as to credit or otherwise as the Creditor, in its sole discretion, may deem advantageous; and
- (v) the Trustee may establish an upset or reserve bid or price in respect of Collateral.

9. Grant of Licence. For the purpose of enabling the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 8 when the Trustee is entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, and for no other purpose, the Debtor grants to the Trustee an irrevocable, non-exclusive licence (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to the Debtor) to use, assign or sublicense any or all of the Intellectual Property Rights, including in such licence reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout of the same.

10. Sale of Investment Property. The Trustee is authorized, in connection with any offer or sale of any Investment Property forming part of the Collateral, to comply with any limitation or restriction as it may be advised by counsel is necessary to comply with applicable law, including compliance with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications, and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. All Proceeds of Collateral received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or a Receiver may be applied to discharge or satisfy any expenses (including the Receiver's remuneration and other expenses of enforcing the Trustee's rights under this Agreement), Security Interests in favour of Persons other than the Creditors, borrowings, taxes and other outgoings affecting the Collateral or which are considered advisable by the Trustee or the Receiver to protect, preserve, repair, process, maintain or enhance the Collateral or prepare it for sale, lease or other disposition, or to keep in good standing any Security Interests on the Collateral ranking in priority to any of the Security Interests created by this Agreement, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

12. Continuing Liability of Debtor. The Debtor will remain liable for any Liabilities that are outstanding following realization of all or any part of the Collateral and the application of the Proceeds thereof.

13. Trustee's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact. The Debtor constitutes and appoints the Trustee and any officer or agent of the Trustee, with full power of substitution, as the Debtor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in the place of the Debtor and in the name of the Debtor or in its own name, from time to time in the Trustee's discretion to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments as, in the opinion of such attorney acting reasonably, may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. All amounts payable by the Debtor to the Trustee under this Agreement, and all interest on all such amounts, compounded monthly on the last Business Day of each month, will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17. Rights of Creditor; Limitations on Creditor's Obligations.

(a) Limitations on Creditor's Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. Neither the Trustee nor any Receiver will be liable for any, and the Debtor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Collateral (including any Collateral in the possession of the Trustee or any Receiver) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or such Receiver.

(b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

26. Interpretation. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any matter in this Agreement is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee or is to be acceptable to the Trustee, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee. If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

2. Grant of Security Interest. As general and continuing collateral security for the due payment and performance of the Liabilities, the Debtor mortgages, charges and assigns (by way of security) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in, the Collateral.

3. Limitations on Grant of Security Interest. If the grant of any Security Interest in respect of any Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit under Section 2 would result in the termination or breach of such Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit, then the applicable Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit will not be subject to any Security Interest under Section 2 but will be held in trust by the Debtor for the benefit of the Creditors and, on exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee. In addition, the Security Interests created by this Agreement do not attach to Consumer Goods or extend to the last day of the term of any lease or agreement for lease of real property. Such last day will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors and, on the exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, will be assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

(g) Limitations on Dispositions of Collateral. The Debtor will not, without the Trustee's prior written consent, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral, except that Inventory may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, and subject to Section 17, Accounts may be collected, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Limitations on Modifications, Waivers, Extensions. Other than as permitted by paragraph (i) below, the Debtor will not (i) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of any Permit, Contract or any document giving rise to an Account in any manner which is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors, or (ii) fail to exercise promptly and diligently its rights under each Contract and each document giving rise to an Account if such failure is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors.

(i) Limitations on Discounts, Compromises, Extensions of Accounts. Other than in the ordinary course of business of the Debtor consistent with previous practices, the Debtor will not (i) grant any extension of the time for payment of any Account, (ii) compromise, compound or settle any Account for less than its full amount, (iii) release, wholly or partially, any Person liable for the payment of any Account, or (iv) allow any credit or discount of any Account.

(j) Maintenance of Collateral. The Debtor will maintain all tangible Collateral in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and the Debtor will provide all maintenance, service and repairs necessary for such purpose.

(k) Insurance. The Debtor will keep the Collateral insured with financially sound and reputable companies to its full insurable value against loss or damage by fire, explosion, theft and such other risks as are customarily insured against by Persons carrying on similar businesses or owning similar property within the vicinity in which the Debtor's applicable business or property is located. The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. The Debtor will, from time to time at the Trustee's request, deliver the applicable insurance policies (or satisfactory evidence of such policies) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. Neither the Creditors nor its correspondents or its agents will be responsible for the character, adequacy, validity or genuineness of any insurance, the solvency of any insurer, or any other risk connected with insurance.

(l) Further Identification of Collateral. The Debtor will promptly furnish to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors such statements, schedules, permits and licenses further identifying and describing the Collateral, and such other reports in connection with the Collateral, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time reasonably request, including an updated list of any motor vehicles or other "serial number" goods owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment, including vehicle identification numbers.

(m) Notices. The Debtor will advise the Trustee promptly, in reasonable detail, of (i) any Security Interest (other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement and any Security Interest permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors) on, or claim asserted against, any of the Collateral, (ii) the occurrence of any event, claim or occurrence that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Collateral or on the Security Interests created by this Agreement, (iii) any change in the location of any place of business (including additional locations) or the chief executive office of the Debtor, (iv) any change in the location of any of the tangible Collateral (including additional locations), (v) any acquisition of real property by the Debtor, (vi) any change in the name of the Debtor, (vii) any merger or amalgamation of the Debtor with any other Person, (viii) any additional jurisdiction in which material accounts debtors of the Debtor are located, and (ix) any material loss of or damage to any of the Collateral. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

(n) Delivery of Agreements re Intellectual Property Rights. The Debtor will promptly, following demand from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, authorize, execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers that the Trustee may request to evidence the Creditors' Security Interests in any Intellectual Property Rights and, where applicable, the goodwill of the business of the Debtor connected with the use of, and symbolized by, any such Intellectual Property Rights.

8. Rights on Default. On Default, all of the Liabilities will, at the option of the Creditors, become immediately due and payable and the security constituted by this Agreement will become enforceable, and the Creditors may, personally or by agent, at such time or times as the Creditors in its sole discretion may determine, do any one or more of the following:

The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Court-Approved Disposition of Collateral. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the sale or foreclosure of any or all of the Collateral.

In any such sale to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Trustee may, for the purpose of making payment for all or any part of the Collateral so purchased, use any claim for Liabilities then due and payable to it as a credit against the purchase price.

(j) Collect Accounts. Notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to the Debtor in respect of such Accounts directly to the Trustee and, upon such notification and at the expense of the Debtor, enforce collection of any such Accounts, and adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of such Accounts, in such manner and to such extent as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems appropriate in the circumstances. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. 16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. (b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

26. Interpretation. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any matter in this Agreement is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee or is to be acceptable to the Trustee, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee. If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

30. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and by electronic transmission, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

RECITALS:

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Debtor and the Trustee.

B. To secure the payment and performance of the Liabilities (as hereinafter defined), Aleafia Farms Inc. (the "Debtor") has agreed to execute and deliver a guarantee in favour of the Trustee, on behalf of the Creditors (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Guarantee").

C. As a condition precedent to the issuance of the Debentures under the A&R Debenture Indenture, the Debtor is required to grant a security interest in the Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged by the Debtor, the Debtor agrees with and in favour of the Creditors as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Agreement, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings given to them in the A&R Debenture Indenture, and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Accessions", "Account", "Chattel Paper", "Consumer Goods", "Document of Title", "Equipment", "Goods", "Instrument", "Intangible", "Inventory", "Investment Property" and "Proceeds" have the meanings given to them in the PPSA.

"Books and Records" means all books, records, files, papers, disks, documents and other repositories of data recording in any form or medium, evidencing or relating to the Collateral which are at any time owned by the Debtor or to which the Debtor (or any Person on the Debtor's behalf) has access.

"Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement.

"Collateral" means all of the present and future undertaking and Personal Property (and specifically including any Personal Property that may be described in any Schedule to this Agreement or any schedules, documents or listings that the Debtor may from time to time sign and provide to the Creditors in connection with this Agreement) of the Debtor (including all such property at any time owned, leased or licensed by the Debtor, or in which the Debtor at any time has any interest or to which the Debtor is or may at any time become entitled) and all Proceeds thereof, wherever located.

"Contracts" means all contracts, licences and agreements to which the Debtor is at any time a party or pursuant to which the Debtor has at any time acquired rights, and includes (i) all rights of the Debtor to receive money due and to become due to it in connection with a contract, licence or agreement, (ii) all rights of the Debtor to damages arising out of, or for breach or default in respect of, a contract, licence or agreement, and (iii) all rights of the Debtor to perform and exercise all remedies in connection with a contract, licence or agreement.

"Default" means any "Event of Default" as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all industrial and intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trade-marks, industrial designs, know how and trade secrets and all Contracts related to any such industrial and intellectual property rights.

"Liabilities" means all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of every kind, nature and description (whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, matured or not) of the Debtor to the Creditors, under, in connection with or with respect to the Guarantee and the other Security Documents, and any unpaid balance thereof.

"Money" has the meaning given to it in the PPSA or, if there is no such meaning given in the PPSA, means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by the Parliament of Canada as part of the currency of Canada, or by a foreign government as part of its currency.

"Permits" means all permits, licences, authorizations, approvals, franchises, rights-of-way, easements and entitlements that the Debtor has, requires or is required to have, to own, possess or operate any of its property or to operate and carry on any part of its business.

"Personal Property" means personal property and includes Accounts, Books and Records, Chattel Paper, Contracts, Documents of Title, Equipment, Goods, Instruments, Intangibles (including Intellectual Property Rights and Permits), Inventory, Money and Investment Property.

"PPSA" means the Personal Property Security Act of the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement, as such legislation may be amended, renamed or replaced from time to time (and includes all regulations from time to time made under such legislation).

"Receiver" means a receiver, a manager or a receiver and manager.

"Security Interest" means any mortgage, charge, pledge, hypothecation, lien (statutory or otherwise), assignment, finance lease, title retention agreement or arrangement, security interest or other encumbrance or adverse claim of any nature, or any other security agreement or arrangement creating in favour of any creditor a right in respect of a particular property.

2. Grant of Security Interest. As general and continuing collateral security for the due payment and performance of the Liabilities, the Debtor mortgages, charges and assigns (by way of security) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in, the Collateral.

3. Limitations on Grant of Security Interest. If the grant of any Security Interest in respect of any Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit under Section 2 would result in the termination or breach of such Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit, then the applicable Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit will not be subject to any Security Interest under Section 2 but will be held in trust by the Debtor for the benefit of the Creditors and, on exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee. In addition, the Security Interests created by this Agreement do not attach to Consumer Goods or extend to the last day of the term of any lease or agreement for lease of real property. Such last day will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors and, on the exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, will be assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Debtor confirms that value has been given by the Creditors to the Debtor, that the Debtor has rights in the Collateral (other than after-acquired property) and that the Debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interests created by this Agreement to any of the Collateral. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(g) No Consumer Goods. The Debtor does not own any Consumer Goods which are material in value or which are material to the business, operations, property, condition or prospects (financial or otherwise) of the Debtor.

(h) Intellectual Property Rights. All registrations and applications for registration pertaining to Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Debtor, and all other Intellectual Property Rights of the Debtor, are described in Schedule A to this Agreement. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

(g) Limitations on Dispositions of Collateral. The Debtor will not, without the Trustee's prior written consent, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral, except that Inventory may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, and subject to Section 17, Accounts may be collected, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Limitations on Modifications, Waivers, Extensions. Other than as permitted by paragraph (i) below, the Debtor will not (i) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of any Permit, Contract or any document giving rise to an Account in any manner which is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors, or (ii) fail to exercise promptly and diligently its rights under each Contract and each document giving rise to an Account if such failure is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors.

(i) Limitations on Discounts, Compromises, Extensions of Accounts. Other than in the ordinary course of business of the Debtor consistent with previous practices, the Debtor will not (i) grant any extension of the time for payment of any Account, (ii) compromise, compound or settle any Account for less than its full amount, (iii) release, wholly or partially, any Person liable for the payment of any Account, or (iv) allow any credit or discount of any Account.

(j) Maintenance of Collateral. The Debtor will maintain all tangible Collateral in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and the Debtor will provide all maintenance, service and repairs necessary for such purpose.

(k) Insurance. The Debtor will keep the Collateral insured with financially sound and reputable companies to its full insurable value against loss or damage by fire, explosion, theft and such other risks as are customarily insured against by Persons carrying on similar businesses or owning similar property within the vicinity in which the Debtor's applicable business or property is located. The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. The Debtor will, from time to time at the Trustee's request, deliver the applicable insurance policies (or satisfactory evidence of such policies) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. Neither the Creditors nor its correspondents or its agents will be responsible for the character, adequacy, validity or genuineness of any insurance, the solvency of any insurer, or any other risk connected with insurance.

(l) Further Identification of Collateral. The Debtor will promptly furnish to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors such statements, schedules, permits and licenses further identifying and describing the Collateral, and such other reports in connection with the Collateral, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time reasonably request, including an updated list of any motor vehicles or other "serial number" goods owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment, including vehicle identification numbers.

(m) Notices. The Debtor will advise the Trustee promptly, in reasonable detail, of (i) any Security Interest (other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement and any Security Interest permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors) on, or claim asserted against, any of the Collateral, (ii) the occurrence of any event, claim or occurrence that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Collateral or on the Security Interests created by this Agreement, (iii) any change in the location of any place of business (including additional locations) or the chief executive office of the Debtor, (iv) any change in the location of any of the tangible Collateral (including additional locations), (v) any acquisition of real property by the Debtor, (vi) any change in the name of the Debtor, (vii) any merger or amalgamation of the Debtor with any other Person, (viii) any additional jurisdiction in which material accounts debtors of the Debtor are located, and (ix) any material loss of or damage to any of the Collateral. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

(n) Delivery of Agreements re Intellectual Property Rights. The Debtor will promptly, following demand from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, authorize, execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers that the Trustee may

The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, any Receiver appointed by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will (for purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver's acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of the Debtor and not of the Trustee.

(p) Court-Appointed Receiver. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the Debtor or of any or all of the Collateral.

(q) Consultants. Require the Debtor to engage a consultant of the Trustee's choice, or engage a consultant on its own behalf, such consultant to receive the full cooperation and support of the Debtor and its employees, including unrestricted access to the premises, books and records of the Debtor; all reasonable fees and expenses of such consultant shall be for the account of the Debtor and the Debtor hereby authorizes any such consultant to report directly to the Trustee and to disclose to the Trustee any and all information obtained in the course of such consultant's employment.

The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may exercise any or all of the foregoing rights and remedies without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except as required by applicable law) to or on the Debtor or any other Person, and the Debtor by this Agreement waives each such demand, presentment, protest, advertisement and notice to the extent permitted by applicable law. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

- (i) Collateral may be disposed of in whole or in part;

- (iii) any purchaser or lessee of Collateral may be a customer of the Trustee;

- (v) the Trustee may establish an upset or reserve bid or price in respect of Collateral.

9. Grant of Licence. For the purpose of enabling the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 8 when the Trustee is entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, and for no other purpose, the Debtor grants to the Trustee an irrevocable, non-exclusive licence (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to the Debtor) to use, assign or sublicense any or all of the Intellectual Property Rights, including in such licence reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout of the same.

10. Sale of Investment Property. The Trustee is authorized, in connection with any offer or sale of any Investment Property forming part of the Collateral, to comply with any limitation or restriction as it may be advised by counsel is necessary to comply with applicable law, including compliance with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications, and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. All Proceeds of Collateral received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or a Receiver may be applied to discharge or satisfy any expenses (including the Receiver's remuneration and other expenses of enforcing the Trustee's rights under this Agreement), Security Interests in favour of Persons other than the Creditors, borrowings, taxes and other outgoings affecting the Collateral or which are considered advisable by the Trustee or the Receiver to protect, preserve, repair, process, maintain or enhance the Collateral or prepare it for sale, lease or other disposition, or to keep in good standing any Security Interests on the Collateral ranking in priority to any of the Security Interests created by this Agreement, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

12. Continuing Liability of Debtor. The Debtor will remain liable for any Liabilities that are outstanding following realization of all or any part of the Collateral and the application of the Proceeds thereof.

13. Trustee's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact. The Debtor constitutes and appoints the Trustee and any officer or agent of the Trustee, with full power of substitution, as the Debtor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in the place of the Debtor and in the name of the Debtor or in its own name, from time to time in the Trustee's discretion to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments as, in the opinion of such attorney acting reasonably, may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. All amounts payable by the Debtor to the Trustee under this Agreement, and all interest on all such amounts, compounded monthly on the last Business Day of each month, will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17. Rights of Creditor; Limitations on Creditor's Obligations.

(a) Limitations on Creditor's Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. Neither the Trustee nor any Receiver will be liable for any, and the Debtor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Collateral (including any Collateral in the possession of the Trustee or any Receiver) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or such Receiver.

(b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

26. Interpretation. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any matter in this Agreement is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee or is to be acceptable to the Trustee, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee. If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Debtor and the Trustee.

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged by the Debtor, the Debtor agrees with and in favour of the Creditors as follows:

"Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement.

"Collateral" means all of the present and future undertaking and Personal Property (and specifically including any Personal Property that may be described in any Schedule to this Agreement or any schedules, documents or listings that the Debtor may from time to time sign and provide to the Creditors in connection with this Agreement) of the Debtor (including all such property at any time owned, leased or licensed by the Debtor, or in which the Debtor at any time has any interest or to which the Debtor is or may at any time become entitled) and all Proceeds thereof, wherever located.

"Contracts" means all contracts, licences and agreements to which the Debtor is at any time a party or pursuant to which the Debtor has at any time acquired rights, and includes (i) all rights of the Debtor to receive money due and to become due to it in connection with a contract, licence or agreement, (ii) all rights of the Debtor to damages arising out of, or for breach or default in respect of, a contract, licence or agreement, and (iii) all rights of the Debtor to perform and exercise all remedies in connection with a contract, licence or agreement.

"Default" means any "Event of Default" as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Debtor confirms that value has been given by the Creditors to the Debtor, that the Debtor has rights in the Collateral (other than after-acquired property) and that the Debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interests created by this Agreement to any of the Collateral. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(g) No Consumer Goods. The Debtor does not own any Consumer Goods which are material in value or which are material to the business, operations, property, condition or prospects (financial or otherwise) of the Debtor.

(h) Intellectual Property Rights. All registrations and applications for registration pertaining to Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Debtor, and all other Intellectual Property Rights of the Debtor, are described in Schedule A to this Agreement. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

(g) Limitations on Dispositions of Collateral. The Debtor will not, without the Trustee's prior written consent, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral, except that Inventory may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, and subject to Section 17, Accounts may be collected, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Limitations on Modifications, Waivers, Extensions. Other than as permitted by paragraph (i) below, the Debtor will not (i) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of any Permit, Contract or any document giving rise to an Account in any manner which is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors, or (ii) fail to exercise promptly and diligently its rights under each Contract and each document giving rise to an Account if such failure is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors.

(i) Limitations on Discounts, Compromises, Extensions of Accounts. Other than in the ordinary course of business of the Debtor consistent with previous practices, the Debtor will not (i) grant any extension of the time for payment of any Account, (ii) compromise, compound or settle any Account for less than its full amount, (iii) release, wholly or partially, any Person liable for the payment of any Account, or (iv) allow any credit or discount of any Account.

(j) Maintenance of Collateral. The Debtor will maintain all tangible Collateral in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and the Debtor will provide all maintenance, service and repairs necessary for such purpose.

(k) Insurance. The Debtor will keep the Collateral insured with financially sound and reputable companies to its full insurable value against loss or damage by fire, explosion, theft and such other risks as are customarily insured against by Persons carrying on similar businesses or owning similar property within the vicinity in which the Debtor's applicable business or property is located. The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. The Debtor will, from time to time at the Trustee's request, deliver the applicable insurance policies (or satisfactory evidence of such policies) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. Neither the Creditors nor its correspondents or its agents will be responsible for the character, adequacy, validity or genuineness of any insurance, the solvency of any insurer, or any other risk connected with insurance.

(l) Further Identification of Collateral. The Debtor will promptly furnish to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors such statements, schedules, permits and licenses further identifying and describing the Collateral, and such other reports in connection with the Collateral, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time reasonably request, including an updated list of any motor vehicles or other "serial number" goods owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment, including vehicle identification numbers.

(m) Notices. The Debtor will advise the Trustee promptly, in reasonable detail, of (i) any Security Interest (other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement and any Security Interest permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors) on, or claim asserted against, any of the Collateral, (ii) the occurrence of any event, claim or occurrence that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Collateral or on the Security Interests created by this Agreement, (iii) any change in the location of any place of business (including additional locations) or the chief executive office of the Debtor, (iv) any change in the location of any of the tangible Collateral (including additional locations), (v) any acquisition of real property by the Debtor, (vi) any change in the name of the Debtor, (vii) any merger or amalgamation of the Debtor with any other Person, (viii) any additional jurisdiction in which material accounts debtors of the Debtor are located, and (ix) any material loss of or damage to any of the Collateral. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

(n) Delivery of Agreements re Intellectual Property Rights. The Debtor will promptly, following demand from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, authorize, execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers that the Trustee may request to evidence the Creditors' Security Interests in any Intellectual Property Rights and, where applicable, the goodwill of the business of the Debtor connected with the use of, and symbolized by, any such Intellectual Property Rights.

8. Rights on Default. On Default, all of the Liabilities will, at the option of the Creditors, become immediately due and payable and the security constituted by this Agreement will become enforceable, and the Creditors may, personally or by agent, at such time or times as the Creditors in its sole discretion may determine, do any one or more of the following:

(a) Rights under PPSA, etc. Exercise all of the rights and remedies granted to secured parties under the PPSA and any other applicable statute, or otherwise available to the Creditors at law or in equity.

(b) Demand Possession. Demand possession of any or all of the Collateral, in which event the Debtor will, at the expense of the Debtor, immediately cause the Collateral designated by the Creditors to be assembled and made available and/or delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at any place designated by the Creditors.

(c) Take Possession. Enter on any premises where any Collateral is located and take possession of, disable or remove such Collateral.

Hold, store and keep idle, or operate, lease or otherwise use or permit the use of, any or all of the Collateral for such time and on such terms as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may determine, and demand, collect and retain all earnings and other sums due or to become due from any Person in respect of any of the Collateral.

(e) Carry on Business. Carry on, or concur in the carrying on of, any or all of the business or undertaking of the Debtor and enter on, occupy and use (without charge by the Debtor) any of the premises, buildings, plant and undertaking of, or occupied or used by, the Debtor.

(f) Enforce Collateral. Seize, collect, receive, enforce or otherwise deal with any Collateral in such manner, on such terms and conditions and at such times as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems advisable.

(g) Dispose of Collateral. Realize on any or all of the Collateral and sell, lease, assign, give options to purchase, or otherwise dispose of and deliver any or all of the Collateral (or contract to do any of the above), in one or more parcels at any public or private sale, at any exchange, broker's board or office of the Trustee or elsewhere, on such terms and conditions as the Trustee may deem advisable and at such prices as it may deem best, for cash or on credit or for future delivery. The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Court-Approved Disposition of Collateral. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the sale or foreclosure of any or all of the Collateral.

(i) Purchase by Creditor. At any public sale, and to the extent permitted by law on any private sale, bid for and purchase any or all of the Collateral offered for sale and, upon compliance with the terms of such sale, hold, retain and dispose of such Collateral without any further accountability to the Debtor or any other Person with respect to such holding, retention or disposition, except as required by law. In any such sale to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Trustee may, for the purpose of making payment for all or any part of the Collateral so purchased, use any claim for Liabilities then due and payable to it as a credit against the purchase price.

(j) Collect Accounts. Notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to the Debtor in respect of such Accounts directly to the Trustee and, upon such notification and at the expense of the Debtor, enforce collection of any such Accounts, and adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of such Accounts, in such manner and to such extent as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems appropriate in the circumstances. The Debtor shall give the Trustee any assistance requested by the Trustee with respect to such accounts as may be required to assess its value.

(n) Borrow and Grant Security Interests. Borrow money for the maintenance, preservation or protection of any Collateral or for carrying on any of the business or undertaking of the Debtor and grant Security Interests on any Collateral (in priority to the Security Interests created by this Agreement or otherwise) as security for the money so borrowed. The Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all such borrowings.

(o) Appoint Receiver. Appoint by instrument in writing one or more Receivers of the Debtor or any or all of the Collateral with such rights, powers and authority (including any or all of the rights, powers and authority of the Trustee under this Agreement) as may be provided for in the instrument of appointment or any supplemental instrument, and remove and replace any such Receiver from time to time. To the extent permitted by applicable law, any Receiver appointed by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will (for purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver's acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of the Debtor and not of the Trustee.

(p) Court-Appointed Receiver. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the Debtor or of any or all of the Collateral.

(q) Consultants. Require the Debtor to engage a consultant of the Trustee's choice, or engage a consultant on its own behalf, such consultant to receive the full cooperation and support of the Debtor and its employees, including unrestricted access to the premises, books and records of the Debtor; all reasonable fees and expenses of such consultant shall be for the account of the Debtor and the Debtor hereby authorizes any such consultant to report directly to the Trustee and to disclose to the Trustee any and all information obtained in the course of such consultant's employment.

The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may exercise any or all of the foregoing rights and remedies without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except as required by applicable law) to or on the Debtor or any other Person, and the Debtor by this Agreement waives each such demand, presentment, protest, advertisement and notice to the extent permitted by applicable law. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

- (i) Collateral may be disposed of in whole or in part;
- (ii) Collateral may be disposed of by public auction, public tender or private contract, with or without advertising and without any other formality;
- (iii) any purchaser or lessee of Collateral may be a customer of the Trustee;

- (v) the Trustee may establish an upset or reserve bid or price in respect of Collateral.

9. Grant of Licence. For the purpose of enabling the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 8 when the Trustee is entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, and for no other purpose, the Debtor grants to the Trustee an irrevocable, non-exclusive licence (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to the Debtor) to use, assign or sublicense any or all of the Intellectual Property Rights, including in such licence reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout of the same.

10. Sale of Investment Property. The Trustee is authorized, in connection with any offer or sale of any Investment Property forming part of the Collateral, to comply with any limitation or restriction as it may be advised by counsel is necessary to comply with applicable law, including compliance with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications, and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. All Proceeds of Collateral received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or a Receiver may be applied to discharge or satisfy any expenses (including the Receiver's remuneration and other expenses of enforcing the Trustee's rights under this Agreement), Security Interests in favour of Persons other than the Creditors, borrowings, taxes and other outgoings affecting the Collateral or which are considered advisable by the Trustee or the Receiver to protect, preserve, repair, process, maintain or enhance the Collateral or prepare it for sale, lease or other disposition, or to keep in good standing any Security Interests on the Collateral ranking in priority to any of the Security Interests created by this Agreement, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

12. Continuing Liability of Debtor. The Debtor will remain liable for any Liabilities that are outstanding following realization of all or any part of the Collateral and the application of the Proceeds thereof.

13. Trustee's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact. The Debtor constitutes and appoints the Trustee and any officer or agent of the Trustee, with full power of substitution, as the Debtor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in the place of the Debtor and in the name of the Debtor or in its own name, from time to time in the Trustee's discretion to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments as, in the opinion of such attorney acting reasonably, may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. All amounts payable by the Debtor to the Trustee under this Agreement, and all interest on all such amounts, compounded monthly on the last Business Day of each month, will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17. Rights of Creditor; Limitations on Creditor's Obligations.

(a) Limitations on Creditor's Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. Neither the Trustee nor any Receiver will be liable for any, and the Debtor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Collateral (including any Collateral in the possession of the Trustee or any Receiver) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or such Receiver.

(b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

26. Interpretation. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any matter in this Agreement is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee or is to be acceptable to the Trustee, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee. If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

30. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and by electronic transmission, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

RECITALS:

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Debtor and the Trustee.

B. To secure the payment and performance of the Liabilities (as hereinafter defined), Canabo Medical Corporation (the "Debtor") has agreed to execute and deliver a guarantee in favour of the Trustee, on behalf of the Creditors (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Guarantee").

C. As a condition precedent to the issuance of the Debentures under the A&R Debenture Indenture, the Debtor is required to grant a security interest in the Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged by the Debtor, the Debtor agrees with and in favour of the Creditors as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Agreement, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings given to them in the A&R Debenture Indenture, and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Accessions", "Account", "Chattel Paper", "Consumer Goods", "Document of Title", "Equipment", "Goods", "Instrument", "Intangible", "Inventory", "Investment Property" and "Proceeds" have the meanings given to them in the PPSA.

"Books and Records" means all books, records, files, papers, disks, documents and other repositories of data recording in any form or medium, evidencing or relating to the Collateral which are at any time owned by the Debtor or to which the Debtor (or any Person on the Debtor's behalf) has access.

"Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement.

"Collateral" means all of the present and future undertaking and Personal Property (and specifically including any Personal Property that may be described in any Schedule to this Agreement or any schedules, documents or listings that the Debtor may from time to time sign and provide to the Creditors in connection with this Agreement) of the Debtor (including all such property at any time owned, leased or licensed by the Debtor, or in which the Debtor at any time has any interest or to which the Debtor is or may at any time become entitled) and all Proceeds thereof, wherever located.

"Contracts" means all contracts, licences and agreements to which the Debtor is at any time a party or pursuant to which the Debtor has at any time acquired rights, and includes (i) all rights of the Debtor to receive money due and to become due to it in connection with a contract, licence or agreement, (ii) all rights of the Debtor to damages arising out of, or for breach or default in respect of, a contract, licence or agreement, and (iii) all rights of the Debtor to perform and exercise all remedies in connection with a contract, licence or agreement.

"Default" means any "Event of Default" as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all industrial and intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trade-marks, industrial designs, know how and trade secrets and all Contracts related to any such industrial and intellectual property rights.

"Liabilities" means all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of every kind, nature and description (whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, matured or not) of the Debtor to the Creditors, under, in connection with or with respect to the Guarantee and the other Security Documents, and any unpaid balance thereof.

"Money" has the meaning given to it in the PPSA or, if there is no such meaning given in the PPSA, means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by the Parliament of Canada as part of the currency of Canada, or by a foreign government as part of its currency.

"Permits" means all permits, licences, authorizations, approvals, franchises, rights-of-way, easements and entitlements that the Debtor has, requires or is required to have, to own, possess or operate any of its property or to operate and carry on any part of its business.

"Personal Property" means personal property and includes Accounts, Books and Records, Chattel Paper, Contracts, Documents of Title, Equipment, Goods, Instruments, Intangibles (including Intellectual Property Rights and Permits), Inventory, Money and Investment Property.

"PPSA" means the Personal Property Security Act of the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement, as such legislation may be amended, renamed or replaced from time to time (and includes all regulations from time to time made under such legislation).

"Receiver" means a receiver, a manager or a receiver and manager.

"Security Interest" means any mortgage, charge, pledge, hypothecation, lien (statutory or otherwise), assignment, finance lease, title retention agreement or arrangement, security interest or other encumbrance or adverse claim of any nature, or any other security agreement or arrangement creating in favour of any creditor a right in respect of a particular property.

2. Grant of Security Interest. As general and continuing collateral security for the due payment and performance of the Liabilities, the Debtor mortgages, charges and assigns (by way of security) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in, the Collateral.

3. Limitations on Grant of Security Interest. If the grant of any Security Interest in respect of any Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit under Section 2 would result in the termination or breach of such Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit, then the applicable Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit will not be subject to any Security Interest under Section 2 but will be held in trust by the Debtor for the benefit of the Creditors and, on exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee. In addition, the Security Interests created by this Agreement do not attach to Consumer Goods or extend to the last day of the term of any lease or agreement for lease of real property. Such last day will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors and, on the exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, will be assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Debtor confirms that value has been given by the Creditors to the Debtor, that the Debtor has rights in the Collateral (other than after-acquired property) and that the Debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interests created by this Agreement to any of the Collateral. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(g) No Consumer Goods. The Debtor does not own any Consumer Goods which are material in value or which are material to the business, operations, property, condition or prospects (financial or otherwise) of the Debtor.

(h) Intellectual Property Rights. All registrations and applications for registration pertaining to Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Debtor, and all other Intellectual Property Rights of the Debtor, are described in Schedule A to this Agreement. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

(g) Limitations on Dispositions of Collateral. The Debtor will not, without the Trustee's prior written consent, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral, except that Inventory may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, and subject to Section 17, Accounts may be collected, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Limitations on Modifications, Waivers, Extensions. Other than as permitted by paragraph (i) below, the Debtor will not (i) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of any Permit, Contract or any document giving rise to an Account in any manner which is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors, or (ii) fail to exercise promptly and diligently its rights under each Contract and each document giving rise to an Account if such failure is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors.

(i) Limitations on Discounts, Compromises, Extensions of Accounts. Other than in the ordinary course of business of the Debtor consistent with previous practices, the Debtor will not (i) grant any extension of the time for payment of any Account, (ii) compromise, compound or settle any Account for less than its full amount, (iii) release, wholly or partially, any Person liable for the payment of any Account, or (iv) allow any credit or discount of any Account.

(j) Maintenance of Collateral. The Debtor will maintain all tangible Collateral in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and the Debtor will provide all maintenance, service and repairs necessary for such purpose.

(k) Insurance. The Debtor will keep the Collateral insured with financially sound and reputable companies to its full insurable value against loss or damage by fire, explosion, theft and such other risks as are customarily insured against by Persons carrying on similar businesses or owning similar property within the vicinity in which the Debtor's applicable business or property is located. The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. The Debtor will, from time to time at the Trustee's request, deliver the applicable insurance policies (or satisfactory evidence of such policies) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. Neither the Creditors nor its correspondents or its agents will be responsible for the character, adequacy, validity or genuineness of any insurance, the solvency of any insurer, or any other risk connected with insurance.

(l) Further Identification of Collateral. The Debtor will promptly furnish to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors such statements, schedules, permits and licenses further identifying and describing the Collateral, and such other reports in connection with the Collateral, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may from time to time reasonably request, including an updated list of any motor vehicles or other "serial number" goods owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment, including vehicle identification numbers.

(m) Notices. The Debtor will advise the Trustee promptly, in reasonable detail, of (i) any Security Interest (other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement and any Security Interest permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors) on, or claim asserted against, any of the Collateral, (ii) the occurrence of any event, claim or occurrence that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the value of the Collateral or on the Security Interests created by this Agreement, (iii) any change in the location of any place of business (including additional locations) or the chief executive office of the Debtor, (iv) any change in the location of any of the tangible Collateral (including additional locations), (v) any acquisition of real property by the Debtor, (vi) any change in the name of the Debtor, (vii) any merger or amalgamation of the Debtor with any other Person, (viii) any additional jurisdiction in which material accounts debtors of the Debtor are located, and (ix) any material loss of or damage to any of the Collateral. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

(n) Delivery of Agreements re Intellectual Property Rights. The Debtor will promptly, following demand from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, authorize, execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers that the Trustee may request to evidence the Creditors' Security Interests in any Intellectual Property Rights and, where applicable, the goodwill of the business of the Debtor connected with the use of, and symbolized by, any such Intellectual Property Rights.

8. Rights on Default. On Default, all of the Liabilities will, at the option of the Creditors, become immediately due and payable and the security constituted by this Agreement will become enforceable, and the Creditors may, personally or by agent, at such time or times as the Creditors in its sole discretion may determine, do any one or more of the following:

(b) Demand Possession. Demand possession of any or all of the Collateral, in which event the Debtor will, at the expense of the Debtor, immediately cause the Collateral designated by the Creditors to be assembled and made available and/or delivered to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at any place designated by the Creditors.

(c) Take Possession. Enter on any premises where any Collateral is located and take possession of, disable or remove such Collateral.

(d) Deal with Collateral. Hold, store and keep idle, or operate, lease or otherwise use or permit the use of, any or all of the Collateral for such time and on such terms as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may determine, and demand, collect and retain all earnings and other sums due or to become due from any Person in respect of any of the Collateral.

(e) Carry on Business. Carry on, or concur in the carrying on of, any or all of the business or undertaking of the Debtor and enter on, occupy and use (without charge by the Debtor) any of the premises, buildings, plant and undertaking of, or occupied or used by, the Debtor.

(f) Enforce Collateral. Seize, collect, receive, enforce or otherwise deal with any Collateral in such manner, on such terms and conditions and at such times as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems advisable.

(g) Dispose of Collateral. Realize on any or all of the Collateral and sell, lease, assign, give options to purchase, or otherwise dispose of and deliver any or all of the Collateral (or contract to do any of the above), in one or more parcels at any public or private sale, at any exchange, broker's board or office of the Trustee or elsewhere, on such terms and conditions as the Trustee may deem advisable and at such prices as it may deem best, for cash or on credit or for future delivery. The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Court-Approved Disposition of Collateral. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the sale or foreclosure of any or all of the Collateral.

(i) Purchase by Creditor. At any public sale, and to the extent permitted by law on any private sale, bid for and purchase any or all of the Collateral offered for sale and, upon compliance with the terms of such sale, hold, retain and dispose of such Collateral without any further accountability to the Debtor or any other Person with respect to such holding, retention or disposition, except as required by law. In any such sale to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Trustee may, for the purpose of making payment for all or any part of the Collateral so purchased, use any claim for Liabilities then due and payable to it as a credit against the purchase price.

(j) Collect Accounts. Notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to the Debtor in respect of such Accounts directly to the Trustee and, upon such notification and at the expense of the Debtor, enforce collection of any such Accounts, and adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of such Accounts, in such manner and to such extent as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors deems appropriate in the circumstances. The Debtor shall give the Trustee any assistance requested by the Trustee with respect to such accounts as may be required to assess its value.

Borrow money for the maintenance, preservation or protection of any Collateral or for carrying on any of the business or undertaking of the Debtor and grant Security Interests on any Collateral (in priority to the Security Interests created by this Agreement or otherwise) as security for the money so borrowed. The Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all such borrowings.

(o) Appoint Receiver. Appoint by instrument in writing one or more Receivers of the Debtor or any or all of the Collateral with such rights, powers and authority (including any or all of the rights, powers and authority of the Trustee under this Agreement) as may be provided for in the instrument of appointment or any supplemental instrument, and remove and replace any such Receiver from time to time. To the extent permitted by applicable law, any Receiver appointed by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will (for purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver's acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of the Debtor and not of the Trustee.

(p) Court-Appointed Receiver. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the Debtor or of any or all of the Collateral.

(q) Consultants. Require the Debtor to engage a consultant of the Trustee's choice, or engage a consultant on its own behalf, such consultant to receive the full cooperation and support of the Debtor and its employees, including unrestricted access to the premises, books and records of the Debtor; all reasonable fees and expenses of such consultant shall be for the account of the Debtor and the Debtor hereby authorizes any such consultant to report directly to the Trustee and to disclose to the Trustee any and all information obtained in the course of such consultant's employment.

The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may exercise any or all of the foregoing rights and remedies without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except as required by applicable law) to or on the Debtor or any other Person, and the Debtor by this Agreement waives each such demand, presentment, protest, advertisement and notice to the extent permitted by applicable law. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

- (i) Collateral may be disposed of in whole or in part;
- (ii) Collateral may be disposed of by public auction, public tender or private contract, with or without advertising and without any other formality;
- (iii) any purchaser or lessee of Collateral may be a customer of the Trustee;
- (iv) a disposition of Collateral may be on such terms and conditions as to credit or otherwise as the Creditor, in its sole discretion, may deem advantageous; and
- (v) the Trustee may establish an upset or reserve bid or price in respect of Collateral.

9. Grant of Licence. For the purpose of enabling the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 8 when the Trustee is entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, and for no other purpose, the Debtor grants to the Trustee an irrevocable, non-exclusive licence (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to the Debtor) to use, assign or sublicense any or all of the Intellectual Property Rights, including in such licence reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout of the same.

10. Sale of Investment Property. The Trustee is authorized, in connection with any offer or sale of any Investment Property forming part of the Collateral, to comply with any limitation or restriction as it may be advised by counsel is necessary to comply with applicable law, including compliance with procedures that may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, requiring that prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications, and restricting prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. All Proceeds of Collateral received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or a Receiver may be applied to discharge or satisfy any expenses (including the Receiver's remuneration and other expenses of enforcing the Trustee's rights under this Agreement), Security Interests in favour of Persons other than the Creditors, borrowings, taxes and other outgoings affecting the Collateral or which are considered advisable by the Trustee or the Receiver to protect, preserve, repair, process, maintain or enhance the Collateral or prepare it for sale, lease or other disposition, or to keep in good standing any Security Interests on the Collateral ranking in priority to any of the Security Interests created by this Agreement, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

12. Continuing Liability of Debtor. The Debtor will remain liable for any Liabilities that are outstanding following realization of all or any part of the Collateral and the application of the Proceeds thereof.

13. Trustee's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact. The Debtor constitutes and appoints the Trustee and any officer or agent of the Trustee, with full power of substitution, as the Debtor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in the place of the Debtor and in the name of the Debtor or in its own name, from time to time in the Trustee's discretion to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments as, in the opinion of such attorney acting reasonably, may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. All amounts payable by the Debtor to the Trustee under this Agreement, and all interest on all such amounts, compounded monthly on the last Business Day of each month, will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17. Rights of Creditor; Limitations on Creditor's Obligations.

(a) Limitations on Creditor's Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. Neither the Trustee nor any Receiver will be liable for any, and the Debtor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Collateral (including any Collateral in the possession of the Trustee or any Receiver) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or such Receiver.

(b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

26. Interpretation. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any matter in this Agreement is subject to the consent or approval of the Trustee or is to be acceptable to the Trustee, such consent, approval or determination of acceptability will be in the sole discretion of the Trustee. If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

30. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and by electronic transmission, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

RECITALS:

A. Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Trustee"), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the "Creditors") pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Debtor and the Trustee.

B. To secure the payment and performance of the Liabilities (as hereinafter defined), Aleafia Inc. (the "Debtor") has agreed to execute and deliver a guarantee in favour of the Trustee, on behalf of the Creditors (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Guarantee").

C. As a condition precedent to the issuance of the Debentures under the A&R Debenture Indenture, the Debtor is required to grant a security interest in the Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are acknowledged by the Debtor, the Debtor agrees with and in favour of the Creditors as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Agreement, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings given to them in the A&R Debenture Indenture, and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Accessions", "Account", "Chattel Paper", "Consumer Goods", "Document of Title", "Equipment", "Goods", "Instrument", "Intangible", "Inventory", "Investment Property" and "Proceeds" have the meanings given to them in the PPSA.

"Books and Records" means all books, records, files, papers, disks, documents and other repositories of data recording in any form or medium, evidencing or relating to the Collateral which are at any time owned by the Debtor or to which the Debtor (or any Person on the Debtor's behalf) has access.

"Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement.

"Collateral" means all of the present and future undertaking and Personal Property (and specifically including any Personal Property that may be described in any Schedule to this Agreement or any schedules, documents or listings that the Debtor may from time to time sign and provide to the Creditors in connection with this Agreement) of the Debtor (including all such property at any time owned, leased or licensed by the Debtor, or in which the Debtor at any time has any interest or to which the Debtor is or may at any time become entitled) and all Proceeds thereof, wherever located.

"Contracts" means all contracts, licences and agreements to which the Debtor is at any time a party or pursuant to which the Debtor has at any time acquired rights, and includes (i) all rights of the Debtor to receive money due and to become due to it in connection with a contract, licence or agreement, (ii) all rights of the Debtor to damages arising out of, or for breach or default in respect of, a contract, licence or agreement, and (iii) all rights of the Debtor to perform and exercise all remedies in connection with a contract, licence or agreement.

"Default" means any "Event of Default" as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means all industrial and intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trade-marks, industrial designs, know how and trade secrets and all Contracts related to any such industrial and intellectual property rights.

"Liabilities" means all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of every kind, nature and description (whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, matured or not) of the Debtor to the Creditors, under, in connection with or with respect to the Guarantee and the other Security Documents, and any unpaid balance thereof.

"Money" has the meaning given to it in the PPSA or, if there is no such meaning given in the PPSA, means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by the Parliament of Canada as part of the currency of Canada, or by a foreign government as part of its currency.

"Permits" means all permits, licences, authorizations, approvals, franchises, rights-of-way, easements and entitlements that the Debtor has, requires or is required to have, to own, possess or operate any of its property or to operate and carry on any part of its business.

"Personal Property" means personal property and includes Accounts, Books and Records, Chattel Paper, Contracts, Documents of Title, Equipment, Goods, Instruments, Intangibles (including Intellectual Property Rights and Permits), Inventory, Money and Investment Property.

"Security Interest" means any mortgage, charge, pledge, hypothecation, lien (statutory or otherwise), assignment, finance lease, title retention agreement or arrangement, security interest or other encumbrance or adverse claim of any nature, or any other security agreement or arrangement creating in favour of any creditor a right in respect of a particular property.

2. Grant of Security Interest. As general and continuing collateral security for the due payment and performance of the Liabilities, the Debtor mortgages, charges and assigns (by way of security) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors a security interest in, the Collateral.

3. Limitations on Grant of Security Interest. If the grant of any Security Interest in respect of any Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit under Section 2 would result in the termination or breach of such Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit, then the applicable Contract, Intellectual Property Right or Permit will not be subject to any Security Interest under Section 2 but will be held in trust by the Debtor for the benefit of the Creditors and, on exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee. In addition, the Security Interests created by this Agreement do not attach to Consumer Goods or extend to the last day of the term of any lease or agreement for lease of real property. Such last day will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors and, on the exercise by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of any of its rights under this Agreement following Default, will be assigned by the Debtor as directed by the Trustee.

4. Attachment; No Obligation to Advance. The Debtor confirms that value has been given by the Creditors to the Debtor, that the Debtor has rights in the Collateral (other than after-acquired property) and that the Debtor and the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interests created by this Agreement to any of the Collateral. The Security Interests created by this Agreement will have effect and be deemed to be effective whether or not the Liabilities or any part thereof are owing or in existence before or after or upon the date of this Agreement. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor any advance of funds shall oblige the Creditors to advance any funds or any additional funds.

5. Representations and Warranties. The Debtor represents and warrants to the Creditors that, as of the date of this Agreement:

(a) Places of Business, Name, Location of Collateral. The Debtor's principal place of business and chief executive office, and the place where it keeps its Books and Records, is at the address specified on the signature page of this Agreement, and its full legal name, and any other name under which it conducts its business, is specified on the signature page of this Agreement. The location of all other existing places where the Debtor carries on business or keeps tangible Personal Property, the location of all jurisdictions in which account debtors of the Debtor are located, and the location of all real property owned by the Debtor, are set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(b) Title; No Other Security Interests. Except for Permitted Liens, the Debtor owns (or, with respect to any leased or licensed property forming part of the Collateral, holds a valid leasehold or licensed interest in) the Collateral free and clear of any Security Interests. No security agreement, financing statement or other notice with respect to any or all of the Collateral is on file or on record in any public office, except for filings with respect to Permitted Liens.

(c) Amount of Accounts. The amount represented by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors from time to time as owing by each account debtor or by all account debtors in respect of the Accounts will at such time be the correct amount so owing by such account debtor or debtors and, unless disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors at that time, will be owed free of any dispute, set-off or counterclaim.

(d) Authority; Consents. The Debtor has full power and authority to grant to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors the Security Interests created by this Agreement and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such execution, delivery and performance does not contravene any of the Debtor's constating documents or by-laws or any agreement, instrument or restriction to which the Debtor is a party or by which the Debtor or any of the Collateral is bound. Except for any consent that has been obtained and is in full force and effect, no consent of any party (other than the Debtor) to any Contract or any obligor in respect of any Account is required, or purports to be required, for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Except as disclosed in writing by the Debtor to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, neither the Debtor nor (to the best of the Debtor's knowledge) any other party to any Account or Contract is in default or is likely to become in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms of such Account or Contract.

(e) Execution and Delivery; Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Debtor and is a valid and binding obligation of the Debtor enforceable against the Debtor in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws generally affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, and to the fact that equitable remedies (such as specific performance and injunction) are discretionary remedies.

(f) Motor Vehicles. A description of all motor vehicles and other "serial number" goods (i.e. trailers, mobile homes, aircraft, aircraft engines and vessels) (including vehicle identification numbers) presently owned by the Debtor and classified as Equipment is set out in Schedule A to this Agreement.

(g) No Consumer Goods. The Debtor does not own any Consumer Goods which are material in value or which are material to the business, operations, property, condition or prospects (financial or otherwise) of the Debtor.

(h) Intellectual Property Rights. All registrations and applications for registration pertaining to Intellectual Property Rights owned by the Debtor, and all other Intellectual Property Rights of the Debtor, are described in Schedule A to this Agreement. To the best of the Debtor's knowledge, each such Intellectual Property Right is valid, subsisting, unexpired, enforceable and has not been abandoned. Except as set out in such Schedule, none of such Intellectual Property Rights has been licensed or franchised by the Debtor to any Person.

6. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All agreements, representations, warranties and covenants made by the Debtor in this Agreement are material, will be considered to have been relied on by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Creditors and any disposition or payment of the Liabilities until repayment and performance in full of the Liabilities and termination of all rights of the Debtor that, if exercised, would result in the existence of Liabilities.

7. Covenants. The Debtor covenants and agrees with the Creditors that:

(a) Further Documentation. The Debtor will from time to time, at the expense of the Debtor, promptly and duly authorize, execute and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of, and the rights and powers granted by, this Agreement (including the filing of any financing statements or financing change statements under any applicable legislation with respect to the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor acknowledges that this Agreement has been prepared based on the existing laws in the province referred to in the "Governing Law" section of this Agreement and that a change in such laws, or the laws of other jurisdictions, may require the execution and delivery of different forms of security documentation. Accordingly, the Debtor agrees that the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will have the right to require that this Agreement be amended, supplemented or replaced, and that the Debtor will immediately on request by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors authorize, execute and deliver any such amendment, supplement or replacement (i) to reflect any changes in such laws, whether arising as a result of statutory amendments, court decisions or otherwise, (ii) to facilitate the creation and registration of appropriate security in all appropriate jurisdictions, or (iii) if the Debtor merges or amalgamates with any other Person or enters into any corporate reorganization, in each case in order to confer on the Security Interests similar to, and having the same effect as, the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(b) Delivery of Certain Collateral. Promptly upon request from time to time by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, endorsed and/or accompanied by such instruments of assignment and transfer in such form and substance as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may reasonably request, any and all Instruments, Investment Property, Documents of Title and Chattel Paper included in or relating to the Collateral as the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may specify in its request.

(c) Payment of Expenses; Indemnification. The Debtor will pay on demand, and will indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from, any and all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis and any sales, goods and services or other similar taxes payable to any governmental authority with respect to any such liabilities, costs and expenses) (i) incurred by the Trustee in the preparation, registration, administration or enforcement of this Agreement, (ii) with respect to, or resulting from, any failure or delay by the Debtor in performing or observing any of its obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) incurred by the Trustee in performing or observing any of the other covenants of the Debtor under this Agreement.

(d) Maintenance of Records. The Debtor will keep and maintain accurate and complete records of the Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to the Accounts and Contracts. At the written request of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, the Debtor will mark any Collateral specified by the Trustee to evidence the existence of the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

(e) Right of Inspection. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, at all times during normal business hours, without charge, examine and make copies of all Books and Records, and may discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Debtor with its officers and accountants. The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may also, without charge, enter the premises of the Debtor where any of the Collateral is located for the purpose of inspecting the Collateral, observing its use or otherwise protecting its interests in the Collateral. The Debtor, at its expense, will provide the Trustee with such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to exercise any of its rights under this paragraph.

(f) Limitations on Other Security Interests. The Debtor will not create, incur or permit to exist, and will defend the Collateral against, and will take such other action as is necessary to remove, any and all Security Interests in and other claims affecting the Collateral, other than the Security Interests created by this Agreement or as permitted in writing by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, and the Debtor will defend the right, title and interest of the Creditors in and to the Collateral against the claims and demands of all Persons.

The Debtor will not, without the Trustee's prior written consent, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral, except that Inventory may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, and subject to Section 17, Accounts may be collected, in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Following Default, all Proceeds of the Collateral (including all amounts received in respect of Accounts) received by or on behalf of the Debtor, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business, will be received by the Debtor as trustee for the Creditors, remain segregated from the property of the Debtor or any other Person and will be immediately paid to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

(h) Limitations on Modifications, Waivers, Extensions. Other than as permitted by paragraph (i) below, the Debtor will not (i) amend, modify, terminate or waive any provision of any Permit, Contract or any document giving rise to an Account in any manner which is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors, or (ii) fail to exercise promptly and diligently its rights under each Contract and each document giving rise to an Account if such failure is or could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Debtor or the Creditors.

(i) Limitations on Discounts, Compromises, Extensions of Accounts. The applicable insurance policies will be in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and will (i) contain a breach of warranty clause in favour of the Creditors, (ii) provide that no cancellation, material reduction in amount or material change in coverage will be effective until at least 30 days after receipt of written notice thereof by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, (iii) contain by way of endorsement a mortgagee clause in form and substance satisfactory to the Creditors, and (iv) name the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors as loss payee as its interest may appear. The Debtor will, from time to time at the Trustee's request, deliver the applicable insurance policies (or satisfactory evidence of such policies) to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors. If the Debtor does not obtain or maintain such insurance, the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may, but need not, do so, in which event the Debtor will immediately on demand reimburse the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors for all payments made by the Creditors in connection with obtaining and maintaining such insurance, and until reimbursed any such payment will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement. The Debtor agrees not to effect or permit any of the changes referred to in clauses (iii) to (viii) above unless all filings have been made and all other actions taken that are required in order for the Creditors to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected Security Interest in respect of all of the Collateral.

The Debtor shall only be entitled to credit against the liability for money actually received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors, less the Trustee's costs and expenses of disposition. In no event shall the Debtor be entitled to credit for any deferred payment in respect of collateral realized by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, any Receiver appointed by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors will (for purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver's acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of the Debtor and not of the Trustee.

(p) Court-Appointed Receiver. Apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the Debtor or of any or all of the Collateral.

(q) Consultants. Require the Debtor to engage a consultant of the Trustee's choice, or engage a consultant on its own behalf, such consultant to receive the full cooperation and support of the Debtor and its employees, including unrestricted access to the premises, books and records of the Debtor; all reasonable fees and expenses of such consultant shall be for the account of the Debtor and the Debtor hereby authorizes any such consultant to report directly to the Trustee and to disclose to the Trustee any and all information obtained in the course of such consultant's employment.

The Trustee on behalf of the Creditors may exercise any or all of the foregoing rights and remedies without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except as required by applicable law) to or on the Debtor or any other Person, and the Debtor by this Agreement waives each such demand, presentment, protest, advertisement and notice to the extent permitted by applicable law. None of the above rights or remedies will be exclusive of or dependent on or merge in any other right or remedy, and one or more of such rights and remedies may be exercised independently or in combination from time to time. Without prejudice to the ability of the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors to dispose of the Collateral in any manner which is commercially reasonable, the Debtor acknowledges that a disposition of Collateral by the Trustee which takes place substantially in accordance with the following provisions will be deemed to be commercially reasonable:

- (i) Collateral may be disposed of in whole or in part;

purchasing for their own account or investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Investment Property. The Debtor further agrees that compliance with any such limitation or restriction will not result in a sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Trustee will not be liable or accountable to the Debtor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Investment Property are sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

11. Application of Proceeds. All Proceeds of Collateral received by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors or a Receiver may be applied to discharge or satisfy any expenses (including the Receiver's remuneration and other expenses of enforcing the Trustee's rights under this Agreement), Security Interests in favour of Persons other than the Creditors, borrowings, taxes and other outgoings affecting the Collateral or which are considered advisable by the Trustee or the Receiver to protect, preserve, repair, process, maintain or enhance the Collateral or prepare it for sale, lease or other disposition, or to keep in good standing any Security Interests on the Collateral ranking in priority to any of the Security Interests created by this Agreement, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral. The balance of such Proceeds may, at the sole discretion of the Trustee, be held as collateral security for the Liabilities or be applied to such of the Liabilities (whether or not the same are due and payable) in such manner and at such times as the Trustee considers appropriate and thereafter will be accounted for as required by law.

12. Continuing Liability of Debtor. The Debtor will remain liable for any Liabilities that are outstanding following realization of all or any part of the Collateral and the application of the Proceeds thereof.

13. Trustee's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact. The Debtor constitutes and appoints the Trustee and any officer or agent of the Trustee, with full power of substitution, as the Debtor's true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full power and authority in the place of the Debtor and in the name of the Debtor or in its own name, from time to time in the Trustee's discretion to take any and all appropriate action and to execute any and all documents and instruments as, in the opinion of such attorney acting reasonably, may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. These powers are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated and the Security Interests created by this Agreement are released. Nothing in this Section affects the right of the Creditors as secured party or any other Person on the Creditors' behalf, to sign and file or deliver (as applicable) all such financing statements, financing change statements, notices, verification statements and other documents relating to the Collateral and this Agreement as the Trustee or such other Person considers appropriate.

14. Performance by Trustee of Debtor's Obligations. If the Debtor fails to perform or comply with any of the obligations of the Debtor under this Agreement, the Trustee may, but need not, perform or otherwise cause the performance or compliance of such obligation, provided that such performance or compliance will not constitute a waiver, remedy or satisfaction of such failure. The expenses of the Trustee incurred in connection with any such performance or compliance will be payable by the Debtor to the Trustee immediately on demand, and until paid, any such expenses will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

15. Interest. If any amount payable to the Trustee under this Agreement is not paid when due, the Debtor will pay to the Trustee, immediately on demand, interest on such amount from the date due until paid, at the highest annual rate applicable to the Liabilities from time to time, including default rates. All amounts payable by the Debtor to the Trustee under this Agreement, and all interest on all such amounts, compounded monthly on the last Business Day of each month, will form part of the Liabilities and will be secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

16. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17. Rights of Creditor; Limitations on Creditor's Obligations.

(a) Limitations on Creditor's Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to the Debtor or any other Person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Debtor under this Agreement (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Trustee, a Receiver nor any agent of the Trustee (including, in Alberta or British Columbia, any sheriff) is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other Persons in respect of any Collateral. Neither the Trustee nor any Receiver will be liable for any, and the Debtor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Collateral (including any Collateral in the possession of the Trustee or any Receiver) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or such Receiver.

(b) Debtor Remains Liable under Accounts and Contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, the Debtor will remain liable under each of the documents giving rise to the Accounts and under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by the Debtor thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of each such document and Contract. The Trustee will have no obligation or liability under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Trustee of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Trustee will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Debtor under or pursuant to any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any document giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time.

(c) Collections on Accounts and Contracts. The Trustee hereby authorizes the Debtor to collect the Accounts and payments under the Contracts in the normal course of the business of the Debtor and for the purpose of carrying on the same. If required by the Trustee at any time, any payments of Accounts or under Contracts, when collected by the Debtor, will be forthwith (and, in any event, within two Business Days) deposited by the Debtor in the exact form received, duly endorsed by the Debtor to the Trustee if required, in a special collateral account maintained by the Creditor, and until so deposited, will be held by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors, segregated from other funds of the Debtor or any other Person. All such amounts while held by the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors (or by the Debtor in trust for the Creditors) and all income in respect thereof will continue to be collateral security for the Liabilities and will not constitute payment thereof until applied as hereinafter provided. If a Default has occurred, the Trustee may apply all or any part of the amounts on deposit in said special collateral account on account of the Liabilities in such order as the Trustee may elect. At the Trustee's request, the Debtor will deliver to the Trustee any documents evidencing and relating to the agreements and transactions which gave rise to the Accounts and Contracts, including all original orders, invoices and shipping receipts.

(d) Analysis of Accounts. The Trustee will have the right to analyze and verify the Accounts in any manner and through any medium that it reasonably considers advisable, and the Debtor will furnish all such assistance and information as the Trustee may require in connection therewith. The Trustee may in its own name or in the name of others (including the Debtor) communicate with account debtors on the Accounts and parties to the Contracts to verify with them to its satisfaction the existence, status, amount and terms of any Account or any Contract. At any time and from time to time, upon the Trustee's reasonable request and at the expense of the Debtor, the Debtor will furnish to the Trustee reports showing reconciliations, aging and test verifications of, and trial balances for, the Accounts.

18. Dealings by Trustee. The Trustee will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Debtor or any other Person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the Liabilities before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Collateral in such manner as the Trustee may consider desirable. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up security, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the Debtor and any other Person, and with any or all of the Collateral, and with other security and sureties, as the Trustee may see fit, all without prejudice to the Liabilities or to the rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement. The powers conferred on the Trustee under this Agreement are solely to protect the interests of the Trustee in the Collateral and will not impose any duty upon the Trustee to exercise any such powers.

19. Communication. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be made in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture.

20. Release of Information. The Debtor authorizes the Trustee to provide a copy of this Agreement and such other information as may be requested of the Trustee by Persons entitled thereto pursuant to any applicable legislation, and otherwise with the consent of the Debtor.

21. Waiver. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtor unconditionally and irrevocably waives (i) all claims, damages and demands it may acquire against any Creditor, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of the exercise by the Trustee, any Creditor or any Receiver of any rights or remedies under this Agreement, and (ii) all of the rights, benefits and protections given by any present or future statute that imposes limitations on the rights, powers or remedies of a secured party or on the methods of, or procedures for, realization of security, including any "seize or sue" or "anti-deficiency" statute or any similar provision of any other statute.

22. Alteration or Waiver and Indemnity. None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by the Trustee. The Trustee will not, by any act or delay, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Default or in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Trustee, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Trustee of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion will not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Trustee would otherwise have on any future occasion. Neither the taking of any judgment nor the exercise of any power of seizure or sale will extinguish the liability of the Debtor to pay the Liabilities, nor will the same operate as a merger of any covenant contained in this Agreement or of any other liability, nor will the acceptance of any payment or other security constitute or create any novation. The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (except by reason of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee or any of its agents or employees) which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Trustee and arising by reason of any action (including any action referred to in this Agreement) or inaction or omission to do any act legally required by the Debtor. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

23. Environmental License and Indemnity. The Debtor hereby grants to the Trustee on behalf of the Creditors and its employees and agents an irrevocable and non-exclusive license, subject to the rights of tenants, if any, to enter any of the premises of the Debtor to conduct audits, testing and monitoring with respect to hazardous substances and to remove and analyze any hazardous substance at the cost and expense of the Debtor (which cost and expense will form part of the Liabilities and will be payable immediately on demand and secured by the Security Interests created by this Agreement). The Debtor hereby indemnifies the Trustee and holds the Trustee harmless against and from all losses, costs, damages and expenses which the Trustee may sustain, incur or be or become liable at any time whatsoever for by reason of or arising from the past, present or future existence, clean-up, removal or disposal of any hazardous substance on or about any property owned or occupied by the Debtor or compliance with environmental laws or environmental orders relating thereto, including any clean-up, decommissioning, restoration or remediation of any premises owned or occupied by the Debtor or other affected lands or property. This indemnification will survive the satisfaction, release or extinguishment of the Liabilities and the Security Interests created by this Agreement.

24. Amalgamation. If the Debtor is a corporation, the Debtor acknowledges that if it amalgamates with any other corporation or corporations, then (i) the Collateral and the Security Interests created by this Agreement will extend to and include all the property and assets of the amalgamated corporation and to any property or assets of the amalgamated corporation thereafter owned or acquired, (ii) the term "Debtor", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the amalgamated corporation, and (iii) the term "Liabilities", where used in this Agreement, will extend to and include the Liabilities of the amalgamated corporation.

25. Applicable Law and Attornment. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract, with respect to any suit, action or proceedings relating to this Agreement, the Debtor, the Trustee and each holder irrevocably submit and attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario.

If any provision in this Agreement refers to any action taken or to be taken by the Debtor, or which the Debtor is prohibited from taking, such provision will be interpreted to include any and all means, direct or indirect, of taking, or not taking, such action. The division of this Agreement into sections and paragraphs, and the insertion of headings, is for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. When used in this Agreement, the word "including" (or includes) means "including (or includes) without limitation". Any reference in this Agreement to a "Section" means the relevant Section of this Agreement. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, their obligations under this Agreement are joint and several.

27. Paramountcy. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Agreement, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

28. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Debtor and its successors and permitted assigns, and will enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Creditors and their successors and assigns. The Debtor may not assign this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

29. Acknowledgment of Receipt/Waiver. The Debtor acknowledges receipt of an executed copy of this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement, financing change statement or verification statement in respect of any registered financing statement or financing change statement prepared, registered or issued in connection with this Agreement.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 27th day of June, 2022.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION and ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

hereinafter collectively called the "Assignor"

- and -

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to the Assignee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees. The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;

- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 27th day of June, 2022.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION and ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

hereinafter collectively called the "Assignor"

- and -

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to the Assignee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees.
The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;

- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. - (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;

- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS AND PARAMOUNTCY

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the A&R Debenture Indenture, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the

A&R Debenture Indenture) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a “Receiver”) of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. - (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
- (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

ASSIGNMENT OF INSURANCE MONIES

THIS AGREEMENT DATED as of the 27th day of June, 2022.

For valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged), Aleafia Inc. (the “Corporation”) hereby assigns and transfers to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the “Trustee”), and on behalf of the Debentureholders (collectively, the “Creditors”) under the amended and restated debenture indenture (as amended, modified, supplemented or replaced from time to time, the “A&R Debenture Indenture”) dated as of June 27, 2022 between the Corporation and the Trustee, the interest of the Corporation as insured under the policy of insurance described in Schedule “A” annexed hereto (the “Policy”). The Policy shall stand as continuing collateral security for the payment of any and all debts, liabilities and obligations (including interest thereon) present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, extended or renewed, for which the Corporation is or may become liable to the Creditors (such debts, liabilities and obligations being hereinafter collectively called the “Secured Obligations”).

The Corporation further covenants and agrees as follows:

1. All capitalized terms which are not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the A&R Debenture Indenture.
2. The insurer named in the Policy is hereby directed by the Corporation to pay all monies originally payable under the Policy to the Corporation (the “Monies”) to the Trustee in accordance with this assignment at 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, ON M5J 2Y1. The Trustee is authorized to give its receipts therefor which shall be binding upon the Corporation.
3. The Trustee may collect, realize and otherwise deal with the Monies without notice to the Corporation in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture. Any Monies received by the Corporation are received as trustee for the Creditors and shall be forthwith paid over to the Trustee.
4. Any Monies received by the Trustee shall be applied against the Secured Obligations in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture without prejudice to its claims upon the Corporation for any deficiency.
5. The Trustee may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with the insurer named in the Policy, the Corporation and others and with the Monies and other securities as the Trustee sees fit without prejudice to the liability to the Corporation or the Trustee’s right to hold or realize this security.
6. The Trustee shall not be liable or accountable for any failure to collect any Monies. The Trustee shall not be bound to institute proceedings for the purpose of collecting any Monies or for the purpose of preserving any rights of the Trustee, the Corporation or any other person in respect thereof.

7. The Trustee may charge on its own behalf, and also pay to others, reasonable sums for expenses incurred and for services rendered (expressly including legal fees and disbursements) in or in connection with collecting, realizing or obtaining payment of any Monies, and may add the amount of such sums to the Secured Obligations.
8. The Corporation shall deliver in writing to the Trustee from time to time upon request by the Trustee such information relating to the Policy as the Trustee may require. The Trustee shall be entitled from time to time, in accordance with the terms of the A&R Debenture Indenture, to inspect any books, papers, documents or records evidencing or relating to the Policy and make copies thereof, and for such purpose the Trustee shall have access to any and all premises containing such books, papers, documents and records occupied by the Corporation.
9. The Corporation shall, upon request by the Trustee, do such acts and things and give such receipts, deeds, transfers, discharges or other instruments as may be necessary to enable the Trustee to obtain payment of the Monies or any other amounts payable to the Trustee hereunder.
10. The Corporation shall forthwith provide the Trustee with an authenticated copy of the Policy recording the Trustee as mortgagee or loss payee, the priority of the Trustee's interest and its full address for service as set forth in paragraph 1 above, and containing a mortgage clause approved by the Insurance Bureau of Canada.

 - (d) give notice of default, demand for payment or acceleration of the indebtedness owing; and/or
 - (e) issue one or more statutory notices (including, without limitation, a notice pursuant to section 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada)).

PROMISSORY NOTE

TORONTO, ONTARIO

DECEMBER 16, 2022

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this promissory note (this "Note"), ALEAFIA HEALTH INC. (the "Borrower"), hereby unconditionally promises to pay on the Maturity Date (as hereinafter defined) to the order of Royal Group Resources Limited (the "Lender"), in immediately available funds, at 100 Zenway Boulevard, Woodbridge, Ontario L4H 2Y7 or such other location as the Lender shall designate in writing, ONE MILLION DOLLARS in lawful currency of Canada (C$1,000,000.00) and to pay interest on the unpaid principal amount hereof at the rates and on the dates specified below. Repayment shall be made in the lawful currency of Canada. "Maturity Date" means the earlier of (i) December 31, 2024 and (ii) a Change of Control. "Change of Control" means there is consummated an arrangement, amalgamation, merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving (directly or indirectly) the Borrower and, immediately after the consummation of such arrangement, amalgamation, merger, consolidation or similar transaction, the shareholders of the Borrower immediately prior thereto do not beneficially own, directly or indirectly, either (x) outstanding voting securities representing more than 50% of the combined outstanding voting power of the surviving or resulting entity in such amalgamation, merger, consolidation or similar transaction; or (y) more than 50% of the combined outstanding voting power of the parent of the surviving or resulting entity in such arrangement, amalgamation, merger, consolidation or similar transaction, in each case in substantially the same proportions as their beneficial ownership of the outstanding voting securities of the Borrower immediately prior to such transaction.

Should the $1,000,000 remain unpaid on the date that the Lender fully refinances the Borrower's debts to the Garrington Group of Companies (the "Refinancing"), the remaining balance of this Note shall be secured by the general security granted to the Lender in respect of the Refinancing.

The Borrower agrees to pay interest to the Lender on the unpaid principal amount of this Note from the date hereof at a rate per annum equal to 12.75% until the full and final repayment of the principal amount of this Note. Interest shall be calculated monthly and payable every other month or bi-monthly. Amounts of principal and interest that are past due under this Note shall bear interest at a rate of 12.75% per annum, payable on demand, from the date of such non-payment until paid in full.

The Borrower may prepay the principal amount of this Note in whole or in part at any time or from time to time without premium or penalty by giving one (1) business day's written notice to the Lender; provided that each prepayment shall be accompanied by payment of all accrued interest to the date of prepayment.

Upon the commencement by or against the Borrower of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment of debt, relief of debtors, dissolution, insolvency or liquidation or similar proceeding relating to the Borrower or its debts in any jurisdiction, the unpaid principal amount of this Note and all interest accrued thereon shall become immediately due and payable without presentment, demand, protest or notice of any kind.

The books and records of the Lender shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of principal and interest outstanding under this Note from time to time.

The Borrower hereby waives demand and presentment for payment, notice of non-payment, protest and notice of protest of this Note. No failure on the part of the Lender to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof or a consent thereto; nor shall a single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. All payments under this Note shall be made without offset, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

Neither the Lender nor the Borrower may assign this Note or any of its respective rights or obligations under this Note without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent may be withheld in the sole discretion of such party. Any such assignment of this Note must be made in accordance with applicable securities laws.

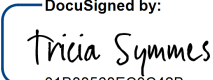

The Borrower agrees that limitation periods established by the Limitations Act, 2002 (Ontario), other than the ultimate 15-year limitation period, do not apply to this promissory note.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Note as of the date first written above.

Dear Mr. Dorion:

Re: Emblem Cannabis Corporation
Business Number: 85070 8975

Further to our various telephone discussions over the past weeks, you have asked Emblem Cannabis Corporation (“Emblem”) to present a formal payment arrangement to address (i) any current under-remittance of excise duty, and (ii) the repayment of arrears for GST/HST, excise duties and CEWS payments (supported by collateral).

As you are aware, Emblem forms part of the Aleafia Health Inc. group of companies (“Aleafia”), which recently entered into a binding letter agreement (the “Letter Agreement”) on June 6, 2023, with Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (“RWB”). Pursuant to that agreement, RWB has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the “Proposed Transaction”).

Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an “Aleafia Share”) will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of RWB (each, an “RWB Share”), subject to customary adjustment (the “Exchange Ratio”). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the “Combined Company”) and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

As you can appreciate, RWB has been actively reviewing the books and records of Aleafia and its various entities, and it is still very much in the “due diligence” phase. As is evidenced in the June 14, 2023 press release (available at <https://aleafiahealth.com/news-releases/aleafia-health-announces-fourth-quarter-and-annual-financial-results/>), Aleafia and its related companies, including Emblem, continue to face extreme financial hardship. The Proposed Transaction, should it close, would provide an opportunity for Aleafia and the related companies, as part of the newly created Combined Company, to return to consistent profitability and predictable cash flows, which will increase the probability that Emblem can accelerate the repayment of the CRA excise tax liabilities along with the other CRA liabilities in question.

We have had extensive discussions regarding what assets may be offered as collateral, what amounts can be committed to payment of arrears and when Emblem may begin remaining current in its remittances. Given that RWB is still in the due diligence phase and given that the outside closing date for the Proposed Transaction is October 31, 2023, it is difficult, at this time, to have the applicable Aleafia entities commit to a long-term payment plan. Nevertheless, in consultation with RWB and Aleafia, Emblem is prepared to commit to the following arrangement:

- (1) Emblem will file its 2021 T2 corporate income tax return by August 31, 2023, to allow its new accountants sufficient time to review prior filings and accurately prepare the 2021 T2;
- (2) Emblem will remain current on all of its corporate income tax returns, GST/HST returns and excise duty filings going forward;
- (3) Emblem will begin payment of $225,000 per week in respect of current excise duties, commencing on July 7, 2023, which will total $11.7 million in annual excise duties (or averaging to $975,000 per month). The payments are to be applied to current remittances owing in respect of the June 2023 excise duty return which is due to be filed by end of July 2023. Any additional amounts will be applied to arrears of excise duties, starting with the oldest liabilities;
- (4) Emblem will offer a collateral charge to the CRA in respect of the enclosed real property (see attached PIN); and
- (5) Assuming that the Proposed Transaction is closed, Emblem will return with a definitive payment plan for the CRA arrears outstanding as of October 31, 2023, by no later than November 30, 2023.

The above arrangement is the best that the parties can offer at this moment in time, given the fact that RWB is in the process of acquiring Aleafia.

We look forward to your response in respect of this proposal. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Yours truly,

AIRD & BERLIS LLP

CEWS Audit Adjustments

Case Number 96419341

Based on our review of Emblem Cannabis Corporation's CEWS applications and the information you provided to us during the audit process, we are proceeding to make the following audit adjustments to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's CEWS claim amounts for the qualifying periods shown below per the applicable payroll account number as indicated.

Payroll Account Number: 850708975RP0001

1. CEWS claimed for ineligible employees

Emblem Cannabis Corporation (ECC) included the employees of the entire affiliated group in its CEWS claims. Under subsection 125.7(2), the CEWS is to be calculated for the eligible employees of each qualifying entity. Per the definition of eligible employee in subsection 125.7(1), eligible employees of an eligible entity must be employed by that eligible entity. Since the employees of the other entities in the group were not employed by ECC, the portion of the claims that relates to employees of other entities in the group must be disallowed.

Claim period	CEWS Allowed (ECC employees)	CEWS Disallowed (non-ECC employees)

I. MATERIAL FACTS

Background

In or around December 2018, Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX:AH) acquired Emblem Cannabis Corporation by way of a plan of arrangement under the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Emblem Cannabis Corporation (“ECC” or the “Corporation”) and its affiliates are a Canadian medical cannabis industry leader.

CEWS Applications 1 to 3 and 5 to 11

ECC is an eligible entity for CEWS purposes pursuant to 125.7(1) of the Act.

ECC is part of an affiliated group of eligible entities pursuant to paragraph 125.7(4)(b) of the Act.

The members of the affiliated group of eligible entities are:

- Emblem
- Canabo Medical Corp.
- Aleafia Farms
- Aleafia Inc.
- GrowWise

ECC timely filed the foregoing ten applications in issue on behalf of itself and each member of the affiliated group of eligible entities.

Two CRA Representatives called the Corporation prior to accepting or releasing payment on any of the CEWS applications.

In particular, in or around February 2021, the then CFO of ECC, Benjamin Ferdinand, was called by CRA representatives on two separate occasions to discuss the submitted CEWS applications and the delta in the number of ECC employees, which was explained by virtue of ECC recently being acquired by Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX: AH) and the aggregate headcount from the affiliated group of eligible entities; on those calls, it was communicated to the CRA Representatives that the submitted CEWS applications by ECC included ECC and affiliated group of eligible entity employees, combined.

At no time during these calls did the CRA representatives indicate that each eligible entity had an independent filing obligation on behalf of its corresponding eligible employees.

CEWS Audit

In a March 9, 2023 submission by ECC, it was conceded that: We understand from the CRA's audit decision that the CEWS is to be calculated based on eligible employees of each qualifying entity and filed by each qualifying entity. We acknowledge that employees of the other entities in the group were not employed by ECC and should have been filed under each separate legal entity.

On audit, all calculations for each member of the affiliated group of eligible entities was broken down for each of the ten CEWS qualifying periods at issue.

The Corporation makes no further factual submissions.

II. ISSUE

The issue is as follows:

1. Whether the Notice of Determination properly adjusted the number of eligible employees for ECC and its affiliated group of eligible entities for the 1 to 3 and 5 to 11 CEWS qualifying periods.

III. ANALYSIS

Substantive Argument #1: Honest Mistake

The Determination and Notice of Objection arise on account of an honest mistake.

Here, the Corporation conceded its filing error – filing globally on behalf of its affiliates rather than on an eligible-entity-by-eligible-entity basis – during the CEWS audit.

The context of the Corporation's filing error was in the context of dynamic, emergency legislative changes at the outset of covid-19.

Consider, on April 11, 2020, The Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy was enacted by Bill C-14: A Second Act respecting certain measures in response to covid-19 for Periods 1 to 3.

July 27, 2020, Bill C-20 extended the CEWS for Periods 4 to 9.

November 19, 2020, Bill C-9 extended the CEWS for Periods 10 to 16.

June 29, 2021, Bill C-30 extended the CEWS for Periods 17 to 20.

Suffice it to say, CEWS eligibility criteria in respect of qualifying revenue decline tests and subsidy rates and top-ups and related information were constantly changing.

Presumably, in recognition of the dynamic crisis environment of the legislative pronouncements, CRA's website stated the following on Canada.ca under Who can apply:

Confirming your eligibility

If we notice a mistake in your application, we will work with you to correct it. If you realize you made a mistake in your application, you can request a change to your previous claim

We will review your claim and confirm the information you submit.

[emphasis in original]

Moreover, on August 6, 2020, the CRA provided the following update of CEWS audit activities on canada.ca under "Collections, Audits, Objections, and Appeals":

[T]he CRA has started working on the post-payment audit program for the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS). Audits under this program will begin this summer, and they will focus on CEWS applications made for periods one to four. Risk assessment tools and random sampling methodology will be used to select a range of files for this phase of the audit program. The CRA will use results from this phase to identify types and levels of non-compliance with CEWS legislation. These findings will inform future CEWS audit strategies which will be launched in the fall of 2020. It is important to note that the CRA is not looking to punish businesses who have made an honest mistake in their application, but to detect and address instances of deliberate non-compliance.

[emphasis added]

Contrary to the CRA's published position, this Determination punishes the Corporation despite the employees of the Corporation and its affiliates eligibility for CEWS.

Substantive Argument #2: CEWS Adjustments Between RP Accounts

The Corporation submits that in analogous cases to the instant case the CRA has interpreted the legislation in favour of the CEWS applicant.

The Corporation submits that overpayments reconciled between a group of affiliated eligible entities should be accorded the same treatment as multiple RP-accounts of a single eligible entity.

Reference is made to Questions 2(a) and (b) of CRA Views 2022-094139117: (Re)determination of section 125.7 applications.

Part of the answer to Question 2(a) stated as follows:

Therefore, in our view, an eligible entity that files separate section 125.7 applications on a RP-account basis that aggregate to an overall deemed overpayment for a qualifying period, rather than one single wage subsidy application for the qualifying period, should be considered to have made an application for the qualifying period in the prescribed form and manner as required by paragraph (a) of the definition “qualifying entity”.

The Corporation submits that its filing error is a variant on the above multiple RP-account application guidance which the Minister accepts and should therefore be accorded the same treatment and / or administrative relief. To wit, the Minister would reconcile an overpayment between multiple RP-account CEWS applications within one eligible entity. Here, the overpayment is a function of one eligible entity filing on behalf of its affiliates (as opposed to multiple RP-accounts), and, accordingly, the overpayment should be allowed, as above.

Substantive Argument #3: Agency Relationship

In the alternative, ECC was in an implied agency-principal relationship on behalf of a group of affiliated eligible entities.

In Lohas Farm Inc. v. R. 2019 TCC 197, at paragraph 64, Justice D’Auray references the leading text on agency as follows:

In the leading textbook on agency, Canadian Agency Law, G.H.L. Fridman discusses the creation of an agency relationship by implied contract in these terms:

As with other contracts, the agency relationship may be impliedly created by the conduct of the parties, without anything having been expressly agreed as to terms of employment, remuneration, etc

.... The assent of the agent may be implied from the fact that he has acted intentionally on another's behalf. In general, however, it will be the assent of the principal which is more likely to be implied.... Such assent may be implied where the circumstances clearly indicate that the principal has given authority to another to act on his behalf. This may be so even if the principal did not know the true state of affairs. Mere silence will be insufficient. There must be some course of conduct to indicate the acceptance of the agency relationship. The effect of such an implication is to put the parties in the same position as if the agency had been expressly created.

The Minister’s position with respect to implied agency relationships is set out in the guidance as follows:

The views of the Canada Revenue Agency in respect of implied agency relationships are similar and are set out set out in Policy Statement P-182R:

Agency exists where one person (the principal) authorizes another person (the agent) to represent it and take certain actions on its behalf. The authority granted by the principal may be express or implied. In other words, an agency relationship may be created where one person explicitly consents to having another act on its behalf or behaves in such a way that consent is implied....

While two parties may agree that one party is to act as agent with respect to transactions undertaken on behalf of the other party, the absence of such an agreement is not sufficient to conclude that an agency relationship does not exist.

Although the intention of the parties is an important determinant of the nature of the relationship between the parties, case law supports the possibility that two parties may be engaged in an agency relationship without even being aware of it, provided their actions indicate that one party is acting as agent on behalf of another. In other words, agency is generally evident from the conduct of the parties.

Having regard to the above, Justice D'Auray quotes Justice Dawson from the Federal Court of Appeal in the decision of Club Intrawest setting out the components of an agency relationship as follows:

With respect to agency relationships generally, citing Royal Securities Corporation Ltd. v. Montréal Trust Co. et al., [1967] 1 O.R. 137 at page 155, [1996] O.J. No. 1078 at paragraph 55; aff'd [1967] 2 O.R. 200, [1967] O.J. No. 997 (Ont. C.A.), the Tax Court correctly noted that the three generally accepted components of an agency relationship are:

- i. Both the principal and the agent consent to the agency relationship.
- ii. The principal grants authority to the agent allowing the agent to affect the principal's legal position.
- iii. The principal controls the agent's actions.

It is self-evident that all three elements of the agency relationship are met in the instant case.

Accordingly, the CRA should respect the commercial relationship between ECC and the group of affiliated entities and allow the ten CEWS applications, as filed.

Substantive Argument #4: Extension of Time for Members of Affiliated Group of Eligible Entities

In parallel to the herein appeals process, the members of ECC's affiliated group of eligible entities will file requests for extensions of time to file CEWS applications pursuant to subsections 125.7(16) corresponding to the disallowed amount pursuant to the Determination.

IV. RELIEF SOUGHT

The Corporation requests that:

- a) This Notice of Objection be accepted and the foregoing Notice of Determination be varied or vacated;

- b) The Minister exercise her discretionary authority to grant an extension of time pursuant to subsection 125.7(16) for the affiliated group of eligible entities to file CEWS applications for the corresponding eligible employees;
- c) Such further or other grounds or relief within the Act that the Minister deems just.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

2. Many of the cannabis products sold by the Defendants were sold to consumers in containers using plastic bottles or caps that may have rapidly absorbed or degraded the THC or CBD content within them. Consumers purchasing such products consequently purchased products that had significantly lower THC or CBD than the Defendants led them to believe they contained. By over-representing the true amount of THC or CBD in the products, consumers had to either consume substantially more product than they should have in order to obtain the desired effects or, in the alternative, simply consumed the product without obtaining as significant, or any, of the desired effects. Consumers, in such cases, did not receive what the Defendants' labelling stated that they would receive and the Defendants benefited from this at the expense of the consumers.

3. Other cannabis products were sold to Canadian consumers with THC or CBD content that may have been significantly and materially higher than the amount stated on the product's label. By underrepresenting the true amount of THC or CBD, consumers may have experienced unwanted effects and been placed in significant physical or mental danger.

4. The Plaintiff, on behalf of the proposed class, seeks recovery of the money the Class members spent purchasing the Defendants' products that did not contain what they were advertised to contain. The Plaintiff also seeks compensatory damages for those who suffered physical or mental injuries as a result of the Defendants' mislabeling of their products. The Plaintiff, in addition or in the alternative, seeks a disgorgement of the profits that the Defendants wrongfully made off of the Class by misrepresenting the THC and CBD content in their products.

Tilray, High Park and/or Tilrayco individually or collectively manufactured, promoted and distributed the Subject Product, as defined herein, ultimately acquired by the Plaintiff. THE PROPOSED CLASS MEMBERS

14. This action is brought on behalf of the Plaintiff and other persons resident in Canada who purchased cannabis products that were manufactured, sold, promoted, or distributed by the Defendants, and consumed prior to the labelled expiry date of such products (if any):

- a. On or after June 16, 2010, if such products were used for medicinal purposes; or
- b. On or after October 17, 2018, if such products were used for recreational purposes.

(the “Class” and the “Class period”)

LEGAL STATUS AND REGULATION OF CANNABIS PRODUCT LABELLING IN CANADA

15. Prior to 2001, cannabis was a Schedule II controlled substance under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, SC 1996, c. 19 and possession or distribution of cannabis was a criminal offence.

16. In 2001, the Government of Canada provided regulatory changes to Canada's Controlled Drugs and Substances Act through the Access to Cannabis for Medical Purposes Regulations, SOR/2001-227. These regulations allowed individuals to purchase and use cannabis products for medicinal purposes if they obtained prescriptions from medical practitioners. Cannabis distribution was permitted only to those persons with valid medical prescriptions; otherwise, cannabis remained a controlled substance and subject to criminal penalties under Schedule II of the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act.

17. On October 17, 2018, the Government of Canada legalized possession and distribution of cannabis products through the Cannabis Act, SC 2018, c 16 by removing cannabis as a Schedule II controlled substance under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act.

18. Amongst other things, the Cannabis Act prohibits the promotion of cannabis products in a manner that is false, misleading, or deceptive, or in a manner that creates a false impression about its composition, characteristics, potency, purity, or quality. Cannabis may not be packaged or labelled with information that is false, misleading, or deceptive, including information about the characteristics, quantity, composition, concentration, potency, purity, or quality of the product. Correct labelling of cannabis products is important for the safety and well-being of consumers, as well as for protecting the public.

19. Cannabis manufacturing, sale, promotion, and distribution is subject to provincial and federal regulatory oversight; however, all cannabis promotion and labelling is subject to the minimum requirements set out in the Federal Cannabis Act.

20. The Defendants are holders of Federal licenses for processing cannabis and are regulated under the Federal Cannabis Regulations, SOR/2018-144. The Cannabis Regulations require a cannabis licence holder to label their cannabis products with THC and CBD amounts and test every lot of cannabis to confirm the quantity or concentration of THC or CBD is accurate prior to the packaging and labelling the product. Each cannabis product distributed in Canada must be labelled with the name of the manufacturer and the manufacturer's lot number.

21. The Cannabis Regulations require that a cannabis license holder, amongst other things, ensure that every lot or batch of cannabis is approved by a quality assurance person before being made available for sale.

22. Section 97 of the Cannabis Regulations set out variability limits for cannabis products. These provide that the product described by cannabis labelling must not contain any quantity or concentration of THC or CBD that is more than 15% different than what is provided on the label. The concentration or quantity of THC or CBD in a product distributed to consumers must therefore contain no less than 85% and no more than 115% of the THC or CBD provided on the label. In cases where the THC or CBD advertised is an edible or is divisible into discrete units, variability limits of up to 25% are permitted, but only if the amount labelled is less than 2 mg.

23. All individual cannabis products distributed in Canada may, under the Cannabis Regulations, be labelled with an expiry date that the manufacturer, using product data, has determined is appropriate. As of that expiry date, the cannabis product must maintain no less than 80% and no more than 120% of its THC and CBD content, if the product is dried cannabis or fresh cannabis. Cannabis extract or a cannabis topical must not have larger variability limits than those set out in section 97 of the Cannabis Regulations as of the expiry date on the product's label. A licence holder must retain documentation confirming which data was relied upon to establish an expiry date for a lot of cannabis products. This documentation must be retained for at least two years after the last sale or distribution of any lot or batch of the cannabis product.

24. The provisions of the Cannabis Act and the Cannabis Regulations are mandatory minimums that Canadian cannabis users rely upon to ensure that the products they consume are safe and predictable. Canadians who choose to purchase and consume cannabis do so trusting that these minimum standards are followed by cannabis manufacturers, promoters, distributors, and sellers.

PLAINTIFF'S EXPERIENCE

25. On or around February 13, 2020, the Plaintiff attended the retail business of Canna Cabana in Calgary, Alberta, located at #610, 20 Crowfoot Crescent NW and purchased a 28.2 g (30 mL) bottle of cannabis product manufactured and distributed by Tilray under the brand Canaca – TenUp (10:0), with a manufacturer's listed lot number of N0000005915, and a labelled THC content of 10.4 mg/mL, as well as a labelled CBD content of <0.1 mg/ml (the "Subject Product"). The name of the product (TenUp 10:0) suggests that the product is supposed to contain 10 mg/mL of THC and no mg/mL of CBD. The cost of the bottle was approximately $36. The Subject Product was packaged on February 3, 2019 and did not have an expiry date. The labelling of the Subject Product is provided below:

26. The Plaintiff had not previously used cannabis and was curious about it. While at Canna Cabana she spoke with the staff and was recommended to try the Subject Product as a first-time user. She was warned that if she overdid the dosage she could experience negative health effects including, in particular, a common phenomenon known as “greening out” that leads a cannabis user, amongst other things, to experience severe nausea, dizziness, or feelings of anxiety.

27. After ingesting the Subject Product, the Plaintiff did not notice any psychotropic effects whatsoever. The Plaintiff tried the Subject Product four times over a roughly one month period, gradually, and anxiously, increasing the dosage. She continued to have no psychotropic effects and did not feel any other well-known “side effects” – such as feelings of sleepiness.

28. Not knowing what to expect, the Plaintiff spoke with a friend of hers, Dr. Darren Clark, who has a PhD, a strong scientific background, and is familiar with cannabis. Dr. Clark explained that the Plaintiff should have felt the effects from consuming the Subject Product in the amounts recommended by the staff at Canna Cabana. Dr. Clark tried the Subject Product herself, and also failed to notice any effects.

29. As neither the Plaintiff nor Dr. Clark felt any effects of the Subject Product, Dr. Clark became suspicious about the integrity of the Subject Product. Dr. Clark had heard that plastic can liners could leech cannabinoids from beverages in studies completed in the United States. She suspected that a similar issue could have affected the Subject Product, which was sold in a plastic vial with a plastic lid.

30. Suspecting that the Subject Product was defective, Dr. Clark spoke with Dr. Shaun Mesher, a colleague of hers who had a PhD in biochemistry, and he agreed that the Subject Product may have integrity issues, based on Dr. Clark's and the Plaintiff's experience, as well as the plastic vial in which the Subject Product was stored. Dr. Mesher arranged to have the Subject Product sent to a laboratory for testing.

31. After laboratory testing, it was discovered that the Subject Product only had 46% of the labelled amount of active THC in the oil. A different bottle from the same Tilray lot number of the Subject Product, but that was packaged on March 2, 2019, was subsequently tested. The testing revealed that the bottle had 79% of the THC listed on the label in the oil, representing a very wide range of variance between different bottles ostensibly from the same lot. The Subject Product and the other product tested were also both well outside of the generous variability limits provided in the Cannabis Regulations.

32. Dr. Mesher investigated the striking mislabelling and lot variability further, sending a number of cannabis samples from other cannabis products to the laboratory for testing. The results were surprising. A significant number of the samples sent for testing were outside the variability limits provided for under the Cannabis Regulations, including the following samples:

- a. Edison Cannabis Co., (an Organigram or Organigramco product), lot number 3140. This had an advertised THC potency of 10.4 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of only 7.36 mg/ml (71% of the labelled amount).
- b. Northern Harvest, lot number A36501-925. This had an advertised THC potency of 19.89 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of only 12.81 mg/ml (64% of the labelled amount).
- c. Cove (a Cronos or Cronosco product) – Reflect Hybrid, lot number 0297E. This had an advertised THC potency of 18 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of 21.16 mg/ml (118% more than the labelled amount).
- d. MediPharm Labs, lot number 19ABQ-01F. This had an advertised THC potency of 24.5 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of 29.04 mg/ml (119% more than the labelled amount).
- e. AgMedica Bioscience – Vertical, lot number INC-02-19192-01. This had an advertised THC potency of 20.64 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of only 9.8 mg/ml (54% of the labelled amount).

- f. Aurora Sativa Drops, lot number 1102019000120. This had an advertised THC potency of 24.7 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have THC potency of only 13.37 mg/ml (54% of the labelled amount).
- g. Organigram – Edison, lot number 5111. This had an advertised CBD potency of 9.69 mg/ml but on testing was revealed to have CBD potency of only 5 mg/ml (52% of the labelled amount).

THE DEFENDANTS' FALSE AND MISLEADING LABELLING OF CANNABIS PRODUCTS

33. The Plaintiff, on the basis of the information she obtained from Dr. Mesher's testing, believes that there is a pervasive mislabelling of cannabis products in the Canadian market.

34. During the Class period, the Defendants manufactured and distributed cannabis products with labels that are false or misleading – with a significant portion of these products being sold to consumers with THC or CBD quantities that were well outside of the variability limits allowed for by the Cannabis Regulations. Consequently, the Class purchased and consumed products that, in a significant number of cases, contained either much more or much less THC or CBD than they intended to consume.

35. Only a small fraction of the cannabis products purchased by the Class are subject to Health Canada recalls. During the Class period the Defendants have routinely and systemically failed properly to label their cannabis products, resulting in pervasive overdosing and underdosing of THC or CBD by consumers.

36. None of the samples listed at paragraph 38 above were recalled by Health Canada.

37. The Class members otherwise have received no notice that the THC or CBD quantities in the cannabis products that they purchased and consumed were mislabelled by the Defendants. Even when Health Canada recalls of the Class members' cannabis products were issued to warn of mislabelling, these recalls were often only received after the Class had consumed the Defendants' cannabis products.

BREACH OF CONTRACT AND BREACH OF CONSUMER PROTECTION LEGISLATION

38. The Defendants, or some of them, are or were sellers of consumer goods. The Plaintiff and the Class purchased cannabis products from the Defendants under contracts of purchase and sale – including, in particular, by online purchases from the Defendants' respective websites.

Sale not in Accordance with the Product's Description

39. The Plaintiff and the Class relied upon the implied condition in a consumer contract that goods sold by description will correspond to that description, as set out in the following provincial and territorial Sale of Goods Acts, including:

- a. Sale of Goods Act, RSBC 1996, c 410, s 17(1);
- b. Sale of Goods Act, RSA 2000, c S-02, s 15;
- c. Sale of Goods Act, RSS 1978, c S-1, s 15;
- d. Sale of Goods Act, CCSM, c S.10, s 15;
- e. Sale of Goods Act, RSO 1990, c S.1, s 14;
- f. Sale of Goods Act, RSNB 1973, c S-1, s 15;
- g. Sale of Goods Act, RSNS 1989, c 408, s 16;
- h. Sale of Goods Act, RSPFI 1988, c S-1, s 15;
- i. Sale of Goods Act, RSNL 1990, c S-6, s 15(1);
- j. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988, c S-2, s 17(a);
- k. Sale of Goods Act, RSY 2002, c 1987, s 15(b);
- l. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988, c S-2, s 17(a); and
- m. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988 (Nu), c S-2, s 17(a).

40. The Defendants breached the condition that the actual items provided to the Class would correspond with the description of the cannabis product provided to them, including, in particular, the quantity of THC and CBD expected and, consequently, the Class did not receive the benefit of the contract that they intended.

Products were not of Merchantable Quality

41. An implied statutory term of the contracts between the Defendants and the Class members was that the cannabis products would be of merchantable quality and fit for their intended purpose, as set out in the following provincial and territorial Sale of Goods Acts:

- a. Sale of Goods Act, RSBC 1996, c 410, s 18(b);
- b. Sale of Goods Act, RSA 2000, c S-02, s 16(4);
- c. Sale of Goods Act, RSS 1978, c S-1, s 16.2;
- d. Sale of Goods Act, CCSM, c S.10, s 16(b);
- e. Sale of Goods Act, RSO 1990, c S.1, s 15.2;

- f. Sale of Goods Act, RSNB 1973, c S-1, s 15;
- g. Sale of Goods Act, RSNS 1989, c 408, s 17(b);
- h. Sale of Goods Act, RSPEI 1988, c S-1, s 16(b);
- i. Sale of Goods Act, RSNL 1990, c S-6, s 16(c);
- j. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988, c S-2, s 18(1)(b);
- k. Sale of Goods Act, RSY 2002, c 1987, s 15(b);
- l. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988, c S-2, s 18(1)(b); and
- m. Sale of Goods Act, RSNWT 1988 (Nu), c S-2, s 18(1)(b).

42. The Defendants warranted to the Class that their cannabis products would be as advertised and fit for their intended purpose.

43. Cannabis products that contain THC or CBD quantities that are significantly above or below their labelled amounts are not of merchantable quality and are not fit for their intended purpose – whether for medicinal or recreational use. Consequently, the Defendants breached their implied warranty to the Class and deprived the Class of the benefit of the contract that they intended.

COMMON LAW MISREPRESENTATION

44. The Defendants owed a duty to the Class to ensure that representations made about their cannabis products were accurate and not misleading.

45. The Defendants knew, or ought to have known through reasonable diligence, that the representations they made about the THC or CBD quantities on their cannabis products on the products' labels were inaccurate or misleading.

46. The Class members reasonably relied upon the representations made by the Defendants as to the quantities of THC or CBD in the Defendants' cannabis products – including, in particular, by reasonably expecting that the Defendants would comply with the statutory and regulatory requirements governing cannabis labelling as set out in the Cannabis Act and the Cannabis Regulations.

47. The Defendants knew, or ought to have known, that the Class members would rely upon their labelling when making consumer decisions about which cannabis products to purchase and how much of such products they would consume at any given time.

48. The Class members could not with reasonable diligence determine the actual THC or CBD levels in the Defendants' cannabis products and detrimentally relied upon the Defendants' representations made about their products on the product labelling. The Class members, if they knew of the Defendants' misrepresentations would either have not purchased the Defendants' products or would have consumed the products differently.

49. The Defendants financially benefitted from their misrepresentations at the expense of the Class members.

STATUTORY MISREPRESENTATION CLAIMS AND CONSUMER PROTECTION LEGISLATION

50. The Defendants were under statutory obligations in accordance with consumer protection legislation, including in the Province of Alberta, not to engage in unfair or deceptive business practices, including an obligation not to materially mislead Class members when marketing, promoting, selling, or advertising their cannabis products.

51. Specifically, the Defendants marketed, promoted, sold, or advertised cannabis products that represented quantities of THC or CBD that were materially different from the actual quantities of THC or CBD in the cannabis products purchased by the Class members.

52. By engaging in such unfair or deceptive business practices, the Defendants breached their statutory obligations under consumer protection legislation, including the following:

- a. Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act, SBC 2004, c 2, ss 4-5;
- b. Consumer Protection Act, RSA 2000, c C-26.3, s 6(4);
- c. Consumer Protection and Business Practices Act, SS, c C-30.2, ss 6-8;
- d. Business Practices Act, CCSM, c B120, ss 2, 3, and 5;
- e. Consumer Protection Act, SO 2002, c 30, ss 14 and 17;
- f. Business Practices Act, RSPEI 1988, c B-7, ss 2 and 3; and
- g. Consumer Protection and Business Practices Act, SNL 2009, c C-31.1, s 7 and 9.

53. The Plaintiff claims on her own behalf, and on behalf of the Class if they so elect, a right to rescind her contract with the Defendants and for the return of the value of the cannabis products purchased as a result of the Defendants' unfair or deceptive business practices.

BREACH OF COMPETITION ACT

54. The representations made by the Defendants about the quantities of THC and CBD on their cannabis products' labels are false or misleading in a material respect based both on the literal meaning and the general impression conveyed by the representations.

BREACH OF DUTY TO WARN

60. The Defendants, as manufacturers or distributors of a potentially dangerous product, owed a duty to the Class to warn them if their products were mislabelled and to complete recalls of all such products if they were mislabelled by an appreciable amount. The risk to the Class members of mislabelling of THC or CBD content in cannabis products includes a real risk of serious physical injury or even death.

61. The Defendants breached their duty to warn the Class by:

- a. Failing to correct the mislabelling in a timely manner, if the mislabelling was corrected at all;
- b. Failing to warn Class members through a notification through Health Canada advising that the labelling of their cannabis products was or could be inaccurate;
- c. Failing to communicate to the Class the existence of potentially mislabelled cannabis products through their websites or other means reasonably likely to reach the Class members;
- d. In the event that mislabelling was communicated to the Class members, by failing to advise of the extent of the mislabelling; and
- e. Such other particulars of a breach of the duty to warn as may become apparent and counsel may advise.

62. The Defendants knew, or ought to have known, that if they did not adequately warn the Class of the dangers of mislabelled products that the Class could suffer damages, as particularized below:

DAMAGES CAUSED BY THE DEFENDANTS' MISLABELLING OF CANNABIS PRODUCTS

63. The health consequences of overconsuming cannabis as a result of an underreported labelling of THC can be very serious. THC overdoses can cause a number of health conditions, including:

- a. Extreme anxiety or panic attacks;
- b. Psychotic reactions leading to a loss of touch with reality, paranoia, hallucinations, delusions, or a loss of personal identity;
- c. Heart conditions, including an elevated heart rate, chest pain, or a heart attack;
- d. Uncontrollable shaking or seizures;
- e. High blood pressure;
- f. Serious and prolonged headaches;
- g. Impaired brain development (particularly in those under the age of 21).

- b. Magnification of the symptoms of alcohol consumption or adversely interacting with other drugs, including prescription medications, with potentially lethal consequences; and
- i. Decreased judgment, perception and coordination that can lead to serious injuries or even death.

64. A significant consequence of the Defendants' mislabelling of the THC or CBD content in their cannabis products is the creation of confusion as to what the appropriate quantity of THC or CBD consumption is for that individual consumer. Over time, consumers calibrate their THC or CBD use based upon previous experiences. In order properly to calibrate this usage, they rely upon accurate THC and CBD labelling. If there is a significant discrepancy between the labelled amount and the consumed amount, the consumer will mistakenly calibrate his or her usage to that amount. This is particularly dangerous when the amount of THC or CBD consumed is significantly overreported on the label as the consumer will then expect to be able to consume a significantly larger portion of THC or CBD in the future without an adverse reaction. This can lead to future overdoses even though the amount consumed at a particular time was actually a much smaller dose. It may also lead to the consumer purchasing much more cannabis than he or she requires in the future.

65. In addition, consumers that purchase cannabis products with THC or CBD that are overreported obtain a "watered-down" product at full price, potentially requiring them to purchase additional quantities to obtain the intended effect.

66. The Class members suffered some or all of the above noted damages as a direct result of the actions of the Defendants in mislabelling and misrepresenting the THC or CBD quantities in their cannabis products.

UNJUST ENRICHMENT

67. The Defendants were unjustly enriched by their conduct as set out above, including conduct that was in breach of sale of goods legislation, consumer protection legislation, the Competition Act, the Cannabis Act, and other applicable statutory and common law.

68. The Defendants were enriched by financially profiting from the sale of goods that the Class members would not have purchased but for the misleading representations of the Defendants. The Class members suffered a financial deprivation corresponding to the Defendants' enrichment and there was no juristic reason for the Defendants' enrichment and the Class members' corresponding deprivation.

69. The Class members are entitled to a remedy in the form of restitution or disgorgement of the profits the Defendants earned as a result of their illicit actions.

WAIVER OF TORT

70. In the alternative, the Plaintiff and the Class members claim disgorgement of the benefits received by the Defendants in accordance with the doctrine of waiver of tort – including a disgorgement of all ill-gotten profits made by the Defendants as a result of their wrongdoing, as described above.

71. The Defendants benefitted from their wrongdoing, including through their misleading labelling of THC and CBD content in their cannabis products, and benefitted from the increased profits as a result of this misleading labelling.

72. The Defendants should not be permitted to retain the profits derived from their wrongdoing and an award of compensatory damages alone to the Class members would not deter the Defendants from future misconduct.

PUNITIVE DAMAGES

73. The wrongful acts committed by the Defendants are of such a reprehensible nature as to warrant an award of aggravated and/or punitive damages. The wrongful acts committed by the Defendants were malicious and reprehensible and depart to a marked degree from the standards expected of manufacturers and distributors of consumer goods. The Defendants, in particular, demonstrated indifference to the potential danger to the lives of the Class members through the mislabelling of their products. The Defendants knew that their mislabelling could have serious repercussions for the Class and took few, if any, steps to protect the Class or warn them of the danger they faced. They did so in order to protect their profits and avoid product recalls.

74. Aggravated and punitive damages are appropriate in order to deter the Defendants, or those similarly situated, from taking such wrongful actions in the future.

- d. Many of the causes of action in this claim are governed by the laws of Alberta; and

- e. The Plaintiff's damages, and the damages suffered by many of the Class members, were suffered in Alberta.

 - d. Punitive damages in the amount of $5,000,000 against each of the Defendants;
 - e. Interest pursuant to the Judgment Interest Act, RSA 2000, c. J-1;

THE PARTIES

2. The Plaintiff, Wellbeing, formerly known as Myconic Capital Corp. (“Myconic”), is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of British Columbia with its registered head office in Vancouver, British Columbia. Wellbeing is a wellness company focused on ketamine assisted therapy, digital therapeutics, and psychedelic medicines. Wellbeing is a North American leader in mental health treatment. Wellbeing operates healthcare clinics across Canada and the United States.

3. The Defendant, Aleafia, is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Ontario with its registered head office in Concord, Ontario. Aleafia provides medical cannabis care through nationwide clinics, distribution facilities, and research.

4. The Defendant, Canabo, is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the federal laws of Canada with its registered head office in Vaughan, Ontario. Canabo provides a variety of services across a network of cannabis health and wellness providers, including Canabo's nationwide network of cannabis clinics. Canabo is a wholly owned subsidiary of Aleafia.

5. The Defendant, GrowWise is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Ontario with its registered head office in Concord, Ontario. GrowWise provides patients and healthcare providers with personalized education about medical cannabis treatments. GrowWise is a wholly owned subsidiary of Aleafia.

6. Prior to the APA, defined below, Canabo and GrowWise carried on the operation of medical clinics (the "Clinics" and each a "Clinic") for evaluating the suitability of, and prescribing and monitoring treatments of, and offering education in respect of cannabinoid and synthetic cannabinoid and related medical research and studies (the "Business").

THE RELEVANT AGREEMENTS

a. The Asset Purchase Agreement

7. In or about December 2020, Myconic, Canabo, and GrowWise (the "Contracting Parties") contemplated entering into an asset purchase agreement whereby Myconic would acquire certain assets relating to the Business, including specifically the operation of the Clinics. Together, Canabo and GrowWise will hereinafter be referred to collectively as the "Vendors".

8. As part of the negotiations surrounding the contemplated transaction, the Defendants provided Myconic with certain historical financial data together with related documentation (the "Financial Disclosures"). The Defendants represented that the Financial Disclosures fairly presented the financial condition and operating results of the Vendors as of the dates, and for the periods, indicated therein. The Defendants further represented there had been no material adverse change in the financial position provided for in the Financial Disclosures. In fact, in the course of the negotiations, Aleafia's Chief Financial Officer advised that the expenses reflected in the Financial Disclosures were based on all Clinics being open, and that there would be cost savings going forward in light of the closure of Clinics related to government-mandated COVID protocols.

9. In addition to the Financial Disclosures, the Defendants represented that:

- (a) the largest projected source of revenue for the Clinics was a ketamine-based treatment for clinical depression (the "Ketamine Representations"); and
- (b) at least three of the Clinics (and the doctors at those Clinics) had been certified by the product manufacturer, Janssen Pharmaceuticals ("Janssen"), to administer its ketamine-based antidepressant, Spravato (the "Spravato Representations").

10. Myconic relied on the accuracy of the Financial Disclosures, the Ketamine Representations and the Spravato Representations, and those representations formed the basis of Myconic's valuation of the Business. As such, the representations made by Aleafia, Canabo and GrowWise were all material inducements that led Myconic to enter into the contemplated transactions.

11. On or about April 30, 2021, Myconic, Canabo and GrowWise entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA") to facilitate and carry out the contemplated transaction (the "Transaction"). At all material times during and after the Contracting Parties entered into the APA, Aleafia was directly involved and in the process and was the primary party negotiating on behalf of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Vendors. The purchase price was $10,500,000.00, paid and satisfied by the issuance of 7,000,000 common shares in the capital of Wellbeing at a price of $1.50 per common share (the “Purchase Price”). The closing date of the APA was April 30, 2021 (the “Closing Date”).

12. In the APA, the Vendors made certain representations, warranties, and covenants, including, among others, the following:

- (a) Article 2.1 acknowledges Myconic, or the “Purchaser”, relies on the accuracy of each representation and warranty made by the Vendors in connection with the Transaction. Pursuant to Article 2.1, the Vendors represent and warrant to the Purchaser:

[a]s a material inducement to the Purchaser entering into [the APA] and completing the transactions contemplated by [the APA] and acknowledging that the Purchaser is entering into this Agreement in reliance upon the representations and warranties set out in this Section 2.1. [Emphasis added.]

- (b) Article 2.1(4) contemplated, among other things, the Financial Disclosures. Namely, pursuant to Article 2.1(4) (Books and Records) the Vendors:

...made available to the Purchaser all books and records material to the operation of the Business, including all books of account and other financial data and information and all business records and information, whether in paper form or stored electronically, digitally or on computer-related media. All material financial transactions of the Business have been accurately recorded in the financial records of the Business in accordance with sound business and financial practice and such financial records accurately reflect the basis for the financial condition and the revenues, expenses and results of operations of the Business as of and to the date hereof. [Emphasis added],

(the “Books and Records Representation”). In Schedule 1.0 of the APA, “Business” is defined as:

the business carried on at the Clinics being the operation of medical clinics for evaluating the suitability of, and prescribing and monitoring treatments of, and offering education in respect of, cannabinoid and synthetic cannabinoid products and related medical research and studies.

- (c) Pursuant to Article 3.2, which sets out the “Purchaser’s Conditions”, subsection (1), the “representations and warranties of the Vendors in Section 2.1 shall be true and correct at the Closing [Date].”

13. The Contracting Parties recognized Articles 2.1 and 3.2 in their entirety as fundamental to the Transaction and execution of the APA.

14. A further implied term of the APA was that the Contracting Parties would exercise their rights and perform their obligations under the APA honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

b. The Licence Agreement

15. On or about May 10, 2021, in connection to the APA, the Contracting Parties entered into a Clinic Services and Licence Agreement (the “Licence Agreement”). As with the APA, at all material times during and after the Contracting Parties entered into the Licence Agreement, Aleafia was directly involved and in the process and was the primary party negotiating on behalf of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Vendors.

16. The Licence Agreement provides, inter alia, the following:

- (a) Pursuant to Article 2.1, Myconic engaged Canabo to be the exclusive provider of Education Services during the Term. The Licence Agreement defines Education Services as “substantially similar to those patient education and consultation services that Canabo provided at the Clinics prior to the effective date of the APA.”

Canabo agreed to perform the Education Services in accordance with good business practices and industry standards at all times during the term of the Licence Agreement.

- (b) Pursuant to Article 3.1, Myconic granted Canabo the exclusive right and licence to use and access each Clinic and the non-exclusive right and licence to use the applicable Additional Areas and Facilities (collectively, the “Clinic Licences”). The Licence Agreement defines Additional Areas and Facilities as “in respect of each Clinic, means those: (a) additional areas reasonably necessary to facilitate the use and access of the Clinic by Canabo and the Personnel (such as parking facilities, entrances/exits, stairwells, corridors, and washrooms); and (b) utilities, facilities, equipment (including the Equipment) and other items reasonably necessary in connection with Canabo and the Personnel’s use of such Clinic.”
- (c) Pursuant to Article 3.3(2), Canabo agreed to have “sole responsibility for the direction and any evaluation of the Medical and Related Services rendered” and to have “ultimate authority and responsibility for hiring, compensation, supervision, evaluation and termination of its Personnel, and for establishing their practice and work schedules.” The Licence Agreement defined Medical and Related Services as “the provision by Doctors and, where applicable, Non-Doctor Practitioners, of professional medical and related services relating to medical cannabis during the Term and any additional services as agreed by the Parties from time to time.”
- (d) Pursuant to Article 4.2, in consideration of Canabo’s provision of the Education Services, Myconic agreed to pay Canabo a monthly fee (the “Education Fee”). The Licence Agreement defines the Education Fee as all “overhead’ costs” incurred by Canabo in the provision of the Education Services, plus 5%. Many of these overhead costs were reflected in the Financial Disclosures provided to Myconic in advance of entering into the APA and Licence Agreement.

- (e) Pursuant to Article 8.2, Myconic is entitled to terminate the Licence Agreement by way of written notice to Canabo “in the event Canabo materially defaults in the performance of any duty or obligation imposed upon it by [the Licence] Agreement, and such default shall have continued for a period of ninety (90) days” after the written notice is provided to Canabo.

17. A further implied term of the Licence Agreement was that the Contracting Parties would exercise their rights and perform their obligations under the Licence Agreement honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

THE NOTICE OF DEFAULT

18. On December 2, 2021, Aleafia delivered a Notice of Default with respect to the APA and the Licence Agreement (together, the “Agreements”) claiming Wellbeing is in default of its obligations under the Agreements (the “Notice”). Prior to sending the Notice, Aleafia had, between May and November 2021, delivered various invoices to Wellbeing with respect to the Education Fee (the “Invoices”).

19. In the Notice, Aleafia erroneously claims, inter alia, that Wellbeing owes Aleafia a total of $641,284.52 for the period ending October 31, 2021, all from the alleged expenses outlined in the Invoices (the “Claimed Amount”). The Claimed Amount from the Invoices includes numerous irregularities, including unjustifiable and inflated fees, as well as duplicated expenses.

20. On February 17, 2022, counsel for Wellbeing responded to the Notice, claiming, inter alia, that it is the Defendants who are in breach of their respective obligations under the Agreements, as further particularized herein.

THE DEFENDANTS’ CONTRACTUAL BREACHES AND MISREPRESENTATIONS

21. The Defendants have breached their obligations to Wellbeing, as particularized below. Specifically, in the months after entering into the APA and Licence Agreement (collectively, the “Agreements”), Wellbeing discovered that the Defendants made certain misrepresentations and breached other warranties and covenants in the Agreements by providing misleading Financial Disclosures, purporting to charge erroneous Education Fees, and breaching the Ketamine Representations and the Spravato Representations.

a. Numerous Billing Irregularities

22. Upon close review of the Invoices and reviewing the amounts claimed by Aleafia in the Notice, Wellbeing identified many inaccurate, unjustified, or repetitious charges. More specifically:

- (a) The Invoices listed “Rent and Facilities” as a line item. However, in the Notice, Aleafia similarly demanded some of these same lease payments with respect to certain Clinics located in Barrie and St. Johns. This demand amounted to a double accounting of the same charges. Further, in the July 2021 invoice under rent, Aleafia purported to charge $15,122.16 in adjustments for past rent, including the period before the APA closed, despite there being no basis in the APA or Licence Agreement for charging costs incurred by the Defendants prior to closing.

- (b) The Invoices reflected “Marketing” costs as a significant recurring expense. However, the Financial Disclosures did not include any such marketing costs. The Defendants provided no explanation as to why these costs appeared only after entering into the APA, particularly since there had been no change in operations that would result in a rise in these expenses (other than there being closures of numerous Clinics due to COVID restrictions).
- (c) The Invoices contained recurring charges for “Audit Fees”. As with the marketing costs, the Financial Disclosures did not include costs for audit fees. Moreover, the Defendants never provided Wellbeing with the results of any such audits.
- (d) The Invoices contained significant recurring “Consulting Fees”, which was contrary to express representation made by Aleafia prior to closing that the consulting fees in 2020 were largely non-recurring (relating to advisory, audit and legal) and could be removed for the 2021 cash flow analysis.
- (e) The Invoices included directors and officers insurance (“D&O Insurance”), despite the fact that D&O Insurance is entirely independent from the overhead costs for operating the Clinics. Wellbeing pleads and the fact is that insurance for the senior executives of Aleafia, Canabo or GrowWise relate to the Defendants’ own corporate operations, and has nothing to do with the provision of Education Services as defined in the Licence Agreement. Further, none of these insurance costs were presented in the Financial Disclosures.

(f) The Invoices included line items for “Travel, Meals and Entertainment”, despite there being no explanation of how, in the midst of the COVID-related closures of Clinics, there was any reasonable basis for incurring such costs.

23. The foregoing amounts are collectively referred to herein as the “Disputed Expenses”.

24. Wellbeing denies it owes any of the Defendants any of the Disputed Expenses.

b. The Ketamine Representations and the Spravato Representations

25. As noted above, prior to entering into the APA, Aleafia represented that Spravato was projected to be the largest source of revenue for the Clinics. Among other things, Aleafia advised Myconic that:

(a) Aleafia had already secured a relationship with Janssen to dispense Spravato in a clinic setting;

(b) Janssen had a special program for doctors and nurses called the “Janssen Journey Program”, which is required to be taken before Spravato can be administered, and that six doctors and nurses in the clinics were trained;

(c) Janssen had provided training and supplies and had inspected and approved three of the Clinics; and

(d) Aleafia had not “scripted” Spravato due to COVID-related restrictions.

26. Aleafia’s representation as to its ability to administer Spravato was a material inducement to Wellbeing in entering to the APA and Licence Agreement. The explanation for why Spravato had not at that time been administered was also a key representation.

27. Pursuant to Article 3.3(2) of the Licence Agreement, Canabo had the sole responsibility for the direction and any evaluation of the Medical and Related Services rendered pursuant to the Licence Agreement.

28. Despite these representations and obligations, only after Wellbeing entered into the APA did Aleafia advise – for the first time – that the cost, staffing and infrastructure required to offer Spravato treatments was prohibitive and would not be profitable. This admission stood in stark contrast to the representations made by Aleafia before entering into the APA as to the viability of the treatments.

29. To date, Aleafia has failed to secure a single patient or generate any revenue related to Spravato. Yet, after entering into the APA and Licence Agreement, Aleafia continued spending money on marketing Spravato (which costs were charged back to Wellbeing, as described above).

30. This was a significant misrepresentation that has led to an inflated price to Wellbeing for entering into the APA.

c. The Employment of Keith White

31. After entering into the APA, Wellbeing hired previous Aleafia employee, Keith White (“Mr. White”), as the President of Clinics for Wellbeing. In this position, Mr. White was responsible for, inter alia, the profitability of the Clinics.

32. Upon receipt of the Notice on December 2, 2021, Wellbeing discovered that Aleafia had formally engaged Mr. White as a consultant on a three-month contract after Mr. White was engaged with Wellbeing.

33. In his consulting capacity for Aleafia, Mr. White was similarly charged with monitoring Clinic costs (including approving the Invoices), improving efficiencies, and deciding Clinic locations, which put Mr. White in a clear conflict of his duties to Wellbeing. Aleafia did this knowingly, and without regard to the issues this created for Wellbeing.

34. Further, Wellbeing has discovered Aleafia charged Wellbeing for the cost of retaining Mr. White, for a total of $11,300, which corresponds to the consulting fee that Aleafia was paying Mr. White – namely, $5,000 per month plus HST.

MISREPRESENTATIONS AND BREACH OF DUTY OF HONEST PERFORMANCE

35. Wellbeing further pleads that the Defendants are in breach of their duty to act in good faith with respect to the Agreements. At all material times, the Defendants owed the a duty to Wellbeing to act in good faith, including a duty of honest performance, requiring the Defendants to be honest and diligent in relation to the performance of their contractual obligations.

36. The Defendants ought to have taken all measures and precautions to ensure that the Plaintiff received full and accurate disclosure of all financial, operation, and other information relating to the Business (as defined in the APA).

37. The Defendants knew or ought to have known that the Plaintiff would reasonably expect that the Financial Disclosures, Books and Records Representations, the Ketamine Representations and the Spravato Representations would be accurate. The Defendants, by virtue of their positions, possessed specialized knowledge regarding the Clinics, their business, and the accuracy (or lack thereof) of the Financial Disclosures.

38. The Defendants made these representations, which were false and known by the Defendants to be false, intentionally and with the knowledge that the Plaintiff was relying on these representations for the purpose of the Agreements, or, in the alternative, negligently. The Defendants further knew, or ought to have known, that the Plaintiff would rely on the Defendants' representations and that their misconduct would cause the Plaintiff loss of income.

40. Accordingly, the Defendants:

- (a) failed to act in good faith and in the best interests of Wellbeing;
- (b) failed to exercise reasonable care, skill, and judgment in the Financial Disclosures provided to Wellbeing with respect to each the APA and the Licence Agreement;
- (c) failed to disclosure all material information relating to the Purchase Price and the Agreements; and/or
- (d) failed to provide an honest and fair statement of the facts required to determine the Purchase Price, and have accordingly are in breach of their duty to act in good faith to Wellbeing.

UNJUST ENRICHMENT

41. To the extent that the Defendants are not liable under contract or tort to the Plaintiff, as particularized above (which is not admitted but expressly denied), then in the alternative, the Defendants are liable to the Plaintiff for unjust enrichment.

42. Specifically, the Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of receiving the benefit of the full Purchase Price while the Plaintiff has suffered a corresponding deprivation for which there is no juristic reason.

43. Further, at the same time the Plaintiff has suffered a significant shortfall in the performance of the Clinics, Aleafia has nonetheless reported Q1 2021 financial results reflecting a 103% increase from 2020. The Plaintiff pleads, and the fact is that, Aleafia has used the shifting of operating costs to Wellbeing Digital to assist in reducing Aleafia's own operating expenses for its virtual, physical and third-party clinic operations.

44. As a result, Aleafia has enjoyed an enrichment while Wellbeing Digital has suffered a corresponding deprivation, for which there is also no juristic reason.

DAMAGES

45. By the aforementioned reasons, including breaches of contract and representations, negligent misrepresentation, breach of duty of good faith, and/or unjust enrichment, Wellbeing has been greatly injured and has suffered loss and damage in addition to being put to considerable trouble, inconvenience, and expense, including, but not limited to:

- (a) significant overpayment in the Purchase Price;
- (b) substantial investment loss;
- (c) loss of income;

- (d) costs, expenses, legal fees and other damages arising from the identified breaches herein; and
- (e) other consequential losses as detailed herein, the particulars of which will be provided prior to trial.

46. Further, in addition to the above damages, the Purchaser has suffered opportunity costs as a result of having been deprived of the use of the above overpayment amounts, in amounts to be proven at trial, and has thereby suffered losses, costs or damages in this amount.

47. The conduct of the Defendants as pleaded herein, has been highhanded and for the sole purpose of harming the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff accordingly claims it is entitled to punitive, or in the alternative, exemplary and aggravated, damages.

48. The Plaintiff is, accordingly, entitled to the relief sought in the within claim.

49. The Plaintiff proposes that this action be tried at Toronto, Ontario.

Aleafia Health Announces Amendments to Credit Facility and Strategic Review Process

TORONTO, May 25, 2023 -- Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX: AH, OTCQB: ALEAF) (“Aleafia Health” or the “Company”) announces that the Company has entered into an amendment to the terms of the loan agreement with NE SPC II LP (“NE SPC”) dated as of December 24, 2021 and as previously amended by agreements dated March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 (the “Loan Agreement”).

While the original Loan Agreement provided that the indebtedness owed to NE SPC could be made payable on demand, NE SPC has agreed in the amendment (the “Amendment”) to forbear on enforcing the Loan Agreement until the earlier of (a) an event of default, or (b) May 31, 2023. The amended terms also provide for additional circumstances that would constitute an event of default as well as additional covenants imposed on the Company including an obligation to repay the entire balance owing under the Loan Agreement in certain circumstances. The Company is currently in breach of certain financial covenants under the Loan Agreement.

In connection with the Amendment, and in anticipation of the May 31, 2023 deadline, disinterested members of the Company’s board of directors (the “Committee”) have commenced a strategic review process (the “Strategic Review Process”) to explore and evaluate potential strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company with the goal of maximizing value for Aleafia Health shareholders (the “Shareholders”) and other stakeholders of the Company. These alternatives may include, but are not limited to, the refinancing of the indebtedness under the Loan Agreement, a sale of all or a portion of the assets of the Company, a sale of all or a portion of the common shares of the Company, a business combination transaction, new debt or equity financings or refinancings, a strategic investment in the Company or other strategic transaction structure (each, a “Potential Transaction”).

The Committee is leading the process and will manage any expressions of interest related to any Potential Transaction and will work with professional advisors to assess the fairness of any Potential Transaction to Shareholders and other stakeholders and make recommendations to the Board in respect of all such matters.

No decisions relating to any specific Potential Transaction have been made as at the date of this news release and there are no assurances that any Potential Transaction will result from the Strategic Review Process by May 31, 2023, or at all. The Company does not intend to comment further with respect to the Strategic Review Process unless and until it determines that additional disclosure is appropriate in the circumstances and in accordance with applicable securities laws.

delay in the recovery thereof. If there are any claims for setoff, counterclaim, or damages, they are hereby expressly released and discharged.

Each of the Credit Parties further acknowledges and agrees that except as provided in this Agreement, NE SPC II (by itself or through its employees or agents) has not made any promises, or taken any action or omitted to take any action which would constitute a waiver of its right to take any enforcement action in connection with the enforcement of the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the Security, or which would estop it from so doing and that no statement, representation, promise, act or omission by NE SPC II or its employees or agents shall create such a waiver or estoppel. Each of the Credit Parties acknowledges and agrees that by entering into this Agreement, NE SPC II, except as provided in this Agreement, has not waived any of its rights under any of the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the Security, including without limitation NE SPC II’s right to take any enforcement action in connection with the enforcement of the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the Security.

ARTICLE 4 - AMENDMENT FEE

4.1 Amendment Fee. In consideration for NE SPC II's continued forbearance and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Credit Parties shall pay to NE SPC II a non-refundable amendment fee in the amount of $20,000 which shall be fully earned on execution of this Agreement (the "2nd Amendment Fee"). The amendment fee in the amount of $50,000 (being the aggregate of the 2nd Amendment Fee and the $30,000 amendment fee which was fully earned on the execution of the Original Accommodation Agreement) shall form part of the Indebtedness, shall be secured by the Security, and shall be paid on the Accommodation Termination Date.

In the event that any Credit Party commences such proceedings, they agree that NE SPC II shall be an “unaffected creditor” under any such proceedings and hereby consents to a court order lifting any stay of proceeding as against NE SPC II.

5.2 Additional Events of Default. Any one or more of the following events will constitute an event of default under this Agreement (each an “Event of Default”):

- (b) a default or breach of any other obligation, promise, covenant, term, or condition occurs under this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, the Security after execution of this Agreement;
- (c) any representation or warranty made by any of the Credit Parties in the Loan Agreement or the Security, or in any certificate or other document delivered to NE SPC II in connection with the Loan Agreement, the Security or this Agreement, is false or misleading in any material respect; connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement, and the administration and the enforcement of the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the Security, and this Agreement. To the extent such expenses have not been included in the Indebtedness, NE SPC II may pay such expenses directly and the amount so paid shall form part of the Indebtedness, shall bear interest from the date of payment at highest rate of interest set out in the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the Security and shall be secured by the Security.

- 6.2 Release. The Credit Parties hereby absolutely and irrevocably release, remise, acquit and forever discharge NE SPC II, its officers, directors, employees, Advisors, and agents (all of the foregoing hereinafter called the “Released Parties”) from any and all actions and causes of action, suits, claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, damages and expenses of any and every character, known or unknown, direct or indirect, at law or in equity, of whatsoever kind or nature, for or because of any fact, matter or things done, omitted or suffered to be done by the Released Parties prior to and including the date of execution hereof, which are in any way directly or indirectly arising out of or in any way connected to this Agreement, the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the Security, and the administration and enforcement of the Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the Security and the negotiation of this Agreement (the “Released Matters”). The Credit Parties acknowledge that the agreements in this paragraph are intended to be in full satisfaction of all or any alleged injuries, losses or damages arising in connection with the Released Matters. The Credit Parties represent and warrant to the Released Parties that they have not purported to transfer, assign, or otherwise convey any of their rights, title, or interest in any Released Matter to any other person and that the foregoing constitutes a full and complete release of all Released Matters. The foregoing release shall survive the termination of this Agreement, the Loan Agreement and the Security and payment in full of the Indebtedness.
- 6.3 Independent Legal Advice. The Credit Parties acknowledge that, in executing and delivering this Agreement, they have acted and continue to act freely and without duress. The Credit Parties acknowledge that the actions of NE SPC II in entering into this Agreement have been fair and reasonable and that NE SPC II (i) has not acted in a managerial capacity with respect to the Credit Parties, and (ii) has no fiduciary duty to the Credit Parties in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreement or the Security. The Credit Parties confirm that they have had the benefit of independent legal advice in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. The Credit Parties hereby waive and agree not to assert or cause to be asserted any defence, right or claim with respect to any matter set forth in this Agreement.
- 6.4 Capacity and Authority. The Credit Parties represent and warrant to NE SPC II that they have the capacity and authority to enter into and perform their obligations under this Agreement.
- 6.5 Necessary Proceedings. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by the Credit Parties of their obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary proceedings.
- 6.6 Notices. Any notice, consent or approval required or permitted to be given in connection with this Agreement (a “Notice”) shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given if delivered (whether in person, by courier service or other personal method of delivery), or if transmitted by e-mail:

Dear Matthew:

Re: Loan agreement dated December 24, 2021, as amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023, between, among others, Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (as assignee to NE SPC II LP, "RWB") and Aleafia Health Inc. ("Aleafia") (the "Loan Agreement")

As we have expressed to you on several occasions in the past days, RWB is not required nor prepared to advance further funds under the existing Loan Agreement.

As Aleafia is aware, the lending margins under the Loan Agreement do not allow for any further advances at this time and the Accommodation Period under the accommodation agreement made in April, 2023 has expired. RWB also has not received a 13 week cash flow statement satisfactory to RWB that would align the cash needs of Aleafia with the lending margins that RWB and Aleafia have been discussing.

RWB is also extremely concerned by the recent developments with respect to certain holders of debentures, which, at least for now, would tend to indicate that the transaction contemplated by the binding letter agreement dated June 6, 2023, between RWB and Aleafia will not be supported by the requisite majority of holders of debentures.

The fact that RWB has not, to date, taken steps to immediately enforce its security will not in any way constitute a waiver of existing or future "Events of Default" under the Loan Agreement or under any other agreements between the RWB and Aleafia. RWB expressly reserves all of its existing and future rights and remedies under the Loan Agreement, the related security, and at law.

Yours truly,

Tricia, David

Moving forward, putting both of you on notice that RWB will no longer deal with Matt on matters of funding and disbursements. No issues dealing with Sung, a VP Finance in your organization, who can then coordinate with Matt or other stakeholders internally.

Given that you've already engaged KSV, we would be amenable to working with Noah on other matters such as the maintenance of the 13W CF which has yet to be sensitized for a potential filing.

Before Matt sent whatever representations were made below (I've added it to our file of misrepresentations he's made since we've been engaged), I was in the process of confirming that RWB is willing to release another $500K from the blocked account in good faith as we work towards a mutual solution given that it appears that the Proposed Transaction will not proceed. We will continue to require visibility on all disbursements without exception.

Please advise on your availability at 215PM today to discuss our path forward. I can send a placeholder for a Teams meeting.

Thanks.

AND TO EACH OF THE GUARANTORS
NOTED IN SCHEDULE “A” HERETO (individually, a “Guarantor” and collectively the “Guarantors”)

Re: Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (“RWB”) credit facilities extended to Aleafia Health Inc., Emblem Cannabis Corporation and Aleafia Farms Inc. (collectively, the “Borrowers”), guaranteed by each of the Guarantors

We are enforcement counsel to RWB. We are writing to you in connection with the loan agreement dated December 24, 2021 between NE SPC II LP, as lender, the Borrowers, as borrowers and the Guarantors, as guarantors, as amended by amending agreements dated as of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022, and subject to an amended and restated accommodation agreement dated as of May 15, 2023 (as amended by an amending agreement dated as of May 31, 2023, the “Accommodation Agreement”) (collectively, as modified, amended, supplemented, revised, restated and replaced from time to time, the “Loan Agreement”).

Pursuant to an assignment of indebtedness and security agreement dated as of June 6, 2023, the Loan Agreement and all Credit Documents (as defined below), security and ancillary documents granted in favour of NE SPC II LP in connection with the Loan Agreement, was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreement.

The Borrowers are in default under the Loan Agreement and the other Credit Documents (as defined below) for, among other things, (i) Aleafia Health Inc. having failed to maintain the Current Ratio prescribed under the Loan Agreement; (ii) the occurrence of material adverse change resulting in a Material Adverse Effect; and (iii) the Borrowers having failed to satisfy the Revolving Credit Facility Conditions in the time prescribed under the Loan Agreement. In addition, the Accommodation Termination Date (as defined in the Accommodation Agreement) has occurred without being extended.

According to RWB's records, the Borrowers are indebted or otherwise liable to RWB for the amounts set out in Schedule B to this letter as of June 30, 2023 (the amount owing from time to time by the Borrowers to RWB, the "Indebtedness").

The Guarantors have each jointly and severally guaranteed the repayment of the Indebtedness pursuant to guarantee and postponement agreements, each dated as of December 24, 2021 (collectively, the "Guarantees").

RWB hereby demands payment in full of the Indebtedness from the Borrowers and the Guarantors. Interest on the Indebtedness has accrued and will continue to accrue to the date of payment at the rate set out in the Loan Agreement and the other Credit Documents, as applicable. The exact amount of the Indebtedness and interest which will have accrued to any date of payment shall be obtained by contacting RWB. You will also be required to pay RWB's legal and other expenses in connection with the Indebtedness.

This letter constitutes a demand for payment and acceleration of payment under the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement and the terms and conditions of all security held by RWB directly or indirectly for any of the Indebtedness, including all loan agreements, promissory notes, the Guarantees and other agreements governing the Indebtedness (collectively, the "Credit Documents"), and is made without prejudice to (a) RWB's right to make such further and other demands as it shall see fit for any other indebtedness or under any other security, and (b) RWB's right to provide further and other notices of default.

Unless payment or arrangements satisfactory to RWB for payment of the Indebtedness are made by no later than 4:00 p.m. on August 4, 2023 (Toronto time), RWB may take any further steps that it deems necessary to recover payment of the Indebtedness. These steps may include (i) the enforcement of its security by way of the appointment of an interim receiver, court appointed receiver and manager, a private receiver and manager, or an agent under its security; and (ii) the enforcement of any real property security by way of rights of power of sale. RWB expressly reserves the right to take any steps it deems advisable to protect RWB's position prior to that date.

We also enclose a notice of intention to enforce security issued by RWB under Section 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) for each of the Borrowers and Guarantors.

RWB expressly reserves its rights and remedies with respect to any defaults that shall now exist or hereafter arise under the Loan Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

Yours very truly,

 - (c) enter into or publicly propose to enter into any agreement, understanding or arrangement in respect of an Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality and standstill agreement permitted by and in accordance with the Arrangement Agreement).

- (a) make a change in recommendation (meaning where the board of directors of Aleafia or any committee of the board of directors of Aleafia fails to unanimously recommend or withdraws, amends, modifies or qualifies, publicly proposes or states its intention to do so, or fails to publicly reaffirm (without qualification) within five (5) Business Days after having been requested in writing by RWB to do so, the board of directors of Aleafia's recommendation, or takes no position or a neutral position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal in respect of Aleafia for more than five (5) Business Days after first learning of an Acquisition Proposal in respect of Aleafia or takes any other action that is or becomes disclosed publicly and which can reasonably be interpreted to indicate that the board of directors of Aleafia or a committee of the board of directors of Aleafia does not unanimously support the Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement or does not unanimously believe that the Arrangement and the Agreement Agreement are in the best interests of Aleafia and its security holders); or
 - (b) accept, approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly propose to accept, approve, endorse or recommend, or take no position or remain neutral with respect to, any publicly announced or otherwise publicly disclosed Acquisition Proposal in respect of Aleafia (it being understood that taking no position or a neutral position with respect to a publicly announced or otherwise publicly disclosed Acquisition Proposal in respect of Aleafia for a period of no more than five (5) Business Days following the announcement or disclosure of such Acquisition Proposal will not be considered to be in violation of the Arrangement Agreement provided the board of directors of Aleafia has rejected such Acquisition Proposal and affirmed its recommendation regarding the Arrangement before the end of such five (5) Business Day period).

- (3) Aleafia will, and will cause its subsidiaries and its Representatives to, immediately cease and terminate, and cause to be terminated, any solicitation, encouragement, discussion, negotiations, or other activities commenced prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement with any Person (other than RWB or its affiliates) with respect to any inquiry, proposal or offer that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to constitute or lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, and in connection with such termination will no longer provide access to any data room or provide any new disclosure of information, or access to properties, facilities, books and records of Aleafia or any of its subsidiaries outside the ordinary course of business.
- (4) Aleafia represents and warrants that, since March 31, 2022, Aleafia has not waived any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement to which Aleafia or any subsidiary is a party, and covenants and agrees that (i) Aleafia will take all necessary action to enforce each confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement to which Aleafia or any of its subsidiaries is a party, and (ii) neither Aleafia, nor any of its subsidiaries nor any of their respective Representatives will, without the prior written consent of RWB (which may be withheld in RWB's sole and absolute discretion), release any Person from, or waive, amend, suspend or otherwise modify such Person's obligations respecting Aleafia, or any of its subsidiaries, under any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement to which Aleafia or any of its subsidiaries is a party (it being acknowledged by RWB that the automatic termination or release of any standstill restrictions of any such agreements as a result of entering into and announcing the Arrangement Agreement will not be a violation of the Arrangement Agreement).
- (5) If Aleafia or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives, receives, or otherwise becomes aware of any inquiry, proposal or offer that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to constitute or lead to an Acquisition Proposal, or any request for copies of, access to, or disclosure of, confidential information that is made, or that may reasonably be perceived to be made, in connection with an Acquisition Proposal, including but not limited to information, access, or disclosure relating to the properties, facilities, books or records of Aleafia or any of its subsidiaries, Aleafia will immediately notify RWB, at first orally, and then promptly and in any event within 48 hours in writing, of such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, including a description of its material terms and conditions and the identity of all Persons making the Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, and will provide RWB with copies of all documents, correspondence or other material received in respect of, from or on behalf of any such Person. Aleafia will keep RWB informed on a current basis of the status of developments and negotiations with respect to such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, including any changes, modifications or other amendments to any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request.
- (6) Notwithstanding (1) above, if at any time, prior to obtaining the approval by Aleafia Shareholders of the Arrangement Resolution, Aleafia receives a written Acquisition Proposal, Aleafia may engage in or participate in discussions or negotiations with such Person regarding such Acquisition Proposal, and may provide copies of, access to or disclosure of confidential information, properties, facilities, books or records of Aleafia and its subsidiaries if, and only if:
 - (a) the board of directors of Aleafia first determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and its outside legal counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to constitute or lead to a

- Superior Proposal (disregarding for such determination any due diligence or access condition);
- (b) such Person was not restricted from making such Acquisition Proposal pursuant to an existing standstill or similar restriction;
 - (c) Aleafia has been, and continues to be, in compliance with its obligations under these provisions;
 - (d) prior to providing any such copies, access, or disclosure, Aleafia enters into a confidentiality and standstill agreement with such Person having terms that are not less onerous than those set out in the confidentiality agreement between Aleafia and RWB and any such copies, access or disclosure provided to such Person will have already been (or simultaneously be) provided to RWB; and
 - (e) Aleafia promptly provides RWB with, prior to providing any such copies, access or disclosure, a true, complete and final executed copy of the confidentiality and standstill agreement with such Person.
- (7) Nothing contained in the Arrangement Agreement will prevent the board of directors of Aleafia from:
- (a) complying with Section 2.17 of National Instrument 62-104 – Takeover Bids and Issuer Bids and similar provisions under Securities Laws relating to the provision of a directors' circular in respect of an Acquisition Proposal; or
 - (b) calling and/or holding a meeting of shareholders requisitioned by Aleafia Shareholders in accordance with applicable Laws or taking any other action with respect to an Acquisition Proposal to the extent ordered or otherwise mandated by a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable Laws.
- (8) If Aleafia receives an Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Superior Proposal prior to the approval of the Arrangement Resolution by Aleafia Shareholders, the board of directors of Aleafia may authorize Aleafia to, subject to compliance with the Termination Fee provisions of the Arrangement Agreement, enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal, if and only if:
- (a) the Person making the Superior Proposal was not restricted from making such Superior Proposal pursuant to an existing standstill or similar restriction;
 - (b) Aleafia has been, and continues to be, in compliance with its obligations under these provisions;
 - (c) Aleafia has delivered to RWB a written notice of the determination of the board of directors of Aleafia that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and of the intention of the board of directors of Aleafia to enter into such definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal, together with a written notice from the board of directors of Aleafia regarding the value and financial terms that the board of directors of Aleafia, in consultation with its financial advisors, has determined should be ascribed to any non-cash consideration offered under such Superior Proposal;

- (d) Aleafia has provided RWB a copy of the proposed definitive agreement for the Superior Proposal;
 - (e) at least seven (7) Business Days (the “Matching Period”) have elapsed from the date that is the later of the date on which RWB received the Superior Proposal notice from Aleafia and the date on which RWB received a copy of the proposed definitive agreement for the Superior Proposal from Aleafia;
 - (f) during any Matching Period, RWB has had the opportunity (but not the obligation), to offer to Aleafia to amend the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement in order for such Acquisition Proposal to cease to be a Superior Proposal;
 - (g) if RWB has offered to Aleafia to amend the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement, the board of directors of Aleafia has determined in good faith, after consultation with Aleafia’s outside legal counsel and financial advisers, that such Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal compared to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement as proposed to be amended by RWB;
 - (h) the board of directors of Aleafia has determined in good faith, after consultation with Aleafia’s outside legal counsel that it is appropriate for the board of directors of Aleafia to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal; and
 - (i) prior to or concurrent with entering into such definitive agreement Aleafia terminates the Arrangement Agreement and pays the Termination Fee to RWB.
- (8) During the Matching Period, or such longer period as Aleafia may approve in writing for such purpose: (a) the board of directors of Aleafia will review any offer made by RWB to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement in good faith, in consultation with Aleafia’s outside legal counsel and financial advisers, in order to determine whether such proposal would, upon acceptance, result in the Acquisition Proposal previously constituting a Superior Proposal ceasing to be a Superior Proposal; and (b) if the board of directors of Aleafia determines that such Acquisition Proposal would cease to be a Superior Proposal as a result of such amendment, Aleafia will negotiate in good faith with RWB to make such amendments to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement as would enable RWB to proceed with the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement on such amended terms. If the board of directors of Aleafia determines that such Acquisition Proposal would cease to be a Superior Proposal, Aleafia will promptly so advise RWB and the parties will amend the Arrangement Agreement to reflect such offer made by RWB, and will take and cause to be taken all such actions as are necessary to give effect to the foregoing.
- (9) Each successive amendment or modification to any Acquisition Proposal in respect of Aleafia will constitute a new Acquisition Proposal and RWB will be afforded a new Matching Period from the later of the date on which RWB received the new Superior Proposal notice from Aleafia and the date on which RWB received a copy of the proposed definitive agreement for the new Superior Proposal from Aleafia.
- (10) At RWB’s request, the board of directors of Aleafia will promptly reaffirm its recommendation by press release after it determines that an Acquisition Proposal is not a Superior Proposal or it determines that a proposed amendment to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement would result in an Acquisition Proposal no longer being a Superior Proposal. Aleafia will provide RWB and its outside legal counsel with a reasonable opportunity to review the form and content of any such press release and will make all reasonable amendments to such press release as requested by RWB and its outside legal counsel.

- (11) If Aleafia provides a Superior Proposal notice to RWB on or after a date that is less than seven (7) Business Days before the Aleafia Meeting, Aleafia will postpone the Aleafia Meeting to a date acceptable to both parties (acting reasonably) that is not more than 10 Business Days after the scheduled date of the Aleafia Meeting but before the agreed upon outside date for completion of the Arrangement.

Management Commentary

“The intended acquisition of Aleafia expands our footprint to the largest federally legal cannabis market globally,” said Brad Rogers, CEO and Director of RWB. “Combining our award-winning brands and IP with Aleafia’s proven cultivation, manufacturing, and distribution capabilities, creates one of the most dynamic cross border companies in the industry. We continue to focus on delivering significant value to our shareholders and believe this transaction aligns with that commitment.”

“The potential acquisition of Aleafia represents a transformative milestone for RWB. It provides a well-established distribution beachhead for RWB and its premium Platinum brand into the Canadian market, opens up the larger U.S. market to Aleafia’s select brands through RWB’s distribution and retail channels, and provides both companies with an opportunity to mutually leverage their respective competencies in the areas of cultivation, procurement, product development, and sales and marketing,” said Eddie Mattei, CFO of RWB. “Working together, we believe RWB and Aleafia are well positioned to capitalize on value-added synergies that will ultimately enhance the profitability of the Combined Company.”⁽¹⁾

“The Canadian cannabis market has the potential to be a dynamic industry and is rapidly experiencing consolidation. In 2022 and 2023, Aleafia has achieved significant milestones including growing the Divvy brand through expansion into five provincial markets and bolstering its international business through sales into Europe and Australia. The Proposed Transaction is a next step in the Aleafia story as it enhances our size and scale which is a critical requirement to compete in this market and provides Aleafia improved access to capital to execute on our strategic growth opportunities,” said Tricia Symmes, Chief Executive Officer of Aleafia.

“This is a prime opportunity for Aleafia to merge with a multi-state operator. The Proposed Transaction would recapitalize Aleafia’s balance sheet and provide our shareholders with access to a larger market capitalization and exposure to the U.S. recreational and medical cannabis markets,” said Matt Sale, Chief Financial Officer of Aleafia. “The improved financial flexibility and capacity of the Combined Company will enhance the ability to execute on organic and acquisitive growth strategies,” continued Mr. Sale.

- Enhanced Size & Scale: Aleafia generated C$40 million in revenue in the twelve months ended December 31, 2022, which on a pro forma basis, increases the Combined Company’s revenue profile by 41%.⁽⁴⁾
- Expanded Retail and Distribution Opportunities:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾ Expected to create an opportunity to collaboratively launch RWB and Aleafia’s premium brands across multiple product categories into well-established distribution and retail networks throughout North America providing approximately 3,000 retail locations in active markets including Michigan, Florida, California, Arizona, Missouri, and select provinces in Canada including Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan and Europe.
- Potential Synergies:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾ The Combined Company is anticipated to realize synergies of approximately $10 million as the Combined Company will aim to: (i) leverage RWB's supply chain and manufacturing competencies, (ii) increase each of RWB and Aleafia's respective economies of scale with the introduction of incremental premium product volumes, and (iii) optimize Aleafia's post-close operations as a subsidiary of RWB versus a standalone publicly traded entity.

- Platinum Vapes:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾ The Combined Company will be positioned to debut Platinum Vape in the Canadian market as it sets to launch its premium products in Canada. Aleafia will continue to serve as the manufacturing and distribution partner for Platinum Vapes' first international brand expansion.

BDSA¹ ranks Platinum Vape™ as the #1 selling vape brand in Michigan for multiple months running earning the title of the #1 vape brand in Michigan according to ArcView Industry Vape Report for Platinum Vape™.
- Divvy, Aleafia's everyday brand, is consistently one of the top searched brands in Ontario and one of the fastest growing brands in Aleafia's core markets. The success of Aleafia's pre-roll and milled (cropped) product formats, supplied by sun grown flower from the largest outdoor cultivation facility in Canada, has propelled them into a peak #4 and #2, respectively, market share ranking for fiscal year 2023 in Ontario, the largest provincial market in Canada.
- Management Expertise:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾ The Combined Company will be led by a deep roster of seasoned executives with several years of execution experience in markets including cannabis, consumer packaged goods, and vertically integrated manufacturing.

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB's SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Fairness Opinion

Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, the disinterested members of the board of directors of Aleafia will engage a financial advisor to provide Aleafia with an opinion stating that the consideration offered pursuant to the Letter Agreement and subsequent definitive arrangement agreement is fair, from a financial point of view to the holders of Aleafia common shares and, if required pursuant to MI 61-101, Aleafia will obtain a formal valuation from an independent valuator.

Aleafia Board Approval

As previously announced by Aleafia, a committee of disinterested members of the board of directors of Aleafia (the “Committee”) was previously established to review and evaluate all options available to Aleafia, including the Proposed Transaction. After conducting an analysis of the options available, including the Proposed Transaction, the Committee unanimously recommended the Proposed Transaction to the board of directors as being in the best interests of Aleafia and Aleafia's security holders.

In recommending the Proposed Transaction, the Committee considered and evaluated a number of factors, including but not limited to:

- Aleafia has experienced recurring losses and currently faces substantial challenges in meeting its financial obligations and maintaining liquidity to fund ongoing operations and further revenue growth.
- Existing contractual restrictions, constraints on accessing capital markets, and Aleafia's financial condition make it challenging to secure alternative sources of funding. Aleafia has been unable to secure sufficient additional equity or debt financing to alleviate its ongoing liquidity issues.
- The Proposed Transaction also provides a viable solution to address Aleafia's financial stability, fund its ongoing operational expenses, service applicable debt requirements, and fund essential strategic projects.
- The combination of RWB and Aleafia brings together complementary strengths and resources in the cannabis industry. The Committee recognizes that the prospective combined entity enhances the ability of both parties to the transaction to achieve their strategic goals and continue to build both shareholder value and confidence in the newly formed, combined entity.

The Committee will continue to independently assess the Proposed Transaction through to closing, including upon completion of diligence and receipt of the fairness opinion, to ensure that Aleafia security holders' interests are protected.

RWB Board Approval

From an RWB perspective, Mr. Colby De Zen has a disclosable interest with respect to the Proposed Transaction given his involvement with certain affiliated parties that may be directors, creditors and/or shareholders of RWB and Aleafia, and which are owned and controlled by members of Mr. Colby De Zen's family. In accordance with Canadian corporate law requirements, he declared the nature and extent of his interest in the Proposed Transaction and recused himself from consideration and voting on the Proposed Transaction. The disinterested directors of RWB participated in evaluating and recommending the Proposed Transaction.

Assignment of Secured Debt

Concurrent with entering into the Letter Agreement, the loan agreement made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain of its subsidiaries, as borrower, with certain of Aleafia's other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP, as lender, as amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023 (the "Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement") was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

Credit Facility and Settlement of Aleafia Convertible Debentures

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, within 30 days of the Letter Agreement, RWB and Aleafia will negotiate in good faith a credit facility to be provided by RWB to Aleafia of $17.5 million (the "RWB Credit Facility"). In the event that either party terminates the Letter Agreement or arrangement agreement, the board of directors of Aleafia does not unanimously recommend that Aleafia Shareholders vote in favour of the Proposed Transaction or the Proposed Transaction fails to gain any of the prerequisite approvals required to close, including but not limited to any required security holder approvals, such as the approval of the holders of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, or court approval of the Arrangement, or if any conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction are not satisfied or waived, the due date of the RWB Credit Facility will accelerate.

RWB intends to secure a $30 million credit facility (the "New Credit Facility"). The proceeds from the New Credit Facility will serve multiple purposes, including the funding of the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secure Loan Agreement to RWB, full and final settlement of all outstanding principal and accrued interest and any other amounts owing in respect of certain Aleafia convertible debentures issued under the amended and restated debenture indenture providing for the issue of certain convertible debentures dated as of June 27, 2022 between Aleafia and Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as the trustee, as supplemented by: (a) the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2024); (b) the second supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2026), and (c) the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of 8.50% Series C Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2028) (collectively, the "Aleafia Convertible Debentures") for an aggregate of $6 million at the Effective Time (subject to receipt of Debentureholder Approval), funding working capital requirements and targeted growth initiatives of the Combined Company, and covering general corporate expenses and transaction costs associated with the Proposed Transaction. Specific terms for the New Credit Facility will be confirmed upon execution of final funding agreements and will be subject to the completion of the Proposed Transaction.

Concurrently with the execution of the Letter Agreement, Royal Group Resources Ltd. ("RGR"), an existing creditor of both RWB and Aleafia, provided RWB with $14 million as an advance under the Company's existing secured note in favour of RGR dated March 27, 2023 (the "RGR Advance"). The RGR Advance will be retired upon closing of the New Credit Facility.

Also concurrent with the execution of the Letter Agreement and upon receipt of the RGR Advance, RWB will enter into an agreement to advance to Aleafia an amount equal to $1.5 million under the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement.

Red White & Bloom and Aleafia Health Execute Binding Letter Agreement for Business Combination

- The Combined Company (as defined below) is expected to represent C$138 million in trailing distribution and retail revenue from the Canadian, United States and European cannabis end-markets and combined Gross Profit before fair value adjustments of $39 million.⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾
- On a combined basis, RWB and Aleafia are expected to service approximately 3,000 retail locations in North America.⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾
- Expected annualized synergies of approximately C$10 million in COGS and SG&A through optimization and economies of scale, and elimination of debt service obligations.⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾

TORONTO, ONTARIO June 7, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) - Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (CSE: RWB and OTC: RWBYF) (“RWB” or the “Company”) and Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX: AH and OTCQB: ALEAF) (“Aleafia”) are pleased to announce that the Company and Aleafia have entered into a binding letter agreement on June 6, 2023 (the “Letter Agreement”) whereby the Company has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the “Proposed Transaction”).

Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an “Aleafia Share”) will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of the Company (each, an “RWB Share”), subject to customary adjustment (the “Exchange Ratio”). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the “Combined Company”) and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

Management Commentary

“The intended acquisition of Aleafia expands our footprint to the largest federally legal cannabis market globally,” said Brad Rogers, CEO and Director of RWB. “Combining our award-winning brands and IP with Aleafia’s proven cultivation, manufacturing, and distribution capabilities, creates one of the most dynamic cross border companies in the industry. We continue to focus on delivering significant value to our shareholders and believe this transaction aligns with that commitment.”

“The potential acquisition of Aleafia represents a transformative milestone for RWB. It provides a well-established distribution beachhead for RWB and its premium Platinum brand into the Canadian market, opens up the larger U.S. market to Aleafia’s select brands through RWB’s distribution and retail channels, and provides both companies with an opportunity to mutually leverage their respective competencies in the areas of cultivation, procurement, product development, and sales and marketing,” said Eddie Mattei, CFO of RWB. “Working together, we believe RWB and Aleafia are well positioned to capitalize on value-added synergies that will ultimately enhance the profitability of the Combined Company.”⁽¹⁾

“The Canadian cannabis market has the potential to be a dynamic industry and is rapidly experiencing consolidation. In 2022 and 2023, Aleafia has achieved significant milestones including growing the Divvy brand through expansion into five provincial markets and bolstering its international business through sales into Europe and Australia. The Proposed Transaction is a next step in the Aleafia story as it enhances our size and scale which is a critical requirement to compete in this market and provides Aleafia improved access to capital to execute on our strategic growth opportunities,” said Tricia Symmes, Chief Executive Officer of Aleafia.

“This is a prime opportunity for Aleafia to merge with a multi-state operator. The Proposed Transaction would recapitalize Aleafia’s balance sheet and provide our shareholders with access to a larger market capitalization and exposure to the U.S. recreational and medical cannabis markets,” said Matt Sale, Chief Financial Officer of Aleafia. “The improved financial flexibility and capacity of the Combined Company will enhance the ability to execute on organic and acquisitive growth strategies,” continued Mr. Sale.

Key Business and Transaction Highlights⁽¹⁾

- Enhanced Size & Scale: Aleafia generated C$40 million in revenue in the twelve months ended December 31, 2022, which on a pro forma basis, increases the Combined Company’s revenue profile by 41%.⁽⁴⁾

- Expanded Retail and Distribution Opportunities:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾ Expected to create an opportunity to collaboratively launch RWB and Aleafia's premium brands across multiple product categories into well-established distribution and retail networks throughout North America providing approximately 3,000 retail locations in active markets including Michigan, Florida, California, Arizona, Missouri, and select provinces in Canada including Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan and Europe.
- Potential Synergies:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾ The Combined Company is anticipated to realize synergies of approximately $10 million as the Combined Company will aim to: (i) leverage RWB's supply chain and manufacturing competencies, (ii) increase each of RWB and Aleafia's respective economies of scale with the introduction of incremental premium product volumes, and (iii) optimize Aleafia's post-close operations as a subsidiary of RWB versus a standalone publicly traded entity.
- Platinum Vapes:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾ The Combined Company will be positioned to debut Platinum Vape in the Canadian market as it sets to launch its premium products in Canada. Aleafia will continue to serve as the manufacturing and distribution partner for Platinum Vapes' first international brand expansion.
- Over the years, the Platinum brand has received significant recognition and achieved numerous accolades. BDSA¹ ranks Platinum Vape™ as the #1 selling vape brand in Michigan for multiple months running earning the title of the #1 vape brand in Michigan according to ArcView Industry Vape Report for Platinum Vape™.
- Divvy, Aleafia's everyday brand, is consistently one of the top searched brands in Ontario and one of the fastest growing brands in Aleafia's core markets. The success of Aleafia's pre-roll and milled (cropped) product formats, supplied by sun grown flower from the largest outdoor cultivation facility in Canada, has propelled them into a peak #4 and #2, respectively, market share ranking for fiscal year 2023 in Ontario, the largest provincial market in Canada.
- Management Expertise:⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾ The Combined Company will be led by a deep roster of seasoned executives with several years of execution experience in markets including cannabis, consumer packaged goods, and vertically integrated manufacturing.

Summary of the Proposed Transaction

The Proposed Transaction is expected to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, RWB will acquire all of the issued and outstanding Aleafia Shares in exchange for RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Aleafia shareholders in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (“MI 61-101”), at a special meeting of Aleafia shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “Aleafia Meeting”); (b) debentureholders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (“Debentureholder Approval”); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “RWB Meeting”).

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by no later than 5:00 p.m. on October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”).⁽¹⁾

A copy of the Letter Agreement will be filed on Aleafia and RWB's SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB's SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Fairness Opinion

Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, the disinterested members of the board of directors of Aleafia will engage a financial advisor to provide Aleafia with an opinion stating that the consideration offered pursuant to the Letter Agreement and subsequent definitive arrangement agreement is fair, from a financial point of view to the holders of Aleafia common shares and, if required pursuant to MI 61-101, Aleafia will obtain a formal valuation from an independent valuator.

Aleafia Board Approval

As previously announced by Aleafia, a committee of disinterested members of the board of directors of Aleafia (the "Committee") was previously established to review and evaluate all options available to Aleafia, including the Proposed Transaction. After conducting an analysis of the options available, including the Proposed Transaction, the Committee unanimously recommended the Proposed Transaction to the board of directors as being in the best interests of Aleafia and Aleafia's security holders.

In recommending the Proposed Transaction, the Committee considered and evaluated a number of factors, including but not limited to:

- Aleafia has experienced recurring losses and currently faces substantial challenges in meeting its financial obligations and maintaining liquidity to fund ongoing operations and further revenue growth.
- Existing contractual restrictions, constraints on accessing capital markets, and Aleafia's financial condition make it challenging to secure alternative sources of funding. Aleafia has been unable to secure sufficient additional equity or debt financing to alleviate its ongoing liquidity issues.
- The Proposed Transaction also provides a viable solution to address Aleafia's financial stability, fund its ongoing operational expenses, service applicable debt requirements, and fund essential strategic projects.
- The combination of RWB and Aleafia brings together complementary strengths and resources in the cannabis industry. The Committee recognizes that the prospective combined entity enhances the ability of both parties to the transaction to achieve their strategic goals and continue to build both shareholder value and confidence in the newly formed, combined entity.

The Committee will continue to independently assess the Proposed Transaction through to closing, including upon completion of diligence and receipt of the fairness opinion, to ensure that Aleafia security holders' interests are protected.

RWB Board Approval

From an RWB perspective, Mr. Colby De Zen has a disclosable interest with respect to the Proposed Transaction given his involvement with certain affiliated parties that may be directors, creditors and/or shareholders of RWB and Aleafia, and which are owned and controlled by members of Mr. Colby De Zen's family. In accordance with Canadian corporate law requirements, he declared the nature and extent of his interest in the Proposed Transaction and recused himself from consideration and voting on the Proposed Transaction. The disinterested directors of RWB participated in evaluating and recommending the Proposed Transaction.

Assignment of Secured Debt

Concurrent with entering into the Letter Agreement, the loan agreement made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain of its subsidiaries, as borrower, with certain of Aleafia's other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP, as lender, as amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023 (the "Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement") was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

Credit Facility and Settlement of Aleafia Convertible Debentures

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, within 30 days of the Letter Agreement, RWB and Aleafia will negotiate in good faith a credit facility to be provided by RWB to Aleafia of $17.5 million (the "RWB Credit Facility"). In the event that either party terminates the Letter Agreement or arrangement agreement, the board of directors of Aleafia does not unanimously recommend that Aleafia Shareholders vote in favour of the Proposed Transaction or the Proposed Transaction fails to gain any of the prerequisite approvals required to close, including but not limited to any required security holder approvals, such as the approval of the holders of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, or court approval of the Arrangement, or if any conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction are not satisfied or waived, the due date of the RWB Credit Facility will accelerate.

RWB intends to secure a $30 million credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The proceeds from the New Credit Facility will serve multiple purposes, including the funding of the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement to RWB, full and final settlement of all outstanding principal and accrued interest and any other amounts owing in respect of certain Aleafia convertible debentures issued under the amended and restated debenture indenture providing for the issue of certain convertible debentures dated as of June 27, 2022 between Aleafia and Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as the trustee, as supplemented by: (a) the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2024; (b) the second supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2026), and (c) the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of 8.50% Series C Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2028) (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) for an aggregate of $6 million at the Effective Time (subject to receipt of Debentureholder Approval), funding working capital requirements and targeted growth initiatives of the Combined Company, and covering general corporate expenses and transaction costs associated with the Proposed Transaction. Specific terms for the New Credit Facility will be confirmed upon execution of final funding agreements and will be subject to the completion of the Proposed Transaction.

Concurrently with the execution of the Letter Agreement, Royal Group Resources Ltd. (“RGR”), an existing creditor of both RWB and Aleafia, provided RWB with $14 million as an advance under the Company’s existing secured note in favour of RGR dated March 27, 2023 (the “RGR Advance”). The RGR Advance will be retired upon closing of the New Credit Facility.

Also concurrent with the execution of the Letter Agreement and upon receipt of the RGR Advance, RWB will enter into an agreement to advance to Aleafia an amount equal to $1.5 million under the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement.

In respect of the forward-looking statements concerning the Proposed Transaction, including the entering into of the definitive arrangement agreement, and the anticipated timing for completion of the Proposed Transaction, the Company and Aleafia have relied on certain assumptions that it believes are reasonable at this time, including assumptions as to the ability of the parties to receive, in a timely manner and on satisfactory terms, the necessary regulatory, court, shareholder, stock exchange and other third party approvals and the ability of the parties to satisfy, in a timely manner, the other conditions to the completion of the Proposed Transaction. This timeline may change for a number of reasons, including unforeseen delays in preparing meeting materials; inability to secure necessary regulatory, court, shareholder, stock exchange or other third-party approvals in the time assumed or the need for additional time to satisfy the other conditions to the completion of the Proposed Transaction. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements and information contained in this news release concerning these times.

Risks and uncertainties that may cause such differences include but are not limited to: the risk that the Proposed Transaction may not be completed on a timely basis, if at all; the conditions to the consummation of the Proposed Transaction may not be satisfied; the risk that the Proposed Transaction may involve unexpected costs, liabilities or delays; the possibility that legal proceedings may be instituted against the Company, Aleafia and/or others relating to the Proposed Transaction and the outcome of such proceedings; the possible occurrence of an event, change or other circumstance that could result in termination of the Proposed Transaction; risks relating to the failure to obtain necessary shareholder and court approval; other risks inherent in the plant-based food industry. In addition, if the Proposed Transaction is not completed, the announcement of the Proposed Transaction and the dedication of substantial resources of the Company and Aleafia to the completion of the Proposed Transaction could have a material adverse impact on each of the Company's and Aleafia's share price, its current business relationships and on the current and future operations, financial condition, and prospects of each of the Company and Aleafia.

Financial Outlook and Assumptions

The Company, Aleafia and their respective management believe that the statements regarding expected annual synergies from the Combined Company in COGS, SG&A and debt service contained in this press release are reasonable as of the date hereof, are based on management's current views, strategies, expectations, assumptions, and forecasts, and have been calculated using accounting policies that are generally consistent with the Company's current accounting policies. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should assumptions underlying the FOFI prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described herein as intended, planned, anticipated, believed, estimated, or expected. In developing the financial guidance set forth above, RWB and Aleafia made the following assumptions and relied on the following factors and considerations:

- The targets are based on each of RWB's and Aleafia's historical results including annualized revenue from its financial results for the period ended December 31, 2022, as adjusted for subsequent events including completion of the Proposed Transaction.

Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

Re: Proposed business combination (the "Proposed Transaction") of Aleafia Health Inc. ("Aleafia") and Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB")

As you know, we acted as legal counsel for an ad hoc committee of Aleafia's convertible debentureholders in connection with last year's consensual recapitalization transaction.

Following the announcement of the Proposed Transaction on June 7, 2023, we have had discussions with a significant number of the convertible debentureholders, and we are in the process of being re-engaged to deal with the Proposed Transaction and related matters. Based on our discussions with convertible debentureholders to date with the information we currently have, we are confident that the Proposed Transaction – which sees significant value being preserved for Aleafia's junior stakeholders while the secured convertible debentureholders are to be paid approximately 15 cents on the dollar – will not be approved by the convertible debentureholders in the form proposed. As has been communicated directly to both Aleafia and RWB, we are open to commencing a dialogue and negotiation with respect to potential changes to the Proposed Transaction that would make it acceptable to the convertible debentureholders. Thus far, we have received no indication that Aleafia and/or RWB are prepared to engage in any such negotiations.

In light of the foregoing, we expect that Aleafia will need to consider various alternatives, including potentially a filing under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA"). To be clear, the convertible debentureholders would strongly prefer to avoid that outcome by instead negotiating a consensual transaction. However, to the extent Aleafia's board of directors determines that a CCAA filing is necessary or appropriate, please note that certain of the convertible debentureholders have the financial wherewithal to provide, and are interested in providing, any needed debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing. In that regard, please provide us with a 13-week cash flow forecast identifying Aleafia's cash needs as soon as possible. We request and expect that the secured convertible debentureholders will receive the same information and opportunity to make a DIP financing proposal as any other party, including RWB. We can address any confidentiality or MNPI concerns.

Aleafia and the convertible debentureholders have a shared interest in the long-term success of the Aleafia business and assets. We look forward to working cooperatively and constructively with you and Aleafia once again to achieve another positive outcome for Aleafia and its many stakeholders.

Yours truly,

Attention: Patricia Symmes, CEO

Dear Patricia:

Re: Aleafia Convertible Debentures – Settlement Offer

There have been numerous conversations this past week centered around requests for Red White and Bloom Brands Inc. (“RWB”) to consider paying additional consideration to the holders of Aleafia Health Inc.’s (“Aleafia”) convertible debentures as a result of the intention of certain debenture holders, represented by Bennett Jones and led by Fernando Pace at Research Capital, to vote against the proposed settlement of the debentures as outlined in the Binding Letter Agreement.

RWB has considered the requests brought forward by Aleafia via the aforementioned parties and, in light of a number of factors, including, but not limited to:

- The reduced sale price on Grimsby, which to date has not been finalized and could go even lower;
- The initial due diligence and cashflow models making it evident that greater capital than initially contemplated will be required to stabilize Aleafia;
- The uncertainty of what a settlement with CRA would look like, as discussions are still ongoing; and
- The current advances to Aleafia being maxed out under the legacy credit facility (an amended and restated credit facility has not been concluded to date),

RWB is not prepared to adjust the total consideration reflected in the Binding Letter Agreement, nor is it willing to have a portion of the debentures remain outstanding; an option brought forward by the aforementioned parties. Further, we do not expect that Aleafia shareholders would agree to reduced consideration in favor of the debenture holders (i.e., a reallocation of the consideration amongst Aleafia security holders).

RWB relied upon, in good faith, MMCAP’s support of the transaction as a significant debenture holder, prior to entering into the Binding Letter Agreement and the Assignment of Debt and Security. Ultimately, the total consideration as reflected in the Binding Letter Agreement, whether cash, RWB shares, and/or assumption of debt/liabilities is what was agreed upon, subject to due diligence.

We thought it best that we articulate our position and are open to further conversations focused on negotiating the arrangement agreement in accordance with the terms of the Binding Letter Agreement.

Respectfully,

Eddie Mattei, CFO

Press Release

Red White & Bloom and Aleafia Health Mutually Agree to Terminate Binding Letter Agreement

TORONTO, ONTARIO July 14, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) – Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (CSE: RWB and OTC: RWBYF) (“RWB” or the “Company”) and Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX: AH and OTCQB: ALEAF) (“Aleafia”) are announcing the mutual termination of the binding letter agreement entered into between the parties on June 6, 2023 (the “Letter Agreement”) in respect of the proposed business combination transaction (the “Proposed Transaction”), as detailed in the joint press release issued on June 7, 2023. The termination is without liability or cost to either party.

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, and as a pre-requisite to closing the previously announced Proposed Transaction, the approval of holders of Aleafia convertible debentures issued under the amended and restated debenture indenture providing for the issue of certain convertible debentures dated as of June 27, 2022 between Aleafia and Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as the trustee, as supplemented by: (a) the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2024); (b) the second supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2026), and (c) the third supplemental indenture dated as of June 27, 2022 (providing for the issue of 8.50% Series C Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2028) (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) was required to settle all outstanding amounts due to them for an aggregate amount of $6 million in exchange for the cancellation of all Aleafia Convertible Debentures.

While Aleafia had received support in writing from certain holders of the outstanding Aleafia Convertible Debentures, certain other holders representing more than 33 1/3% of the outstanding Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as represented by their designated representatives, have communicated to Aleafia and RWB that they will not accept the terms of the settlement

Pursuant to an assignment of indebtedness and security dated June 6, 2023, NE SPC II LP sold to RWB, all indebtedness of Aleafia and certain of its affiliates in connection with the loan agreement made as of December 24, 2021, as amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023 (the “Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement”). Aleafia is currently in breach of certain covenants under the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, and while RWB has not, to date, taken steps to formally note Aleafia in default or immediately enforce its security, RWB has not waived any outstanding breaches and has reserved all of its rights and remedies under the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement and related security. RWB is currently considering all available options.

As a result of the termination of the Letter Agreement, and in light of the status of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, disinterested members of the board of directors of Aleafia continue to explore and evaluate potential strategic alternatives that may be available to Aleafia with the goal of maximizing value for Aleafia stakeholders. Aleafia does not intend to comment further with respect to the ongoing strategic review process unless and until it determines that additional disclosure is appropriate in the circumstances and in accordance with applicable securities laws.

DIP FACILITY TERM SHEET

Dated: July 24, 2023

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. ("Aleafia") and certain of its subsidiaries, as borrowers, and Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB" or the "DIP Lender", as the context dictates), as lender, are parties to a certain loan agreement made as of December 24, 2021, as guaranteed by certain other subsidiaries of Aleafia (as amended from time to time, the "Loan Agreement");

AND WHEREAS the Loan Agreement and all security and ancillary documents granted in connection therewith were assigned to RWB pursuant to a letter agreement dated as of June 6, 2023;

AND WHEREAS Aleafia has requested that RWB provide it with further loans to fund Aleafia and certain of its subsidiaries' restructuring efforts pursuant to a debtor-in-possession financing in the context of insolvency proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) (the "CCA") (the "CCA Proceedings") under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court");

AND WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions contained herein (this "Agreement"), the DIP Lender is prepared to establish the DIP Facility (as defined below) in favour of the Borrowers (as defined below) on the terms and conditions set out below;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual agreements contained herein (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged), agree as follows:

DEFINITIONS

Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them on Schedule "A" hereto.

BORROWERS

Aleafia, Emblem Cannabis Corporation and Aleafia Farms Inc. (collectively, and on a joint and several basis, the "Borrowers", and each a "Borrower").

GUARANTORS

Each Borrower (in accordance with Section "Borrowers' Guarantee" below), Growwise Health Limited, Emblem Realty Ltd., Emblem Corp., Canabo Medical Corporation, Aleafia Brands Inc., Aleafia Retail Inc., 2672533 Ontario Inc., 2676063 Ontario Inc. and Aleafia Inc. (collectively, the "Guarantors").

The Guarantors hereby guarantee in favour of the DIP Lender the payment and performance of all Obligations of the Borrowers under or in connection with the DIP Facility.

DIP LENDER

Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (the "DIP Lender").

JOINT AND SEVERAL

Each of the Borrowers agree, acknowledge and confirm that at their specific request the DIP Facility has been made available to all of them, and, in each case, that each individual Borrower's ability to drawdown the full amount available for DIP Advances under the DIP Facility is not restricted except as specifically provided for in this Agreement. All covenants, agreements and obligations of the Borrowers contained in this Agreement relating to or in connection with the DIP Facility shall be joint and several covenants, agreements and obligations of each of the Borrowers as co-borrowers, and each of the Borrowers shall be jointly and severally liable for and obligated to repay all Obligations under the DIP Facility, in each case without the necessity of restating the words "jointly and severally" or "joint and several" in respect thereof. Such joint and several liability is independent of the duties, obligations and liabilities of each other Borrower. Each of the Borrowers waives all benefits of discussion and division among the Borrowers, and each of the Borrowers acknowledges and confirms that the DIP Lender shall have no obligation to pursue any other Borrower, as the case may be, or any Guarantor for all or any part of the Obligations under the DIP Facility before it can recover all such Obligations from it. Each Borrower acknowledges and confirms that it is fully responsible for all such Obligations even though it may not have requested a single DIP Advance.

Each of the Borrower's liability for payment of the DIP Facility shall be a primary obligation, shall be absolute and unconditional, and shall constitute full recourse obligations of each of the Borrowers, enforceable against each of them to the full extent of their respective assets and properties. Each of the Borrowers expressly waives any right to require the DIP Lender to marshal assets in favour of any Borrower or any other Person or to proceed against any other Borrower or any collateral provided by any Person, and agrees that the DIP Lender may proceed against any Borrower or any collateral in such order as it shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion. To the extent permitted by law, any release or discharge, by operation of law, of any Borrower from the performance or observance of any obligation, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement shall not diminish or impair the liability of any other Borrower in any respect. Each of the Borrowers unconditionally and irrevocably waives each and every defense, right to discharge, compensation and setoff of any nature which, by statute or under principles of suretyship, guaranty or otherwise, would operate to impair or diminish in any way the obligation of any Borrower under this Agreement, and acknowledges that such waiver is by this reference incorporated into each security agreement, collateral assignment, pledge and/or other document from each Borrower now or later securing the DIP Facility, and acknowledges that as of the date of this Agreement no such defense or setoff exists. Each of the Borrowers waives any and all rights (whether by subrogation, indemnity, reimbursement, or otherwise) to recover from any other Borrower any amounts paid or the value of any Property given by such Borrower pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise until the DIP Facility are irrevocably paid in full in cash.

BORROWER'S GUARANTEE

To the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law and to the extent that a Borrower is deemed a guarantor, each Borrower unconditionally and absolutely, guarantees payment when due, whether by stated maturity, demand, acceleration or otherwise, of the Obligations and all existing and future indebtedness owing hereunder or in connection with the DIP Facility owed by each other Borrower and expressly waives any and all defenses now or hereafter arising or asserted by reason of (a) any extension, modification, forbearance, compromise, settlement or variation of any of the terms of the Obligations and the said indebtedness, (b) the discharge or release of any liability of any other Borrower or any other Person now or hereafter liable on the Obligations and the said indebtedness, by reason of bankruptcy or insolvency laws or otherwise, (c) the acceptance or release by the DIP Lender of any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, or any settlement, compromise or extension with respect to any such collateral, security or other guaranty, (d) the avoidance, invalidity or unenforceability of any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, (e) any failure to give any notice, demand, notice of dishonor, protest, presentment or non-payment, or any other notice, (f) any failure to comply with any Applicable Law in connection with any enforcement of any right or remedy against any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, or (g) any action or inaction of the DIP Lender in any insolvency proceeding involving any Borrower or any other Person.

DIP FACILITY

A non-revolving loan (the "DIP Facility") up to the maximum principal amount of $6,600,000 (the "Maximum Amount") including an initial advance in an amount of $2,400,000 (the "Initial Advance").

CURRENCY:

Unless otherwise noted, the currency of the DIP Facility shall be Canadian Dollars.

MATURITY DATE

Unless accelerated by an Event of Default, the DIP Facility shall be paid in full in cash on the date (the "Maturity Date") which is the earliest of:

(a) the date that is one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of the Initial Advance (or such later date as the DIP Lender in its sole discretion may agree to in writing with the Borrowers, acting reasonably);

(b) the date on which (i) the stay of proceedings under the CCAA Proceedings is lifted without the consent of the DIP Lender, or (ii) the CCAA Proceedings are terminated for any reason;

(c) the closing of a sale or similar transaction (including pursuant to a subscription agreement and/or a reverse vesting purchase agreement) for all or substantially all of the assets and business, or in respect, of the Obligors pursuant to the SISP, which has been approved by an order entered by the Court;

(d) the implementation of a plan of compromise or arrangement within the CCAA Proceedings (a “Plan”) which has been approved by the requisite majorities of the Obligors’ creditors and by an order entered by the Court; or

(e) the conversion of the CCAA Proceedings into a proceeding under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada).

The Maturity Date shall be accelerated upon the occurrence of an Event of Default.

The DIP Lender’s commitment in respect of the DIP Facility shall expire on the Maturity Date and all amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility including accrued Interest and Legal Fees (collectively, the “Obligations”) shall be repaid in full on the Maturity Date without the DIP Lender being required to make demand upon the Borrowers or to give notice that the DIP Facility has expired and the Obligations are due and payable.

AVAILABILITY

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Initial Order and the Restated Initial Order, the DIP Lender will make loans (the “DIP Advances”) to the Borrowers under the DIP Facility in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the Maximum Amount, as follows:

(a) Initial Advance: subject to the provisions hereunder under the heading CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF INITIAL ADVANCE, upon the issuance of the Initial Order by the Court, the amount of the Initial Advance, or such other lesser amount as may be approved by the Initial Order, will be made available to the Borrowers by the DIP Lender to finance the Borrowers’ operating requirements in accordance with the Initial Cash Flow Projections.

(b) Subsequent Advances: subject to the provisions hereunder under the heading CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF DIP ADVANCES (OTHER THAN THE INITIAL ADVANCE), and except as may be otherwise agreed in writing by the Borrowers and the DIP Lender, any further DIP Advances under the DIP Facility shall be made available to the Borrowers by the DIP Lender until the Maturity Date in accordance with the then applicable Cash Flow Projections approved by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion, from time to time, subject to duly issued orders of the Court.

Unless otherwise agreed to in writing in advance by the DIP Lender in its sole direction, each Additional Advance shall be made by the DIP Lender to the Borrowers as soon as practicable (and in any event within five (5) Business Days) after delivery to the DIP Lender of a drawdown certificate executed by the Borrowers certifying, inter alia, that (i) the advance corresponds with the then applicable Updated Cash Flow Projections for the one week period commencing the Monday following the date of the drawdown certificate, (ii) that there is no Default or Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing, and (iii) that the Borrowers are in compliance with the DIP Credit Documentation and the Restated Initial Order.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrowers shall not be required to submit a drawdown certificate to obtain the Initial Advance, the full amount of which shall be made available to the Borrowers by the DIP Lender immediately upon the satisfaction of the conditions precedent listed under the heading CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF INITIAL ADVANCE hereunder being satisfied by the Borrowers or otherwise waived by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion.

ACCOUNT

All DIP Advances shall be deposited into an account acceptable to the Borrowers, the Monitor and the DIP Lender and withdrawn to pay contemplated expenses under the then applicable Cash Flow Projections and otherwise in accordance with the terms hereof.

USE OF PROCEEDS AND CASH FLOW PROJECTIONS

The Initial Advance under the DIP Facility shall be used in accordance with the cash flow projections attached herewith as Schedule "B" (the "Initial Cash Flow Projections"), which have been prepared by the Borrowers in consultation with the Monitor. Any Additional Advances shall be used in accordance with the Updated Cash Flow Projections (collectively with the Initial Cash Flow Projections, the "Cash Flow Projections"), in each case, to fund working capital and general corporate needs of the Obligors during, and costs and expenses incurred by the Obligors in connection with, the CCAA Proceedings.

No proceeds of the DIP Advances may be used for any purpose other than in accordance with the Cash Flow Projections except with the prior written consent of the DIP Lender.

INTEREST RATE

Interest ("Interest") on the principal outstanding amount of the DIP Advances (including the compounded interest referenced below) from the date each such DIP Advance is made (or, in the case of the compounded interest referenced below, the date that such interest is compounded), both before and after maturity, demand, default, or judgment until payment in full at a rate of 12.5% per annum, compounded and calculated weekly shall accrue and be added to the principal amount of the DIP Advances on the first day of each month.

All interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 365-day (or 366 day, as applicable) year, in each case for the actual number of days elapsed in the period during which it accrues.

All payments under or in respect of the DIP Facility shall be made free and clear of any withholding, set-off or other deduction.

If any provision hereof or the DIP Credit Documentation would obligate the Obligors to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to the DIP Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by law or would result in receipt by the DIP Lender of interest at a criminal rate (as construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)) then, notwithstanding that provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law or result in a receipt by the DIP Lender of interest at a criminal rate.

FEES

The Borrower shall pay a commitment fee in the amount of $198,000.00 (the "Fee"), representing 3% of the Maximum Amount, which shall be fully earned upon the execution of this Agreement and shall be paid from the Initial Advance or otherwise satisfied on the date of issuance of the Initial Order by the Court. For certainty, the Fee shall be secured by the DIP Lender's Charge.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

The Borrowers shall pay, on a bi-weekly basis, all reasonable and documented costs and expenses of the DIP Lender, and all reasonable and documented fees, expenses and disbursements of outside counsel, appraisers, field auditors, and any financial consultant, related to or in connection with the CCAA Proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the DIP Lender in connection with the enforcement of any of the rights and remedies available hereunder.

DIP SECURITY

All Obligations of the Obligors under or in connection with the DIP Facility and any of the DIP Credit Documentation shall be secured by a Court Ordered Charge on all present and after-acquired personal and real, tangible or intangible property of the Obligors, in each case of any kind or nature whatsoever and wheresoever situated (the "DIP Lender's Charge") without the need for any further loan or security documentation or any filings or registrations in any public register or system.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF INITIAL ADVANCE

The DIP Lender's obligation to make the Initial Advance hereunder is subject to, and conditional upon, the satisfaction of all of the following conditions precedent:

1. the Obligors' application materials in connection with their application for the issuance of an initial order under the CCAA (in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably, the "Initial Order") shall have been shared with the DIP Lender, and such application shall have been brought before the Court no later than July 25, 2023, on notice to such parties as are acceptable to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;
2. the form of Initial Order shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;
3. KSV Restructuring Inc. shall have been appointed as the Monitor pursuant to the Initial Order;
4. the Initial Order (i) shall have been issued by the Court authorizing and approving the Initial Advance under the DIP Facility and granting the DIP Lender's Charge in respect of the Initial Advance, and (ii) shall be in full force and effect and shall have not been stayed, reversed, vacated, rescinded, modified or amended in any respect adversely affecting the DIP Lender, unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;
5. except to the extent not permitted by the CCAA, the DIP Lender's Charge shall have priority over all Liens granted by the Obligors against any of the undertakings, property or assets of the Obligors (collectively, the "Property") except for an administrative charge on the Property in an aggregate amount not to exceed $500,000 under the Initial Order, which amount shall be increased to $1,250,000 under the Restated Initial Order (the "Administrative Charge"); and
6. the Initial Cash Flow Projections shall be acceptable to the DIP Lender, in its reasonable discretion.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF DIP ADVANCES (OTHER THAN THE INITIAL ADVANCE)

The DIP Lender's obligation to make any Additional Advances hereunder is subject to, and conditional upon, the satisfaction of all of the following conditions precedent:

1. the Obligors' application materials in connection with their application for the Restated Initial Order shall be satisfactory to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably, and such application shall be brought before the Court no later than August 4, 2023, on notice to such parties as are acceptable to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;

2. an order amending and restating the Initial Order, in form and substance acceptable to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably, shall have been issued by the Court authorizing and approving the increase to the DIP Facility and granting the DIP Lender's Charge (the "Restated Initial Order") and the Restated Initial Order shall be in full force and effect and shall have not been stayed, reversed, vacated, rescinded, modified or amended in any respect adversely affecting the DIP Lender, unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;
3. the DIP Lender's Charge shall have priority over all Liens granted by the Obligors against any of the undertaking, property or assets of the Obligors except for the Administrative Charge;
4. all amounts requested for a particular Additional Advance shall be consistent with the Updated Cash Flow Projections for the applicable period, or otherwise expressly agreed by the DIP Lender in advance;
5. the terms and conditions of the Sale and Investment Solicitation Process (the "SISP"), including the various relevant milestones of such SISP and an outside date for the completion of the SISP (the "SISP Milestones") approved by the Court, shall be in a form and substance satisfactory to the Monitor, and the DIP Lender shall be satisfied, acting reasonably, with the terms of the SISP and the SISP Order;
6. the representations and warranties contained herein shall be true and correct; and
7. no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

Each of the Obligors agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Lender, its officers, directors, employees, representatives, advisors, solicitors and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") from and against any and all actions, lawsuits, proceedings (including any investigations or inquiries), claims, losses, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be incurred by or suited against or involve any of the Indemnified Persons as a result of, in connection with or in any way related to the DIP Facility, this Agreement, or the DIP Credit Documentation, except to the extent that such actions, lawsuits, proceedings, claims, losses, damages, liabilities or expenses result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Persons.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each of the Obligors represents and warrants to the DIP Lender, upon which the DIP Lender relies in entering into this Agreement and the other DIP Credit Documentation, that:

1. The transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other DIP Credit Documentation:
 - a. upon the granting of either the Initial Order or the Restated Initial Order, are within the powers of the Obligors;
 - b. have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Obligors;

AND WHEREAS the Loan Agreement and all security and ancillary documents granted in connection therewith were assigned to RWB pursuant to a letter agreement dated as of June 6, 2023;

AND WHEREAS Aleafia has requested that RWB provide it with further loans to fund Aleafia and certain of its subsidiaries' restructuring efforts pursuant to a debtor-in-possession financing in the context of insolvency proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) (the "CCA") (the "CCA Proceedings") under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court");

AND WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions contained herein (this "Agreement"), the DIP Lender is prepared to establish the DIP Facility (as defined below) in favour of the Borrowers (as defined below) on the terms and conditions set out below;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual agreements contained herein (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged), agree as follows:

DEFINITIONS

Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them on Schedule "A" hereto.

BORROWERS

Aleafia, Emblem Cannabis Corporation and Aleafia Farms Inc. (collectively, and on a joint and several basis, the "Borrowers", and each a "Borrower").

GUARANTORS

Each Borrower (in accordance with Section "Borrowers' Guarantee" below), Growwise Health Limited, Emblem Realty Ltd., Emblem Corp., Canabo Medical Corporation, Aleafia Brands Inc., Aleafia Retail Inc., 2672533 Ontario Inc., 2676063 Ontario Inc. and Aleafia Inc. (collectively, the "Guarantors").

The Guarantors hereby guarantee in favour of the DIP Lender the payment and performance of all Obligations of the Borrowers under or in connection with the DIP Facility.

DIP LENDER

JOINT AND SEVERAL

Each of the Borrowers agree, acknowledge and confirm that at their specific request the DIP Facility has been made available to all of them, and, in each case, that each individual Borrower's ability to drawdown the full amount available for DIP Advances under the DIP Facility is not restricted except as specifically provided for in this Agreement. All covenants, agreements and obligations of the Borrowers contained in this Agreement relating to or in connection with the DIP Facility shall be joint and several covenants, agreements and obligations of each of the Borrowers as co-borrowers, and each of the Borrowers shall be jointly and severally liable for and obligated to repay all Obligations under the DIP Facility, in each case without the necessity of restating the words "jointly and severally" or "joint and several" in respect thereof. Such joint and several liability is independent of the duties, obligations and liabilities of each other Borrower. Each of the Borrowers waives all benefits of discussion and division among the Borrowers, and each of the Borrowers acknowledges and confirms that the DIP Lender shall have no obligation to pursue any other Borrower, as the case may be, or any Guarantor for all or any part of the Obligations under the DIP Facility before it can recover all such Obligations from it. Each Borrower acknowledges and confirms that it is fully responsible for all such Obligations even though it may not have requested a single DIP Advance.

Each of the Borrower's liability for payment of the DIP Facility shall be a primary obligation, shall be absolute and unconditional, and shall constitute full recourse obligations of each of the Borrowers, enforceable against each of them to the full extent of their respective assets and properties. Each of the Borrowers expressly waives any right to require the DIP Lender to marshal assets in favour of any Borrower or any other Person or to proceed against any other Borrower or any collateral provided by any Person, and agrees that the DIP Lender may proceed against any Borrower or any collateral in such order as it shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion. To the extent permitted by law, any release or discharge, by operation of law, of any Borrower from the performance or observance of any obligation, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement shall not diminish or impair the liability of any other Borrower in any respect. Each of the Borrowers unconditionally and irrevocably waives each and every defense, right to discharge, compensation and setoff of any nature which, by statute or under principles of suretyship, guaranty or otherwise, would operate to impair or diminish in any way the obligation of any Borrower under this Agreement, and acknowledges that such waiver is by this reference incorporated into each security agreement, collateral assignment, pledge and/or other document from each Borrower now or later securing the DIP Facility, and acknowledges that as of the date of this Agreement no such defense or setoff exists. Each of the Borrowers waives any and all rights (whether by subrogation, indemnity, reimbursement, or otherwise) to recover from any other Borrower any amounts paid or the value of any Property given by such Borrower pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise until the DIP Facility are irrevocably paid in full in cash.

BORROWER'S GUARANTEE

To the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law and to the extent that a Borrower is deemed a guarantor, each Borrower unconditionally and absolutely, guarantees payment when due, whether by stated maturity, demand, acceleration or otherwise, of the Obligations and all existing and future indebtedness owing hereunder or in connection with the DIP Facility owed by each other Borrower and expressly waives any and all defenses now or hereafter arising or asserted by reason of (a) any extension, modification, forbearance, compromise, settlement or variation of any of the terms of the Obligations and the said indebtedness, (b) the discharge or release of any liability of any other Borrower or any other Person now or hereafter liable on the Obligations and the said indebtedness, by reason of bankruptcy or insolvency laws or otherwise, (c) the acceptance or release by the DIP Lender of any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, or any settlement, compromise or extension with respect to any such collateral, security or other guaranty, (d) the avoidance, invalidity or unenforceability of any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, (e) any failure to give any notice, demand, notice of dishonor, protest, presentment or non-payment, or any other notice, (f) any failure to comply with any Applicable Law in connection with any enforcement of any right or remedy against any collateral, security or other guaranty from any Borrower or any other Person, or (g) any action or inaction of the DIP Lender in any insolvency proceeding involving any Borrower or any other Person.

DIP FACILITY

A non-revolving loan (the "DIP Facility") up to the maximum principal amount of $6,600,000 (the "Maximum Amount") including an initial advance in an amount of $2,400,000 (the "Initial Advance").

CURRENCY:

Unless otherwise noted, the currency of the DIP Facility shall be Canadian Dollars.

MATURITY DATE

Unless accelerated by an Event of Default, the DIP Facility shall be paid in full in cash on the date (the "Maturity Date") which is the earliest of:

(e) the conversion of the CCAA Proceedings into a proceeding under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada).

The Maturity Date shall be accelerated upon the occurrence of an Event of Default.

The DIP Lender’s commitment in respect of the DIP Facility shall expire on the Maturity Date and all amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility including accrued Interest and Legal Fees (collectively, the “Obligations”) shall be repaid in full on the Maturity Date without the DIP Lender being required to make demand upon the Borrowers or to give notice that the DIP Facility has expired and the Obligations are due and payable.

(b) Subsequent Advances: subject to the provisions hereunder under the heading CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF DIP ADVANCES (OTHER THAN THE INITIAL ADVANCE), and except as may be otherwise agreed in writing by the Borrowers and the DIP Lender, any further DIP Advances under the DIP Facility shall be made available to the Borrowers by the DIP Lender until the Maturity Date in accordance with the then applicable Cash Flow Projections approved by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion, from time to time, subject to duly issued orders of the Court.

Unless otherwise agreed to in writing in advance by the DIP Lender in its sole direction, each Additional Advance shall be made by the DIP Lender to the Borrowers as soon as practicable (and in any event within five (5) Business Days) after delivery to the DIP Lender of a drawdown certificate executed by the Borrowers certifying, inter alia, that (i) the advance corresponds with the then applicable Updated Cash Flow Projections for the one week period commencing the Monday following the date of the drawdown certificate, (ii) that there is no Default or Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing, and (iii) that the Borrowers are in compliance with the DIP Credit Documentation and the Restated Initial Order.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrowers shall not be required to submit a drawdown certificate to obtain the Initial Advance, the full amount of which shall be made available to the Borrowers by the DIP Lender immediately upon the satisfaction of the conditions precedent listed under the heading CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE DISBURSEMENT OF INITIAL ADVANCE hereunder being satisfied by the Borrowers or otherwise waived by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion.

ACCOUNT

All DIP Advances shall be deposited into an account acceptable to the Borrowers, the Monitor and the DIP Lender and withdrawn to pay contemplated expenses under the then applicable Cash Flow Projections and otherwise in accordance with the terms hereof.

USE OF PROCEEDS AND CASH FLOW PROJECTIONS

The Initial Advance under the DIP Facility shall be used in accordance with the cash flow projections attached herewith as Schedule "B" (the "Initial Cash Flow Projections"), which have been prepared by the Borrowers in consultation with the Monitor. Any Additional Advances shall be used in accordance with the Updated Cash Flow Projections (collectively with the Initial Cash Flow Projections, the "Cash Flow Projections"), in each case, to fund working capital and general corporate needs of the Obligors during, and costs and expenses incurred by the Obligors in connection with, the CCAA Proceedings.

No proceeds of the DIP Advances may be used for any purpose other than in accordance with the Cash Flow Projections except with the prior written consent of the DIP Lender.

INTEREST RATE

Interest ("Interest") on the principal outstanding amount of the DIP Advances (including the compounded interest referenced below) from the date each such DIP Advance is made (or, in the case of the compounded interest referenced below, the date that such interest is compounded), both before and after maturity, demand, default, or judgment until payment in full at a rate of 12.5% per annum, compounded and calculated weekly shall accrue and be added to the principal amount of the DIP Advances on the first day of each month.

All interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 365-day (or 366 day, as applicable) year, in each case for the actual number of days elapsed in the period during which it accrues.

All payments under or in respect of the DIP Facility shall be made free and clear of any withholding, set-off or other deduction.

If any provision hereof or the DIP Credit Documentation would obligate the Obligors to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to the DIP Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by law or would result in receipt by the DIP Lender of interest at a criminal rate (as construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)) then, notwithstanding that provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law or result in a receipt by the DIP Lender of interest at a criminal rate.

FEES

The Borrower shall pay a commitment fee in the amount of $198,000.00 (the "Fee"), representing 3% of the Maximum Amount, which shall be fully earned upon the execution of this Agreement and shall be paid from the Initial Advance or otherwise satisfied on the date of issuance of the Initial Order by the Court. For certainty, the Fee shall be secured by the DIP Lender's Charge.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

The Borrowers shall pay, on a bi-weekly basis, all reasonable and documented costs and expenses of the DIP Lender, and all reasonable and documented fees, expenses and disbursements of outside counsel, appraisers, field auditors, and any financial consultant, related to or in connection with the CCAA Proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the DIP Lender in connection with the enforcement of any of the rights and remedies available hereunder.
