APPLICATION

1. Aleafia Health Inc. (“Aleafia Parent”), Emblem Corp. (“Emblem”), Emblem Cannabis Corporation (“Emblem Cannabis”), Emblem Realty Ltd. (“Emblem Realty”), Growwise Health Limited (“Growwise”), Canabo Medical Corporation (“Canabo”), Aleafia Inc. (“Aleafia Sub”), Aleafia Farms Inc. (“Aleafia Farms”), Aleafia Brands Inc. (“Aleafia Brands”), Aleafia Retail Inc. (“Aleafia Retail”), 2672533 Ontario Inc. (“2672”) and 2676063 Ontario Inc. (“2676” and with Aleafia Parent, Emblem, Emblem Cannabis, Emblem Realty, Growwise, Canabo, Aleafia Sub, Aleafia Farms, Aleafia Brands, Aleafia Retail and 2672, the “Aleafia Group” or the “Applicants”) make application for an Order substantially in the form attached herein to this Application Record (the “Initial Order”), inter alia:
 - (a) abridging the time for service of the Application and the materials filed in support thereof, and dispensing with further service thereof;
 - (b) declaring that the Applicants are parties to which the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) applies;
 - (c) appointing KSV Restructuring Inc. (“KSV” or the “Proposed Monitor”) as an officer of the Court to monitor the assets, business, and affairs of the Applicants (once appointed in such capacity, the “Monitor”);
 - (d) approving the Applicants’ ability to borrow under a debtor-in-possession (“DIP”) credit facility (the “DIP Loan”) to finance their working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes, expenses and costs over the CCAA proceedings;
 - (e) staying, for an initial period of not more than ten (10) days, all proceedings and remedies taken or that might be taken in respect of the Applicants, the Monitor, their directors and officers, or affecting the Applicants’ business or the Property (as defined in the Initial Order), except as otherwise set forth in the Initial Order or as otherwise permitted by law (the “Stay of Proceedings”);

- (f) granting the following charges (collectively, the “Charges”) over the Property:
- (i) an “Administration Charge” against the Property in the initial amount of $500,000, as security for the payment of the professional fees and disbursements incurred and to be incurred by the Proposed Monitor, counsel to the Proposed Monitor, and counsel to the Applicants, in connection with the CCAA proceedings both before and after the making of the Initial Order;
 - (ii) a “DIP Lender’s Charge” against the Property in the amount of the Initial Advance (term as defined herein) as security for the Applicants’ obligations under the DIP Loan;
 - (iii) a “Directors’ Charge” against the Property in the maximum amount of $835,000, in favour of the directors and officers of the Applicants, as security for the Applicants’ obligation to indemnify such directors and officers for obligations and liabilities they may incur in such capacities after the commencement of the CCAA proceedings, except to the extent that such obligation or liability was incurred as a result of the director's or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct;
- (g) approving payment to certain suppliers who are critical to the business and operations of the Aleafia Group for pre-filing expenses or to honour cheques issued to providers of goods and services prior to the Initial Order, with consent of the Monitor, which are necessary to facilitate the Applicants’ ongoing operations and to preserve value during the CCAA proceedings;
- (h) authorizing the Aleafia Group to continue utilizing its Cash Management System (term as defined below); and
- (i) grants such further and other relief as this Court may deem just and equitable.

2. If the Initial Order is granted, the Applicants intend to return to Court within ten (10) days (the “Comeback Hearing”) to seek approval of an Amended and Restated Initial Order (“ARIO”), inter alia:
 - (a) extending the Stay of Proceedings;
 - (b) increasing the quantum of and priming each of the Charges;
 - (c) seeking relief from certain securities reporting obligations;
 - (d) relieving Aleafia Parent of any obligation to call and hold its annual general meeting of shareholders until further Order of this Court; and
 - (e) seek such other relief as may be required to advance the Applicants’ restructuring efforts.
3. Notice to secured creditors of the Aleafia Group who are impacted by the Charges will be given in anticipation of the Comeback Hearing;
4. The Applicants also intend to, assuming the ARIO is granted, return to the Court for an order, inter alia, approving a sale and investment solicitation process and related bidding procedures.
5. The grounds for the application are:

OVERVIEW

6. The Aleafia Group is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company providing cannabis products to five of Canada’s largest provinces (Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Manitoba) and destined for select international medical cannabis markets;
7. Aleafia Parent is a reporting issuer in each of the provinces and territories of Canada, and common shares in its capital are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange in Canada under the trading symbol “AH”, and on the OTC Markets Group in the United States under the trading symbol “ALEAF”;

8. The Applicants are all companies incorporated by or under an Act of Parliament or of the legislature of a province, with each having assets or doing business in Canada;
9. The Applicants are in a dire liquidity crisis and are not able to meet their obligations as they become due. As of March 31, 2023, the Applicants have a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million with a net working capital deficit of $5.4 million. The net liabilities for Aleafia Parent alone are $31.3 million as of the same date;
10. As reflected in the Applicants' draft consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2023, the total liabilities of $74,432,000 exceed the total assets. Without access to funding, the Applicants have no ability to pay their obligations as they become due;
11. Absent the approval of the additional financing proposed to be made available under the DIP Loan, Aleafia Group will not be in a position to fund its next payroll (which is paid in arrears) scheduled to be paid on or around July 26, 2023 for hourly and July 27, 2023 for salaried. Furthermore, based on the cash flow forecast prepared by the Applicants, with the assistance of the Monitor, Aleafia Group has sufficient cash to sustain operations only for the week of ended July 21, 2023, but will have insufficient funds thereafter;
12. This Application is filed in a context wherein the Applicants have made various efforts since 2022 to raise additional liquidity and pursue strategic alternatives, which have failed to materialize;
13. Without the protection of the CCAA and the relief available thereunder, the Applicants will be unable to meet their obligations as they become due imminently. The Applicants' liabilities exceed $5 million;
14. If the Applicants are insolvent without the protection of the CCAA, the Applicants would be forced to shut down operations, which would be extremely detrimental to the Applicants' various stakeholders;
15. Each of the Applicants are companies to which the CCAA applies;

Stay of Proceedings

16. The Applicants require a Stay of Proceedings for an initial period of ten days and intend to seek an extension to same at the Comeback Motion;
17. The Stay of Proceedings is necessary and in the best interests of Applicants and their stakeholders as it will allow the Applicants to have the breathing space to maintain operations, for the benefit of most of its employees and other stakeholders, disclaim certain contracts, streamline their remaining operations with a view to generating a profit, and prepare a sale and investment solicitation process for a going-concern solution to maximize value for their stakeholders, which the Applicants will seek approval of after the Comeback Hearing;
18. Without the benefit of the Stay of Proceedings and the protections of the CCAA, the Applicants do not have the available liquidity to meet its liabilities and will be forced to cease operations;

Appointment of KSV as Monitor

19. KSV has consented to act as the Court-appointed Monitor of the Applicants, subject to Court approval;
20. KSV is a trustee within the meaning of section 2 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. B-3, as amended, and is not subject to any of the restrictions on who may be appointed as Monitor set out in section 11.7(2) of the CCAA;

Administration Charge

21. The Applicants seek an Administration Charge on their Property in the maximum principal amount of $500,000 as part of the proposed Initial Order, to secure the fees and disbursements incurred in connection with services rendered to the Applicants in favour of the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and the Applicants' counsel;

22. The Applicants require the expertise, knowledge, and continued participation of the proposed beneficiaries of the Administration Charge during these CCAA proceedings in order to complete a successful restructuring;
23. Upon return to this Honourable Court for the ARIO with notice to secured parties, the Administration Charge is proposed to have first priority over all other charges;

DIP Loan and DIP Lender's Charge

24. The cash flow statement prepared by the Applicants and reviewed by the Proposed Monitor indicates that the Applicants anticipate the need for interim financing to fund these CCAA proceedings, including during the initial ten day Stay of Proceedings;
25. In connection with the commencement of these CCAA proceedings, the Applicants entered into the DIP Loan with the DIP Lender, pursuant to which the DIP Lender has agreed to provide the DIP Loan to the Applicants, the initial advance of $2.4 million (the "Initial Advance") and a maximum principal amount of $6.6 million, approval of which will be sought at the Comeback Hearing;
26. The DIP Loan is conditional upon, among other things, the obtaining of an order of this Court approving the DIP Loan and other documents to be executed and delivered thereunder, as necessary, and granting the DIP Lender's Charge over the Applicants' Property;
27. Upon return to this Honourable Court for the ARIO with notice to secured parties, the DIP Lender's Charge is proposed to rank behind the Administration Charge but ahead of the Directors' Charge;

Directors' Charge

28. The Applicants seek a Directors' Charge over the Property to indemnify the directors and officers of the Applicants in respect of liabilities they may incur as directors and officers during the CCAA proceedings, up to a maximum principal amount of $835,000.00;

29. While the Applicants maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance, these policies may include contractual contingencies and uncertainty associated with possible coverage related issues;
30. Upon return to this Honourable Court for the ARIO with notice to secured parties, the Directors' Charge is proposed to rank subordinate to the Administration Charge and the DIP Lender's Charge;

Approving Payment to Suppliers

31. The Applicants seek authorization to make payments for certain pre-filing arrears, with the consent of the Monitor, to certain suppliers that provide the Applicants with essential services and/or products should the Monitor deem such payments to be critical to the business and operations;
32. The cooperation of suppliers is necessary for the Applicants to maintain their operations, and in certain circumstances, for the Applicants to be compliant with applicable provincial and/or municipal legislation relating to cannabis;
33. Payments to the critical suppliers will only be made with express authorization of the Proposed Monitor, and only to parties that the Proposed Monitor agrees are essential to the Applicants' business and operations;
34. KSV is supportive of the Applicants' request to have authorization to make payments for pre-filing arrears to suppliers;

Approval of Cash Management System

35. In the ordinary course of business, the Aleafia Group uses a centralized banking and cash management system (the "Cash Management System") to, among other things, collect funds and pay expenses associated with operations. Details on the Cash Management system are as set out in the Affidavit of Patricia Symmes-Rizakos sworn July 25, 2023 (the "Initial Affidavit");

36. The Applicants intend to continue using the existing Cash Management System during the CCAA proceedings and are seeking the approval of the Court to do so. Given the scale and nature of the Aleafia Group's operations, the continued use of the Cash Management System is required and appropriate during these CCAA proceedings;

STATUTORY REGIME

37. The provisions of the CCAA and the statutory, inherent and equitable jurisdiction of this Court;
38. Rules 1.04, 2.01, 2.03, 3.02, 14.05(2) and 16 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194, as amended, along with any other relevant provisions therein;
39. Section 106 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C. 43, as amended, along with any other relevant provisions therein; and
40. Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise;
41. THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of the motion:
- (a) the Initial Affidavit;
 - (b) the pre-filing report of the Proposed Monitor, including, without limitation, the exhibits appended thereto; and
 - (c) such further and other material as counsel may submit and this Court may permit.

3. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants shall remain in possession and control of their respective current and future assets, undertakings and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate including all proceeds thereof (the "Property"). Subject to further Order of this Court, the Applicants shall continue to carry on business in a manner consistent with the preservation of their business (the "Business") and Property. The Applicants are authorized and empowered to continue to retain and employ the employees, consultants, agents, experts, accountants, counsel and such other persons (collectively "Assistants") currently retained or employed by them, with liberty to retain such further Assistants as they deem reasonably necessary or desirable in the ordinary course of business or for the carrying out of the terms of this Order.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants shall be entitled to continue to utilize the central cash management system currently in place as described in the Symmes Affidavit or, with the consent of the Monitor and the DIP Lender, replace it with another substantially similar central cash management system (the "Cash Management System") and that any present or future bank providing the Cash Management System shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to inquire into the propriety, validity or legality of any transfer, payment, collection or other action taken under the Cash Management System, or as to the use or application by the Applicants of funds transferred, paid, collected or otherwise dealt with in the Cash Management System, shall be entitled to provide the Cash Management System without any liability in respect thereof to any Person (as hereinafter defined) other than the Applicants, pursuant to the terms of the documentation applicable to the Cash Management System, and shall be, in its capacity as provider of the Cash Management System, an unaffected creditor under any plan of compromise or arrangement (the “Plan”) with regard to any claims or expenses it may suffer or incur in connection with the provision of the Cash Management System.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants shall be entitled but not required to pay the following expenses whether incurred prior to, on, or after the date of this Order, subject to compliance with the Cash Flow Projections (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet):

- (a) all outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee and pension benefits, vacation pay and employee expenses payable on or after the date of this Order, in each case incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with existing compensation policies and arrangements, and all other payroll and benefits processing expenses;
- (b) with the consent of the Monitor and the DIP Lender, amounts owing for goods and services actually supplied to the Applicants prior to the date of this Order by third party suppliers, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $500,000, if such third party is critical to the Business and ongoing operations of the Applicants; and
- (c) the fees and disbursements of any Assistants retained or employed by the Applicants in respect of these proceedings, at their standard rates and charges.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as otherwise provided to the contrary herein, and subject to the Definitive Documents (as defined below), the Applicants shall be entitled, but not required to pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the Applicants in carrying on the Business in the ordinary course after this Order, and in carrying out the provisions of this Order, which expenses shall include, without limitation:

- (a) all expenses and capital expenditures reasonably necessary for the preservation of the Property or the Business including, without limitation, payments on account of insurance (including directors and officers insurance), maintenance and security services; and

- (b) payment for goods or services actually supplied to the Applicants on or following the date of this Order.

7. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants shall remit, in accordance with legal requirements, or pay:

- (a) any statutory deemed trust amounts in favour of the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any other taxation authority which are required to be deducted from employees' wages, including, without limitation, amounts in respect of (i) employment insurance, (ii) Canada Pension Plan, and (iii) income taxes;
- (b) all goods and services or other applicable sales taxes (collectively, "Sales Taxes") required to be remitted by the Applicants in connection with the sale of goods and services by the Applicants, but only where such Sales Taxes are accrued or collected after the date of this Order, or where such Sales Taxes were accrued or collected prior to the date of this Order but not required to be remitted until on or after the date of this Order;
- (c) any taxes, duties or other payments required under the Cannabis Legislation (as defined below) (collectively, "Cannabis Taxes"), but only where such Cannabis Taxes are accrued or collected after the date of this Order, or where such Cannabis Taxes were accrued or collected prior to the date of this Order but not required to be remitted until on or after the date of this Order; and
- (d) any amount payable to the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any political subdivision thereof or any other taxation authority in respect of municipal realty, municipal business or other taxes, assessments or levies of any nature or kind which are entitled at law to be paid in priority to claims of secured creditors and which are attributable to or in respect of the carrying on of the Business by the Applicants.

8. THIS COURT ORDERS that until a real property lease is disclaimed in accordance with the CCAA, the Applicants shall pay all amounts constituting rent or payable as rent under real property leases (including, for greater certainty, common area maintenance charges, utilities and realty taxes and any other amounts payable to the landlord under the lease) or as otherwise may be negotiated between the applicable Applicant and the landlord from time to time ("Rent"), for the period commencing from and including the date of this Order, twice-monthly in equal payments on the the first and fifteenth day of each month, in advance (but not in arrears). On the date of the first of such payments, any Rent relating to the period commencing from and including the date of this Order shall also be paid.

9. THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as specifically permitted herein, the Applicants are hereby directed, until further Order of this Court: (a) to make no payments of principal, interest thereon or otherwise on account of amounts owing by the Applicants to any of their creditors as of this date; (b) to grant no security interests, trust, liens, charges or encumbrances upon or in respect of any of their Property; and (c) to not grant credit or incur liabilities except in the ordinary course of the Business.

RESTRUCTURING

10. THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the Applicants shall, subject to such requirements as are imposed by the CCAA and such covenants as may be contained in the Definitive Documents, have the right to:

- (a) permanently or temporarily cease, downsize or shut down any of their business or operations, and to dispose of redundant or non-material assets not exceeding $250,000 in any one transaction or $1,000,000 in the aggregate;
- (b) terminate the employment of such of their employees or temporarily lay off such of their employees as they deem appropriate; and
- (c) pursue all avenues of refinancing of their Business or Property, in whole or part, subject to prior approval of this Court, all of the foregoing to permit the Applicants to proceed with an orderly restructuring of the Business.

NO PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE APPLICANTS OR THE PROPERTY

11. THIS COURT ORDERS that until and including August 4, 2023, or such later date as this Court may order (the "Stay Period"), no proceeding or enforcement process in any court or tribunal (each, a "Proceeding") shall be commenced or continued against or in respect of the Applicants or the Monitor or their respective representatives acting in such capacities, or affecting the Business or the Property, except with the written consent of the Applicants and the Monitor, or with leave of this Court, and any and all Proceedings currently under way against or in respect of the Applicants or affecting the Business or the Property are hereby stayed and suspended pending further Order of this Court.

NO EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OR REMEDIES

12. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, all rights and remedies of any individual, firm, corporation, governmental body or agency, or any other entities (all of the foregoing, collectively being "Persons" and each being a "Person") against or in respect of the Applicants or the Monitor, or their respective representatives acting in such capacities, or affecting the Business or the Property, are hereby stayed and suspended except with the written consent of the Applicants and the Monitor, or leave of this Court, provided that nothing in this Order shall (i) empower the Applicants to carry on any business which the Applicants are not lawfully entitled to carry on, (ii) affect such investigations, actions, suits or proceedings by a regulatory body as are permitted by Section 11.1 of the CCAA, (iii) prevent the filing of any registration to preserve or perfect a security interest, or (iv) prevent the registration of a claim for lien.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH RIGHTS

13. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person shall accelerate, suspend, discontinue, fail to honour, alter, interfere with, repudiate, rescind, terminate or cease to perform any right, renewal right, contract, agreement, lease, sublease, licence or permit in favour of or held by the Applicants, except with the written consent of the Applicants and the Monitor, or leave of this Court.

CONTINUATION OF SERVICES

14. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, all Persons having oral or written agreements with the Applicants or statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services, including without limitation all computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, security services, payroll services, insurance, transportation services, utility or other services to the Business or the Applicants, are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, suspending or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the Applicants, and that the Applicants shall be entitled to the continued use of their current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the Applicants in accordance with normal payment practices of the Applicants or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the Applicants and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by this Court.

NON-DEROGATION OF RIGHTS

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding anything else in this Order, no Person shall be prohibited from requiring immediate payment for goods, services, use of lease or licensed property or other valuable consideration provided on or after the date of this Order, nor shall any Person be under any obligation on or after the date of this Order to advance or re-advance any monies or otherwise extend any credit to the Applicants. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the rights conferred and obligations imposed by the CCAA.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

16. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, and except as permitted by subsection 11.03(2) of the CCAA, no Proceeding may be commenced or continued against any of the former, current or future directors or officers (or similar position) of any of the Applicants with respect to any claim against the directors or officers that arose before the date hereof and that relates to any obligations of the Applicants whereby the directors or officers are alleged under any law to be liable in their capacity as directors or officers for the payment or performance of such obligations.

DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INDEMNIFICATION AND CHARGE

17. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants shall indemnify their directors and officers against obligations and liabilities that they may incur as a director or officer of the Applicants after the commencement of the within proceedings, except to the extent that, with respect to any officer or director, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of such director's or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

18. THIS COURT ORDERS that the directors and officers of the Applicants shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Directors' Charge") on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $835,000, unless permitted by further Order of this Court, as security for the indemnity provided in paragraph 17 of this Order. The Directors' Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 35 and 37 herein.

19. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any language in any applicable insurance policy to the contrary, (a) no insurer shall be entitled to be subrogated to or claim the benefit of the Directors' Charge, and (b) the Applicants' directors and officers shall only be entitled to the benefit of the Directors' Charge to the extent that they do not have coverage under any director's and officer's insurance policy, or to the extent that such coverage is insufficient to pay amounts indemnified in accordance with paragraph 17 of this Order.

APPOINTMENT OF MONITOR

20. THIS COURT ORDERS that KSV Restructuring Inc. is hereby appointed pursuant to the CCAA as the Monitor, an officer of this Court, to monitor the business and financial affairs of the Applicants with the powers and obligations set out in the CCAA or set forth herein and that the Applicants and their respective shareholders, officers, directors, and Assistants shall advise the Monitor of all material steps taken by the Applicants pursuant to this Order, and shall co-operate fully with the Monitor in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its obligations and provide the Monitor with the assistance that is necessary to enable the Monitor to adequately carry out the Monitor's functions.

21. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, in addition to its prescribed rights and obligations under the CCAA, is hereby directed and empowered to:

- (a) monitor the Applicants' receipts and disbursements and the Applicants' compliance with the Cash Flows (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet), including the management and deployment/use of any funds advanced by the DIP Lender to the Applicants under the DIP Term Sheet;
- (b) report to this Court at such times and intervals as the Monitor may deem appropriate with respect to matters relating to the Property, the Business, and such other matters as may be relevant to the proceedings herein;

- (c) assist the Applicants, to the extent required by the Applicants, in their dissemination, to the DIP Lender and its counsel on a weekly basis of financial and other information as agreed to between the Applicants and the DIP Lender which may be used in these proceedings, including reporting on a basis to be agreed with the DIP Lender;
- (d) advise the Applicants in their preparation of the Applicants' cash flow statements and reporting required by the DIP Lender, which information shall be reviewed with the Monitor and delivered to the DIP Lender and its counsel on a periodic basis, but not less than weekly, or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Lender;
- (e) monitor all payments, obligations and any transfers as between the Applicants;
- (f) have full and complete access to the Property, including the premises, books, records, data, including data in electronic form, and other financial documents of the Applicants, to the extent that is necessary to adequately assess the Applicants' business and financial affairs or to perform its duties arising under this Order;
- (g) be at liberty to engage independent legal counsel or such other persons as the Monitor deems necessary or advisable respecting the exercise of its powers and performance of its obligations under this Order; and
- (h) perform such other duties as are required by this Order or by this Court from time to time.

22. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall not take possession of the Property, nor be deemed to take possession of the Property, pursuant to any provision of any federal, provincial or other law respecting, among other things, the manufacturing, possession, processing and distribution of cannabis or cannabis products including, without limitation, under the Cannabis Act S.C. 2018, c.16, as amended, the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, S.C. 1996, c. 19, as amended, the Excise Act, 2001, S.C. 2002, c. 22, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Licence Act, S.O. 2018, c. 12, Sched. 2, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Control Act, S.O. 2017, c. 26, Sched. 1, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Retail Corporation Act, 2017, S.O. 2017, c. 26, as amended, the British Columbia Cannabis Control and Licensing Act, S.B.C. 2018, c. 29, as amended, the British Columbia Cannabis Distribution Act, S.B.C. 2018, c. 28, as amended, the Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. G-1, as amended, the Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Regulation, Alta. Reg. 143/996, as amended, The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Act, S.S. 2018, c. C-2.111, as amended, The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Regulations, RRS, c. C-2.111 Reg 1, as amended, the Manitoba The Liquor, Gaming and Cannabis Control Act, C.C.S.M. c. L153, as amended, the Manitoba Cannabis Regulation, M.R. 120/2018, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Control Act, S.N. 2018, c. C-4.1, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Control Regulations, Nfld. Reg. 93/18, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Licensing and Operations Regulations, Nfld. Reg. 94/18, as amended, or other such applicable federal, provincial or other legislation or regulations (collectively, the "Cannabis Legislation"), and shall take no part whatsoever in the management or supervision of the management of the Business and shall not, by fulfilling its obligations hereunder, be deemed to have taken or maintained possession or control of the Business or Property, or any part thereof within the meaning of any Cannabis Legislation or otherwise, and nothing in this Order shall be construed as resulting in the Monitor being an employer or successor employer within the meaning of any statute, regulation or rule of law or equity for any purpose whatsoever.

23. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Monitor to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Monitor from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Monitor shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Monitor's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

24. THIS COURT ORDERS that that the Monitor shall provide any creditor of the Applicants, including, without limitation, the DIP Lender, with information provided by the Applicants in response to reasonable requests for information made in writing by such creditor addressed to the Monitor. The Monitor shall not have any responsibility or liability with respect to the information disseminated by it pursuant to this paragraph. In the case of information that the Monitor has been advised by the Applicants is confidential, the Monitor shall not provide such information to creditors unless otherwise directed by this Court or on such terms as the Monitor and the Applicants may agree.

25. THIS COURT ORDERS that, in addition to the rights and protections afforded to the Monitor under the CCAA or as an officer of this Court, neither the Monitor nor its respective employees and representatives acting in such capacities shall incur any liability or obligation as a result of the appointment of the Monitor or the carrying out by it of the provisions of this Order, including under any Cannabis Legislation, save and except for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Monitor by the CCAA or any applicable legislation.

26. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the Applicants shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements, in each case at their standard rates and charges, by the Applicants as part of the costs of these proceedings, whether incurred prior to, on, or subsequent to the date of this Order. The Applicants are hereby authorized and directed to pay the accounts of the Monitor, counsel for the Monitor and counsel for the Applicants on a bi-weekly basis or on such other terms as the parties may agree, and, in addition, the Applicants are hereby authorized to pay to the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the Applicants, retainers in the approximate amount of $75,000 to be held by them as security for payment of their respective fees and disbursements outstanding from time to time.

27. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Monitor and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

28. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and the Applicants' counsel shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Administration Charge") on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $500,000 as security for their professional fees and disbursements incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Monitor and such counsel, both before and after the making of this Order in respect of these proceedings. The Administration Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 35 and 37 hereof.

DIP FINANCING

29. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants are hereby authorized and empowered to obtain and borrow under an interim credit facility from the DIP Lender in order to finance the Applicants' working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes and capital expenditures, provided that borrowings under such credit facility shall not exceed $6,600,000 unless permitted by further Order of this Court.

30. THIS COURT ORDERS THAT such credit facility shall be on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the DIP Term Sheet between the Applicants and the DIP Lender dated as of July 24, 2023, as appended as Exhibit "TTT" to the Symmes Affidavit (as may be amended from time to time, the "DIP Term Sheet"), filed.

31. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants are hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such credit agreements, mortgages, charges, hypothecs and security documents, guarantees and other definitive documents (collectively, with the DIP Term Sheet, the "Definitive Documents"), as are contemplated by the DIP Term Sheet or as may be reasonably required by the DIP Lender pursuant to the terms thereof, and the Applicants are hereby authorized and directed to pay and perform all of its indebtedness, interest, fees, liabilities and obligations to the DIP Lender under and pursuant to the Definitive Documents (collectively, the "DIP Obligations") as and when the same become due and are to be performed, notwithstanding any other provision of this Order.

32. THIS COURT ORDERS that the DIP Lender shall be entitled to the benefit of and is hereby granted a charge (the "DIP Lender's Charge") on the Property as security for the DIP Obligations, which DIP Lender's Charge shall be in the aggregate amount of the DIP Obligations outstanding at any given time under the Definitive Documents. The DIP Lender's Charge shall not secure an obligation that exists before this Order is made. The DIP Lender's Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 35 and 37 hereof.

33. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Order:

- (a) the DIP Lender may take such steps from time to time as it may deem necessary or appropriate to file, register, record or perfect the DIP Lender's Charge or any of the Definitive Documents;
- (b) upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Definitive Documents or the DIP Lender's Charge, the DIP Lender, upon at least four (4) business days' written notice to the Applicants and the Monitor, may exercise any and all of its rights and remedies against the Applicants or the Property under or pursuant to the Definitive Documents and the DIP Lender's Charge, including without limitation, to cease making advances to the Applicants and set off and/or consolidate any amounts owing by the DIP Lender to the Applicants against the obligations of the Applicants to the DIP Lender under the Definitive Documents or the DIP Lender's Charge, to make demand, accelerate payment and give other notices, or to apply to this Court for the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager or interim receiver, or for a bankruptcy order against the Applicants and for the appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy of the Applicants; and
- (c) the foregoing rights and remedies of the DIP Lender shall be enforceable against any trustee in bankruptcy, interim receiver, receiver or receiver and manager of the Applicants or the Property.

34. THIS COURT ORDERS that the DIP Lender shall be treated as unaffected in any Plan filed by the Applicants under the CCAA, or any proposal filed by any of the Applicants under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the "BIA"), with respect to any advances made under the Definitive Documents.

VALIDITY AND PRIORITY OF CHARGES CREATED BY THIS ORDER

35. THIS COURT ORDERS that the priorities of the Directors' Charge, the Administration Charge and the DIP Lender's Charge (collectively, the "Charges"), as among them, shall be as follows:

First – Administration Charge (to the maximum amount of $500,000);

Second – DIP Lender’s Charge (to the maximum amount of the DIP Obligations at the relevant time); and Third – Directors’ Charge (to the maximum amount of $835,000).

36. THIS COURT ORDERS that the filing, registration or perfection of the Charges shall not be required, and that the Charges shall be effective as against the Property and shall be valid and enforceable for all purposes, including as against any right, title or interest filed, registered, recorded or perfected subsequent to the Charges coming into existence, notwithstanding any such failure to file, register, record or perfect.

37. THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the Charges (all as constituted and defined herein) shall constitute a charge on the Property and such Charges shall rank in priority to all other security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, claims of secured creditors, statutory or otherwise (collectively, "Encumbrances") in favour of any Person; other than any Person with a properly perfected purchase money security interest under the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or such other applicable legislation that has not been served with notice of this Order.

38. THIS COURT ORDERS that except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, or as may be approved by this Court, the Applicants shall not grant any Encumbrances over any Property that rank in priority to, or pari passu with, any of the Charges unless the Applicants also obtain the prior written consent of the Monitor, the DIP Lender and the beneficiaries of the Charges, or further Order of this Court.

39. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Charges and the Definitive Documents shall not be rendered invalid or unenforceable and the rights and remedies of the chargees entitled to the benefit of the Charges (collectively, the "Chargees") thereunder shall not otherwise be limited or impaired in any way by (a) the pendency of these proceedings and the declarations of insolvency made herein; (b) any application(s) for bankruptcy order(s) issued pursuant to BIA, or any bankruptcy order made pursuant to such applications; (c) the filing of any assignments for the general benefit of creditors made pursuant to the BIA; (d) the provisions of any federal or provincial statutes; or (e) any negative covenants, prohibitions or other similar provisions with respect to borrowings, incurring debt or the creation of Encumbrances, contained in any existing loan documents, lease, sublease, offer to lease or other agreement (collectively, an "Agreement") which binds the Applicants, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any Agreement:

- (a) neither the creation of the Charges nor the execution, delivery, perfection, registration or performance of the Definitive Documents shall create or be deemed to constitute a breach by the Applicants of any Agreement to which they are a party;
- (b) none of the Chargees shall have any liability to any Person whatsoever as a result of any breach of any Agreement caused by or resulting from the Applicants entering into of the Definitive Documents, the creation of the Charges, or the execution, delivery or performance of the Definitive Documents; and
- (c) the payments made by the Applicants pursuant to this Order or the Definitive Documents, and the granting of the Charges, do not and will not constitute preferences, fraudulent conveyances, transfers at undervalue, oppressive conduct, or other challengeable or voidable transactions under any applicable law.

40. THIS COURT ORDERS that any Charge created by this Order over leases of real property in Canada shall only be a Charge in the applicable Applicant's interest in such real property leases.

SERVICE AND NOTICE

41. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall (i) without delay, publish in The Globe and Mail National Edition a notice containing the information prescribed under the CCAA, and (ii) within five (5) days after the date of this Order, (A) make this Order publicly available in the manner prescribed under the CCAA, (B) send, or cause to be sent, in the prescribed manner, a notice to every known creditor who has a claim against any of the Applicants of more than $1,000, and (C) prepare a list showing the names and addresses of those creditors and the estimated amounts of those claims, and make it publicly available in the prescribed manner, all in accordance with Section 23(1)(a) of the CCAA and the regulations made thereunder; provided that the Monitor shall not be required to make the claims, names and addresses of individuals who are creditors publicly available unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

42. THIS COURT ORDERS that the E-Service Protocol of the Commercial List (the “Protocol”) is approved and adopted by reference herein and, in this proceeding, the service of documents made in accordance with the Protocol (which can be found on the Commercial List website at <http://www.ontariocourts.ca/scj/practice/practice-directions/toronto/e-service-protocol/>) shall be valid and effective service. Subject to Rule 17.05 this Order shall constitute an order for substituted service pursuant to Rule 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Subject to Rule 3.01(d) of the Rules of Civil Procedure and paragraph 21 of the Protocol, service of documents in accordance with the Protocol will be effective on transmission. This Court further orders that a Case Website shall be established in accordance with the Protocol with the following URL: <https://www.ksvadvisory.com/insolvency-cases/case/aleafia> (the “Website”).

43. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicants and the Monitor and their respective counsel are at liberty to serve or distribute this Order, any other materials and orders as may be reasonably required in these proceedings, including any notices, or other correspondence, by forwarding true copies thereof by electronic message to the Applicants' creditors or other interested parties and their advisors. For greater certainty, any such distribution or service shall be deemed to be in satisfaction of a legal or judicial obligation, and notice requirements within the meaning of clause 3(c) of the Electronic Commerce Protection Regulations, Reg. 81000-2175 (SOR/DORS).

44. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall maintain and update as necessary a list of all Persons appearing in person or by counsel in this proceeding (the “Service List”). The Monitor shall post the Service List, as may be updated from time to time, on the case Website as part of the public materials in relation to this proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Monitor nor its counsel shall have any liability in respect of the accuracy of or the timeliness of making any changes to the Service List.

GENERAL

45. THIS COURT ORDERS that any interested party that wishes to amend or vary this Order shall be entitled to appear or bring a motion before this Court on August 4, 2023, at 12:30PM (Toronto Time) or such other date as may be set by this Court upon the granting of this Order (the “Comeback Date”), provided, however, that the Chargees shall be entitled to rely on this Order as issued and entered and on the Charges and priorities set forth in paragraphs 35 and 37 hereof with respect to any fees, expenses and disbursements incurred, or advances made under the DIP loan, as applicable, until the date this Order may be amended, varied or stayed.

46. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding paragraph 45 of this Order, each of the Applicants, the DIP Lender or the Monitor may, from time to time, apply to this Court to amend, vary or supplement this Order or for advice and directions in the discharge of their respective powers and duties under this Order or in the interpretation of this Order hereunder.

47. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing in this Order shall prevent the Monitor from acting as an interim receiver, a receiver, a receiver and manager, or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Applicants, the Business or the Property.

48. THIS COURT HEREBY REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada, the United States, Germany or in Australia, to give effect to this Order and to assist the Applicants, the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All courts, tribunals, regulatory and administrative bodies are hereby respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the Applicants and to the Monitor, as an officer of this Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order, to grant representative status to the Monitor in any foreign proceeding, or to assist the Applicants and the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.

49. THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the Applicants and the Monitor be at liberty and is hereby authorized and empowered to apply to any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body, wherever located, for the recognition of this Order and for assistance in carrying out the terms of this Order, and that the Monitor is authorized and empowered to act as a representative in respect of the within proceedings for the purpose of having these proceedings recognized in a jurisdiction outside Canada.

50. THIS COURT ORDERS that any interested party (including the Applicants and the Monitor) may apply to this Court to vary or amend this Order on not less than seven (7) days notice to any other party or parties likely to be affected by the order sought or upon such other notice, if any, as this Court may order.

51. THIS COURT ORDERS that this Order and all of its provisions are effective as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on the date of this Order.

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES' CREDITORS ARRANGEMENT ACT, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, AS AMENDED AND IN THE MATTER OF A PLAN OF COMPROMISE OR ARRANGEMENT OF ALEAFIA HEALTH INC. et al.

~~² If service is effected in a manner other than as authorized by the Ontario Rules of Civil Procedure, an order validating irregular service is required pursuant to Rule 16.08 of the Rules of Civil Procedure and may be granted in appropriate circumstances.~~ carry on business in a manner consistent with the preservation of ~~its~~their business (the "Business") and Property. The ~~Applicant is~~Applicants are authorized and empowered to continue to retain and employ the employees, consultants, agents, experts, accountants, counsel and such other persons (collectively "Assistants") currently retained or employed by ~~it~~them, with liberty to retain such further Assistants as ~~it deems~~they deem reasonably necessary or desirable in the ordinary course of business or for the carrying out of the terms of this Order.

4. ~~5.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall be entitled to continue to utilize the central cash management system³ currently in place as described in the Symmes Affidavit of [NAME] sworn [DATE] ~~or~~or, with the consent of the Monitor and the DIP Lender, replace it with another substantially similar central cash management system (the "Cash Management System") and that any present or future bank providing the Cash Management System shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to inquire into the propriety, validity or legality of any transfer, payment, collection or other action taken under the Cash Management System, or as to the use or application by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants of funds transferred, paid, collected or otherwise dealt with in the Cash Management System, shall be entitled to provide the Cash Management System without any liability in respect thereof to any Person (as hereinafter defined) other than the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, pursuant to the terms of the documentation applicable to the Cash Management System, and shall be, in its capacity as provider of the Cash Management System, an unaffected creditor under any plan of compromise or arrangement (the "Plan") with regard to any claims or expenses it may suffer or incur in connection with the provision of the Cash Management System.}

5. ~~6.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall be entitled but not required to pay the following expenses whether incurred prior to, on, or after the date of this Order, subject to compliance with the Cash Flow Projections (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet):

- (a) all outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee and pension benefits, vacation pay and employee expenses payable on or after the date of this Order, in each case incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with existing compensation policies and arrangements, and all other payroll and benefits processing expenses;

(b) with the consent of the Monitor and the DIP Lender, amounts owing for goods and services actually supplied to the Applicants prior to the date of this Order by third party suppliers, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $500,000, if such third party is critical to the Business and ongoing operations of the Applicants; and

(c) ~~(b)~~ the fees and disbursements of any Assistants retained or employed by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants in respect of these proceedings, at their standard rates and charges.

6. ~~7.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as otherwise provided to the contrary herein, and subject to the ~~Applicant~~Definitive Documents (as defined below), the Applicants shall be entitled, but not required to pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants in carrying on the Business in the ordinary course after this Order, and in carrying out the provisions of this Order, which expenses shall include, without limitation:

- (a) all expenses and capital expenditures reasonably necessary for the preservation of the Property or the Business including, without limitation, payments on account of insurance (including directors and officers insurance), maintenance and security services; and
- (b) payment for goods or services actually supplied to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants on or following the date of this Order.

7. ~~8.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall remit, in accordance with legal requirements, or pay:

- (a) any statutory deemed trust amounts in favour of the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any other taxation authority which are required to be deducted from employees' wages, including, without limitation, amounts in respect of (i) employment insurance, (ii) Canada Pension Plan, and (iii) ~~Quebec Pension Plan,~~ and (iv) income taxes;

- (b) all goods and services or other applicable sales taxes (collectively, "Sales Taxes") required to be remitted by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants in connection with the sale of goods and services by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, but only where such Sales Taxes are accrued or collected after the date of this Order, or where such Sales Taxes were accrued or collected prior to the date of this Order but not required to be remitted until on or after the date of this Order;
- (c) any taxes, duties or other payments required under the Cannabis Legislation (as defined below) (collectively, "Cannabis Taxes"), but only where such Cannabis Taxes are accrued or collected after the date of this Order, or where such Cannabis Taxes were accrued or collected prior to the date of this Order but not required to be remitted until on or after the date of this Order; and
- (d) ~~(e)~~ any amount payable to the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any political subdivision thereof or any other taxation authority in respect of municipal realty, municipal business or other taxes, assessments or levies of any nature or kind which are entitled at law to be paid in priority to claims of secured creditors and which are attributable to or in respect of the carrying on of the Business by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants.

8. ~~9.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that until a real property lease is disclaimed ~~for resiliated~~⁴ in accordance with the CCAA, the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall pay all amounts constituting rent or payable as rent under real property leases (including, for greater certainty, common area maintenance charges, utilities and realty taxes and any other amounts payable to the landlord under the lease) or as otherwise may be negotiated between the applicable Applicant and the landlord from time to time ("Rent"), for the period commencing from and including the date of this Order, twice-monthly in equal payments on the the first and fifteenth day of each month, in advance (but not in arrears). On the date of the first of such payments, any Rent relating to the period commencing from and including the date of this Order shall also be paid.

⁴~~The term "resiliate" should remain if there are leased premises in the Province of Quebec, but can otherwise be removed.~~

9. ~~10.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as specifically permitted herein, the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants are hereby directed, until further Order of this Court: (a) to make no payments of principal, interest thereon or otherwise on account of amounts owing by the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants to any of ~~its~~ their creditors as of this date; (b) to grant no security interests, trust, liens, charges or encumbrances upon or in respect of any of ~~its~~ their Property; and (c) to not grant credit or incur liabilities except in the ordinary course of the Business.

RESTRUCTURING

10. ~~11.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants shall, subject to such requirements as are imposed by the CCAA and such covenants as may be contained in the Definitive Documents ~~(as hereinafter defined)~~, have the right to:

- (a) permanently or temporarily cease, downsize or shut down any of ~~its~~ their business or operations, ~~and to dispose of redundant or non-material assets not exceeding $~~250,000 ~~in any one transaction or $~~1,000,000 ~~in the aggregate~~⁵;
- (b) ~~terminate the employment of such of~~ its their employees or temporarily lay off such of ~~its~~ their employees as ~~it deems~~ they deem appropriate~~;~~ and
- (c) pursue all avenues of refinancing of ~~its~~ their Business or Property, in whole or part, subject to prior approval of this Court ~~being obtained before any material refinancing,~~

all of the foregoing to permit the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants to proceed with an orderly restructuring of the Business ~~(the "Restructuring")~~.

~~12.— THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall provide each of the relevant landlords with notice of the Applicant's intention to remove any fixtures from any leased premises at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the intended removal. The relevant landlord shall be entitled to have a representative present in the leased premises to observe such removal and, if the~~ landlord disputes the Applicant's entitlement to remove any such fixture under the provisions of the lease, such fixture shall remain on the premises and shall be dealt with as agreed between any applicable secured creditors, such landlord and the Applicant, or by further Order of this Court upon application by the Applicant on at least two (2) days notice to such landlord and any such secured creditors. If the Applicant disclaims ~~[or resiliates]~~ the lease governing such leased premises in accordance with Section 32 of the CCAA, it shall not be required to pay Rent under such lease pending resolution of any such dispute (other than Rent payable for the notice period provided for in Section 32(5) of the CCAA), and the disclaimer ~~[or resiliation]~~ of the lease shall be without prejudice to the Applicant's claim to the fixtures in dispute.

13. ~~THIS COURT ORDERS that if a notice of disclaimer [or resiliation] is delivered pursuant to Section 32 of the CCAA, then (a) during the notice period prior to the effective time of the disclaimer [or resiliation], the landlord may show the affected leased premises to prospective tenants during normal business hours, on giving the Applicant and the Monitor 24 hours' prior written notice, and (b) at the effective time of the disclaimer [or resiliation], the relevant landlord shall be entitled to take possession of any such leased premises without waiver of or prejudice to any claims or rights such landlord may have against the Applicant in respect of such lease or leased premises, provided that nothing herein shall relieve such landlord of its obligation to mitigate any damages claimed in connection therewith.~~

NO PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE ~~APPLICANT~~APPLICANTS OR THE PROPERTY

11. ~~14.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that until and including ~~[DATE — MAX. 30 DAYS]~~August 4, 2023, or such later date as this Court may order (the "Stay Period"), no proceeding or enforcement process in any court or tribunal (each, a "Proceeding") shall be commenced or continued against or in respect of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or the Monitor or their respective representatives acting in such capacities, or affecting the Business or the Property, except with the written consent of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor, or with leave of this Court, and any and all Proceedings currently under way against or in respect of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or affecting the Business or the Property are hereby stayed and suspended pending further Order of this Court.

NO EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OR REMEDIES

12. ~~15.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, all rights and remedies of any individual, firm, corporation, governmental body or agency, or any other entities (all of the foregoing, collectively being "Persons" and each being a "Person") against or in respect of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or the Monitor, or their respective representatives acting in such capacities, or affecting the Business or the Property, are hereby stayed and suspended except with the written consent of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor, or leave of this Court, provided that nothing in this Order shall (i) empower the ~~Applicant~~Applicants to carry on any business which the ~~Applicant is~~Applicants are not lawfully entitled to carry on, (ii) affect such investigations, actions, suits or proceedings by a regulatory body as are permitted by Section 11.1 of the CCAA, (iii) prevent the filing of any registration to preserve or perfect a security interest, or (iv) prevent the registration of a claim for lien.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH RIGHTS

13. ~~16.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person shall accelerate, suspend, discontinue, fail to honour, alter, interfere with, repudiate, rescind, terminate or cease to perform any right, renewal right, contract, agreement, lease, sublease, licence or permit in favour of or held by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, except with the written consent of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor, or leave of this Court.

CONTINUATION OF SERVICES

14. ~~17.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, all Persons having oral or written agreements with the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services, including without limitation all computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, security services, payroll services, insurance, transportation services, utility or other services to the Business or the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, suspending or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, and that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall be entitled to the continued use of ~~its~~their current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants in accordance with normal payment practices of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by this Court.

NON-DEROGATION OF RIGHTS

15. ~~18.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding anything else in this Order, no Person shall be prohibited from requiring immediate payment for goods, services, use of lease or licensed property or other valuable consideration provided on or after the date of this Order, nor shall any Person be under any obligation on or after the date of this Order to advance or re-advance any monies or otherwise extend any credit to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the rights conferred and obligations imposed by the CCAA.⁶

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

16. ~~19.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, and except as permitted by subsection 11.03(2) of the CCAA, no Proceeding may be commenced or continued against any of the former, current or future directors or officers (or similar position) of any of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants with respect to any claim against the directors or officers that arose before the date hereof and that relates to any obligations of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants whereby the directors or officers are alleged under any law to be liable in their capacity as directors or officers for the payment or performance of such obligations, ~~until a compromise or arrangement in respect of the Applicant, if one is filed, is sanctioned by this Court or is refused by the creditors of the Applicant or this Court.~~

DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INDEMNIFICATION AND CHARGE

17. ~~20.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall indemnify ~~its~~their directors and officers against obligations and liabilities that they may incur as ~~directors~~a director

⁶ ~~This non-derogation provision has acquired more significance due to the recent amendments to the CCAA, since a number of actions or steps cannot be stayed, or the stay is subject to certain limits and restrictions. See, for example, CCAA Sections 11.01, 11.04, 11.06, 11.07, 11.08, 11.1(2) and 11.5(1).~~ or ~~officers~~officer of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants after the commencement of the within proceedings,⁷ except to the extent that, with respect to any officer or director, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of ~~the~~such director's or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

18. ~~21.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the directors and officers of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Directors' Charge")⁸ on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $~~●~~835,000, unless permitted by further Order of this Court, as security for the indemnity provided in paragraph ~~{20}~~17 of this Order. The Directors' Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs ~~{38}~~35 and ~~{40}~~37 herein.

19. ~~22.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any language in any applicable insurance policy to the contrary, (a) no insurer shall be entitled to be subrogated to or claim the benefit of the Directors' Charge, and (b) the ~~Applicant's~~Applicants' directors and officers shall only be entitled to the benefit of the Directors' Charge to the extent that they do not have coverage under any ~~directors'~~director's and ~~officers'~~officer's insurance policy, or to the extent that such coverage is insufficient to pay amounts indemnified in accordance with paragraph ~~{20}~~17 of this Order.

APPOINTMENT OF MONITOR

20. ~~23.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that ~~{MONITOR'S NAME}~~KSV Restructuring Inc. is hereby appointed pursuant to the CCAA as the Monitor, an officer of this Court, to monitor the business and financial affairs of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants with the powers and obligations set out in the CCAA or set forth herein and that the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and ~~its~~their respective shareholders, officers, directors, and Assistants shall advise the Monitor of all material steps taken by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants pursuant to this Order, and shall co-operate fully with the Monitor in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its obligations and provide the Monitor with the assistance that is necessary to enable the Monitor to adequately carry out the Monitor's functions.

⁷~~The broad indemnity language from Section 11.51 of the CCAA has been imported into this paragraph. The granting of the indemnity (whether or not secured by a Directors' Charge), and the scope of the indemnity, are discretionary matters that should be addressed with the Court.~~

⁸~~Section 11.51(3) provides that the Court may not make this security/charging order if in the Court's opinion the Applicant could obtain adequate indemnification insurance for the director or officer at a reasonable cost.~~

21. ~~24.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, in addition to its prescribed rights and obligations under the CCAA, is hereby directed and empowered to:

- (a) monitor the ~~Applicant's~~Applicants' receipts and disbursements and the Applicants' compliance with the Cash Flows (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet), including the management and deployment/use of any funds advanced by the DIP Lender to the Applicants under the DIP Term Sheet;
- (b) report to this Court at such times and intervals as the Monitor may deem appropriate with respect to matters relating to the Property, the Business, and such other matters as may be relevant to the proceedings herein;
- (c) assist the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, to the extent required by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, in ~~its~~their dissemination, to the DIP Lender and its counsel on a ~~{TIME INTERVAL}~~weekly basis of financial and other information as agreed to between the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the DIP Lender which may be used in these proceedings, including reporting on a basis to be agreed with the DIP Lender;
- (d) advise the ~~Applicant~~Applicants in ~~its~~their preparation of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants's cash flow statements and reporting required by the DIP Lender, which information shall be reviewed with the Monitor and delivered to the DIP Lender and its counsel on a periodic basis, but not less than ~~{TIME INTERVAL}~~weekly, or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Lender;
- (e) ~~advise the Applicant in its development of the Plan and any amendments to the Plan;~~monitor all payments, obligations and any transfers as between the Applicants;
- (f) ~~assist the Applicant, to the extent required by the Applicant, with the holding and administering of creditors' or shareholders' meetings for voting on the Plan;~~

- (f) ~~(e)~~ have full and complete access to the Property, including the premises, books, records, data, including data in electronic form, and other financial documents of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, to the extent that is necessary to adequately assess the ~~Applicant's~~Applicants' business and financial affairs or to perform its duties arising under this Order;
- (g) ~~(h)~~ be at liberty to engage independent legal counsel or such other persons as the Monitor deems necessary or advisable respecting the exercise of its powers and performance of its obligations under this Order; and
- (h) ~~(i)~~ perform such other duties as are required by this Order or by this Court from time to time.

22. ~~25.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall not take possession of the Property, nor be deemed to take possession of the Property, pursuant to any provision of any federal, provincial or other law respecting, among other things, the manufacturing, possession, processing and distribution of cannabis or cannabis products including, without limitation, under the Cannabis Act S.C. 2018, c.16, as amended, the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, S.C. 1996, c. 19, as amended, the Excise Act, 2001, S.C. 2002, c. 22, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Licence Act, S.O. 2018, c. 12, Sched. 2, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Control Act, S.O. 2017, c. 26, Sched. 1, as amended, the Ontario Cannabis Retail Corporation Act, 2017, S.O. 2017, c. 26, as amended, the British Columbia Cannabis Control and Licensing Act, S.B.C. 2018, c. 29, as amended, the British Columbia Cannabis Distribution Act, S.B.C. 2018, c. 28, as amended, the Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. G-1, as amended, the Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Regulation, Alta. Reg. 143/996, as amended, The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Act, S.S. 2018, c. C-2.111, as amended, The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Regulations, RRS, c. C-2.111 Reg 1, as amended, the Manitoba The Liquor, Gaming and Cannabis Control Act, C.C.S.M. c. L153, as amended, the Manitoba Cannabis Regulation, M.R. 120/2018, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Control Act, S.N. 2018, c. C-4.1, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Control Regulations, Nfld. Reg. 93/18, as amended, the Newfoundland and Labrador Cannabis Licensing and Operations Regulations, Nfld. Reg. 94/18, as amended, or other such applicable federal, provincial or other legislation or regulations (collectively, the "Cannabis Legislation"), and shall take no part whatsoever in the management or supervision of the management of the Business and shall not, by fulfilling its obligations hereunder, be deemed to have taken or maintained possession or control of the Business or Property, or any part thereof within the meaning of any Cannabis Legislation or otherwise, and nothing in this Order shall be construed as resulting in the Monitor being an employer or successor employer within the meaning of any statute, regulation or rule of law or equity for any purpose whatsoever.

23. ~~26.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Monitor to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Monitor from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Monitor shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Monitor's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

24. ~~27.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that that the Monitor shall provide any creditor of the ~~Applicant and~~ Applicants, including, without limitation, the DIP Lender, with information provided by the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants in response to reasonable requests for information made in writing by such creditor addressed to the Monitor. The Monitor shall not have any responsibility or liability with respect to the information disseminated by it pursuant to this paragraph. In the case of information that the Monitor has been advised by the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants is confidential, the Monitor shall not provide such information to creditors unless otherwise directed by this Court or on such terms as the Monitor and the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants may agree.

25. ~~28.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, in addition to the rights and protections afforded to the Monitor under the CCAA or as an officer of this Court, neither the Monitor nor its respective employees and representatives acting in such capacities shall incur ~~no~~any liability or obligation as a result of ~~its~~the appointment of the Monitor or the carrying out by it of the provisions of this Order, including under any Cannabis Legislation, save and except for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Monitor by the CCAA or any applicable legislation.

26. ~~29.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements, in each case at their standard rates and charges, by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants as part of the costs of these proceedings, whether incurred prior to, on, or subsequent to the date of this Order. The ~~Applicant is~~Applicants are hereby authorized and directed to pay the accounts of the Monitor, counsel for the Monitor and counsel for the ~~Applicant~~Applicants on a ~~{TIME INTERVAL}~~bi-weekly basis or on such other terms as the parties may agree, and, in addition, the ~~Applicant is~~Applicants are hereby authorized to pay to the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and counsel to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, retainers in the approximate amount~~[s]~~ of $~~●~~75,000 ~~respectively,~~ to be held by them as security for payment of their respective fees and disbursements outstanding from time to time.

27. ~~30.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Monitor and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

28. ~~31.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, ~~if any,~~ and the ~~Applicant~~Applicants's counsel shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Administration Charge") on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $~~●~~500,000 as security for their professional fees and disbursements incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Monitor and such counsel, both before and after the making of this Order in respect of these proceedings. The Administration Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs ~~{38}~~35 and ~~{40}~~37 hereof.

DIP FINANCING

29. ~~32.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant is~~ Applicants are hereby authorized and empowered to obtain and borrow under an interim credit facility from ~~[DIP LENDER'S NAME]~~ (the "DIP Lender") in order to finance the ~~Applicant's~~ Applicants' working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes and capital expenditures, provided that borrowings under such credit facility shall not exceed $●6,600,000 unless permitted by further Order of this Court.

30. ~~33.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS THAT such credit facility shall be on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the ~~commitment letter~~ DIP Term Sheet between the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants and the DIP Lender dated as of ~~[DATE]~~ (the "~~Commitment Letter~~" July 24, 2023, as appended as Exhibit "TTT" to the Symmes Affidavit (as may be amended from time to time, the "DIP Term Sheet")), filed.

31. ~~34.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Applicant is~~ Applicants are hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such credit agreements, mortgages, charges, hypothecs and security documents, guarantees and other definitive documents (collectively, with the DIP Term Sheet, the "Definitive Documents"), as are contemplated by the ~~Commitment Letter~~ DIP Term Sheet or as may be reasonably required by the DIP Lender pursuant to the terms thereof, and the ~~Applicant is~~ Applicants are hereby authorized and directed to pay and perform all of its indebtedness, interest, fees, liabilities and obligations to the DIP Lender under and pursuant to the ~~Commitment Letter and the~~ Definitive Documents (collectively, the "DIP Obligations") as and when the same become due and are to be performed, notwithstanding any other provision of this Order.

32. ~~35.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the DIP Lender shall be entitled to the benefit of and is hereby granted a charge (the "DIP Lender's Charge") on the Property as security for the DIP Obligations, which DIP Lender's Charge shall be in the aggregate amount of the DIP Obligations outstanding at any given time under the Definitive Documents. The DIP Lender's Charge shall not secure an obligation that exists before this Order is made. The DIP Lender's Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs ~~{38}~~ 35 and ~~{40}~~ 37 hereof.

33. ~~36.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Order:

- (a) the DIP Lender may take such steps from time to time as it may deem necessary or appropriate to file, register, record or perfect the DIP Lender's Charge or any of the Definitive Documents;
- (b) upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Definitive Documents or the DIP Lender's Charge, the DIP Lender, upon ~~at least four (4) business days' written~~ notice to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor, may exercise any and all of its rights and remedies against the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or the Property under or pursuant to the ~~Commitment Letter~~, Definitive Documents and the DIP Lender's Charge, including without limitation, to cease making advances to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and set off and/or consolidate any amounts owing by the DIP Lender to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants against the obligations of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants to the DIP Lender under ~~the Commitment Letter~~, the Definitive Documents or the DIP Lender's Charge, to make demand, accelerate payment and give other notices, or to apply to this Court for the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager or interim receiver, or for a bankruptcy order against the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and for the appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants; and
- (c) the foregoing rights and remedies of the DIP Lender shall be enforceable against any trustee in bankruptcy, interim receiver, receiver or receiver and manager of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants or the Property.

34. ~~37. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES~~ that the DIP Lender shall be treated as unaffected in any ~~plan of arrangement or compromise~~Plan filed by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants under the CCAA, or any proposal filed by any of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act of (Canada) (the "BIA"), with respect to any advances made under the Definitive Documents.

VALIDITY AND PRIORITY OF CHARGES CREATED BY THIS ORDER

35. ~~38. THIS COURT ORDERS~~ that the priorities of the Directors' Charge, the Administration Charge and the DIP Lender's Charge (collectively, the "Charges"), as among them, shall be as follows⁹: ———

⁹~~The ranking of these Charges is for illustration purposes only, and is not meant to be determinative. This ranking may be subject to negotiation, and should be tailored to the circumstances of the case before the Court. Similarly,~~

First – Administration Charge (to the maximum amount of $●500,000);

Second – DIP Lender’s Charge (to the maximum amount of the DIP Obligations at the relevant time); and Third – Directors’ Charge (to the maximum amount of $●835,000).

36. ~~39.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the filing, registration or perfection of the ~~Directors’ Charge, the Administration Charge or the DIP Lender’s Charge (collectively, the "Charges")~~ shall not be required, and that the Charges shall be effective as against the Property and shall be valid and enforceable for all purposes, including as against any right, title or interest filed, registered, recorded or perfected subsequent to the Charges coming into existence, notwithstanding any such failure to file, register, record or perfect.

37. ~~40.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the ~~Directors’ Charge, the Administration Charge and the DIP Lender’s Charge~~ Charges (all as constituted and defined herein) shall constitute a charge on the Property and such Charges shall rank in priority to all other security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, claims of secured creditors, statutory or otherwise (collectively, "Encumbrances") in favour of any Person; other than any Person with a properly perfected purchase money security interest under the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or such other applicable legislation that has not been served with notice of this Order.

38. ~~41.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, or as may be approved by this Court, the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants shall not grant any Encumbrances over any Property that rank in priority to, or pari passu with, any of the ~~Directors’ Charge, the Administration Charge or the DIP Lender’s Charge,~~ Charges unless the ~~Applicant~~ Applicants also ~~obtains~~ obtain the prior written consent of the Monitor, the DIP Lender and the beneficiaries of the ~~Directors’ Charge and the Administration Charge~~ Charges, or further Order of this Court.

~~may be subject to negotiation, and should be tailored to the circumstances of the case before the Court. Similarly, the quantum and caps applicable to the Charges should be considered in each case. Please also note that the CCAA now permits Charges in favour of critical suppliers and others, which should also be incorporated into this Order (and the rankings, above), where appropriate.~~

39. ~~42.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the ~~Directors' Charge, the Administration Charge, the Commitment Letter, Charges and~~ the Definitive Documents ~~and the DIP Lender's Charge~~ shall not be rendered invalid or unenforceable and the rights and remedies of the chargees entitled to the benefit of the Charges (collectively, the "Chargees") ~~and/or the DIP Lender~~ thereunder shall not otherwise be limited or impaired in any way by (a) the pendency of these proceedings and the declarations of insolvency made herein; (b) any application(s) for bankruptcy order(s) issued pursuant to BIA, or any bankruptcy order made pursuant to such applications; (c) the filing of any assignments for the general benefit of creditors made pursuant to the BIA; (d) the provisions of any federal or provincial statutes; or (e) any negative covenants, prohibitions or other similar provisions with respect to borrowings, incurring debt or the creation of Encumbrances, contained in any existing loan documents, lease, sublease, offer to lease or other agreement (collectively, an "Agreement") which binds the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any Agreement:

- (a) neither the creation of the Charges nor the execution, delivery, perfection, registration or performance of ~~the Commitment Letter or~~ the Definitive Documents shall create or be deemed to constitute a breach by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants of any Agreement to which ~~it is~~they are a party;
- (b) none of the Chargees shall have any liability to any Person whatsoever as a result of any breach of any Agreement caused by or resulting from the ~~Applicant~~Applicants entering into of the ~~Commitment Letter~~Definitive Documents, the creation of the Charges, or the execution, delivery or performance of the Definitive Documents; and
- (c) the payments made by the ~~Applicant~~Applicants pursuant to this Order, ~~the Commitment Letter~~ or the Definitive Documents, and the granting of the Charges, do not and will not constitute preferences, fraudulent conveyances, transfers at undervalue, oppressive conduct, or other challengeable or voidable transactions under any applicable law.

40. ~~43.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that any Charge created by this Order over leases of real property in Canada shall only be a Charge in the applicable Applicant's interest in such real property leases.

SERVICE AND NOTICE

41. ~~44.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall (i) without delay, publish in ~~[newspapers specified by the Court]~~ The Globe and Mail National Edition a notice containing the information prescribed under the CCAA, and (ii) within five (5) days after the date of this Order, (A) make this Order publicly available in the manner prescribed under the CCAA, (B) send, or cause to be sent, in the prescribed manner, a notice to every known creditor who has a claim against any of the ApplicantApplicants of more than $~~1000~~1,000, and (C) prepare a list showing the names and addresses of those creditors and the estimated amounts of those claims, and make it publicly available in the prescribed manner, all in accordance with Section 23(1)(a) of the CCAA and the regulations made thereunder; provided that the Monitor shall not be required to make the claims, names and addresses of individuals who are creditors publicly available unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

42. ~~45.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that the E-Service Protocol of the Commercial List (the “Protocol”) is approved and adopted by reference herein and, in this proceeding, the service of documents made in accordance with the Protocol (which can be found on the Commercial List website at <http://www.ontariocourts.ca/scj/practice/practice-directions/toronto/e-service-protocol/>) shall be valid and effective service. Subject to Rule 17.05 this Order shall constitute an order for substituted service pursuant to Rule 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Subject to Rule 3.01(d) of the Rules of Civil Procedure and paragraph 21 of the Protocol, service of documents in accordance with the Protocol will be effective on transmission. This Court further orders that a Case Website shall be established in accordance with the Protocol with the following URL ~~‘@’~~: <https://www.ksvadvisory.com/insolvency-cases/case/aleafia> (the “Website”).

43. ~~46.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that ~~if the service or distribution of documents in accordance with the Protocol is not practicable, the Applicant~~the Applicants and the Monitor and their respective counsel are at liberty to serve or distribute this Order, any other materials and orders as may be reasonably required in these proceedings, including any notices, or other correspondence, by forwarding true copies thereof by ~~prepaid ordinary mail, courier, personal delivery or facsimile transmission~~electronic message to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants's creditors or other interested parties at and their ~~respective addresses as last shown on the records of the~~ ~~Applicant and that~~advisors. For greater certainty, any such ~~service or~~ distribution ~~by courier,~~ ~~personal delivery or facsimile transmission~~or service shall be deemed to be ~~received on the next business day following the date of forwarding thereof,~~in satisfaction of a legal or judicial obligation, and notice requirements within the meaning of clause 3(c) of the Electronic Commerce Protection Regulations, Reg. 81000-2175 (SOR/DORS).

44. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall maintain and update as necessary a list of all Persons appearing in person or ~~if sent~~ by ~~ordinary mail, on the third business day after mailing~~counsel in this proceeding (the “Service List”). The Monitor shall post the Service List, as may be updated from time to time, on the case Website as part of the public materials in relation to this proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Monitor nor its counsel shall have any liability in respect of the accuracy of or the timeliness of making any changes to the Service List.

GENERAL

45. THIS COURT ORDERS that any interested party that wishes to amend or vary this Order shall be entitled to appear or bring a motion before this Court on August 4, 2023, at 12:30PM (Toronto Time) or such other date as may be set by this Court upon the granting of this Order (the “Comeback Date”), provided, however, that the Chargees shall be entitled to rely on this Order as issued and entered and on the Charges and priorities set forth in paragraphs 35 and 37 hereof with respect to any fees, expenses and disbursements incurred, or advances made under the DIP loan, as applicable, until the date this Order may be amended, varied or stayed.

46. ~~47.~~THIS COURT ORDERS that ~~the Applicant,~~ notwithstanding paragraph 45 of this Order, each of the Applicants, the DIP Lender or the Monitor may, from time to time, apply to this Court to amend, vary or supplement this Order or for advice and directions in the discharge of ~~its~~their respective powers and duties under this Order or in the interpretation of this Order hereunder.

47. ~~48.~~THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing in this Order shall prevent the Monitor from acting as an interim receiver, a receiver, a receiver and manager, or a trustee in bankruptcy of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, the Business or the Property.

48. ~~49.~~ THIS COURT HEREBY REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada ~~or in,~~ the United States, Germany or in Australia, to give effect to this Order and to assist the ~~Applicant~~Applicants, the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All courts, tribunals, regulatory and administrative bodies are hereby respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and to the Monitor, as an officer of this Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order, to grant representative status to the Monitor in any foreign proceeding, or to assist the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.

49. ~~50.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor be at liberty and is hereby authorized and empowered to apply to any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body, wherever located, for the recognition of this Order and for assistance in carrying out the terms of this Order, and that the Monitor is authorized and empowered to act as a representative in respect of the within proceedings for the purpose of having these proceedings recognized in a jurisdiction outside Canada.

50. ~~51.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that any interested party (including the ~~Applicant~~Applicants and the Monitor) may apply to this Court to vary or amend this Order on not less than seven (7) days notice to any other party or parties likely to be affected by the order sought or upon such other notice, if any, as this Court may order.

51. ~~52.~~ THIS COURT ORDERS that this Order and all of its provisions are effective as of 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on the date of this Order.

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES' CREDITORS ARRANGEMENT ACT, R.S.C. 1985, C. C-36, AS AMENDED

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPROMISE OR ARRANGEMENT OF ALEAFIA HEALTH INC., EMBLEM CORP., EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION, EMBLEM REALTY LTD., GROWWISE HEALTH LIMITED., CANABO MEDICAL CORPORATION, ALEAFIA INC., ALEAFIA FARMS INC., ALEAFIA BRANDS INC., ALEAFIA RETAIL INC., 2672533 ONTARIO INC., AND 2676063 ONTARIO INC.

Applicants

AFFIDAVIT OF PATRICIA SYMMES-RIZAKOS
(Sworn July 24, 2023)

I, Patricia Symmes-Rizakos, of the City of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, MAKE OATH AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

I. INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

1. I am the Chief Executive Officer of Aleafia Health Inc. ("Aleafia Parent" and together with its Subsidiaries (as defined below), the "Applicants" or "Aleafia Group").

2. Emblem Corp. ("Emblem"), Emblem Cannabis Corporation ("Emblem Cannabis"), Emblem Realty Ltd. ("Emblem Realty"), Growwise Health Limited ("Growwise"), Canabo Medical Corporation ("Canabo"), Aleafia Inc. ("Aleafia Sub"), Aleafia Farms Inc. ("Aleafia Farms"), Aleafia Brands Inc. ("Aleafia Brands"), Aleafia Retail Inc. ("Aleafia Retail"), 2672533 Ontario Inc. ("2672") and 2676063 Ontario Inc. ("2676") are various subsidiaries of Aleafia Parent (individually, a "Subsidiary" and together, the "Subsidiaries"). Aleafia Group through Aleafia Retail also has a minority interest in a certain other non-Applicant affiliate.¹

3. I have been the Chief Executive Officer of Aleafia Parent since February 2022, as described in more detail below. As such, I have personal knowledge of the matters to which I depose in this Affidavit except where I have obtained information from others. Where I have obtained information from others, I have stated the source of my information and, in all such cases, believe such information to be true.

4. This affidavit is in support of an urgent application by the Applicants, on short notice to only the Applicants' senior secured creditors, being RWB, 126 and Computershare as trustee on behalf of the Debentureholders, for an Order (the "Initial Order") pursuant to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA"), inter alia:

- (a) abridging the time for service of the Application and the materials filed in support thereof, and dispensing with further service thereof;
- (b) declaring that the Applicants are parties to which the CCAA applies;
- (c) appointing KSV Restructuring Inc. ("KSV" or the "Proposed Monitor") as an officer of the Court to monitor the assets, business, and affairs of the Applicants (once appointed in such capacity, the "Monitor");
- (d) approving the Applicants' ability to borrow under a debtor-in-possession ("DIP") credit facility (the "DIP Loan") to finance their working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes, expenses and costs over the CCAA proceedings;
- (e) staying, for an initial period of not more than ten (10) days, all proceedings and remedies taken or that might be taken in respect of the Applicants, the Monitor, their directors and officers, or affecting the Applicants' business or the Property (as defined in the Initial Order), except as otherwise set forth in the Initial Order or as otherwise permitted by law (the "Stay of Proceedings");
- (f) granting the following limited priority charges (collectively, the "Charges") against the Applicants' current and future assets, undertakings and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate, including all proceeds thereof (collectively, the "Property"):
 - (i) the Administration Charge (as defined below) in favour of the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and counsel to the Applicants;
 - (ii) the DIP Lenders' Charge in favour of the DIP Lender (each as defined below);
 - (iii) the Directors' Charge (as defined in the Initial Order) in favour of the Directors and Officers;

- (g) approving payment to certain suppliers who are critical to the business and operations of the Aleafia Group for pre-filing expenses or to honour cheques issued to providers of goods and services prior to the Initial Order, with consent of the Monitor and in accordance with the terms of the DIP Term Sheet and the Cash Flow Forecast (each as defined below) which are necessary to facilitate the Applicants' ongoing operations and to preserve value during the CCAA proceedings, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $500,000; and
- (h) authorizing the Aleafia Group to continue to use the Cash Management System (term as defined herein).

5. If the Initial Order is granted, the Applicants intend to return to Court within ten (10) days (the "Comeback Hearing") to seek an amended and restated Initial Order (the "ARIO") in order to, inter alia:

- (a) extend the Stay of Proceedings;
- (b) increase the quantum of and priming each of the Charges;
- (c) seek relief from certain securities reporting obligations;
- (d) relieve Aleafia Parent of any obligation to call and hold its annual general meeting of shareholders (the "AGM") until further Order of this Court; and
- (e) seek such other relief as may be required to advance the Applicants' restructuring efforts.

6. The Applicants also intend to, post-issuance of the ARIO, return to the Court for an order, inter alia, approving a sale and investment solicitation process (the "SISP" or the "Sales Process") and related bidding procedures (as later explained herein) (the "SISP Order").

7. All references to currency in this affidavit are in Canadian dollars unless noted otherwise. Capitalized terms used within this Affidavit are as defined later herein.

II. THE URGENT NEED FOR RELIEF

8. The Applicants are in a dire liquidity crisis and are not able to meet their obligations as they become due. As of March 31, 2023, the Applicants have a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million with a net working capital deficit of $5.4 million. The net liabilities for Aleafia Parent alone are $31.3 million as of the same date. In light of the Applicants' financial circumstances, Aleafia Parent is no longer able to satisfy the conditions precedent to obtaining further advances under its Senior Loan Agreement (as defined below).

9. Absent the approval of the additional financing proposed to be made available under the DIP Loan, Aleafia Parent will not be in a position to fund its next payroll (which is paid in arrears) scheduled to be paid on or around July 26, 2023 for hourly and July 27, 2023 for salaried. Furthermore, based on the Cash Flow Forecast (as defined below), Aleafia Group has sufficient cash to sustain operations for the week of July 24, 2023, but will have insufficient funds thereafter. There is thus significant urgency to this CCAA application and the relief sought pursuant to the Initial Order.

10. The Aleafia Group is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company providing cannabis products to five of Canada's largest provinces (Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Manitoba)² and destined for select international medical cannabis markets. The Aleafia Group also operates a virtual cannabis clinic named "Canabo Medical Clinic", staffed by various physicians and nurse practitioners, which also provide health and wellness services across Canada; medical cannabis is largely produced through Aleafia Group's Subsidiary Emblem Cannabis. A separate physical clinic also operates in St. John's, Newfoundland.

11. The Aleafia Group produces and/or sells a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vapes, oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual stripes and topicals for sale in Canada and various international jurisdictions. The Aleafia Group sells its products primarily through three core sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. To produce these products, the Aleafia Group historically operated from three licensed cannabis production facilities in the province of Ontario, one of which is Canada's largest outdoor cannabis cultivation facility (the Scugog Property, as defined herein).³ A fourth distribution centre located in Ontario, which is licensed as a processor by Health Canada (as further detailed herein), enables same day delivery service and direct-to-retailer cannabis distribution services. As mentioned above, the Aleafia Group also operates, through one of its Subsidiaries, a physical medical clinic located in St. John's, Newfoundland. Certain of these locations are also subject to exit plans, as described later in this Affidavit.

² As described further herein, the Aleafia Group holds provincial cannabis supply agreements with Ontario, British Columbia and Alberta. The Aleafia Group operates in Saskatchewan by providing cannabis product directly to a third-party wholesaler located within that province. The Aleafia Group operates in Manitoba as a registered supplier to Manitoba's cannabis regulatory agency.

12. As of the date of this affidavit, the Grimsby Property is not operational, although its license remains active. As more particularly described below, the Aleafia Group has been marketing this property for sale for over eight months, although no sale has yet materialized.

13. Aleafia Parent is a reporting issuer in each of the provinces and territories of Canada and common shares in its capital are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) in Canada under the trading symbol “AH”, and on the OTC Markets Group (the “OTCQB”)⁴ in the United States under the trading symbol “ALEAF”. The common shares of Aleafia Parent were also previously listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol “ARAH”, although this listing is now inactive.

14. As described further below, the key factors that have shaped the financial stresses felt by the Aleafia Group are as follows, including:

- (a) Senior Loan Agreement Enforcement: The Aleafia Group’s senior secured credit facility advanced pursuant to the Senior Loan Agreement came due after being granted a series of extensions and other accommodations that had been provided on an interim basis by RWB. However, RWB had indicated to Aleafia Group management that they were no longer prepared to extend any further accommodations under the current circumstances. As a result, as of the date of this Affidavit, RWB has issued Demands and NITES (terms as defined below);
- (b) Failed Proposed Transaction: The Aleafia Group has exhausted all options available to sell assets, re-finance or raise equity. Following a process to identify strategic alternatives, Aleafia Group entered into a Letter of Agreement (as defined herein) for a business combination with RWB (as later defined as the “Proposed Transaction”), which required a settlement of the Aleafia Group’s obligations to Debentureholders. Despite having been approved by Aleafia Parent’s Board and obtaining a support agreement from a Debentureholder holding 28% of the Debentures (as defined in the Debenture Agreements), the Ad Hoc Group, who purports to represent in excess of 33% of the Debentureholders (an amount that ensures that a settlement as contemplated in the Letter Agreement would not pass a vote), notified the Aleafia Group of its intent to vote

⁴ The OTCQB is a mid-tier over-the-counter market for early-stage and developing U.S. and international companies.

down the Proposed Transaction. As stated by the Ad Hoc Group, the Ad Hoc Group was unwilling to support the Proposed Transaction in its current form due to, among other things, differing payout potentials over other subordinated stakeholders;

- (c) Cash Flow Crisis: There is currently no availability under the RWB Loan. Without alternate restructuring, debt/equity financing or amalgamation options, the Aleafia Group faces immediate liquidity deficiencies after the week of July 24, 2023; and
- (d) Industry Problems: In addition, there are further sector-specific challenging factors which impact the cannabis industry. The cannabis industry is highly regulated, has significant taxation burdens, and is experiencing rapid change amid a heavily saturated market. A complex and administrative-heavy regulatory and licensing regime, alongside competition from the illicit market, has caused significant uncertainty in the industry space. Significantly, impacts from these effects have created challenging conditions in the cannabis industry, and further negatively affected the ability of cannabis companies to obtain investment or financing for operations and capital expenditures. Certain major other cannabis companies within the sector have recently filed for creditor protection in 2023.⁵ An increased taxation burden from excise taxes, as well as the need for funding in advance of receivables, has additionally detrimentally impacted growth potential within the sector.

15. In light of the above, the Applicants are seeking protection under the CCAA to, among other things, obtain additional financing in order to continue operations and to implement the SISP that would see the Applicants restructured and/or all or a portion of the Applicants' business and assets sold as a going concern.

16. Subject to certain conditions, including court approval, RWB (in such capacity, the "DIP Lender") has agreed to fund these CCAA proceedings through the DIP Loan. The DIP Loan will provide the Applicants with immediate access to funding needed to continue to operate and preserve the value of their operations while the ultimate SISP is conducted, assuming the Initial Order is granted. As noted above, the relief in respect of the SISP is intended to be sought after the Comeback Hearing.

⁵ As an example, in June of 2023, Fire & Flower Holdings Corp., Fire & Flower Inc., 13318184 Canada Inc., 11180703 Canada Inc., 10926671 Canada Ltd., Friendly Stranger Holdings Corp., Pineapple Express Delivery Inc., and Hifyre Inc. (collectively, "Fire & Flower") obtained creditor protection under the CCAA. The Aleafia Group had certain business relationships with Fire & Flower as a supplier.

17. The CCAA filing and the eventual SISP are intended to benefit all of the Applicants’ stakeholders in Canada and abroad, including employees, customers, suppliers and contracting parties, Health Canada, and the relevant provincial cannabis regulators, among others.

18. In addition, it is my expectation that RWB, the Applicant’s senior secured lender, and 126 (terms as defined herein), the Applicant’s second senior secured lender, are supportive of the filing and will be provided notice of this application as well as the scope of the relief contemplated therein. It is also my understanding that formal notice of an Event of Default (term as defined in the Debenture Agreements) will be provided to the Trustee immediately concurrent with service of these CCAA application materials on all of the Aleafia Group’s senior secured creditors, being RWB, 126 and the Ad Hoc Group, which will occur prior to the scheduled hearing on July 25, 2023. As noted above, prior to the execution of this Affidavit, RWB has also delivered Demands and NITES.

19. For these reasons and the reasons set out herein, I do verily believe that the Applicants are insolvent and are companies to which the CCAA applies.

III. OVERVIEW

20. A copy of the Aleafia Group’s current corporate chart is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “A” and is reproduced for ease of reference:

Notes:

1. All subsidiaries are 100% controlled by the parent entity unless otherwise stated.
2. Aleafia Retail Inc. less than 10% of One Plant (Retail) Corp.

21. As indicated above, Aleafia Parent is a publicly traded company and its common shares are listed on the TSX and the OTCQB. Aleafia Parent also currently maintains three classes of convertible debentures listed on the TSX under “AH.DB.A”, “AH.DB.B”, and “AH.DB.C”. A chart detailing all currently outstanding securities of Aleafia Parent is also attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “B”.

22. Aleafia Parent’s fiscal year end is March 31st. Aleafia Parent’s most recent audited consolidated financial statements, along with Aleafia Parent’s most recent annual information form dated June 29, 2023 for the year end of March 31, 2023 (the “AIF”), published to the System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (“SEDAR”) are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “C”. In addition, a true copy of Aleafia Parent’s management discussion and analysis for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2023 dated June 13, 2023 (the “MD&A”), also published to the SEDAR is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “D”.

23. As indicated at page 35 of Exhibit “D”, as of June 13, 2023, the total number of common shares issued and outstanding was 403,265,146.

24. The Aleafia Group has incurred net losses for the past three fiscal years. As indicated in the MD&A, Aleafia Parent has incurred approximate net losses of $34,604,000 for the twelve months ended on March 31, 2023, $150,764,000 for the twelve months ended on March 31, 2022 and $257,022,000 for the twelve months ended on March 31, 2021 (chart excerpted below from Exhibit “D”):

SELECTED QUARTER & ANNUAL INFORMATION

The following information has been prepared in accordance with IFRS in Canadian dollars.

($,000s) except per share amounts	Three months ended		Twelve months ended

Total non-current liabilities	33,197	6,908	33,197	6,908	38,382

25. Aleafia Group also has significant trade liabilities and a number of creditors have demanded payment, suspended service, sued or threatened to sue. The approximate aggregate accounts payable for accounts over 90 days are $4,187,809.66, as of the date hereof. As seen at Exhibit “AAA”, contingent liabilities are detailed further herein and include certain multi-million dollar class action litigation file, which the Aleafia Group intends to defend.

26. As has been described above, the cannabis industry is highly regulated, and success for businesses depends in part on timing of and changes to legislation, granting of licenses and access to distribution and sales channels. In addition, the ability to raise capital or obtain financing is key, as the cannabis industry is capital intensive. However, access to capital in both equity and debt markets are significantly constrained in the Canadian cannabis space. Recently, limited equity transactions in the past year have negatively impacted the market broadly. As further seen in disclosures within this Affidavit, the debt already raised by the Aleafia Group further limits capital raise options.

27. The Aleafia Group has also been negatively impacted by a variety of factors, including industry-specific concerns and cash flow problems, among others. In light of these issues, the Aleafia Group have undertaken a number of restructuring initiatives to improve financial performance, operations and liquidity; yet as described further below, none of these initiatives have materialized.

28. Accordingly, the Applicants continue to face pressing financial challenges. As part of the continuing restructuring initiatives, the board of Aleafia Parent has considered the commencement of these CCAA proceedings. The primary objective of these CCAA proceedings is to obtain the Stay of Proceedings and provide the Aleafia Group with the “breathing space” necessary to stabilize its business, obtain necessary debtor-in-possession financing and seek one or more transactions through a Court supervised sales process, with the objective of ensuring the continuity of the Aleafia Group’s business, maximizing recovery for stakeholders and, hopefully, preserving some or all of the employment of the group’s employee base.

IV. BACKGROUND OF APPLICANTS AND BUSINESS OPERATIONS

A. Parent and Subsidiaries

i. Aleafia Health Inc.

29. Aleafia Parent was initially incorporated on February 7, 2007 and continued into Ontario on June 27, 2018 under corporate number 1994678. - (h) Notice of Assignment of Rents – General registered as Instrument No. NR643873 on June 12, 2023 from NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP. to RED WHITE & BLOOM BRANDS INC.

84. Copies of these encumbrances are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “V” to this Affidavit. Details on the relationship between these charges and certain secured lenders to the Aleafia Group are further explained herein.

85. The Grimsby Property is currently for market and has been subject to attempted sales, which have been unsuccessful to date.

⁷ For reference, NE SPC II LP was the lender under the Senior Loan Agreement, until it assigned the Senior Loan Agreement to RWB on June 6, 2023.

iii. Paris Property

86. The Paris Property constitutes the hub of Aleafia Group's cannabis product development, and is over 56,000 square feet in size. The Paris Property's capacity is over 40,000 kgs of annual product in oils, capsules, sublinguals and vape cartridge formats. The Paris Property also contains analytical and quality testing labs, and super critical CO2 extraction and cannabis winterization machinery to convert dried flower into cannabis extracts.

87. The Paris Property is also responsible for all finished goods manufacturing and packaging and within the facility is an indoor cultivation centre designated as craft flower, which represents approximately 1,200 kg per year in usable flower which is primarily exported into international markets. As of July 24, 2023, the Paris Property will also fulfill all medical patient orders; this operation was previously fulfilled at the Distribution Centre.

88. As seen on Exhibit "T", the Paris Property is subject to a number of encumbrances. In specific, beyond municipal easements and notices, Emblem Cannabis granted certain charges against the Paris Property to the following entities, as summarized:

- (a) Charge registered as Instrument No. BC413999 on October 4, 2021 from EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION in favour of 1260356 Ontario Limited for the principal sum of $20,000,000.00;
- (b) Charge registered as Instrument No. BC420311 on December 24, 2021 from EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION in favour of NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP. for the principal sum of $19,000,000.00;
- (c) Notice of Assignment of Rents - General registered as Instrument No. BC420312 on December 24, 2021 from EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION in favour of NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP.;
- (d) Postponement of Interest registered as Instrument No. BC420318 on December 24, 2021 from 1260356 ONTARIO LIMITED in favour of NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP. re postponed priority of Charge No. BC413999 to Charge no. BC420311;

- (e) Charge registered as Instrument No. BC434024 on June 27, 2022 from EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION to COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA for the principal sum of $100,000,000.00;
- (f) Notice of Assignment of Rents – General registered as Instrument No. BC434025 on June 27, 2022 from EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION to COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA;
- (g) Transfer of Charge registered as Instrument No. BC454633 on June 12, 2023 from NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP. to RED WHITE & BLOOM BRANDS INC.; and
- (h) Notice of Assignment of Rents – General registered as Instrument No. BC454634 on June 12, 2023 from NEXT EDGE GENERAL PARTNER (ONTARIO) INC. and NE SPC II LP. to RED WHITE & BLOOM BRANDS INC.

89. Copies of these encumbrances are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “W” to this Affidavit. Details on the relationship between these charges and certain secured lenders to the Aleafia Group are further explained herein.

iv. Distribution Centre

90. Emblem Cannabis also operates a distribution centre for its Direct to Patient Home Delivery medical cannabis delivery service out of the Greater Toronto Area at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario (otherwise referred to herein as the “Distribution Centre”). As noted above, the Distribution Centre also operates as the registered/head office for the Aleafia Group members. The Aleafia Group currently plans to cut costs by shutting down the Distribution Centre by transferring all site activities to the Paris Property by the end of July 2023, including the fulfilment of all medical and storage needs, which completion and exit is set for October of 2023.

91. While the location for the Distribution Centre is not owned by the Aleafia Group, the Distribution Centre functions to fulfill same-day orders to other Licence holders, medical patients, and adult-use provincial wholesalers, and also provides cannabis storage services to licensed third parties. Details on the Distribution Centre can be found at <https://emblemcannabis.com/assure-home-delivery/>, a screenshot of which is attached hereto to this Affidavit at Exhibit “X”.

92. Emblem Cannabis rents the Distribution Centre from Tonlu Holdings Limited (“Tonlu”) pursuant to the terms of a lease between Emblem Cannabis, as tenant, Tonlu, as landlord, and Aleafia Parent, as indemnifier, dated April 16, 2020 (the “Distribution Centre Lease”, as may have been later amended and varied). The Aleafia Group understands that Tonlu has since been acquired by an entity named Pure Industrial, which entity now operates the Distribution Centre Lease.

93. Emblem Cannabis also holds a sublease between itself, as sublandlord, and Richelieu Hardware Canada Ltd., as subtenant, dated October 21, 2020 (the “Distribution Centre Sublease”), which was operational to July 31, 2022. The Distribution Centre Sublease presently continues on a month-to-month basis.

94. Emblem Cannabis and Aleafia Parent have recently received certain notices of termination and late payment of rent relating to the Distribution Centre Lease.

v. Newfoundland Site

95. Canabo operates a direct-to-patient medical business from a physical location in St. John’s Newfoundland, which is staffed by physicians who are independent contractors. Canabo rents the property from 55945 Newfoundland and Labrador Limited pursuant to a lease dated June 1, 2023 relating to Elizabeth Centre, civic number 55 Elizabeth Avenue (the “Newfoundland Site”).

C. Licences

i. Health Canada Licences

96. As referred to above, pursuant to the Cannabis Act and the Cannabis Regulations, Emblem Cannabis and Aleafia Farms hold certain cannabis licenses from Health Canada (collectively, the “Cannabis Licences”). All Cannabis Licences are currently in force. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “Y” is a chart which summarizes all cannabis licenses issued to the Aleafia Group by Health Canada. Beyond Exhibit “Y”, Aleafia Group also obtains requisite licenses for exporting cannabis internationally from Health Canada on an as-needed basis.

97. The Cannabis Licences permits the following activities for each licensee, in accordance with s. 8(1) to (5) of the Cannabis Regulations:

- (a) Aleafia Farms – Licence for the Grimsby Property:

- (i) Cultivation (Standard Cultivation), granting authority to sell to authorized distributors/retailers plants/seeds products;
- (b) Aleafia Farms – Licence for the Scugog Property:
 - (i) Cultivation (Standard Cultivation), granting authority to sell to authorized distributors/retailers plants/seeds products;
- (c) Emblem Cannabis – Licence for the Paris Property:
 - (i) Cultivation (Standard Cultivation), Processing (Standard Processing), Sale (Sale for Medical Purposes), granting collectively the authority to sell plants/seeds, dried/fresh, extracts, edibles, topical products to authorized distributors/retailers, and plants/seeds, dried/fresh, extracts, edibles and topical products to registered patients; and
- (d) Emblem Cannabis – Licence for the Distribution Centre:
 - (i) Processing (Standard Processing) and Sale (Sale for Medical Purposes), authorizing the sale of plants/seeds and dried/fresh products to authorized distributors/retailers and registered patients.

98. As of today's date, Health Canada has not indicated that it has any material issues or concerns with respect to compliance with the Cannabis Act, the Cannabis Regulations or the conditions under the Cannabis Licences issued to relevant members of the Aleafia Group.

ii. Excise Cannabis Licence

99. Emblem Cannabis obtained its cannabis license under the Excise Act, 2001 (Canada) effective on October 17, 2022 (the "Excise Cannabis Licence"). Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "Z" is a copy of the Excise Cannabis Licence.

100. The expiry date for the Excise Cannabis Licence is October 16, 2023. In order to renew the Excise Cannabis Licence, Emblem Cannabis must satisfy its statutory obligations under the Excise Act, 2001 and the conditions under the Excise Cannabis Licence.

101. Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") has not indicated in writing that it has any issues or concerns with respect to Emblem Cannabis' compliance with its obligations under the Excise Act, 2001 or the conditions under the Excise Cannabis Licence. However, there are significant excise tax duties owing by Emblem Cannabis, the amounts of which are discussed later herein, that have been the discussion of correspondence between counsel to Emblem Cannabis and the CRA.

iii. Supply Agreements

102. Regulatory agencies across Canada mandate that all cannabis products must be purchased from a provincially-prescribed distributor of cannabis products.

103. Certain of the Aleafia Group have accordingly entered into various supply agreements constituting licenses with three provincial regulators for the purpose of selling cannabis products in three major Canadian provinces (Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia).

104. In the province of Manitoba, licensed cannabis retailers buy their product exclusively through Manitoba Liquor & Lotteries (“MBLL”) from Health Canada licensed suppliers. In order to be considered a supplier of non-medical cannabis, MBLL requires a completed application form and that certain criteria are met. Emblem Cannabis has completed this material and operates as a supplier to MBLL. A copy of the website of MBLL detailing the supplier application process, as well as associated terms and conditions for suppliers, is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “AA”.

105. In the province of Saskatchewan, Emblem Cannabis is listed publicly by the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (“SLGA”) as a registered supplier and wholesale permittee. SLGA is responsible for regulating the distribution and sale of recreational cannabis in Saskatchewan. A copy of a list of all wholesale cannabis permittees and registered licensed producers, which Emblem Cannabis is listed on, and as published to SLGA’s public website, is attached hereto and marked a Exhibit “BB”.

106. Certain business relationships that the Aleafia Group held for the inter-provincial supply of cannabis in Manitoba and Saskatchewan were with entities associated with Fire & Flower, who is a cannabis wholesaler and distributor that has since obtained CCAA protection as of early June in 2023. As commented later on herein, a growing number of Canadian cannabis companies have been seeking (or have been rumoured to be anticipating seeking) creditor protection, which have triggered commercial consequences for their business counterparts in the sector.

D. Partnerships, Alliances and Joint Ventures

i. Joint Ventures

107. Aleafia Parent has had historical business dealings in the German market, although the Aleafia Group is no longer operational in Europe. On or about May 6, 2019, Aleafia Parent announced that Aleafia Parent would enter the German medical cannabis market via a joint-venture with German pharmaceutical wholesaler Acnos Pharma GmbH. Aleafia Group functioned in Germany through Aleafia Health Germany GmbH, which purchased Aleafia Group products for distribution to German pharmacies and for clinical trial usage. This joint-venture is no longer operational, although Emblem Cannabis still sources products to the German market through a separate supply agreement (as later described herein).

108. In addition, Aleafia Parent previously held an equity stake in CannaPacific Pty. Limited, which functioned through a joint venture (the “CannaPacific Joint Venture”). The CannaPacific Joint Venture has since concluded and Aleafia Parent holds a remaining equity stake in a successor entity named Biortica Agrimed. The Aleafia Group currently still works with one other approved Australian entity for cannabis oil shipments to the Australian market.

109. The Aleafia Group currently has one joint venture with another business partner; the timeline leading to this joint venture is further described below.

110. On or about September 25, 2018, Aleafia Parent entered into a letter of intent to acquire a 51% stake in One Plant, which was an adult-use cannabis retail operation led by members of the Serruya Family (the “Serruya Family”), including Aaron Serruya, the president of International Franchise Inc., which has over 4500 franchise locations in over 50 countries. The “One Plant JV” marked the first phase of a multiphase strategy that was intended to see Aleafia enter the adult-use cannabis industry and related retail operations in Canada, joining Aleafia’s two existing business pillars; cannabis cultivation and medical clinic operations. A copy of the press release associated with the One Plant JV dated September 25, 2018 (the “One Plant Press Release”) is attached hereto to this affidavit at Exhibit “CC”. As stated therein, the initial launch was purposed to provide over twenty retail locations in Ontario. However, this letter of intent was never completed.

111. Under the terms of the One Plant JV (terms as defined in the One Plant Press Release), Aleafia and Serruya Family were to establish a new corporation for the One Plant JV to be owned 51% by Aleafia and 49% by Serruya Family. However, the province of Ontario only allowed licensed producers of cannabis to own or control up to 9.9% of a corporation holding a cannabis retail operator license at that time.

112. Accordingly, on or about November 23, 2018, Aleafia Retail acquired a 9.9% interest in One Plant. Concurrently, SPE Finance LLC acquired 5 million common shares in Aleafia Health, and a $4 million equity investment in One Plant.

ii. International Supplier Arrangements

113. Certain international supply agreements held by the Aleafia Group remain active.

114. On or about July 22, 2022, Emblem Cannabis entered into a supply and cooperation with Vayamed GmbH (“Vayamed”) for Vayamed to purchase cannabis flower directly from Emblem Cannabis.

115. Under the terms of a purchase agreement dated January 24, 2023 between Emblem Cannabis and Deutsche Medizinalcannabis GmbH (“Demecan”), Emblem Cannabis also sources products to Demecan in Germany for the purpose of manufacturing and selling to wholesalers, retailers and pharmacies within Germany.

E. Employees

116. The Aleafia Group has the following employees, co-op students, contractors and part-time employees (collectively, the “Employees”):

Employee Designation	Distribution Centre	Grimsby Property	Paris Property	Scugog Property	Remote	NFLD Site	Overall Total
Full Time	37*	2	62	16	23	8*	147
Co-op Student	1*	0	0	0	0	0	1
Contract	0	0	0	0	1	0	1
Total	38	2	62	16	25	8	151

117. As of the date of this Affidavit, the Aleafia Group has 147 full-time employees, along with 1 co-op student, 2 contract and 1 part-time employee. As described further in this section, certain of these employees have been given notices to terminate their employment.

118. The Applicants do not sponsor, administer or otherwise have any registered or unregistered employee pension plans. An excel spreadsheet breaking down the employer name for each Employee, with redacted Employee names, is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “DD”.

119. Employees located on the Newfoundland Site are employed by Canabo. Seven of these employees are members of the union Unifor Local 597. All of the other Employees of the Aleafia Group located on other sites are non-unionized.

120. Per the above asterisks beside the numbers in the chart at para 116, all full-time employees and the co-op student located at the Distribution Centre, and all unionized employees located at the Newfoundland Site, have been given notices of termination (the “Terminated Employees”). The Terminated Employees are on working notice until the end of the summer.

121. Hourly employees are paid bi-weekly one week in arrears. Payments to hourly employees are current based on the payroll schedule but are owed one week of pay in arrears. Salaried employees are paid bi-monthly to date.

122. Aleafia Parent has also entered into certain master service agreements with third parties for the provision of, among other things, human capital management solutions associated with employee management

F. Intellectual Property

123. Members of the Aleafia Group also own certain intellectual property used in connection with their business operations. A comprehensive list of the Applicants’ Canadian and U.S. copyright registrations, trademarks and patents is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “EE”.

G. Cash Management System

124. In the ordinary course of business, the Applicants use a cash management system (the “Cash Management System”) to, among other things, collect funds and pay expenses associated with operations. This Cash Management System provides the Aleafia Group with the ability to efficiently and accurately track and control corporate funds and to ensure cash availability.

125. As part of this Cash Management System, the Aleafia Group maintain twenty-four (24) bank accounts, which are summarily described below:

- (a) Bank of Montreal: eight (8) accounts including the CAD operating accounts for Canabo, Aleafia Sub, Aleafia Farms and Aleafia Health, along with an Aleafia Health savings account required to maintain cash collateral for its Bank of Montreal corporate credit cards, and three accounts required for corporate credit cards;
- (b) Libro Credit Union: nine (9) accounts including the CAD operating account for Emblem Corp, Emblem Cannabis and GrowWise, profit sharing accounts for Emblem Corp, Emblem Cannabis and GrowWise, and USD, petty cash and profit sharing accounts; and
- (c) Toronto-Dominion Bank: seven (7) accounts including an additional CAD operating account for Emblem Corp and Emblem Cannabis, an Emblem Cannabis blocked account, two accounts tied to TD corporate credit cards, and two savings accounts.

V. FINANCIAL CIRCUMSTANCE AND CASH FLOW FORECAST

126. As referred to above, Aleafia Group has a fiscal year-end of March 31st.

127. Attached hereto and marked collectively at Exhibit “FF” are Aleafia Group’s Management’s Discussion and Analysis for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 and audited consolidated financial statements from SEDAR for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 (the “Financial Statements”).

128. Attached hereto and marked at Exhibit “GG” are copies of Aleafia Group’s unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements from OTC Markets Group for the six months ended September 30, 2022 and the nine months ended December 31, 2022.

129. Attached hereto and marked at Exhibit “HH” is a draft copy of Aleafia Parent’s condensed consolidated statements of financial position as at June 30, 2023, and Aleafia Parent’s condensed consolidated statements of profit or loss and comprehensive income for the three months ended June 30, 2023.

130. All material public disclosure made by Aleafia Parent to TSX and OTC Markets Group can be found either at OTC Markets Group: <https://www.otcmarkets.com/stock/ALEAF/disclosure> or by searching “Aleafia Health Inc.” at SEDAR: <https://www.sedar.com/>.

131. Below tables referring to Aleafia Group’s “Assets” and “Liabilities” are compiled from reference to the Financial Statements, and were audited by an external third party.

i. PPSA Registrations

134. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “II” are true copies of the Personal Property Registry search results for each of the Applicants across Canada (collectively the “PPR Searches”).

135. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “JJ” is a summary of the PPR Searches.

136. As seen in the summary of the Applicants’ PPR registrations at the above Exhibit, due to the need for supply equipment in the cannabis industry, the Applicants are subject to a significant number of personal property leases (the “Equipment Leases”).

137. Many of the Equipment Leases are subject to acceleration terms upon failed payment, which may trigger events of default.

138. Beyond the specific secured party listings against the Applicants relating to certain personal property, there are three senior secured lenders of the Aleafia Group:

- (a) Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. (“RWB”);
- (b) 1260356 Ontario Limited (“126”); and
- (c) Computershare Trust Company of Canada (“Computershare”), as indenture trustee in respect of the issuance of three series of secured convertible debentures, as discussed herein.

139. Details on the three senior secured lenders are summarized for the convenience of the reader below.

a. RWB

140. On or about December 24, 2021, NE SPC II LP, as lender (“NE SPC”), Aleafia Parent, Emblem Cannabis, and Aleafia Farms, as borrowers, and each of Emblem Corp., Canabo and Aleafia Sub, as guarantors (collectively, the “Senior Loan Credit Parties”) entered into a loan agreement, as amended, and subject to an assignment of indebtedness and security dated June 6, 2023 such loan agreement was assigned by NE SPC to RWB (collectively, the “Senior Loan Agreement”, as may have been later amended, altered or varied). Copies of the public Senior Loan Agreement are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “KK”.

141. Under the terms of the Senior Loan Agreement, NE SPC (which assigned the Senior Loan Agreement to RWB on June 6, 2023) extended to Aleafia a revolving facility of $7,000,000 (subject to borrowing base calculations) and a non-revolving term loan facility of $12,000,000.

142. A chart outlining the security given in association with the loans is appended to this Affidavit at Exhibit “LL”. All associated security documents are attached to this Affidavit at Exhibit “MM”.

143. The stated maturity date under the Senior Loan Agreement is December 24, 2023, however, as further described herein, Aleafia Parent is in breach of certain covenants under the Senior Loan Agreement.

144. Details on the context of the assignment of the loans and security from NE SPC to RWB, as well as the Proposed Transaction, are explained further within this Affidavit.

145. As of June 30, 2023, the outstanding indebtedness owed to RWB is for a collective amount of $15,191,480.43. There is no more availability under the Senior Loan Agreement.

146. On or about August 20, 2021, 126, as lender, and Aleafia Parent, as borrower, entered into a credit agreement, as later amended by agreement dated December 24, 2021, and as later amended by second amending agreement dated August 26, 2022 (collectively, the “126 Loan Agreement”, as may have been later amended, altered or varied). Copies of the 126 Loan Agreement are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “NN”.

147. Pursuant to the terms of the 126 Loan Agreement, 126 originally extended a loan of $10,000,000.

148. 126 is an active Ontario corporation incorporated on October 10, 1997 with the registered office location of 100 Zenway Boulevard in Woodbridge, ON L4H 2Y7. A copy of the corporate profile for 126 is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “OO”.

149. As of July 14, 2023, the total approximate indebtedness owed to 126 is $5,552,575.34.

c. Debentures through Computershare

150. On June 27, 2019, Aleafia Parent completed a public offering of 40,250 convertible debenture units at a price of $1,000 per unit, with each unit consisting of $1,000 principal amount of convertible debentures (the “2019 Debentures”) and 680 common share purchase warrants. The 2019 Debentures bore interest at a rate of 8.5% per annum from the date of issue, payable semi-annually in arrears on the last day of June and December in each year (each, an “Interest Payment”) and were to mature on June 27, 2022.

151. Aleafia Parent did not make an Interest Payment of $1,587,375 on December 31, 2021, and did not make the Interest Payment within the 30 day cure period thereafter (the “Missed Payment”). In connection with the Missed Payment, Aleafia Parent entered into a forbearance agreement effective January 31, 2022 with holders representing approximately 62% of the principal amount of 2019 Debentures pursuant to which the holders, among other considerations, agreed to (i) forbear in enforcing their rights or remedies against Aleafia Health under the indenture and otherwise at law with respect to the non-payment of interest until the maturity date of June 26, 2022, and (ii) work with Aleafia Parent expeditiously and in good faith to negotiate a transaction to, among other matters, amend the terms of the 2019 Debentures.

152. On April 22, 2022, Aleafia Health and representatives of certain holders of 2019 Debentures came to an agreement in principle to amend certain key commercial the terms of the amendments to the 2019 Debentures.

153. On June 27, 2022, following receipt of requisite debentureholder and TSX approvals and the satisfaction of certain additional conditions precedent, Aleafia Parent entered into amended and restated debenture indenture with Computershare as supplemented by: (a) the first supplemental indenture providing for the issuance of the 8.50% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2024, (b) the second supplemental indenture providing for the issuance of the 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures due June 30, 2026 and (c) the third supplemental indenture providing for the issuance of the 8.50% Series

C Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2028 (collectively, the “Debenture Agreements”). The Debenture Agreements are attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit “PP” and a copy of the press release announcing the effectiveness of the amendments to the 2019 Debentures is attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit “QQ”.

154. The Debenture Agreements gave effect to the amendments to the 2019 Debentures, which resulted in the exchange of the outstanding principal amount of 2019 Debentures for new secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing holders of 2019 Debentures in three equal, separate series with the following key terms:

Series	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price	Interest Rate	PIK Interest
Series A Debentures	$12.35 million	June 30, 2024	$0.25	8.5%	24 months
Series B Debentures	$12.35 million	June 30, 2026	$0.30	8.5%	24 months
Series C Debentures	$14.736 million	June 30, 2028	$0.35	8.5%	30 months

155. A chart outlining the security given in association with the Debenture Agreements is appended to this Affidavit at Exhibit “LL”. All associated security documents are attached to this Affidavit at Exhibit “RR”.

156. As of July 14, 2023, the approximate indebtedness owed to the Debentureholders is as follows:

- (a) $13,435,211 in principal amount of Series A;
- (b) $13,435,211 in principal amount of Series B; and
- (c) $16,031,609 in principal amount of Series C.

ii. Property Taxes

157. Property taxes on all Real Property are outstanding as of June 25, 2023 in the following amounts:

- (a) Grimsby Property: $27,454.08;
- (b) Paris Property: $299,351.54; and
- (c) Scugog Property: $41,677.23.

158. A copy of the property tax certificates for each Real Property location is attached hereto, along with associated realty tax statement for the Scugog Property and marked as Exhibit “SS”.

iii. Unsecured Liabilities

159. Per the Applicants’ books and records, the Applicants’ unsecured obligations as of July 19, 2023 totalled approximately $27.3 million.

a. Trade Creditors

160. Aleafia Group incurs obligations in the ordinary course of business to various trade creditors. As at July 14, 2023, the total amount owing to trade creditors was approximately $9,028,440.00. The Applicants’ inability to pay their vendors, third-party suppliers and service providers in the ordinary course has negatively impacted the business. Specifically, the Applicants have been unable to purchase cannabis from third-party suppliers and fulfill numerous hard pipeline purchase orders. This has resulted in a significant loss of revenue. The Applicants’ liquidity issues have likewise adversely impacted their capacity to, among other things, cultivate and sell cannabis.

b. Notes Payable

161. According to the Financial Statements, the notes payable of the Aleafia Group were as follows:

	03.31.23
Unsecured loans	4,765

Promissory Notes

162. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, Aleafia Parent entered into three promissory notes, totaling $4.5 million, each carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate, which interest accrues and is to be paid bi-monthly. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023, and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023 (collectively, the “Notes”) with the lender Royal Group Resources Ltd. (“RGRL”). All three Notes become due and payable on December 31, 2024. Aleafia Parent intends to use the proceeds from the Notes to fund working capital. Copies of the Notes are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “TT”.

163. A copy of a corporate profile report for RGRL is appended hereto and marked as Exhibit “UU”.

164. As is later detailed herein, the Ad Hoc Group have alleged that the RGRL entities have potential related interests with 126.

Intercompany Balances

165. Various members of the Aleafia Group are recipient of significant intercompany receivables and payables. A chart detailing the outstanding intercompany balances of the Aleafia Group as of June 30, 2023, is attached hereto at Exhibit “VV”.

166. Total intercompany receivables are valued at approximately $85,737,095.45 and total intercompany payables are valued at $85,737,095.45.

167. An additional chart breaking down the trial balance for Emblem Realty as at December 31, 2023, relating to debit v. credit for certain intercompany balances is also attached hereto at Exhibit “WW”.

iv. Source Deductions, Excise Duty and HST

a. Source Deductions

168. The payment of source deductions is current.

b. Excise Duty

169. A federal excise duty is payable by a licensed cannabis producer when cannabis products are packaged, based on the quantity of flowering and non-flowering material, viable seeds or vegetative cannabis plants included in the dried/fresh cannabis, cannabis plant and cannabis europa seed product. The federal excise duty is to be paid monthly.

170. As at June 30, 2023, it is estimated that the Aleafia Group had approximately $9.3 million in excise tax arrears (net of deposits) and approximately $2.5 million in sales tax arrears, inclusive of an existing $800,000 approximate excise deposit by Emblem Cannabis. Payments in July of 2023 of approximately $225,000/week were made during the weeks of July 3, 10 and 17, with $100,000/week made every relevant week prior.

171. On or about June 23, 2023, counsel to Emblem Cannabis wrote a letter to the CRA discussing a Proposed Transaction (term as defined below) and indicating that the Aleafia Group continues to face “extreme financial hardship”. The letter further commented that Emblem Cannabis was willing to commit to the following arrangement with the CRA:

- (a) Filing of tax returns by August 31, 2023 for 2021 T2 corporate income returns;
- (b) Remaining current on all corporate income tax returns, GST/HST returns and excise duty filings going forward;
- (c) Beginning payment of $225,000/week (commencing on July 7, 2023) in respect of current excise duties to be applied to current remittances owing in respect of the June 2023 excise duty return due to be filed by July 2023;
- (d) An offered collateral charge to the CRA in respect of certain of the Real Property; and
- (e) Returning to the CRA with a definitive payment plan by no later than November 30, 2023.

172. A copy of this correspondence is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “XX” to this Affidavit. No response has been received by the CRA, but as mentioned above, Emblem Cannabis continued to pay $225,000/week for July of 2023 up to filing.

c. HST

173. The majority of outstanding HST obligations to the CRA are held by Emblem Cannabis for approximately $2.5 million CAD as of May 31, 2023, with approximately less than $100,000 CAD remaining held with Canabo Medical and Growwise.

174. Aleafia Farms, Aleafia Parent and Emblem hold HST credits/receivables in the following amounts:

- (a) Aleafia Farms: $591,425.00;
- (b) Emblem: $924,777.00; and
- (c) Aleafia Parent: $596,749.00.

175. On or about April 4, 2023, Emblem Cannabis received a notice of determination (the “Notice of Determination”) respecting certain Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy qualifying periods from the CRA. A copy of the Notice of Determination and associated appendices are attached hereto at Exhibit “YY”.

176. On or about June 30, 2023, Emblem Cannabis formally objected to the Notice of Determination. A copy of the filed letter by Emblem Cannabis containing the objection is attached hereto at Exhibit “ZZ”.

v. Litigation

177. There is presently extensive ongoing litigation involving various members of the Aleafia Group. Certain material claims involving various members of the Aleafia Group are as follows, although certain of the below may be settled (collectively, the “Ontario Claims”):

- (a) Martin et al. v. 2626725 Ontario Inc. operating as The Pint Public House et al. (“Martin”) – CV21006733540000;
- (b) Cooper v. Aleafia Health Inc. – CV22006764240000;
- (c) Wellbeing Digital Sciences Inc. v. Aleafia Health Inc. et al. (“Wellbeing”) – CV22006783450000;
- (d) Third Eye Insights Corporation v. Aleafia Health Corporation et al. – CV22000005440000
- (e) Tayts v. Emblem Cannabis Corporation et al. – CV19006167680000;
- (f) Emblem Cannabis Corporation v. I-Way Transport et al. – CV21006579190000;
- (g) Environmental Systems Corporation v. Emblem Cannabis Corporation et al. – CV20006520090000;
- (h) Mooring v. Aleafia Health Inc. – CV2100663761000;
- (i) Hybrid Financial Ltd. v. Aleafia Health Inc. – CV22006797310000; and
- (j) Cornacchia v. Aleafia Inc. – CV18001361640000.

178. There are also certain claims that have been initiated against various members of the Aleafia Group outside of Ontario (and together with the Ontario Claims, the “Claims”). A list of certain material claims located outside of Ontario are:

- (a) Plaintiff (Lisa Langevin) v. Aurora Cannabis Inc. Et al. (Defendants) (“Langevin”); and

(b) Manning Elliott LLP v. Aleafia Health Inc.

179. The following materials have been appended to this Affidavit:

- (a) a chart summarizing the liabilities of the Claims is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “AAA”; and
- (b) a separate chart which breaks down the status of all Claims, including total liabilities contained in each, is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “BBB”.⁸

180. Three of the more significant Claims outstanding against the Aleafia Group are Langevin, Martin and Wellbeing. Brief summaries of these matters’ relevant Statements of Claim are reviewed below for the convenience of the reader.

181. The Applicants do not intend to serve the parties to the above-noted litigation in connection with the Applicants’ Application Record. The Applicants will include counsel for the above noted plaintiffs in the Service List developed in connection with the Comeback Hearing.

a. Plaintiff (Lisa Langevin) v. Aurora Cannabis Inc. Et al. (Defendants)

182. By statement of claim issued on June 16, 2020, the plaintiff has claimed damages in the aggregate of $505,000,000.00 alongside an order certifying the action as a class proceeding, in respect of allegations that defendants marketed and sold cannabis products that had different levels of tetrahydrocannabinol (“THC”) or cannabidiol (“CBD”) than advertised, among other heads of relief. Other defendants include entities in the business of manufacturing and distributing cannabis products, including Aurora Cannabis Inc., Cronos group Inc., Organigram Holdings Inc., and others. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “CCC”.

b. Martin et al. v. 2626725 Ontario Inc. operating as The Pint Public House et al.

183. By statement of claim issued on December 7, 2021, Shameka Martin and Annette Martin commenced an action in Toronto against 2626725 Ontario Inc. operating as The Pint Public House, Growwise, and Althea Health Inc. (sic) in the aggregate amount of $3,100,000, claiming, inter alia, joint and several negligence against the defendants, which resulted in a car accident. A copy of the statement of claim is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “DDD”.

⁸ I understand from Aleafia Group’s counsel that certain of the Claims may be dismissed, disposed of or settled, which have not been include in Exhibit “AAA”.

c. Wellbeing Digital Sciences Inc. v. Aleafia Health Inc. et al.

184. By statement of claim issued on March 14, 2022, Wellbeing Digital Sciences Inc. commenced an action in Toronto against Aleafia Parent, Canabo and Growwise seeking damages in the aggregate amount of $3,000,000 for, inter alia, misrepresentation and breach of warranties and covenants under a certain asset purchase agreement and licence agreement relating to the contemplation of the purchase of medical clinics. A copy of the statement of claim is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “EEE”.

C. CASH FLOW FORECAST

185. With the assistance of the Proposed Monitor, the Applicants have undertaken a cash flow analysis to determine the quantum of funding required to finance their operations, assuming the Initial Order is granted, over the 13-week period from the week ending July 27, 2023, to the week ending October 13, 2023 (the “Cash Flow Forecast”). I understand that the Cash Flow Forecast will be attached to the pre-filing report of the Proposed Monitor.

186. The Cash Flow Forecast indicates that the Applicants urgently require access to the DIP Loan to ensure they have sufficient liquidity to sustain operations and meet their obligations, including payroll and certain tax obligations, during the Stay of Proceedings.

VI. CHALLENGES AND LIQUIDITY ISSUES FACED BY THE APPLICANTS

A. Challenges

187. As summarized above, the Aleafia Group has faced a number of challenges which have affected its profitability and liquidity, including:

- (a) being a growing start-up company in a newly licensed industry;
- (b) federal government delays resulting in years passing before a license to grow and sell cannabis were granted;
- (c) existing customers and/or suppliers in the cannabis sector filing for CCAA protection, with anticipated rising numbers of cannabis companies needing insolvency assistance;
- (d) difficulties in: (i) growing high-quality, usable flower in a consistent manner to meet consumer demands; and (ii) procuring usable flower in sufficient quantities, quality and prices to provide for attractive margins;

- (e) facing competition from competitors with significantly more financial resources;
- (f) entering into historic poor contractual relationships, signed by predecessor management, that have since required significant adjustment and terminations;
- (g) significant capital investment to grow and repurpose properties, including establishing grow sites and developing brands;
- (h) slow introduction of retail stores for the sale of cannabis products;
- (i) a decreased interest by investors and lenders in cannabis companies due to challenges faced by the cannabis industry;
- (j) multiple changes to key executives and members of the Board;
- (k) constantly shifting roles among remaining officers and management;
- (l) declining market for medical cannabis;
- (m) taxation issues from excise duties;
- (n) low margins on the recreational product-side of cannabis companies;
- (o) extended payable terms in respect of provincial receivables;
- (p) crop failures attributable to pollinating issues and moisture; and
- (q) costs associated with defending litigation from the Claims.

188. Aleafia Group does not have sufficient liquidity to sustain operations, cannot meet obligations generally as they become due and is therefore insolvent.

B. Prior Strategic Initiatives

189. As a result of the difficulties it has faced, Aleafia Group, in consultation with its advisors, pursued a number of strategic initiatives to improve its operations and financial position, as described below:

- (a) refocusing the business on new forms of consumer package goods;

- (b) attempting the winddown of certain sites, as discussed above;
- (c) reducing headcount of employees, consultants, independent contractors and IT professionals, among others, alongside identifying inefficiencies in existing legal and finance operations and leveraging third-party providers more appropriate for the sizing of the Aleafia Group;
- (d) reallocating flower supply from bulk wholesale market to the branded adult-use and medical cannabis markets;
- (e) consolidating vendor relationships to extract economies of scale by aggregating procurement across facilities into key, trusted vendors;
- (f) strategically outsourcing certain processing activities to third-party packers;
- (g) negotiating pricing discounts based on higher volume levels;
- (h) integrating the Aleafia Group's medical clinic operations across virtual, physical and third-party platforms;
- (i) attempting to engage in portfolio optimization by focusing on best-selling products for strongest gross profit margins;
- (j) focusing on certain profitable brands;
- (k) investing in automated flower packaging technology to extract operational efficiencies and improve overhead absorption;
- (l) onboarding several strategic flower grow partners to supply usable product;
- (m) reducing operating expenses, particularly marketing and investor relations expenses;
- (n) disposing of non-core assets;
- (o) capitalizing on its intellectual property either through licensing or reviewing potential sale options;
- (p) reduction of selling, general and administrative expenses by 55% in the past calendar year; and

- (q) commencing a comprehensive M&A strategic alternatives process in August of 2022 to culminate in the sale of the Aleafia Group.

190. To accomplish these strategic initiatives, Aleafia Parent took a number of steps. The history leading up to Aleafia Group's filing is outlined below.

i. Status of Senior Loan Agreement

191. In April of 2023, relevant members of the Aleafia Group entered into an accommodation agreement with NE SPC.

192. On or about April 14, 2023, NE SPC agreed to a further extension to May 15, 2023, subject to relevant members of the Aleafia Group entering into an LOI with RWB for the purchase of the Aleafia Group.

193. On or about May 25, 2023, Aleafia Health announced via press release (copy attached hereto at Exhibit "FFF") that it entered into an amendment to the terms of the Senior Loan Agreement and NE SPC agreed to forbear on enforcement until the earlier of: (a) an event of default; or (b) May 31, 2023. A copy of this amendment is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "GGG".

194. On or about June 1, 2023 NE SPC entered into a forbearance agreement which was payable until the earlier of (a) an event of default; or (b) June 5, 2023 (the "Facility Forbearance Agreement"). The Facility Forbearance Agreement came in light of ongoing negotiations between Aleafia Parent, NE SPC and RWB regarding a potential refinancing of the indebtedness existing under the Senior Loan Agreement. A copy of the Facility Forbearance Agreement is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "HHH".

195. On June 6, 2023, pursuant to an assignment of indebtedness and security, NE SPC assigned the Senior Loan Agreement to RWB.

196. Since the assignment, and while reserving all rights, RWB has made various accommodations including extending significant advances in excess of those otherwise permissible under the Senior Loan Agreement, and permitting the Aleafia Group to access cash in the blocked account. On or about June 23, 2023, Aleafia Parent was advised by RWB that it would be required to hold back $500,000 as a liquidity reserve in a certain TD account. A copy of this correspondence is attached hereto at Exhibit "III".

197. On or about June 29, 2023, RWB wrote to Aleafia Parent to advise it, among other things, that they were not required nor prepared to advance further funds under the Senior Loan Agreement. A copy of this correspondence is attached hereto at Exhibit “JJJ”.

198. On or about July 10, 2023, the Aleafia Group was given permission by RWB to transfer $540,000 from the blocked account. As of July 23, 2023, there remains approximately $639,000 within the blocked account.

199. On or about July 13, 2023, RWB sent an email to Aleafia Health confirming that RWB was willing to release another $500,000 of receivables deposited in the blocked account. A copy of this email is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “KKK”. This limited additional access to cash, as incorporated into the Cash Flow Forecast, enabled Aleafia Group to operate until the start of the week of July 24, 2023, as further detailed herein, although after that time, the Aleafia Group faces a pressing, urgent and devastating liquidity crisis.

200. As of the date of this Affidavit, RWB delivered demands and notices of intention to enforce security under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, RSC 1985 c-5 (the “BIA”) relating to the Senior Loan Agreement (the “Demands” and the “NITES”, respectively). A copy of the Demands and NITES are attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “LLL”.

ii. Proposed Transaction

201. On or about June 7, 2023, Aleafia Parent announced that it had entered into a binding letter agreement on June 6, 2023 with RWB (the “Letter Agreement”) where RWB agreed to acquire all of the common shares of the Aleafia Group in a business combination transaction via plan of arrangement (the “Proposed Transaction”). A copy of the Letter Agreement is attached hereto at Exhibit “MMM”.

202. A copy of the joint press release issued by Aleafia Parent and RWB announcing the Proposed Transaction is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “NNN”.

203. Key terms of the Proposed Transaction were as follows (terms as defined in the Letter Agreement), inter alia:

- (a) Each Aleafia Share would be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of RWB (each, an “RWB Share”), subject to customary adjustments;

- (b) Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders were expected to own approximately 76% of the entity resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the “Combined Company”) and shareholders of Aleafia Parent were expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company;
- (c) Outstanding options to purchase Aleafia Shares would be exchanged for options exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio;
- (d) Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia Parent (which would automatically vest on the change of control) would be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio;
- (e) Debentureholders were to receive approximately $6 million CAD in full satisfaction of amounts owing; and
- (f) In accordance with their terms, outstanding warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares would become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

204. The Proposed Transaction was to require the approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia Parent, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority shareholders of Aleafia Parent in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions, at a special meeting of shareholders of Aleafia Parent expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023; (b) Debentureholders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (as defined in the Letter Agreement); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023.

205. The Letter Agreement also provided for parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement on or before July 31, 2023. Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, (i) each party was to have completed its confirmatory due diligence on the other party to its satisfaction; (ii) the Board was to have received an opinion that the consideration to be provided to Aleafia Shareholders in exchange for their Aleafia Shares was fair, from a financial point of view, to Aleafia Shareholders; (iii) the consent of 126 as lender under the 126 Loan Agreement was to have been obtained; and (iv) the waiver by RGRL as lender under the Promissory Notes to the acceleration of the maturity date was to have been obtained.

206. The Letter Agreement also contained a break fee of CAD $2 million which would be payable in the event that the board of Aleafia Parent received and accepted a proposal superior to that contained in the Letter Agreement.

207. On or about June 13, 2023, Aleafia Parent filed a material change report summarizing the Proposed Transaction on SEDAR, a copy of which is attached hereto and marked at Exhibit “OOO” to this Affidavit.

208. On or about June 28, 2023, counsel to the Aleafia Group received written correspondence from counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Aleafia Parent’s convertible Debentureholders. The correspondence advised that the Proposed Transaction, which preserved value for Aleafia Parent’s junior stakeholders but paid out the Debentureholders 15 cents on the dollar, would not be approved. A copy of this correspondence is attached hereto at Exhibit “PPP”.

209. Public comments were made regarding the Interested Directors’ involvement in the Proposed Transaction. As stated in the AIF dated June 29, 2023 and attached previously hereto at Exhibit “C”:

In April of 2023, Mr. Galasso and Mr. Sistiilli voluntarily recused themselves from discussions concerning the Potential Transaction involving RWB. Mr. Galasso is a Partner and the Chief Financial Officer at the Zzen Group of Companies, an affiliate of which, RGR, is the senior secured lender to RWB and also an unsecured lender to Aleafia. Mr. Sistiilli is employed by the owner of a private entity with an interest in the Credit Facility provided to Aleafia by 1260356 Ontario Limited.

210. The Aleafia Group further understands that there was some uncertainty raised by the Debentureholders regarding the terms of the Proposed Transaction. Notably, provisions of the Promissory Notes indicated that they would become payable upon a change of control transaction. However, a condition to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement was the waiver by RGRL as lender under the Promissory Notes to the acceleration of the maturity date.

211. On or about July 5, 2023, RWB wrote to Aleafia Parent to advise that despite the opposition from the Ad Hoc Group, RWB “is not prepared to adjust the total consideration reflected in the Binding Letter Agreement, nor is it willing to have a portion of the debentures remain outstanding [...] Further, we do not expect that Aleafia shareholders would agree to reduced consideration in favour of the debentureholders”. A copy of this correspondence is attached hereto at Exhibit “QQQ”.

212. There were several discussions among the Debentureholders, RWB and the Aleafia Group over the next two following weeks. On or about July 13, 2023, counsel to the Ad Hoc Group provided counsel to the Aleafia Group with a letter advising that they would not agree to the Proposed Transaction. I understand that a copy of this letter will be attached to the Proposed Monitor's Pre-Filing Report.

213. On July 14, 2023, RWB and Aleafia Parent publicly announced the mutual termination of the Proposed Transaction without liability or cost to either party. While Aleafia Parent had received support in writing from certain holders of the outstanding Aleafia Convertible Debentures (term as defined in the Letter Agreement), certain other holders representing more than 33 1/3% of the outstanding Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as represented by their designated representatives, failed to accept the terms. As a result, a key condition of the Proposed Transaction was not satisfied. A copy of the joint press release issued by Aleafia Parent and RWB on this topic is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "RRR".

iii. Attempts to Obtain Additional Equity/Debt Financing

214. Despite previous material initiatives in the summer of 2022 to find new money, potential strategic buyers and merger opportunities, management has been unable to find suitable equity financing options for the Aleafia Group.

215. The Applicants have also been unable to arrange additional debt financing, in part due to restrictions under existing loan documents and the conditions negotiated by the Applicants in prior restructurings that were required to avoid a similar liquidity constraint condition.

iv. Attempts to Sell Assets

216. The Aleafia Group has also made significant attempts to sell the Grimsby Property, as detailed below, but have not yet been successful in monetizing the land.

C. Sale of Grimsby Property

217. Beginning November of 2022, attempts were made by Aleafia Farms as seller to market and monetize the Grimsby Property. An agreement of purchase and sale dated June 23, 2023 was executed between Aleafia Farms and Siva Selvan on behalf of a company to be later incorporated (the "June APS"), with certain conditions including the provision of a monetary deposit to be provided to the brokerage on the first business day which is three days post-execution and delivery of the June APS. Despite execution of the June APS, the non-refundable deposit was not provided by the buyer to Aleafia Farms.

218. Correspondence between counsel to Aleafia Farms and counsel to the buyer has been ongoing since June 30, 2023. On or about July 6, 2023, counsel to Aleafia Farms provided formal notice to counsel to the buyer that the buyer was in default in the performance of its obligations due to its failure to deliver the non-refundable deposit. Aleafia Farms continues to evaluate its legal options in light of the June APS and will likely evaluate, pending comment from legal counsel, whether the June APS transaction should be terminated and if the Grimsby Property should be re-marketed broadly through these proposed CCAA proceedings. The Grimsby Property has been re-listed and remains on market for sale.

VII. CCAA PROCEEDINGS AND RELIEF SOUGHT

219. There is significant, urgent, and pressing need for the relief sought through CCAA protection for the Aleafia Group.

220. As indicated in the Cash Flow Forecast, without interim financing, the Applicants will be unable to operate in the ordinary course and payroll obligations will not be met, to the detriment of their stakeholders.

221. Without the benefit of a stay of proceedings the Aleafia Group will not be able to respond and address all of the above noted stakeholder issues, including litigation and potential secured creditor enforcement proceedings.

222. In consultation with their advisors, including KSV, the Applicants have determined that the CCAA process provides the most beneficial plan of action to maximize value for the Aleafia Group stakeholders.

223. After the Comeback Hearing, Aleafia Group will seek approval of a Sales Process. Aleafia Group is of the view that a court-supervised Sales Process under the CCAA will be the best value maximizing strategy in the circumstances and is in the best interests of the Aleafia Group and its stakeholders.

224. The proposed Initial Order under the CCAA is substantially in the form of the Ontario model initial order found on the Commercial List website. Key elements of the Initial Order are described below.

A. Appointment of Monitor

225. The Applicants seek the appointment of KSV as Monitor of the Applicants in these CCAA proceedings.

226. I have been advised by Noah Goldstein of KSV that KSV is a trustee within the meaning of section 2 of the BIA and is not subject to any of the restrictions on who may be appointed as Monitor set out in section 11.7(2) of the CCAA.

227. KSV is familiar with the operations of the Applicants, as KSV was previously engaged as a financial advisor to assess the Applicants' strategic alternatives and restructuring initiatives. The original engagement of KSV as financial advisor was made appropriately through a process run by the Board to ensure the independence of the eventual potential Monitor of these contemplated CCAA proceedings.

228. KSV has reviewed and assisted in the preparation of the Cash Flow Forecast, and has provided guidance and assistance in the commencement of these CCAA proceedings.

229. As a result, KSV has developed critical knowledge about the Applicants, their business operations, financial challenges, strategic initiatives and restructuring efforts to date.

230. KSV has not acted as the Applicants' auditor and is a licensed insolvency trustee.

231. KSV has consented to act as the Monitor, subject to Court approval. A copy of the Consent to Act as Monitor provided by KSV is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "SSS".

232. I am also advised by Mr. Goldstein of KSV that the Proposed Monitor is supportive of the relief sought herein, and that the Proposed Monitor will be filing a pre-filing report in respect of such relief.

B. DIP Loan and DIP Lender's Charge

233. As appears from the Cash Flow Forecast, the Applicants expect the need for interim financing, including during the 10-day Stay of Proceedings prior to their return to Court, to fund these CCAA proceedings.

234. To facilitate this interim period, RWB (in such capacity, the "DIP Lender") has agreed to fund $6,600,000.00 to the Aleafia Group by way of the DIP Loan pursuant to terms of a DIP term sheet (the "DIP Term Sheet"). Attached as Exhibit "TTT" is a copy of the DIP Term Sheet. Amounts advanced pursuant to the DIP Loan will be credited from the Deposit (as defined in the DIP Term Sheet) if the Court approves the relief requested at the Comeback Hearing.

235. In the two weeks prior to the initiation of this application, KSV canvassed five potential lenders for debtor-in-possession loans, including RWB. One other potential lender submitted a term sheet. In the Applicants' view, the terms of the other potential loan were similar to the terms presented above. The Aleafia Group, in consultation with their legal and financial advisors, did not believe that any third party would be able to provide the financing urgently required on significantly better terms and on the timeline required by the Applicant, than Aleafia Parent's existing senior secured creditor, and accordingly decided to select the below DIP Loan.

236. Below is a summary of the material terms of the DIP Loan:⁹

- (a) Amount: Up to the principal amount of $6,600,000.00, including an initial advance in the amount of $2,400,000.00;
- (b) Purpose: To fund operating costs in the ordinary course of business in accordance with the Cash Flow Forecast and restructuring costs;
- (c) Interest: On the principal amount of the DIP Advances (including compounded interest) from the date each such DIP Advance is made, at the rate of 12.5% per annum, compounded and calculated weekly, to be added to the principal amount on the first day of each
- (d) Maturity Date: The earliest of: (a) the date that is one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of the Initial Advance (or such later date as the DIP Lender in its sole discretion may agree to in writing with the Borrower, acting reasonably); (b) the date on which (i) the stay of proceedings under the CCAA proceedings is lifted without the consent of the DIP Lender, or (ii) the CCAA proceedings are terminated for any reason; (c) the closing of a sale for all or substantially all of the assets and business, or similar transaction in respect, the Obligors pursuant to the SISP within the CCAA proceedings which has been approved by an order entered by the Court; (d) the implementation of a plan of compromise or arrangement within the CCAA proceedings which has been approved by the requisite majorities of the Obligors' creditors and by an order entered by the Court; or (e) the conversion of the CCAA proceedings into a proceeding under the BIA.

- (e) Fee: The Borrower shall pay a commitment fee in the amount of $198,000.00 (the “Fee”), representing 3% of the total amount available under the DIP Facility, which shall be fully earned upon the execution of this Agreement and shall be paid or otherwise satisfied on the date of issuance of the Initial Order (as defined below) by the Court;.
- (f) Costs and Expenses: The Borrower shall pay all reasonable and documented costs and expenses of the DIP Lender, and all reasonable and documented fees, expenses and disbursements of outside counsel, appraisers, field auditors, and any financial consultant, related to or in connection with the CCAA proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the DIP Lender;
- (g) Conditions:
 - (i) Conditions Precedent to the Disbursement of the Initial Advance:
 - (A) the Obligors’ application materials in connection with their application for the issuance of the Initial Order under the CCAA (in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably) shall have been shared with the DIP Lender, and such application shall have been brought before the Court no later than July 25, 2023, on notice to such parties as are acceptable to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;
 - (B) the form of Initial Order shall be satisfactory to the DIP lender, acting reasonably;
 - (C) KSV shall be appointed as Monitor;
 - (D) the Initial Order shall be executed by the Court authorizing and approving the DIP Facility and DIP Lender’s Charge in respect of the Initial Advance, and shall be in full force and effect;
 - (E) except to the extent not permitted by the CCAA, the DIP Lender’s Charge shall have priority over all Liens granted by the Obligors against the Property except for the Administrative Charge, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $500,000 under the Initial Order, which amount shall be increased to $1,250,000 under the ARIO; and

(F) the Initial Cash Flow Projections shall be acceptable to the DIP Lender, in its discretion.

(ii) Conditions Precedent to the Disbursement of DIP Advances (Other than the Initial Advance)

(A) the Obligors' application materials in connection with their application for the ARIO shall be satisfactory to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably, and such application shall be brought before the Court no later than August 4, 2023, on notice to such parties as are acceptable to the DIP Lender, acting reasonably;

(B) the ARIO shall be issued and in full force and effect;

(C) the DIP Lender's Charge shall have priority over all Liens granted by the Obligors, other than the Administrative Charge;

(D) all amounts requested shall be consistent with Updated Cash Flow Projections, or otherwise expressly agreed by the DIP Lender in advance;

(E) terms and conditions of the SISP shall be satisfactory to the Monitor, and the DIP Lender shall be satisfied, acting reasonably, with the terms of the SISP and the SISP Order;

(F) representations and warranties shall be true and correct; and

(G) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred or be continuing.

237. The DIP Loan is also subject to customary Default and Event of Default language, including the failure of the Borrower to pay principal or interest when due and any other breach in the observance or performance of the provisions of the DIP Loan, among others.

238. Accordingly, on or about July 24, 2023, the DIP Loan was entered into. A copy of the DIP Loan is attached hereto at Exhibit "UUU").

239. As the DIP Loan will be provided by RWB, who already benefits from a security interest over the Applicants' Property, I do not expect any material prejudice to any of the other existing secured creditors of the Applicants, should the Court approve the DIP Loan and grant the DIP Lender's Charge.

240. The DIP Lender's Charge will secure all of the credit advanced under the DIP Facility. However, during the initial 10-day Stay of Proceedings, the Applicants are only authorized to borrow a maximum of $2.4 million as evidenced by the Initial Cash Flow Projection approved by the DIP Lender. The DIP Lender's Charge will not secure any obligations incurred prior to these CCAA proceedings.

241. The Proposed Monitor has advised that it is supportive of the approval of the DIP Loan and associated charge. Accordingly, I believe that it is appropriate in these circumstances for the Court to approve the DIP Loan and grant the associated charge.

C. Stay of Proceedings

242. As referenced above, the Applicants will run out cash and be unable to meet their obligations as they become due in the very short term. Demands and NITES have also been delivered by RWB to the relevant Aleafia Group entities.

243. Given the challenges faced by the Applicants described herein, Aleafia Group requires a stay of proceedings to maintain the status quo and to give the Applicants the breathing space they require to develop a Sales Process in consultation with their advisors and the Monitor.

244. The proposed Initial Order contemplates a stay of proceedings for a period of 10 days, which I understand is the maximum that can be authorized by a court at the initial application under the CCAA.

245. As set out in the Cash Flow Forecast attached at Exhibit "VVV", I understand that the Applicants expect that, with the funds to be advanced under the DIP Loan, they will have sufficient cash to operate until the end of the initial requested 10-day stay period. The Applicants, therefore, request the Stay of Proceedings for an initial period of ten days, and, if granted by this Court, the Applicants will subsequently request an extension of the Stay of Proceedings at the Comeback Hearing.

246. In addition to the Stay of Proceedings against the Applicants and their Property, the Applicants are seeking a stay of proceedings against the directors and officers of the Aleafia Group to ensure that they are able to focus their efforts on the Applicants' restructuring efforts and to prevent creditors and others from seeking to do indirectly what they cannot do directly by asserting claims or other relief relating to the debts and obligations of the Applicants against the directors and officers.

D. Administration Charge

247. It is contemplated that a Court-ordered charge over the Property (as defined in the Initial Order) would be granted in favour of the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the Applicants (the “Administration Professionals”), to secure payment of their professional fees and disbursements, whether incurred before or after the date of the Initial Order (the “Administration Charge”).

248. The proposed Administration Charge being sought pursuant to the Initial Order is for a maximum amount of $500,000.00.

249. In preparation of the Cash Flow Forecast, the Applicants, in consultation with the Proposed Monitor, considered the professional fees forecasted to be incurred on a weekly basis during the cash flow period. Until the week of the Comeback Hearing (Week 2), the Applicants forecast to incur significant professional fees (including retainers) in connection with the CCAA proceedings, such as preparing for the Comeback Hearing, communicating with employees and stakeholders following the initial filing, developing a Sales Process and complying with statutory notices, mailings and communications.

250. Accordingly, I believe the quantum of the Administration Charge sought is reasonably necessary at this time to secure the professional fees of the Administration Professionals for the applicable period.

251. All of Administration Professionals have contributed, and will continue to contribute, to the Applicants’ restructuring efforts.

252. The Applicants, in consultation with the Monitor, and their respective advisors, will seek an increase to the Administration Charge at the Comeback Hearing.

E. Directors’ Charge

253. It is contemplated pursuant to the proposed Initial Order that the Applicants’ directors and officers would be granted a Court-ordered Directors’ Charge on the Property, up to a maximum amount of $835,000.00.

254. The Directors’ Charge is intended to address potential claims that may be brought against directors and officers. The Applicants’ ordinary course operations give rise to potential director liability, including on account of payroll obligations and sales taxes.

255. It is my understanding that the Applicants’ present and former directors and officers are among the potential beneficiaries under various liability insurance policies. However, I understand from legal counsel to the Aleafia Group that these policies may have various exceptions, exclusions and carve-outs, and may not provide sufficient coverage against potential liability that may be incurred during potential CCAA proceedings.

256. The Directors' Charge is therefore crucial to the continued involvement of the Applicants' directors and officers during the CCAA proceeding to provide them with certainty regarding their personal liability. These directors and officers have skills, knowledge and expertise, as well as established relationships with various stakeholders, that are critical to a successful restructuring.

257. The quantum of the Directors' Charge was developed with the assistance and support of the Proposed Monitor taking into account the anticipated payroll, sales tax and other exposures that give rise to director liability for the applicable period.

258. The Applicants are of the view that the quantum of the Directors' Charge is reasonably necessary at this time to address circumstances that could lead to potential directors' liability prior to the Comeback Hearing.

259. The Applicants, in consultation with the Monitor, and their respective advisors, will seek an increase to the Directors' Charge at the Comeback Hearing.

F. Critical Payments

260. The Applicants seek the authority to make certain payments with respect to goods and/or services supplied to the Applicants both before and after the date of the Initial Order, where the supplier or vendor of such goods or services is necessary for the stable operation or preservation of the Applicants' Business or Property (as defined in the Initial Order) up to a maximum aggregate amount of $500,000.00, and subject to the terms of the DIP Loan. The proposed Initial Order contemplates that any such payments will be made in consultation with the Proposed Monitor and in order to be paid, require the Proposed Monitor's consent. I understand that the Monitor is supportive of this relief and commented on the cap amount associated with the critical payment amount in their pre-filing report.

G. Approval of Cash Management System

261. Given the nature and scale of the Aleafia Group's operations through the Cash Management System, the continued use of the existing Cash Management System is required and appropriate during these CCAA proceedings. I understand that the Proposed Monitor is also supportive of this relief.

H. Relief to be Sought at Comeback Hearing

262. If the Initial Order is granted, the Applicants propose to return to this Court for a Comeback Hearing.

263. At the Comeback Hearing, the Applicants intend to seek the Court's approval of an Amended and Restated Initial Order. For the benefit of this Court and the Applicants' stakeholders, this section highlights critical relief that the Applicants intend to seek at the Comeback Hearing. The Applicants may seek additional relief if determined to be necessary or advisable.

i. Extension of Stay of Proceedings

264. The Applicants intend to seek an extension of the Stay of Proceedings for a sufficient length of time to allow the Applicants to complete the Sales Process without having to incur additional costs during that process to return to Court to seek a further extension of the stay of proceedings.

ii. Increase to Charges

265. The Applicants intend to seek to increase the quantum of the Administration Charge, Directors' Charge and DIP Lender's Charge over all other encumbrances. In accordance with the CCAA, parties affected by this relief will be served with the Notice of Application in advance of the Comeback Hearing.

266. In addition, the Applicants will also seek appropriate priming of the Charges at the Comeback Hearing, with notice given to all secured parties at that time.

iii. Relief Relating to Securities Filings and AGM

267. As a result of this CCAA application, at the Comeback Hearing, Aleafia Parent will likely seek to be relieved of any obligation to call and hold the AGM until further Order of this Court.

268. I understand from counsel to the Aleafia Group that it is not uncommon for this type of relief to be sought and obtained in insolvency proceedings in Canada involving Applicants of this nature and, accordingly, I believe it to be reasonable in this instance as well given the status of the Aleafia Group and its intention to pursue a Court-supervised SISP and/or restructuring.

269. In addition, if the Initial Order is granted, at the Comeback Motion, the Applicants will likely seek authorization to dispense with certain securities filing requirements. In particular, the Applicants seek authorization for the Applicants to incur no further expenses in relation to any filings (including financial statements), disclosures, core or non-core documents, restatements, amendments to existing filings, press releases or any other actions (collectively, the “Securities Filings”) that may be required by any federal, provincial, or other law respecting securities or capital markets in Canada, or by the rules and regulations of a stock exchange, including without limitation, the Securities Act (Ontario), and comparable statutes enacted by other provinces of Canada, and other rules, regulations and policies of the TSX. Such relief will be on notice to the applicable regulatory body.

270. In my view, incurring the time and costs associated with preparing the Securities Filings will detract from the Applicants’ successful restructuring. Further, there is no prejudice to stakeholders given that detailed financial information and other information regarding the Applicants will continue to be made publicly available through the materials filed in these CCAA proceedings.

I. Relief Sought After Comeback Hearing

i. Sales Process

271. After the Comeback Hearing, the Aleafia Group likely intends to return to this Court to seek approval of the SISP, which will give certainty to employees, customers, regulators, suppliers and stakeholders that the Aleafia Group will continue as a going concern when the Sales Process concludes.

272. The terms of the SISP is likely to be detailed in a separate report of the Proposed Monitor, or alternately within a supplemental affidavit, to be sworn.

273. RWB has informed Aleafia Parent and the Proposed Monitor that it is considering making an offer to purchase all or certain of the assets of the Aleafia Group in the context of the SISP.

J. Relief Sought

274. For the reasons set out herein, the Aleafia Group respectfully requests this Court grant the Initial Order.

VIII. CONCLUSION

275. In the circumstances, I believe that the CCAA proceedings are the only viable means of restructuring the Applicants’ business and operations for the benefit of their stakeholders and the relief sought in the Initial Order is limited to what is reasonably necessary to stabilize the Applicants’ business in the initial ten (10) day period.

276. The Applicants, with the assistance of their legal and financial advisors, have determined that the proposed CCAA proceedings represent the best available strategy to maximize value for Aleafia Group's stakeholders.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health Inc.:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") were prepared by management, which is responsible for the integrity and fairness of the information presented, including the many amounts that out of necessity are based on estimates and judgements. These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded, and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements.

The Board of Directors oversees the responsibilities of management for financial reporting through an Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors. This Audit Committee reviews the consolidated financial statements and recommends them to the Board of Directors for approval. They meet regularly with management to review internal control procedures and advise directors on accounting matters and financial reporting issues.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2023 and 2022 and the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the 12-month and 15-month periods then ended, respectively, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at March 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and cash flows for the 12-month and 15-month periods then ended, respectively, in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 2(c) in the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Company had an accumulated deficit of $527.8 million and net working capital deficit of $5.4 million as at March 31, 2023. These events or conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 2(c), indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect to this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2023. The matter discussed below was addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on this matter. The key audit matter to be communicated in our auditors' report is as follows:

Valuation of biological assets and cannabis inventory

We draw attention to Notes 2(f), 2(j), 7 and 8 to the consolidated financial statements. Biological assets are measured at fair value less cost to sell at the stage of completion. The Company values inventories of harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

In estimating the fair value of biological assets, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, average yield per plant, harvesting costs, selling costs, selling price, and the allocation of indirect costs, which form part of the standard cost per gram to complete production. In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value.

We identified measurement of the fair value of biological assets and net realizable value of cannabis inventory as key audit matters as a high degree of auditor judgment was required to evaluate the significant assumptions and estimates made by management.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We performed sensitivity analyses over the Company's significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of biological assets to assess the impact of changes in those assumptions on the Company's determination of fair value.
- We tested the stage of growth by observing the plants at year-end.
- We tested the average expected yield per plant by comparing actual results of the current year to historical results of operations.
- We tested the average selling price per gram by comparing to estimates used by management to actual sales prices per gram in actual sales transaction during and subsequent to year-end.
- We also tested the net realizable value of inventory by comparing the carrying value of inventory to the prices earned from sales transactions near and subsequent to year-end.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information, which comprises the information included in the Company's Management's Discussion and Analysis to be filed with the relevant Canadian securities commissions.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion on thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditor's report. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going-concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Christopher Hiestand.

Note 1 Nature of Operations

The Company is a publicly traded corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health's head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

The Company is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis products in Canada and destined for international markets, including Australia and Germany. The Company operates a virtual medical cannabis clinic staffed by physicians and nurse practitioners which provide health and wellness services across Canada.

The Company operates three licensed cannabis production facilities all in the province of Ontario, including the largest, outdoor cannabis cultivation facility in Canada. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vapes, oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual strips, and topicals, for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets, and in select international jurisdictions.

The common shares of the Company commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") (symbol "AH"), on May 27, 2020.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies and Judgments

IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the carrying values of certain assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Actual results may differ from these judgments, estimates, and assumptions.

Significant accounting policies, which affect the consolidated financial statements as a whole, as well as key accounting estimates and areas of significant judgment are highlighted in this section. This note also describes change in accounting policies, new accounting standards, which have been adopted during 2023, and new accounting pronouncements, which are not yet effective but are expected to impact the Company's consolidated financial statements in the future. Accounting policies, estimates, or judgments that have a significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements include the valuation of investments (Note 4), estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment (Note 6), inventory (Note 7), biological assets (Note 8), convertible debentures (Note 13), share-based compensation (Note 14), and the fair value of financial instruments (Note 19).

a) Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"), and interpretations of the IFRS Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

The Company's consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. The amounts in the tables are expressed in Canadian dollars and rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise stated.

The consolidated financial statements were approved and authorized for issue by the Board of Directors of the Company on June 13, 2023.

b) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, which are entities controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. Such control is generally evidenced through ownership of more than 50% of the voting rights or through contractual arrangements. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. All subsidiaries, except for the holding companies and the inactive subsidiaries, are actively engaged in carrying out the Company's business in the normal course and are domiciled in Canada.

	Operating Status	Percentage Ownership
Aleafia Inc.	Active	100%
Canabo Medical Corporation ("Canabo")	Active	100%
Aleafia Farms Inc. ("Aleafia Farm")	Active	100%
Emblem Corp. ("Emblem")	Active	100%
Emblem Cannabis Corporation ("ECC")	Active	100%
GrowWise Health Limited ("GrowWise")	Active	100%
Emblem Realty Ltd. ("Emblem Realty")	Inactive	100%
Aleafia Brands Inc.	Inactive	100%
Aleafia Retail Inc.	Inactive	100%
2672533 Ontario Inc.	Inactive	100%
2676063 Ontario Inc.	Inactive	100%

c) Going concern assumption

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $527,810 (March 31, 2022 – $493,203) and net working capital deficit of $5,418 (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36,160). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The proposed business combination transaction with Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB"), along with the related subsequent events as described in Note 25, have the potential to significantly affect the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Please refer to Note 25 for more details regarding this subsequent event.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options which could potentially meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, selling non-core assets, issuing common shares via a public or private placement equity offering, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business
- Remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing in the future on terms favourable for the Company.

d) COVID-19 estimation uncertainty

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), a global pandemic. Government measures to limit the spread of COVID-19, including the closure of non-essential businesses, continued to disrupt the Company's operations during the year ended March 31, 2023.

The production and sale of cannabis and cannabis-derived products have been recognized as essential services across Canada; however, COVID-19 related challenges have persisted, including, but not limited to, reduced staffing levels, production inefficiencies resulting from increased health and safety measures, and supply chain issues.

Due to the ongoing developments and uncertainty surrounding COVID-19, it is not possible to predict the continuing impact that COVID-19 will have on the Company, its financial position, and/or its operating results in the future. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's consolidated financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19, and the effect of any such changes could be material. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of its business.

e) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash in the consolidated statements of financial position is comprised of cash in banks and on hand, and short-term deposits which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash and are subject to insignificant risk with respect to its value and liquidity.

f) Restricted cash

Restricted cash includes cash held as collateral against certain bank credit card facilities. It also includes Canadian bank issued preferred shares, which is subject to trading restrictions that are greater than 90 days.

g) Biological assets

The Company measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from the changes in fair value less cost to sell during the period are recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets between the initial planting to the point of harvest including labour, labour related, fertilizer, utilities and facility costs and amortization of related production equipment. Seeds are measured at fair market value. Upon harvest, the fair value adjustments including all the capitalized costs are transferred from biological assets to inventory and form the cost basis of the inventory.

h) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using weighted average method. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses. Inventories are written down to net realizable value when the cost of inventories is estimated to be unrecoverable due to obsolescence, damage, or declining market prices. When the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist or when there is evidence of an increase in selling price, then the amount of the write-down previously recorded is reversed.

The cost of inventories comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs of purchase include the purchase price, non-recoverable taxes, and transport, handling and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of finished goods, materials or services. The costs of conversion include direct material and labour costs, and a systematic allocation of fixed and variable overheads incurred in converting materials into finished goods.

The Company's inventories include harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods, which are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Harvested cannabis is initially recorded at fair value less costs to sell at the point of harvest, which becomes the inventory's cost. This fair value includes capitalized costs and unrealized fair value adjustments. Any subsequent post-harvest costs are capitalized to inventory to the extent that they are less than the net realizable value. The cost of fertilizers and nutrients includes the costs of purchases net of vendor allowances and other costs, such as transportation, that are directly incurred to bring the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Storage costs, indirect administrative overhead, and certain other selling costs related to inventories are expensed in the period incurred.

i) Property, plant, and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes all costs directly attributable to the acquisition.

Land is not depreciated. Depreciation of other items of property, plant and equipment is calculated on components that have homogeneous useful lives by using the straight-line method or declining balance method to depreciate the initial cost down to the residual value over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Computer equipment and software	30% on a declining basis
Office furniture and equipment	20% on a declining basis
Buildings	25 years on a straight-line basis
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line over the remaining term of the lease

Useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed at each year-end. Such a review takes into consideration the nature of the assets, their intended use and technological changes.

Gains or losses on disposals are determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount and are recognized in "Other expenses (income)" in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.

j) Leases

The Company leases some items of property, plant and equipment.

As is permitted under IFRS 16, the Company elected to expense its short-term leases (term of 12 months or less) and leases of low-value assets on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

For its other contracts, the Company assesses whether its new or amended contracts contain a lease.

A lease represents the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Company assesses the following to determine whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset:

- The identified asset is directly or indirectly specified in the contract, or it represents substantially all of the capacity of a physically distinct asset.
- The right of use covers substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the identified asset for a period of time.
- The Company has the right to direct the use of the identified asset. In cases where the use is predetermined, the Company operates the asset or designed it in a way that predetermines how and for what purpose the asset will be used.

When a lease is identified, the Company allocates the consideration in the contract to each of the lease components, separately from the non-lease components, on the basis of their relative stand-alone price. However, as is permitted under IFRS 16, the Company elected to account for all contracts of land and buildings it occupies as leases.

A right-of-use asset (a "lease asset") and a lease liability are recognized in the statement of financial position at the lease commencement date.

k) Right of use assets

The Company recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease [i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use]. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Unless the Company is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful life and the lease term. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment.

l) Lease obligation

At the commencement date of the lease, the Company recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

m) Share-based payments

Share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the estimated fair value of the instruments issued on the grant date and amortized over the vesting period. Share-based payments to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued if it is determined the fair value of the goods or services cannot be reliably measured and are recorded at the date the goods or services are received. The amount recognized as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards expected to vest. The offset to the recorded cost is to equity settled share-based payments reserve.

Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital and the related equity settled share-based payments reserve is transferred to share capital. Charges for options that are forfeited before vesting are reversed from contributed surplus.

Share-based compensation expense relating to deferred share units is accrued over the vesting period of the units based on the quoted market price on the date of issuance. As these awards can be settled in cash, the expense and liability are adjusted each reporting year for changes in the underlying share price.

n) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when it is probable that the Company is required to settle an obligation (legal or constructive), as a result of a past event, and the obligation can be reliably estimated. The provision represents the Company's best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting year. When a provision is determined using the expected cash flow method, the carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When some or all of the amounts required to settle a provision are expected to be recoverable from a third party, a receivable is recognized when it is virtually certain reimbursement is receivable and the expected reimbursement can be reliably measured.

o) Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted loss per share data for its common shares, calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share does not adjust the loss attributable to common shareholders or the weighted average number of common shares outstanding when the effect is anti-dilutive.

p) Income taxes

Current income taxes are the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted, and includes any adjustments to tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. Deferred income taxes are recorded using the liability method whereby deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the date of the statements of financial position. Deferred tax is not recognized for temporary differences which arise on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting, nor taxable profit or loss.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

q) Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. In the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”) transaction costs are included in the carry amount of the asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVTPL are expensed in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. Financial assets are subsequently measured at:

- a. FVTPL
- b. Amortized cost
- c. Fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”)
- d. Equity instruments designated at FVOCI; or
- e. Financial instruments designated at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at:

- f. FVTPL
- g. Amortized cost

The classification is based on whether the contractual cash flow characteristics represent “solely payment of principal and interest” as well as the business model under which the financial assets are managed. Financial liabilities held by the Company are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost.

r) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of the Company’s non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment at each statement of financial position date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the cash-generating unit, or “CGU”). The recoverable amount of an asset or a CGU is the higher of its fair value, less cost to sell, and its value in use. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment charge is recognized immediately in profit or loss by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the recoverable amount. Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the lesser of the revised estimate of recoverable amount and the carrying amount that would have been recorded had no impairment loss been recognized previously.

s) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses, on a forward-looking basis, the expected credit losses associated with its financial instruments carried at amortized cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether the asset originated from a contract that is in the scope of IFRS 15 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (IFRS 15) or if there have been significant increases in credit risk.

Accounts receivable - For accounts receivable and contract assets, the Company applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by IFRS 9 - Financial Instruments (IFRS 9), which requires the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all accounts receivable and contract assets within the scope of IFRS 15. The Company has established a provision based on the Company’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Cash equivalents - For cash equivalents and short-term investments at amortized cost, the Company applies the general approach to providing for expected credit losses. These instruments are considered to be low credit risk, and therefore, the impairment provision is determined using a 12-month expected credit loss basis.

t) Segment reporting

IFRS 8 - Operating Segments requires operating segments to be determined based on internal reports that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker for the purpose of allocating resources to the segment and to assessing its performance. The Company has one reportable segment, the cultivation of cannabis plants, and production and sale of cannabis flower, extracts and other derivatives, all of which supply four different sales channels: adult use, medical, international and wholesale.

u) Revenue recognition

The Company derives revenue primarily from the sale of cannabis and cannabis products. Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of the promised goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Performance obligations are satisfied, and revenue is recognized, either over time or at a point in time. Certain activities may give rise to deferred revenue, which are contract liabilities under IFRS 15 and relate to payments received in advance of performance under contracts with customers. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue as (or when) the Company satisfies its performance obligations under the contracts.

Under bill-and-hold arrangements – whereby the Company bills a customer for product to be delivered at a later date – control typically transfers when the product is still in the Company’s physical possession, and title and risk of loss has passed to the customer. Revenue is recognized when all specific requirements for transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met. There are no bill and hold arrangements as at March 31, 2023.

The provision for sales returns is an estimate used in the recognition of revenue in connection with contract liabilities identified in contracts with customers. The Company has a return policy that allows wholesalers to return product within a specified period prior to, and subsequent to, the expiration date. Provisions for returns are recognized in the period in which the underlying sales are recognized, as a reduction of product sales revenue. The Company estimates provisions for returns based upon historical data to determine return percentages and current market conditions, representing management’s best estimate. Historical experience may not always be an accurate indicator of future returns, and therefore the Company continually monitors return provisions and adjusts when it believes that actual product returns may differ from amounts recorded.

Amounts disclosed as net revenue are net of sales tax, duty tax, allowances, returns provision, price adjustments, discounts and rebates.

Sale of cannabis: Revenue from the sale of cannabis is recognized when the Company transfers control to the customer upon delivery or the time of the product pickup from the Company’s facilities by the customer based on the contract-by-contract basis between the Company and the customer, or in the case of bill-and-hold arrangements, when specific requirements have been met.

Medical consultation: The Company provides medical services to patients on a scheduled appointment fixed fee basis. Performance of the service is considered complete at the conclusion of the appointment and revenue is recognized at a point in time.

Storage Revenue: Revenue from storage services is recognized over time as the services are provided, based on the agreed-upon storage rates and the passage of time.

Shipping Revenue: Revenue from shipping services is recognized when control of the goods has transferred to the customer, typically upon delivery to the customer's specified destination.

Solar Panel Revenue: Revenue from the generation of electricity by the solar panels is recognized based on the actual amount of electricity generated.

v) Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale are no longer depreciated and are presented separately in the statement of financial position at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is regarded as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction, rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale and its sale must be highly probable.

w) Foreign currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction. At each reporting date, foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at year-end exchange rates. Exchange differences arising from the transactions are recorded in profit or loss for the period.

x) Future changes in accounting policies

The following IFRS standards have been recently issued by the IASB with an effective date after March 31, 2023, and have not yet been adopted by the Company. Pronouncements that are irrelevant or not expected to have a significant impact have been excluded:

Amendments to IAS 1: Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current

The amendments to IAS 1 clarify the requirements relating to determining whether a liability should be presented as current or non-current in the statement of financial position. Under the new requirements, the assessment of whether a liability is presented as current or non-current is based on the contractual arrangements in place as at the reporting date and does not impact the amount or timing of recognition. The amendments will apply retrospectively for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

Amendments to IAS 8: Definition of Accounting Estimate

The amendments introduced a new definition for accounting estimates, clarifying that the estimates are monetary amounts in the financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty which is defined as an uncertainty that arises when monetary amounts in financial reports cannot be observed directly and must instead be estimated. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

Amendments to IAS 1: Disclosure of Accounting Policies

The IASB has issued amendments to IAS 1 and IFRS Practice Statement 2 on the application of materiality to disclosure of accounting policies in deciding which accounting policies to disclose in the financial statements. The key amendments to IAS 1 include requiring companies to disclose their material accounting policies rather than their significant accounting policies; clarifying that accounting policies related to immaterial transactions, other events, or conditions are immaterial and need not be disclosed; and clarifying that not all accounting policies that relate to material transactions, other events, or conditions are material to a company's consolidated financial statements. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements

Amendments to IAS 12: Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction

The amendments narrowed the scope of certain recognition exemptions so that it no longer applies to transactions that, on initial recognition, give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. A company applies the amendments to transactions that occur on or after the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented. It also, at the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented, recognizes deferred tax for all temporary differences related to leases and decommissioning obligations and recognizes the cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings (or other component of equity, as appropriate) at that date. The amendments will be effective for the annual period beginning on or after January 1, 2023, and the Company has chosen not to early adopt the amendments. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

As of March 31, 2023, the Company has not yet adopted the above-mentioned IFRS standards that have an effective date after this reporting period. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements and will adopt them when they become applicable in accordance with the relevant IFRS standards. The evaluation process includes assessing the potential impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations, and disclosures in the financial statements.

It should be noted that the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements cannot be determined with certainty until the Company completes its evaluation process. Therefore, the Company cannot provide any assurance that the impact of these amendments will not be material to the consolidated financial statements in the period of initial application or in future periods.

This note is provided for informational purposes only and does not represent a comprehensive analysis of all potential accounting impacts that may arise from the adoption of these IFRS standards. The Company encourages users of its financial statements to refer to the full text of the applicable IFRS standards and related guidance for a more detailed understanding of the potential impact on its financial statements.

Note 3 Marketable Securities

As at March 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company held the following marketable securities:

Financial asset Hierarchy level	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Balance, March 31, 2022	1,190	-	-	1,190

On May 10, 2021, the Company, through its subsidiaries Canabo and GrowWise, sold certain clinic assets to Myconic Capital Corp (d.b.a Wellbeing Digital Sciences Limited "WDSL"). In exchange, WDSL issued 7,000,000 common shares with a fair value of $12,250 at the time of closing. The sale resulted in the derecognition of assets and lease obligations with a net book value of $586, resulting in a gain of $12,092.

The shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss, and are categorized as Level 2 on the fair value hierarchy as they have quoted market prices in an active market.

On August 30, 2021, KetamineOne Capital Limited completed a spin-off of Milgauss Investments Ltd, and distributed one one-hundred-tenth of a Milgauss share and one new common share of KetamineOne for each KetamineOne share held before the effective date of the transaction. As part of the spin-off, the Company received 60,795 shares.

The shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss and are categorized as Level 2 on the fair value hierarchy due to the unavailability of some inputs in the market.

Note 4 Investments

One Plant (Retail) Corp. is a private Canadian company that focuses on cannabis retail business. The Company holds 9.4% of One Plant (Retail) Corp.'s common shares as an investment. The investment is accounted for under IFRS 9 - Financial Instruments and is initially recognized at cost, which includes the transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the investment.

The Company evaluates its investment in One Plant (Retail) Corp. for impairment at each reporting date or when there is an indication of impairment. As of March 31, 2023, there is no indication of impairment, and the investment is carried at cost. No dividends have been received or recognized for the year ended March 31, 2023 and 2022.

Any future dividends received from One Plant (Retail) Corp. will be recognized in the Company's profit or loss as income when the right to receive payment has been established. Any transaction costs related to the disposal of the investment will be recognized in profit or loss when the disposal occurs.

Depreciation relating to manufacturing equipment and production facilities for owned and right-of-use lease assets is capitalized to biological assets and inventory and is expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company recognized depreciation expense of $5,978 (March 31, 2022 – $12,093), of which $3,150 (March 31, 2022 – $4,417) was included in cost of sales, biological assets and inventory, and $2,828 (March 31, 2022 – $7,676) was included in operating expenses.

Note 7 Inventory

Inventory is comprised of the following items as at:

	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Finished goods	3,977	4,454
Work-in-progress	18,582	27,992
Supplies and consumables	3,127	2,940
Inventory provision	(9,081)	(13,722)
Total inventory	16,605	21,664

The inventory provision solely relates to work-in-progress inventory as of March 31, 2023, and 2022. It accounts for estimated losses due to obsolescence, slow-moving inventory, and other factors affecting the recoverability of the carrying amount, as determined by management.

Note 8 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of assets in the future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate the expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future periods.

The change in the carrying value of biological assets during the period area as follows:

Opening balance	1,179	2,511
Production costs capitalized	14,902	22,053
Changes in fair value less cost to sell due to biological transformation	5,158	1,333
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(18,835)	(24,718)
Total biological assets	2,404	1,179

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following significant assumptions in the valuation model:

	March 31, 2023		March 31, 2022
	Indoor	Outdoor	Indoor	Outdoor
Average fair value per gram ($)	2.00	0.17	0.98	0.16
Average yield per plant (grams)	244	238	60	750
Average of growth cycle (weeks)	13	20	13	16

The Company values cannabis plants at fair value. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins at the time of planting and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between thirteen and twenty weeks from propagation to harvest.

The Company estimates the harvest yields for the cannabis on plants at various stages of growth, based on expected yield of mature plants. As of March 31, 2023, it is expected that the Company's biological assets will yield 19,759 kg of cannabis when eventually harvested. The Company's estimates are, by their nature, subject to change, and differences from the expected yield will be reflected in the fair value adjustment to biological assets in future periods. The Company accretes fair value on a straight-line basis according to stage of growth. As a result, a cannabis plant that is 50% through its 13-week growing cycle would be ascribed approximately 50% of its harvest date expected fair value less costs to sell (subject to wastage adjustments).

The fair value adjustment to biological assets and inventory sold consists of the following for twelve and the fifteen months ended:

Change in fair value on growth of biological assets	1,380	1,333
Realized fair value amounts included in inventory sold	(361)	120
Fair value changes in biological assets and inventory sold	1,019	1,453

Note 9 Net tax payable (receivable)

Net tax payable (receivable) comprises the following items as at:

Sales tax payable (receivable)	286	(3,323)
Excise duty payable	9,423	3,616
Excise stamp deposit	(823)	(823)
Total net tax payable (receivable)	8,886	(530)

Note 10 Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities comprise the following items:

Trade payables	8,091	18,763

Note 11 Credit Facilities

December 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12,000 and access to a revolving facility up to $7,000. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime (with a floor of 3.45%) rate plus 9%, annually, with an effective interest rate of 14.8%. Under the agreement, the Company prepaid interest of $749. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances.

The Company received net proceeds of $10,798 on December 24, 2021.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement on the Company.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

The amortization of the credit facility as at March 31, 2023:

Balance, March 31, 2022	12,073
Interest expense	1,942
Fees	203
Drawdown	24,926

December 2021 Credit Facility	7,554
August 2021 Credit Facility	5,328
Total credit facility, March 31, 2023	12,882

August 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10,000 for working capital and general corporate purposes. The term of the loan was for one year with a fixed interest rate of 12% and an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The facility is secured by a first lien mortgage on the Port Perry, Ontario facility.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. Second lien mortgages were granted against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023, the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%, and the interest to begin paying in June 2022.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5,000 against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility including the prepayment of one year of interest, from June 2022 to June 2023, in the amount of $623.

The amortization of the credit facility as at March 31, 2023:

Balance, March 31, 2022	5,075
Interest accretion	876
Interest payment	(623)
Balance, March 31, 2023	5,328

Note 12 Promissory Notes

Promissory Note

On December 16, 2022, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $1,000 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 15.77%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

On January 24, 2022, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $1,500 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 15.09%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

On February 28, 2023, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $2,000 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 13.86%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

The amortization of the promissory notes as at March 31, 2023 is as follows:

Proceeds from issuance on December 16, 2022	1,000
Proceeds from issuance on January 24, 2023	1,500
Proceeds from issuance on February 28, 2023	2,000
Transaction costs	(80)
Interest accretion and amortization of transaction costs	102
Balance, March 31, 2023	4,522
Interest payable included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities	93
Promissory note	4,429
Balance, March 31, 2023	4,522

Note 13 Convertible Debt

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40,300 (the “June 2019 Convertible Debenture”). The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022,
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually,
- Convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder, and
- The Company may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2,900 debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,350.

During the year ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $301 debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,049.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37,049 principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2,387 principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company’s existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

The below table summarizes the changes in the total consolidated convertible debentures.

Balance, March 31, 2022	36,401
Interest accretion	4,076
Conversion into equity	(301)
Derecognition of June 2019 Convertible Debenture	(40,175)
Transaction costs	(636)
Issuance of New Debentures	24,128
Balance, June 30, 2022	23,493
Interest accretion	3,679
Balance March 31, 2023	27,172

The modifications to the June 2019 Convertible Debenture were determined to be substantial and therefore accounted for as an extinguishment.

The liability component of the New Debentures is recorded at the present value of the future interest and principal payments using the discount rate of 19.5%. The equity component represents the residual amount attributed to the Company’s liability to equity conversion option amounting to $16,047 and is recorded in the contributed surplus in the interim condensed consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 14 Share Capital

Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at March 31, 2023, there were 403,143,926 common shares issued and outstanding.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued 68,151,515 common shares at a price of $0.0825 plus 3,407,500 common shares as finder's fee, by way of a private placement offering on June 24, 2022, resulting in net proceeds of $5,623. Each common share also has one half of one common share purchase warrant (refer to "warrant" section below).

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the "Plan"), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The total stock option expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the year ended March 31, 2023 was $1,571 (March 31, 2022 – $2,607).

The following table summarizes information relating to outstanding and exercisable stock options as at March 31, 2023:

	Options	Weighted average exercise price

Unvested	12,597,375	0.10
Balance, March 31, 2023	52,919,771	0.51

The fair values of the stock options granted during the year ended March 31, 2023 and 2022, were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following weighted average assumptions:

	2023	2022
Weighted average share price	$0.05	$0.21
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	2.87%	0.69%
Weighted expected life-years	3.2 years	2.8 years
Weighted average expected daily volatility	87.5%	87.0%
Weighted expected dividends	0.00%	0.00%
Forfeiture rate	5.65%	0.00%

The volatility assumption is based on an analysis of historical volatility over a period equivalent to the life of the options.

The following table summarizes the outstanding and exercisable options held by directors, officers, employees and consultants as at March 31, 2023:

Exercise Price Range	Outstanding			Exercisable

Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”)

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based compensation expense anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, 2,000,000 RSUs were granted (March 31, 2022 – 1,274,000). The total RSU expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the year ended March 31, 2023 was $126 (March 31, 2022 – $292).

A summary of the RSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2023 and 2022, is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2020	–
Granted	1,274,000
Exercised/released	(335,250)
Forfeited	(214,083)

Granted	2,000,000
Exercised/released	(661,417)
Cancelled/forfeited	(127,500)
Balance, March 31, 2023	1,935,750

There are no RSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

At the Company's annual general meeting on June 30, 2020, shareholders passed a resolution approving the Company's deferred share unit plan (the "DSU Plan"), which was implemented during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with other director compensation, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board. The deferred share units are settled in shares.

A summary of the DSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2023 and 2022 is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2020	148,431
Granted	2,229,549
Exercised/released	(347,947)
Balance, March 31, 2022	2,030,033
Granted	7,494,704
Balance, March 31, 2023	9,524,737

There are no DSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Warrants

The Company has the following warrants outstanding as at March 31, 2023 and 2022:

	Warrants outstanding #	Weighted average exercise price $
Balance, December 31, 2020	50,221,974	1.17
Issued	15,316,000	0.99

Expired	(43,410,215)	1.38
Outstanding and exercisable, March 31, 2023	47,070,975	0.29

In conjunction with the issuance of common shares under the private placement, each holder received one half of one common share purchase warrant. A total of 34,075,758 were issued with an exercise price of $0.1025, expiring June 24, 2026. The expiry date may be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days' notice if the closing price of the common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading day after the four-month lock up period and prior to the expiry of the warrants.

In addition to these warrants, the Company has 12,305,500 warrants set to expire on May 29, 2023, and 690,217 warrants set to expire on August 20, 2023.

Note 16 Key Management Compensation

Key management includes directors and key executives of the Company.

For the year ended March 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had the following transactions with the officers and directors of the Company:

Wages and benefits: Directors	-	827
Wages and benefits: Management	1,380	3,247
Share based compensation: Directors	457	57
Share based compensation: Management	991	1,680
Termination benefits: Management	-	730
	2,828	6,541

As at March 31, 2023, an amount of $16 (March 31, 2022 – $429) was due to directors and management. These amounts are non-interest bearing, unsecured, due on demand and included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 17 Loss per Share

Loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the year March 31, 2023 was 386,358,769 (March 31, 2022 – 327,012,541).

Diluted income per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding taking into consideration the weighted average impact of dilutive securities. All of the Company's potentially dilutive securities are anti-diluted during the periods presented due to losses incurred.

Note 18 Management of Capital

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to:

- sustain a sufficient capital base to maintain investor, creditor, supplier, and customer confidence; and
- sustain the future development of the business.

The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders' equity, credit facilities, lease liabilities, promissory note, and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and adjusts it to reflect changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash. In the current period, the Company manages its capital with a heightened focus on maintaining and improving its liquidity. For the year ended March 31, 2023, there has been no other significant changes to the management of capital.

Note 19 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, promissory note, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments by measurement category:

Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, and marketable securities)	697	2,759
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables, net tax receivable, and investments)	6,666	10,672
Liabilities, amortized cost (accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities, liabilities held for sale, promissory note and convertible debt)	68,838	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following table sets out for the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	465	-	-	465
Restricted cash	162	-	-	162
Marketable securities	65	5	-	70
Total, March 31, 2023	692	5	-	697

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,347	-	-	1,347
Restricted cash	222	-	-	222
Marketable securities	1,185	5	-	1,190
Total, March 31, 2022	2,754	5	-	2,759

The carrying value of trade receivables, accounts payable and net tax payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facilities, promissory notes and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at March 31, 2023.

Assets Held for Sale

The fair value of assets held for sale, primarily comprising the land and building of the Grimsby greenhouse facility, is determined based on Level 3 inputs within the fair value hierarchy. The fair value measurement incorporates various factors, including third-party valuation reports, advisor opinions of value, the range of purchase proposals received, and comparisons to comparable asset sale list prices and actual sale prices. These inputs are used to formulate the fair value less cost to sell.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The Company has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is a responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

The Company has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12,000 term facility, and the drawn amount on the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rates and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Investment risk

The Company is exposed to investment risk arising from its holdings in various securities, including publicly traded securities and a long-term investment in a privately held company. Investment risk encompasses a range of factors that could impact the value and performance of these securities.

The Company's investments in publicly traded securities are subject to market-related risks, including share price volatility and fluctuations. These risks are influenced by factors such as market conditions, investor sentiment, economic trends, and company-specific developments. The Company monitors market conditions, including share price movements, and evaluates the performance of its investments regularly. By staying informed about market trends and conducting ongoing evaluations, the Company aims to make informed investment decisions and manage risks effectively.

The Company holds a long-term investment in a privately held retail company, which introduces investment risks. These risks include factors such as business performance, market dynamics, regulatory changes, competitive landscape, and other industry-specific risks. The value and success of the investment are dependent on the ability of the underlying company to achieve its strategic objectives and generate sustainable returns. The Company regularly monitors the performance and prospects of this investment, market conditions, and industry-specific risks affecting the investment and incorporates risk assessments into its investment strategies.

It is important to note that investment risk cannot be completely eliminated, as it is inherent in the investment process. The Company recognizes that investments carry inherent uncertainties, and actual outcomes may differ from estimates and projections. Therefore, the Company remains diligent in its investment activities, continuously evaluates investment opportunities, and adjusts its investment strategy as necessary to navigate investment-related risks effectively.

d) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of certain trade receivables with other Canadian licensed producers, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

The expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables was assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to have incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is reevaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	2,787	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	512	250
31 – 60 days past due	248	95
61 – 90 days past due	156	69
90 + days past due	1,184	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(871)	(654)
Other receivables	259	452
Total	4,275	7,751

The following table shows the changes in the provision for credit losses for trade and other receivables:

Opening balance	654	762
Write-offs	-	(1,976)
Expected credit losses	217	1,868
Total	871	654

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they primarily originate from government agencies, national insurance companies and a credit card company.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 82% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 59% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

During the year, the Company settled $2,000 in accounts payable by delivering its products to a counterparty from whom the Company had made purchases, resulting in an equivalent accounts receivable balance. This transaction led to the offsetting of accounts receivable and accounts payable, effectively setting them to zero. Consequently, no cash flow was generated from the bulk wholesale revenue, and both the accounts payable and accounts receivable were fully eliminated.

e) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $527,810. For the year ended March 31, 2023, cash flow from operations is negative. Refer to note 2, Going Concern.

As at March 31, 2023, the Company has total current assets of $25,848 (March 31, 2022 – $36,835) and total current liabilities of $31,266 (March 31, 2022 – $72,995), providing for net current liability of $5,418 (March 31, 2022 – net current liability of $36,160). The significant change during the year March 31, 2023 is a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 Convertible Debenture.

The Company has the following undiscounted future payments for convertible debenture, credit facilities, lease obligations, loan payable, and purchase commitments as at March 31, 2023:

	within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years and thereafter
	$	$	$	$	$
Convertible debenture	-	12,350	-	12,350	14,736
Credit facilities	12,882	-	-	-	-
Lease obligations	260	1,072	511	11	2
Promissory note	-	4,500	-	-	-
Purchase commitments	506	-	-	-	-
Total	13,648	17,922	511	12,361	14,738

Note 20 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these consolidated financial statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10,000 in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if an early settlement is not achieved. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500,000 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy ("CEWS") for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem Cannabis Corporation and has proposed a claw back in the amount of $3,200 related to the CEWS funds provided to the Company. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings and intends to file a Notice of Objection. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received

CEWS funds. At this time, it is not possible to make a reasonable and reliable estimate of the likelihood of the outcome of the dispute. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

Note 21 Income Taxes

The Company has non-capital losses carried forward of approximately $263,000 available to reduce income taxes in future years which expire from 2030 to 2041. The Company has not recognized any deferred income tax assets. The Company recognizes deferred income tax assets based on the extent to which it is probable that sufficient taxable income will be realized during the carry forward periods to utilize all deferred tax assets.

The following table reconciles the amount of income tax recoverable on application of the statutory Canadian federal and provincial income tax rates for the twelve and fifteen months ended, respectively:

Loss and comprehensive loss for the year	(34,607)	(169,867)
Canadian statutory income tax rate	26.5%	26.5%

Note 22 Segment Reporting

An operating segment is a component of an entity for which separate financial information is available and whose operating results are reviewed regularly by the entity's chief operating decision maker to make resource allocation decisions and assess performance. An operating segment also engages in business activities from which it may earn revenue and incur expenses. The Company has determined that it has only one operating segment that meets the above criteria, and for which separate financial information is available.

The Company's revenue is derived from different geographic regions. During the year, the revenue breakdown was as follows: 95% of the total net revenue originated from Canada (March 31, 2022 - 98%), and 5% was originated from Europe and Australia (March 31, 2022 - 2%).

All of the Company's long-lived assets are located in Canada.

Note 23 Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale

In connection with the Company's business transformation plan, during the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company initiated the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse and listed the asset for sale.

The most significant estimates and assumptions include those related to the inputs used in accounting for assets classified as held for sale including the estimated fair value less costs to sell. In calculating the estimated fair value less costs to sell, management is required to make a number of estimates, including determining the appropriate comparable assets, calculating the estimated costs to get the asset ready for sale, and the estimated costs required to execute and complete the sale. In formulating management's estimated fair value less costs to sell, management reviewed third-party valuation reports, proposals received, actual selling prices of other greenhouses, and asking prices of other greenhouses, among other sources of information. The Company estimated the fair value less costs to sell of $10,000, and accordingly has recorded an impairment loss of $3,000 and $5,578, for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2023. The impairment loss was included in impairment of property, plant and equipment in the Consolidated Statements of Profit or Loss and Comprehensive Profit or Loss. The facility is actively being marketed and readily available for sale. The sale of the facility is considered probable as multiple proposals have been put forth to the Company. The sale of the Grimsby greenhouse facility is expected to occur within a year.

	March 31, 2023
Land	1,051
Building	8,949
Assets held for sale	10,000
Credit facility	4,375
Liabilities held for sale	4,375

The liability held for sale was determined by comparing the estimated relative fair value of the Grimsby property to the Paris property at the time the facility/loan was granted. This ratio was utilized to establish the loan balance when the Grimsby property was classified as held for sale. The term facility is secured by a first lien on the Paris and Grimsby facilities, as disclosed in Note 11 - Credit Facilities.

Note 24 Comparative Figures

Reclassifications have been undertaken for the prior period comparative figures to enhance comparability with the current period financial statements. The objective of these reclassifications is to present more detailed information in the consolidated statement of financial position by adjusting the grouping of specific accounts. These reclassifications had no impact on the net loss or shareholders' equity. Their purpose of is to facilitate a better understanding of the financial position, provide a higher level of granularity, and enhance the overall presentation of the consolidated statement of financial position.

The following reclassifications were made to enhance the disclosure of certain figures:

Consolidated Statements of Financial Position	As Reported	Adjustment	As Reclassified
Cash	1,356	(9)	1,347
Restricted cash	213	9	222
Trade and other receivables, net	11,085	(3,334)	7,751
Net tax receivable	-	530	530
Prepays and deposits	3,775	(823)	2,952
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	27,626	(3,627)	23,999

Note 25 Events After the Reporting Period

On June 6, 2023, Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB") and Aleafia (the "Company") entered into a Binding Letter Agreement whereby RWB has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the "Proposed Transaction") to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario).

Under the terms of the Binding Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an "Aleafia Share") will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of the Company (each, an "RWB Share"), subject to customary adjustment (the "Exchange Ratio"). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the "Combined Company") and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

Summary of the Proposed Transaction

The Proposed Transaction is expected to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, RWB will acquire all of the issued and outstanding Aleafia Shares in exchange for RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Aleafia shareholders in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions ("MI 61-101"), at a special meeting of Aleafia shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the "Aleafia Meeting"); (b) debenture holders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (“Debentureholder Approval”); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “RWB Meeting”).

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by on October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”).

A copy of the Letter Agreement will be filed on Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com. Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, all members of the board of directors of Aleafia, all officers of Aleafia and certain other security holders of Aleafia, will enter into customary support and voting agreements.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Concurrent with entering into the Binding Letter Agreement, the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain subsidiaries as borrowers, with other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP as lender, and subsequently amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023, was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

On June 6, 2023, concurrent with the execution of the Binding Letter Agreement Aleafia was advanced $1.5 million.

As part of the Proposed Transaction, the Company expects to settle the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2024, the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2026, and the 8.5% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2028 (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) for an aggregate of $6,000 at the Effective Time (subject to Debentureholder approval). The funding for the settlement of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, along with the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, is intended to be funded through a new secured $30,000 credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The New Credit Facility will also serve to support working capital requirements, growth initiatives, and the RWB Credit Facility, a $17,500 credit facility being negotiated by RWB and Aleafia. The RWB Credit Facility will facilitate cash settlement, working capital requirements, and promissory note repayment, and will include covenants and reporting requirements.

The specific terms of the New Credit Facility and the RWB Credit Facility will be confirmed upon the execution of final funding agreements and the completion of the Proposed Transaction. These actions aim to enhance liquidity and improve financial flexibility by supporting working capital requirements and funding growth initiatives. The negotiations for the RWB Credit Facility are being conducted in accordance with customary practices and are expected to be finalized within 30 days.

As at the consolidated financial statements’ balance sheet date of March 31, 2023, the Proposed Transaction and the related subsequent events had not yet been completed. Consequently, the consolidated financial statements do not reflect the impact of the Proposed Transaction. The Company will reassess and determine the appropriate accounting treatment once the Proposed Transaction is finalized and all necessary approvals are obtained.

- the acceptance by customers and the marketplace of new products, services or solutions;
- the ability to attract new customers and develop and maintain existing customers;
- expectations with respect to future production costs and capacity;
- expectations and anticipated impact of the novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic;
- expectations with respect to the receipt, renewal, amendment and/or extension of the Company's permits and licences;
- the ability to protect, maintain and enforce the Company's intellectual property rights;
- the ability to successfully leverage current and future strategic partnerships and alliances;
- the ability to attract and retain personnel;
- anticipated labour and materials costs;
- the Company's competitive condition and expectations regarding competition, including pricing and demand expectations and the regulatory environment in which the Company operates; and
- anticipated trends and challenges in the Company's business and the markets and jurisdictions in which the Company operates or may operate.

Forward-looking statements are based on certain key assumptions and analyses made by the Company in light of its experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments and other factors the Company believes are appropriate and are subject to risks and uncertainties and include assumptions made by the Company about its business, the economy and the cannabis industry in general. Although management believes that the assumptions underlying these statements are reasonable, they may prove to be incorrect. Given these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, shareholders and prospective purchasers of the Company's securities should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The above list of forward-looking statements is not exhaustive and whether actual results, performance or achievements will conform to the Company's expectations and predictions is subject to a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors.

Further, any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and, except as required by applicable law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Certain of the forward-looking statements contained herein concerning cannabis, the general expectations of the Company related thereto, and the Company's business and operations are based on estimates prepared by the Company using data from publicly available governmental sources, as well as from market research and industry analysis and on assumptions based on data and knowledge of this industry which the Company believes to be reasonable. However, although generally indicative of relative market positions, market shares and performance characteristics, such data is inherently imprecise. While the Company is not aware of any misstatement regarding any industry or government data presented herein, the current cannabis industry involves risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors. It is not possible for management to predict all such factors and to assess in advance the impact of each such factor on the Company's business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Readers are cautioned that actual future results may differ materially from management's current expectations and the forward-looking statements contained in this AIF are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. For a description of material factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this AIF, please see "Risk Factors".

MARKET AND INDUSTRY DATA

This AIF may contain market and industry data and forecasts obtained from third-party sources, industry publications and publicly available information. Third-party sources generally state that the information contained therein has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but there can be no assurance as to the accuracy or completeness of included information. Although management believes the data to be reliable, the Company has not independently verified any of the data from third-party sources referred to in this AIF, or analyzed or verified the underlying studies or surveys relied upon or referred to by such sources, or ascertained the underlying economic assumptions relied upon by such sources.

Intercorporate Relationships

As of the date of this AIF, Aleafia Health operates its business through various subsidiaries and associated businesses as described below. The following chart sets out the intercorporate relationships of Aleafia Health:

Notes:

1. All entities are 100% controlled by the parent entity unless otherwise stated.
2. Aleafia Retail Inc. owns ~9% of One Plant.
3. Aleafia Health Inc. owns ~10% of CannaPacific.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

Aleafia Health is a vertically integrated and federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis health and wellness services and products in Canada and in international markets where it is legal to do so. The Company markets and sells a diverse portfolio of adult-use cannabis in most major Canadian provincial markets, operates virtual medical Clinics and education centres facilitating the sale of medical cannabis products in Canada, markets and sells cannabis products through regulated intermediaries into selected international markets, tactically sells cannabis products into Canadian wholesale markets, and owns and operates physical production facilities for the production of cannabis and cannabis products.

The Company owns four significant cannabis production and distribution facilities in Canada (all of which are currently licensed and operational), allowing the Company to cultivate cannabis and produce packaged consumer products for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets and internationally. The Company's medical cannabis clinics and education centres in Canada are staffed by physicians, nurse practitioners and educators and have provided medical cannabis therapy.

THREE YEAR HISTORY

Fiscal 2020 (January 1, 2020 to December 31, 2020)

- On March 13, 2020, Aleafia Farms received a Health Canada Licence for its Niagara Facility. See "Production Facilities and Licences".
- On April 27, 2020, the Company announced the resignation of directors Julian Fantino and Raf Souccar, and on May 7, 2020 announced the resignation of director Bill Stewart. New directors Rhonda Lawson and Glenn Washer were appointed effective May 16, 2020.
- On May 4, 2020, Emblem received an amended Health Canada Licence for its Paris Phase II Expansion, which added 50,000 kg of extraction capacity. See "Production Facilities and Licences".

- On May 7, 2020, Aleafia Health Germany GmbH formally submitted its application for EU-GMP certification for the Paris Facility.
- On May 12, 2020, Aleafia Farms received an amended Health Canada Licence for its Port Perry Phase II Expansion. See “Production Facilities and Licences”.
- On May 29, 2020, the Company announced the closing of the May 2020 Offering, for a total issuance of 23,000,000 units of the Company at a price of $0.65 per unit, for gross proceeds of $15.0 million. In connection with the May 2020 Offering, the Company’s symbol on the TSX changed to “AH” on May 27, 2020.
- On June 25, 2020, the Company announced that it and its subsidiary Emblem and Aphria had entered into a settlement agreement to resolve their outstanding dispute in respect of the termination of the parties’ wholesale cannabis supply agreement. Under the terms of the agreement, Emblem received total consideration of $29.1 million.
- On August 26, 2020 and August 17, 2020, respectively, Aleafia Health Germany received a controlled drug licence from the Federal Institute for Drugs and Medical Devices and a European Union Good Distribution Practice certification from the Cologne district government.
- During the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2020, the Company launched several new cannabis products including cannabis-infused sublingual strips, high-potency CBD oil, and 510 vape cartridges.

Fiscal 2022 (from January 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022)

- In Fiscal 2022, the Company initiated and effected a transition to being a branded cannabis Company. The Company now sells its products primarily through three sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. Following the launch of the Company’s Sunday Market house of brands, adult-use revenue includes cannabis revenue from five new brands, which have has enjoyed market success. The Company’s strategy is to tactically sell through the bulk wholesale sales channel only where it has excess product or product not suitable for its other sales channels, to maximize net realizable margin from its own cultivation or third-party cultivation. Historically, the bulk wholesale sales channel had been an important vertical for the Company as it allowed the Company to opportunistically sell cannabis, oils, distillate isolate and other cannabis input materials to maximize net realizable margin on its cultivation harvest. With the launch of the Company’s adult-use Sunday Market House of Brands, and the improvement in the potency and quality of the Company’s outdoor harvest, it is now able to utilize that flower feedstock to support its own branded cannabis products.
- On January 29, 2021 Rhonda Lawson resigned as a director of the Company.
- On February 1, 2021, the board of directors appointed Luciano Galasso and Carlo Sistilli as independent directors to the Board. Mr. Galasso was appointed to the Strategic Planning Committee (which committee was subsequently ceased to operate) and Mr. Sistilli was appointed to the Audit Committee. In connection with the director appointments, the Company entered into a director nomination agreement with a group of shareholders of the Company representing approximately 15.65% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company. The Company also agreed to nominate seven directors for election at the 2021 Annual Meeting consisting of four current directors, Luciano Galasso and Carlo Sistilli, and one independent director to be selected following a search process and approval by the Board, having regard to the Company's corporate governance and director nomination policies and the skills matrix of the Board.

- On February 2, 2021, the Company fully repaid in cash its 8% unsecured convertible debt, which matured on February 2, 2021.
- On February 11, 2021, the Company launched its new Canadian cannabis portfolio, Sunday Market. Under the trademarked Sunday Market family were four new distinct brands, each tailored to a specific consumer segment and featuring its own roster of cannabis products. The four brands were launched in the adult-use market, with some formats also being made available to patients of Aleafia Health's medical cannabis subsidiary, Emblem.
- On February 16, 2021, Emblem received a Health Canada Processing Licence for its new distribution centre. Located minutes from Toronto Pearson International Airport, the Distribution Centre greatly strengthened the Company's downstream supply chain, allowing for immediate expansion of same day delivery service, and eventual direct-to-retailer cannabis distribution. With the new distribution centre, later order cut-off times, weekend and after-hours deliveries, and an enlarged service area were enabled in addition to more efficient order fulfilment of adult-use shipments to provincial government wholesalers.
- On February 17, 2021, the Company announced that it agreed to increase the size of its previously announced "bought deal" offering of units led by Cantor Fitzgerald Canada Corporation as lead underwriter and sole bookrunner, on behalf of a syndicate of underwriters, pursuant to which such syndicate of underwriters agreed to purchase 24,000,000 units of the Company, on a "bought deal" basis pursuant to a short form prospectus offering, subject to all required regulatory approvals, at a price per Unit of $0.83 for gross proceeds of $19,920,000. Each unit is comprised of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant of the Company. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase one common share at an exercise price of $1.05, for a period of 24 months following the closing of the offering. The Company agreed to grant the underwriters an over-allotment option, solely for market stabilization and overallocation purposes, to purchase up to an additional 15% of the units at the issue price, exercisable in whole or in part, at any time on or prior to the date that is 30 days following the closing of the offering.
- On March 9, 2021, the Company closed its previously announced bought deal offering for a total issuance of 27,390,000 units of the Company at a price of $0.83 per Unit for aggregate gross proceeds of $22,733,700, which includes the partial exercise of the over-allotment option. Each Unit consisted of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. Each warrant entitled the holder thereof to purchase one common share at an exercise price of $1.05, for a period of 24 months following the closing of the offering.
- On April 7, 2021, the Company launched its everyday cannabis brand Divvy, tailored to frequent cannabis consumers who are both price and quality conscious. Divvy products are designed to be environmentally sustainable, both in their cultivation and packaging.

- On May 3, 2021, the Company announced that it had secured a Health Canada Research Licence for its cannabis product manufacturing Paris Facility. The licence allows the Company to conduct human sensory analysis and palatability trials, evaluating the taste, touch, smell and sight of its growing portfolio of differentiated medical and adult-use cannabis products.
- On June 3, 2021, the Company announced that dried flower grown at its Niagara greenhouse facility had been exported to Germany, through an EU-GMP certified facility. Gaining access to Germany's large legal cannabis market is an important breakthrough for Aleafia Health.
- On June 9, 2021, the Company announced the establishment of an at-the-market equity program which allowed the Company to issue and sell at its discretion Common Shares at the prevailing market price when issued.
- On June 21, 2021, the Company appointed Matt Sale as Chief Financial Officer of the Company.
- On June 29, 2021, the Company announced (i) the election of Ian Troop and Michael LeClair as independent directors to the Board (ii) the intention of Lea Ray and Loreto Grimaldi to resign as directors of the Board, within 30-days of such announcement, and (iii) the intention of the Board to appoint Jon Pereira as an independent director to the Board, concurrently with such resignations.
- On July 29, 2021, the Company announced the appointment of Mark J. Sandler as Chairman of the Board.
- On August 23, 2021, the Company announced the closing of a $10.0 million senior secured term (non-revolving) credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with 1260356 Ontario Limited (the "Lender") to fund working capital and general corporate purposes. The full amount of the Credit Facility was drawn down by the Company on closing. The initial term of the Credit Facility was for one year with a fixed interest rate of 12%, with the interest and principal amounts due upon maturity. In addition, as partial consideration for the Credit Facility, the Company granted the Lender 1,000,000 Common Share purchase warrants (the "Warrants"), with each Warrant entitling the holder thereof to acquire one Common Share at an exercise price of $0.32, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances, until August 20, 2023. The Warrants vest in equal instalments of 250,000 commencing on November 20, 2021, and subsequently every three months thereafter. The Credit Facility was initially secured by a first lien mortgage on the Paris Facility and Niagara Facility.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with the Lender to revise certain terms of the Credit Facility. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023, the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%, and the interest to begin paying in June 2022. In January 2022, $5.0 million of principal along with accrued interest and fees were repaid. As a result of the early payment, the first lien mortgages on the Paris Facility and Niagara Facility, were replaced with second liens and additionally secured with a first lien mortgage on the facility in Port Perry, Ontario.

On June 23, 2022 the Company made its second amendment to the Credit Facility, whereby amongst other things it agreed to prepay an amount equal to $622,500 as a prepayment of interest under the loan agreement in respect of the period beginning June 24, 2022 and ending June 24, 2023. In addition, the Company agreed to grant the Lender a general security interest from the Company in favour of the Lender.

- On September 1, 2021, David Pasioka was appointed to the Board. Aleafia Health concurrently announced the departure of director Mike LeClair.
- In the second half of 2021, the Company completed the harvesting of its 2021 outdoor cannabis facility in Port Perry. A total of 11,600 kgs with an average THC potency of 22% was allocated for sale in the adult use market, primarily under Aleafia Health's everyday cannabis brand Divvy. By contrast, in 2020, the Company harvested only 500 kgs of THC dried flower which exceeded THC potency of 20%, a key threshold in the adult-use market. The material improvement in potency and yield is attributed to additional cultivars introduced in 2021, extensive R&D testing, along with improvements in site infrastructure.
- In December 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement (the "Loan Agreement") that provides for a term facility of $12.0 million and access to a revolving facility up to $7.0 million (the "December 2021 Facility"). The December 2021 Facility bears interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime rate with a floor of 3.45% plus 9%, annually. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding, being December 2023. The December 2021 Facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris Facility and Niagara Facility and certain equipment and a general security agreements. The Company has been in breach of certain of its covenants under the December 2021 Facility and has received certain accommodations from the lender in respect thereof, some of which were conditioned on the completion of the Debenture Amendments and the Private Placement (each, as defined herein).

On each of March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023 and May 31, 2023, the Company and lender agreed to certain amendments to the Loan Agreement (the "Loan Amending Agreements") to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

On June 1, 2023, the Company announced that it had entered into a forbearance agreement with the lender to forbear on enforcing the December 2021 Facility, which can be made payable on demand, until the earlier of (a) an event of default, or (b) June 5, 2023 (the "December Facility Forbearance Agreement"). The amended terms under the December Facility Forbearance Agreement provided for additional circumstances that would constitute an event of default as well as additional covenants imposed on the Company, including an obligation to repay the entire balance owing under the December 2021 Facility in certain circumstances.

On June 7, 2023, concurrent with entering into the Letter Agreement (as defined herein), the December 2021 Facility was assigned by the lender to RWB (as defined herein).

- On December 31, 2021, the Company announced that it had initiated negotiations with the holders of the Company's outstanding listed unsecured convertible debentures, issued on June 27, 2019 and maturing on June 27, 2022 (the "Convertible Debentures"). As negotiations were underway, the Company opted to not make an interest payment of $1.6 million due on December 31, 2021, and did not make the payment within the 30-day cure period thereafter. The Company initially entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement") with the Convertible Debenture holders (the “Debentureholders”) representing 58% of the Convertible Debentures’ aggregate principal amount outstanding and thereafter an additional 4% of holders entered into that agreement. The Forbearance Agreement’s initial term extended to February 28, 2022, and the agreement automatically renewed for 14-day periods thereafter until notice to the contrary is provided. Under the Forbearance Agreement, the Debentureholders agreed to, among other considerations, forebear in enforcing their rights or remedies against the Company under the indenture and otherwise at law with respect to the non-payment of interest. The Convertible Debentures were amended on June 27, 2022 and exchanged for the New Convertible Debentures (as defined below).

- On February 7, 2022, the Company appointed Tricia Symmes as Chief Executive Officer of Aleafia Health to replace Geoff Benic.
- As of March 7, 2022, the Company accepted the resignation of Manning Elliot LLP as the Company’s auditor and Accell Audit & Compliance, P.A. agreed to act as the Company’s auditor effective March 7, 2022. The resignation of the former auditor and the recommendation to appoint the successor auditor were approved by the Company’s Board of Directors. The Company confirmed that there were no modified opinions in the former auditor’s reports on the Company’s financial statements during the period in which the former auditor was the Corporation’s auditor. In the opinion of the Company, there were no reportable events, as defined in National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations, during the period the former auditor was the auditor for the Company.

- On April 5, 2022, the Company announced ongoing cost containment initiatives resulting in additional cost efficiencies identified representing a further $4.4 million in annualized cost savings to be completed in the first quarter of fiscal 2023. Together with previously implemented cost savings, the savings represent a total of $6.7 million in annualized cost reductions.
- On May 12, 2022 Aleafia announced an agreement in principle with the convertible Debentureholder-nominated steering committee to amend certain key commercial terms of its Convertible Debentures (the “Debenture Amendments”). In connection with the Debenture Amendments, the Company entered into subscription agreements for units of the Company (the “Units”), comprised of Common Shares and one-half of one Common Share purchase warrant (each whole warrant, a “2022 Warrant”), representing aggregate gross proceeds of $5.6 million on a private placement basis (the “Private Placement”). The Debenture Amendments and the Private Placement were conditional on terms further described below (the Debenture Amendments and the Private Placement are referred to collectively as the “Transaction”). The Private Placement was completed on June 24, 2022 and the Debenture Amendment was completed on June 27, 2022 following approval of Debentureholders by an extraordinary resolution in writing.

Debenture Amendments

The Debenture Amendments entailed the exchange of the Convertible Debentures for new convertible debentures (the “New Convertible Debentures”) issued in three equal, separate tranches, maturing in 2, 4 and 6 years from the date of issuance (the “2024 Debentures”, “2026 Debentures”, and “2028 Debentures”, respectively). The interest rate remained at 8.5%, but the New Convertible Debentures have no mandatory cash interest payment for 30 months as interest will initially be paid-in-kind with additional New Convertible Debentures, reducing near-term debt servicing requirements. The conversion price was significantly reduced to $0.25 for the 2024 Debentures, $0.30 for the 2026 Debentures, and $0.35 for the 2028 Debentures. The New Convertible Debentures were granted security against certain assets of the Company, but are fully subordinated to the Company's existing senior secured debt. The Company is precluded from incurring further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and strategically accretive acquisitions. Debentureholders who approved the Debenture Amendments received a consent fee calculated as the amount of accrued interest on the existing Convertible Debentures between July 1, 2021 and the effective date of the Debenture Amendments, payable in additional 2028 Debentures at par. The New Convertible Debentures are subject to a four month and one day hold commencing on the date of issuance in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws. The 2024 Debentures, 2026 Debentures and 2028 Debentures are listed on the facilities of the TSX under the symbols “AH.DB.A, AH.DB.B and AH.DB.C”, respectively.

Private Placement

Under the Private Placement, 68,151,515 Units were issued at a price of $0.0825 each. Each Unit consisted of one Common Share in the capital of Aleafia Health and one-half of a 2022 Warrant. The 2022 Warrants are exercisable into one Common Share at an exercise price of $0.1025 for a period of four years from the date of issuance. The expiry date of the 2022 Warrants can be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days' notice, if the closing price of the Common Shares on the TSX is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading days following the date that is 4 months and one day after the date of issuance and prior to the expiry date of the 2022 Warrants. The completion of the Private Placement was conditional on: (i) the execution of voting support agreements by holders of at least 66 2/3% of the principal amount of Convertible Debentures pursuant to which such holders will agree to vote in favour of the Debenture Amendments, or receipt of Debentureholder approval of the Debenture Amendments; (ii) access to the full advance rate based on eligible receivables funding under the December 2021 Facility; (iii) granting additional security against certain assets of the Company in favour of the lenders under the Credit Facility, which are subordinated to the December 2021 Facility; and (iv) additional customary closing conditions. All of the securities issued in connection with the Private Placement are subject to a customary four month and one day hold in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws. The net proceeds from the Private Placement will be used to fund working capital and capital expenditures for the Company's continued growth, and other general corporate purposes. A finder's fee of 3,407,500 Common Shares was paid to a finder in connection with the Private Placement. On June 24, 2022, the Company announced the closing of the Private Placement.

- During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued three promissory notes totaling $4.5 million, each carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate, which interest will accrue and be paid bi-monthly. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023, and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023 (collectively, the “Notes”). All three Notes become due and payable on December 31, 2024. The Company intends to use the proceeds from the Notes to fund working capital.

- On January 30, 2023, the Company announced the retirement of Mark Sandler from the Board and that David Pasieka would succeed Mr. Sandler as Board Chair.

Recent Developments

- On June 7, 2023, the Company announced it had entered into a binding letter agreement on June 6, 2023 (the “Letter Agreement”) with RWB, whereby RWB had agreed to acquire the Company and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the “Proposed Transaction”) by way of a plan of arrangement.

Proposed Transaction

Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, each Common Share will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of RWB (each, an “RWB Share”), subject to customary adjustment (the “Exchange Ratio”). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the entity resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the “Combined Company”) and shareholders of the Company are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Common Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of the Company will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of the Company, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority shareholders of the Company in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions, at a special meeting of shareholders of the Company expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023; (b) Debentureholders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of New Convertible Debentures; and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023.

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by no later than 5:00 p.m. on October 31, 2023.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million.

Assignment of Secured Debt

Concurrent with entering into the Letter Agreement, on June 6, 2023, the December 2021 Facility was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB (the “Loan Assignment Agreement”).

Credit Facility and Settlement of Aleafia Convertible Debentures

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, within 30 days of the Letter Agreement, RWB and the Company will negotiate in good faith a credit facility to be provided by RWB to Aleafia of $17.5 million (the “RWB Credit Facility”). In the event that either party terminates the Letter Agreement or arrangement agreement, the board of directors of Aleafia Health does not unanimously recommend that shareholders of the Company vote in favour of the Proposed Transaction or the Proposed Transaction fails to gain any of the prerequisite approvals required to close, including but not limited to any required security holder approvals, such as the approval of the Debentureholders, or court approval of the Arrangement, or if any conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction are not satisfied or waived, the due date of the RWB Credit Facility will accelerate.

RWB also intends to secure a $30 million credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The proceeds from the New Credit Facility will serve multiple purposes, including the funding of the assignment of the December 2021 Facility to RWB, full and final settlement of all outstanding principal and accrued interest and any other amounts owing in respect of the New Convertible Debentures, funding working capital requirements and targeted growth initiatives of the Combined Company, and covering general corporate expenses and transaction costs associated with the Proposed Transaction.

Concurrently with the execution of the Letter Agreement, RGR, an existing creditor of both RWB and Aleafia, provided RWB with $14.0 million as an advance under RWB’s existing secured note in favour of RGR dated March 27, 2023 (the “RGR Advance”). The RGR Advance will be retired upon closing of the New Credit Facility. Also concurrent with the execution of the Letter Agreement and upon receipt of the RGR Advance, RWB will enter into an agreement to advance to Aleafia an amount equal to $1.5 million under the December 2021 Facility.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

General

See “General Development of the Business - Period Following the Business Combination (March 28, 2018-December 2018)” and “General Development of the Business - Recent Developments”.

The Company’s sales and growth strategy is centred on the three priority markets, Canadian adult-use, Canadian medical, and international medical.

Production Facilities and Licences

A key competitive advantage for the Company is the strength of its closed loop production ecosystem, across its four federally licensed and operational production and distribution facilities. On an annualized basis, the Company can cultivate up to 31,200 kgs of usable dried cannabis (being dried cannabis with a THC potency of 18% or more) and extract up to 50,000 kgs.

The Company’s cannabis products are cultivated and manufactured at the following Facilities:

Facility	Cultivation Capacity KGs (annual)		Extraction Capacity KGs (annual)
		Current		Current
Port Perry Facility		20,000		-
Paris Facility		1,200		50,000
Niagara Facility		10,000		-
Total capacity		31,200		50,000

Paris Facility

The Paris Facility features cultivation rooms and handles all extraction, finished goods manufacturing and packaging for the Company’s medical, adult-use and international sales. The indoor cultivation at the Paris Facility is primarily used for craft-designated dried flower products.

The expansion of the Paris Facility, licensed in Q2 2020, is entirely dedicated to the extraction, production and packaging of value-added cannabis edible and health and wellness products. The expansion allows the Company to process and package all flower cultivated at its Port Perry Facility outdoor cultivation site. The Paris Phase II expansion increased the Company’s licensed extraction, packaging and processing area from 2,500 sq. ft. to 20,000 sq. ft. (“Paris Phase II Expansion”). It features multiple automated packaging lines and rooms dedicated to the production of new product formats, along with in-house quality control analytical testing. Currently, the Company’s machinery at the Paris Facility allows for annualized extraction of 50,000 kgs of dried cannabis flower. The expansion is purpose-built to meet EU-GMP standards, which represents the highest standard of pharmaceutical-grade production in the world.

Paris Licence

On August 26, 2015, Health Canada issued producer’s license number 10-MM0167 to Emblem. The Paris Licence has a current term ending on January 20, 2028. The Paris Licence has been amended as follows:

- July 27, 2016 to authorize the sale of cannabis and to permit increased production;
- April 28, 2017 to authorize the production of cannabis oils;
- October 6, 2017 to authorize three additional grow rooms;
- November 3, 2017 to authorize the sale of cannabis oil;
- January 31, 2018 to authorize the sale of cannabis resin;
- March 22, 2018 to authorize the sale of encapsulated cannabis oils;
- June 28, 2018 to authorize one additional storage room and one additional production room
- November 09, 2018 to authorize the migration of the Paris Licence to the Cannabis Act Health Canada issued a Standard Cultivation, Standard Processing and Sales for Medical Purposes Licence number LIC-0CNIN0V9QK in place of the license number above;
- November 05, 2019 to authorize one additional storage room;
- November 06, 2019 to authorize the sale of cannabis topicals, cannabis extracts and edible cannabis;
- May 1, 2020 to authorize cannabis production in the Paris Phase II Expansion; and
- December 23, 2021 to authorize thirteen additional storage rooms.

Port Perry Facility

The Company's Port Perry Facility features 7,000 sq. ft. of indoor cannabis cultivation facilities, along with an 86-acre outdoor cannabis cultivation site. The Company pursued outdoor cultivation due to significantly lower facility capital costs and operating costs relative to indoor and greenhouse cultivation.

An expansion licence amendment was secured on May 12, 2020 increasing the Port Perry Facility's licensed cultivation area from 26 acres to 86 acres ("Port Perry Phase II Expansion"). The Company completed the harvesting of its 2021 outdoor cannabis facility in Port Perry in the fourth quarter. A total of 11,600 kgs with an average THC potency of 22% was allocated for sale in the adult-use market, primarily under Aleafia Health's everyday cannabis brand Divvy in the pre-roll and milled flower categories. By contrast, in 2020, the Company harvested only 500 kgs of THC dried flower which exceeded THC potency of 20%, a key threshold in the adult-use market. The material improvement in potency and yield is attributed to additional cultivars introduced in 2021, extensive R&D testing, along with improvements in site infrastructure.

Port Perry Licence

On October 13, 2017, Health Canada issued a producer's licence to Aleafia Farms. The Port Perry Licence expires on October 9, 2023 and has been amended as follows:

- (i) August 31, 2018 to authorize the sale of cannabis to Licensed Producers;
- (ii) June 7, 2019 to authorize outdoor cultivation in outdoor grow zone 1;
- (iii) July 12, 2019 to authorize outdoor cultivation in outdoor grow zones 2, 3 and 4;
- (iv) October 10, 2019 to authorize drying in additional facility areas;
- (v) February 28, 2020 to authorize storage in additional facility areas.
- (vi) May 12, 2020 to authorize outdoor cultivation in outdoor grow zone 5;
- (vii) October 9, 2020 to authorize drying and storage in additional facility areas; and
- (viii) On December 9, 2020, Health Canada issued a Licence renewal, which expires on October 9, 2023.

Niagara Facility

The Niagara Facility features a highly advanced, automated, moving container bench system, which allows for a perpetual, year-round harvest. Upon initial licensing in March 2020, it was primarily used as a staging ground for the 2020 outdoor cultivation at the Company's Port Perry Facility. In late-2020, the Company completed an inspection with certified auditors, who certified the facility to be operating in compliance with GACP. Since December 2022, the Niagara Facility has been inactive and the Company is presently in discussions about a potential sale.

Niagara Licence

On March 13, 2020, Health Canada issued producer's licence number LIC-VTQAQTTMOL to Aleafia Farms. The license was subsequently amended, such that it authorizes cultivation, propagation, harvesting and sale of cannabis in a 140,000 sq. ft. of greenhouse area and a 20,000 sq. ft. post-cultivation operations area. The Niagara Licence expires on June 13, 2024.

Distribution Centre

Strategically located in the Greater Toronto Area, the Distribution Centre allows the Company to significantly improve delivery times for its AssureHome Delivery medical cannabis delivery service and expand its geographic service area to other major metropolitan areas. The Distribution Centre fulfills orders to other licence holders, medical patients and adult-use provincial wholesalers. The Distribution Centre also provides cannabis storage services to licensed third parties.

Distribution Centre Licence

On February 12, 2021, Health Canada issued license LIC-CTHF6SVA0C to Emblem in respect of the Distribution Centre, which expires on February 12, 2024, and authorizes cannabis storage and the fulfilment of orders to other licence holders, medical patients and adult-use provincial wholesalers.

Health and Wellness Services

Clinics and Patient Education Centres

Aleafia Health operates a national network of medical cannabis clinics through its Canabo Clinics brand. Clinics are operated by qualified physicians and nurse practitioners, among others, and provide independent medical cannabis evaluations for patients. Physicians and nurse practitioners operate within the federal and applicable provincial frameworks that govern them in Canada, they prescribe dosage amounts (e.g., THC-CBD ratios) and provide guidance on product composition and formats. Authorized physicians and nurse practitioners do not refer patients to any particular products of Licensed Producers of cannabis and are compensated solely on per patient visit – the compensation of physicians, nurses, educators and staff of the Company’s Clinics is in no way determined, directly or indirectly, by a patient’s product selection or ultimate purchase decision.

New patients who are authorized to use cannabis products for medical purposes at a Clinic subsequently receive an introductory cannabinoid education session with a Clinic educator, who is responsible for helping the patient navigate the cannabis regulatory system, providing patient education with respect to treatment with cannabinoids and medical cannabis generally, the different cannabis cultivars and cannabinoid profiles, how to access medical cannabis from Licensed Producers. They also address common questions around accessing insurance coverage, compassionate pricing, concerns about domestic and international travel, and potential side effects of cannabis. The educator acts as a resource for each patient after the initial assessment. Educators provide patients with education on safety and side effects, customized treatment plans and ongoing support, while reducing the administrative burden of cannabis authorization on the physician and their Clinic.

Adult-Use Brand Portfolio

Divvy is the Company’s main adult-use brand. It represents the vast majority of the Company’s sales in the adult-use sales channel. In addition to Divvy, there are three other supporting brands serving distinct segments of the adult-use market.

Divvy Cannabis brings frequent cannabis users good quality products at value-oriented price-points. With flower harvested from our hybrid greenhouse and outdoor operations, Divvy flower products include whole flower, milled flower, pre-rolls, vapes and oils.

Noon & Night is a CBD-forward line of familiar wellness products. Noon & Night is highly differentiated, filling a gap in the cannabis brand landscape with its exclusive focus on wellness-conscious consumers.

Kin Slips are cannabis-infused sublingual strips, an edible alternative that are discreet, precise, and provide rapid onset. Kin Slips are formulated with peppermint oil to deliver a fresh minty sensation. They are vegan, sugar-free, contain only natural ingredients, and come in roughly the size of a postage stamp.

Medical Brand Portfolio

The Company serves the Canadian medical cannabis market with the Emblem brand. It also opportunistically offers select products from its Sunday Market House of Brands and other limited time promotional products to its medical patients to better serve their needs.

From our team of growers to our client care team, each member of the Company's team works toward giving patients the best medical cannabis experience. Emblem is the heart of Aleafia Health's unique medical cannabis ecosystem, as a trusted brand and secure ecommerce marketplace with a reputation for product excellence.

CANNABIS PRODUCTS

The Company currently produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis products which it sells into the provincial adult-use sales channels, to medical cannabis patients, to other Licensed Producers, and internationally to the Germany and Australia medical-use markets. The Company continued its strategic expansion of its product portfolio, as outlined below. The Company aims to utilize its diverse craft indoor and outdoor cultivation in high margin, unique product formats tailored to the various need-states of cannabis consumers and patients.

Pre-rolls

The Company utilizes flower from its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility to supply its pre-roll offering, which represents the second largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. The 2022 Port Perry harvest delivered a new record with respect to high THC potency usable flower supply, which when combined with the strategic outsourcing of pre-roll manufacturing, allows Aleafia Health to deliver significantly improved product availability, and new larger format SKUs including a 12-pack of 0.35 gram pre-rolls in a recognizable, reusable package. In Q1 FY2023, the Company launched a 7-pack of 1-gram pre-rolls in the Alberta and Ontario markets (May 2022 and June 2022, respectively) which were well-received by consumers. Further pre-roll formats launched in Spring 2023, including 12-packs and 56-packs of traditional 0.5 gram pre-rolls, and the Company is scheduled to launch into the fast growing infused pre-roll market later in Q1 FY2024.

Milled (Cropped)

Driven by the expansion of its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility and relentless focus on high-quality usable flower, the Company has launched and seen tremendous success in its pre-ground milled offering. Having launched in Q3 2021, the milled products under the Divvy brand have quickly gained market share, reaching a peak #2 market share ranking for fiscal year 2023 in Ontario, the largest provincial market in Canada. Building upon the success of the initial two SKUs, both Alberta and Ontario have picked up the product in larger formats as well as a CBD offering.

Dried Flower

The Company has undertaken an expansion of its dried flower offering, which is the largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. Driven by the continued ramp-up of procurement from third-party growers, the Company is able to deliver greater product availability, and new larger format stock-keeping-units ("SKU") including 7, 14, and 28-gram flower pouches. Sales of these products and other new dried flower SKUs commenced during Q2 & Q3 2022, under the Divvy brand.

Vapes

The Company's vape portfolio is inspired by a robust portfolio of cultivars. The custom-made, unique terpene blends in Divvy vapes deliver robust flavours and consistent effects. Additional Divvy SKUs, including new THC-dominant flavour profiles, a CBD dominant full-spectrum, and a balanced THC: CBD vape have been listed in multiple markets. New bold flavour profiles are entering the market this Spring, and the Divvy Puff 'n Pass SKU, a 1 gram 510 thread vape cartridge, launched in January 2023, provides a platform for a rotation of new, exciting flavours.

Oils

Cannabis oil products remain a core product category for wellness-oriented medical patients and adult-use consumers. Line extensions include the innovative Omega CBD Soft Gels which feature full-spectrum, single strain CBD extract, and is one of the first Canadian cannabis products to be suspended in fish oil containing omega-3.

Sublingual Strips

Kin Slips, cannabis-infused sublingual strips, typically offer a fast onset time relative to other non-combustible cannabis products. Placed under the tongue, the active ingredients enter the bloodstream through the sublingual gland, delivering a typical onset time of 10 to 15 minutes. Kin Slips are classified as ingestible extracts, and can therefore contain up to 1000 milligrams of THC per package, as opposed to traditional cannabis edible products which are restricted to 10 milligrams of THC per package. The Company launched its latest innovation in its Kin Slips portfolio, Shut Eye Plus, in November 2022. Shut Eye Plus Kin Slips contain individually wrapped strips containing 5mg THC, 5mg CBD, and 5mg CBN.

Edibles

The Company launches highly artisan and seasonal edible products which complement its product portfolio anchored around pre-roll, milled, flower and vape formats. During Q1 2021, the Company released its first cannabis edible product, soft chews, with two THC and one CBD-dominant offering. The Company followed that up with Salted Caramel Pretzel Bites, Cluster Pucks as well as an infused hot sauce with well-known Canadian hot sauce maker Heartbeat Hot Sauce, all launched under the Bogart's Kitchen edibles brand. The brand currently contains the collaboration hot sauces and launched a THC-infused Maple Syrup product in Winter 2022, just in time for the holiday season.

Bath & Body

The Noon & Night brand launches bath & body products focused on the wellness space. During Q2 2021, the Company launched Lavender Fizz CBD bath bombs along with the Freshly Minted Roll-on. The peppermint-scented roll-on is designed to provide a soothing, aromatic experience through local application on the hairline, neck, forehead and shoulders. The brand also began offering CBD-Omega soft gels in Q2 2021.

Distribution & Sales

Retail & Adult-use

The Company sells its cannabis products in the Canadian adult-use market through supply agreements or authorizations with the Provinces of Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The Company also owns ~9.4% percent of cannabis retailer One Plant.

International

The Company's products have been exported into key global markets, including Germany and Australia. It is looking to further develop this channel with an active pipeline of opportunities for 2023.

The Company first completed international cannabis exports to Australia in 2019. In Q4 2020, the Company successfully exported finished medical cannabis products to customers in Australia. The Company received and fulfilled additional purchase orders from Australia during 2021 and fiscal years 2022 and 2023. The Company's products were shipped to Germany during 2021 and fiscal years 2022 and 2023.

During Q4 2020, the Company completed an inspection with certified auditors which certified the Niagara Facility to be operating in compliance with GACP. This allows flower grown at the Niagara Greenhouse to be exported to certain international markets including the European Union, after it has been dried and packaged in an EU-GMP certified facility, and following receipt of necessary import and export permits for each shipment.

The Company also received GACP certification for the Paris Facility in the quarter ended September 31, 2022. In July 2022, the Company secured an estimated $4.6 million international sales agreement to supply bulk flower into the European market. It is a two-year agreement, with a minimum annual sales commitment estimated at $2.0 million per year based on a variable price per gram of flower. The Company successfully shipped product under this agreement in the quarter ended December 31, 2022 which is destined for Germany. Additionally, in January 2023, the Company secured an additional international sales order for approximately $1.0 million in annual sales with a new European based strategic partner. This expands the Company's international sales and improves access into the existing European medical market and burgeoning legalized adult-use markets

Medical

The Company sells its cannabis products in the Canadian medical market, through its flagship medical cannabis and ecommerce marketplace brand Emblem. Patients with a medical authorization are able to purchase Emblem products online through a secure website operated by the Company and the Company ships the order directly to the patient. All medical cannabis products are produced at the Paris Facility, and shipped from the Distribution Centre. During 2020, the Company introduced the AssureHome Delivery same-day delivery service to patients of Emblem located in the Greater Toronto Area and surrounding communities.

EMPLOYEES

As of the date of this AIF, the Company engages 158 full-time equivalent employees. For more information on the Company's directors and executive officers see "Directors and Officers" for further discussion.

INTANGIBLE PROPERTIES

The Company relies on trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information and it protects its intellectual property by seeking and obtaining registered protection where possible, developing and implementing standard operating procedures to protect trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information and entering into agreements with parties that have access to the Company's inventions, trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information, such as the Company's partners, collaborators, employees and consultants, to protect confidentiality and ownership. The Company also seeks to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of its inventions, trade secrets, trademarks, technical know-how and proprietary information by maintaining security of its premises and information technology systems.

The Company has sought trademark protection in many countries, including Canada, Australia and Germany. The Company's ability to obtain registered trademark protection for cannabis-related goods and services may be limited in certain countries outside of Canada, including the U.S., where registered federal trademark protection is currently unavailable for trademarks covering the sale of cannabis products (a controlled substance); and including the European Union, where laws on the legality of cannabis use are not uniform. Accordingly, the Company's ability to obtain intellectual property rights or enforce intellectual property rights against third party uses of similar trademarks may be limited in certain circumstances. See "Risk Factors - Intellectual Property".

COMPETITIVE CONDITIONS

The market for cannabis in Canada is tightly controlled by and subject to strict regulation, including pursuant to the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations. The Company continues to face competition from both the illicit market as well as other companies, some of which can be expected to have longer operating histories and more financial resources and manufacturing and marketing experience than the Company. Increased competition by larger and better financed competitors could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

As of the date of this AIF, Health Canada has granted cultivation, processing or cannabis sales licences to a total of 982 licence holders. The Company holds four of those licences. More information on the current list of licence holders can be found on Health Canada's website (Licensed cultivators, processors and sellers of cannabis under the Cannabis Act - Canada.ca).

The Company believes that it will face competition from the following sources:

(i) Licence Holders: As of the date of this Annual Information Form, Health Canada has granted cultivation, processing or sales licences to a total of 982 licence holders, with many more in the application phase. The Company believes it will face competition from other licence holders and that in the future the supply of cannabis will meet and potentially exceed the demand for cannabis. The price of cannabis and cannabis products may also continue to drop. The Company believes that it can reduce the impact of competition from licence holders by focusing on the strength of its closed loop production ecosystem, across its four federally licensed and operational production and distribution facilities. On an annualized basis, the Company can cultivate up to 31,200 kgs of usable dried cannabis (being dried cannabis with a THC potency of 18% or more) and extract up to 50,000 kgs. Additionally, the Company believes that the stringent application and compliance requirements that must be met under the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations to become a licence holder may prove too onerous or expensive for some of those unlicensed applicants and is, in the Company's view a significant barrier to entry into the industry.

(ii) Cannabis Retailers: The Cannabis Act authorizes the provinces and territories to oversee the distribution of cannabis. Various provinces have distribution models which include exclusive distribution through provincially-owned retail stores or a mixed distribution model which will allow for regulated privately-owned retail stores to operate alongside provincially owned retail stores. The Company believes that retail competition will be from existing licence holders and new market participants. Currently the Company does not have retail operations.

(iii) Homegrown Cannabis Producers: The Cannabis Act allows for adults to legally grow up to four cannabis plants for personal use. The Company believes that competition from homegrown cannabis will be minimal and that it will not have a significant impact on market demand for the Company's products.

See "Risk Factors" for further details.

COMPONENTS

The Company owns four significant cannabis production and distribution facilities in Canada (all of which are currently licensed, three of which are operational), allowing the Company to cultivate cannabis and produce packaged consumer products for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets and internationally. Although the Company largely relies on its closed loop production ecosystem across its production and distribution facilities for its cannabis products, the Company's business is dependent on a number of non-cannabis related key inputs including skilled labour, equipment, parts, solvents, non-cannabis consumables forming part of the finished products (for e.g., bottles, packaging and cartons) and other supplies, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. See "Risk Factors" for additional details.

CYCLES

The Company does not expect the availability or price of its inputs to materially fluctuate on a seasonal or cyclical basis. As outdoor grown cannabis becomes more prominent within Canada, the Company may begin to see seasonality in the availability and price of cannabis.

The demand for cannabis and its derivatives is not seasonal or cyclical.

ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE

The Company does not believe there is any contract upon which its business as a whole is substantially dependent.

CHANGES TO CONTRACTS

The Company does not expect any aspect of its business as a whole to be affected in the current financial year by the renegotiation or termination of contracts or sub-contracts.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

The Company does not expect any environmental protection requirements to have a material effect on the Company's expected capital expenditures, profit or loss or competitive position.

REGULATION OF CANNABIS IN CANADA

The production, distribution and sale of cannabis is tightly controlled by the Canadian federal and provincial governments. On October 17, 2018, the Cannabis Act, also known as Bill C-45, came into force as law with the effect of legalizing adult recreational use of cannabis across Canada. The Cannabis Act, among other things, replaced the ACMPR and Industrial Hemp Regulations, both of which came into force under the CDSA, which previously permitted access to cannabis for medical purposes for only those Canadians who had been authorized to use cannabis by their health care practitioner. The ACMPR replaced the MMPR, which was implemented in June 2013. The MMPR replaced the MMAR, which was implemented in 2001. The MMPR and MMAR were initial steps in the Government of Canada's legislative path towards the eventual legalization and regulating recreational and medical cannabis.

The Cannabis Act permits the non-medical use of cannabis by adults and regulates, among other things, the production, distribution and sale of cannabis and related products in Canada, for both non-medical and medical purposes. Pursuant to the Cannabis Act, subject to provincial and territorial regulations and medical allowances, individuals over the age of 18 are able to purchase fresh cannabis, dried cannabis, cannabis oil, cannabis extracts, cannabis edibles, cannabis topicals and cannabis plants or seeds and are able to legally possess up to 30 grams of dried cannabis (or the prescribed equivalent amount) in public. The Cannabis Act also permits households to grow a maximum of four cannabis plants, which has been restricted by certain provinces. This limit applies regardless of the number of adults that reside in the household. In addition, the Cannabis Act provides provincial and territorial governments the authority to prescribe regulations regarding retail sales and distribution, as well as the ability to regulate certain matters, such as increasing the minimum age for purchase and consumption. The minimum age for purchase and possession of cannabis in each Canadian jurisdiction is 19 years old, except for Quebec and Alberta where it is 21 and 18, respectively.

In connection with the new framework for regulating cannabis in Canada, the Federal Government has introduced new penalties under the Criminal Code (Canada), including penalties for the illegal sale of cannabis, possession of cannabis over the prescribed limit, production of cannabis beyond personal cultivation limits, taking cannabis across the Canadian border, giving or selling cannabis to a youth and involving a youth to commit a cannabis-related offence.

In addition to the Cannabis Act, the Federal Government of Canada published regulations, including the Cannabis Regulations (the “Cannabis Regulations”) and the new Industrial Hemp Regulations (together with the Cannabis Regulations, collectively, the “Regulations”), along with amendments to the Narcotic Control Regulations and certain regulations under the Food and Drugs Act (Canada) (the “Canada FDA”). The Regulations, among other things, outline additional rules for the cultivation, processing, research, analytical testing, distribution, sale, importation and exportation of cannabis and hemp in Canada, including the various classes of licences that can be granted. The Regulations set standards for these cannabis and hemp products and include strict specifications for the plain packaging and labelling and analytical testing of all cannabis products as well as stringent physical and personnel security requirements for federally licenced sites. The Regulations also maintain a distinct system for access to cannabis. See “Risk Factors – Changes in Law, Regulations and Guidelines”.

Licences, Permits and Authorizations

The Cannabis Regulations establish the following different classes of licences that are required depending on the nature of the activity being undertaken:

- cultivation licences - standard cultivation, micro-cultivation and nursery cultivation;
- processing licences - standard processing (such as the Licence) and micro-processing;
- sale, and sale for medical purposes;
- analytical testing;
- research; and
- cannabis drug licence.

Pursuant to the Cannabis Regulations, any licence issued will be valid for no more than five years. Each class and subclass of licence carries different rules and requirements. The licence, once issued, identifies the specific activities that the licensee is authorized to conduct. The activities permitted under each class or subclass of licence are set out in the Cannabis Regulations.

Security Clearances

The Cannabis Act requires that certain individuals associated with a licensee, such as directors, officers, large shareholders and individuals identified by the Minister, obtain security clearances with Health Canada. The Minister grants security clearances if the Minister determines that the applicant does not pose an unacceptable risk to public health or public safety. The Minister may refuse to grant security clearance to individuals with associations to organized crime or with past criminal convictions for, or an association with, drug trafficking, corruption or violent offences. Individuals with a record of non-violent, lower-risk criminal activity may still be granted security clearance at the discretion of the Minister. This was largely the approach in place under the ACMPR and other related regulations governing the licensed production of cannabis for medical purposes. Individuals who have histories of nonviolent, lower-risk criminal activity (for example, simple possession of cannabis, or small-scale cultivation of cannabis plants) are not precluded from participating in the legal cannabis industry, however, grant of security clearance to such individuals is at the discretion of the Minister and such applications are reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Security clearances granted under the ACMPR are also considered to be valid security clearances for the purposes of the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations.

Cannabis Tracking System

Under the Cannabis Act, the Minister is authorized to establish and maintain a national cannabis tracking system. The cannabis tracking system (together with the licensing portal, collectively known as the “Cannabis Tracking and Licensing System”) was established by ministerial order, and came into effect on October 17, 2018. The purpose of this system is to track cannabis throughout the supply chain to help prevent diversion of cannabis into, and out of, the legal market. Pursuant to the Cannabis Tracking and Licensing System, a holder of a federal licence for cultivation, a licence for processing or a licence for sale for medical purposes that authorizes the possession of cannabis must report monthly to the Minister with specific information about their authorized activities with cannabis (e.g. cannabis inventory quantities), in the form and manner specified by the Minister. The ministerial order also provides for monthly reporting by provincial bodies and provincially authorized private retailers of certain information in the form and manner specified by the Minister.

A new ministerial order, the Cannabis Tracking System Order, was published in the Canada Gazette, Part II on June 26, 2019 and in force on October 17, 2019 in order to address the unique public health and public safety risks associated with edible cannabis, cannabis extracts and topicals (the “New Classes of Cannabis”) authorized by the Regulations Amending the Cannabis Regulations (New Classes of Cannabis) (the “Amending Regulations”) on October 17, 2019.

The purpose of this system is to enable the submission of licence applications, amendments and renewals through an online portal and track the flow of cannabis throughout the supply chain as a means of preventing the illegal inversion and diversion of cannabis into and out of the regulated system. Under the Cannabis Tracking and Licensing System, a holder of a licence for cultivation, licence for processing, or a licence for sale for medical purposes is required to submit monthly reports to Health Canada.

Cannabis Products

The Cannabis Regulations set out the product categories that are permitted for sale. Currently, the Cannabis Regulations permit the sale of dried cannabis, cannabis oil, fresh cannabis, cannabis plants, and cannabis seeds, including in such forms as “pre-rolled” and capsule products. The THC content and serving size of cannabis products is limited by the Cannabis Regulations.

Prior to the passage of the Amending Regulations, the Cannabis Act only permitted the sale of dried cannabis, cannabis oil, fresh cannabis, cannabis plants and cannabis plant seeds. The Amending Regulations permit the production and sale of the New Classes of Cannabis. As is the case for dried or fresh cannabis and cannabis oil, a processing licence is required in order to produce the New Classes of Cannabis, and to package and label these types of cannabis products for sale to consumers. Holders of processing licences issued prior to October 17, 2019 were required to amend their processing licence before they could begin manufacturing products belonging to New Classes of Cannabis. The Cannabis Regulations require the filing of a notice with Health Canada at least 60 days before releasing a new product to the market. As a result, December 16, 2019 was the earliest date that products in the New Classes of Cannabis could be made available for sale.

In addition, if a processing licence holder processes edible cannabis and non-cannabis food products on the same site, then the production, packaging, labelling, and storage of cannabis and the production, packaging, and labelling of non-cannabis food products will need to be conducted in separate buildings. All cannabis production is required to occur in a separate building from any non-cannabis food production to minimize contamination risks.

For medical cannabis patients, Health Canada requires that medical documents be written to include the amount of dried cannabis in grams per day a patient may consume. This requirement applies equally to oils. To assist patients with determining how much oil they should be consuming per day, licensed producers are required to provide an equivalency factor outlining how much oil is equivalent to one gram of dried cannabis.

Packaging and Labelling

The Cannabis Regulations set out requirements pertaining to the packaging and labelling of cannabis products. The purpose of the packaging and labeling rules is to promote informed consumer choice, allow for the safe handling and transportation of cannabis, and to reduce the appeal of the products to youth. Vendors must package cannabis in a way that is tamper-proof, child-resistant, prevents contamination and ensures dryness. The Cannabis Regulations also require plain packaging, with strict requirements for logos, colours and branding. The packaging must also contain the following product information:

- product source information, including the name, phone number and email of the cultivator;
- information about the product including class of cannabis, amount, brand name, lot number, storage conditions, packaging date, expiry date;
- a mandatory health warning, rotating between Health Canada's list of standard health warnings;
- the Health Canada standardized cannabis symbol; and
- information specifying THC and CBD content.

Advertising

The Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations outline several prohibitions regarding the promotion of cannabis products. Subject to a few exceptions, including promotion to other licence holders, all promotions of cannabis products are prohibited unless authorized by the Cannabis Act. The restriction on promotion includes promoting cannabis or a cannabis accessory, or any service related to cannabis, including: (i) by communicating information about price or distribution, (ii) by doing so in a manner in that there are reasonable grounds to believe could be appealing to young persons, (iii) by means of a testimonial or endorsement, or (iv) by evoking positive or negative emotions about a way of life such as one that includes glamour, recreation, excitement, vitality, or risk.

Cannabis products may be promoted at their point of sale if the promotion indicates only its availability and/or price. Further, brand preference and informational promotion is permitted if such promotion is:

- in a communication that is addressed and sent to an individual who is 18 years of age or older and is identified by name;
- in a place where young persons are not permitted; or
- communicated by means of a telecommunication, where the person responsible for the content of the promotion has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the promotion cannot be accessed by a young person.

While the above restrictions also apply to the New Classes of Cannabis, the Amending Regulations also prohibit certain representations and associations on products, their packages and labels and associated promotional activity, including: certain flavours in cannabis extracts (e.g. confectionary, dessert, soft drink, and energy drink); health or cosmetic benefits unless registered as a health product; energy value and nutrient content representations that go beyond those permitted in the list of ingredients and in the cannabis specific nutrition facts table; statements reasonably likely to create the impression the edible cannabis or accessory is intended to meet particular dietary requirements; and promotion that could reasonably associate the cannabis, the cannabis accessory or the service related to cannabis with an alcoholic beverage, a tobacco product or a vaping product.

Product Composition

The Cannabis Regulations place restrictions on product composition specific to each type of cannabis product including specific THC limits. Examples of product-specific restrictions include:

- Edible cannabis: must be shelf stable; only food and food additives will be allowed to be used as ingredients in edible cannabis and the use of food additives will need to be in accordance with the limits and purposes that are prescribed for foods; must not have caffeine added, however the use of ingredients containing naturally occurring caffeine will be permitted in edible cannabis products provided that the total amount of caffeine in each immediate container does not exceed 30 milligrams; must not contain alcohol in excess of 0.5% w/w; must not contain anything that would cause the sale of the edible cannabis, if it was a food regulated under the Canada FDA, to be prohibited and must not be fortified with vitamins or mineral nutrients.
- Cannabis extracts: must not contain ingredients that are sugars, sweeteners or sweetening agents, nor any ingredient listed on Column 1 of Schedule 2 to the Tobacco and Vaping Products Act (which is a list of ingredients that are prohibited in vaping products) except if those ingredients and their levels are naturally occurring in an ingredient used to produce the extract.
- Cannabis topicals: must not contain anything that may cause injury to the health of the consumer when the product is used as intended or in a reasonably foreseeable way.

Health Products and Cosmetics Containing Cannabis

Under the current regulatory framework, health products are subject to the Canada FDA and its regulations, and the NHPR. The Canada FDA and NHPR govern the manufacturing, formulation, packaging, labelling, advertisement and sale of natural health products (“NHPs”) in Canada. In addition, drugs and NHPs may be additionally regulated by the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations. For many of these products, pre-market approval from Health Canada is required.

Currently, cannabis is not permitted for use in a natural health product or a non-prescription drug product, as phytocannabinoids are included as prescription drugs on the Human and Veterinary Prescription Drug List (“PDL”). Although, Health Canada has previously authorized prescription drug products containing cannabis, the agency maintains that there remains significant scientific uncertainty regarding the pharmacological actions, therapeutic effectiveness and safety of the majority of phytocannabinoids. The cannabis-based prescription drug products that have been authorized by Health Canada have been studied, authorized and used in specific conditions. While these authorized products have contributed to the global body of knowledge concerning the safety and efficacy of cannabis-based therapies, Health Canada has stated that the presence of scientific uncertainty and limited market experience gives rise to the need for a precautionary approach. Listing all phytocannabinoids on the PDL addresses this uncertainty by allowing healthcare practitioners to monitor and manage any unanticipated effects. Health Canada has launched a consultation on a potential market for cannabis health products that would not require practitioner oversight and is considering the development of a regulatory pathway for cannabis health products. In the meantime, all phytocannabinoids remain listed on the PDL until there is sufficient scientific evidence (e.g., as demonstrated through a submission to Health Canada) to change the prescription status of a particular phytocannabinoid when used in specific conditions.

Under the Cannabis Regulations, the use of cannabis-derived ingredients (other than certain hemp seed derivatives containing no more than 10 parts per million THC) in cosmetics is permitted and will be subject to provisions of the Cannabis Act.

Import / Export Permits for Medical or Scientific Purposes

Part 10 of the Cannabis Regulations sets out the process by which a license holder may apply for an import or export permit for medical or scientific purposes. A permit must be obtained for each shipment of cannabis. An application for an import or export permit must contain specific information including the name and address of the holder, license number and specifics of the particular shipment including intended use of the cannabis and specific shipment details. The Cannabis Regulations also contain reporting requirements in respect of the import / export of cannabis.

RETAIL FRAMEWORKS IN RELEVANT JURISDICTIONS

The Cannabis Act provides that the provinces and territories of Canada have authority to regulate certain aspects of recreational cannabis (similar to the current regime for liquor and tobacco products), such as sale and distribution, minimum age requirements, places where cannabis can be consumed, and a range of other matters.

All Canadian provinces and territories have enacted regulatory regimes for the distribution and sale of cannabis for recreational purposes within those jurisdictions. There are three general frameworks that the provinces and territories have followed: (i) private cannabis retailers licensed by the province; (ii) government run retail stores; or (iii) a combination of both frameworks (e.g., privately licensed retail stores, while online retailers are operated by the applicable provincial government).

Regardless of the framework, the recreational cannabis market is supplied by federal licence holders. In many cases, provinces that follow the licensed private retailer model will still have a government-run wholesale distributor. Such licensed private retail stores are or will be required to obtain their cannabis products from the wholesalers, and the wholesalers in turn, are or will be required to obtain the cannabis products from the federal licence holders. The minimum age for purchase and possession of cannabis in each Canadian jurisdiction is 19 years old, except for Quebec and Alberta, where it is 18.

There is no assurance the Company will be able to efficiently navigate applicable regulatory frameworks and distribution models or conduct its intended business thereunder. See “Risk Factors – Changes in Law, Regulations and Guidelines”.

Alberta

AGLC regulates the retail sale of recreational cannabis in Alberta. AGLC issues cannabis retail licenses to private retailers that receive their products from the AGLC. The framework for retail stores in Alberta includes:

- implementing strict restrictions on relationships between retail licence holders and Licensed Producers, including in respect of promotion and inducements; and
- prohibiting any retail licence holder from participating in online sales of cannabis, which is restricted to the AGLC online portal.

British Columbia

The LCRB regulates the retail sale of recreational cannabis in British Columbia. LCRB issues cannabis retail licenses to private retailers that receive their products from the government-regulated distributor, the LDB, which also operates its own public retail stores. The framework for retail stores in British Columbia includes:

- limiting the number of retail licenses per retailer to eight;
- implementing certain restrictions on relationships between retail licence holders and Licensed Producers; and
- prohibiting any retail licence holder from participating in online sales of cannabis, which is restricted to the LDB online portal.

Ontario

Pursuant to the Cannabis Control Act, 2017 (Ontario), the distribution and retail sale of recreational cannabis is managed through the OCRC, under the oversight of the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario. Recreational cannabis has been sold on-line through the OCRC operated OCS platform as of October 17, 2018.

On October 17, 2018, the Cannabis License Act, 2018 (Ontario) became law and other legislation, including the Cannabis Control Act, 2017, the Ontario Cannabis Retail Corporation Act, 2017 and the Liquor Control Act were amended to create a private retail framework for the sale of recreational cannabis in Ontario. As of April 1, 2019, recreational cannabis has been available for sale by private retailers that operate brick-and-mortar stores licensed by the AGCO.

On December 12, 2019, the Government of Ontario announced changes to expand the cannabis retail store network in the province, effective January 2020. Notably, the Government of Ontario eliminated the cap on the number of retail stores in the province and increased the permissible ownership share from 9.9 per cent to 25 per cent of retail store licensee corporations by Licensed Producers. The framework for retail stores in Ontario:

- private retailers are required to obtain both a retail operator licence and a retail store authorization. Retail store authorizations are only to be issued to persons holding a retail operator licence. Separate retail store authorizations are to be required for each cannabis retail store, but a licensed retail operator may hold more than one retail store authorization and operate multiple stores. Private retailers may sell cannabis in person, or online, with in-store pick up and/or home delivery, where available;

- the AGCO is the government entity responsible for issuing retail store authorizations for privately run recreational cannabis stores. Until December 13, 2019, a temporary cap of 25 retail store authorizations was imposed while cannabis supply stabilizes. On July 3, 2019, the Government of Ontario announced its plans for a second allocation of 50 additional cannabis retail store authorizations. The AGCO held a lottery draw for the allocation of 42 retail store authorizations. A separate process governed the allocation of eight retail store authorizations for those who wish to operate a store on a First Nations reserve. On March 2, 2020, the restrictions on the total number of store authorizations permitted in Ontario, and their regional distribution, was revoked. The AGCO has begun accepting applications for retail store authorizations from all interested applicants;
- retail store operators are only permitted to purchase cannabis from the OCRC, which may set a minimum price for cannabis or classes of cannabis;
- every authorized cannabis retail store in Ontario must have a licensed retail manager. Anyone who supervises employees, oversees cannabis sales, manages compliance or has signing authority to purchase cannabis, enters into contracts or hires employees is required to have a cannabis retail manager licence;
- federally licensed producers (and their affiliates) are limited to operating one retail cannabis store in the province, which must be located at the site listed on such producer's federal licence. A broad definition of affiliate is included in the Cannabis Regulations. An affiliate relationship exists if a corporation beneficially owns or controls voting shares, or securities that may be converted to voting shares, constituting more than 25% of voting rights. If a person, or group acting together, holds 50% voting control for the election of directors or market share of the corporation, they are considered affiliates. Additionally, an affiliate relationship may be established through involvement in a trust, partnership or joint venture, among others. The definition of affiliate may have the effect of restricting the ability of federally licensed producers from effectively entering into the consumer retail market in Ontario;
- federally licensed producers are prohibited from providing any material inducement to cannabis retailers for the purpose of increasing the sale of a particular type of cannabis;
- municipalities and reserve band councils were permitted to opt out of the retail cannabis market by resolution. Municipalities had until January 22, 2019 to pass such by-laws, and several municipalities have formally opted-out of the retail market. Municipalities that opted out can later lift the prohibition on retail cannabis stores by subsequent resolution, which cannot be reversed at a later date; and
- municipalities may not pass bylaws providing for a further system of licensing over the retail sale of cannabis.

Saskatchewan

The SLGA regulates the distribution and retail sale of recreational cannabis in Saskatchewan. The SLGA issues cannabis wholesale licences to private distributors and retail licences to private retailers for operating retail cannabis stores and selling cannabis online. Under the initial framework announced in March 2018, only communities with 2,500 people or more qualified for retail permits, and larger communities had a set number of permits allocated through a lottery system, with 51 permits originally available province-wide. The SLGA has since loosened these restrictions and removed the limit on how many stores can open in each community.

Manitoba

MLLC sources and distributes recreational cannabis to private retailers in Manitoba. All cannabis must be purchased from MLLC. MLLC also coordinates with licensed producers to provide direct to retail store product delivery model. Licensed producers can direct ship themselves or through a third party.

RISK FACTORS

Due to the nature of the Company's business and the legal and economic climate in which it operates, the Company is subject to significant risks. The risks presented below are not exhaustive and may not be all of the risks that the Company may face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently considers immaterial may also impair its business and operations. If any of the following or other risks are realized, the Company's business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially adversely impacted. In that event the trading price of the Company's shares could decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment. There is no assurance that risk management steps taken will avoid future loss due to the occurrence of the risks described below or other unforeseen risks.

PROPOSED TRANSACTION RELATED RISKS

Failure to Complete the Proposed Transaction

There can be no assurance that the Proposed Transaction will be completed, or if completed, that it will be completed on the same or similar terms to those set out in the Letter Agreement. The completion of the Proposed Transaction is subject to the satisfaction of a number of conditions which include, among others, approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of the Company, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority shareholders of the Company in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions, at a special meeting of shareholders of the Company expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023; (b) Debentureholders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of New Convertible Debentures; and (c) if required, shareholders of RWB (the "RWB Shareholders") at a special meeting of RWB Shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023.

In addition, if the Proposed Transaction is not completed, the ongoing business of the Company may be adversely affected as a result of the costs (including opportunity costs) incurred in respect of pursuing the Proposed Transaction, and the Company could experience negative reactions from the financial markets, which could cause a decrease in the market price of the Common Shares, particularly if the market price reflects market assumptions that the Proposed Transaction will be completed or completed on certain terms. The Company may also experience negative reactions from its customers and employees and there could be negative impact on the Company's ability to attract future acquisition opportunities. Failure to complete the Proposed Transaction or a change in the terms of the Proposed Transaction could each have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Termination Fee

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, the Company may be required to pay a termination fee (being, $2 million) (the "Termination Fee") to RWB in the event the Proposed Transaction is terminated in certain circumstances. The Termination Fee may discourage other parties from making an Acquisition Proposal (as such term is defined in the Letter Agreement), even if such Acquisition Proposal could provide greater value to the Company's shareholders.

Furthermore, certain securityholders of the Company (including the directors and senior officers of the Company) will be entering into support and voting agreements that irrevocably commit them to, among other things vote their Common Shares in favour of the Proposed Transaction. As a result, the support and voting agreements may discourage other parties from making an Acquisition Proposal, even if such Acquisition Proposal could provide greater value than that offered under the Proposed Transaction.

Transaction-Related Costs in Connection with the Proposed Transaction

The Company expects to incur a number of non-recurring transaction-related costs associated with completing the Proposed Transaction that will be incurred whether or not the Proposed Transaction is completed. Such costs may offset any expected cost savings and other synergies from the Proposed Transaction.

Restrictions on Certain Actions While the Proposed Transaction is Pending

The Letter Agreement restricts the Company, subject to certain exceptions, from taking specified actions, unless consented to by RWB, until the Proposed Transaction is completed, which may adversely affect the ability of the Company to execute certain business strategies. These restrictions may prevent the Company from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Proposed Transaction.

Diverting Attention of Management

The pending Proposed Transaction could cause the attention of management of the Company to be diverted from the day-to-day operations. These disruptions could be exacerbated by a delay in the completion of the Proposed Transaction and could have an adverse effect on the current and future business, operations, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of the Company regardless of whether the Proposed Transaction is ultimately completed. Because the completion of the Proposed Transaction is subject to uncertainty, officers and employees of the Company may experience uncertainty about their future roles, which may adversely affect the Company's ability to attract or retain key management and personnel in the period until the completion or termination of the Proposed Transaction.

In addition, third parties with which the Company currently has a business relationship or may have a business relationship in the future, including industry partners, customers and suppliers, may experience uncertainty associated with the Proposed Transaction, including with respect to current or future relationships with the Company. Such uncertainty could have a material and adverse effect on the current and future business, operations, results of operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company.

Directors and Senior Officers with Differing Interests From the Shareholders

Certain of the directors and senior officers of the Company negotiated the terms of the Proposed Transaction. These directors and senior officers may have interests in the Proposed Transaction that are different from, or in addition to, those of the shareholders generally. The Company's shareholders should also be aware that certain directors and certain senior officers of the Company have interests in connection with the Proposed Transaction including, but not limited to, the continued employment of certain senior officers of the Company by the Combined Company and the continued service of certain directors of the Company as directors of the Combined Company, that may present actual or potential conflicts of interest in connection with the Proposed Transaction.

REGULATORY AND LEGAL RISKS

Compliance with Laws

The adult-use and medical cannabis industries and markets are subject to a variety of laws in Canada and internationally.

The business and activities of the Company are heavily regulated. The Company's operations are subject to various laws, regulations and guidelines by governmental authorities, particularly Health Canada, relating to the manufacture, marketing, management, transportation, storage, sale and disposal of cannabis, and also including laws and regulations relating to health and safety, healthcare practitioner services, the conduct of operations and the protection of the environment. Laws and regulations, applied generally, grant government agencies and self-regulatory bodies broad administrative discretion over the activities of the Company, including the power to limit or restrict business activities as well as impose additional disclosure requirements on the Company's products and services.

To the knowledge of management, the Company is currently in compliance under the Cannabis Act. Failure to comply with the laws and regulations applicable to its operations may lead to possible sanctions including the revocation or imposition of additional conditions on its licences issued in accordance with the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations ("Licences") to operate the Company's business; the suspension or expulsion from a particular market or jurisdiction or of its key personnel; and, the imposition of fines and censures. To the extent that there are changes to the existing or the enactment of future laws and regulations that affect the sale or offering of the Company's product or services in any way, it may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Any amendment to or replacement of the Cannabis Act or other applicable rules and regulations governing the Company's activities may cause adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

There is also a risk that the Company's interpretation of laws, regulations and guidelines, including, but not limited to the associated regulations and applicable stock exchange rules and regulations, may differ from those of others, including those of governmental authorities, securities regulators and exchanges, and the Company's operations may not be in compliance with such laws, regulations and guidelines.

Achievement of the Company's business objectives is contingent, in part, upon compliance with regulatory requirements enacted by governmental authorities and, where necessary, obtaining regulatory approvals. The impact of regulatory compliance regimes, and the impact of any delays in obtaining or failures to obtain regulatory approvals required by the Company may significantly delay or impact the development of the Company's business and operations and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, the Company is subject to ongoing inspections by Health Canada to monitor compliance with licensing requirements. The Company's existing Licences and any new licences that it may obtain in the future in Canada or other jurisdictions may be revoked or restricted at any time in the event that the Company is found not to be in compliance. Should the Company fail to comply with the applicable regulatory requirements or with conditions set out under its Licences or should its Licences be revoked, the Company may not be able to continue producing or distributing cannabis in Canada.

The Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to regulatory compliance. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations may result in enforcement actions thereunder, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed, and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures or remedial actions. The Company may be liable for civil or criminal fines or penalties imposed for violations of applicable laws or regulations.

The regulated nature of the business may impede or discourage a takeover, which could reduce the market price of the Common Shares and the value of any outstanding convertible debentures/notes. The Company requires and holds various government licenses to operate the business, which would not necessarily continue to apply to an acquirer of the business following a change of control. These licensing requirements could impede a merger, amalgamation, takeover, or other business combination involving the Company or discourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer for the Common Shares, which, under certain circumstances, could reduce the market price of the Common Shares.

Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Regulation Risk

Canadian and international money laundering, financial recordkeeping, and proceeds of crime laws and regulations apply to the Company. Specifically, the Company is subject to the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada), as amended and the rules and regulations thereunder, the Criminal Code (Canada) and any related or similar rules, regulations, and guidelines, enforced by governmental authorities internationally. If any of the Company's transactions, operations, investments and proceeds thereof, dividends or distributions therefrom, profits, or revenues accruing from such operations or investments, were found to violate money laundering legislation, they may be viewed as proceeds of crime under any applicable legislation. This could restrict or otherwise jeopardize the Company's ability to declare or pay dividends or effect other distributions.

Anti-Bribery Law Violations

The Company's business is subject to Canadian laws prohibiting companies and employees from engaging in bribery or other prohibited payments to foreign officials to obtain or retain business. Additionally, the Company is subject to the anti-bribery laws of any other countries in which it conducts business. The Company's employees or other agents may without its knowledge and despite its best efforts, engage in conduct prohibited under anti-bribery laws for which the Company may be held responsible. While the Company's policies mandate compliance with anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws, there can be no assurance that the Company's internal controls will always protect it from recklessness, fraudulent behaviour, dishonesty, or other such inappropriate acts committed by its affiliates, employees, contractors, or agents. If the Company's employees or agents are found to have engaged in such practices, the Company could suffer severe penalties, reputational damage, and other consequences that may have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Changes in Laws, Regulations and Guidelines

The legislative framework pertaining to the Canadian recreational cannabis market is subject to significant provincial and territorial regulation, which varies across provinces and territories resulting in an asymmetric regulatory and market environment, different competitive pressures and significant additional compliance and other costs and/or limitations on the Company's ability to participate in such markets.

The laws, regulations and guidelines applicable to the cannabis industry domestically and internationally may change in ways currently unforeseen by the Company. The Cannabis Act came into effect on October 17, 2018. However, uncertainty exists with respect to the implementation of the Cannabis Act, federal regulations thereunder as well as the various provincial and territorial regimes governing the distribution and sale of cannabis for adult-use, recreational purposes.

Since cannabis remains illegal under U.S. federal law (other than the legalization of hemp) any engagement in cannabis-related activities may lead to heightened scrutiny by regulatory bodies and other authorities that could negatively impact the Company and/or its personnel.

The impact of these new laws, regulations and guidelines on the business of the Company, including increased costs of compliance and other potential risks, cannot be fully predicted; accordingly, the Company may experience adverse effects.

Reliance on Licences and Permits

The Company's ability to grow, store and sell cannabis in Canada is dependent on its Licences from Health Canada. Failure to comply with the requirements of the Licences or any failure to maintain its Licences would have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

The Port Perry Licence will expire on October 9, 2023, the Niagara Licence will expire on June 13, 2024, the Distribution Centre Licence will expire on February 12, 2024 and the Paris Licence will expire on January 20, 2028. Although management believes it will meet the requirements of the Cannabis Act, for extension of the Licences, there can be no guarantee that Health Canada will extend or renew the Licences or, if it is extended or renewed, that it will be extended or renewed on the same or similar terms. Should Health Canada not extend or renew the Licences, or should it renew the Licences on different terms or not provide the amendments as requested for anticipated capacity increases, the business, financial condition and results of the operations of the Company will be materially adversely affected.

The Company is dependent upon its Licences for its ability to grow, store and sell cannabis and other products at its production facilities. The Licences are subject to ongoing compliance, reporting requirements and renewal.

In addition to the Licences, the operations of the Company may require other Licences and permits from various governmental authorities, including, but not limited to, local municipalities. The Company currently has all non-federal permits and Licences that it believes are necessary to carry on its business. The Company may require additional Licences or permits in the future and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain all such additional Licences and permits. In addition, there can be no assurance that any existing Licences and permits will be renewable if and when required or that such existing Licences and permits will not be revoked.

Regulatory or Agency Proceedings, Investigations and Audits

The Company's businesses require compliance with certain laws and regulations. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations could subject the Company to regulatory or agency proceedings or investigations and could lead to damage awards, fines and penalties.

The Company may become involved in a number of government or agency proceedings, investigations and audits. The outcome of any regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations, audits, and other contingencies could harm the Company's reputation, require the Company to take, or refrain from taking, actions that could harm its operations or require the Company to pay substantial amounts of money, harming its financial condition.

There can be no assurance that any pending or future regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations and audits will not result in substantial costs or a diversion of management's attention and resources or have a material adverse impact on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operation.

Reliance on Facilities

The Port Perry Facility, the Paris Facility, the Niagara Facility and the Distribution Centre are integral to the Company's business and adverse changes or developments affecting any of the Port Perry Facility, Paris Facility, the Niagara Facility or the Distribution Centre may impact the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Adverse changes or developments affecting the Port Perry Facility, Paris Facility, Niagara Facility or the Distribution Centre, including but not limited to a force majeure event or a breach of security, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and prospects. Any breach of the security measures and other production facility requirements, including any failure to comply with recommendations or requirements arising from inspections by Health Canada, could also have an impact on the Company's ability to continue operating under its existing licence or the prospect of renewing the licence or could result in a revocation of the licence.

EU-GMP Certification and Export of Cannabis

In order to produce and export finished medical cannabis products directly to the German and broader European Union market, the Company must first receive GMP certification at its Paris Facility. As GMP certification requires the highest standards of pharmaceutical grade production and quality controls, the certification process can be lengthy and difficult to obtain. Until such time as the certification is obtained, if at all, the Company will not be able to directly export its finished cannabis products to the European Union market. The Company is able to ship bulk, non-GMP products to international jurisdictions that do not require manufacturers to have a GMP licence, and the Company can export bulk GACP dried flower to GMP manufacturers in domestic and international markets.

The Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations provide the framework for the export of cannabis. A denial of or delay in issuing or renewing an export permit, license, or other approval, or revocation or substantial modification of an existing permit or approval, could prevent the Company from continuing exports to other countries.

In addition, the Company is further subject to a wide variety of laws and regulations domestically and internationally with respect to the flow of funds and product across international borders and the amount of medical cannabis the Company exports may be limited by the various drug control conventions to which Canada is a signatory.

Constraints on Marketing Activities

The development of the Company's business and operating results may be hindered by applicable restrictions on sales and marketing activities and the potentially broad interpretation of such restrictions imposed by Health Canada and provincial regulators. The regulatory environment in Canada limits the Company's ability to compete for market share in a manner similar to other industries. If the Company is unable to effectively market its products and compete for market share, or if the costs of compliance with government legislation and regulation cannot be absorbed through increased sales prices for its products, the Company's sales and operating results could be adversely affected.

Intellectual Property

The Company's success depends in part on its ability to protect its rights to intellectual property and/or to license intellectual property rights on favourable terms. The Company relies upon various forms of intellectual property protection, including copyright, and trademarks, as well as contractual provisions, to protect intellectual property rights. Despite precautionary measures, the steps the Company takes may not prevent misappropriation of the Company's intellectual property, and the agreements the Company enters into may not be enforceable. It may also be possible for third parties to obtain and use the Company's intellectual property without authorization. Policing unauthorized use of intellectual property is difficult, time-consuming and costly. Further, some foreign laws do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as the laws of Canada.

With respect to the trademark applications that the Company has filed, the Company cannot offer any assurances about whether such applications will be granted. Even if trademark applications are successfully approved, third parties may challenge their validity, enforceability, or scope, which may result in such trademarks being narrowed, found unenforceable or invalidated. Even if they are unchallenged, any trademark applications and future trademarks and patents may not adequately protect the Company's intellectual property or provide exclusivity for its products or processes. Any of these outcomes could impair the Company's ability to prevent competition from third parties, which may have an adverse impact on the Company's business.

Trademark protection is an important factor in establishing product recognition. The Company's ability to protect its trademarks from infringement could result in injury to any goodwill which may be developed in those trademarks. Moreover, the Company may be unable to use one or more of its trademarks because of successful third-party claims.

To protect the Company's intellectual property, it may become involved in litigation, which could result in substantial expenses, divert the attention of management, cause significant delays, materially disrupt the conduct of business or adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, other parties may claim that the Company's products infringe on their proprietary or patent protected rights. Such claims, whether or not meritorious, may result in the expenditure of significant financial and managerial resources and legal fees, result in injunctions or temporary restraining orders or require the payment of damages.

The Company also relies on certain trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information that are not protected by patents to maintain its competitive position. The Company's trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information, which are not protected by patents, may become known to or be independently developed by competitors, which could adversely affect the Company.

OPERATING RISKS

The Cannabis Industry in Canada

As a Licensed Producer, the Company is operating its business in a relatively new industry and market. In addition to being subject to general business risks, the Company must continue to build brand awareness in the industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance and compliance with regulations. In addition, there is no assurance that the industry and market will continue to exist and grow as currently estimated or anticipated or function and evolve in the manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that adversely affects the cannabis industry, such as the imposition of restrictions on sales and marketing or restrictions on sales in certain areas, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial conditions and results of operations.

Limited Operating History

The Company is a relatively early-stage company having been established as a result of the Business Combination in early 2018 and, as a result, it has a limited operating history upon which its business and future prospects may be evaluated. The Company will be subject to all of the business risks and uncertainties associated with any new business enterprise, including the risk that it will not achieve its operating goals. In order for the Company to meet future operating and debt service requirements, it will need to be successful in its growing, marketing and sales efforts. Additionally, where the Company experiences increased sales, its current operational infrastructure may require changes to scale the business efficiently and effectively to keep pace with demand and achieve long-term profitability. If the Company's products and services are not accepted by new customers, the Company's operating results may be materially and adversely affected.

Operating in a New and Evolving Industry

The nature of the new and rapidly evolving industry and developing market for cannabis may result in management having to change focus and strategy and adapt to an evolving and changing market and industry. In addition, the Company will be susceptible to adverse developments in this new market and industry, the sole market in which it operates, such as new developments, changing demographics, changing regulatory regime and other factors.

If the Company is unable to successfully operate as a Licensed Producer, this could substantially reduce its earnings and its ability to generate stable positive cash flow from its operations and may reduce the value of the Common Shares and adversely affect the Company's ability to raise additional capital.

Reliance on Third Party Suppliers, Manufacturers and Contractors and Inflationary Risk

The Company's business is dependent on a number of fundamental inputs and their related costs including raw materials and supplies related to its growing operations, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for certain inputs could materially impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. In particular, the current inflationary environment may result in input costs that cannot be recouped through price increases for the Company's products. Some of these inputs may only be available from a single supplier or a limited group of suppliers. If a sole source supplier was to go out of business, the Company might be unable to find a replacement in a timely manner or at all. If a sole source supplier were to be acquired by a competitor, that competitor may elect not to sell to the Company in the future. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company and materially adversely impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Continuance of Contractual Relations with Provincial Governments

The continuance of the Company's contractual relations with provincial governments cannot be guaranteed. Part of the Company's current revenues depend upon the supply contracts with the various Canadian provinces. There are many factors which could impact these contractual agreements and alterations to, or the termination of, such contracts may adversely impact the Company's business, financial condition and operations.

Third Party Transportation

In order for customers of the Company to receive products from the Company, the Company must rely on third party mail and courier services. This can cause logistical problems with and delays in customers obtaining their orders and cannot be directly controlled by the Company. Any delay by third party transportation and/or rising costs associated with these services may adversely affect the Company's financial performance.

Moreover, security of the product during transportation to and from the Company's facilities is critical due to the nature of the product. A breach of security during transport could have material adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. Any such breach could impact the Company's ability to continue operating under its Licences or impede the prospect of renewing its Licences.

Reputational Risk to Third Parties

The parties with which the Company does business may perceive that they are exposed to reputational risk as a result of the Company's cannabis business activities. Failure to establish or maintain business relationships could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Supply Shortages and Overages

The Company may not be able to obtain from third parties, or produce, enough cannabis to meet demand. This may result in lower than expected sales and revenues and increased competition for sales and sources of supply.

In the future, Licensed Producers in Canada may produce more cannabis than is needed to satisfy the collective demand of the Canadian adult-use and medical markets, and they may be unable to export the oversupply into other markets where cannabis use is also legal. As a result, the available supply of cannabis could exceed demand, resulting in a significant decline in the market price for cannabis. This dynamic has been manifested in fiscal 2022. If such supply or price fluctuations occur or continue to occur, the Company's revenue and profitability may fluctuate materially and its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected.

In addition, demand for cannabis and cannabis products is dependent on a number of social, political and economic factors that are beyond the Company's control. A material decline in the economic conditions affecting consumers can cause a reduction in disposable income for the average consumer, change consumption patterns and result in a reduction in spending on cannabis products or a switch to other products obtained through illegal channels. There can be no assurance that market demand for cannabis will continue to be sufficient to support the Company's current or future production levels.

Disruption of Supply Chain

Conditions or events including, but not limited to, those listed below could disrupt the Company's supply chains, interrupt operations at its facilities, increase operating expenses, resulting in loss of sales, delayed performance of contractual obligations or require additional expenditures to be incurred:

- extraordinary weather conditions or natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, fires, extreme heat, earthquakes, etc.;
- a local, regional, national or international outbreak of a contagious disease, including the COVID-19 coronavirus, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, H1N1 influenza virus, avian flu, or any other similar illness could result in a general or acute decline in economic activity (see also, "Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic; Other Potential Public Health Crises");
- political instability, social and labour unrest, war or terrorism; or
- interruptions in the availability of basic commercial and social services and infrastructure including power and water shortages, and shipping and freight forwarding services including via air, sea, rail and road.

Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic; Other Potential Public Health Crises

Catastrophic events in general can have a material impact on the potential continuity of the business. The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's business, operations and financial performance will depend on future developments, including but not limited to, matters such as (a) the duration and/or severity of the outbreak including the emergence of new variants of COVID-19, (b) government policies, restrictions and requirements as they relate to social distancing, forced quarantines and other requirements to contain COVID-19, (c) non-governmental influences or challenges such as the failure of banks and/or (d) any kind of ripple effect caused by the substantial economic damage that can be inflicted on society by the COVID-19 pandemic. The ultimate long-term impacts are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted with confidence.

A local, regional, national or international outbreak of a contagious disease, apart from COVID-19, could also have similar adverse effects, or other adverse unknown effects, on local economies and potentially the global economy, which may adversely impact the price and demand for the Company's products and its ability to carry out operations. Such an outbreak, if uncontrolled, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, including a potential reduction in patient visits, recreational and bulk sales, and, as a result, potential lost revenue.

Effectiveness of Quality Control Systems

The quality and safety of the Company's products are critical to the success of its business and operations. As such, it is imperative that the Company's (and its service providers') quality control systems operate effectively and successfully. Quality control systems can be negatively impacted by the design of the quality control systems, the quality training program, and adherence by employees to quality control guidelines. Although the Company strives to ensure that all of its service providers have implemented and adhere to high caliber quality control systems, any significant failure or deterioration of such quality control systems could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Development of New Products and Technologies

The Company and its competitors are actively seeking to develop new products in order to keep pace with any new market developments and generate revenue growth. The Company may not be successful in developing effective and safe new products, bringing such products to market in time to be effectively commercialized, or obtaining any required regulatory approvals, which, together with any capital expenditures made in the course of such product development and regulatory approval processes, may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The technologies, processes and formulations the Company uses may also face competition or become obsolete. Rapidly evolving markets, technology, emerging industry standards and frequent introduction of new products characterize the cannabis business. The introduction of new products and new technologies, including new manufacturing processes or formulations, and the emergence of new industry standards may render the Company's current products obsolete, less competitive or less marketable.

The process of developing new products is complex and requires significant continuing costs, development efforts and third-party commitments. The Company may be unable to anticipate changes in customer requirements that could make its existing technology, processes or formulations obsolete. The Company's success will depend on its ability to continue to enhance its existing technologies, develop new technology that addresses the increasing sophistication and varied needs of the market, and respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a timely and cost-effective basis. Failure to develop new technologies and products and the obsolescence of existing technologies or processes could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Reliance on Skilled Workers and Equipment

The ability of the Company to compete and grow cannabis will be dependent on it having access to, at a reasonable cost and in a timely manner, skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. No assurances can be given that the Company will be successful in maintaining its required supply of skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. It is also possible that the final costs of the major equipment contemplated by the Company may be significantly greater than anticipated by management, and may be greater than funds available, in which circumstance the Company may curtail, or extend the timeframes for completing, its capital expenditure plans. This could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

Attraction and Retention of Key Personnel

The Company has a small management team and the loss of a key individual or inability to attract suitably qualified management could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. While employment and management services agreements are customarily used as a primary method of retaining the services of key personnel, these agreements cannot assure the continued services of such persons.

The Company may also encounter difficulties in obtaining and maintaining suitably qualified staff in certain of the jurisdictions in which it conducts business. In addition, there is a risk that management or key personnel will fail to execute in their roles or falter in judgment in certain circumstances, all of which could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

Increased Labour Costs Based on Union Activity and a Deterioration in Relationships with Non-Unionized and Unionized Employees

With the exception of 6 employees represented by Unifor Local 597 in St. John's, NL, all of the Company's employees are currently non-unionized.¹

The maintenance of a productive and efficient labour environment cannot be assured. A deterioration in relationships with employees or in the labour environment could result in work interruptions or other disruptions, or cause management to divert time and resources from other aspects of the Company's business, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations or financial condition.

In the event that additional bargaining units are formed and certified, the Company will be dependent on union representatives to renew any collective bargaining agreements on terms that are satisfactory as they become subject to renegotiation from time to time, the outcome of these labour negotiations could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations or financial condition. Such could be the case if current or future labour negotiations or contracts were to further restrict the Company's ability to maximize the efficiency of its operations. In addition, the Company's ability to make short-term adjustments to control compensation and benefit costs may be limited by the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

The Company cannot predict the outcome of any current or future negotiations relating to labour disputes, union representation or the renewal of any collective bargaining agreements, if any, nor can the Company assure that it will not experience work stoppages, strikes, property damage or other forms of labour protests pending the outcome of any current or future negotiations. If any unionized workers engage in a strike or any other form of work stoppage, the Company could experience a significant disruption to its operations, damage to its property and/or interruption to its production, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations or financial condition.

FINANCIAL RISKS

Compliance with TSX and OTCQB Requirements

On October 16, 2017, the TSX provided clarity regarding the application of Section 306 (Minimum Listing Requirements), Section 325 (Management) and Part VII (Halting of Trading, Suspension and Delisting of Securities) of the TSX Company Manual (collectively, the “Requirements”) to TSX-listed issuers with business activities in the cannabis sector. In TSX Staff Notice 2017-0009, the TSX notes that issuers with ongoing business activities that violate U.S. federal law regarding cannabis are not in compliance with the Requirements. The TSX reminded issuers that, among other things, should the TSX find that a listed issuer is engaging in activities contrary to the Requirements, the TSX has the discretion to initiate a delisting review. Failure to comply with the Requirements could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, financial condition and results of operations.

Following the completion of the Arrangement, on March 19, 2019, the common shares of Aleafia Health ceased trading on the TSXV and commenced trading on the TSX under the symbol “ALEF”, which was subsequently changed to “AH” on May 27, 2020.

The Company is subject to changing rules and regulations promulgated by a number of governmental and self-regulated organizations, including, but not limited to, the Canadian Securities Administrators, the TSX, the OTCQB, and the Ontario Securities Commission. These rules and regulations continue to evolve in scope and complexity, creating many new requirements.

On March, 22, 2022, Aleafia Health received notice from the OTCQX that its bid price had closed below US$0.10 for more than 30 consecutive calendar days and no longer met the Standards for Continued Qualification for the OTCQX International tier. Aleafia Health has been given a 180 day cure period for its share price to trade above US$0.10 for ten consecutive days. If, by September 19, 2022, Aleafia Health’s bid price did not stay at or above the US$0.10 minimum for ten consecutive trading days during the cure period, and, as a result, Aleafia Health was delisted from the OTCQX on September 21, 2022. However, Aleafia Health has instead been moved to the OTCQB as of September 21, 2022 where its common shares continue to trade.

Volatile Market Price of the Common Shares

The market price of the Common Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company’s control. This volatility may affect the ability of holders of Common Shares to sell their securities for a profit, or at all. Market price fluctuations in the Common Shares may be due to the Company’s operating results failing to meet expectations of securities analysts (including short-sellers) or investors in any period, downward revision in securities analysts’ estimates, adverse changes in general market conditions or economic trends, acquisitions, dispositions or other material public announcements by the Company or its competitors, along with a variety of additional factors.

Financial markets have historically at times experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have often been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies. Accordingly, the market price of the Common Shares may decline even if the Company’s operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company’s operations could be adversely impacted, and the trading price of the Common Shares may be materially adversely affected.

Obligations as a Public Company

As a public company, the Company is subject to corporate governance and public disclosure requirements that may increase the Company's compliance costs and risk of non-compliance, which could adversely impact the price of the Common Shares.

Dilution

The Company's articles permit the issuance of an unlimited number of Common Shares and shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuance. The Company may issue additional securities in the future, which may dilute a shareholder's holdings in the Company.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12.0 million term facility and the drawn amount of the $7.0 million revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rate and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

Foreign Exchange Rate

The Company may have exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates associated with transactions which are undertaken in currencies other than Canadian dollars. For international transactions in particular, pricing is frequently set out in foreign currency. As a result, the Company may be impacted by changes in exchange rates.

Ability to Establish and Maintain Bank Accounts

While the Company does not anticipate any banking restrictions at this time, there is a risk that banking institutions may not accept payments related to the cannabis industry. Such risks could increase costs for the Company. In the event financial service providers do not accept accounts or transactions related to the cannabis industry, it is possible that the Company will be required to seek alternative payment solutions. If the industry were to move towards alternative payment solutions, the Company would have to adopt policies and protocols to manage its volatility and exchange rate risk exposures. The Company's inability to manage such risks may adversely affect the Company's operations and financial performance.

Cash Flow from Operations

Operating cash flow may be negatively impacted in certain circumstances, many of which are beyond the Company's control. There is no assurance that sufficient revenues will be generated in the near future. In light of current market conditions, the Company will continue to experience negative cash flow until it reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses. An inability to generate positive cash flow until the Company reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses or raise additional capital on reasonable terms may adversely affect the Company's viability as an operating business.

Ability to Achieve or Maintain Profitability and Continue as a Going Concern

The Company has incurred losses in recent periods. The Company may not be able to achieve or maintain profitability and may continue to incur significant losses in the future. In addition, the Company expects to continue to increase operating expenses as it implements initiatives to continue to grow its business. If the Company's revenues do not increase to offset these expected increases in costs and operating expenses, the Company will not be profitable.

The Company has experienced recurring losses and, as of March 31, 2023, has a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million (March 31, 2022 – $493.2 million) and net working capital deficit of $5.4 million (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36.2 million). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material. The Proposed Transaction, along with the related events as described herein under "General Development of the Business – Recent Developments" have the potential to significantly affect the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and strives to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options which could potentially meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, selling non-core assets, issuing Common Shares via a public or private placement equity offering, and new debt financing options.

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under which the Company is considered to be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the ordinary normal course of operations. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern, meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months is dependent upon its ability to:

- generate sufficient revenues and positive cash flow from its operating activities;
- remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date, there can be no assurances whether it will be able to obtain sufficient funds from financing in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations. Certain conditions may cast doubt upon the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern: the Company has a limited commercial operating history, and no recent significant revenues to provide ongoing operating capital; and until sufficient cash flows from operations are generated on a consistent basis, the Company will be reliant on debt and equity financing to sustain operations. The Company's ability to generate sufficient cash flows to maintain normal operations, if unsuccessful, will result in it not being able to continue as a going concern. In view of these conditions, the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its continued ability to obtain financing, generate sufficient cash flows and, ultimately, achieve profitable operations.

Additional Financing and Restrictions

The continued development of the Company may require additional financing. Even if its financial resources are sufficient to fund its current operations, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve its business objectives. The failure to raise additional capital could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of current business objectives or the Company becoming insolvent. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, on terms that are favourable or acceptable to the Company.

In addition, from time to time, the Company may enter into transactions to acquire assets or the shares of other corporations. These transactions may be financed in whole or in part, by debt, which may increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions. Debt financings may also contain provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders or their agents to accelerate repayment of loans and/or realize upon security over the assets of the Company, and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in such an event or prevent the enforcement of security granted pursuant to such debt financing.

If Aleafia Health's internal controls are ineffective, its operating results and market confidence in its reported financial information could be adversely affected.

The Company's internal controls over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements because of its inherent limitations, including the possibility of human error, the circumvention or overriding of controls or fraud. Even effective internal controls can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements. If the Company fails to maintain the adequacy of its internal controls, including any failure to implement required new or improved controls, if it experiences difficulties in their implementation, or if controls are disrupted or compromised as a result of cyber-attacks, its business and operating results and market confidence in its reported financial information could be harmed and it could fail to meet its financial reporting obligations.

Management identified the following material weaknesses based on a reasonable possibility that the Company's internal control framework will fail to prevent or detect a material misstatement:

- IT General Controls: The Company did not maintain effective information technology general controls related to user access, change management, and service organization oversight processes that support the Company's financial reporting processes. This may adversely impact the effectiveness of business process controls that are dependent on these systems.
- Management Review Controls: The Company did not consistently have documented evidence of review procedures and, due to resource limitations, did not always maintain segregation of duties between preparing and reviewing analyses, reconciliations and journal entries.

The Company has implemented measures, including reassigning oversight over the IT function to the Chief Financial Officer, augmenting the finance and accounting team with a new VP of Finance role which will allow for a reassignment of preparation and review activities that currently lack effective segregation of duties and whose key responsibilities include enhancing the internal control environment, engaging a third party independent service provider to assist with enterprise wide IT risk monitoring, implementing enhancements to its accounting system to facilitate more robust data capture and reporting, realigning the entire corporate organizational reporting structure to streamline operations, improve accountability and the segregation of duties, and reviewing and documenting key accounting processes and procedures.

Although remedial measures have been taken, further investment in internal controls measures are necessary, there can be no assurance that such remedial measures when fully enacted will prove effective or that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting will become sufficient to prevent other material weaknesses in the future.

The existence of any material weaknesses in the future may preclude management from concluding that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting are effective and may further preclude its independent auditors from issuing an unqualified opinion that the Company's internal controls are effective. Any material weaknesses could cause investors to lose confidence in the Company's financial reporting and may negatively affect the price of its Common Shares. The Company can make no assurances that it will be able to timely and cost effectively remediate any internal control deficiencies. Moreover, effective internal controls are necessary to produce reliable financial reports. If the Company is unable to satisfactorily remediate any deficiencies or if it discovers other deficiencies in its internal controls over financial reporting, then such deficiencies could lead to misstatements in its financial statements or otherwise negatively impact its financial statements, business, results of operations and reputation.

Joint Venture Vehicles and Strategic Alliances

The Company currently operates parts of its business through joint ventures with other companies, and it may enter into additional joint ventures and strategic alliances in the future. Joint venture investments may involve risks not otherwise present for investments made solely by the Company, including: control, additional expenditures, conflicting interests and exit strategy, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company, its financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the Company may, in certain circumstances, be liable for the actions of its joint venture partners.

The Company's ability to complete and develop strategic alliances is dependent upon, and may be limited by, the availability of suitable candidates and capital. In addition, strategic alliances could present unforeseen regulatory issues, integration obstacles or costs, may not enhance the Company's business, and may involve risks that could adversely affect the Company, including significant amounts of management time that may be diverted from current operations in order to pursue and complete such transactions or maintain such strategic alliances. Future strategic alliances could result in the incurrence of additional debt, costs and contingent liabilities, and there can be no assurance that future strategic alliances will achieve, or that the Company's existing strategic alliances will continue to achieve, the expected benefits to the business or that the Company's will be able to consummate future strategic alliances on satisfactory terms, or at all. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows of the Company.

Wholesale Price of Cannabis Volatility

The Company's revenues are in a large part derived from the production, sale, and distribution of cannabis. The cost of production, sale, and distribution of cannabis is dependent on a number of key inputs and their related costs, including equipment and supplies, labour and raw materials related to the Company's growing operations, as well other overhead costs such as electricity, water, and utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for key inputs could materially impact the Company's financial condition and operating results. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could have a materially adverse impact on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. There is currently no established market price for cannabis and the price of cannabis is affected by numerous factors beyond the Company's control. Any price decline may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and operations.

The Company's operating income may be significantly and adversely affected by a decline in the price of cannabis and will be sensitive to changes in the price of cannabis and the overall condition of the cannabis industry, as the Company's profitability is directly related to the price of cannabis. Any price decline may have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Impact of the Illicit Supply of Cannabis

Despite the legalization of medical and adult-use cannabis in Canada, illegal operations remain. Illegal dispensaries and market participants may be able to:

- offer products with higher concentrations of active ingredients that are either expressly prohibited or impracticable to produce under current Canadian regulations;
- use delivery methods, including certain edibles, concentrates and extract vaporizers, that we are currently prohibited from offering to individuals in Canada;
- use marketing and branding strategies that are restricted under the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations; and
- make claims not permissible under the Cannabis Act and other regulatory regimes.

As these illicit market participants do not comply with the regulations governing the medical and adult-use cannabis industry in Canada, their operations may also have significantly lower costs.

As a result of the competition presented by the illicit market for cannabis, any unwillingness by consumers currently utilizing these unlicensed distribution channels to begin purchasing from Licensed Producers for any reason or any inability or unwillingness of law enforcement authorities to enforce laws prohibiting the unlicensed cultivation and sale of cannabis and cannabis-based products could:

- result in the perpetuation of the illicit market for cannabis;
- adversely affect the Company's market share; and
- adversely impact the public perception of cannabis use and Licensed Producers, all of which could have a materially adverse impact on the Company's business, operations and financial condition.

Vulnerability to Rising Energy Costs

The Company's cannabis growing operations will consume considerable energy, which will make the Company vulnerable to rising energy costs. Accordingly, rising or volatile energy costs may adversely impact the business of the Company and its ability to operate profitably.

Employee Health and Safety Regulations

The Company's operations are subject to laws and regulations concerning employee health and safety and the Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to compliance with such matters. Failure to comply with safety laws and regulations may result in additional costs for corrective measures, penalties or in restrictions on the Company's manufacturing operations. In addition, changes in employee health and safety or other laws, more vigorous enforcement thereof or other unanticipated events could require extensive changes to the Company's operations or give rise to material liabilities, which could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company.

ENVIRONMENTAL RISKS

Environmental Regulations and Risks

The Company's operations are subject to environmental regulation federally and in the municipal and provincial jurisdictions in which it operates. These regulations mandate, among other things, the maintenance of air and water quality standards. They also set forth limitations on the generation, transportation, storage and disposal of waste. Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner which will require increasingly stricter standards and enforcement, increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees. There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulation, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations.

Risks Inherent in an Agricultural Business

The Company will be subject to the general risks inherent in the ownership and operation of the business of planting, growing, harvesting and marketing cannabis, which, as an agricultural product, is subject to the general risks associated with all agricultural products such as disease, insect pests, changes in raw material costs, the risk and uncertainties of planting, growing and harvesting, environmental matters, considerations relating to product quality, grading and branding, changes in laws and other general economic and market conditions.

Weather conditions and climate, which can vary substantially from year to year, may have a significant impact on the size and quality of the harvest of the crops processed and sold by the Company. Such adverse weather patterns could result in more permanent disruptions in the quality and size of the available crop, which could adversely affect the Company's business.

Like other agricultural products, the quality of cannabis grown outdoors is affected by weather and the environment, which can change the quality or size of the harvest. If a weather event is particularly severe, such as a major drought or hurricane, the affected harvest could be destroyed or damaged to an extent that it would be less desirable to the Company's customers, which could result in a reduction in revenues. If such an event is also widespread, it could affect the Company's ability to acquire the quantity of products required by customers. In addition, other items can affect the marketability of cannabis grown outdoors, including, among other things, the presence of non-cannabis related material, genetically modified organisms and excess residues of pesticides, fungicides and herbicides. The Company does not maintain crop insurance due to the excessive costs thereof.

OTHER RISKS

Competition

To date, Health Canada has issued hundreds of Licences to produce, cultivate and/or sell cannabis. As a result, the Company has significant competition from other companies, some of which have longer operating histories and greater financial resources and operating and marketing experience than the Company. Additionally, a large number of companies appear to be applying for production licences, some of which may:

- have significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources;
- be able to devote greater resources to the development, promotion, sale and support of their products and services; and
- have more extensive customer bases and broader customer relationships.

Should the size of the cannabis market increase as projected the demand for products will increase as well, and in order for the Company to be competitive it will need to invest significantly in research and development, marketing, production expansion, new client identification, and client support. If the Company is not successful in attaining sufficient resources to invest in these areas, the Company's ability to compete in the market may be adversely affected, which could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, its financial conditions and operations.

In addition, the legal landscape for medical and adult-use cannabis is changing internationally. More countries have passed laws that allow for the production and distribution of medical cannabis in some form or another, and some of these countries may pass laws allowing for the production and distribution of adult-use cannabis as well. Increased international competition could materially adversely affect the Company's business, operations, or growth prospects.

Unfavourable Publicity or Consumer Perceptions

The Company believes the cannabis industry is highly dependent upon consumer perception regarding the safety, efficacy and quality of cannabis. Consumer perception of the Company's products can be significantly influenced by scientific research or findings, regulatory investigations, litigation, media attention and other publicity regarding the consumption of cannabis products. There can be no assurance that future scientific research, findings, regulatory proceedings, litigation, media attention or publicity will be favourable to the medical or recreational cannabis market or any particular product, or consistent with earlier publicity. Future research reports, findings, regulatory proceedings, litigation, media attention or other publicity that are perceived as less favourable than, or that question, earlier research reports, findings or publicity could have a material adverse effect on the demand for the Company's products and the business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows of the Company.

Adverse publicity reports or other media attention regarding the safety, efficacy and quality of cannabis in general, or the Company's products specifically, or associating the consumption of cannabis with illness or other negative effects or events, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Such adverse publicity reports or other media attention could arise even if the adverse effects associated with such products resulted from consumers' failure to consume such products appropriately or as directed.

New Industry and Market

The Company's business as a Licensed Producer represents a relatively new industry and nascent market. In addition to being subject to general business risks and to risks inherent in the nature of an early stage business, a business involving an agricultural product and a regulated consumer product, the Company will need to build brand awareness in the new industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance, and compliance with regulations, especially against competitors who have already spent some time building their brands. These activities may not promote the Company's brand and products as effectively as intended, or at all.

This new market and industry into which management is entering will have competitive conditions, consumer tastes, patient requirements and unique circumstances, and spending patterns that differ from existing markets. There are no assurances that this new industry and market will exist or grow as estimated or anticipated, or function and evolve in a manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that affects this new market and industry may materially and adversely affect the business, financial conditions and results of operations of the Company.

Product Liability

As a manufacturer and distributor of products designed to be ingested by humans, the Company faces an inherent risk of exposure to product liability claims, regulatory action and litigation if its products are alleged to have caused significant loss or injury. In addition, the sale of the Company's products involves the risk of injury to consumers due to tampering by unauthorized third parties or product contamination.

Previously unknown adverse reactions resulting from human consumption of the Company's products alone or in combination with other medications or substances could occur. The Company may be subject to various product liability claims, including, among others, that the Company's products caused injury or illness, include inadequate instructions for use or include inadequate warnings concerning possible side effects or interactions with other substances.

A product liability claim or regulatory action against the Company could result in increased costs, could adversely affect the Company's reputation with its clients and consumers generally, and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition of the Company. There can be no assurances that the Company will be able to obtain or maintain product liability insurance on acceptable terms or with adequate coverage against potential liabilities. Such insurance is expensive and may not be available in the future on acceptable terms, or at all. The inability to obtain sufficient insurance coverage on reasonable terms or to otherwise protect against potential product liability claims could prevent or inhibit the commercialization of the Company's potential products.

Product Recalls

Manufacturers and distributors of products are sometimes subject to the recall or return of their products for a variety of reasons, including product defects, such as contamination, unintended harmful side effects or interactions with other substances, packaging safety and inadequate or inaccurate labelling disclosure. If any of the Company's products are recalled due to an alleged product defect or for any other reason, the Company could be required to incur the unexpected expense of the recall and any legal proceedings that might arise in connection with the recall. The Company may lose a significant amount of sales and may not be able to replace those sales at an acceptable margin or at all. In addition, a product recall may require significant management attention.

Although the Company has detailed procedures in place for testing its products, there can be no assurance that any quality, potency or contamination problems will be detected in time to avoid unforeseen product recalls, regulatory action or lawsuits. Additionally, if the Company is subject to a recall, the reputation of the Company could be harmed. A recall for any of the foregoing reasons could lead to decreased demand for the Company's products and could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of the Company. Additionally, product recalls may lead to increased scrutiny of the Company's operations by regulatory agencies, requiring further management attention, potential loss of applicable Licences and potential legal fees and other expenses.

Long-Term Health Impacts Associated with Use of Cannabis and Cannabis Derivative Products

There is little in the way of longitudinal studies on the short-term and long-term effects of cannabis use on human health, whether for adult-use or medicinal purposes. As such, there are inherent risks associated with using the Company's cannabis and cannabis derivative products. Previously unknown or unforeseeable adverse reactions arising from human consumption of cannabis products may occur and consumers should consume cannabis at their own risk or in accordance with the direction of a health care practitioner.

Limited Standardized Research on the Effect of Cannabis

To date, there is limited standardization in the research of the effects of cannabis, and future clinical research studies may lead to conclusions that dispute or conflict with the Company's understanding and belief regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing and social acceptance of cannabis. Research in Canada and internationally regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy and dosing of cannabis or isolated cannabinoids (such as CBD and THC) remains in relatively early stages. Future research and clinical trials may draw opposing conclusions to statements in this AIF or could reach different or negative conclusions regarding the medical benefits, viability, safety, efficacy, dosing or other facts and perceptions related to cannabis, which could adversely affect social acceptance of cannabis and the demand for the Company's products.

Managing Growth

The Company may be subject to growth-related risks including capacity constraints and pressure on its internal systems and controls. The ability of the Company to manage growth effectively will require it to continue to implement and improve its operational and financial systems and to expand, train and manage its employee base. The inability of the Company to deal with this growth may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In order to manage growth and changes in strategy effectively, the Company must

- maintain adequate systems to meet customer demand;
- expand sales and marketing, distribution capabilities and administrative functions; and
- attract and retain qualified employees, including in respect of its management team.

While it intends to focus on managing its costs and expenses over the long term, the Company expects to invest to support its growth and may have additional unexpected costs. It may not be able to expand quickly enough to exploit potential market opportunities. The Company could also fail to successfully integrate acquired entities into the business of the Company.

Fraudulent or Illegal Activities by Employees, Contractors or Consultants

The Company's employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct that violates:

- government regulations;
- manufacturing standards;
- federal and provincial healthcare fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or
- laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data.

It is not always possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against the Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on the Company's business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, and curtailment of the Company's operations, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Insurance Coverage

The Company has insurance to protect its assets, operations, directors and employees. While the Company maintains customary insurance coverage, such insurance is subject to coverage limits and exclusions and may not be available for all the risks and hazards to which the Company is exposed. In particular, the Company does not maintain crop insurance.

In addition, no assurance can be given that such insurance will be adequate to cover the Company's liabilities or will be generally available in the future or, if available, that premiums will be commercially justifiable. If the Company were to incur substantial liability and such damages were not covered by insurance or were in excess of policy limits, or if the Company were to incur such liability at a time when it is not able to obtain liability insurance, the business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

Litigation

The Company may become party to litigation from time to time in the ordinary course, which could adversely affect its business. Should any litigation in which the Company becomes involved be determined against the Company, such a decision could adversely affect the Company's ability to continue operating and the value of the Common Shares and require the Company to devote significant resources to such matters. Even if the Company is involved in litigation and wins, litigation may redirect many of the Company's resources, including the time and attention of management and available working capital. Litigation may also create a negative perception of the Company's brands.

Conflicts of Interest

Certain directors and officers of the Company hold, and may in future hold, interests in other companies involved in the same or similar businesses to the Company and as such may, in certain circumstances, have a conflict of interest, which could be adverse to the Company and, whether the conflict of interest is real or perceived, put the reputation of the Company at risk.

Conflicts of interest, if any, which arise will be subject to and governed by procedures prescribed by the Company's governing corporate law statute which requires a director of a Company who is a party to, or is a director or an officer of, or has some material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or proposed material contract with the Company to disclose his or her interest and, in the case of directors, to refrain from voting on any matter in respect of such contract unless otherwise permitted under applicable law.

Information Technology Systems and Cyber-Attacks

The Company has entered into agreements with third parties for hardware, software, telecommunications and other IT services in connection with its operations. The Company's operations depend, in part, on how well it and its suppliers protect networks, equipment, IT systems and software against damage from a number of threats, including, but not limited to, cable cuts, damage to physical plants, natural disasters, intentional damage and destruction, fire, power loss, hacking, computer viruses, vandalism and theft. The Company's operations also depend on the timely maintenance, upgrade and replacement of networks, equipment, IT systems and software, as well as pre-emptive expenses to mitigate the risks of failures. Any of these and other events could result in information system failures, delays and/or increase in capital expenses. The failure of information systems or a component of information systems could, depending on the nature of any such failure, adversely impact the Company's reputation and results of operations.

The Company has not experienced any material losses to date relating to cyber-attacks or other information security breaches, but there can be no assurance that the Company will not incur such losses in the future. The Company's risk and exposure to these matters cannot be fully mitigated because of, among other things, the evolving nature of these threats. As cyber threats continue to evolve, the Company may be required to expend additional resources to continue to modify or enhance protective measures or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities.

Privacy

The Company may experience breaches of security at our facilities or in respect of electronic documents and data storage and may face risks related to breaches of applicable privacy laws. Given the nature of the Company's products and its lack of legal availability outside of channels approved by the Government of Canada, as well as the concentration of inventory in the Company's facilities, despite meeting or exceeding Health Canada's security requirements, there remains a risk of shrinkage as well as theft. A security breach at one of the facilities could expose the Company to additional liability, potentially costly litigation, increased expenses relating to the resolution and future prevention of these breaches and may deter potential customers from choosing the Company's products. In addition, the Company collects and stores personal information about customers and is responsible for protecting that information from privacy breaches. A privacy breach may occur through procedural or process failure, information technology malfunction, or deliberate unauthorized intrusions. Data theft for competitive purposes, particularly patient lists and preferences, is an ongoing risk whether perpetrated via employee collusion or negligence, or through a deliberate cyber-attack. Any such theft or privacy breach would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, there are several federal and provincial laws protecting the confidentiality of certain patient health information, including patient records, and restricting the use and disclosure of that protected information. In particular, the privacy rules under the Personal Information Protection and Electronics Documents Act (Canada) ("PIPEDA"), protect medical records and other personal health information by limiting their use and disclosure of health information to the minimum level reasonably necessary to accomplish the intended purpose. If the Company were found to be in violation of the privacy or security rules under PIPEDA or other laws protecting the confidentiality of patient health information, the Company could be subject to sanctions and civil or criminal penalties, which could increase the Company's liabilities, harm the Company's reputation, and have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and operations.

U.S. Border Crossing

Cannabis remains illegal under U.S. federal law and those employed at or investing in legal and licensed Canadian cannabis companies could face detention, denial of entry or lifetime bans from the U.S. for their business associations with cannabis businesses. Entry happens at the sole discretion of the U.S. customs and border protection officers, who have wide latitude to ask questions to determine the admissibility of a foreign national.

The Government of Canada has warned travelers on its website that previous use of cannabis, or any substance prohibited by U.S. federal laws, could mean denial of entry to the U.S. Canadian travelers attempting to enter the U.S. for reasons related to the cannabis industry may be deemed inadmissible, and business or financial involvement in the legal cannabis industry in Canada or in the U.S. could be sufficient cause for US Customs Officers to deny entry.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Aleafia Health has never paid dividends on its Common Shares and has no present intention to pay dividends. Any decision to pay dividends will be made by Aleafia Health's board of directors in its sole discretion, and will depend on numerous factors including profitability, fluctuations in working capital, the sustainability of margins, capital expenditures and other conditions existing at such future time.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The authorized share capital of Aleafia Health consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares. As at the close of business on March 31, 2023 a total of 403,143,92 Common Shares were issued and outstanding. Each Common Share carries the right to one vote at all meetings of shareholders. There are no special rights or restrictions of any nature attached to the Common Shares. Each Common Share participates ratably in any dividend declared by the directors and carries the right to receive a proportionate share of the assets of Aleafia Health available for distribution to holders of Common Shares in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Aleafia Health.

CEASE TRADE ORDERS, BANKRUPTCIES, PENALTIES OR SANCTIONS

Cease Trade Orders, Bankruptcies

To the knowledge of Aleafia Health, no director or executive officer of Aleafia Health or personal holding company of any of them, is, as of the date of this AIF or was within 10 years before the date of this AIF, a director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer of any company (including Aleafia Health) that:

- was subject to a cease trade or similar order, or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days (an “order”) that was issued while the director or executive officer was acting in the capacity as director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer; or
- was subject to an order that was issued after the director or executive officer ceased to be a director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer and which resulted from an event that occurred while that person was acting in the capacity as director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer.

To the knowledge of Aleafia Health, no director or executive officer of Aleafia Health, or shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of Aleafia Health to affect materially the control of Aleafia Health, or personal holding company of any of them, is, at the date of this AIF, or has been within the 10 years before the date of this AIF, a director or executive officer of any company (including Aleafia Health) that, while that person was acting in that capacity, or within a year of that person ceasing to act in that capacity, became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets.

Penalties or Sanctions

To the knowledge of Aleafia Health, no director or executive officer of Aleafia Health, or shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of Aleafia Health to affect materially the control of Aleafia Health, or personal holding company of any of them, has been subject to:

- any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to securities legislation or by a securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with a securities regulatory authority; or
- any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would be likely be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision.

Personal Bankruptcies

To the knowledge of Aleafia Health, no director, or executive officer of Aleafia Health or shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of Aleafia Health to affect materially the control of Aleafia Health, or a personal holding company of any of them, has, within the ten years before the date of this AIF, become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or become subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement, or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of that person.

Conflicts of Interest

Aleafia Health's directors and officers are required by law to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of Aleafia Health and to disclose any conflicts of interest which they may have. If a conflict of interest arises, a director or officer must disclose his or her interest and a director must not attend any part of a meeting of directors during which the matter is discussed and must not vote on any resolution approving such matter.

To the knowledge of Aleafia Health, and other than as disclosed in this AIF, there are no known existing or potential material conflicts of interest between Aleafia Health, a subsidiary of Aleafia Health, and any director or officer of Aleafia Health or of a subsidiary of Aleafia Health, except that certain of the directors and officers serve as directors and officers of other companies, and therefore it is possible that a conflict may arise between their duties to Aleafia Health and their duties as a director or officer of such other companies.

In April of 2023, Mr. Galasso and Mr. Sistilli voluntarily recused themselves from discussions concerning the Potential Transaction involving RWB. Mr. Galasso is a Partner and the Chief Financial Officer at the Zzen Group of Companies, an affiliate of which, RGR, is the senior secured lender to RWB and also an unsecured lender to Aleafia. Mr. Sistilli is employed by the owner of a private entity with an interest in the Credit Facility provided to Aleafia by 1260356 Ontario Limited.

AUDIT COMMITTEE AND RELATED INFORMATION

The following information is provided in accordance with Form 52-110F1 under the Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 52-110 – Audit Committees (“NI 52-110”).

Audit Committee Charter

The Audit Committee Charter (the “Charter”) is attached as Schedule “A” to this AIF. The Charter was updated effective June 27, 2022.

Composition of the Audit Committee

The audit committee (the “Audit Committee”) is currently composed of the following three directors: Lu Galasso, David Pasioka and Carlo Sistilli. Each director was and is considered “independent” and “financially literate” (as such terms are defined in NI 52-110).

Relevant Education and Experience

Each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate, i.e., has the ability to read and understand financial statements. Collectively, the Audit Committee has the education and experience to fulfill the responsibilities outlined in the Charter. The following is a description of the education and experience of each member of the Audit Committee that is, in addition to such member’s general business experience, relevant to the performance of his or her responsibilities as a member of the Audit Committee.

Lu Galasso, Audit Committee Chair

Lu Galasso is a Chartered Professional Accountant, CA, CPA and holds the Institute of Corporate Directors ICD.D designation. He is a Partner with the Zzen Group of Companies, a company in the real estate and manufacturing sectors, where he is the CFO and head of strategic developments for the manufacturing operations.

Lu is Chair of the Board of Directors for Titanium Transportation Group, a trucking and logistics business listed on the TSX. He is also the President of the Board of Directors of the Meta Foundation, a member of the Board for the St. Christopher Children’s Home, and a member of the Dean’s Advisory Board for the Faculty of Management at Laurentian University.

David Pasioka, Audit Committee Member

David Pasioka is a seasoned public and private company executive and director with extensive board level experience in finance & audit, Human resources, risk management, and ESG. Mr. Pasioka was a long-standing c-suite executive at Algonquin Power & Utilities, overseeing its growth into a global energy leader and member of the S&P/TSX 60 Index Canada’s largest companies. Mr Pasioka retired from Algonquin in January 2020 and is now the managing partner of his Advisory company Cedarvue. He also served as entrepreneur in residence at the MaRS Discovery District, North America’s largest innovation hub supporting the growth of over 1,400 Canadian startups. He holds an MBA from York University along with a Chartered Director designation.

Carlo Sistilli, Audit Committee Member

Mr. Sistilli is a Chartered Professional Accountant and a Certified Management Accountant, CPA, CMA. As Chief Financial Officer and member of the Senior Management team of Arista Homes, Carlo plays a key role in overall operations including evaluation of mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to Arista, Carlo co-founded and served as CFO, member of the M&A team and member of the Board of Directors of an Internet start-up company, playing a key role in taking the company public on the Alberta Ventures Exchange. Carlo is the Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chair of the Audit Committee of Edesa Biotech, Inc., a company listed on NASDAQ. Mr. Sistilli is an officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Mother of Mercy Centre, a charity operating in Ontario.

Audit Committee Oversight

At no time since the commencement of Aleafia Health’s most recently completed financial year was a recommendation of the Audit Committee to nominate or compensate an external auditor not adopted by the Board.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

To date, the Board has not adopted specific policies and procedures for the engagement of non-audit services.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AND REGULATORY ACTIONS

Dispute with A. Tayts

Certain of Emblem Corp.’s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10 million in damages. The claim is being contested and the action is proceeding to mediation in the fall. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

Class-action lawsuit

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500 million (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company’s exposure to these claims to be material.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company may be involved in and potentially subject to legal proceedings.

The proceedings may involve suppliers, customers, regulators, tax authorities or other persons. The potential outcome of legal proceedings and claims may be uncertain and could result in a material adverse effect on the Company's reputation, operations or financial condition or performance. As of the date of this AIF, the Company is not aware of: (a) any legal proceedings to which the Company is a party, or to which any of the Company's property is subject, which are likely to have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial conditions of the Company or of any such proceedings being contemplated, (b) any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to securities legislation, or other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body against the Company that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor making an investment decision, and (c) any settlement agreements that the Company has entered into before a court relating to securities legislation or with a securities regulatory authority.

CEWS Matter

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”) with respect to Emblem's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (“CEWS”) for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem and has proposed a claw back in the amount of $3,200 related to the CEWS funds provided to the Company. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings and intends to file a Notice of Objection. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received CEWS funds. At this time, it is not possible to make a reasonable and reliable estimate of the likelihood of the outcome of the dispute. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

INTEREST OF MANAGEMENT & OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Other than as disclosed in this AIF, no director or executive officer of Aleafia Health, any other insider of Aleafia Health or any associate or affiliate of any of such individuals or companies has or has had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction within the three most recently completed financial years or during the current financial year that has materially affected or is reasonably expected to materially affect the Company.

SCHEDULE “A”: AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

As approved by the Board of Directors on June 27, 2022.

Article 1 – Purpose and Scope

1.1 Functions of the Audit Committee

The primary functions of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the “Board”) are to exercise the responsibilities and duties set forth below, including but not limited to:

- (a) assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities by reviewing:
 - (i) the financial reports prepared by management of the Corporation for filing with the Canadian and U.S. securities regulatory authorities, including the Ontario Securities Commission and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, any stock exchange and any other governmental or regulatory authority exercising authority over the Corporation (each a “Regulatory Authority”);
 - (ii) the Corporation’s financial statements, management’s discussion and analysis of the Corporation’s financial condition and results of operations (the “MD&A”), and annual and interim profit or loss press releases before the Corporation discloses the information to the Corporation’s shareholders and to the general public; and
 - (iii) the Corporation’s internal financial and accounting controls established by management of the Corporation;
- (b) recommend to the Board the external auditor to be nominated for appointment by the shareholders of the Corporation for the purpose of preparing or issuing an auditor’s report;
- (c) recommend to the Board the external auditor performing other audit, review or attest services for the issuer;
- (d) recommend to the Board the compensation of the external auditor to be fixed by the Board as authorized by the Shareholders of the Corporation;
- (e) oversee the work performed by any independent external audit firm, including its conduct of the annual audit and engagement for any other services, as well as review the qualifications and independence of such auditor;
- (f) oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Corporation as established by the Corporation’s management;
- (g) recommend, establish and monitor procedures, including without limitation those relating to financial reporting risk management and those designed to improve the quality and reliability of the disclosure of the Corporation’s financial condition and results of operations,
- (h) without limiting Section 1.12.1(g), establish and monitor procedures designed to facilitate:

- (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints relating to accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and
 - (ii) the receipt of confidential or anonymous submissions by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters,
- (i) assist the Board with respect to the Corporation's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements relating to the Committee's mandate under this Charter;
 - (j) engage advisors as necessary, and
 - (k) determine the relevant funding required by the Corporation for the payment of the independent audit firm, any advisors engaged by the Committee and ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee.

Article 2 – Composition and Meetings

2.1 Composition

- (a) The Committee shall be comprised of a minimum of three directors of the Board as appointed by the Board, each of whom:
 - (i) meets the applicable independence and/or audit committee composition requirements set forth in:
 - (A) National Instrument 52-110 — Audit Committees of the Canadian Securities Administrators;
 - (B) Section 10A-3 of, and Rule 10A-3(b)(1) under, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “U.S. Exchange Act”),
 - (C) the NASDAQ Listing Standards, the TSX-V or TSX Company Manual, as applicable, or the rules of any other applicable stock exchange;
 - (D) the Business Corporations Act (Ontario); and
 - (E) any other applicable rule, policy or law of any Regulatory Authority, as in effect from time to time (collectively, the “Applicable Requirements”); and
 - (ii) has not participated in the preparation or audit of financial statements of the Corporation or any current subsidiary of the Corporation at any time during the past three years.
- (b) All members of the Committee shall be “financially literate”, which is defined as having a basic understanding of finance and accounting and having the ability to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a balance sheet, cash flow statement and income statement, that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Corporation's financial statements.

- (c) At least one member of the Committee shall have employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. Further, at least one member of the Committee shall qualify as an "audit committee financial expert" (as such term is defined in paragraph 8(b) of General Instruction B of Form 40-F under the U.S. Exchange Act).
- (d) The Committee shall ensure that all necessary and proper disclosures shall be made in all applicable filings with the Regulatory Authorities as to composition of the Committee.
- (e) Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in education programs conducted by the Corporation or an outside consultant at the Corporation's expense. Independence and financial literacy are to be determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations of the Regulatory Authorities.

2.2 Appointment

- (a) The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board at the meeting of the Board following each annual meeting of shareholders and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal.
- (b) The Board may fill a vacancy in the membership of the Committee and remove a member of the Committee at any time for any reason.
- (c) Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. In the absence of the Chair at a duly convened meeting, the Committee shall select a temporary substitute from among its members.

2.3 Meetings

- (a) The Committee shall meet on a regularly-scheduled basis at least four times per year or more frequently as circumstances dictate.
- (b) At the invitation of the Committee, members of the Corporation's management, senior personnel of the Corporation's internal audit function and others may attend Committee meetings as the Committee considers necessary or desirable.
- (c) Representatives of the Corporation's independent external audit firm are entitled to attend and be heard at each Committee meeting.
- (d) The Committee shall hold executive sessions without management present at each Committee meeting.
- (e) All independent directors may attend Committee meetings, provided that directors who are not members of the Committee shall not be entitled to vote, nor shall their attendance be counted as part of the quorum of the Committee.

- (f) The Chair of the Committee or any member of the Committee may call a meeting by notifying the members of the Committee. Ordinarily, meetings of the Committee should be convened with no less than 48 hours' notice having been given. The requirement for notice to a Committee member can be waived in writing by that Committee member or with the consent of no less than the number of Committee members that constitutes a quorum of the Committee, whether before or after such notice is required. Attendance by a Committee member constitutes waiver of notice to such Committee member of such meeting.
- (g) The Committee shall report its actions to the members of the Board and the Corporate Secretary of the Corporation and keep written minutes of its meetings which shall be recorded and filed with the books and records of the Corporation. Minutes of each meeting will be made available to the members of the Board and the Secretary of the Corporation.

2.4 Quorum

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Committee, but in no case shall a quorum be comprised of less than two members of the Committee, and the action of a majority of those present, after determining a quorum, shall be the act of the Committee.

Article 3 - Responsibilities and Duties

2.1 Document Review

- (a) The Committee shall review and assess the adequacy of this Charter periodically as conditions dictate, but at least annually, and recommend changes to the Board for its approval, if and when appropriate.
- (b) The Committee shall review the Corporation's audited annual financial statements, the auditors' report thereon and the related financial disclosures, including the MD&A, prior to their filing with any Regulatory Authority, including:
 - (i) the audit reports of the Corporation's financial statements and management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting, any memorandum prepared by the Corporation's independent external audit firm with respect to assessment of internal controls over financial reporting, any other pertinent reports and management's responses concerning any such memorandum;
 - (ii) the qualitative judgments of the independent external audit firm about the appropriateness of accounting principles and financial disclosure practices used or proposed to be adopted by the Corporation;
 - (iii) the selection, application, and appropriateness of the Corporation's critical accounting policies, matters of significant judgment, and/or significant unusual transactions;
 - (iv) the development of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus;
 - (v) management's process for formulating sensitive accounting estimates and the reasonableness of these estimates;

- (vi) significant recorded and unrecorded audit adjustments;
- (vii) any material accounting issues among management and the independent external audit firm; and
- (viii) other matters required to be communicated to the Committee under applicable auditing standards by independent auditors.

After such review, the Committee shall recommend to the Board whether such audited annual financial statements and related MD&A should be filed with the applicable Regulatory Authorities.

- (c) The Committee shall review the Corporation's quarterly financial statements and the related MD&A. After such review, the Committee shall recommend to the Board whether such financial statements and related MD&A should be filed with the applicable Regulatory Authorities. If any Regulatory Authority requires that the independent external audit firm review the Corporation's interim financial statements prior to their filing with the Regulatory Authority, the Committee shall take steps designed to ensure that such review has been completed.
- (d) The Committee shall review any other financial reports and filings as may be deemed appropriate by the Committee or required by any other Regulatory Authority (including financial disclosure in a registration statement, prospectus or other securities offering document of the Corporation, press releases disclosing, or based upon, financial results of the Corporation including earnings releases and any other material financial disclosure, including financial guidance provided to analysts, rating agencies or otherwise publicly disseminated) and shall recommend to the Board whether such other financial reports or filings should be included in any external filing.
- (e) The Committee shall review any forward-looking financial information prepared by management of the Corporation that is proposed to be publicly disseminated.

3.2 Independent Audit Firm

- (a) Subject to the approval of the Board and the shareholders of the Corporation as may be required under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario), the Committee shall have the sole authority and direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any independent external audit firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an external audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Corporation, and each such independent audit firm must report directly to the Committee. The authority of the Committee shall include ultimate authority to approve all audit engagement fees and terms.
- (b) The Committee shall approve in advance any and all audit services and permissible non-audit services to be performed by the independent external audit firm in accordance with Applicable Requirements (as defined below) and adopt and implement policies for such pre-approval.
- (c) The Committee shall determine funding necessary for compensation of any independent external audit firm and notify the Corporation of anticipated funding needs of the Committee.

- (d) The Committee shall instruct the independent external audit firm that it should report directly to the Committee on matters pertaining to the work performed during its engagement and on matters required by the Applicable Requirements and shall resolve any disagreements between management and the independent external audit firm as to financial reporting matters
- (e) On at least an annual basis, the Committee shall receive from the independent external audit firm a formal written statement identifying all relationships between the independent external audit firm and the Corporation consistent with the applicable requirements of the Public Corporation Accounting Oversight Board (the “PCAOB”), the Canadian Auditing and Assurance Standards Board and/or the applicable Rules of Professional Conduct/Code of Ethics adopted by the order of chartered accountants to which it belongs and the Applicable Requirements. The Committee shall actively engage in a dialogue with the independent external audit firm as to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact its objectivity and independence and take any other action considered appropriate to satisfy the Committee of the independence of the independent external audit firm. The Committee shall establish policies for ensuring receipt from the independent external audit firm of a formal written statement of independence prior to engagement, and then on at least an annual basis, and take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the independent external audit firm.
- (f) On an annual basis, the Committee shall discuss with representatives of the independent external audit firm the matters required to be discussed by PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 16 Communications with Audit Committee, as it may be modified or supplemented, or any other applicable standards of the PCAOB.
- (g) The Committee shall evaluate the qualifications and performance of the independent external audit firm and shall, at least annually, review the qualifications and performance of the lead partner(s) of the independent external audit firm.
- (h) The Committee shall obtain a report from the independent external audit firm annually verifying that the lead partner has served in that capacity for no more than five fiscal years of the Corporation and that the engagement team collectively possesses the experience and competence to perform an appropriate audit.
- (i) The Committee shall review and approve policies for the Corporation’s hiring of partners and employees or former partners and employees of the independent audit firm.
- (j) When a change of independent external audit firm is proposed, the Committee shall review all issues related to the change, including the information required to be disclosed by any Regulatory Authority.
- (k) The Committee shall review all reportable events, including disagreements, unresolved issues and consultations with the Corporation’s independent external audit firm, whether or not there is to be a change of independent audit firm, and receive and review all reports prepared by the independent audit firm.

3.3 Financial Reporting Processes

- (a) In consultation with the Corporation's management and the independent external audit firm, the Committee shall review annually the adequacy of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and consider, in particular:
 - (i) the effectiveness of, or weakness or deficiencies in: the design or operation of the Corporation's internal controls (including computerized information system controls and security), the overall control environment for managing business risks, and accounting, financial and disclosure controls (including, without limitation, controls over financial reporting), non-financial controls, and legal and regulatory controls and the impact of any identified weaknesses in internal controls on management's conclusions;
 - (ii) any significant changes in internal control over financial reporting that are disclosed, or considered for disclosure, including those in the Corporation's periodic regulatory filings;
 - (iii) any issues raised by any inquiry or investigation by any Regulatory Authority;
 - (iv) the Corporation's fraud prevention and detection program, including deficiencies in internal controls that may impact the integrity of financial information, or may expose the Corporation to other significant internal or external fraud losses and the extent of those losses and any disciplinary action in respect of fraud taken against management or other senior employees who have a significant role in financial reporting; and
 - (v) any related significant issues and recommendations of the independent external audit firm together with management's responses thereto, including the timetable for implementation of recommendations to correct weaknesses in internal controls over financial reporting and disclosure controls.
- (b) The Committee shall require the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer to submit a report to the Committee prior to the filing of the Corporation's annual audited financial statements and quarterly unaudited interim financial statements, which is based on their evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, and which discloses:
 - (i) any and all significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design and operation of the internal controls over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Corporation's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data;
 - (ii) any significant changes in internal control over financial reporting; and
 - (iii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting,

- (c) The Committee shall direct the actions to be taken and/or make recommendations to the Board of actions to be taken, to the extent such report indicates the finding of any significant deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting or fraud.
- (d) In consultation with the Corporate Secretary, the General Counsel or other management members as appropriate, the Committee shall review legal compliance matters that may have a material impact on the Corporation, the effectiveness of the Corporation's compliance policies, and any material communications from regulators, as well as management's plans to remediate any deficiencies identified.
- (e) The Committee shall:
 - (i) regularly review the Corporation's critical accounting policies and accounting estimates resulting from the application of these policies;
 - (ii) inquire at least annually of both the Corporation's management and the independent external audit firm as to whether each has any concerns relative to the quality or aggressiveness of management's accounting policies;
 - (iii) review with the independent external audit firm alternative accounting treatments that have been discussed with management;
 - (iv) review with management any significant changes in IFRS as issued by the IASB, as well as emerging accounting and auditing issues, and their potential effects; and
 - (v) review with management matters that may have a material effect on the financial statements.

3.4 Compliance

- a) The Committee shall establish procedures in compliance with applicable law for:
 - (i) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Corporation regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and
 - (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Corporation of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
- b) The Committee shall investigate any allegations that any officer or director of the Corporation, or any other person acting under the direction of any such person, took any action to fraudulently influence, coerce, manipulate, or mislead any firm (including the Corporation's independent external audit firm) engaged in the performance of an audit of the financial statements of the Corporation for the purpose of rendering such financial statements materially misleading and, if such allegations prove to be correct, take or recommend to the Board of Directors appropriate disciplinary action.

3.5 Reporting

The Committee shall advise the Corporation's management of the need to disclose in its filings with Regulatory Authorities the approval by the Committee of any non-audit services performed by the independent external audit firm and review the substance of any such disclosure and the considerations relating to the compatibility of such services with maintaining the independence of the independent external audit firm.

3.6 Conflicts of Interest

The Committee shall review the Corporation's policies relating to the avoidance of conflicts of interest and review and approve all payments to be made pursuant to any related party transactions involving executive officers and members of the Board, as required by any Regulatory Authority. The Committee shall consider the results of any review of these policies and procedures by the Corporation's independent external audit firm.

3.7 Access to Management and Independent Advice

- a) The Committee shall have unrestricted access to the Corporation's management and employees and the books and records of the Corporation and, from time to time may hold unscheduled or regularly scheduled meetings or portions of meetings in executive session or otherwise with the Corporation's independent external audit firm, the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Executive Officer or the Corporate Secretary.
- b) The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities and duties as described above, and may seek, retain and terminate accounting, legal, consulting or other expert advice from a source independent of management, at the expense of the Corporation, with notice to either the Chair of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, as deemed appropriate by the Committee. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any such consultant or advisor to be used to assist in the evaluation of such matters and shall have the sole authority to approve the consultant or advisor's fees and other retention terms.

3.8 Duty of the Committee

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits, to establish the Corporation's accounting and financial reporting systems, or to determine that the Corporation's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Article 4 – No Rights Created

This Charter is a broad policy statement and is intended to be part of the Board's flexible governance framework. While this Charter should comply with all Applicable Requirements and the Corporation's constating documents, including articles and by-laws, this Charter does not create any legally binding obligations on the Board, the Committee or any other committee of the Board or any director or the Corporation.

This is Exhibit "D" referred to in the Affidavit of Patricia Symmes-Rizakos
sworn before me at Toronto, Ontario, this 24th day of July, 2023.

Due to the change in the Company's fiscal year from December 31, 2021 to March 31, 2022, the prior fiscal year represents a 15 month period. Accordingly, the Company has added the 12 month ended March 31, 2022 as the comparative year for discussion purposes.

See the non-IFRS Measures section for further discussion on Adjusted SG&A and Adjusted EBITDA.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

Corporate Strategy

The Company sells its products primarily through three core sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. Together, the adult-use, medical and international sales channels are referred to as our branded cannabis product portfolio.

Prior to 2021, the bulk wholesale market was the primary sales channel for the Company where it sold bulk flower, oils, distillate, isolate and other cannabis input materials. With the launch of the Company's adult-use Sunday Market House of Brands in Q1 of 2021, and the improved potency and quality of the Company's outdoor harvest from Port Perry, it is now able to utilize that flower feedstock to support its own branded cannabis products. The Company utilizes its outdoor Port Perry cultivation to supply its pre-roll and milled product offerings and utilizes strategic third-party growers to supply its dried flower product offerings and blend with its own flower feedstock to support its pre-roll and milled product offerings. The Company tactically will sell through the bulk wholesale sales channel where it has excess product or product not suitable for its other sales channels, to maximize net realizable margin from its cultivation sites.

Within the branded cannabis products portfolio, the adult-use sales channel is the largest vertical. For the year ended March 31, 2023, the adult-use revenue increased +24% and net revenue increased 13% over the prior year. The main product categories include pre-roll, milled, dried flower, and vapes in addition to a suite of derivative products. These four product categories account for the largest percentage of total net revenue.

The medical sales channel represents a stable, but higher margin revenue stream, driven by the recurring ordering patterns of our active patient base, referrals from third-party clinics and demand from other medical marketplaces for our branded products. For the year ended March 31, 2023, the medical net revenue increased +7% over the prior year. The majority of sales are cannabis derivative products which generally deliver a higher margin than flower format products, and sales also include medical clinic related revenue. We continue to drive increased patient engagement to improve ordering frequency, basket size and lifetime revenue.

The international sales channel is our most recently added sales channel, highest margin revenue stream, and fastest scaling vertical. For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, the international net revenue increased +318% over the prior year. We continue to seek out new international partnerships to build that sales pipeline. Most recently in January 2023, the Company signed a $1.0 million sales opportunity with a new European partner. This strategic partnership unlocks a new gateway into the growing European medical and burgeoning legalized adult-use market. The international sales are a combination of bulk flower and oils and capsules which are exported into international jurisdictions, delivering the highest sales growth rate and net realizable margin per gram of equivalent flower sold. Germany represents our largest international end-market, and with continued progression towards full legalization of recreational cannabis and two sales commitments representing $5.6 million in total sales, this is anticipated to continue to be the largest international sales channel.

The below charts illustrate the transformation in the business over the last three years, whereby the Company developed, built, and launched its own branded cannabis products to compete in the adult-use sales channel, established international partnerships and customers, and deepened its presence in the Canadian medical market. The international sales channel has expanded from representing 1% of total net revenue in the twelve months ended March 31, 2021, to now representing 5% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, and the Company's entire total branded product sales expanded from representing 58% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2021, to 85% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023. Within the adult-use sales channel, the Company further diversified its revenue base by expanding into a new province, Manitoba, in fiscal year 2023.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

The Company established four key long-term strategic objectives in 2022:

1. Adjusted EBITDA⁽²⁾ profitability

The Company disclosed guidance in February 2022, anticipating reaching breakeven Adjusted EBITDA profitability by the quarter ended March 31, 2023. The Company attained that goal two quarters earlier than anticipated, achieving breakeven Adjusted EBITDA profitability in the quarter ended September 30, 2022.

In the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the Company delivered Adjusted EBITDA of $0.2 million, an increase of $4.6 million over the prior year. This third consecutive quarter of Adjusted EBITDA profitability was primarily due to the $1.3 million bulk wholesale gross profit before fair value adjustments which represents two bulk wholesale customers. These input materials sold exceeded the Company's near-term supply requirements for its own branded cannabis products and accordingly had previously taken a $1.1 million inventory provision. After completing these sales transactions, the Company has no further obligation or commitment to these two customers. As the sales transactions with these two customers fulfilled two separate product-in-kind obligations, no cash was received. On a go forward basis, the Company anticipates continuing opportunistically entering into bulk wholesale transactions with cash paying Canadian LP customers.

Concurrently with the Company scaling each of its branded cannabis sales channels¹, it is focused on cost of sales optimization, and selling, general & administrative expense containment and strategic rationalizations to continue to improve its Adjusted EBITDA profitability profile. The Company is focused on long-term, sustained, positive cash flow generation in-line with other consumer product goods sectors.

The Company is growing its Adjusted EBITDA profitability by focusing on:

1. Growing sales volumes and capturing market share in pre-roll, milled, flower, concentrate (including infused pre-roll and hash), and vape product sub-categories through new innovative product offerings which deepen penetration in its existing five provincial markets;
2. Building relationships to drive expansion of the adult-use sales channel into other provinces;
3. Migrating its adult-use consumer base from entry level “starter” formats to large size product formats which deliver higher gross profit dollars and margin to the Company;
4. Improving patient engagement to drive higher order frequency, basket size and lifetime revenue in the medical channel;
5. Expanding its newest, and fastest growing sales channel, the international vertical, which delivers the highest net realizable margin per gram of equivalent flower sold;
6. Increasing its gross profit margin profile by driving further operational efficiency in its manufacturing and processing through automation; and
7. Identifying, reducing and containing selling, general and administrative expenses which the Company has found is a key strength in a highly competitive market.

Over the last eight quarters, the Company has decreased Adjusted SG&A⁽¹⁾ by 45% to $4.5 million in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 as compared to the same period two years ago. Over this same timeframe, the Company has driven robust 22% growth in total net revenue.

In September 2021, the Company completed a holistic review of its operations, shared services and organizational structure and evaluated total SG&A savings, which totalled over $16 million on an annualized basis, including:

- the reduction of its workforce by 48% representing $13 million;
- the reduction in the use of external consultants, legal counsel and external advisors representing $2.0 million; and
- the wind down of leased spaces to consolidate operations representing $0.5 million.

In November 2021 the Company completed a portfolio optimization to further improve adult-use profit margins. This aligned our portfolio with the best-selling products formats that deliver the strongest gross profit margins and executed moderate strategic price increases.

In February 2022, the Company provided an update on its cost rationalization strategy. The Company methodically reviewed its cost structure and optimized its talent and resources towards the sales channels which delivered the highest net realizable margin per gram of flower sold – its branded cannabis products.

In April 2022, the Company provided a corporate update on its ongoing cost containment initiatives, including identifying $4.4 million in annualized cost savings to be completed within the quarter. The Company realigned its medical business, integrated its virtual, physical and third-party clinic platform to further improve its general and administrative and wages and benefits cost profile while improving the patient experience through a more cohesive and consistent approach to managing patient interactions. Moreover, the Company overhauled its Grimsby, Ontario hybrid greenhouse and drove operational efficiencies and remapped its processes to allow its cultivation organization to expand throughput of high THC potency flower (“Usable Flower”). The Company assessed procurement practices, resulting in a consolidation of certain vendors leading to cost efficiencies.

In July 2022, the Company enacted a vendor consolidation initiative, to extract economies of scale by aggregating procurement across its four facilities into key trusted vendors. This initiative identified and enacted agreements which represent an annualized cost of sales savings of $2.3 million.

In September 2022, the Company extracted further savings among its third-party copackers based on increased purchase volumes which on an annualized basis represented annualized cost of sales savings of $1.8 million.

In October 2022, the Company identified efficiencies in its information technology, legal and finance functions which represented over $1.5 million in annualized SG&A savings. The primary cost savings related to a further 5% reduction in the Company's headcount. The Company extracted savings from third-parties by focusing on service providers that are appropriate for the Company's size & scale and provide offerings best suited for our industry and growth strategy.

In November 2022, the Company enacted further cost savings initiatives around its flower supply, by initiating the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse which represents an annualized net cost savings of approximately $4.1 million which will further improve go forward profitability. This cultivation facility was historically the primary supplier of usable flower for the dried flower category in the Divvy brand. Over the course of calendar year 2022, the Company was able to secure high-quality dried flower from multiple trusted third-party growers at attractive prices which allows the Company to grow its dried flower sales and achieve an improved margin profile in its adult-use sales channel. Additionally, with continued improvement in grow practices the Company will be utilizing the harvest from the outdoor Port Perry cultivation facility to support the continued growth of its leading pre-roll and milled product categories. The Company is focused on continuing to build its loyal consumer base of its everyday value brand, Divvy, by supplying its consumers with innovative sought-after cultivation strains from the best sources of flower supply, whether that be internally grown or procured from other third-party growers.

In January 2023, the Company completed a review of its adult-use brand and SKU portfolio as a part of its normal course annual review of product life cycles. Based on its review of the market size, consumption patterns, behaviours and evolving trends, the Company concluded that approximately 1/3 of the in-market adult-use SKUs were designated for delisting and two of its brands under its Sunday Market House of Brands would be rationalized: Bogart's Kitchen (edibles), and Nith & Grand (craft flower). This was estimated to result in an approximate $0.9 million in annualized net savings to the Company.

In February 2023, the Company completed the ramp-up of its first automated flower packaging machine. The machine is anticipated to result in operational efficiencies, accuracy, consistency, and improved overhead absorption. The machine is anticipated to result in approximately $0.5 million in annualized cost savings and unlock further flower packaging throughput potential.

In March 2023, the Company completed the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse with only maintenance and security personnel stationed at the facility until its eventual sale. It also negotiated another significant price reduction with its third-party copackers representing $0.5 million in annualized cost savings. It completed a holistic review of its ongoing IT requirements and identified redundancies which could be eliminated in its corporate operating platform and its key seed-to-sale platform representing $0.2 million in annualized cost savings. Further, the Company has reduced its active headcount from 162 as of December 31, 2022 to 158 as at March 31, 2023 representing $0.3 million in annualized cost savings.

The Company believes it has the organizational infrastructure, including a core corporate shared services and distribution relationships to facilitate the continued growth in its branded cannabis net revenue to create further operating leverage and drive improved Adjusted EBITDA profitability in fiscal year 2024.²

2. Increasing Market Share Position in Canadian Adult-Use Market

The Company launched its Sunday Market House of Brands in Q1 of 2021, anchored around Divvy, the everyday brand focused on delivering an exceptional value proposition to consumers. Divvy is consistently a top searched brand on OCS.ca. The Company's product portfolio and SKU listings are focused on the largest adult-use categories: pre-roll, milled, flower, and vapes and represent the majority of the Company's adult-use sales. The Company sells into five provinces with Ontario and Alberta representing its two largest customers. This sales channel represented 82% of Q4 fiscal year 2023 total net revenue.

Brands & Products: The other four supporting brands under the adult-use portfolio, Bogart's Kitchen, Kin Slips, and Noon & Night, are niche brands targeted at specific consumer segments in the market and span from value to premium craft. Over 45 new SKUs launched in fiscal year 2023, including: large format flower (28g) in Divvy cropped products, new Divvy cultivars, Divvy large format pre-roll line extensions, 8 new Divvy vape cartridges, first-to-market Nitecaps under Noon & Night, a third hot sauce as well as THC-infused maple syrup under Bogart's Kitchen. The Company has over 170 provincial listings of its SKUs in the adult-use portfolio, including a full suite of pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vape and cannabis derivative products. The Company has expanded into the concentrate category with the launch of hash products in May 2023 and infused pre-rolls in June 2023. The company has an additional 15 SKUs in the same categories accepted by various provincial boards, set to launch as early as Q1 fiscal year 2024, with additional submissions being evaluated.

Geographic Markets: The adult-use sales channel in Canada is now the Company's largest sales channel based on total net revenue, with distribution agreements and entrenched relationships in five provinces – Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba – representing an estimated 71% of the Canadian population. Manitoba is the most recent province that the Company entered in late November 2022. The Company is actively reviewing opportunities to expand into other Canadian provinces and territories in fiscal year 2024. Any expansion into new geographies is anticipated to be a favourable tailwind for the adult-use sales channel to drive further sales velocity and improved revenue diversification.

Go-to-Market Approach: The Company markets its products through its internal salesforce and is focused on gaining market share through the continued launch of innovative products in the largest product categories, mainly pre-roll, milled, whole flower, and vapes. The Company's internal sales and marketing team can respond to market trends in a dynamic and rapid fashion to drive sales velocity of its unique cannabis portfolio. The Company is focused on deepening its penetration in its existing core provincial markets, along with expanding into select other provincial markets. The Company believes its internal sales and marketing teams, is a key competitive advantage allowing the Company to respond to and drive key changes in the Canadian adult-use marketplace.

Market Share Capture: The Company has driven the second largest change in market share rankings among the top 15 Canadian Licensed Producers from Q1 2021 #26th, when the Company launched its new adult-use brand portfolio, to Q3 fiscal year 2023 #15th according to data from HiFyre based on the products and four provinces (Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, and Saskatchewan) Aleafia operated in throughout the most recently completed fiscal period ended March 31, 2023. In November 2022 the Company launched successfully into Manitoba, its fifth provincial territory, and the Company continues to target a top 10 Canadian LP standing, as measured by retail sales pull-through, in each of its markets⁵.

The Company Increased revenue by 24% to $36.1 million for the total fiscal year 2023 versus $29.1 million in the prior year. Net revenue improved 13% to $22.4 million compared to $19.8 million. While overall top-line growth is important for the Company, simultaneously, the Company is focused on profitable growth and actively seeks out more profitable product formats, categories and SKUs in favour of higher volume, lower margin SKUs.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the Company saw its whole flower sales decline to its lowest level seen in fiscal year 2023. We believe this was primarily due to: customary yearly seasonality seen in the cannabis retail environment at the turn of every calendar year which typically declines by approximately 10% to 15%; overall price compression in the market due to elevated levels of competition particularly in the largest product format (whole dried flower); and the effects of repeated and prolonged product out-of-stocks in the summer and fall of calendar year 2022 due to the Company’s demand for its whole flower products outstripping the supply of the Company’s Grimsby greenhouse cultivation facility. Consumer demand for the Company’s flower products far exceeded the cultivation supply capacity of its Grimsby greenhouse through most of calendar year 2022. The Company has now mitigated this issue by sourcing usable, high-THC flower from a variety of trusted, strategic third-party growers.

3. Leadership in Medical

The medical sales channel in Canada is core to the Company and supported by our medical ecosystem, offering the ability for new patients to be onboarded, consulted, prescribed, and delivered medical cannabis products. Containing approximately 20,000 active patients with stable ordering patterns, this sales channel has a high level of recurring revenue. The medical sales channel includes revenue from: the sale of medical cannabis in the Canadian markets, clinic fees, and research revenue, and represented 32% of Q4 fiscal year 2023 total net revenue.

Go-to-Market Approach: The Company’s direct-to-patient medical business receives patient referrals from its owned clinic Canabo Medical Clinics® (“Canabo”) and several third-party clinics nationwide. Canabo operations are predominantly virtual, helping patients access treatment services in a convenient and cost-effective setting. Canabo has one long standing physical clinic in St. John’s, Newfoundland. We deliver products direct-to-patient the same day they are ordered in the Greater Toronto Area, Canada’s most populous region. In addition to the direct-to-patient model, the company sells branded medical cannabis products to other Canadian medical sales license holders.

Product Portfolio: The Emblem brand is used exclusively in the Company’s medical sales channel. The Company also offers certain other products from its Sunday Market House of Brands and resells other products procured from third-parties to its medical patients. The majority of sales in the medical sales channel are of cannabis derivative products, including oils, capsules and vapes.

Growth Initiatives: The Company made strategic investments in email platforms to enhance the patient experience, resulting in a significant increase in email engagement and a reduction in overall marketing costs. The Company also implemented new targeted email marketing campaigns to increase brand loyalty, improve the patient experience through education, and drive sales growth. In addition, the Company continues to enhance its support and product offerings for Veteran patients. This includes the launch of new flower SKUs, edibles and specialized “white-glove” service.

The Company increased net revenue in the medical channel sales channel by 19% to $3.0 million in Q4 fiscal year 2023 versus $2.5 million in the prior year. This increase was primarily driven by continued penetration into the Quebec market and higher sales to veteran patients. Additionally, it benefited from an improved patient journey following the Company’s integration of its physical clinics, virtual clinics, and third-party clinic platform completed in April 2022. The Company has driven this growth by increasing its market share in a flat to declining overall medical market. Continued penetration into the Quebec market and higher sales to veteran patients. Additionally, it benefited from an improved patient journey following the Company’s integration of its physical clinics, virtual clinics, and third-party clinic platform completed in April 2022. The Company has driven this growth by increasing its market share in a flat to declining overall medical market.

4. Well-Positioned for International Growth

One of the Company’s fiscal year 2023 objectives was to expand its international sales channels. In parallel to serving the Canadian medical market, the Company is well-positioned to benefit from the expansion of the global medical cannabis market and the continued legalization of global recreational markets. The Company has identified $5.6 million in sales opportunities, with more demand for its products in international markets than current supply. This sales channel represented 5% of total net revenue for fiscal year 2023 compared to 1% in fiscal year 2022.

Strategic Focus: The Company is focused on expanding its international sales as it sees the opportunity to supply flower and cannabis derivative products in bulk-form to select international medical markets. Given the high regulatory and other barriers to entry of supplying these international jurisdictions, the Company enjoys an early mover advantage. The Company further sees expanding its international medical sales as a potential foothold should cannabis be legalized recreationally in the same international jurisdictions. The sales agreements for international sales typically are longer in duration than the Canadian medical or adult-use channels, with guaranteed minimum purchase commitments and no required Canadian excise duties. Moreover, they typically deliver the highest net realizable margins per gram of flower equivalent sold than the other sales channels.

Select Key International Markets: The Company's products have been successfully exported into key global markets including Germany, the UK and Australia. The Company continues to engage in discussions to deepen its penetration in these markets and selectively expand into other jurisdictions where it could also enjoy an early mover advantage. The Company is actively pursuing increased penetration into the European market where the addressable market is multiples larger than the Canadian market.

Recent Agreements: In July 2022, the Company secured an estimated $4.6 million³ international sales agreement to supply bulk flower into the European market. It is a two-year agreement, with a minimum annual sales commitment estimated at $2.0 million⁴ per year based on a variable price per gram of flower. The Company successfully shipped product under this agreement in the quarter ended December 31, 2022 which is destined for Germany. Additionally, in January 2023, the Company secured an additional international sales order for approximately $1.0 million⁵ in annual sales with a new European based strategic partner. This expands the Company's international sales and improves access into the existing European medical market and burgeoning legalized adult-use markets.

International net revenue was $0.4 million in the Q4 fiscal year 2023, compared to nil in the prior year. The Company is looking to further develop this channel with an active pipeline of opportunities for fiscal year 2024.

OUTLOOK

The Company's overall objectives for fiscal year 2023 built upon the successes it recognized during fiscal year 2022. During fiscal year 2023, the Company focused on growth as a branded cannabis producer in the Canadian adult-use and medical markets, while continuing to advance the Company's international expansion efforts; rationalizing its cost structure to drive profitability; and building its capacity to sustainably deliver Usable Flower through its own outdoor cultivation facility as well as its ecosystem of trusted, strategic, third-party growers. The Company's overall objectives for fiscal year 2023 were as follows⁶:

- Total net revenue of between $44.0 million and $46.0 million;
- Develop a pathway and momentum towards attaining top 10 market share positions in each of its provincial Canadian adult-use markets based on retail sales pull through;
- Maintaining a leadership position in the medical market;
- Achieving Gross Profit Margins before Fair Value Adjustments of between 32% and 38%;
- Adjusted SG&A of between $17.2 and $18.0 million; and
- Adjusted EBITDA of between -$0.5 million and $0.5 million.

The Company generated $42.8 million of total net revenue, representing 3% less than the low end of the targeted guidance. The Company believes this difference is primarily related to the Company's liquidity constraints, challenges in making timely payments to high priority vendors, the increasingly competitive market environment, and unforeseen external factors including the cybersecurity attack on the Ontario

⁶ The foregoing projections are Forward Looking Information. Please see the cautionary statement on page 40.

Cannabis Store, a labour strike in British Columbia, and a lack of usable high-THC flower due to the Grimsby greenhouse supply behind outstripped by demand.

The Company significantly increased its presence and deepened consumer awareness of its branded products, increasing its average market share ranking from #15 in fiscal year 2022 to #13 in fiscal year 2023.

The Company has maintained a leadership position in the Canadian medical market, and increased its net revenue by 7% to $12.1 million in the 12 months ended March 31, 2023, as compared to $11.3 million in the 12 months ended March 31, 2022.

The Company generated 33% in gross profit margin before fair value adjustments, in-line with its targets for fiscal year 2023.

The Company achieved Adjusted SG&A of $17.5 million in fiscal year 2023 compared to $31.3 million in the prior year.

The Company achieved total Adjusted EBITDA of -$0.2 million in fiscal year 2023. This is well ahead of the initial guidance provided in February 2022 of achieving a range of between -$7.5 million and -$2.5 million. The Company believes this is an incredible milestone given the competitive market conditions in the Canadian cannabis industry, the Company's capital constraints, and the Company's transformation from being a bulk wholesale producer to a branded cannabis producer supplying into three core sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. The Company remains focused on bringing innovative and differentiated cannabis products to Canadian consumers that deliver on the commitment of offering high quality cannabis wellness products at competitive prices. While all objectives are important to the Company, ultimately the Company is focused on driving sustainable, long-term profitability as its primary objective.

Due to the Company's ongoing liquidity risk and lack of sufficient capital resources for the next twelve months, and the ongoing challenges to maintain payments such that our accounts were in good standing with high priority vendor relationships, the Company has not initiated any guidance for fiscal year 2024.

Adult-Use Brand Portfolio

Divvy is the Company's main adult-use brand. It represents the vast majority of the Company's sales in the adult-use sales channel. In addition to Divvy, there are four other supporting brands serving distinct segments of the adult-use market.

Divvy Cannabis brings frequent cannabis users good quality products at value-oriented price-points. With flower harvested from our hybrid greenhouse and outdoor operations, Divvy flower products include whole flower, milled flower, pre-rolls, vapes and oils.

NOON & NIGHT

Noon & Night is a CBD-forward line of familiar wellness products. Noon & Night is highly differentiated, filling a gap in the cannabis brand landscape with its exclusive focus on wellness-conscious consumers.

Kin Slips are cannabis-infused sublingual strips, an edible alternative that are discreet, precise, and provide rapid onset. Kin Slips are formulated with peppermint oil to deliver a fresh minty sensation. They are vegan, sugar-free, contain only natural ingredients, and come in roughly the size of a postage stamp.

Medical Brand Portfolio

The Company serves the Canadian medical cannabis market with the Emblem brand. It also opportunistically offers select products from its Sunday Market House of Brands and other limited time promotional products to its medical patients to better serve their needs.

From our team of growers to our client care team, each member of the Company's team works toward giving patients the best medical cannabis experience. Emblem is the heart of Aleafia Health's unique medical cannabis ecosystem, as a trusted brand and secure ecommerce marketplace with a reputation for product excellence.

1. PRODUCT PORTFOLIO

The Company currently produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis products which it sells into the provincial adult-use sales channels, to medical cannabis patients, to other Licensed Producers, and internationally to the Germany and Australia medical-use markets. The Company continued its strategic expansion of its product portfolio, as outlined below. The Company aims to utilize its diverse craft indoor and outdoor cultivation in high margin, unique product formats tailored to the various need-states of cannabis consumers and patients.

With the improvement in Usable Flower from its Port Perry outdoor facility, the proportion of sales generated by pre-roll and milled products has now reached 35% in the most recent quarter ended March 31, 2023.

Total Branded Net Revenue by Product Format

Note: Other includes sublingual strips, edibles, and topicals

a) Pre-rolls

The Company utilizes flower from its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility to supply its pre-roll offering, which represents the second largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. The 2022 Port Perry harvest delivered a new record with respect to high THC potency usable flower supply, which when combined with the strategic outsourcing of pre-roll manufacturing, allows Aleafia Health to deliver significantly improved product availability, and new larger format SKUs including a 12-pack of 0.35 gram pre-rolls in a recognizable, reusable package. In Q1 FY2023, the Company launched a 7-pack of 1-gram pre-rolls in the Alberta and Ontario markets (May 2022 and June 2022, respectively) which were well-received by consumers. Further pre-roll formats launched in Spring 2023, including 12-packs and 56-packs of traditional 0.5 gram pre-rolls, and the Company is scheduled to launch into the fast growing infused pre-roll market later in Q1 FY2024.

b) Milled (Cropped)

Driven by the expansion of its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility and relentless focus on high-quality usable flower, the Company has launched and seen tremendous success in its pre-ground milled offering. Having launched in Q3 2021, the milled products under the Divvy brand have quickly gained market share, reaching a peak #2 market share ranking for fiscal year 2023 in Ontario, the largest provincial market in Canada. Building upon the success of the initial two SKUs, both Alberta and Ontario have picked up the product in larger formats as well as a CBD offering.

c) Dried Flower

The Company has undertaken an expansion of its dried flower offering, which is the largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. Driven by the continued ramp-up of procurement from third-party growers, the Company is able to deliver greater product availability, and new larger format stock-keeping-units ("SKU") including 7, 14, and 28-gram flower pouches. Sales of these products and other new dried flower SKUs commenced during Q2 & Q3 2022, under the Divvy brand.

d) Vapes

The Company's vape portfolio is inspired by a robust portfolio of cultivars. The custom-made, unique terpene blends in Divvy vapes deliver robust flavours and consistent effects. Additional Divvy SKUs, including new THC-dominant flavour profiles, a CBD dominant full-spectrum, and a balanced THC: CBD vape have been listed in multiple markets. New bold flavour profiles are entering the market this Spring, and the Divvy Puff 'n Pass SKU, a 1 gram 510 thread vape cartridge, launched in January 2023, provides a platform for a rotation of new, exciting flavours.

e) Oils

Cannabis oil products remain a core product category for wellness-oriented medical patients and adult-use consumers. Line extensions include the innovative Omega CBD Soft Gels which feature full-spectrum, single strain CBD extract, and is one of the first Canadian cannabis products to be suspended in fish oil containing omega-3.

f) Sublingual Strips

Kin Slips, cannabis-infused sublingual strips, typically offer a fast onset time relative to other non-combustible cannabis products. Placed under the tongue, the active ingredients enter the bloodstream through the sublingual gland, delivering a typical onset time of 10 to 15 minutes. Kin Slips are classified as ingestible extracts, and can therefore contain up to 1000 milligrams of THC per package, as opposed to traditional cannabis edible products which are restricted to 10 milligrams of THC per package.

g) Edibles

The Company launches highly artisan and seasonal edible products which complement its product portfolio anchored around pre-roll, milled, flower and vape formats. During Q1 2021, the Company released its first cannabis edible product, soft chews, with two THC and one CBD-dominant offering. The Company followed that up with Salted Caramel Pretzel Bites, Cluster Pucks as well as an infused hot sauce with well-known Canadian hot sauce maker Heartbeat Hot Sauce, all launched under the Bogart's Kitchen edibles brand. The brand currently contains the collaboration hot sauces and launched a THC-infused Maple Syrup product in Winter 2022, just in time for the holiday season.

h) Bath & Body

The Noon & Night brand launches bath & body products focused on the wellness space. During Q2 2021, the Company launched Lavender Fizz CBD bath bombs along with the Freshly Minted Roll-on. The peppermint-scented roll-on is designed to provide a soothing, aromatic experience through local application on the hairline, neck, forehead and shoulders. The brand also began offering CBD-Omega soft gels in Q2 2021.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Amendment to Convertible Debentures

The Convertible Debentures amendments became effective on June 28, 2022. The amendments entailed the exchange of the Convertible Debentures for new convertible debentures (the "New Convertible Debentures") issued in three equal, separate tranches, maturing in 2, 4 and 6 years from the date of issuance (the "2024 Debentures", "2026 Debentures", and "2028 Debentures", respectively). The interest rate remained at 8.5%, but the New Convertible Debentures have no mandatory cash interest payment for 24 months as interest will initially be paid-in-kind ("PIK") with additional New Convertible Debentures (the "PIK Debentures"), reducing near-term debt servicing requirements. The conversion price was reduced to $0.25 for the 2024 Debentures, $0.30 for the 2026 Debentures, and $0.35 for the 2028 Debentures. The New Convertible Debentures were granted security against certain assets of the Company but are fully subordinated to the Company's existing senior secured debt. The Company is precluded from incurring further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and strategically accretive acquisitions. Debenture holders who approved the Debenture Amendments received a fee (the "Consent Fee") calculated as the amount of accrued interest on the existing Convertible Debentures between July 1, 2021 and the effective date of the Debenture Amendments, payable in additional 2028 Debentures at par. Effective as of October 31, 2022, the New Convertible Debentures were listed on the TSX.

See Subsequent Events section for proposed amendments.

$5.6 Million Equity Financing

On June 24, 2022, the Company closed a private placement of 68,151,515 units issued at a price of $0.0825 each (the “Issue Price”). Each unit consists of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. A warrant is exercisable into one common share at an exercise price of $0.1025 for a period of four years from the date of issuance. The expiry date of the warrants can be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days’ notice, if the closing price of the common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading days following the date that is 4 months and one day after the date of issuance and prior to the expiry date of the Warrants. The net proceeds from the Private Placement will be used to fund working capital and capital expenditures for the Company’s continued growth, and other general corporate purposes. A finder’s fee of 3,407,500 common shares was paid to a finder (the “Finder’s Shares”) in connection with the Private Placement.

Amendment to August 2021 Credit Facility

On June 23, 2022, the Company made its second amendment to its August 2021 Credit Facility, whereby amongst other things it agreed to prepay an amount equal to $622,500 as a prepayment of interest under the loan agreement in respect of the period beginning June 24, 2022 and ending June 24, 2023. In addition, the Company agreed to grant to the lender a general security interest from the Company in favour of the Lender.

$4.5 Million Promissory Notes

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued three promissory notes totaling $4.5 million carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023 and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023. All three notes become due and payable upon the earlier of a Change of Control transaction or December 31, 2024. The interest on these notes is paid bi-monthly. The use of proceeds of these promissory notes was to fund working capital.

Branded Cannabis

Total revenue for the fiscal year grew by 24% to $57.4 million and total net revenue also grew by 19% to $42.8 million. Branded net revenue grew by 16% to $36.6 million, with growth across all three of its core branded cannabis sales channels. Wholesale net revenue grew by 39% to $6.2 million.

Adult-use net revenue grew by 13% to $22.4 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, from $19.8 million in the prior year. The Company's market share ranking reached #13th compared to #15th a year earlier and market share increased to 2.1% from 1.5% a year earlier. Fiscal year 2023 saw tremendous growth in the pre-roll, milled and flower product format categories in particular with the expansion of larger format sizes. A focus on high velocity sales categories have been key to this successful growth. Additionally, the Company continues to redirect an increasing share of the Usable Flower supply from its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility away from the bulk wholesale towards the adult-use sales channel, achieving higher net revenue and net realizable margin per gram. At the same time, the Company has been focusing on generating higher margins from its product portfolio by optimizing its product portfolio to focus on larger formats.

Medical net revenue grew by 7% to $12.1 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, from $11.3 million in the prior year. The growth in medical was accomplished despite the ongoing challenging contraction of the medical market. Further, there was an increase in average order value ("AOV") through focusing on high value patients and improving engagement with its active patient base. The Company estimates its market share ranking to be top 5 within the Canadian medical market⁷.

International net revenue increased by $1.6 million or 318% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 over the prior year. This increase was driven by European bound shipments of medical cannabis related to the Company's new international partner announced in August 2022.

The branded cannabis gross profit before fair value adjustments was $12.7 million in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, representing a 35% margin compared to 32% in the prior year. This improvement in margin was driven by:

- Building its international sales pipeline - the Company is actively seeking out and onboarding new international sales opportunities which provide improved revenue and cash flow, reduced cash conversion cycle and higher margin than adult-use sales channel.
- Growing its medical recurring "sticky" revenue, high-margin medical business - driving market share capture by focusing on improving engagement with existing patients to grow average order values, access new regions and retaining our high value patients.
- Innovative products - continually augmenting the Company's portfolio with margin accretive SKUs, including larger size formats, and focus its efforts on curating a portfolio of innovative sought-after products that deliver attractive value for its consumers.
- Portfolio optimization - aligning the Company's portfolio with the best-selling product formats that deliver the strongest gross profit margins. The Company completed its first portfolio optimization in November 2021 and its most recent one in January 2023 to respond to emerging market trends.
- Strategic flower sourcing arrangements - procuring high-THC usable flower from third-party growers to drive improved whole flower product out-of-stock performance.

⁷ Data on cannabis for medical purposes. Health Canada. <https://www.canada.ca/en/health-canada/services/drugs-medication/cannabis/research-data/medical-purpose.html>

- Co-packing - identifying areas where operational efficiencies can be extracted by outsourcing certain manufacturing and processing functions. These outside service providers allow the Company to rapidly scale throughput and focus its capital allocation in areas that are anticipated to deliver a higher return in the long-term.
- Focusing on high quality usable flower - optimizing grow practices to focus on the yield of high potency, usable flower for its branded products. This strategic shift away from focusing on total quantity and towards usable flower continues to optimize the yield and drive down the cash cost to grow flower.
- Selective automation – where products begin to mature in their packaging format, sizes, and consumption preferences the Company strategically deploys capital to automate certain parts of its processing. Most recently acquiring its first automated flower packaging machine and ramping it up in February 2023.

Bulk Wholesale

Bulk wholesale net revenue was higher for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 at $6.2 million compared to $4.5 million in the prior year. Despite the company's being primarily focused on growing its branded cannabis sales, this increase primarily came from the completion of two product-in-kind arrangements that saw the Company complete its obligations with these two Canadian LPs. Additionally, the Company opportunistically sold off-spec, low potency flower and other aged inventory in the bulk wholesale sales channel to other Canadian LPs. The Company continually evaluates its anticipated cultivation yield and requirements for its forecasted sales to optimize its inventory on hand and increase inventory turnover.

Total gross profit⁸ improved by $3.0 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 compared to the prior year. This was driven by higher net revenue versus the prior year, the nonrecurrence of negative gross profit margin wholesale transactions as was the case in fiscal year 2022, and an improved gross profit margin in its branded cannabis product portfolio.

⁸ This is a non-IFRS measure. Please see page 34 for more information.

The total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2023 declined 31% to $5.8 million, compared to the previous year's expenses of $8.4 million, despite a 33% increase in total net revenue. The total operating expenses for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 declined 42% to $24.7 million, compared to the prior year's expenses of $42.5 million. The decline is primarily driven by significant headcount reductions, winddown of physical medical clinics, IT consolidation of platforms, integration of the physical, virtual, and third-party clinic platform, rationalizations in consultants, advisors and legal costs, and various other cost optimization initiatives. The Company's full-time equivalent headcount has decreased by 43% from 276 at March 31, 2022 to 158 as at March 31, 2023. For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, bad debt expense decreased as the Company continues to improve the credit quality of its receivables with increased focus on branded cannabis sales which have negligible credit risk as they are mostly government agencies. In the prior year the bad debt expenses was higher due to increased bulk wholesale sales related allowances for doubtful accounts. Business transaction costs were down for the three months and twelve months ended March 31, 2023, mainly due to non-recurring marketing, consultant, brand development and product formulation costs related to the launch of new product formats in the prior year comparative quarter. There were restructuring costs for the year of $0.4 million related to the winddown of the Grimsby greenhouse.

Other expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2023 was $4.3 million compared to $4.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022. The increase in fair value through profit and loss adjustments relates to a reduction in the fair value of the Company's investments.

Other expenses for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 was $16.0 million compared to $105.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Prior year included profit and loss adjustments of $29.9 million related to a decrease in the fair value of the Company's investments, impairments to property, plant, and equipment (PPE) classified as held for sale and determined that the carrying amount of one of its assets was no longer recoverable, and impairments to intangible assets.

NON-IFRS MEASURES

ADJUSTED SG&A

Adjusted selling, general and administrative (“Adjusted SG&A”) is defined as SG&A expenses adjusted to exclude non-recurring costs. These non-recurring items may relate to certain transaction costs, one-time subsidies, and severances. Adjusted SG&A is not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, it may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors.

Medical Clinic Supply Services	-	557	-	2,059	2,059

The Company considers Adjusted SG&A an important key metric to measure the Company’s cost structure outside of production and inventory related costs as it drives continued operating leverage and improved Adjusted EBITDA profitability. The Company believes tightly containing and finding further cost efficiencies is a competitive strength. It is mostly fixed in nature with some variability depending on sales volume for marketing and other sales-oriented expenditures.

The Company has aggressively contained and rationalized its Adjusted SG&A cost profile, resulting in a 51% decline to $4.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $7.3 million in the prior year comparative quarter. This was achieved despite total net revenue increasing 33% over the same period to $9.4 million from $7.0 million in the prior year. See the explanations of the changes in operating expenses for further information on SG&A.

There was a decline by 46% to $17.6 million in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $32.3 million in the prior year comparative quarter. This was achieved despite total net revenue increasing 19% over the same period.

The Company considers Adjusted EBITDA a key metric for measuring operating performance and cash flow, to manage working capital, debt repayments and capital expenditures. Adjusted EBITDA is calculated as net income (loss), excluding (i) amortization and depreciation, (ii) fair value changes in biological assets and changes in inventory sold, (iii) share-based payments, (iv) bad debt expense, (v) business transaction costs, (vi) non-operating expenses (income), (vii) taxes, (viii) interest expenses, (ix) one-time sale of assets, (x) unrealized gain (loss) on marketable securities and (xi) other non-recurring expenses (income). Adjusted EBITDA is not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, it may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors.

Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended March 31, 2023 was a gain of $0.2 million, compared to a loss of $4.4 million in the prior year comparative quarter. The increase was primarily due to the $1.3 million bulk wholesale gross profit before fair value adjustments which represents two bulk wholesale customers.

The Company entered into five sales transactions representing $2.2 million in bulk wholesale net revenue and $1.3 million in gross profit before fair value adjustments with two customers to settle a product-in-kind obligation. These input materials exceeded the Company's near-term supply requirements for its own branded cannabis products and accordingly had previously taken a $1.1 million inventory provision. In management's estimation at the time of recording the inventory provisions, the cost of the inventory exceeded management's estimate of the net realizable value. After completing these sales transactions, the Company has no further obligation or commitment to these customers. As the sales transactions with these two customers fulfilled two separate product-in-kind obligations, no cash was received.

The Company will continue to sell product that is in excess of its needs to supply its own branded cannabis products in bulk wholesale transactions in order to maximize net realizable margin from its cultivation sites and improve its liquidity position.

The improvement in Adjusted EBITDA also benefitted from the reduction in selling, general and administrative expenses. There was certain marketing, consultant, brand development and product formulation costs related to the launch of new product formats, most of which are non-recurring in nature. In conjunction with the Company's focused cost containment and rationalizations, which has delivered a dramatically improved SG&A expense profile.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to support its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans while maintaining healthy liquidity reserves and access to capital for at least the next twelve months.

In the management of liquidity risk of the Company, the Company maintains a balance between continuity of funding and the flexibility through the use of borrowings. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure. On March 31, 2023, the Company's contractual obligations consist of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, net tax payable, credit facilities, and lease liability, which has a contractual maturity date within one year.

The following table sets forth the use of proceeds from the Company's equity offering and debt financings completed over the last four quarters.

Operating Activities

Cash used in operating activities was $1.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in operating activities of $3.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in operating activities has decreased by $1.7 million driven by improved gross profit margin, reduced SG&A expense profile, enhanced accounts receivable and inventory working capital efficiency and the closure of the Grimsby greenhouse.

Cash used in operating activities was $3.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in operating activities of $25.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in operating activities has decreased by $22 million driven by higher total net revenue, improved gross profit margin, reduced SG&A expense profile, and enhanced accounts receivable and inventory working capital efficiency.

Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities was $0.1 million and $1.4 million for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $0.7 million and $4.2 million for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in investing activities has declined significantly, due to the completion of significant capital projects at the Company's owned production facilities and the winddown of the Grimsby greenhouse. The Company continues to invest in ongoing equipment and other capital expenditures to maintain and make modest enhancements to the efficiency of its two cultivation facilities, including the investment in an automated flower packaging machine.

Financing Activities

Cash provided by financing activities was $1.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in financing activities of $5.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022.

The gross proceeds from the issuance of two promissory notes was $3.5 million and this was partially offset by the $1.2 million decline in the drawn balance on the revolving credit in the quarter ended March 31, 2023.

Cash generated by financing activities was $4.0 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $13.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. The Company raised $5.6 million from the issuance of common shares and $4.5 million from the issuance of promissory notes. This cash inflow was partially offset by $2.0 million in interest payments, $2.3 million credit facility repayment, $1.3 million in lease liabilities and other debt related costs.

Contractual Obligations & Capital Expenditures

As of March 31, 2023, the Company had the following contractual obligations:

($,000s)	Within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 year and thereafter
Convertible debentures	-	12,350	-	12,350	14,736
Credit facilities	12,882	-	-	-	-
Lease obligations	260	1,072	511	11	2
Promissory notes	-	4,500	-	-	-
Purchase commitments	506	-	-	-	-
Total	13,648	17,972	511	12,361	14,738

The purchase commitments all represent outstanding purchase orders to be fulfilled by vendors.

Convertible Debt

In June 2019, Aleafia Health issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Debenture Units”) for gross proceeds of $40.3 million. Each Debenture Unit consisted of one $1,000 principal amount of an unsecured convertible debenture of Aleafia Health and 680 common share purchase warrants, which debentures contained the following terms:

- a maturity date of June 27, 2022;
- an interest rate of 8.5% per annum; payable semi-annually;
- convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder; and
- Aleafia Health may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of Aleafia Health on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2.9 million debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37.3 million.

During the year ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $0.3 million debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37.0 million.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37.0 million principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2.4 million principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company’s existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

December 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12.0 million and access to a revolving facility up to $7.0 million. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime rate with a floor of 3.45% plus 9%, annually. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

As of March 31, 2023, the facility was fully paid off with an overpayment of $0.2 million, resulting in an undrawn balance of $7.2 million.

The available undrawn balance of the revolving facility, based on the eligible accounts receivable criteria, at the date hereof is $0.7 million.

August 2021 Credit Facility – Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10.0 million for working capital, general corporate purposes and capital expenditures. The term of the loan was for one year and it bears simple interest at a rate of 12%, with an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. The first six months following the amended agreement allows for interest to accrue. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The loan was initially secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. The mortgages against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities were subordinated and a first lien mortgage was granted on the Port Perry, Ontario facility. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023 and the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5.0 million against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

Promissory Note – Non-Current

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued three promissory notes totaling $4.5 million carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023 and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023. All three notes become due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on these notes is paid bi-monthly. The use of proceeds of these promissory notes was to fund working capital.

Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to the Financial Statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10 million in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if a settlement cannot be reached earlier. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayt's on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500 million (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5.0 million in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy ("CEWS") for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem Cannabis Corporation and has proposed a claw back in the amount of $3.2 million related to the CEWS funds provided to the Company. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings and intends to file a Notice of Objection. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received CEWS funds. At this time, it is not possible to make a reasonable and reliable estimate of the likelihood of the outcome of the dispute. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

Excise Duties

The Company has excise duties which are accrued for in the normal course as incurred. As a result, of ongoing liquidity issues the Company has accumulated overdue excise duties and is incurring interest at the statutory posted rate on said amounts. The total excise duty payable as at March 31, 2023 was $9.4 million. The Company is in discussions with the CRA to formulate a formal repayment plan. No assurances can be provided as to the length or outcome of these discussions.

Off-balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Related Party Transactions

Other than compensation and benefits paid to directors or key management personnel in the normal course of business, the Company had no transactions with its related parties (as defined under IFRS) during the reporting period.

SELECTED QUARTER & ANNUAL INFORMATION

The following information has been prepared in accordance with IFRS in Canadian dollars.

($,000s) except per share amounts	Three months ended		Twelve months ended
Net revenue	9,394	7,039	42,847	36,496	29,189
Cost of sales	5,437	6,106	28,651	32,566	15,669

Total non-current liabilities	33,197	6,908	33,197	6,908	38,382

The fluctuations in reported results during the three months ended March 31, 2023 resulted primarily from the following factors:

- Net revenue increased 33% to $9.4 million from $7.0 million in the prior year primarily due to an increase in wholesale revenue.
- Cost of sales decreased 11% to $5.4 million from $6.1 million in the prior year. Cost of sales % improved to 58% of net revenue compared to 87% in the prior year primarily due to an increase in the proportion of branded cannabis sales and the gross profit margin expansion in branded cannabis sales.
- Total operating expenses decreased 32% to $5.8 million from $8.4 million in the prior year. The decline is primarily driven by significant headcount reductions, winddown of physical medical clinics, integration of the physical, virtual, and third-party clinic platform, rationalizations in consultants, advisors and legal costs, reduction in amortization and depreciation expense, and various other cost optimization initiatives.
- Total other expenses were slightly higher at $4.3 million compared to $4.0 million in the prior year. The increase is due to fair value through profit and loss adjustments related to a change in share price of investments and marketable securities.
- Total non-current liabilities increased which following the convertible debenture refinancing completed in June 2022 were reclassified from current to non-current liabilities.

Fluctuations in results for the twelve month period ended March 31, 2023 compared to the prior periods resulted primarily from the following factors:

- Net revenues improvement of 17% and 25% compared to the periods ended March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021 respectively. This trend is a result of the company's strategic shift to branded cannabis products.
- Cost of sales over the twelve month period ended March 31, 2023 improved by 11%. The Company methodically reviewed its cost structure and optimized its talent and resources towards branded cannabis products which delivered the highest net realizable margin per gram of flower sold.

- Operating expenses have significantly improved over the past twelve months because of the company's ongoing cost containment strategy. The Company realigned its medical business, integrated its virtual, physical and third-party clinic platform to further improve its general and administrative and wages and benefits cost profile while improving the patient experience through a more cohesive and consistent approach to managing patient interactions. The Company assessed procurement practices, resulting in a consolidation of certain vendors leading to cost efficiencies.
- Net loss and comprehensive losses in the year's ended March 31, 2022 and 2021 included significant impairments of goodwill, intangible assets, and impairment of property, plant and equipment.

The Company is exposed to seasonality with respect to its branded cannabis sales. Sales are typically slower in the first quarter of each calendar year and then increase into the summer periods.

SG&A expenses have trended lower over the past eight quarters reflecting the success of the company's focus on cost containment and rationalization.

SUMMARY OF OUTSTANDING SHARE DATA

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares. Subsequent to March 31, 2023, 121,220 common shares were issued under the Company's share-based plans. The total number of common shares issued and outstanding is 403,265,146 as of the date hereof.

In addition, the Company has the following securities outstanding which are convertible into common shares:

- 34,765,475 warrants;
- 50,874,190 stock options;
- 1,935,750 restricted share units;
- 12,082,004 deferred share units;
- $12,887,493 of Series A Debentures;
- $12,887,493 of Series B Debentures; and
- $15,378,043 of Series C Debentures.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The table below summarizes the categories under IFRS 9 for the financial assets and financial liabilities:

($,000s)	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, and marketable securities)	697	2,759
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables, net tax receivable, and investments)	6,666	10,672
Liabilities, amortized cost (accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities, liabilities held for sale, promissory note and convertible debt)	68,838	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by Level within the fair value hierarchy:

Fair value measurements using	Quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments	Significant other observable inputs	Significant unobservable inputs	Total
	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)
	$	$	$	$
Cash	465	-	-	465
Restricted cash	162	-	-	162
Marketable securities	65	5	-	70
Total, March 31, 2023	692	5	-	697

The carrying value of trade receivables, accounts payable and net tax payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facilities, promissory notes and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at March 31, 2023.

Financial Instruments Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The primary goals of the Company's risk management strategy are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward to maximize shareholder value.

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12.0 million term facility and the drawn amount of the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rate and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Investment risk

The Company is exposed to investment risk arising from its holdings in various securities, including publicly traded securities and a long-term investment in a privately held company. Investment risk encompasses a range of factors that could impact the value and performance of these securities.

The Company's investments in publicly traded securities are subject to market-related risks, including share price volatility and fluctuations. These risks are influenced by factors such as market conditions, investor sentiment, economic trends, and company-specific developments. The Company monitors market conditions, including share price movements, and evaluates the performance of its investments regularly. By staying informed about market trends and conducting ongoing evaluations, the Company aims to make informed investment decisions and manage risks effectively.

The Company holds a long-term investment in a privately held retail company, which introduces unique investment risks. These risks include factors such as business performance, market dynamics, regulatory changes, competitive landscape, and other industry-specific risks. The value and success of the investment are dependent on the ability of the underlying company to achieve its strategic objectives and generate sustainable returns. The Company regularly monitors the performance and prospects of this investment and incorporates risk assessments into its investment strategies.

The Company evaluates the business performance, market conditions, and industry-specific risks affecting the investment. By conducting ongoing assessments and incorporating risk assessments into its investment strategies, the Company strives to manage investment risk effectively.

It is important to note that investment risk cannot be completely eliminated, as it is inherent in the investment process. The Company recognizes that investments carry inherent uncertainties, and actual outcomes may differ from estimates and projections. Therefore, the Company remains diligent in its investment activities, continuously evaluates investment opportunities, and adjusts its investment strategy as necessary to navigate investment-related risks effectively.

d) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and cash equivalents as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of trade receivables, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, the expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables were assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to be incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is revaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	2,787	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	512	250
31 – 60 days past due	248	95
61 – 90 days past due	156	69
90 + days past due	1,184	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(871)	(654)
Other receivables	259	452
Total	4,275	7,751

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they primarily originate from government agencies, national insurance companies and a credit card company.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 82% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 59% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

During the year, the Company settled $2 million in accounts payable by delivering its products to a counterparty from whom the Company had made purchases, resulting in an equivalent accounts receivable balance. This transaction led to the offsetting of accounts receivable and accounts payable, effectively setting them to zero. Consequently, no cash flow was generated from the wholesale revenue, and both the accounts payable and accounts receivable were fully eliminated.

e) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million. For the year ended March 31, 2023, cash flow from operations is negative due in part to the high rate of revenue growth the Company has experienced which has driven a requirement for working capital and selling, general & administrative investment.

As at March 31, 2023, the Company has total current assets of $25.8 million (March 31, 2022 - $36.8 million) and total current liabilities of $31.3 million (March 31, 2022 - $73.0 million), providing for net current liability of $5.4 million (March 31, 2022 – $36.2 million). The significant change during the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 is primarily a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 convertible debenture.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position. The Company manages liquidity risk by seeking out new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, exploring and surfacing equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, divesting of non-core assets and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company potentially has options to meet its liquidity needs including, converting its non-cash working capital to cash, issuance of common shares via a private placement offering, issuing common shares via a public equity offering, and seeking out new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Divesting of its assets held for sale;
- Refinance or amend the terms of its credit facilities;
- Raise additional debt financing;
- Raise additional equity financing; and
- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

While, the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing to maintain operations in the normal course in the future on terms favourable for the Company. In this regard, reference should be had to the section below regarding the Company's going concern assumption.

f) Compliance with TSX, OTCQX and OTCQB Requirements

On March 22, 2022, Aleafia Health received notice from the OTCQX that its bid price had closed below

US$0.10 for more than 30 consecutive calendar days and no longer met the Standards for Continued Qualification for the OTCQX International tier. Aleafia Health was given a 180-day cure period for its share price to trade above US$0.10 for ten consecutive days. If, by September 19, 2022, Aleafia Health's bid price did not stay at or above the US$0.10 minimum for ten consecutive trading days during the cure period, and, as a result, Aleafia Health was delisted from the OTCQX on September 21, 2022. However, Aleafia Health has instead been moved to the OTCQB as of September 21, 2022 where its common shares continue to trade.

On May 3, 2022, the TSX approved the application by the Company for an exemption from certain voting requirements relating to the Private Placement and Debenture Amendments on the basis of "financial hardship." As a result, the Company was subject to a remedial delisting review by the TSX. It is routine for the TSX to require any issuer utilizing the financial hardship exemption to be the subject of such a review. On September 16, 2022, the TSX announced that it would extend the delisting review period until November 29, 2022. On November 24, 2022, the TSX confirmed that it completed its delisting review and Aleafia Health satisfied the TSX's requirements to remain listed on the TSX.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. The consolidated financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimate is revised and future years if the revision affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Going concern assumption

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million (March 31, 2022 – $493.2 million) and net working capital deficit of $5.4 million (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36.2 million). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The proposed business combination transaction with Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB"), along with the related subsequent events as described in Note 25, have the potential to significantly affect the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Please refer to Note 25 for more details regarding this subsequent event.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and strives to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options which could potentially meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, selling non-core assets, issuing common shares via a public or private placement equity offering, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business;
- Remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date, there can be no assurances whether it will be able to obtain sufficient funds from financing in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations.

Biological assets and inventory

In calculating the value of the biological assets and inventory, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, harvesting costs, selling costs, sales price, wastage and expected yields for the cannabis plant.

In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value, estimated useful lives and impairment of CGUs and goodwill.

Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale are no longer depreciated and are presented separately in the statement of financial position at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is regarded as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction, rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale and its sale must be highly probable.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

Depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment are dependent upon estimates of useful lives, which are determined through the exercise of judgment. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets.

Revenue recognition

Estimates are used when the Company recognizes certain research revenue depending on how frequently patients visit the clinics and what portion of the upfront deposits are considered deferred. Also, significant judgment is exercised to determine if all the specific requirements for the transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met and revenue can be recognized. Significant judgment is exercised to determine when certain conditions have been met for products destined for international markets.

Valuation of share-based payments

In calculating the share-based compensation expense, key estimates such as the rate of forfeiture of options granted, the expected life of the option, the volatility of the Company's stock price and the risk-free interest rate are used. In calculating the fair value of the warrants, the Company includes key assumptions such as the volatility of the Company's stock price, the value of the common share, and the risk-free interest rate.

Income taxes

Income taxes and tax exposures recognized in the consolidated Financial Statements reflect management's best estimate based on facts known at the reporting date. When the Company anticipates a future income tax payment based on its estimates, it recognizes a liability. The difference between the expected amount and the final tax outcome has an impact on current and deferred taxes when the Company becomes aware of this difference. In addition, when the Company incurs losses for income tax purposes, it assesses the probability of taxable income being available in the future based on its budgeted forecasts. These forecasts are adjusted to take into account certain non-taxable income and expenses and specific rules on the use of unused credits and tax losses. When the forecasts indicate that sufficient future taxable income will be available to deduct the temporary differences, a deferred tax asset is recognized for all deductible temporary differences.

DISCLOSURE AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Aleafia Health's disclosure controls and procedures (DCP), as defined in National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings (NI 52-109) are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our filings is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in securities legislation. They are also designed to provide reasonable assurance that all information required to be disclosed in these filings is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding public disclosure. Our management, including the CEO and CFO, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the DCP as of March 31, 2023 and concluded they were effective.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (ICFR), as defined in NI 52-109. ICFR means a process designed by or under the supervision of the CEO and CFO, and effected by our board of directors, management and other personnel to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS, and includes those policies and procedures that:

- pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the Company's financial position;
- are designed to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and
- are designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

All internal control systems have inherent limitations and therefore our ICFR can only provide reasonable assurance and may not prevent or detect misstatements due to error or fraud. Our management, including the CEO and CFO, conducted an evaluation of our ICFR and concluded that they were effective as of March 31, 2023.

It should be noted that a control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that its objectives are met. Because of the inherent limitations in any control system, no evaluation of control can provide absolute assurance that all control weaknesses including, for example, any instances of fraud, have been detected. Inherent limitations include: (i) that management's assumptions and judgements could ultimately prove to be incorrect as conditions and circumstances vary; (ii) the impact of any undetected errors; and (iii) controls may be circumvented through the unauthorized acts of individuals, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override. The design of any system of control is also based upon assumptions as to the likelihood of future events and there is no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its goals under future conditions.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter that materially affected, or were reasonably likely to materially affect, our ICFR.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Forward Looking Information

Certain statements herein relating to the Company constitute "forward looking information", within the meaning of applicable securities laws, including without limitation, statements regarding future estimates, business plans and/or objectives, sales programs, forecasts and projections, assumptions, expectations, and/or beliefs of future performance, are “forward-looking information”. Such forward-looking statements involve unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual and future events to differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to our market share, net revenue, net branded revenue, gross profit, gross profit margin, Adjusted SG&A, Adjusted EBITDA, and other financial outlook projections for financial year 2023, our commercial operations, including production and / or sales of cannabis, quantities of future cannabis production, anticipated revenue in connection with such sales, and other Information that is based on forecasts of future results, estimates of production not yet determinable, and other key management assumptions. The following material factors or assumptions were used to develop the forward looking information: market size and growth of the Canadian adult-use and medical cannabis markets, retail store penetration, script ordering frequency, retention and average order value trends, cultivation and processing capacity, costs of production, flower procurement costs, inflation, interest rates, gross and net revenue per gram.

Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward looking statements and involve risk and uncertainties relating to: future cultivation yield and quality, ability to procure additional Usable Flower, actual operating performance of facilities, product launches, facility licenses and amendments, patient retention ability to enter new provincial adult-use markets, average selling prices, cost of goods sold, operating expenses, Adjusted EBITDA, regulatory changes in the Canadian and international markets, and other uninsured risks. The forward looking information was approved by Management as of June 13, 2023. The Company assumes no responsibility to update or revise forward-looking information to reflect new events or circumstances unless required by law. The forward looking information is provided for information purposes only and readers are cautioned that it may not be appropriate for other purposes. This presentation is provided for general information purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any security in any jurisdiction

Cautionary Statement Regarding Non-IFRS Measures

This MD&A contains non-IFRS financial performance measures which the Company believes provides users with relevant information regarding operation performance. These measures are not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, they may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors. These non-IFRS measures include, but are not limited to:

- Cannabis net revenue is sale of cannabis revenue less excise duties
 - Adult-use cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for Canadian adult-use sales.
 - Medical cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for Canadian medical sales and clinic revenue.
 - International cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for international medical sales.
 - Bulk Wholesale cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue in sales to other LPs.
- Branded Cannabis Net Revenue is calculated as Adult-use cannabis net revenue, Medical cannabis net revenue and International cannabis net revenue. It excludes bulk wholesale net revenue
- Total Branded Cannabis Revenue is calculated as Adult-use cannabis revenue, Medical cannabis revenue and International cannabis revenue. It excludes bulk wholesale cannabis revenue.
- Gross profit margin before fair value adjustments on branded cannabis net revenue represents gross profit margin on branded cannabis net revenue. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to bulk wholesale and dividing by branded cannabis net revenue.
- Gross profit before fair value adjustments on bulk wholesale represents gross profit on bulk wholesale. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to bulk wholesale net revenue.
- Gross profit margin before fair value adjustments on bulk wholesale represents gross profit margin on bulk wholesale. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to cannabis net revenue and dividing by bulk wholesale net revenue.
- Gross profit before fair value adjustments margin is the gross profit before fair value adjustments and inventory provision divided by total net revenue. Management believes that this is a useful metric to assess the profitability of cannabis sales, as it eliminates the effects of non-cash fair value changes in inventory and biological assets.

- Adjusted EBITDA margin is calculated as Adjusted EBITDA divided by total net revenue.

RISK FACTORS

Due to the nature of the Company's business and the legal and economic climate in which it operates, the Company is subject to significant risks. The risks presented below should not be exhaustive and may not be all of the risks that the Company may face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently considers immaterial may also impair its business and operations. If any of the following or other risks are realized, the Company's business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially adversely impacted. In that event the trading price of the Company's shares could decline, and investors could lose all or part of their investment. There is no assurance that risk management steps taken will avoid future loss due to the occurrence of the risks described below or other unforeseen risks.

REGULATORY AND LEGAL RISKS

Compliance with Laws

The adult-use and medical cannabis industries and markets are subject to a variety of laws in Canada and internationally.

The business and activities of the Company are heavily regulated. The Company's operations are subject to various laws, regulations and guidelines by governmental authorities, particularly Health Canada, relating to the manufacture, marketing, management, transportation, storage, sale and disposal of cannabis, and also including laws and regulations relating to health and safety, healthcare practitioner services, the conduct of operations and the protection of the environment. Laws and regulations, applied generally, grant government agencies and self-regulatory bodies broad administrative discretion over the activities of the Company, including the power to limit or restrict business activities as well as impose additional disclosure requirements on the Company's products and services.

To the knowledge of management, the Company is currently in compliance under the Cannabis Act. Failure to comply with the laws and regulations applicable to its operations may lead to possible sanctions including the revocation or imposition of additional conditions on its Licences, issued in accordance with the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations ("Licences") to operate the Company's business; the suspension or expulsion from a particular market or jurisdiction or of its key personnel; and, the imposition of fines and censures. To the extent that there are changes to the existing or the enactment of future laws and regulations that affect the sale or offering of the Company's product or services in any way it may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Any amendment to or replacement of the Cannabis Act or other applicable rules and regulations governing the Company's activities may cause adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

There is also a risk that the Company's interpretation of laws, regulations and guidelines, including, but not limited to the associated regulations and applicable stock exchange rules and regulations, may differ from those of others, including those of governmental authorities, securities regulators and exchanges, and the Company's operations may not be in compliance with such laws, regulations and guidelines.

Achievement of the Company's business objectives is contingent, in part, upon compliance with regulatory requirements enacted by governmental authorities and, where necessary, obtaining regulatory approvals. The impact of regulatory compliance regimes, and the impact of any delays in obtaining or failures to obtain regulatory approvals required by the Company may significantly delay or impact the development of the Company's business and operations and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, the Company is subject to ongoing inspections by Health Canada to monitor compliance with licensing requirements. The Company's existing Licences and any new licences that it may obtain in the future in Canada or other jurisdictions may be revoked or restricted at any time in the event that the Company is found not to be in compliance. Should the Company fail to comply with the applicable regulatory requirements or with conditions set out under its Licences or should its Licences be revoked, the Company may not be able to continue producing or distributing cannabis in Canada.

The Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to regulatory compliance. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations may result in enforcement actions thereunder, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed, and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures or remedial actions. The Company may be liable for civil or criminal fines or penalties imposed for violations of applicable laws or regulations.

Changes in Laws, Regulations and Guidelines

The legislative framework pertaining to the Canadian recreational cannabis market is subject to significant provincial and territorial regulation, which varies across provinces and territories resulting in an asymmetric regulatory and market environment, different competitive pressures and significant additional compliance and other costs and/or limitations on the Company's ability to participate in such markets.

The laws, regulations and guidelines applicable to the cannabis industry domestically and internationally may change in ways currently unforeseen by the Company. The Cannabis Act came into effect on October 17, 2018. However, uncertainty exists with respect to the implementation of the Cannabis Act, federal regulations thereunder as well as the various provincial and territorial regimes governing the distribution and sale of cannabis for adult-use, recreational purposes.

Since cannabis remains illegal under U.S. federal law (other than the legalization of hemp) any engagement in cannabis-related activities may lead to heightened scrutiny by regulatory bodies and other authorities that could negatively impact the Company and/or its personnel.

The impact of these new laws, regulations and guidelines on the business of the Company, including increased costs of compliance and other potential risks, cannot be fully predicted; accordingly, the Company may experience adverse effects.

Reliance on Licenses and Permits

The Company's ability to grow, store and sell cannabis in Canada is dependent on its Licences from Health Canada. Failure to comply with the requirements of the Licences or any failure to maintain its Licences would have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

The Port Perry facility Licence will expire on October 9, 2023, the Paris facility Licence will expire on January 20, 2028, the Grimsby facility Licence will expire on June 13, 2023, and the Distribution Centre Licence will expire on February 12, 2024. The Company has ceased all activities at its Grimsby facility and is no longer dependent on the facility or its licence.

Although management believes it will meet the requirements of the Cannabis Act, for extension of the Licences, there can be no guarantee that Health Canada will extend or renew the Licences or, if it is extended or renewed, that it will be extended or renewed on the same or similar terms. Should Health Canada not extend or renew the Licences, or should it renew the Licences on different terms or not provide the amendments as requested for anticipated capacity increases, the business, financial condition and results of the operations of the Company will be materially adversely affected.

The Company is dependent upon its Licences for its ability to grow, store and sell cannabis and other products at its production facilities. The Licences are subject to ongoing compliance, reporting requirements and renewal.

In addition to the Licences, the operations of the Company may require other Licences and permits from various governmental authorities, including, but not limited to, local municipalities. The Company currently has all non-federal permits and Licences that it believes are necessary to carry on its business. The Company may require additional Licences or permits in the future and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain all such additional Licences and permits. In addition, there can be no assurance that any existing Licences and permits will be renewable if and when required or that such existing Licences and permits will not be revoked.

Regulatory or Agency Proceedings, Investigations and Audits

The Company's businesses require compliance with certain laws and regulations. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations could subject the Company to regulatory or agency proceedings or investigations and could lead to damage awards, fines and penalties.

The Company may become involved in a number of government or agency proceedings, investigations and audits. The outcome of any regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations, audits, and other contingencies could harm the Company's reputation, require the Company to take, or refrain from taking, actions that could harm its operations or require the Company to pay substantial amounts of money, harming its financial condition.

There can be no assurance that any pending or future regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations and audits will not result in substantial costs or a diversion of management's attention and resources or have a material adverse impact on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operation.

Reliance on Facilities

The Port Perry facility, the Paris facility, and the Distribution Centre are integral to the Company's business and adverse changes or developments affecting any of them may impact the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Adverse changes or developments affecting the Port Perry facility, Paris facility, and/or the Distribution Centre, including but not limited to a force majeure event or a breach of security, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and prospects. Any breach of the security measures and other production facility requirements, including any failure to comply with recommendations or requirements arising from inspections by Health Canada, could also have an impact on the Company's ability to continue operating under its existing licence or the prospect of renewing the licence or could result in a revocation of the licence.

Constraints on Marketing Activities

The development of the Company's business and operating results may be hindered by applicable restrictions on sales and marketing activities and the potentially broad interpretation of such restrictions imposed by Health Canada. The regulatory environment in Canada limits the Company's ability to compete for market share in a manner similar to other industries. If the Company is unable to effectively market its products and compete for market share, or if the costs of compliance with government legislation and regulation cannot be absorbed through increased sales prices for its products, the Company's sales and operating results could be adversely affected.

Intellectual Property

The Company's success depends in part on its ability to protect its rights to intellectual property and/or to license intellectual property rights on favourable terms. The Company relies upon various forms of intellectual property protection, including copyright and trademarks, as well as contractual provisions, to protect intellectual property rights. Despite precautionary measures, the steps the Company takes may not prevent misappropriation of the Company's intellectual property, and the agreements the Company enters into may not be enforceable. It may also be possible for third parties to obtain and use the Company's intellectual property without authorization. Policing unauthorized use of intellectual property is difficult, time-consuming and costly. Further, some foreign laws do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as the laws of Canada.

With respect to the trademark applications that the Company has filed, the Company cannot offer any assurances about whether such applications will be granted. Even if trademark applications are successfully approved, third parties may challenge their validity, enforceability, or scope, which may result in such trademarks being narrowed, found unenforceable or invalidated. Even if they are unchallenged, any trademark applications and future trademarks may not adequately protect the Company's intellectual property or provide exclusivity for its products or processes. Any of these outcomes could impair the Company's ability to prevent competition from third parties, which may have an adverse impact on the Company's business.

Trademark protection is an important factor in establishing product recognition. The Company's ability to protect its trademarks from infringement could result in injury to any goodwill which may be developed in those trademarks. Moreover, the Company may be unable to use one or more of its trademarks because of successful third-party claims.

To protect the Company's intellectual property, it may become involved in litigation, which could result in substantial expenses, divert the attention of management, cause significant delays, materially disrupt the conduct of business or adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, other parties may claim that the Company's products infringe on their proprietary or patent protected rights. Such claims, whether or not meritorious, may result in the expenditure of significant financial and managerial resources and legal fees, result in injunctions or temporary restraining orders or require the payment of damages.

The Company also relies on certain trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information that are not protected by patents to maintain its competitive position. The Company's trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information, which are not protected by patents, may become known to or be independently developed by competitors, which could adversely affect the Company.

OPERATING RISKS

The Cannabis Industry in Canada

As a LP, the Company is operating its business in a relatively new industry and market. In addition to being subject to general business risks, the Company must continue to build brand awareness in this industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance and compliance with regulations. In addition, there is no assurance that the industry and market will continue to exist and grow as currently estimated or anticipated or function and evolve in the manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that adversely affects the cannabis industry, such as the imposition of restrictions on sales and marketing or restrictions on sales in certain areas, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial conditions and results of operations.

Operating in a New and Evolving Industry

The nature of the new and rapidly evolving industry and developing market for cannabis may result in management having to change focus and strategy and adapt to an evolving and changing market and industry. In addition, the Company will be susceptible to adverse developments in this new market and industry, the sole market in which it operates, such as new developments, changing demographics, changing regulatory regime and other factors.

If the Company is unable to successfully operate as a LP, this could substantially reduce its earnings and its ability to generate cash flow from its operations and may reduce the value of the common shares and adversely affect the Company's ability to raise additional capital.

Reliance on Third Party Suppliers, Manufacturers and Contractors

The Company's business is dependent on a number of fundamental inputs and their related costs including raw materials and supplies related to its growing operations, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for certain inputs could materially impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. Some of these inputs may only be available from a single supplier or a limited group of suppliers. If a sole source supplier was to go out of business, the Company might be unable to find a replacement for such a source in a timely manner or at all. If a sole source supplier were to be acquired by a competitor, that competitor may elect not to sell to the Company in the future. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company and materially adversely impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Third Party Transportation

In order for customers of the Company to receive products from the Company, the Company must rely on third party mail and courier services. This can cause logistical problems with and delays in customers obtaining their orders and cannot be directly controlled by the Company. Any delay by third party transportation and/or rising costs associated with these services may adversely affect the Company's financial performance.

Moreover, security of the product during transportation to and from the Company's facilities is critical due to the nature of the product. A breach of security during transport could have material adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. Any such breach could impact the Company's ability to continue operating under its Licences or impede the prospect of renewing its Licences.

Reputational Risk to Third Parties

The parties with which the Company does business may perceive that they are exposed to reputational risk as a result of the Company's cannabis business activities. Failure to establish or maintain business relationships could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Supply Shortages and Overages

The Company may not be able to obtain from third parties, or produce, enough cannabis to meet demand. This may result in lower than expected sales and revenue and increased competition for sales and sources of supply.

In the future, LPs in Canada may produce more cannabis than is needed to satisfy the collective demand of the Canadian adult-use and medical markets, and they may be unable to export the oversupply into other markets where cannabis use is also legal. As a result, the available supply of cannabis could exceed demand, resulting in a significant decline in the market price for cannabis. If such supply or price fluctuations occur, the Company's revenue and profitability may fluctuate materially and its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected.

In addition, demand for cannabis and cannabis products is dependent on a number of social, political and economic factors that are beyond the Company's control. A material decline in the economic conditions affecting consumers can cause a reduction in disposable income for the average consumer, change consumption patterns and result in a reduction in spending on cannabis products or a switch to other products obtained through illegal channels. There can be no assurance that market demand for cannabis will continue to be sufficient to support the Company's current or future production levels.

Disruption of Supply Chain

Conditions or events including, but not limited to, those listed below could disrupt the Company's supply chains, interrupt operations at its facilities, increase operating expenses, resulting in loss of sales, delayed performance of contractual obligations or require additional expenditures to be incurred:

- (i) extraordinary weather conditions or natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, fires, extreme heat, earthquakes, etc.;
- (ii) a local, regional, national or international outbreak of a contagious disease, including the COVID-19 coronavirus, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, H1N1 influenza virus, avian flu, or any other similar illness could result in a general or acute decline in economic activity (see also, "Public Health Crises, including COVID-19");
- (iii) political instability, social and labour unrest, war or terrorism; or
- (iv) interruptions in the availability of basic commercial and social services and infrastructure including power and water shortages, and shipping and freight forwarding services including via air, sea, rail and road.

Public Health Crises, including COVID-19

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), a global pandemic. Government measures to limit the spread of COVID-19, including the closure of non-essential businesses, continued to disrupt the Company's operations during the year ended March 31, 2023.

The production and sale of cannabis and cannabis-derived products have been recognized as essential services across Canada; however, COVID-19 related challenges have persisted, including, but not limited to, reduced staffing levels, production inefficiencies resulting from increased health and safety measures, and limited supply chain issues.

Due to the ongoing developments and uncertainty surrounding COVID-19, it is not possible to predict the continuing impact that COVID-19 will have on the Company, its financial position, and/or its operating results in the future. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's consolidated financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19, and the effect of any such changes could be material. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of its business.

Effectiveness of Quality Control Systems

The quality and safety of the Company's products are critical to the success of its business and operations. As such, it is imperative that the Company's (and its service providers') quality control systems operate effectively and successfully. Quality control systems can be negatively impacted by the design of the quality control systems, the quality training program, and adherence by employees to quality control guidelines. Although the Company strives to ensure that all of its service providers have implemented and adhere to high caliber quality control systems, any significant failure or deterioration of such quality control systems could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Development of New Products and Technologies

The Company and its competitors are actively seeking to develop new products in order to keep pace with any new market developments and generate revenue growth. The Company may not be successful in developing effective and safe new products, bringing such products to market in time to be effectively commercialized, or obtaining any required regulatory approvals, which, together with any capital expenditures made in the course of such product development and regulatory approval processes, may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The technologies, processes and formulations the Company uses may also face competition or become obsolete. Rapidly evolving markets, technology, emerging industry standards and frequent introduction of new products characterize the cannabis business. The introduction of new products and new technologies, including new manufacturing processes or formulations, and the emergence of new industry standards may render the Company's current products obsolete, less competitive or less marketable.

The process of developing new products is complex and requires significant continuing costs, development efforts and third-party commitments. The Company may be unable to anticipate changes in customer requirements that could make its existing technology, processes or formulations obsolete. The Company's success will depend on its ability to continue to enhance its existing technologies, develop new technology that addresses the increasing sophistication and varied needs of the market, and respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a timely and cost-effective basis. Failure to develop new technologies and products and the obsolescence of existing technologies or processes could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Reliance on Skilled Workers and Equipment

The ability of the Company to compete and grow cannabis will be dependent on it having access to, at a reasonable cost and in a timely manner, skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. No assurances can be given that the Company will be successful in maintaining its required supply of skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. It is also possible that the final costs of any major capital expenditures contemplated by the Company may be significantly greater than anticipated by management, and may be greater than funds available, in which circumstance the Company may curtail, or extend the timeframes for completing, its capital expenditure plans. This could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

Attraction and Retention of Key Personnel

The Company has a small management team and the loss of a key individual or inability to attract suitably qualified management could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. While employment and management services agreements are customarily used as a primary method of retaining the services of key personnel, these agreements cannot assure the continued services of such persons.

The Company may also encounter difficulties in obtaining and maintaining suitably qualified staff in certain of the jurisdictions in which it conducts business. In addition, there is a risk that management or key personnel will fail to execute in their roles or falter in judgment in certain circumstances, all of which could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

FINANCIAL RISKS

Compliance with TSX, OTCQX and OTCQB Requirements

On March 19, 2019, the common shares of Aleafia Health ceased trading on the TSXV and commenced trading on the TSX under the symbol "ALEF", which was subsequently changed to "AH" on May 27, 2020.

Aleafia Health is subject to changing rules and regulations promulgated by a number of governmental and self-regulated organizations, including, but not limited to, the Canadian Securities Administrators, the TSX, the OTCQB and the Ontario Securities Commission. These rules and regulations continue to evolve in scope and complexity, creating many new requirements.

On March, 22, 2022, Aleafia Health received notice from the OTCQX that its bid price had closed below US$0.10 for more than 30 consecutive calendar days and no longer met the Standards for Continued Qualification for the OTCQX International tier. Aleafia Health has been given a 180 day cure period for its share price to trade above US$0.10 for ten consecutive days. If, by September 19, 2022, Aleafia Health's bid price has not stayed at or above the US$0.10 minimum for ten consecutive trading days, then its shares will be delisted from the OTCQX on September 21, 2022. However, Aleafia Health has instead been moved to the OTCQB as of September 21, 2022 where its common shares continue to trade.

On May 3, 2022, the TSX approved the application by the Company for an exemption from certain voting requirements relating to the Private Placement and Debenture Amendments on the basis of "financial hardship." As a result, the Company is subject to a remedial delisting review by the TSX which is anticipated to occur in September 2022. It is routine for the TSX to require any issuer utilizing the financial hardship exemption to be the subject of such a review. On September 16, 2022, the TSX announced that it would extend the delisting review period until November 29, 2022. On November 24, 2022, the TSX confirmed that it completed its delisting review and Aleafia Health satisfied the TSX's requirements to remain listed on the TSX.

Volatile Market Price of the Common Shares

The market price of the common shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. This volatility may affect the ability of holders of common shares to sell their securities for a profit, or at all. Market price fluctuations in the common shares may be due to the Company's operating results failing to meet expectations of securities analysts (including short-sellers) or investors in any period, downward revision in securities analysts' estimates, adverse changes in general market conditions or economic trends, acquisitions, dispositions or other material public announcements by the Company or its competitors, along with a variety of additional factors.

Financial markets have historically at times experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have often been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies.

Accordingly, the market price of the common shares may decline even if the Company's operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company's operations could be adversely impacted, and the trading price of the common shares may be materially adversely affected.

Obligations as a Public Company

As a public company, Aleafia Health is subject to corporate governance and public disclosure requirements that may increase Aleafia Health's compliance costs and risk of non-compliance, which could adversely impact the price of the common shares.

Dilution

Aleafia Health's articles permit the issuance of an unlimited number of common shares and shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuance. Aleafia Health's may issue additional securities in the future, which may dilute a shareholder's holdings in Aleafia Health.

Cash Flow from Operations

Operating cash flow may decline in certain circumstances, many of which are beyond the Company's control. There is no assurance that sufficient revenues will be generated in the near future. Since the Company expects to continue incurring significant working capital investment to grow its revenue, the Company will continue to experience negative cash flow until it reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses. An inability to generate positive cash flow until the Company reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses or raise additional capital on reasonable terms may adversely affect the Company's viability as an operating business.

Additional Financing and Restrictions

The continued development of the Company may require additional financing. Even if its financial resources are sufficient to fund its current operations, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve its business objectives. The failure to raise additional capital could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of current business objectives or the Company becoming insolvent. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, on terms that are favourable or acceptable to the Company.

In addition, from time to time, the Company may enter into transactions to acquire assets or the shares of other corporations. These transactions may be financed in whole or in part, by debt, which may increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions. Debt financings may also contain provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders or their agents to accelerate repayment of loans and/or realize upon security over the assets of the Company, and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in such an event or prevent the enforcement of security granted pursuant to such debt financing.

Joint Venture Vehicles

The Company currently operates parts of its business through joint ventures with other companies, and it may enter into additional joint ventures and strategic alliances in the future. Joint venture investments may involve risks not otherwise present for investments made solely by the Company, including: control, additional expenditures, conflicting interests and exit strategy, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company, its financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the Company may, in certain circumstances, be liable for the actions of its joint venture partners.

Ability to Achieve or Maintain Profitability

The Company has incurred losses in recent periods. The Company may not be able to achieve or maintain profitability and may continue to incur significant losses in the future. In addition, the Company expects to continue to increase operating expenses as it implements initiatives to continue to grow its business. If the Company's revenues do not increase to offset these expected increases in costs and operating expenses, the Company will not be profitable.

Impact of the Illicit Supply of Cannabis

Despite the legalization of medical and adult-use cannabis in Canada, illegal operations remain. Illegal dispensaries and market participants may be able to:

- (i) offer products with higher concentrations of active ingredients that are either expressly prohibited or impracticable to produce under current Canadian regulations;
- (ii) use delivery methods, including certain edibles, concentrates and extract vaporizers, that we are currently prohibited from offering to individuals in Canada;

- (iii) use marketing and branding strategies that are restricted under the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations; and
- (iv) make claims not permissible under the Cannabis Act and other regulatory regimes.

As these illicit market participants do not comply with the regulations governing the medical and adult-use cannabis industry in Canada, their operations may also have significantly lower costs.

As a result of the competition presented by the illicit market for cannabis, any unwillingness by consumers currently utilizing these unlicensed distribution channels to begin purchasing from LPs for any reason or any inability or unwillingness of law enforcement authorities to enforce laws prohibiting the unlicensed cultivation and sale of cannabis and cannabis-based products could:

- (i) result in the perpetuation of the illicit market for cannabis;
- (ii) adversely affect the Company's market share; and
- (iii) adversely impact the public perception of cannabis use and LPs, all of which could have a materially adverse impact on the Company's business, operations and financial condition.

Employee Health and Safety Regulations

The Company's operations are subject to laws and regulations concerning employee health and safety and the Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to compliance with such matters. Failure to comply with safety laws and regulations may result in additional costs for corrective measures, penalties or in restrictions on the Company's manufacturing operations. In addition, changes in employee health and safety or other laws, more vigorous enforcement thereof or other unanticipated events could require extensive changes to the Company's operations or give rise to material liabilities, which could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company.

ENVIRONMENTAL RISKS

Environmental Regulations and Risks

The Company's operations are subject to environmental regulation federally and in the municipal and provincial jurisdictions in which it operates. These regulations mandate, among other things, the maintenance of air and water quality standards. They also set forth limitations on the generation, transportation, storage and disposal of waste. Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner which will require increasingly stricter standards and enforcement, increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees. There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulation, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations.

Risks Inherent in an Agricultural Business

The Company will be subject to the general risks inherent in the ownership and operation of the business of planting, growing, harvesting and marketing cannabis, which, as an agricultural product, is subject to the general risks associated with all agricultural products such as disease, insect pests, changes in raw material costs, the risk and uncertainties of planting, growing and harvesting, environmental matters, considerations relating to product quality, grading and branding, changes in laws and other general economic and market conditions.

Weather conditions and climate, which can vary substantially from year to year, may have a significant impact on the size and quality of the harvest of the crops processed and sold by the Company. Such adverse weather patterns could result in more permanent disruptions in the quality and size of the available crop, which could adversely affect the Company's business.

Like other agricultural products, the quality of cannabis grown outdoors is affected by weather and the environment, which can change the quality or size of the harvest. If a weather event is particularly severe, such as a major drought or hurricane, the affected harvest could be destroyed or damaged to an extent that it would be less desirable to the Company's customers, which could result in a reduction in revenues. If such an event is also widespread, it could affect the Company's ability to acquire the quantity of products required by customers. In addition, other items can affect the marketability of cannabis grown outdoors, including, among other things, the presence of non-cannabis related material, genetically modified organisms and excess residues of pesticides, fungicides and herbicides.

OTHER RISKS

Competition

To date, Health Canada has issued hundreds of Licences to produce, cultivate and/or sell cannabis. As a result, the Company has significant competition from other companies, some of which have longer operating histories and greater financial resources, operating and marketing experience than the Company. Additionally, a large number of companies appear to be applying for production licences, some of which may:

- (i) have significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources;
- (ii) be able to devote greater resources to the development, promotion, sale and support of their products and services; and
- (iii) have more extensive customer bases and broader customer relationships.

Should the size of the cannabis market increase as projected the demand for products will increase as well, and in order for the Company to be competitive it will need to invest significantly in research and development, marketing, production expansion, new client identification, and client support. If the Company is not successful in attaining sufficient resources to invest in these areas, the Company's ability to compete in the market may be adversely affected, which could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, its financial conditions and operations.

New Industry and Market

The Company's business as a LP represents a relatively new industry and nascent market. In addition to being subject to general business risks and to risks inherent in the nature of an early stage business, a business involving an agricultural product and a regulated consumer product, the Company will need to build brand awareness in the new industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance, and compliance with regulations, especially against competitors who have already spent some time building their brands. These activities may not promote the Company's brand and products as effectively as intended, or at all.

This new market and industry into which management is entering will have competitive conditions, consumer tastes, patient requirements and unique circumstances, and spending patterns that differ from existing markets. There are no assurances that this new industry and market will exist or grow as estimated or anticipated, or function and evolve in a manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that affects this new market and industry may materially and adversely affect the business, financial conditions and results of operations of the Company.

Product Liability

As a manufacturer and distributor of products designed to be ingested by humans, the Company faces an inherent risk of exposure to product liability claims, regulatory action and litigation if its products are alleged to have caused significant loss or injury. In addition, the sale of the Company's products involves the risk of injury to consumers due to tampering by unauthorized third parties or product contamination.

Previously unknown adverse reactions resulting from human consumption of the Company's products alone or in combination with other medications or substances could occur. The Company may be subject to various product liability claims, including, among others, that the Company's products caused injury or illness, include inadequate instructions for use or include inadequate warnings concerning possible side effects or interactions with other substances.

A product liability claim or regulatory action against the Company could result in increased costs, could adversely affect the Company's reputation with its clients and consumers generally, and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition of the Company. There can be no assurances that the Company will be able to obtain or maintain product liability insurance on acceptable terms or with adequate coverage against potential liabilities. Such insurance is expensive and may not be available in the future on acceptable terms, or at all. The inability to obtain sufficient insurance coverage on reasonable terms or to otherwise protect against potential product liability claims could prevent or inhibit the commercialization of the Company's potential products.

Product Recalls

Manufacturers and distributors of products are sometimes subject to the recall or return of their products for a variety of reasons, including product defects, such as contamination, unintended harmful side effects or interactions with other substances, packaging safety and inadequate or inaccurate labelling disclosure. If any of the Company's products are recalled due to an alleged product defect or for any other reason, the Company could be required to incur the unexpected expense of the recall and any legal proceedings that might arise in connection with the recall. The Company may lose a significant amount of sales and may not be able to replace those sales at an acceptable margin or at all. In addition, a product recall may require significant management attention.

Although the Company has detailed procedures in place for testing its products, there can be no assurance that any quality, potency or contamination problems will be detected in time to avoid unforeseen product recalls, regulatory action or lawsuits. Additionally, if the Company is subject to a recall, the reputation of the Company could be harmed. A recall for any of the foregoing reasons could lead to decreased demand for the Company's products and could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of the Company. Additionally, product recalls may lead to increased scrutiny of the Company's operations by regulatory agencies, requiring further management attention, potential loss of applicable Licences and potential legal fees and other expenses.

Managing Growth

The Company may be subject to growth-related risks including capacity constraints and pressure on its internal systems and controls. The ability of the Company to manage growth effectively will require it to continue to implement and improve its operational and financial systems and to expand, train and manage its employee base. The inability of the Company to deal with this growth may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In order to manage growth and changes in strategy effectively, the Company must

- (i) maintain adequate systems to meet customer demand;
- (ii) expand sales and marketing, distribution capabilities and administrative functions; and
- (iii) attract and retain qualified employees, including in respect of its management team.

While it intends to focus on managing its costs and expenses over the long term, the Company expects to invest to support its growth and may have additional unexpected costs. It may not be able to expand quickly enough to exploit potential market opportunities. The Company could also fail to successfully integrate acquired entities into the business of the Company.

Fraudulent or Illegal Activities by Employees, Contractors or Consultants

The Company's employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct that violates:

- (i) government regulations;
- (ii) manufacturing standards;
- (iii) federal and provincial healthcare fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or
- (iv) laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data.

It is not always possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against the Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on the Company's business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, and curtailment of the Company's operations, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Insurance Coverage

The Company has insurance to protect its assets, operations, directors and employees. While the Company believes the insurance coverage addresses all material risks to which it is exposed and is adequate and customary in the current state of operations, such insurance is subject to coverage limits and exclusions and may not be available for the risks and hazards to which the Company is exposed.

In addition, no assurance can be given that such insurance will be adequate to cover the Company's liabilities or will be generally available in the future or, if available, that premiums will be commercially justifiable. If the Company were to incur substantial liability and such damages were not covered by insurance or were in excess of policy limits, or if the Company were to incur such liability at a time when it is not able to obtain liability insurance, the business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

Litigation

The Company may become party to litigation from time to time in the ordinary course, which could adversely affect its business. Should any litigation in which the Company becomes involved be determined against the Company, such a decision could adversely affect the Company's ability to continue operating and the value of the common shares and require the Company to devote significant resources to such matters. Even if the Company is involved in litigation and wins, litigation may redirect many of the Company's resources, including the time and attention of management and available working capital. Litigation may also create a negative perception of the Company's brands.

Conflicts of Interest

Certain directors and officers of the Company hold, and may in future hold, interests in other companies involved in the same or similar businesses to the Company and as such may, in certain circumstances, have a conflict of interest, which could be adverse to the Company and, whether the conflict of interest is real or perceived, put the reputation of the Company at risk.

Conflicts of interest, if any, which arise will be subject to and governed by procedures prescribed by the Company's governing corporate law statute which requires a director of a Company who is a party to, or is a director or an officer of, or has some material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or proposed material contract with the Company to disclose his or her interest and, in the case of directors, to refrain from voting on any matter in respect of such contract unless otherwise permitted under applicable law.

Information Technology Systems and Cyber-Attacks

The Company has entered into agreements with third parties for hardware, software, telecommunications and other information technology ("IT") services in connection with its operations. The Company's operations depend, in part, on how well it and its suppliers protect networks, equipment, IT systems and software against damage from a number of threats, including, but not limited to, cable cuts, damage to physical plants, natural disasters, intentional damage and destruction, fire, power loss, hacking, computer viruses, vandalism and theft. The Company's operations also depend on the timely maintenance, upgrade and replacement of networks, equipment, IT systems and software, as well as pre-emptive expenses to mitigate the risks of failures. Any of these and other events could result in information system failures, delays and/or increase in expenses. The failure of information systems or a component of information systems could, depending on the nature of any such failure, adversely impact the Company's reputation and results of operations.

The Company has not experienced any material losses to date relating to cyber-attacks or other information security breaches, but there can be no assurance that the Company will not incur such losses in the future. The Company's risk and exposure to these matters cannot be fully mitigated because of, among other things, the evolving nature of these threats. As cyber threats continue to evolve, the Company may be required to expend additional resources to continue to modify or enhance protective measures or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information regarding the Company, including in the Financial Statements and our most recent annual information form dated June 29, 2022 for the year ended March 31, 2022 (the "Annual Information Form"), is available under the Company's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On June 6, 2023, Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB") and Aleafia (the "Company") entered into a Binding Letter Agreement whereby RWB has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the "Proposed Transaction") to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario).

Under the terms of the Binding Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an "Aleafia Share") will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of the Company (each, an "RWB Share"), subject to customary adjustment (the "Exchange Ratio"). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the "Combined Company") and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

Summary of the Proposed Transaction

The Proposed Transaction is expected to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, RWB will acquire all of the issued and outstanding Aleafia Shares in exchange for RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Aleafia shareholders in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (“MI 61-101”), at a special meeting of Aleafia shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “Aleafia Meeting”); (b) debenture holders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (“Debentureholder Approval”); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “RWB Meeting”).

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by on October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”). October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”).

A copy of the Letter Agreement will be filed on Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com. Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, all members of the board of directors of Aleafia, all officers of Aleafia and certain other security holders of Aleafia, will enter into customary support and voting agreements.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Concurrent with entering into the Binding Letter Agreement, the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain subsidiaries as borrowers, with other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP as lender, and subsequently amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023, was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

On June 6, 2023, concurrent with the execution of the Binding Letter Agreement Aleafia was advanced $1.5 million.

As part of the Proposed Transaction, the Company expects to settle the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2024, the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2026, and the 8.5% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2028 (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) for an aggregate of $6,000 at the Effective Time (subject to Debentureholder approval). The funding for the settlement of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, along with the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, is intended to be funded through a new secured $30,000 credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The New Credit Facility will also serve to support working capital requirements, growth initiatives, and the RWB Credit Facility, a $17,500 credit facility being negotiated by RWB and Aleafia. The RWB Credit Facility will facilitate cash settlement, working capital requirements, and promissory note repayment, and will include covenants and reporting requirements.

The specific terms of the New Credit Facility and the RWB Credit Facility will be confirmed upon the execution of final funding agreements and the completion of the Proposed Transaction. These actions aim to enhance liquidity and improve financial flexibility by supporting working capital requirements and funding growth initiatives. The negotiations for the RWB Credit Facility are being conducted in accordance with customary practices and are expected to be finalized within 30 days.

As at the consolidated financial statements’ balance sheet date of March 31, 2023, the Proposed Transaction and the related subsequent events had not yet been completed. Consequently, the consolidated financial statements do not reflect the impact of the Proposed Transaction. The Company will reassess and determine the appropriate accounting treatment once the Proposed Transaction is finalized and all necessary approvals are obtained.

Aleafia Health Inc.
85 Basaltic Road
Concord, Ontario
L4K 1G4

Item 2 Date of Material Change

January 31, 2021.

Item 3 News Release

A news release issued by Aleafia Health Inc. (the “Company”) with respect to the material change referred to in this Material Change Report was disseminated via Globe Newswire and filed on SEDAR prior to the opening of trading on February 1, 2021.

Item 4 Summary of Material Change

The board of directors (the “Board”) of the Company appointed Luciano Galasso and Carlo Sistilli (collectively, the “Shareholder Nominees”) as independent directors to the Board. Mr. Galasso has also been appointed to the Strategic Planning Committee and Mr. Sistilli has been appointed to the Audit Committee.

In connection with the director appointments, the Company entered into a director nomination agreement with a group of shareholders of the Company representing approximately 15.65% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company pursuant to which, among other things, such shareholders agreed to a customary standstill provision in favour of the Company until December 31, 2021 (provided that such standstill may be terminated after the 2021 annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company (the “2021 Annual Meeting”) in certain circumstances) and to vote all of their common shares in favour of the director nominees recommended by the Company for election at the 2021 Annual Meeting, which the Company has agreed to hold no later than June 30, 2021. The Company has also agreed to nominate seven directors for election at the 2021 Annual Meeting consisting of four current directors, the Shareholder Nominees and one independent director to be selected following a search process and approval by the Board, having regard to the Company’s corporate governance and director nomination policies and the skills matrix of the Board.

Item 5 Full Description of Material Change

Please see the attached press release for a full description of the material change.

Item 6 Reliance on subsection 7.1(2) of National Instrument 51-102

This report is not being filed on a confidential basis.

Item 7 Omitted Information

Not applicable.

Item 8 Executive Officer

For further information, please contact Geoff Cowper Smith, Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Company at 416-860-5665.

Item 9 Date of Report

ALEAFIA HEALTH TO APPOINT TWO NEW INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

TORONTO – February 1, 2021 – Aleafia Health Inc. (TSX: AH, OTC: ALEAF) (“Aleafia Health” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the board of directors (the “Board”) has appointed Lu Galasso and Carlo Sistilli as independent directors to the Board. Mr. Galasso will be appointed to the Strategic Planning Committee and Mr. Sistilli will be appointed to the Audit Committee.

“I would like to welcome Lu and Carlo to our Board,” said Acting Chair Lea Ray. “Their collective professional experience will bring unique skills to the Board that will serve Aleafia Health well in its continued growth.”

Lu Galasso

Lu Galasso is a Chartered Professional Accountant, CA, CPA and holds the Institute of Corporate Directors ICD.D designation.

Lu is a Partner with the Zzen Group of Companies, a company in the real estate and manufacturing sectors, where he is the CFO and head of strategic developments for the manufacturing operations.

Lu is Chair of the Board of Directors for Titanium Transportation Group, a trucking and logistics business listed on the TSX. He is also the President of the Board of Directors of the Meta Foundation, a member of the Board for the St. Christopher Children’s Home, and a member of the Dean’s Advisory Board for the Faculty of Management at Laurentian University.

Carlo Sistilli

Carlo Sistilli is a Chartered Professional Accountant and a Certified Management Accountant, CPA, CMA. As Chief Financial Officer and member of the Senior Management team of Arista Homes, Carlo plays a key role in overall operations including evaluation of mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to Arista, Carlo co-founded and served as CFO, member of the M&A team and member of the Board of Directors of an Internet start-up company, playing a key role in taking the company public on the Alberta Ventures Exchange.

Carlo is a member of the Board of Directors and Chair of the Audit Committee of Edesa Biotech, Inc., a company listed on NASDAQ. Mr. Sistilli is an officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Mother of Mercy Centre, a charity operating in Ontario.

In connection with the director appointments, the Company entered into a director nomination agreement with a group of shareholders of the Company representing approximately 15.65% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company pursuant to which, among other things, such shareholders have agreed to a customary standstill provision in favour of the Company until December 31, 2021 (provided that it may be terminated after the 2021 annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company (the “2021 Annual Meeting”) in certain circumstances) and to vote all of their common shares in favour of the director nominees recommended by the Company for election at the 2021 Annual Meeting, which the Company has agreed to hold no later than June 30, 2021. The Company has also agreed to nominate seven directors for election at the 2021 Annual Meeting consisting of four current directors, Messrs. Galasso and Sistilli and one independent director to be selected following a search process and approval by the Board, having regard to the Company's corporate governance and director nomination policies and the skills matrix of the Board.

About Aleafia Health:

Aleafia Health is a vertically integrated and federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis health and wellness services and products in Canada and in international markets. The Company operates medical clinics, education centres and production facilities for the production and sale of cannabis.

Aleafia Health owns three significant licensed cannabis production facilities, including the first large-scale, legal outdoor cultivation facility in Canadian history. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of commercially proven, high-margin derivative products including oils, capsules and sprays. Aleafia Health operates the largest national network of medical cannabis clinics and education centres staffed by MDs, nurse practitioners and educators and operates internationally in three continents.

Innovation, the heart of Aleafia Health's competitive advantage, has led to the Company maintaining a medical cannabis dataset with over 10 million data points to inform proprietary illness-specific product development and its highly differentiated education platform FoliEdge Academy. The Company is committed to creating sustainable shareholder value; the TSX Venture Exchange named Aleafia the 2019 top performing company prior to its graduation to the TSX.

DEMAND DEBENTURE

ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

PRINCIPAL SUM: $20,000,000.00

DATE: October 4, 2021

1. Acknowledgement and Promise to Pay

Aleafia Farms Inc. (the “Chargor”), a corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario, for value received, hereby acknowledges itself indebted to 1260356 Ontario Limited (the “Holder”) with an address at 100 Zenway Boulevard Woodbridge, ON L4H 2Y7 Attention: Colby De Zen, E-mail: cdzen@zzengroup.com, and covenants and promises: (i) to pay on demand following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default the Principal Sum to or to the order of the Holder, in lawful money of Canada; and (ii) to perform the obligations secured (as defined herein). The Chargor promises to pay, on demand, interest in like money on the amount of the Principal Sum outstanding from time to time and on all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the rate of 25% per annum, calculated semi-annually, not in advance. Such interest will be payable both before and after maturity, demand, default and judgment. The Chargor promises to pay interest, on demand, at the same rate, on overdue interest, calculated and payable monthly on the first Business Day of each and every month until paid.

2. Place of Payment

The Chargor promises to pay the Principal Sum, interest and all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the office of the Holder at which any notice may be given to the Holder in connection with this Debenture or at such other place in Canada as the Holder may designate by notice in writing to the Chargor at any time and from time to time.

3. Continuing Security

This Debenture secures payment and performance in favour of the Holder of all the present and future Obligations of the Chargor (being herein collectively called the “obligations secured”).

4. Security

As continuing security for the due and punctual payment of the Principal Sum, interest, overdue interest and the obligations secured, and the performance of all the obligations secured, the Chargor does, subject to the terms hereof, hereby:

- (a) grant a security interest in and grant, mortgage, assign, transfer, hypothecate and charge as and by way of a fixed and specific mortgage and charge to and in favour of the Holder, all the right, title, estate, interest and benefit of the Chargor, present and future, in, to, under or in respect of the property legally described in Schedule 4(a) (the “Owned Real Property”) together with all rights and interest therein, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, including, without limitation, all licences, easements, rights-of-way, privileges, benefits, immunities, rights and options connected therewith and/or appertaining thereto and all amendments thereto, replacements thereof and substitutions therefor from time to time, and all buildings, erections, structures, improvements, fixtures, fixed plant, fixed machinery and fixed equipment at present situate thereon or therein or which may at any time hereafter be constructed or brought or placed thereon or therein or used in connection therewith, including in each and all cases any greater or other right, title and interest therein or in any part thereof which the Chargor may acquire and hold during the currency of this Debenture, and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;

- (b) assign, transfer and set over unto and in favour of the Holder, its successors and assigns, as and by way of a fixed and specific assignment, all of its right, title, estate and interest, present and future in and to:
 - (i) all contracts, agreements, indentures, licenses, commitments or other agreements relating to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof to which the Chargor is now or subsequently a party or has a benefit, right or in which the Chargor now has or subsequently acquires an interest;
 - (ii) all amendments, extensions, renewals, replacements and substitutions of any of the property referred to in Section 4(b)(i) and all benefits, rights, remedies, privileges, claims, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom or thereunder (whether arising pursuant thereto or available to the Chargor at law or in equity) and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the other parties thereto including, without limitation, the right of the Chargor to enforce any of the foregoing and the obligations of the other parties thereto and to give or withhold any and all consents, requests, directions, approvals, extensions and/or waivers thereunder; and
 - (iii) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;
 - (i) any and all existing or future leases, subleases, agreements to lease or sublease or other occupancy or tenancy agreements relating to the whole or any part of the Owned Real Property and all existing or future licenses or concessions whereby any person is given the right (other than an easement or a right in the nature of an easement) to use or occupy the whole or any part or parts of the Owned Real Property and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into (collectively, the “Third Party Leases”), and all benefits, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the tenants thereunder;

- (ii) all rents and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable under the Third Party Leases, and each guarantee of or indemnity in respect of the obligations of the tenants thereunder with full power to demand, sue for recovery, receive and give receipts for all such rents and other moneys and otherwise to enforce the rights of the Chargor thereto in the name of the Chargor;
 - (iii) any and all existing or future agreements, contracts, licenses, permits, plans and specifications, bonds, letters of credit, letters of guarantee or other documents or instruments affecting or relating primarily to the servicing or development of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof or the construction, use, operation or maintenance of buildings, erections, structures, improvements and fixtures thereon and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (iv) any and all existing or future agreements of purchase and sale, options to purchase and mortgage, loan or other financing commitments relating in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all proceeds and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable thereunder and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (v) all proceeds of and from any and all existing or future insurance policies in respect of property damage and rental insurance pertaining in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property and all proceeds of expropriation or similar taking of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom provided that all such proceeds shall be held and applied in accordance with the Credit Agreement; and
 - (vi) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing; and
- (d) create a security interest in and grant, convey, mortgage, assign, transfer, pledge and charge as and by way of a floating charge to and in favour of the Holder, all of its undertaking, property and assets, real and personal, immovable and moveable, which in each case is located at and used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property, including, without limitation, all goods, money, investment property, intangibles, chattel paper, instruments, documents, inventories and goodwill, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, of whatsoever nature, kind or description (other than such thereof as may from time to time be validly and effectively subjected to the charges created under Sections 4(a), 4(b), and 4(c) of this Debenture), and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing.

The grants, conveyances, mortgages, charges, pledges, transfers, assignments and security interests created pursuant to this Section 4 (collectively, the “Security Interests”) shall not extend or apply to any personal property which is “consumer goods”, as such term is defined in the Act, or as applicable in any similar personal property security legislation in any jurisdiction in which any of the Property is located, and notwithstanding Section 4(d) or any other provision hereof, shall not extend or apply to any cannabis or cannabis derived products, and no cannabis or cannabis derived products (including those located at, used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property) will form part of the Property.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Chargor

The Chargor represents and warrants to the Holder as follows:

- (a) French Name: The Chargor does not have or use a French form of name or a combined English and French form of name;
- (b) Address: The address of the Chargor’s chief executive office is: 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, L4K 1G4; and
- (c) Location of the Property: With the exception of inventory in transit, all tangible assets comprising the Property are situate at the Owned Real Property or the chief executive office.

The foregoing representations and warranties shall survive for so long as any of the obligations secured remain unpaid and, notwithstanding any investigation made by or on behalf of the Holder, shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the Holder during such period.

6. Covenants of the Chargor

So long as any of the obligations secured shall remain unpaid or the Holder has the obligation to provide credit facilities pursuant to the Credit Agreement, the Chargor covenants and agrees with the Holder as follows:

- (a) No Accessions: The Chargor shall prevent any Property from being or becoming an accession to any property not subject to the Security Interests created by this Debenture;
- (b) Change of Name/Chief Executive Office: The Chargor shall not change its name or change the location of its chief executive office to a location outside of the Province of Ontario without giving prior written notice to the Holder of the new name or chief executive office location and the date upon which such change of name or chief executive office location is to take effect;
- (c) Location of Charged Premises: Except as may be permitted by the Credit Agreement, the Chargor shall not keep, store, locate or install any Charged Premises at, or move, transport or transfer any Charged Premises to, any location other than those locations set out in Section 5(c) without the prior written consent of the Holder; and

- (d) Registrations: The Chargor will, from time to time at the request of the Holder, promptly effect all registrations, filings, recordings and all renewals thereof and all re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings of or in respect of this Debenture and the Security Interests created hereby in such offices of public record and at such times as may be necessary or of advantage in perfecting, maintaining and protecting the validity, effectiveness and priority hereof and of the Security Interests created hereby; provided that the Holder may effect all such registrations, filings, recordings, renewals, re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings from time to time in its sole discretion at the expense of the Chargor.

7. Habendum

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Property and all rights hereby conferred to the Holder forever for the uses and purposes and with the powers and authorities and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

8. Definitions

Unless otherwise provided, the capitalized terms used in this Debenture shall have the meanings given to them as described in Schedule 6 hereto.

9. Attachment

The Chargor acknowledges and agrees that value has been given for the granting of the Security Interests created hereby and that there is no agreement between the Chargor and the Holder, express or implied, to postpone the attachment of the Security Interests. Subject to Section 29, the Security Interests created by this Debenture are intended to attach when this Debenture is executed by the Chargor and delivered to the Holder or in the case of after-acquired property, when the Chargor has rights or any interest in such property.

10. Reservation of Last Day of Lease

The last day of any term of years reserved by any lease or any extension or renewal thereof, oral or written, or any agreement therefor, now held or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, is hereby excepted out of the security created hereby or by any other instrument supplemental hereto and does not and shall not form part of the Property charged hereby or by any such other instrument, but should such charge become enforceable the Chargor shall stand possessed of the reversion remaining in the Chargor of any leasehold interest for the time being demised as aforesaid, upon trust to assign and dispose thereof as the Holder shall direct; and upon any sale of the leasehold interest, or any part thereof, the Holder for the purpose of vesting the aforesaid reversion of any such term or any renewal thereof in any purchaser or purchasers thereof, shall be entitled by deed or other writing to appoint such purchaser or purchasers or any other person or persons a new trustee or trustees of the aforesaid reversion of any such term or renewal thereof in the place of the Chargor and to vest the same accordingly in the new trustee or trustees so appointed, freed and discharged from any obligation respecting the same.

11. Excluded Collateral and Consents

Nothing herein shall constitute an assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest or attempted assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest of or in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which by the provisions thereof or by law is not assignable or cannot be made the subject of a mortgage, charge or security interest or which requires the consent of a third party to its assignment or being made subject to a mortgage, charge or security interest, unless such consent has been obtained. In each such case, the Chargor shall promptly, upon written request by the Holder acting reasonably, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of any necessary third party to its assignment hereby and to its further assignment by the Holder to any third party who may acquire same as a result of the exercise by the Holder of remedies after demand. Upon such consent being obtained or waived, the assignments, mortgages, charges and security interests provided for herein shall apply to the applicable contract, agreement, license, lease or permit without regard to this section and without the necessity of any further assurance to effect such assignments, mortgages, charges or security interests. Unless and until such consent is obtained as provided above, the Chargor shall, to the extent it may do so by law or pursuant to the provisions of the document or interest referred to therein, hold all right, title, estate, interest and benefit to be derived from the applicable contracts, agreements, licenses, leases or permits in trust for the Holder (including, without limitation, the Chargor's beneficial interest in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which may be held in trust for the Chargor by a third party) as additional security for payment of the obligations secured and shall, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing deliver up all such right, title, interest and benefit to the Holder, forthwith upon demand by the Holder.

12. Holder Not To Be Obligated

The Holder will not be liable to the Chargor or any other person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Holder under this Debenture (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Property, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Holder, nor any receiver or agent of the Holder, is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other persons under any Property in its possession. Neither the Holder nor any receiver or agent will be liable for any, and the Chargor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Property (including any Property in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder or such receiver or agent. Nothing herein contained shall have the effect of making the Holder responsible for the collection of any accounts or rents or any part thereof or for the performance of any obligations, covenants, terms or conditions in favour of any lessee or in favour of any party to any other agreement or contract with the Chargor or to whom the Chargor may be otherwise obligated. The Holder shall be liable to account only for such moneys as may actually come into its hands, and any such moneys when received by it may be applied on account of any of the Principal Sum, interest and other amounts secured hereby. The Holder shall not be, by reason of the assignment provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of any right granted herein, responsible for any act committed by the Chargor or any breach or failure to perform by the Chargor with respect to any of the Assigned Benefits. The Holder shall not be liable for and no credit shall be given in respect of any uncollected rents or other uncollected amounts. The Holder shall not be liable to any lessee or other party for the return of any security deposit made under any lease or contract unless the Holder shall have actually received such security deposit. The Holder shall not be deemed by virtue only of the grant of this Debenture, the exercise by the Holder of its rights under the assignment provisions of this Debenture, or the assumption of certain obligations of the Chargor after an Event of Default, to be a mortgagee in possession of the Property or any portion thereof. The Holder will have no obligation or liability under any account or monetary obligation (an “Account”), or any agreement, contract, lease or other document comprising the Property (each a “Contract”) giving rise thereto, by reason of or arising out of this Debenture or the receipt by the Holder of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Holder will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Chargor under or pursuant to any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time. Care, control and management of the Property shall remain and be deemed to be with the Chargor in the absence of clear and unequivocal action by the Holder depriving the Chargor of such care, control and management and the assumption thereof by the Holder or any receiver or agent. No credit shall be given by the Holder for any sum or sums collected in respect of the rents or other amounts, until the money collected is actually received by the Holder at the address provided herein, nor shall credit be given for any rent or other amounts after the Holder obtains ownership of the Property or part thereof under court order or by operation of law.

13. Events of Default

The Principal Sum, interest and all other obligations secured shall become immediately payable and the security hereby constituted shall become enforceable upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and shall be enforceable for so long as such Event of Default is continuing.

14. Waiver of Default

The Holder may by notice to the Chargor waive in whole or in part any default of the Chargor on such terms and conditions as the Holder may determine, but no such waiver shall be taken to affect any subsequent default or the rights resulting therefrom. No delay by the Holder in the enforcement of its rights under this Debenture shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of a default.

15. Remedies

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Holder may proceed to realize upon the security hereby constituted and to enforce its rights:

- (a) by written notice to the Chargor, declaring the obligations secured to be immediately due and payable;
- (b) immediately and without notice by entry, with the right to have, hold, use, occupy, possess, disable, remove and enjoy the Property or any part thereof without the let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial of the Chargor, its successors or assigns;

- (c) by entry, with the right to make such arrangements for completing the construction of, repairing or putting in order any buildings or other improvements on the Owned Real Property or any part thereof, or for inspecting, taking care of, leasing, collecting the rents of and managing generally the Property or any part thereof as it may deem expedient, and all reasonable costs, charges and expenses, including allowances for the time and service of any employee of the Holder or other person appointed for the above purposes shall be added to the Principal Sum and shall be secured hereby and payable forthwith together with interest thereon calculated at the rate and at the times and in the manner provided for herein for interest arrears on the Principal Sum;
- (d) by the appointment, by an instrument in writing, of any person or persons, whether an officer or officers or an employee or employees of the Holder or not, as a receiver or receivers of all or any part of the Property, and the Holder may remove any receiver or receivers so appointed and appoint another or others in its or their stead;
- (e) exercise those remedies provided for under the provisions of Section 20 or other sale permitted at law;
- (f) by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of one or more receivers under any applicable law;
- (g) proceed in any court of competent jurisdiction for foreclosure and/or judicial sale of all or any part of the Property;
- (h) in such other manner as is permitted by the Credit Agreement;
- (i) by any other action, suit, proceeding or other remedy authorized or permitted by law or by equity;
- (j) in connection with any assigned rights and benefits under Sections 4(b) and 4(c) (“Assigned Benefits”), the Holder may:
 - (i) give to any lessee or other person from whom the Holder would have been entitled to receive or claim any benefit under the Assigned Benefits in question (herein called the “Other Parties” or “Other Party”) express notice in writing of this assignment and thereafter the Holder shall be entitled to the benefit of subsection 53(1) of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act (Ontario) or other similar applicable legislation. The Holder may, after giving such notice, deal with the Other Party or Other Parties in respect of the Assigned Benefits without reference to or consent of the Chargor, as if the Holder were the absolute owner of the Assigned Benefits;
 - (ii) give notice to any Other Party to pay rents to the Holder and otherwise honour the rights of the Holder under this assignment. The Chargor agrees that any Other Party may rely upon any notice given by the Holder or on its behalf;

- (iii) at its option, assume or perform any such obligations as the Holder considers necessary or desirable to obtain the benefit of the Assigned Benefits, free of any set-off, deduction or abatement, and any money reasonably expended by the Holder in this regard shall form part of and be deemed to form part of the obligations secured and bear interest at the rate stipulated in this Debenture provided that it is expressly acknowledged and agreed that nothing herein contained shall oblige the Holder to assume or perform any obligation of the Chargor to any third party in respect of or arising out of the Assigned Benefits or any of them;
- (k) retain and administer the Property in the Holder's sole and unfettered discretion;
- (l) the Holder on its own account or through a receiver and whether alone or in conjunction with the exercise of all or any other remedies contemplated by this Debenture, shall have the right, at any time, to notify and direct Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange to make all payments whatever to the Holder and the Holder shall have the right, at any time, to hold all amounts acquired from any Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange and any Proceeds as part of the Property. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default any payments received by the Chargor shall be held by the Chargor in trust for the Holder in the same medium in which received, shall not be commingled with any assets of the Chargor and shall, at the request of the Holder be turned over to the Holder not later than the next Business Day following the day of their receipt; and
- (m) pay any Liens or other claims that may exist or be threatened against the Property, and any amount so paid together with costs, charges and expenses incurred shall be added to the obligations secured.

16. Possession of Property

Where any Property is in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent:

- (a) the Holder shall only have the duty of care with respect to such Property as would a reasonable and prudent owner, including the duty to use reasonable care in the custody and preservation thereof, provided that the Holder need not take any steps of any nature to defend or preserve the rights of the Chargor therein against the claims or demands of others or to preserve rights therein against prior parties; and
- (b) the Holder or any receiver or agent may, at any time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, use such Property in any manner and to such extent as it deems necessary or desirable.

17. Deficiency

Without limiting any rights the Chargor may have at law, the Chargor shall be liable to pay any deficiency in the obligations secured hereunder that are remaining after the sale or disposition of the Property.

18. Remedies Cumulative

No remedy for the realization of the security hereby constituted or for the enforcement of the rights of the Holder shall be exclusive of or dependent upon any other such remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination.

19. Receiver

Subject to the provisions of any instrument in writing appointing a receiver or receivers, upon the appointment hereunder of a receiver of the Property or any part thereof, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) Every such receiver shall have unlimited access to the Property as agent and attorney for the Chargor (which right of access shall not be revocable by the Chargor) and shall have full power and unlimited authority to, without limitation:
 - (i) take possession of the Property or any part thereof;
 - (ii) carry on or concur in carrying on the business of the Chargor;
 - (iii) collect all Revenues owing or earned in respect of the Owned Real Property and collect the rents and profits from leases and tenancies whether created before or after the date hereof;
 - (iv) lease or concur in leasing any portion of the Property which may become vacant on such terms and conditions as it considers advisable and enter into and execute leases, accept surrenders and terminate leases;
 - (v) complete the construction of any building or buildings or other erections or improvements on the Property left by the Chargor in an unfinished state or award the same to others to complete and purchase, repair and maintain any personal property including, without limitation, appliances and equipment, necessary or desirable to render the premises operable or rentable, and take possession of and use or permit others to use all or any part of the Chargor's materials, supplies, plans, tools, equipment (including appliances) and property of every kind and description;
 - (vi) insure, manage, operate, repair, alter or extend the Property; and
 - (vii) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Property, and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such receiver may do with respect to the Property.

- (b) The Holder may at its discretion vest the receiver with all or any of the rights and powers of the Holder.
- (c) The Holder may fix the remuneration of the receiver who shall be entitled to deduct the same out of the revenue or the sale proceeds of the Property.
- (d) Every such receiver shall be deemed the agent or attorney of the Chargor and not the agent of the Holder, and the Holder shall not be in any way responsible for the acts or omissions of any such receiver.
- (e) The appointment of any such receiver by the Holder shall not result in or create any liability or obligation on the part of the Holder to the receiver or to the Chargor or to any other person and no appointment or removal of a receiver and no actions of a receiver shall constitute the Holder a mortgagee in possession or responsible as such.
- (f) No such receiver shall be liable to the Chargor to account for monies other than monies actually received by it in respect of the Property, or any part thereof, and out of such monies so received every such receiver shall, in the following order, pay:
 - (i) its remuneration as aforesaid;
 - (ii) all costs and expenses of every nature and kind incurred by it in connection with the exercise of its powers and authority hereby conferred;
 - (iii) interest, principal and other money which may, from time to time, be or become charged upon the Property in priority to this Debenture, including taxes;
 - (iv) to the Holder all interest, the Principal Sum and other monies constituting obligations secured that are due in such order as the Holder in its discretion shall determine; and
 - (v) and thereafter, every such receiver shall be accountable to the Chargor for any surplus as required by applicable law.

The reasonable remuneration and expenses of the receiver shall be paid by the Chargor on demand and shall be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest from the date of demand at the same rate as applies to the Principal Sum hereby secured.

- (g) Every such receiver may, with the consent in writing of the Holder, borrow money for the purpose of maintaining, protecting or preserving the Property or any part thereof, or for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Chargor in respect of the Property, and any receiver may issue certificates (in this sub clause called “receiver’s certificates”) for such sums as will, in the opinion of the Holder, be sufficient for obtaining security upon the Property or any part thereof for the amounts from time to time so required by the receiver, and such receiver's certificate may be payable either to order or to bearer and may be payable at such time or times, and shall bear such interest as the Holder may approve and the receiver may sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of the receiver's certificates in such manner and may pay such commission on the sale thereof, as the Holder may consider reasonable, and the amounts from time to time payable by virtue of such receiver's certificates shall form a charge upon the Property in priority to the amounts secured under this Debenture.

- (h) Save as to claims for accounting to which the Chargor is entitled under applicable law pursuant to clause (f) above, the Chargor hereby releases and discharges any such receiver from every claim of every nature, whether in damages or not which may arise or be caused to the Chargor or any person claiming through or under it by reason or as a result of anything done by such receiver unless such claim be the direct and proximate result of wilful misconduct, gross negligence, dishonesty or fraud.
- (i) The Holder may, at any time and from time to time, terminate any such receivership by notice in writing to the Chargor and to any such receiver.
- (j) The statutory declaration of an officer of the Holder as to the occurrence of an Event of Default, under the provisions of this Debenture and as to the due appointment of the receiver pursuant to the terms hereof shall be sufficient proof thereof for the purposes of any person dealing with a receiver who is ostensibly exercising powers herein provided for and such dealing shall be deemed, as regards such person, to be valid and effectual.
- (k) The rights and powers conferred herein in respect of the receiver are supplemental to and not in substitution of any other rights and powers which the Holder may have.

20. Sales

Upon the obligations secured hereby constituted becoming enforceable and the Holder making demand hereunder:

- (a) Method of Sale – The Holder may, upon the expiry of any applicable notice period, either before or after any entry, sell and dispose of the Property or any part thereof including, without limitation, any rents and profits thereof either as a whole or in separate parcels, at public auction or by tender or by private sale at such time or times as the Holder may determine, and may make such sale either for cash or credit or part cash and part credit, and with or without advertisement, and upon such conditions as to upset price and with or without a reserve bid as the Holder may deem proper.
- (b) Rescission and Resale – The Holder may rescind or vary any contract of sale that may have been entered into and resell with or under any of the powers conferred hereunder and adjourn any such sale from time to time without being answerable for any loss occasioned by such sale or by any postponement thereof.

- (c) Deeds – The Holder may execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of the Property or any part thereof good and sufficient deeds, assurances and conveyances for the same, the Holder being hereby constituted the irrevocable attorney of the Chargor for the purpose of making such sale and executing such deeds, assurances and conveyances.
- (d) Sale, Bars, Claims through Chargor – Any such sale made as aforesaid shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and in equity, against the Chargor and all other persons claiming an interest in the Property or any part thereof, by, from, through or under the Chargor.
- (e) Sale Proceeds – In the case of a sale for cash or credit, or part cash and part credit, the Holder shall be bound to pay to the Chargor only such moneys as have been actually received from purchasers after the satisfaction of all claims of the Holder including payment of any costs, charges and expenses (including without limitation all solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, or solicitor and client basis, as applicable) reasonably incurred by the Holder in the taking, recovering, collecting, realising on, keeping possession of, and any sale of, the Property.

21. Prior Encumbrances and Expenses

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Holder may pay the amount of any Lien now or hereafter existing, or to arise or to be claimed upon the Property having priority over this Debenture, including any taxes, utility charges or other rates on the Property, or any of them, and may pay all reasonable costs, charges and expenses (other than any such costs, charges and expenses arising as a result of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder) and all reasonable solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, which may be incurred in taking, recovering and keeping possession of the Property, or in protecting, repairing, restoring or preserving the Property, and generally in any proceedings or steps of any nature whatever properly taken in connection with or to realize upon the security created in this Debenture, or in respect of the collection of any overdue interest, principal, insurance premiums or any other monies whatsoever payable by the Chargor hereunder whether any action or any judicial proceedings to enforce such payments has been taken or not. The amount so paid shall be added to the debt hereby secured and be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid, and shall be payable forthwith by the Chargor to the Holder. In the event of the Holder paying the amount of any such encumbrance, lien or charge, taxes or rates, either out of the monies advanced on the security or otherwise, the Holder shall be entitled to all the rights, equities and securities of the Chargor as against the person or persons, company, corporation, or governmental authority so paid.

22. No Set-Off, etc.

The Principal Sum, interest and other amounts hereby secured will be paid and shall be assignable in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement free from any right of set-off or counterclaim or equities between the Chargor and the Holder or any other person or persons.

23. No Merger

The taking of a judgment or judgments under any of the covenants in this Debenture shall not operate as a merger of the covenant or affect any other right of the Holder under this Debenture or otherwise.

24. Encumbrance in Addition, etc.

This Debenture is in addition to and not in substitution for any other security now or hereafter held by the Holder or any other person. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, any payments to the Holder shall be appropriated by the Holder subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. The taking of any action or proceedings or refraining from so doing, or any other dealing with any other security for the monies secured hereby, shall not release or affect the charge of this Debenture and the taking of the security hereby granted or any proceedings hereunder for the realization of the security hereby granted and shall not release or affect any other security held by the Holder for the monies hereby secured.

25. Pledge of Debenture

This Debenture at any time and from time to time may be assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered by the Chargor to the Holder as security for the obligations secured and in such event this Debenture shall not be deemed to have been discharged or redeemed or the amounts payable hereunder to have been satisfied or reduced by reason of the account of the Chargor having ceased to be in debit while this Debenture remained so assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered.

26. Demand Debenture

For greater certainty all amounts payable under this Debenture are payable on demand upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing.

27. Quiet Possession

Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, until an Event of Default has occurred, it shall be lawful for the Chargor to peaceably and quietly have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the Property, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof for its own use and benefit, without let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial by the Holder, or any other person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming, or who shall, or may lawfully claim by, from, under or in trust for it, them or any or either of them. If any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, subject to applicable laws the Holder may peaceably and quietly enter into and hold and occupy the Property without hindrance, interference or denial of the Chargor or of anyone claiming under it or of any prior encumbrances whatsoever, except Permitted Liens.

28. No Obligation to Advance

Neither the execution and delivery nor the registration of this Debenture shall for any reason whatsoever obligate or bind the Holder or any secured party to advance any monies, or, having advanced a portion, obligate the Holder or any secured party in any way to advance the balance thereof; but nevertheless the charge shall take effect forthwith upon execution of this Debenture and shall operate as security for the actual amount of all the debts and liabilities, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, at any time owing by the Chargor to the Holder under the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents and otherwise owing under this Debenture.

29. After-Acquired Property

The Chargor covenants and agrees that, if and to the extent that any of its right, title, estate and interest in any of the Property is not acquired until after delivery of this Debenture, this Debenture shall nonetheless apply thereto and the mortgages, charges, assignments, transfers, pledges and security interests in favour of the Holder hereby created shall attach to such Property, subject to Sections 4 and 10, at the same time as the Chargor acquires rights therein, without the necessity of any further mortgage, charge, pledge, assignment, transfer, grant of security interest or assurance. The Chargor covenants and agrees to take such actions and execute such further and other documentation and/or instruments in respect of any after-acquired property at such time or times and in such form and manner as the Holder may reasonably request.

30. Indemnity

The Chargor agrees to indemnify the Holder against and hold the Holder harmless from any and all losses, claims, cost recovery actions, damages, expenses and liabilities of whatsoever nature or kind and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable fees, charges and, subject to the limitation referred to in Section 8.3(1)(a) of the Credit Agreement, disbursements of counsel) and all applicable taxes, to which the Holder may become subject arising out of or in connection with (a) the execution or delivery of this Debenture, the performance by the Chargor of its obligations hereunder, and the consummation of any transactions hereunder, (b) any other aspect of this Debenture, or (c) the enforcement of the Holder's rights hereunder and any related assessment, investigation, defence, preparation of defence, litigation and enquiries; provided that such indemnity shall not be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence (it being acknowledged that ordinary negligence does not necessarily constitute gross negligence) or wilful misconduct of or material breach of the Credit Agreement by the Holder.

31. Conflicts

This Debenture is being entered into pursuant to the Credit Agreement. In the event of any conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference between the terms of this Debenture and the terms of the Credit Agreement, the terms of the Credit Agreement shall govern and be paramount to the extent necessary to eliminate any such conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there is any right or remedy of the Holder set out in this Debenture or any part hereof which is not set out or provided for in the Credit Agreement, such additional right or remedy shall not constitute a conflict or inconsistency and the Holder shall, notwithstanding this Section 31, be entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such remedies. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the principal amount stated herein, the interest rate specified and the payment date of such interest set out in this Debenture, the principal amount due, the interest rate specified and the time for payment hereunder shall be in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement.

32. Extension of Time/Forbearance

The Holder will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Chargor or any other person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the obligations secured before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Property in such manner as the Holder may consider desirable. The Holder may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges, release the Property to third parties and otherwise deal with the Chargor's guarantors or sureties and others and with the Property as the Holder may see fit without prejudice to the obligations secured or the Holder's rights, remedies and powers under this Debenture. No extension of time, forbearance, indulgence or other accommodation now, previously or hereafter given by the Holder to the Chargor shall operate as a waiver, alteration or amendment of the Holder's rights or to otherwise preclude the Holder from enforcing such rights.

33. Power of Attorney

After an Event of Default has occurred and during its continuance, the Chargor hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints each officer or director of the Holder from time to time, or of any receiver appointed (as agent of the Chargor) as provided for in this Debenture, as the true and lawful attorney of the Chargor with full power of substitution in the name of the Chargor to do all such acts and things, to deal with the Property, and to execute and deliver all such deeds, transfers, leases, contracts, agreements and other documents or instruments on its behalf and in its place (and the same shall bind the Chargor and have the same effect as if such documents were executed by the Chargor) and with the right to use the name of the Chargor, whenever and wherever it may be deemed necessary or expedient in the sole discretion of the Holder, in connection with carrying out the provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of the rights and remedies set forth in this Debenture. The Chargor hereby ratifies and agrees to ratify all acts of any such attorney taken or done in accordance with the terms hereof. The power of attorney granted in this Section 33 may only be exercised following an Event of Default. The Chargor hereby declares that the irrevocable power of attorney granted hereby, being coupled with an interest in favour of the Holder, is given for valuable consideration and shall remain in full force and effect until this Debenture is discharged in accordance with the terms of this Debenture.

34. Revolving Credit

It is acknowledged and agreed that this Debenture may secure, inter alia, from time to time, revolving lines of credit and shall not be considered to have been satisfied or discharged by any intermediate payment of the whole or part of the obligations secured. This Debenture secures all of the obligations secured, including all advances and re-advances made under revolving lines of credit.

35. Statutory Waivers

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Chargor waives all of the rights, benefits and protections given by the provisions of any existing or future statute which imposes limitations upon the powers, rights or remedies of a lender or upon the methods of realization of security, including any seize or sue or anti deficiency statute or any similar provisions of any other statute.

36. Provisions Reasonable

Each party hereto acknowledges and declares that it has entered into this Debenture freely and of its own will. In particular, each party hereto acknowledges that this Debenture was freely negotiated by the Chargor and the Holder in good faith, that this Debenture does not constitute a contract of adhesion, that there was no exploitation of the Chargor by the Holder, and that there is no disproportion between the consideration provided by the Holder and that provided by the Chargor.

37. Notice

Any notice, consent, demand, approval or other communication required or permitted to be given in connection with this Debenture shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given if given in accordance with the Credit Agreement.

38. Further Assurances

At any time and all times the Chargor will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, transfers and assurances in law as the Holder shall reasonably require for the purpose of giving the Holder a valid mortgage, charge or security of the nature herein specified upon all property intended to be covered hereby, and for the better assuring, conveying, mortgaging, assigning, confirmation or charging unto the Holder all and singular the hereditament and premises, estates and property hereby mortgaged and charged, or intended so to be, in favour of the Holder.

39. Registration

The Holder shall have the right at any time and without notice to cause this Debenture or notice thereof to be registered or filed in any office of public record where the Holder considers it necessary.

40. References

All references to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses and schedules unless otherwise specified are to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs and clauses of and schedules to this Debenture.

41. Headings

The insertion of headings is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Debenture.

42. Number and Gender

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders.

43. Governing Law

This Debenture shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract save in respect of the security created pursuant hereto upon: (i) real property situate in any province of Canada other than Ontario, which shall be governed by the laws of the province in which such property is situate, and (ii) personal property, to the extent that any laws of any other province apply as a result of the application of conflict of laws rules.

44. Currency

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Debenture, all amounts in this Debenture are stated and shall be paid in the lawful currency of Canada.

45. Amendment

No amendment of this Debenture shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the parties.

46. Severable

If any provision of this Debenture is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.

47. Successors and Assigns

This Debenture shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns, all assignments to be in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder may assign, transfer and deliver to any transferee of the obligations secured, or any part thereof, the liability of the Chargor under this Debenture and any security, documents or instruments held by the Holder in respect of this Debenture and no such assignment, transfer or delivery shall release the Chargor from its liability; thereafter but subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder shall be fully discharged from all responsibility with respect to this Debenture and security, documents and instruments so assigned, transferred or delivered and the permitted transferee shall be vested with the powers and rights of the Holder under this Debenture and under the security, documents or instruments assigned, transferred or delivered. The Holder, however, shall retain all powers and rights with respect to any security, documents or instruments not assigned, transferred or delivered.

48. Insurance Act Waiver

In the event that the proceeds of any insurance are applied to the payment of the obligations secured, the Chargor hereby irrevocably waives any and all statutory provisions which may require that proceeds of insurance be used to restore or rebuild the Owned Real Property.

49. Limited Recourse

The Holder acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the only remedy that the Holder shall have against the Chargor in the event of non-payment by the Chargor of the obligations secured is to realize upon the Property. For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that the Holder shall in no circumstance have any right of payment from the Chargor hereunder independent of the foregoing, and the Chargor shall not be liable to the Holder for any deficiency hereunder resulting from any such realization or otherwise.

50. Receipt of Copy

The Chargor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Debenture and hereby expressly waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or a copy of the statement confirming the registration of any financing statement that may be registered in connection with any security interest created under this Debenture.

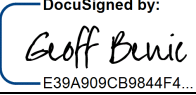

51. Discharge

Upon full and final payment and performance of the Obligations and permanent cancellation of the Commitment, the Holder shall upon request in writing by the Chargor deliver up this Debenture to the Chargor and shall at the expense of the Chargor cancel and discharge the Security Interests and execute and deliver to the Chargor such documents as shall be requisite to discharge the Security Interests. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 51 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Holder.

SCHEDULE "A" – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

COLLATERAL MORTGAGE

This charge/mortgage of land (the "Charge") is collateral security for all present and future obligations and liabilities of Aleafia Farms Inc. (the "Chargor"), Aleafia Health Inc. and Emblem Cannabis Corporation to NE SPC II LP (the "Chargee") under, in connection with or with respect to the loan agreement dated as of December 24, 2021 (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Loan Agreement") among, inter alia, the Chargor and the Chargee.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 and the provisions of the Loan Agreement then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the Loan Agreement, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the Loan Agreement, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the Loan Agreement) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a "Receiver") of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. The following provisions shall apply in respect of the appointment of any Receiver:

- (a) such appointment may be made either before or after the Chargee shall have entered into or taken possession of the Property or any part of it;
- (b) such Receiver may, in the discretion of the Chargee, be vested with all or any of the powers and discretion of the Chargee and shall have the power to borrow on the security of the Property;
- (c) the Chargee may from time to time fix the remuneration of such Receiver and direct the payment of such remuneration from out of the proceeds of the Property;
- (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or

- consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
 - (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and
 - (g) such Receiver shall have full power to manage, operate, amend, repair, alter or extend the Property or any part of it in the name of the Chargor for the purpose of securing the payment of rental from the Property or any part of it, including the power to:
 - (i) take proceedings in the name of the Chargor or otherwise and to make any arrangement or compromise;
 - (ii) borrow or raise money on all or any part of the Property in priority to this Charge or otherwise for such purposes as may be approved by the Chargee;
 - (iii) give any and all notices to be given by the Chargor under any leases and exercise any and all rights of the Chargor under them;
 - (iv) do or cause to be done any and all acts and things under any lease and adjust and settle all matters relating to such performance; and
 - (v) institute and prosecute all suits, proceedings and actions which the Receiver in his opinion considers necessary for the proper protection of the Property, defend all suits, proceedings and actions against the Chargor or the Receiver, appear in and conduct the prosecution and defence of any suit, proceeding or action then pending or thereafter instituted and appeal any suit, proceeding or action.

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 24th day of December, 2021.

B E T W E E N:

ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

hereinafter called the "Assignor"

- and -

NE SPC II LP

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees.

The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;
- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;

- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the loan agreement dated as of December 24, 2021 (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Loan Agreement") shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the Loan Agreement then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the Loan Agreement, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

SCHEDULE "A" – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

COLLATERAL MORTGAGE

Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Chargee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Borrower and the Chargee.

This charge/mortgage of land (the "Charge") is collateral security for all present and future obligations and liabilities of the Chargor to the Chargee under, in connection with or with respect to the A&R Debenture Indenture.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS AND PARAMOUNTCY

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the A&R Debenture Indenture, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the

A&R Debenture Indenture) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a “Receiver”) of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. The following provisions shall apply in respect of the appointment of any Receiver:

- (a) such appointment may be made either before or after the Chargee shall have entered into or taken possession of the Property or any part of it;
- (b) such Receiver may, in the discretion of the Chargee, be vested with all or any of the powers and discretion of the Chargee and shall have the power to borrow on the security of the Property;
- (c) the Chargee may from time to time fix the remuneration of such Receiver and direct the payment of such remuneration from out of the proceeds of the Property;
- (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
- (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and

- (g) such Receiver shall have full power to manage, operate, amend, repair, alter or extend the Property or any part of it in the name of the Chargor for the purpose of securing the payment of rental from the Property or any part of it, including the power to:
- (i) take proceedings in the name of the Chargor or otherwise and to make any arrangement or compromise;
 - (ii) borrow or raise money on all or any part of the Property in priority to this Charge or otherwise for such purposes as may be approved by the Chargee;
 - (iii) give any and all notices to be given by the Chargor under any leases and exercise any and all rights of the Chargor under them;
 - (iv) do or cause to be done any and all acts and things under any lease and adjust and settle all matters relating to such performance; and
 - (v) institute and prosecute all suits, proceedings and actions which the Receiver in his opinion considers necessary for the proper protection of the Property, defend all suits, proceedings and actions against the Chargor or the Receiver, appear in and conduct the prosecution and defence of any suit, proceeding or action then pending or thereafter instituted and appeal any suit, proceeding or action.

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 27th day of June, 2022.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION and ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

hereinafter collectively called the "Assignor"

- and -

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to the Assignee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees. The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;

- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

DEMAND DEBENTURE

ALEAFIA FARMS INC.

PRINCIPAL SUM: $20,000,000.00

DATE: February 8, 2022

1. Acknowledgement and Promise to Pay

Aleafia Farms Inc. (the “Chargor”), a corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario, for value received, hereby acknowledges itself indebted to 1260356 Ontario Limited (the “Holder”) with an address at 100 Zenway Boulevard Woodbridge, ON L4H 2Y7 Attention: Colby De Zen, E-mail: cdzen@zzengroup.com, and covenants and promises: (i) to pay on demand following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default the Principal Sum to or to the order of the Holder, in lawful money of Canada; and (ii) to perform the obligations secured (as defined herein). The Chargor promises to pay, on demand, interest in like money on the amount of the Principal Sum outstanding from time to time and on all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the rate of 25% per annum, calculated semi-annually, not in advance. Such interest will be payable both before and after maturity, demand, default and judgment. The Chargor promises to pay interest, on demand, at the same rate, on overdue interest, calculated and payable monthly on the first Business Day of each and every month until paid.

2. Place of Payment

The Chargor promises to pay the Principal Sum, interest and all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the office of the Holder at which any notice may be given to the Holder in connection with this Debenture or at such other place in Canada as the Holder may designate by notice in writing to the Chargor at any time and from time to time.

3. Continuing Security

This Debenture secures payment and performance in favour of the Holder of all the present and future Obligations of the Chargor (being herein collectively called the “obligations secured”).

4. Security

As continuing security for the due and punctual payment of the Principal Sum, interest, overdue interest and the obligations secured, and the performance of all the obligations secured, the Chargor does, subject to the terms hereof, hereby:

- (a) grant a security interest in and grant, mortgage, assign, transfer, hypothecate and charge as and by way of a fixed and specific mortgage and charge to and in favour of the Holder, all the right, title, estate, interest and benefit of the Chargor, present and future, in, to, under or in respect of the property legally described in Schedule 4(a) (the “Owned Real Property”) together with all rights and interest therein, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, including, without limitation, all licences, easements, rights-of-way, privileges, benefits, immunities, rights and options connected therewith and/or appertaining thereto and all amendments thereto, replacements thereof and substitutions therefor from time to time, and all buildings, erections, structures, improvements, fixtures, fixed plant, fixed machinery and fixed equipment at present situate thereon or therein or which may at any time hereafter be constructed or brought or placed thereon or therein or used in connection therewith, including in each and all cases any greater or other right, title and interest therein or in any part thereof which the Chargor may acquire and hold during the currency of this Debenture, and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;

- (b) assign, transfer and set over unto and in favour of the Holder, its successors and assigns, as and by way of a fixed and specific assignment, all of its right, title, estate and interest, present and future in and to:
 - (i) all contracts, agreements, indentures, licenses, commitments or other agreements relating to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof to which the Chargor is now or subsequently a party or has a benefit, right or in which the Chargor now has or subsequently acquires an interest;
 - (ii) all amendments, extensions, renewals, replacements and substitutions of any of the property referred to in Section 4(b)(i) and all benefits, rights, remedies, privileges, claims, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom or thereunder (whether arising pursuant thereto or available to the Chargor at law or in equity) and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the other parties thereto including, without limitation, the right of the Chargor to enforce any of the foregoing and the obligations of the other parties thereto and to give or withhold any and all consents, requests, directions, approvals, extensions and/or waivers thereunder; and
 - (iii) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;
 - (i) any and all existing or future leases, subleases, agreements to lease or sublease or other occupancy or tenancy agreements relating to the whole or any part of the Owned Real Property and all existing or future licenses or concessions whereby any person is given the right (other than an easement or a right in the nature of an easement) to use or occupy the whole or any part or parts of the Owned Real Property and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into (collectively, the “Third Party Leases”), and all benefits, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the tenants thereunder;

- (ii) all rents and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable under the Third Party Leases, and each guarantee of or indemnity in respect of the obligations of the tenants thereunder with full power to demand, sue for recovery, receive and give receipts for all such rents and other moneys and otherwise to enforce the rights of the Chargor thereto in the name of the Chargor;
 - (iii) any and all existing or future agreements, contracts, licenses, permits, plans and specifications, bonds, letters of credit, letters of guarantee or other documents or instruments affecting or relating primarily to the servicing or development of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof or the construction, use, operation or maintenance of buildings, erections, structures, improvements and fixtures thereon and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (iv) any and all existing or future agreements of purchase and sale, options to purchase and mortgage, loan or other financing commitments relating in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all proceeds and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable thereunder and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (v) all proceeds of and from any and all existing or future insurance policies in respect of property damage and rental insurance pertaining in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property and all proceeds of expropriation or similar taking of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom provided that all such proceeds shall be held and applied in accordance with the Credit Agreement; and
 - (vi) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing; and
- (d) create a security interest in and grant, convey, mortgage, assign, transfer, pledge and charge as and by way of a floating charge to and in favour of the Holder, all of its undertaking, property and assets, real and personal, immovable and moveable, which in each case is located at and used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property, including, without limitation, all goods, money, investment property, intangibles, chattel paper, instruments, documents, inventories and goodwill, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, of whatsoever nature, kind or description (other than such thereof as may from time to time be validly and effectively subjected to the charges created under Sections 4(a), 4(b), and 4(c) of this Debenture), and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing.

The grants, conveyances, mortgages, charges, pledges, transfers, assignments and security interests created pursuant to this Section 4 (collectively, the “Security Interests”) shall not extend or apply to any personal property which is “consumer goods”, as such term is defined in the Act, or as applicable in any similar personal property security legislation in any jurisdiction in which any of the Property is located, and notwithstanding Section 4(d) or any other provision hereof, shall not extend or apply to any cannabis or cannabis derived products, and no cannabis or cannabis derived products (including those located at, used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property) will form part of the Property.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Chargor

The Chargor represents and warrants to the Holder as follows:

- (a) French Name: The Chargor does not have or use a French form of name or a combined English and French form of name;
- (b) Address: The address of the Chargor’s chief executive office is: 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, L4K 1G4; and
- (c) Location of the Property: With the exception of inventory in transit, all tangible assets comprising the Property are situate at the Owned Real Property or the chief executive office.

The foregoing representations and warranties shall survive for so long as any of the obligations secured remain unpaid and, notwithstanding any investigation made by or on behalf of the Holder, shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the Holder during such period.

6. Covenants of the Chargor

So long as any of the obligations secured shall remain unpaid or the Holder has the obligation to provide credit facilities pursuant to the Credit Agreement, the Chargor covenants and agrees with the Holder as follows:

- (a) No Accessions: The Chargor shall prevent any Property from being or becoming an accession to any property not subject to the Security Interests created by this Debenture;
- (b) Change of Name/Chief Executive Office: The Chargor shall not change its name or change the location of its chief executive office to a location outside of the Province of Ontario without giving prior written notice to the Holder of the new name or chief executive office location and the date upon which such change of name or chief executive office location is to take effect;
- (c) Location of Charged Premises: Except as may be permitted by the Credit Agreement, the Chargor shall not keep, store, locate or install any Charged Premises at, or move, transport or transfer any Charged Premises to, any location other than those locations set out in Section 5(c) without the prior written consent of the Holder; and

- (d) Registrations: The Chargor will, from time to time at the request of the Holder, promptly effect all registrations, filings, recordings and all renewals thereof and all re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings of or in respect of this Debenture and the Security Interests created hereby in such offices of public record and at such times as may be necessary or of advantage in perfecting, maintaining and protecting the validity, effectiveness and priority hereof and of the Security Interests created hereby; provided that the Holder may effect all such registrations, filings, recordings, renewals, re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings from time to time in its sole discretion at the expense of the Chargor.

7. Habendum

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Property and all rights hereby conferred to the Holder forever for the uses and purposes and with the powers and authorities and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

8. Definitions

Unless otherwise provided, the capitalized terms used in this Debenture shall have the meanings given to them as described in Schedule 6 hereto.

9. Attachment

The Chargor acknowledges and agrees that value has been given for the granting of the Security Interests created hereby and that there is no agreement between the Chargor and the Holder, express or implied, to postpone the attachment of the Security Interests. Subject to Section 29, the Security Interests created by this Debenture are intended to attach when this Debenture is executed by the Chargor and delivered to the Holder or in the case of after-acquired property, when the Chargor has rights or any interest in such property.

10. Reservation of Last Day of Lease

The last day of any term of years reserved by any lease or any extension or renewal thereof, oral or written, or any agreement therefor, now held or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, is hereby excepted out of the security created hereby or by any other instrument supplemental hereto and does not and shall not form part of the Property charged hereby or by any such other instrument, but should such charge become enforceable the Chargor shall stand possessed of the reversion remaining in the Chargor of any leasehold interest for the time being demised as aforesaid, upon trust to assign and dispose thereof as the Holder shall direct; and upon any sale of the leasehold interest, or any part thereof, the Holder for the purpose of vesting the aforesaid reversion of any such term or any renewal thereof in any purchaser or purchasers thereof, shall be entitled by deed or other writing to appoint such purchaser or purchasers or any other person or persons a new trustee or trustees of the aforesaid reversion of any such term or renewal thereof in the place of the Chargor and to vest the same accordingly in the new trustee or trustees so appointed, freed and discharged from any obligation respecting the same.

11. Excluded Collateral and Consents

Nothing herein shall constitute an assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest or attempted assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest of or in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which by the provisions thereof or by law is not assignable or cannot be made the subject of a mortgage, charge or security interest or which requires the consent of a third party to its assignment or being made subject to a mortgage, charge or security interest, unless such consent has been obtained. In each such case, the Chargor shall promptly, upon written request by the Holder acting reasonably, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of any necessary third party to its assignment hereby and to its further assignment by the Holder to any third party who may acquire same as a result of the exercise by the Holder of remedies after demand. Upon such consent being obtained or waived, the assignments, mortgages, charges and security interests provided for herein shall apply to the applicable contract, agreement, license, lease or permit without regard to this section and without the necessity of any further assurance to effect such assignments, mortgages, charges or security interests. Unless and until such consent is obtained as provided above, the Chargor shall, to the extent it may do so by law or pursuant to the provisions of the document or interest referred to therein, hold all right, title, estate, interest and benefit to be derived from the applicable contracts, agreements, licenses, leases or permits in trust for the Holder (including, without limitation, the Chargor's beneficial interest in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which may be held in trust for the Chargor by a third party) as additional security for payment of the obligations secured and shall, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing deliver up all such right, title, interest and benefit to the Holder, forthwith upon demand by the Holder.

12. Holder Not To Be Obligated

The Holder will not be liable to the Chargor or any other person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Holder under this Debenture (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Property, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Holder, nor any receiver or agent of the Holder, is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other persons under any Property in its possession. Neither the Holder nor any receiver or agent will be liable for any, and the Chargor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Property (including any Property in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder or such receiver or agent. Nothing herein contained shall have the effect of making the Holder responsible for the collection of any accounts or rents or any part thereof or for the performance of any obligations, covenants, terms or conditions in favour of any lessee or in favour of any party to any other agreement or contract with the Chargor or to whom the Chargor may be otherwise obligated. The Holder shall be liable to account only for such moneys as may actually come into its hands, and any such moneys when received by it may be applied on account of any of the Principal Sum, interest and other amounts secured hereby. The Holder shall not be, by reason of the assignment provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of any right granted herein, responsible for any act committed by the Chargor or any breach or failure to perform by the Chargor with respect to any of the Assigned Benefits. The Holder shall not be liable for and no credit shall be given in respect of any uncollected rents or other uncollected amounts. The Holder shall not be liable to any lessee or other party for the return of any security deposit made under any lease or contract unless the Holder shall have actually received such security deposit. The Holder shall not be deemed by virtue only of the grant of this Debenture, the exercise by the Holder of its rights under the assignment provisions of this Debenture, or the assumption of certain obligations of the Chargor after an Event of Default, to be a mortgagee in possession of the Property or any portion thereof. The Holder will have no obligation or liability under any account or monetary obligation (an “Account”), or any agreement, contract, lease or other document comprising the Property (each a “Contract”) giving rise thereto, by reason of or arising out of this Debenture or the receipt by the Holder of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Holder will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Chargor under or pursuant to any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time. Care, control and management of the Property shall remain and be deemed to be with the Chargor in the absence of clear and unequivocal action by the Holder depriving the Chargor of such care, control and management and the assumption thereof by the Holder or any receiver or agent. No credit shall be given by the Holder for any sum or sums collected in respect of the rents or other amounts, until the money collected is actually received by the Holder at the address provided herein, nor shall credit be given for any rent or other amounts after the Holder obtains ownership of the Property or part thereof under court order or by operation of law.

13. Events of Default

The Principal Sum, interest and all other obligations secured shall become immediately payable and the security hereby constituted shall become enforceable upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and shall be enforceable for so long as such Event of Default is continuing.

14. Waiver of Default

The Holder may by notice to the Chargor waive in whole or in part any default of the Chargor on such terms and conditions as the Holder may determine, but no such waiver shall be taken to affect any subsequent default or the rights resulting therefrom. No delay by the Holder in the enforcement of its rights under this Debenture shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of a default.

15. Remedies

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Holder may proceed to realize upon the security hereby constituted and to enforce its rights:

- (a) by written notice to the Chargor, declaring the obligations secured to be immediately due and payable;
- (b) immediately and without notice by entry, with the right to have, hold, use, occupy, possess, disable, remove and enjoy the Property or any part thereof without the let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial of the Chargor, its successors or assigns;

- (c) by entry, with the right to make such arrangements for completing the construction of, repairing or putting in order any buildings or other improvements on the Owned Real Property or any part thereof, or for inspecting, taking care of, leasing, collecting the rents of and managing generally the Property or any part thereof as it may deem expedient, and all reasonable costs, charges and expenses, including allowances for the time and service of any employee of the Holder or other person appointed for the above purposes shall be added to the Principal Sum and shall be secured hereby and payable forthwith together with interest thereon calculated at the rate and at the times and in the manner provided for herein for interest arrears on the Principal Sum;
- (d) by the appointment, by an instrument in writing, of any person or persons, whether an officer or officers or an employee or employees of the Holder or not, as a receiver or receivers of all or any part of the Property, and the Holder may remove any receiver or receivers so appointed and appoint another or others in its or their stead;
- (e) exercise those remedies provided for under the provisions of Section 20 or other sale permitted at law;
- (f) by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of one or more receivers under any applicable law;
- (g) proceed in any court of competent jurisdiction for foreclosure and/or judicial sale of all or any part of the Property;
- (h) in such other manner as is permitted by the Credit Agreement;
- (i) by any other action, suit, proceeding or other remedy authorized or permitted by law or by equity;
- (j) in connection with any assigned rights and benefits under Sections 4(b) and 4(c) (“Assigned Benefits”), the Holder may:
 - (i) give to any lessee or other person from whom the Holder would have been entitled to receive or claim any benefit under the Assigned Benefits in question (herein called the “Other Parties” or “Other Party”) express notice in writing of this assignment and thereafter the Holder shall be entitled to the benefit of subsection 53(1) of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act (Ontario) or other similar applicable legislation. The Holder may, after giving such notice, deal with the Other Party or Other Parties in respect of the Assigned Benefits without reference to or consent of the Chargor, as if the Holder were the absolute owner of the Assigned Benefits;
 - (ii) give notice to any Other Party to pay rents to the Holder and otherwise honour the rights of the Holder under this assignment. The Chargor agrees that any Other Party may rely upon any notice given by the Holder or on its behalf;

- (iii) at its option, assume or perform any such obligations as the Holder considers necessary or desirable to obtain the benefit of the Assigned Benefits, free of any set-off, deduction or abatement, and any money reasonably expended by the Holder in this regard shall form part of and be deemed to form part of the obligations secured and bear interest at the rate stipulated in this Debenture provided that it is expressly acknowledged and agreed that nothing herein contained shall oblige the Holder to assume or perform any obligation of the Chargor to any third party in respect of or arising out of the Assigned Benefits or any of them;
- (k) retain and administer the Property in the Holder's sole and unfettered discretion;
- (l) the Holder on its own account or through a receiver and whether alone or in conjunction with the exercise of all or any other remedies contemplated by this Debenture, shall have the right, at any time, to notify and direct Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange to make all payments whatever to the Holder and the Holder shall have the right, at any time, to hold all amounts acquired from any Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange and any Proceeds as part of the Property. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default any payments received by the Chargor shall be held by the Chargor in trust for the Holder in the same medium in which received, shall not be commingled with any assets of the Chargor and shall, at the request of the Holder be turned over to the Holder not later than the next Business Day following the day of their receipt; and
- (m) pay any Liens or other claims that may exist or be threatened against the Property, and any amount so paid together with costs, charges and expenses incurred shall be added to the obligations secured.

16. Possession of Property

Where any Property is in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent:

- (a) the Holder shall only have the duty of care with respect to such Property as would a reasonable and prudent owner, including the duty to use reasonable care in the custody and preservation thereof, provided that the Holder need not take any steps of any nature to defend or preserve the rights of the Chargor therein against the claims or demands of others or to preserve rights therein against prior parties; and
- (b) the Holder or any receiver or agent may, at any time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, use such Property in any manner and to such extent as it deems necessary or desirable.

17. Deficiency

Without limiting any rights the Chargor may have at law, the Chargor shall be liable to pay any deficiency in the obligations secured hereunder that are remaining after the sale or disposition of the Property.

18. Remedies Cumulative

No remedy for the realization of the security hereby constituted or for the enforcement of the rights of the Holder shall be exclusive of or dependent upon any other such remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination.

19. Receiver

Subject to the provisions of any instrument in writing appointing a receiver or receivers, upon the appointment hereunder of a receiver of the Property or any part thereof, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) Every such receiver shall have unlimited access to the Property as agent and attorney for the Chargor (which right of access shall not be revocable by the Chargor) and shall have full power and unlimited authority to, without limitation:
 - (i) take possession of the Property or any part thereof;
 - (ii) carry on or concur in carrying on the business of the Chargor;
 - (iii) collect all Revenues owing or earned in respect of the Owned Real Property and collect the rents and profits from leases and tenancies whether created before or after the date hereof;
 - (iv) lease or concur in leasing any portion of the Property which may become vacant on such terms and conditions as it considers advisable and enter into and execute leases, accept surrenders and terminate leases;
 - (v) complete the construction of any building or buildings or other erections or improvements on the Property left by the Chargor in an unfinished state or award the same to others to complete and purchase, repair and maintain any personal property including, without limitation, appliances and equipment, necessary or desirable to render the premises operable or rentable, and take possession of and use or permit others to use all or any part of the Chargor's materials, supplies, plans, tools, equipment (including appliances) and property of every kind and description;
 - (vi) insure, manage, operate, repair, alter or extend the Property; and
 - (vii) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Property, and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such receiver may do with respect to the Property.

- (b) The Holder may at its discretion vest the receiver with all or any of the rights and powers of the Holder.
- (c) The Holder may fix the remuneration of the receiver who shall be entitled to deduct the same out of the revenue or the sale proceeds of the Property.
- (d) Every such receiver shall be deemed the agent or attorney of the Chargor and not the agent of the Holder, and the Holder shall not be in any way responsible for the acts or omissions of any such receiver.
- (e) The appointment of any such receiver by the Holder shall not result in or create any liability or obligation on the part of the Holder to the receiver or to the Chargor or to any other person and no appointment or removal of a receiver and no actions of a receiver shall constitute the Holder a mortgagee in possession or responsible as such.
- (f) No such receiver shall be liable to the Chargor to account for monies other than monies actually received by it in respect of the Property, or any part thereof, and out of such monies so received every such receiver shall, in the following order, pay:
 - (i) its remuneration as aforesaid;
 - (ii) all costs and expenses of every nature and kind incurred by it in connection with the exercise of its powers and authority hereby conferred;
 - (iii) interest, principal and other money which may, from time to time, be or become charged upon the Property in priority to this Debenture, including taxes;
 - (iv) to the Holder all interest, the Principal Sum and other monies constituting obligations secured that are due in such order as the Holder in its discretion shall determine; and
 - (v) and thereafter, every such receiver shall be accountable to the Chargor for any surplus as required by applicable law.

The reasonable remuneration and expenses of the receiver shall be paid by the Chargor on demand and shall be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest from the date of demand at the same rate as applies to the Principal Sum hereby secured.

- (g) Every such receiver may, with the consent in writing of the Holder, borrow money for the purpose of maintaining, protecting or preserving the Property or any part thereof, or for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Chargor in respect of the Property, and any receiver may issue certificates (in this sub clause called “receiver’s certificates”) for such sums as will, in the opinion of the Holder, be sufficient for obtaining security upon the Property or any part thereof for the amounts from time to time so required by the receiver, and such receiver's certificate may be payable either to order or to bearer and may be payable at such time or times, and shall bear such interest as the Holder may approve and the receiver may sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of the receiver's certificates in such manner and may pay such commission on the sale thereof, as the Holder may consider reasonable, and the amounts from time to time payable by virtue of such receiver's certificates shall form a charge upon the Property in priority to the amounts secured under this Debenture.

- (h) Save as to claims for accounting to which the Chargor is entitled under applicable law pursuant to clause (f) above, the Chargor hereby releases and discharges any such receiver from every claim of every nature, whether in damages or not which may arise or be caused to the Chargor or any person claiming through or under it by reason or as a result of anything done by such receiver unless such claim be the direct and proximate result of wilful misconduct, gross negligence, dishonesty or fraud.
- (i) The Holder may, at any time and from time to time, terminate any such receivership by notice in writing to the Chargor and to any such receiver.
- (j) The statutory declaration of an officer of the Holder as to the occurrence of an Event of Default, under the provisions of this Debenture and as to the due appointment of the receiver pursuant to the terms hereof shall be sufficient proof thereof for the purposes of any person dealing with a receiver who is ostensibly exercising powers herein provided for and such dealing shall be deemed, as regards such person, to be valid and effectual.
- (k) The rights and powers conferred herein in respect of the receiver are supplemental to and not in substitution of any other rights and powers which the Holder may have.

20. Sales

Upon the obligations secured hereby constituted becoming enforceable and the Holder making demand hereunder:

- (a) Method of Sale – The Holder may, upon the expiry of any applicable notice period, either before or after any entry, sell and dispose of the Property or any part thereof including, without limitation, any rents and profits thereof either as a whole or in separate parcels, at public auction or by tender or by private sale at such time or times as the Holder may determine, and may make such sale either for cash or credit or part cash and part credit, and with or without advertisement, and upon such conditions as to upset price and with or without a reserve bid as the Holder may deem proper.
- (b) Rescission and Resale – The Holder may rescind or vary any contract of sale that may have been entered into and resell with or under any of the powers conferred hereunder and adjourn any such sale from time to time without being answerable for any loss occasioned by such sale or by any postponement thereof.

- (c) Deeds – The Holder may execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of the Property or any part thereof good and sufficient deeds, assurances and conveyances for the same, the Holder being hereby constituted the irrevocable attorney of the Chargor for the purpose of making such sale and executing such deeds, assurances and conveyances.
- (d) Sale, Bars, Claims through Chargor – Any such sale made as aforesaid shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and in equity, against the Chargor and all other persons claiming an interest in the Property or any part thereof, by, from, through or under the Chargor.
- (e) Sale Proceeds – In the case of a sale for cash or credit, or part cash and part credit, the Holder shall be bound to pay to the Chargor only such moneys as have been actually received from purchasers after the satisfaction of all claims of the Holder including payment of any costs, charges and expenses (including without limitation all solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, or solicitor and client basis, as applicable) reasonably incurred by the Holder in the taking, recovering, collecting, realising on, keeping possession of, and any sale of, the Property.

21. Prior Encumbrances and Expenses

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Holder may pay the amount of any Lien now or hereafter existing, or to arise or to be claimed upon the Property having priority over this Debenture, including any taxes, utility charges or other rates on the Property, or any of them, and may pay all reasonable costs, charges and expenses (other than any such costs, charges and expenses arising as a result of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder) and all reasonable solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, which may be incurred in taking, recovering and keeping possession of the Property, or in protecting, repairing, restoring or preserving the Property, and generally in any proceedings or steps of any nature whatever properly taken in connection with or to realize upon the security created in this Debenture, or in respect of the collection of any overdue interest, principal, insurance premiums or any other monies whatsoever payable by the Chargor hereunder whether any action or any judicial proceedings to enforce such payments has been taken or not. The amount so paid shall be added to the debt hereby secured and be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid, and shall be payable forthwith by the Chargor to the Holder. In the event of the Holder paying the amount of any such encumbrance, lien or charge, taxes or rates, either out of the monies advanced on the security or otherwise, the Holder shall be entitled to all the rights, equities and securities of the Chargor as against the person or persons, company, corporation, or governmental authority so paid.

22. No Set-Off, etc.

The Principal Sum, interest and other amounts hereby secured will be paid and shall be assignable in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement free from any right of set-off or counterclaim or equities between the Chargor and the Holder or any other person or persons.

23. No Merger

The taking of a judgment or judgments under any of the covenants in this Debenture shall not operate as a merger of the covenant or affect any other right of the Holder under this Debenture or otherwise.

24. Encumbrance in Addition, etc.

This Debenture is in addition to and not in substitution for any other security now or hereafter held by the Holder or any other person. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, any payments to the Holder shall be appropriated by the Holder subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. The taking of any action or proceedings or refraining from so doing, or any other dealing with any other security for the monies secured hereby, shall not release or affect the charge of this Debenture and the taking of the security hereby granted or any proceedings hereunder for the realization of the security hereby granted and shall not release or affect any other security held by the Holder for the monies hereby secured.

25. Pledge of Debenture

This Debenture at any time and from time to time may be assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered by the Chargor to the Holder as security for the obligations secured and in such event this Debenture shall not be deemed to have been discharged or redeemed or the amounts payable hereunder to have been satisfied or reduced by reason of the account of the Chargor having ceased to be in debit while this Debenture remained so assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered.

26. Demand Debenture

For greater certainty all amounts payable under this Debenture are payable on demand upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing.

27. Quiet Possession

Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, until an Event of Default has occurred, it shall be lawful for the Chargor to peaceably and quietly have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the Property, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof for its own use and benefit, without let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial by the Holder, or any other person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming, or who shall, or may lawfully claim by, from, under or in trust for it, them or any or either of them. If any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, subject to applicable laws the Holder may peaceably and quietly enter into and hold and occupy the Property without hindrance, interference or denial of the Chargor or of anyone claiming under it or of any prior encumbrances whatsoever, except Permitted Liens.

28. No Obligation to Advance

Neither the execution and delivery nor the registration of this Debenture shall for any reason whatsoever obligate or bind the Holder or any secured party to advance any monies, or, having advanced a portion, obligate the Holder or any secured party in any way to advance the balance thereof; but nevertheless the charge shall take effect forthwith upon execution of this Debenture and shall operate as security for the actual amount of all the debts and liabilities, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, at any time owing by the Chargor to the Holder under the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents and otherwise owing under this Debenture.

29. After-Acquired Property

The Chargor covenants and agrees that, if and to the extent that any of its right, title, estate and interest in any of the Property is not acquired until after delivery of this Debenture, this Debenture shall nonetheless apply thereto and the mortgages, charges, assignments, transfers, pledges and security interests in favour of the Holder hereby created shall attach to such Property, subject to Sections 4 and 10, at the same time as the Chargor acquires rights therein, without the necessity of any further mortgage, charge, pledge, assignment, transfer, grant of security interest or assurance. The Chargor covenants and agrees to take such actions and execute such further and other documentation and/or instruments in respect of any after-acquired property at such time or times and in such form and manner as the Holder may reasonably request.

30. Indemnity

The Chargor agrees to indemnify the Holder against and hold the Holder harmless from any and all losses, claims, cost recovery actions, damages, expenses and liabilities of whatsoever nature or kind and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable fees, charges and, subject to the limitation referred to in Section 8.3(1)(a) of the Credit Agreement, disbursements of counsel) and all applicable taxes, to which the Holder may become subject arising out of or in connection with (a) the execution or delivery of this Debenture, the performance by the Chargor of its obligations hereunder, and the consummation of any transactions hereunder, (b) any other aspect of this Debenture, or (c) the enforcement of the Holder's rights hereunder and any related assessment, investigation, defence, preparation of defence, litigation and enquiries; provided that such indemnity shall not be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence (it being acknowledged that ordinary negligence does not necessarily constitute gross negligence) or wilful misconduct of or material breach of the Credit Agreement by the Holder.

31. Conflicts

This Debenture is being entered into pursuant to the Credit Agreement. In the event of any conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference between the terms of this Debenture and the terms of the Credit Agreement, the terms of the Credit Agreement shall govern and be paramount to the extent necessary to eliminate any such conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there is any right or remedy of the Holder set out in this Debenture or any part hereof which is not set out or provided for in the Credit Agreement, such additional right or remedy shall not constitute a conflict or inconsistency and the Holder shall, notwithstanding this Section 31, be entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such remedies. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the principal amount stated herein, the interest rate specified and the payment date of such interest set out in this Debenture, the principal amount due, the interest rate specified and the time for payment hereunder shall be in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement.

32. Extension of Time/Forbearance

The Holder will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Chargor or any other person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the obligations secured before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Property in such manner as the Holder may consider desirable. The Holder may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges, release the Property to third parties and otherwise deal with the Chargor's guarantors or sureties and others and with the Property as the Holder may see fit without prejudice to the obligations secured or the Holder's rights, remedies and powers under this Debenture. No extension of time, forbearance, indulgence or other accommodation now, previously or hereafter given by the Holder to the Chargor shall operate as a waiver, alteration or amendment of the Holder's rights or to otherwise preclude the Holder from enforcing such rights.

33. Power of Attorney

After an Event of Default has occurred and during its continuance, the Chargor hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints each officer or director of the Holder from time to time, or of any receiver appointed (as agent of the Chargor) as provided for in this Debenture, as the true and lawful attorney of the Chargor with full power of substitution in the name of the Chargor to do all such acts and things, to deal with the Property, and to execute and deliver all such deeds, transfers, leases, contracts, agreements and other documents or instruments on its behalf and in its place (and the same shall bind the Chargor and have the same effect as if such documents were executed by the Chargor) and with the right to use the name of the Chargor, whenever and wherever it may be deemed necessary or expedient in the sole discretion of the Holder, in connection with carrying out the provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of the rights and remedies set forth in this Debenture. The Chargor hereby ratifies and agrees to ratify all acts of any such attorney taken or done in accordance with the terms hereof. The power of attorney granted in this Section 33 may only be exercised following an Event of Default. The Chargor hereby declares that the irrevocable power of attorney granted hereby, being coupled with an interest in favour of the Holder, is given for valuable consideration and shall remain in full force and effect until this Debenture is discharged in accordance with the terms of this Debenture.

34. Revolving Credit

It is acknowledged and agreed that this Debenture may secure, inter alia, from time to time, revolving lines of credit and shall not be considered to have been satisfied or discharged by any intermediate payment of the whole or part of the obligations secured. This Debenture secures all of the obligations secured, including all advances and re-advances made under revolving lines of credit.

35. Statutory Waivers

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Chargor waives all of the rights, benefits and protections given by the provisions of any existing or future statute which imposes limitations upon the powers, rights or remedies of a lender or upon the methods of realization of security, including any seize or sue or anti deficiency statute or any similar provisions of any other statute.

36. Provisions Reasonable

Each party hereto acknowledges and declares that it has entered into this Debenture freely and of its own will. In particular, each party hereto acknowledges that this Debenture was freely negotiated by the Chargor and the Holder in good faith, that this Debenture does not constitute a contract of adhesion, that there was no exploitation of the Chargor by the Holder, and that there is no disproportion between the consideration provided by the Holder and that provided by the Chargor.

37. Notice

Any notice, consent, demand, approval or other communication required or permitted to be given in connection with this Debenture shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given if given in accordance with the Credit Agreement.

38. Further Assurances

At any time and all times the Chargor will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, transfers and assurances in law as the Holder shall reasonably require for the purpose of giving the Holder a valid mortgage, charge or security of the nature herein specified upon all property intended to be covered hereby, and for the better assuring, conveying, mortgaging, assigning, confirmation or charging unto the Holder all and singular the hereditament and premises, estates and property hereby mortgaged and charged, or intended so to be, in favour of the Holder.

39. Registration

The Holder shall have the right at any time and without notice to cause this Debenture or notice thereof to be registered or filed in any office of public record where the Holder considers it necessary.

40. References

All references to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses and schedules unless otherwise specified are to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs and clauses of and schedules to this Debenture.

41. Headings

The insertion of headings is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Debenture.

42. Number and Gender

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders.

43. Governing Law

This Debenture shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract save in respect of the security created pursuant hereto upon: (i) real property situate in any province of Canada other than Ontario, which shall be governed by the laws of the province in which such property is situate, and (ii) personal property, to the extent that any laws of any other province apply as a result of the application of conflict of laws rules.

44. Currency

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Debenture, all amounts in this Debenture are stated and shall be paid in the lawful currency of Canada.

45. Amendment

No amendment of this Debenture shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the parties.

46. Severable

If any provision of this Debenture is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.

47. Successors and Assigns

This Debenture shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns, all assignments to be in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder may assign, transfer and deliver to any transferee of the obligations secured, or any part thereof, the liability of the Chargor under this Debenture and any security, documents or instruments held by the Holder in respect of this Debenture and no such assignment, transfer or delivery shall release the Chargor from its liability; thereafter but subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder shall be fully discharged from all responsibility with respect to this Debenture and security, documents and instruments so assigned, transferred or delivered and the permitted transferee shall be vested with the powers and rights of the Holder under this Debenture and under the security, documents or instruments assigned, transferred or delivered. The Holder, however, shall retain all powers and rights with respect to any security, documents or instruments not assigned, transferred or delivered.

48. Insurance Act Waiver

In the event that the proceeds of any insurance are applied to the payment of the obligations secured, the Chargor hereby irrevocably waives any and all statutory provisions which may require that proceeds of insurance be used to restore or rebuild the Owned Real Property.

49. Limited Recourse

The Holder acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the only remedy that the Holder shall have against the Chargor in the event of non-payment by the Chargor of the obligations secured is to realize upon the Property. For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that the Holder shall in no circumstance have any right of payment from the Chargor hereunder independent of the foregoing, and the Chargor shall not be liable to the Holder for any deficiency hereunder resulting from any such realization or otherwise.

50. Receipt of Copy

The Chargor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Debenture and hereby expressly waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or a copy of the statement confirming the registration of any financing statement that may be registered in connection with any security interest created under this Debenture.

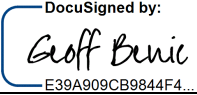

51. Discharge

Upon full and final payment and performance of the Obligations and permanent cancellation of the Commitment, the Holder shall upon request in writing by the Chargor deliver up this Debenture to the Chargor and shall at the expense of the Chargor cancel and discharge the Security Interests and execute and deliver to the Chargor such documents as shall be requisite to discharge the Security Interests. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 51 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Holder.

SCHEDULE "A" – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

COLLATERAL MORTGAGE

Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Chargee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Borrower and the Chargee.

This charge/mortgage of land (the "Charge") is collateral security for all present and future obligations and liabilities of the Chargor to the Chargee under, in connection with or with respect to the A&R Debenture Indenture.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS AND PARAMOUNTCY

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the A&R Debenture Indenture, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the

A&R Debenture Indenture) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a “Receiver”) of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. The following provisions shall apply in respect of the appointment of any Receiver:

- (a) such appointment may be made either before or after the Chargee shall have entered into or taken possession of the Property or any part of it;
- (b) such Receiver may, in the discretion of the Chargee, be vested with all or any of the powers and discretion of the Chargee and shall have the power to borrow on the security of the Property;
- (c) the Chargee may from time to time fix the remuneration of such Receiver and direct the payment of such remuneration from out of the proceeds of the Property;
- (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
- (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and

- (g) such Receiver shall have full power to manage, operate, amend, repair, alter or extend the Property or any part of it in the name of the Chargor for the purpose of securing the payment of rental from the Property or any part of it, including the power to:
- (i) take proceedings in the name of the Chargor or otherwise and to make any arrangement or compromise;
 - (ii) borrow or raise money on all or any part of the Property in priority to this Charge or otherwise for such purposes as may be approved by the Chargee;
 - (iii) give any and all notices to be given by the Chargor under any leases and exercise any and all rights of the Chargor under them;
 - (iv) do or cause to be done any and all acts and things under any lease and adjust and settle all matters relating to such performance; and
 - (v) institute and prosecute all suits, proceedings and actions which the Receiver in his opinion considers necessary for the proper protection of the Property, defend all suits, proceedings and actions against the Chargor or the Receiver, appear in and conduct the prosecution and defence of any suit, proceeding or action then pending or thereafter instituted and appeal any suit, proceeding or action.

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 27th day of June, 2022.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION and ALEAFIA FARMS
INC.

hereinafter collectively called the "Assignor"

- and -

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to the Assignee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees.
The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;

- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

DEMAND DEBENTURE

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION

PRINCIPAL SUM: $20,000,000.00

DATE: October 4, 2021

1. Acknowledgement and Promise to Pay

Emblem Cannabis Corporation (the “Chargor”), a corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario, for value received, hereby acknowledges itself indebted to 1260356 Ontario Limited (the “Holder”) with an address at 100 Zenway Boulevard Woodbridge, ON L4H 2Y7 Attention: Colby De Zen, E-mail: cdzen@zzengroup.com, and covenants and promises: (i) to pay on demand following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default the Principal Sum to or to the order of the Holder, in lawful money of Canada; and (ii) to perform the obligations secured (as defined herein). The Chargor promises to pay, on demand, interest in like money on the amount of the Principal Sum outstanding from time to time and on all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the rate of 25% per annum, calculated semi-annually, not in advance. Such interest will be payable both before and after maturity, demand, default and judgment. The Chargor promises to pay interest, on demand, at the same rate, on overdue interest, calculated and payable monthly on the first Business Day of each and every month until paid.

2. Place of Payment

The Chargor promises to pay the Principal Sum, interest and all other amounts from time to time owing hereunder at the office of the Holder at which any notice may be given to the Holder in connection with this Debenture or at such other place in Canada as the Holder may designate by notice in writing to the Chargor at any time and from time to time.

3. Continuing Security

This Debenture secures payment and performance in favour of the Holder of all the present and future Obligations of the Chargor (being herein collectively called the “obligations secured”).

4. Security

As continuing security for the due and punctual payment of the Principal Sum, interest, overdue interest and the obligations secured, and the performance of all the obligations secured, the Chargor does, subject to the terms hereof, hereby:

- (a) grant a security interest in and grant, mortgage, assign, transfer, hypothecate and charge as and by way of a fixed and specific mortgage and charge to and in favour of the Holder, all the right, title, estate, interest and benefit of the Chargor, present and future, in, to, under or in respect of the property legally described in Schedule 4(a) (the “Owned Real Property”) together with all rights and interest therein, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, including, without limitation, all licences, easements, rights-of-way, privileges, benefits, immunities, rights and options connected therewith and/or appertaining thereto and all amendments thereto, replacements thereof and substitutions therefor from time to time, and all buildings, erections, structures, improvements, fixtures, fixed plant, fixed machinery and fixed equipment at present situate thereon or therein or which may at any time hereafter be constructed or brought or placed thereon or therein or used in connection therewith, including in each and all cases any greater or other right, title and interest therein or in any part thereof which the Chargor may acquire and hold during the currency of this Debenture, and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;

- (b) assign, transfer and set over unto and in favour of the Holder, its successors and assigns, as and by way of a fixed and specific assignment, all of its right, title, estate and interest, present and future in and to:
 - (i) all contracts, agreements, indentures, licenses, commitments or other agreements relating to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof to which the Chargor is now or subsequently a party or has a benefit, right or in which the Chargor now has or subsequently acquires an interest;
 - (ii) all amendments, extensions, renewals, replacements and substitutions of any of the property referred to in Section 4(b)(i) and all benefits, rights, remedies, privileges, claims, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom or thereunder (whether arising pursuant thereto or available to the Chargor at law or in equity) and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the other parties thereto including, without limitation, the right of the Chargor to enforce any of the foregoing and the obligations of the other parties thereto and to give or withhold any and all consents, requests, directions, approvals, extensions and/or waivers thereunder; and
 - (iii) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing;
- (c) create a security interest in, and, subject to the exception set out in Section 10 hereof, assign by way of security, transfer and set over unto and in favour of the Holder, its successors and assigns, as and by way of a general assignment by way of security of all of its right, title, estate and interest, present and future, in and to:
 - (i) any and all existing or future leases, subleases, agreements to lease or sublease or other occupancy or tenancy agreements relating to the whole or any part of the Owned Real Property and all existing or future licenses or concessions whereby any person is given the right (other than an easement or a right in the nature of an easement) to use or occupy the whole or any part or parts of the Owned Real Property and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into (collectively, the “Third Party Leases”), and all benefits, powers and advantages of the Chargor to be derived therefrom and all covenants, obligations and agreements of the tenants thereunder;

- (ii) all rents and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable under the Third Party Leases, and each guarantee of or indemnity in respect of the obligations of the tenants thereunder with full power to demand, sue for recovery, receive and give receipts for all such rents and other moneys and otherwise to enforce the rights of the Chargor thereto in the name of the Chargor;
 - (iii) any and all existing or future agreements, contracts, licenses, permits, plans and specifications, bonds, letters of credit, letters of guarantee or other documents or instruments affecting or relating primarily to the servicing or development of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof or the construction, use, operation or maintenance of buildings, erections, structures, improvements and fixtures thereon and all extensions, amendments, renewals or substitutions thereof or therefor which may hereafter be effected or entered into and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (iv) any and all existing or future agreements of purchase and sale, options to purchase and mortgage, loan or other financing commitments relating in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all proceeds and other moneys now due and payable or hereafter to become due and payable thereunder and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom;
 - (v) all proceeds of and from any and all existing or future insurance policies in respect of property damage and rental insurance pertaining in whole or in part to the Owned Real Property and all proceeds of expropriation or similar taking of the Owned Real Property or any part or parts thereof and all benefit, power and advantage of the Chargor to be derived therefrom provided that all such proceeds shall be held and applied in accordance with the Credit Agreement; and
 - (vi) all Proceeds of all of the foregoing; and
- (d) create a security interest in and grant, convey, mortgage, assign, transfer, pledge and charge as and by way of a floating charge to and in favour of the Holder, all of its undertaking, property and assets, real and personal, immovable and moveable, which in each case is located at and used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property, including, without limitation, all goods, money, investment property, intangibles, chattel paper, instruments, documents, inventories and goodwill, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, of whatsoever nature, kind or description (other than such thereof as may from time to time be validly and effectively subjected to the charges created under Sections 4(a), 4(b), and 4(c) of this Debenture), and all Proceeds of all of the foregoing.

The grants, conveyances, mortgages, charges, pledges, transfers, assignments and security interests created pursuant to this Section 4 (collectively, the “Security Interests”) shall not extend or apply to any personal property which is “consumer goods”, as such term is defined in the Act, or as applicable in any similar personal property security legislation in any jurisdiction in which any of the Property is located, and notwithstanding Section 4(d) or any other provision hereof, shall not extend or apply to any cannabis or cannabis derived products, and no cannabis or cannabis derived products (including those located at, used primarily in connection with or arising from the Owned Real Property) will form part of the Property.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Chargor

The Chargor represents and warrants to the Holder as follows:

- (a) French Name: The Chargor does not have or use a French form of name or a combined English and French form of name;
- (b) Address: The address of the Chargor’s chief executive office is: 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, L4K 1G4; and
- (c) Location of the Property: With the exception of inventory in transit, all tangible assets comprising the Property are situate at the Owned Real Property or the chief executive office.

The foregoing representations and warranties shall survive for so long as any of the obligations secured remain unpaid and, notwithstanding any investigation made by or on behalf of the Holder, shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the Holder during such period.

6. Covenants of the Chargor

So long as any of the obligations secured shall remain unpaid or the Holder has the obligation to provide credit facilities pursuant to the Credit Agreement, the Chargor covenants and agrees with the Holder as follows:

- (a) No Accessions: The Chargor shall prevent any Property from being or becoming an accession to any property not subject to the Security Interests created by this Debenture;
- (b) Change of Name/Chief Executive Office: The Chargor shall not change its name or change the location of its chief executive office to a location outside of the Province of Ontario without giving prior written notice to the Holder of the new name or chief executive office location and the date upon which such change of name or chief executive office location is to take effect;
- (c) Location of Charged Premises: Except as may be permitted by the Credit Agreement, the Chargor shall not keep, store, locate or install any Charged Premises at, or move, transport or transfer any Charged Premises to, any location other than those locations set out in Section 5(c) without the prior written consent of the Holder; and

- (d) Registrations: The Chargor will, from time to time at the request of the Holder, promptly effect all registrations, filings, recordings and all renewals thereof and all re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings of or in respect of this Debenture and the Security Interests created hereby in such offices of public record and at such times as may be necessary or of advantage in perfecting, maintaining and protecting the validity, effectiveness and priority hereof and of the Security Interests created hereby; provided that the Holder may effect all such registrations, filings, recordings, renewals, re-registrations, re-filings and re-recordings from time to time in its sole discretion at the expense of the Chargor.

7. Habendum

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Property and all rights hereby conferred to the Holder forever for the uses and purposes and with the powers and authorities and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

8. Definitions

Unless otherwise provided, the capitalized terms used in this Debenture shall have the meanings given to them as described in Schedule 6 hereto.

9. Attachment

The Chargor acknowledges and agrees that value has been given for the granting of the Security Interests created hereby and that there is no agreement between the Chargor and the Holder, express or implied, to postpone the attachment of the Security Interests. Subject to Section 29, the Security Interests created by this Debenture are intended to attach when this Debenture is executed by the Chargor and delivered to the Holder or in the case of after-acquired property, when the Chargor has rights or any interest in such property.

10. Reservation of Last Day of Lease

The last day of any term of years reserved by any lease or any extension or renewal thereof, oral or written, or any agreement therefor, now held or hereafter acquired by the Chargor, is hereby excepted out of the security created hereby or by any other instrument supplemental hereto and does not and shall not form part of the Property charged hereby or by any such other instrument, but should such charge become enforceable the Chargor shall stand possessed of the reversion remaining in the Chargor of any leasehold interest for the time being demised as aforesaid, upon trust to assign and dispose thereof as the Holder shall direct; and upon any sale of the leasehold interest, or any part thereof, the Holder for the purpose of vesting the aforesaid reversion of any such term or any renewal thereof in any purchaser or purchasers thereof, shall be entitled by deed or other writing to appoint such purchaser or purchasers or any other person or persons a new trustee or trustees of the aforesaid reversion of any such term or renewal thereof in the place of the Chargor and to vest the same accordingly in the new trustee or trustees so appointed, freed and discharged from any obligation respecting the same.

11. Excluded Collateral and Consents

Nothing herein shall constitute an assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest or attempted assignment, mortgage, charge or security interest of or in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which by the provisions thereof or by law is not assignable or cannot be made the subject of a mortgage, charge or security interest or which requires the consent of a third party to its assignment or being made subject to a mortgage, charge or security interest, unless such consent has been obtained. In each such case, the Chargor shall promptly, upon written request by the Holder acting reasonably, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of any necessary third party to its assignment hereby and to its further assignment by the Holder to any third party who may acquire same as a result of the exercise by the Holder of remedies after demand. Upon such consent being obtained or waived, the assignments, mortgages, charges and security interests provided for herein shall apply to the applicable contract, agreement, license, lease or permit without regard to this section and without the necessity of any further assurance to effect such assignments, mortgages, charges or security interests. Unless and until such consent is obtained as provided above, the Chargor shall, to the extent it may do so by law or pursuant to the provisions of the document or interest referred to therein, hold all right, title, estate, interest and benefit to be derived from the applicable contracts, agreements, licenses, leases or permits in trust for the Holder (including, without limitation, the Chargor's beneficial interest in any contract, agreement, license, lease or permit which may be held in trust for the Chargor by a third party) as additional security for payment of the obligations secured and shall, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing deliver up all such right, title, interest and benefit to the Holder, forthwith upon demand by the Holder.

12. Holder Not To Be Obligated

The Holder will not be liable to the Chargor or any other person for any failure or delay in exercising any of the rights of the Holder under this Debenture (including any failure to take possession of, collect, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Property, or to preserve rights against prior parties). Neither the Holder, nor any receiver or agent of the Holder, is required to take, or will have any liability for any failure to take or delay in taking, any steps necessary or advisable to preserve rights against other persons under any Property in its possession. Neither the Holder nor any receiver or agent will be liable for any, and the Chargor will bear the full risk of all, loss or damage to any and all of the Property (including any Property in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent) caused for any reason other than the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder or such receiver or agent. Nothing herein contained shall have the effect of making the Holder responsible for the collection of any accounts or rents or any part thereof or for the performance of any obligations, covenants, terms or conditions in favour of any lessee or in favour of any party to any other agreement or contract with the Chargor or to whom the Chargor may be otherwise obligated. The Holder shall be liable to account only for such moneys as may actually come into its hands, and any such moneys when received by it may be applied on account of any of the Principal Sum, interest and other amounts secured hereby. The Holder shall not be, by reason of the assignment provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of any right granted herein, responsible for any act committed by the Chargor or any breach or failure to perform by the Chargor with respect to any of the Assigned Benefits. The Holder shall not be liable for and no credit shall be given in respect of any uncollected rents or other uncollected amounts. The Holder shall not be liable to any lessee or other party for the return of any security deposit made under any lease or contract unless the Holder shall have actually received such security deposit. The Holder shall not be deemed by virtue only of the grant of this Debenture, the exercise by the Holder of its rights under the assignment provisions of this Debenture, or the assumption of certain obligations of the Chargor after an Event of Default, to be a mortgagee in possession of the Property or any portion thereof. The Holder will have no obligation or liability under any account or monetary obligation (an “Account”), or any agreement, contract, lease or other document comprising the Property (each a “Contract”) giving rise thereto, by reason of or arising out of this Debenture or the receipt by the Holder of any payment relating to such Account or Contract pursuant hereto, and in particular (but without limitation), the Holder will not be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of the Chargor under or pursuant to any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by it or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any Contract giving rise thereto) or under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to it or to which it may be entitled at any time. Care, control and management of the Property shall remain and be deemed to be with the Chargor in the absence of clear and unequivocal action by the Holder depriving the Chargor of such care, control and management and the assumption thereof by the Holder or any receiver or agent. No credit shall be given by the Holder for any sum or sums collected in respect of the rents or other amounts, until the money collected is actually received by the Holder at the address provided herein, nor shall credit be given for any rent or other amounts after the Holder obtains ownership of the Property or part thereof under court order or by operation of law.

13. Events of Default

The Principal Sum, interest and all other obligations secured shall become immediately payable and the security hereby constituted shall become enforceable upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and shall be enforceable for so long as such Event of Default is continuing.

14. Waiver of Default

The Holder may by notice to the Chargor waive in whole or in part any default of the Chargor on such terms and conditions as the Holder may determine, but no such waiver shall be taken to affect any subsequent default or the rights resulting therefrom. No delay by the Holder in the enforcement of its rights under this Debenture shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of a default.

15. Remedies

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Holder may proceed to realize upon the security hereby constituted and to enforce its rights:

- (a) by written notice to the Chargor, declaring the obligations secured to be immediately due and payable;
- (b) immediately and without notice by entry, with the right to have, hold, use, occupy, possess, disable, remove and enjoy the Property or any part thereof without the let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial of the Chargor, its successors or assigns;

- (c) by entry, with the right to make such arrangements for completing the construction of, repairing or putting in order any buildings or other improvements on the Owned Real Property or any part thereof, or for inspecting, taking care of, leasing, collecting the rents of and managing generally the Property or any part thereof as it may deem expedient, and all reasonable costs, charges and expenses, including allowances for the time and service of any employee of the Holder or other person appointed for the above purposes shall be added to the Principal Sum and shall be secured hereby and payable forthwith together with interest thereon calculated at the rate and at the times and in the manner provided for herein for interest arrears on the Principal Sum;
- (d) by the appointment, by an instrument in writing, of any person or persons, whether an officer or officers or an employee or employees of the Holder or not, as a receiver or receivers of all or any part of the Property, and the Holder may remove any receiver or receivers so appointed and appoint another or others in its or their stead;
- (e) exercise those remedies provided for under the provisions of Section 20 or other sale permitted at law;
- (f) by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of one or more receivers under any applicable law;
- (g) proceed in any court of competent jurisdiction for foreclosure and/or judicial sale of all or any part of the Property;
- (h) in such other manner as is permitted by the Credit Agreement;
- (i) by any other action, suit, proceeding or other remedy authorized or permitted by law or by equity;
- (j) in connection with any assigned rights and benefits under Sections 4(b) and 4(c) (“Assigned Benefits”), the Holder may:
 - (i) give to any lessee or other person from whom the Holder would have been entitled to receive or claim any benefit under the Assigned Benefits in question (herein called the “Other Parties” or “Other Party”) express notice in writing of this assignment and thereafter the Holder shall be entitled to the benefit of subsection 53(1) of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act (Ontario) or other similar applicable legislation. The Holder may, after giving such notice, deal with the Other Party or Other Parties in respect of the Assigned Benefits without reference to or consent of the Chargor, as if the Holder were the absolute owner of the Assigned Benefits;
 - (ii) give notice to any Other Party to pay rents to the Holder and otherwise honour the rights of the Holder under this assignment. The Chargor agrees that any Other Party may rely upon any notice given by the Holder or on its behalf;

- (iii) at its option, assume or perform any such obligations as the Holder considers necessary or desirable to obtain the benefit of the Assigned Benefits, free of any set-off, deduction or abatement, and any money reasonably expended by the Holder in this regard shall form part of and be deemed to form part of the obligations secured and bear interest at the rate stipulated in this Debenture provided that it is expressly acknowledged and agreed that nothing herein contained shall oblige the Holder to assume or perform any obligation of the Chargor to any third party in respect of or arising out of the Assigned Benefits or any of them;
- (k) retain and administer the Property in the Holder's sole and unfettered discretion;
- (l) the Holder on its own account or through a receiver and whether alone or in conjunction with the exercise of all or any other remedies contemplated by this Debenture, shall have the right, at any time, to notify and direct Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange to make all payments whatever to the Holder and the Holder shall have the right, at any time, to hold all amounts acquired from any Account Debtors and any Person obligated to the Chargor under a promissory note or bill of exchange and any Proceeds as part of the Property. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default any payments received by the Chargor shall be held by the Chargor in trust for the Holder in the same medium in which received, shall not be commingled with any assets of the Chargor and shall, at the request of the Holder be turned over to the Holder not later than the next Business Day following the day of their receipt; and
- (m) pay any Liens or other claims that may exist or be threatened against the Property, and any amount so paid together with costs, charges and expenses incurred shall be added to the obligations secured.

16. Possession of Property

Where any Property is in the possession of the Holder or any receiver or agent:

- (a) the Holder shall only have the duty of care with respect to such Property as would a reasonable and prudent owner, including the duty to use reasonable care in the custody and preservation thereof, provided that the Holder need not take any steps of any nature to defend or preserve the rights of the Chargor therein against the claims or demands of others or to preserve rights therein against prior parties; and
- (b) the Holder or any receiver or agent may, at any time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, use such Property in any manner and to such extent as it deems necessary or desirable.

17. Deficiency

Without limiting any rights the Chargor may have at law, the Chargor shall be liable to pay any deficiency in the obligations secured hereunder that are remaining after the sale or disposition of the Property.

18. Remedies Cumulative

No remedy for the realization of the security hereby constituted or for the enforcement of the rights of the Holder shall be exclusive of or dependent upon any other such remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination.

19. Receiver

Subject to the provisions of any instrument in writing appointing a receiver or receivers, upon the appointment hereunder of a receiver of the Property or any part thereof, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) Every such receiver shall have unlimited access to the Property as agent and attorney for the Chargor (which right of access shall not be revocable by the Chargor) and shall have full power and unlimited authority to, without limitation:
 - (i) take possession of the Property or any part thereof;
 - (ii) carry on or concur in carrying on the business of the Chargor;
 - (iii) collect all Revenues owing or earned in respect of the Owned Real Property and collect the rents and profits from leases and tenancies whether created before or after the date hereof;
 - (iv) lease or concur in leasing any portion of the Property which may become vacant on such terms and conditions as it considers advisable and enter into and execute leases, accept surrenders and terminate leases;
 - (v) complete the construction of any building or buildings or other erections or improvements on the Property left by the Chargor in an unfinished state or award the same to others to complete and purchase, repair and maintain any personal property including, without limitation, appliances and equipment, necessary or desirable to render the premises operable or rentable, and take possession of and use or permit others to use all or any part of the Chargor's materials, supplies, plans, tools, equipment (including appliances) and property of every kind and description;
 - (vi) insure, manage, operate, repair, alter or extend the Property; and
 - (vii) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Property, and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such receiver may do with respect to the Property.

- (b) The Holder may at its discretion vest the receiver with all or any of the rights and powers of the Holder.
- (c) The Holder may fix the remuneration of the receiver who shall be entitled to deduct the same out of the revenue or the sale proceeds of the Property.
- (d) Every such receiver shall be deemed the agent or attorney of the Chargor and not the agent of the Holder, and the Holder shall not be in any way responsible for the acts or omissions of any such receiver.
- (e) The appointment of any such receiver by the Holder shall not result in or create any liability or obligation on the part of the Holder to the receiver or to the Chargor or to any other person and no appointment or removal of a receiver and no actions of a receiver shall constitute the Holder a mortgagee in possession or responsible as such.
- (f) No such receiver shall be liable to the Chargor to account for monies other than monies actually received by it in respect of the Property, or any part thereof, and out of such monies so received every such receiver shall, in the following order, pay:
 - (i) its remuneration as aforesaid;
 - (ii) all costs and expenses of every nature and kind incurred by it in connection with the exercise of its powers and authority hereby conferred;
 - (iii) interest, principal and other money which may, from time to time, be or become charged upon the Property in priority to this Debenture, including taxes;
 - (iv) to the Holder all interest, the Principal Sum and other monies constituting obligations secured that are due in such order as the Holder in its discretion shall determine; and
 - (v) and thereafter, every such receiver shall be accountable to the Chargor for any surplus as required by applicable law.

The reasonable remuneration and expenses of the receiver shall be paid by the Chargor on demand and shall be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest from the date of demand at the same rate as applies to the Principal Sum hereby secured.

- (g) Every such receiver may, with the consent in writing of the Holder, borrow money for the purpose of maintaining, protecting or preserving the Property or any part thereof, or for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Chargor in respect of the Property, and any receiver may issue certificates (in this sub clause called “receiver’s certificates”) for such sums as will, in the opinion of the Holder, be sufficient for obtaining security upon the Property or any part thereof for the amounts from time to time so required by the receiver, and such receiver's certificate may be payable either to order or to bearer and may be payable at such time or times, and shall bear such interest as the Holder may approve and the receiver may sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of the receiver's certificates in such manner and may pay such commission on the sale thereof, as the Holder may consider reasonable, and the amounts from time to time payable by virtue of such receiver's certificates shall form a charge upon the Property in priority to the amounts secured under this Debenture.

- (h) Save as to claims for accounting to which the Chargor is entitled under applicable law pursuant to clause (f) above, the Chargor hereby releases and discharges any such receiver from every claim of every nature, whether in damages or not which may arise or be caused to the Chargor or any person claiming through or under it by reason or as a result of anything done by such receiver unless such claim be the direct and proximate result of wilful misconduct, gross negligence, dishonesty or fraud.
- (i) The Holder may, at any time and from time to time, terminate any such receivership by notice in writing to the Chargor and to any such receiver.
- (j) The statutory declaration of an officer of the Holder as to the occurrence of an Event of Default, under the provisions of this Debenture and as to the due appointment of the receiver pursuant to the terms hereof shall be sufficient proof thereof for the purposes of any person dealing with a receiver who is ostensibly exercising powers herein provided for and such dealing shall be deemed, as regards such person, to be valid and effectual.
- (k) The rights and powers conferred herein in respect of the receiver are supplemental to and not in substitution of any other rights and powers which the Holder may have.

20. Sales

Upon the obligations secured hereby constituted becoming enforceable and the Holder making demand hereunder:

- (a) Method of Sale – The Holder may, upon the expiry of any applicable notice period, either before or after any entry, sell and dispose of the Property or any part thereof including, without limitation, any rents and profits thereof either as a whole or in separate parcels, at public auction or by tender or by private sale at such time or times as the Holder may determine, and may make such sale either for cash or credit or part cash and part credit, and with or without advertisement, and upon such conditions as to upset price and with or without a reserve bid as the Holder may deem proper.
- (b) Rescission and Resale – The Holder may rescind or vary any contract of sale that may have been entered into and resell with or under any of the powers conferred hereunder and adjourn any such sale from time to time without being answerable for any loss occasioned by such sale or by any postponement thereof.

- (c) Deeds – The Holder may execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of the Property or any part thereof good and sufficient deeds, assurances and conveyances for the same, the Holder being hereby constituted the irrevocable attorney of the Chargor for the purpose of making such sale and executing such deeds, assurances and conveyances.
- (d) Sale, Bars, Claims through Chargor – Any such sale made as aforesaid shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and in equity, against the Chargor and all other persons claiming an interest in the Property or any part thereof, by, from, through or under the Chargor.
- (e) Sale Proceeds – In the case of a sale for cash or credit, or part cash and part credit, the Holder shall be bound to pay to the Chargor only such moneys as have been actually received from purchasers after the satisfaction of all claims of the Holder including payment of any costs, charges and expenses (including without limitation all solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, or solicitor and client basis, as applicable) reasonably incurred by the Holder in the taking, recovering, collecting, realising on, keeping possession of, and any sale of, the Property.

21. Prior Encumbrances and Expenses

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Holder may pay the amount of any Lien now or hereafter existing, or to arise or to be claimed upon the Property having priority over this Debenture, including any taxes, utility charges or other rates on the Property, or any of them, and may pay all reasonable costs, charges and expenses (other than any such costs, charges and expenses arising as a result of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Holder) and all reasonable solicitors' fees on a substantial indemnity basis, which may be incurred in taking, recovering and keeping possession of the Property, or in protecting, repairing, restoring or preserving the Property, and generally in any proceedings or steps of any nature whatever properly taken in connection with or to realize upon the security created in this Debenture, or in respect of the collection of any overdue interest, principal, insurance premiums or any other monies whatsoever payable by the Chargor hereunder whether any action or any judicial proceedings to enforce such payments has been taken or not. The amount so paid shall be added to the debt hereby secured and be a charge on the Property and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid, and shall be payable forthwith by the Chargor to the Holder. In the event of the Holder paying the amount of any such encumbrance, lien or charge, taxes or rates, either out of the monies advanced on the security or otherwise, the Holder shall be entitled to all the rights, equities and securities of the Chargor as against the person or persons, company, corporation, or governmental authority so paid.

22. No Set-Off, etc.

The Principal Sum, interest and other amounts hereby secured will be paid and shall be assignable in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement free from any right of set-off or counterclaim or equities between the Chargor and the Holder or any other person or persons.

23. No Merger

The taking of a judgment or judgments under any of the covenants in this Debenture shall not operate as a merger of the covenant or affect any other right of the Holder under this Debenture or otherwise.

24. Encumbrance in Addition, etc.

This Debenture is in addition to and not in substitution for any other security now or hereafter held by the Holder or any other person. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, any payments to the Holder shall be appropriated by the Holder subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. The taking of any action or proceedings or refraining from so doing, or any other dealing with any other security for the monies secured hereby, shall not release or affect the charge of this Debenture and the taking of the security hereby granted or any proceedings hereunder for the realization of the security hereby granted and shall not release or affect any other security held by the Holder for the monies hereby secured.

25. Pledge of Debenture

This Debenture at any time and from time to time may be assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered by the Chargor to the Holder as security for the obligations secured and in such event this Debenture shall not be deemed to have been discharged or redeemed or the amounts payable hereunder to have been satisfied or reduced by reason of the account of the Chargor having ceased to be in debit while this Debenture remained so assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated, lodged, deposited or delivered.

26. Demand Debenture

For greater certainty all amounts payable under this Debenture are payable on demand upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing.

27. Quiet Possession

Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, until an Event of Default has occurred, it shall be lawful for the Chargor to peaceably and quietly have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the Property, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof for its own use and benefit, without let, suit, hindrance, interruption or denial by the Holder, or any other person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming, or who shall, or may lawfully claim by, from, under or in trust for it, them or any or either of them. If any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, subject to applicable laws the Holder may peaceably and quietly enter into and hold and occupy the Property without hindrance, interference or denial of the Chargor or of anyone claiming under it or of any prior encumbrances whatsoever, except Permitted Liens.

28. No Obligation to Advance

Neither the execution and delivery nor the registration of this Debenture shall for any reason whatsoever obligate or bind the Holder or any secured party to advance any monies, or, having advanced a portion, obligate the Holder or any secured party in any way to advance the balance thereof; but nevertheless the charge shall take effect forthwith upon execution of this Debenture and shall operate as security for the actual amount of all the debts and liabilities, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, at any time owing by the Chargor to the Holder under the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents and otherwise owing under this Debenture.

29. After-Acquired Property

The Chargor covenants and agrees that, if and to the extent that any of its right, title, estate and interest in any of the Property is not acquired until after delivery of this Debenture, this Debenture shall nonetheless apply thereto and the mortgages, charges, assignments, transfers, pledges and security interests in favour of the Holder hereby created shall attach to such Property, subject to Sections 4 and 10, at the same time as the Chargor acquires rights therein, without the necessity of any further mortgage, charge, pledge, assignment, transfer, grant of security interest or assurance. The Chargor covenants and agrees to take such actions and execute such further and other documentation and/or instruments in respect of any after-acquired property at such time or times and in such form and manner as the Holder may reasonably request.

30. Indemnity

The Chargor agrees to indemnify the Holder against and hold the Holder harmless from any and all losses, claims, cost recovery actions, damages, expenses and liabilities of whatsoever nature or kind and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable fees, charges and, subject to the limitation referred to in Section 8.3(1)(a) of the Credit Agreement, disbursements of counsel) and all applicable taxes, to which the Holder may become subject arising out of or in connection with (a) the execution or delivery of this Debenture, the performance by the Chargor of its obligations hereunder, and the consummation of any transactions hereunder, (b) any other aspect of this Debenture, or (c) the enforcement of the Holder's rights hereunder and any related assessment, investigation, defence, preparation of defence, litigation and enquiries; provided that such indemnity shall not be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence (it being acknowledged that ordinary negligence does not necessarily constitute gross negligence) or wilful misconduct of or material breach of the Credit Agreement by the Holder.

31. Conflicts

This Debenture is being entered into pursuant to the Credit Agreement. In the event of any conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference between the terms of this Debenture and the terms of the Credit Agreement, the terms of the Credit Agreement shall govern and be paramount to the extent necessary to eliminate any such conflict, inconsistency, ambiguity or difference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there is any right or remedy of the Holder set out in this Debenture or any part hereof which is not set out or provided for in the Credit Agreement, such additional right or remedy shall not constitute a conflict or inconsistency and the Holder shall, notwithstanding this Section 31, be entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such remedies. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the principal amount stated herein, the interest rate specified and the payment date of such interest set out in this Debenture, the principal amount due, the interest rate specified and the time for payment hereunder shall be in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement.

32. Extension of Time/Forbearance

The Holder will not be obliged to exhaust its recourse against the Chargor or any other person or against any other security it may hold in respect of the obligations secured before realizing upon or otherwise dealing with the Property in such manner as the Holder may consider desirable. The Holder may grant extensions of time and other indulgences, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges, release the Property to third parties and otherwise deal with the Chargor's guarantors or sureties and others and with the Property as the Holder may see fit without prejudice to the obligations secured or the Holder's rights, remedies and powers under this Debenture. No extension of time, forbearance, indulgence or other accommodation now, previously or hereafter given by the Holder to the Chargor shall operate as a waiver, alteration or amendment of the Holder's rights or to otherwise preclude the Holder from enforcing such rights.

33. Power of Attorney

After an Event of Default has occurred and during its continuance, the Chargor hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints each officer or director of the Holder from time to time, or of any receiver appointed (as agent of the Chargor) as provided for in this Debenture, as the true and lawful attorney of the Chargor with full power of substitution in the name of the Chargor to do all such acts and things, to deal with the Property, and to execute and deliver all such deeds, transfers, leases, contracts, agreements and other documents or instruments on its behalf and in its place (and the same shall bind the Chargor and have the same effect as if such documents were executed by the Chargor) and with the right to use the name of the Chargor, whenever and wherever it may be deemed necessary or expedient in the sole discretion of the Holder, in connection with carrying out the provisions of this Debenture or the exercise of the rights and remedies set forth in this Debenture. The Chargor hereby ratifies and agrees to ratify all acts of any such attorney taken or done in accordance with the terms hereof. The power of attorney granted in this Section 33 may only be exercised following an Event of Default. The Chargor hereby declares that the irrevocable power of attorney granted hereby, being coupled with an interest in favour of the Holder, is given for valuable consideration and shall remain in full force and effect until this Debenture is discharged in accordance with the terms of this Debenture.

34. Revolving Credit

It is acknowledged and agreed that this Debenture may secure, inter alia, from time to time, revolving lines of credit and shall not be considered to have been satisfied or discharged by any intermediate payment of the whole or part of the obligations secured. This Debenture secures all of the obligations secured, including all advances and re-advances made under revolving lines of credit.

35. Statutory Waivers

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Chargor waives all of the rights, benefits and protections given by the provisions of any existing or future statute which imposes limitations upon the powers, rights or remedies of a lender or upon the methods of realization of security, including any seize or sue or anti deficiency statute or any similar provisions of any other statute.

36. Provisions Reasonable

Each party hereto acknowledges and declares that it has entered into this Debenture freely and of its own will. In particular, each party hereto acknowledges that this Debenture was freely negotiated by the Chargor and the Holder in good faith, that this Debenture does not constitute a contract of adhesion, that there was no exploitation of the Chargor by the Holder, and that there is no disproportion between the consideration provided by the Holder and that provided by the Chargor.

37. Notice

Any notice, consent, demand, approval or other communication required or permitted to be given in connection with this Debenture shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given if given in accordance with the Credit Agreement.

38. Further Assurances

At any time and all times the Chargor will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, transfers and assurances in law as the Holder shall reasonably require for the purpose of giving the Holder a valid mortgage, charge or security of the nature herein specified upon all property intended to be covered hereby, and for the better assuring, conveying, mortgaging, assigning, confirmation or charging unto the Holder all and singular the hereditament and premises, estates and property hereby mortgaged and charged, or intended so to be, in favour of the Holder.

39. Registration

The Holder shall have the right at any time and without notice to cause this Debenture or notice thereof to be registered or filed in any office of public record where the Holder considers it necessary.

40. References

All references to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses and schedules unless otherwise specified are to articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs and clauses of and schedules to this Debenture.

41. Headings

The insertion of headings is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Debenture.

42. Number and Gender

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders.

43. Governing Law

This Debenture shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as an Ontario contract save in respect of the security created pursuant hereto upon: (i) real property situate in any province of Canada other than Ontario, which shall be governed by the laws of the province in which such property is situate, and (ii) personal property, to the extent that any laws of any other province apply as a result of the application of conflict of laws rules.

44. Currency

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Debenture, all amounts in this Debenture are stated and shall be paid in the lawful currency of Canada.

45. Amendment

No amendment of this Debenture shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the parties.

46. Severable

If any provision of this Debenture is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.

47. Successors and Assigns

This Debenture shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns, all assignments to be in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement. Subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder may assign, transfer and deliver to any transferee of the obligations secured, or any part thereof, the liability of the Chargor under this Debenture and any security, documents or instruments held by the Holder in respect of this Debenture and no such assignment, transfer or delivery shall release the Chargor from its liability; thereafter but subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, the Holder shall be fully discharged from all responsibility with respect to this Debenture and security, documents and instruments so assigned, transferred or delivered and the permitted transferee shall be vested with the powers and rights of the Holder under this Debenture and under the security, documents or instruments assigned, transferred or delivered. The Holder, however, shall retain all powers and rights with respect to any security, documents or instruments not assigned, transferred or delivered.

48. Insurance Act Waiver

In the event that the proceeds of any insurance are applied to the payment of the obligations secured, the Chargor hereby irrevocably waives any and all statutory provisions which may require that proceeds of insurance be used to restore or rebuild the Owned Real Property.

49. Limited Recourse

The Holder acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the only remedy that the Holder shall have against the Chargor in the event of non-payment by the Chargor of the obligations secured is to realize upon the Property. For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that the Holder shall in no circumstance have any right of payment from the Chargor hereunder independent of the foregoing, and the Chargor shall not be liable to the Holder for any deficiency hereunder resulting from any such realization or otherwise.

50. Receipt of Copy

The Chargor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Debenture and hereby expressly waives the right to receive a copy of any financing statement or a copy of the statement confirming the registration of any financing statement that may be registered in connection with any security interest created under this Debenture.

51. Discharge

Upon full and final payment and performance of the Obligations and permanent cancellation of the Commitment, the Holder shall upon request in writing by the Chargor deliver up this Debenture to the Chargor and shall at the expense of the Chargor cancel and discharge the Security Interests and execute and deliver to the Chargor such documents as shall be requisite to discharge the Security Interests. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 51 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Holder.

SCHEDULE "A" – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

COLLATERAL MORTGAGE

This charge/mortgage of land (the "Charge") is collateral security for all present and future obligations and liabilities of Emblem Cannabis Corporation (the "Chargor"), Aleafia Health Inc. and Aleafia Farms Inc. to NE SPC II LP (the "Chargee") under, in connection with or with respect to the loan agreement dated as of December 24, 2021 (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Loan Agreement") among, inter alia, the Chargor and the Chargee.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 and the provisions of the Loan Agreement then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the Loan Agreement, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the Loan Agreement, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the Loan Agreement) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the Loan Agreement) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a "Receiver") of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. The following provisions shall apply in respect of the appointment of any Receiver:

- (a) such appointment may be made either before or after the Chargee shall have entered into or taken possession of the Property or any part of it;
- (b) such Receiver may, in the discretion of the Chargee, be vested with all or any of the powers and discretion of the Chargee and shall have the power to borrow on the security of the Property;
- (c) the Chargee may from time to time fix the remuneration of such Receiver and direct the payment of such remuneration from out of the proceeds of the Property;
- (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or

- consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
 - (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and
 - (g) such Receiver shall have full power to manage, operate, amend, repair, alter or extend the Property or any part of it in the name of the Chargor for the purpose of securing the payment of rental from the Property or any part of it, including the power to:
 - (i) take proceedings in the name of the Chargor or otherwise and to make any arrangement or compromise;
 - (ii) borrow or raise money on all or any part of the Property in priority to this Charge or otherwise for such purposes as may be approved by the Chargee;
 - (iii) give any and all notices to be given by the Chargor under any leases and exercise any and all rights of the Chargor under them;
 - (iv) do or cause to be done any and all acts and things under any lease and adjust and settle all matters relating to such performance; and
 - (v) institute and prosecute all suits, proceedings and actions which the Receiver in his opinion considers necessary for the proper protection of the Property, defend all suits, proceedings and actions against the Chargor or the Receiver, appear in and conduct the prosecution and defence of any suit, proceeding or action then pending or thereafter instituted and appeal any suit, proceeding or action.

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 24th day of December, 2021.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION

hereinafter called the "Assignor"

- and -

NE SPC II LP

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees.

The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;
- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;

- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the loan agreement dated as of December 24, 2021 (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Loan Agreement") shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the Loan Agreement then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the Loan Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the Loan Agreement, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

SCHEDULE "A" – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

COLLATERAL MORTGAGE

Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to Chargee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture") between the Borrower and the Chargee.

This charge/mortgage of land (the "Charge") is collateral security for all present and future obligations and liabilities of the Chargor to the Chargee under, in connection with or with respect to the A&R Debenture Indenture.

STANDARD CHARGE TERMS AND PARAMOUNTCY

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this schedule to the Charge and the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the terms of this schedule to the Charge shall prevail and the inclusion of any term in standard charge terms number 200033 that is not set out in this schedule to the Charge shall not be an inconsistency and shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Charge or the terms of standard charge terms number 200033, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 16 of Standard charge terms number 200033 is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

16. The Chargor will insure and during the continuance of the Charge keep insured the buildings on the land in accordance with the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture.

NO SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

The Chargor shall not without the Chargee's prior written consent, or except in accordance with the A&R Debenture Indenture, obtain secondary or subsequent financing, or charge or encumber the property secured hereby or any part thereof (the "Property") or interest therein or permit any lien or charge thereon.

DUE ON SALE AND SUBSEQUENT ENCUMBRANCES

If the Chargor sells, conveys, transfers or enters into any agreement of sale or transfer of the title of the Property or further encumbers of any of the Property (other than in accordance with the

A&R Debenture Indenture) without the written consent of the Chargee, at any time while any amount secured by this Charge remains unpaid and outstanding, the balance of the principal then outstanding and all amounts secured by this Charge shall, at the option of the Chargee, become immediately due and payable.

DEFAULT

The Chargor covenants and agrees that an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall constitute concurrent default under this Charge and upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Chargee shall be entitled to exercise any and all remedies available to it pursuant to this Charge, and with respect to any or all of the Property.

RECEIVER

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, this Charge or any security or any document submitted to the Chargee in connection therewith, the Chargee may, in its discretion, by writing appoint a receiver (which term shall include a receiver and manager) (a “Receiver”) of the Property or any part of it and of the rents and profits from it and may from time to time remove any Receiver and appoint another in his place, and in making any such appointment or appointments the Chargee shall be deemed to be acting as the attorney for the Chargor unless the Chargee indicates in writing a contrary intention. The following provisions shall apply in respect of the appointment of any Receiver:

- (a) such appointment may be made either before or after the Chargee shall have entered into or taken possession of the Property or any part of it;
- (b) such Receiver may, in the discretion of the Chargee, be vested with all or any of the powers and discretion of the Chargee and shall have the power to borrow on the security of the Property;
- (c) the Chargee may from time to time fix the remuneration of such Receiver and direct the payment of such remuneration from out of the proceeds of the Property;
- (d) such Receiver shall, so far as concerns the responsibility for his acts or omissions, be deemed the agent of the Chargor and in no event the agent of the Chargee and the Chargee in making or consenting to such appointment shall not incur any liability to the Receiver for his remuneration or otherwise howsoever;
- (e) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to collect, realize, sell or otherwise deal with the Property in such manner, upon such terms and conditions and at such time or times as may seem to the Receiver to be advisable and without notice to the Chargor;
- (f) such Receiver shall from time to time have the power to lease any portion of the Property which may become vacant for such term and subject to such provisions as the Receiver may deem advisable or expedient and, in so doing, such Receiver shall act as the attorney or agent for the Chargor (unless specifically appointed by the Chargee as the agent of the Chargee) and such Receiver shall have authority to execute, under seal or otherwise, any leases of any such premises in the name of and on behalf of the Chargor and the Chargor undertakes to ratify and confirm whatever any such Receiver may do on the Property; and

- (g) such Receiver shall have full power to manage, operate, amend, repair, alter or extend the Property or any part of it in the name of the Chargor for the purpose of securing the payment of rental from the Property or any part of it, including the power to:
- (i) take proceedings in the name of the Chargor or otherwise and to make any arrangement or compromise;
 - (ii) borrow or raise money on all or any part of the Property in priority to this Charge or otherwise for such purposes as may be approved by the Chargee;
 - (iii) give any and all notices to be given by the Chargor under any leases and exercise any and all rights of the Chargor under them;
 - (iv) do or cause to be done any and all acts and things under any lease and adjust and settle all matters relating to such performance; and
 - (v) institute and prosecute all suits, proceedings and actions which the Receiver in his opinion considers necessary for the proper protection of the Property, defend all suits, proceedings and actions against the Chargor or the Receiver, appear in and conduct the prosecution and defence of any suit, proceeding or action then pending or thereafter instituted and appeal any suit, proceeding or action.

The Chargor hereby irrevocably appoints the Chargee as his attorney to execute such consent or consents and all such documents as may be required in the sole discretion of the Chargee and/or its solicitors so as to give effect to the foregoing provisions and the signature of such attorney shall be valid and binding on the Chargor and all parties dealing with the Chargor, the Chargee and/or the Receiver and/or with respect to the Property in the same manner as if such documentation was duly executed by the Chargor itself.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

THIS ASSIGNMENT made this 27th day of June, 2022.

B E T W E E N:

EMBLEM CANNABIS CORPORATION and ALEAFIA FARMS
INC.

hereinafter collectively called the "Assignor"

- and -

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA

hereinafter called the "Assignee"

WHEREAS Aleafia Health Inc. (the "Borrower") is, or may become, indebted or liable to the Assignee, in its capacity as trustee, and on behalf of the Debentureholders pursuant to the terms of an amended and restated debenture indenture dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time, the "A&R Debenture Indenture").

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the Assignor doth hereby assigns to the Assignee, all rights, privileges, advantages and benefits whatsoever, including all rental and other income, arising pursuant to leases and/or agreements to lease and/or tenancies (herein referred to as the "Leases") now or hereafter affecting the lands and premises more particularly described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents attached hereto.

This Assignment is given as additional security for the payment of the sum of TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) and all other sums secured by a charge between the Assignor, as chargor, and the Assignee, as chargee, charging the premises of which those demised in the Leases form all or part and which charge is herein referred to as the "Charge". The registration particulars of the Charge are described in the Notice of Assignment of Rents – General attached hereto. The security of this Assignment is and shall be primary and on a parity with the real estate conveyed by the Charge and not secondary. All amounts collected hereunder, after deducting the expense of collection, shall be applied on account of the indebtedness secured by the Charge, or in such other manner as may be provided in the Charge. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as constituting the Assignee as trustee, mortgagee or chargee in possession.

The Assignor does hereby empower the Assignee, its agents or attorneys, to collect, sue for, settle, compromise and give acquittances for all of the rents that may become due under the Leases and avail itself of and pursue all remedies for the enforcement of the Leases and the Assignor's rights in and under the Leases as the Assignor might have pursued but for this Assignment.

The Assignor warrants that the Leases, if any exist, are in full force and effect, and that the copies thereof heretofore delivered to the Assignee are true and correct copies, that the Assignor has not heretofore assigned or pledged the same or any interest therein, and that, to the best of the Assignee's knowledge, no default exists on the part of the lessees thereunder (herein called "the Lessees") or the Assignor, as lessor, in the performance on the part of either, of the terms, covenants, provisions or agreements in the Leases contained; that no rent has been paid by any of the Lessees more than one month in advance (except for security deposits paid in accordance with the Leases), and that, the payment of none of the rents to accrue under the Leases has been or will be waived, released, reduced, discounted or otherwise discharged or compromised by the Assignor directly or indirectly by assuming any Lessee's obligations with respect to other premises.

The Assignor waives any rights of set-off against the Lessees.
The Assignor covenants and agrees:

- (a) that the Leases shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of any merger of the interest of the Lessor and Lessee thereunder; and that it will not transfer or convey the fee title to said premises to any of the Lessees without requiring such Lessees, in writing, to assume and agree to pay the debt secured by the Charge in accordance with the terms covenants and conditions contained in the Charge;
- (b) that if the Leases provided for the abatement of rent during the repair of the demised premises by reason of fire or other casualty, the Assignor shall furnish rental insurance to the Assignee, the policies to be in an amount and form and written by such insurance companies as shall be satisfactory to the Assignee;

- (c) not to terminate or to accept a surrender of any of the Leases without the written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and that any attempted termination or acceptance of surrender of the Leases without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (d) not to modify or amend the Leases or any of the terms thereof, or grant any concessions in connection therewith, either orally or in writing, without the written consent of the Assignee, and that any attempted modification or amendments of the Leases or grant of concession in connection therewith without such written consent shall be null and void;
- (e) not to collect any of the rent, income and profits arising or accruing under the Leases in advance of the time when the same become due under the terms thereof;
- (f) not to discount any future accruing rents;
- (g) not to execute any other assignments of the Leases or any interest therein or any of the rents thereunder;
- (h) to perform all of the Assignor's covenants and agreements as lessor under the Leases and not to suffer or permit to occur any release of liability of the Lessees, or any rights to the Lessees to withhold payment of rent; and to give prompt notices to the Assignee of any notice of default on the part of the Assignor with respect to the Leases received from the Lessees, and to furnish the Assignee with complete copies of said notices;
- (i) that all offers to lease and Leases shall be bona fide, the terms of which are to be approved by the Assignee prior to execution, and shall be at rental rates and terms consistent with comparable space in the area of the lands and premises described herein;
- (j) that the Assignor will provide to the Assignee leasing activity reports in respect of the lands and premises herein forthwith on request by the Assignee;
- (k) if so requested by the Assignee, to enforce the Leases and all remedies available to the Assignor against the Lessees, in case of default under the Leases by the Lessees;
- (l) that none of the rights or remedies of the Assignee under the Charge shall be delayed or in any way prejudiced by this Assignment;
- (m) that notwithstanding any variation of the terms of the Charge or any extension of time for payment thereunder, the Leases and benefits hereby assigned shall continue as additional security in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (n) not to alter, modify or change the terms of any guarantees of any of the Leases or cancel or terminate such guarantees without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (o) not to consent to any assignment of the Leases, or any subletting thereunder, whether or not in accordance with their terms, without the prior written consent of the Assignee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (p) not to request, consent to, agree to or accept a subordination of the Leases to any mortgage or other encumbrance now or hereafter affecting the premises;
- (q) not to exercise any right of election, whether specifically set forth in any such Leases or otherwise which would in any way diminish the tenant's liability or have the effect of shortening the stated term of the Leases; and
- (r) to pay the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the taking, preparation and filing of this Assignment or any notice hereof which may be required and of every renewal related thereto.

Upon any vesting of title to the property secured under the Charge in the Assignee or other party by court order, operation of law, or otherwise or upon delivery of a deed or deeds pursuant to the Assignee's exercise of remedies under the Charge, all right, title and interest of the Assignor in and to the Leases shall by virtue of this Assignment, thereupon vest in and become the absolute property of the party vested with such title or the grantee or grantees in such deed or deeds without any further act or assignment by the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably appoints Assignee and its successors and assigns, as its agent and attorney in fact, to execute all instruments of assignment or further assurances in favour of such party vested with title or the grantee or grantees. This power is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable until this Assignment is discharged and the security interests created by this Assignment are released.

In the exercise of the powers herein granted to the Assignee, no liability shall be asserted or enforced against the Assignee, all such liability being hereby expressly waived and released by the Assignor. The Assignee shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Leases, or under or by reason of this Assignment and the Assignor shall and does hereby agree to indemnify the Assignee for, and to save and hold it harmless of and from, any and all liability, loss or damage which it may or might incur under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment and of and from any and all claims and demands whatsoever which may be asserted against it by reason of any obligations or undertakings on its part to perform or discharge any of the terms, covenants or agreements contained in the Leases. Should the Assignee incur any such liability, loss or damage under the Leases or under or by reason of this Assignment, or in the defence of any such claims or demands, the amount thereof, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be secured hereby, and the Assignor shall reimburse the Assignee therefore immediately upon demand.

Although it is the intention of the parties that this Assignment shall be a present assignment, it is expressly understood and agreed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding that the Assignee shall not exercise any of the rights or powers herein conferred upon it until an Event of Default (as defined in the A&R Debenture Indenture) shall occur, but upon the occurrence of any such Event of Default, the Assignee shall be entitled, upon notice to the Lessees, to all rents and other amounts then due under the Leases and thereafter accruing, and this Assignment shall constitute a direction to and full authority to the Lessees to pay all such amounts to the Assignee without proof of the default relied upon. The Lessees are hereby irrevocably authorized to rely upon and comply with any notice or demand by the Assignee for the payment to the Assignee of any rental or other sums which may be or thereafter become due under the Leases regardless whether any default under the Charge has actually occurred or is then existing.

This Assignment is intended to be additional to and not in substitution for or in derogation of any assignment of rents contained in the Charge or in any other document. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in in this Assignment which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment shall include any extensions and renewals of the Leases and any reference herein to the Leases shall be construed as including any such extensions and renewals.

If the Assignor comprises more than one person, all covenants and liabilities entered into, by or imposed upon the Assignor shall be joint and several. Each Assignor, if more than one, is responsible both individually and together with the other Assignor(s) for all obligations of the Assignor to the Assignee pursuant to this Assignment.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

This Assignment shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto. The words "Assignor", "Assignee" and "Lessees", wherever used herein, and designated as such and their respective heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, and all words and phrases shall be taken to include the singular or plural and masculine, feminine or neuter gender, as may fit the case.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Assignment and the provisions of the A&R Debenture Indenture then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Assignment, the provisions contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency and the provisions of this Assignment shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to eliminate such conflict or inconsistency. If there is a representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or event of default contained in this Assignment, which is not contained in the A&R Debenture Indenture, or vice versa, such additional provision shall not constitute a conflict but shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

This Assignment may be signed in counterparts and transmitted by electronic transmission. Each counterpart shall be deemed to be an original and all such separate counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Assignor has executed this Assignment as of the date first written above.

Coming Soon:

- Regional service area expansion across the Major Metro Area of Toronto
- Expansion to other Major Metro Areas including Calgary, Edmonton & Vancouver

Will you deliver to a different location than the address on my Patient Record?

AssureHome Delivery service is ONLY available for direct-to-door delivery, to the official address on your Emblem Patient Record provided it is NOT a PO Box, (you will be prompted to select an alternate shipping method if that is the case).

How do I know that delivery to my door is safe and confidential?

All of our drivers have completed a rigorous screening process, and have passed an RCMP background check. Deliveries are hand-delivered to our patients by professional drivers.

Can I track my delivery?

Yes. You will receive an email notification including tracking information once your package is shipped.

Receiving Delivery

Will there be any identifying logos on the delivery vehicle?

No. All our drivers use discreet, unmarked vehicles.

How will I know it's an official delivery?

Do I need to show the driver my ID?

As a general rule, you don't need to. Drivers may request ID if they believe the recipient has not reached age of majority.

How does the delivery process work during the COVID-19 pandemic?

As a temporary measure during the COVID-19 pandemic we established the following protocol:

- Drivers are wearing protective clothing
- Drivers call ahead 15 minutes prior delivery, as per the standard process
- Drivers will put the package on your doorstep, ring the bell and will step away 2 meters
- Drivers will ask for the receiving person's birth date to confirm that they're of the age of majority
- Drivers will put the receiving person's first initial and last name, and write 'COVID' on the signature pad on behalf of the receiving person
- Driver will mark delivery as 'complete'

Does my order come discreetly packaged?

Our deliveries are processed in bulk on a daily basis, so typically arrive in the same discreet, carefully prepared packaging that supports your parcels most expedient journey to you.

Troubleshooting

My order hasn't arrived at the expected time.

It is important that you contact us as soon as possible if there is a problem with your delivery.

Please email our Client Care Team at Support@AssureHomeDelivery.com or call us at 1-833-277-8730 (1-833-ASSURE-0) if the delivery has not arrived within the expected time window.

My order is incorrect or some items are missing/damaged.

Support@AssureHomeDelivery.com or call us at 1-833-277-8730 (1-833-ASSURE-0) between 7 am to 10 PM EST Monday to Friday.

I can't be there to receive my order, but someone else will be. Can they receive my delivery for me?

Yes. Anyone at the delivery address who is over the age of majority can sign for or accept your package.

I can't be there to receive my delivery. What will happen?

If nobody is available to receive your delivery, our driver will leave a notice at the door, and will attempt to deliver again – either later the same day, or the following day. There will be up to three delivery attempts made, after which time the package will be returned to the shipper.

Maintaining and Renewing a Licence Issued under the Act

A holder of a licence issued under the Act who wishes to maintain or renew their excise licence must continue to meet certain conditions imposed under the Act. Pursuant to paragraph 2(2)(e) of the Regulations Respecting Excise Licences and Registrations (Regulations) a licensee must maintain sufficient financial resources to conduct their business in a responsible manner.

In order to demonstrate that you have sufficient financial resources to conduct business in a responsible manner in accordance with section 2 of the Regulations, we require that you agree to a payment arrangement with the CRA to repay the arrears balances listed below. If you fail to fulfill your obligations under that payment arrangement, the CRA may consider that you have insufficient financial resources to conduct your business in a responsible manner.

As of today's date, you have arrears balances for the following accounts maintained with the CRA:

- a. RD0002 - $820,154.80 (in respect of obligations under the Excise Act, 2001) call Mathieu Durocher in Collections at 1-833-940-3580.
- b. RT0001 - $1,079,064.96 (in respect of obligations under the Excise Tax Act) call at 1-800-675-6183.
- c. RP0001 - $1,225.16 (in respect of obligations under the Income Tax Act, Employment Insurance Act, Canada Pension Plan and/or Quebec Pension Plan) call collections at 1-800-675-6183.
- d. RC0001 - $3,014.56 (in respect of obligations under the Income Tax Act) call collections at 1-800-675-6183.

Please contact the appropriate Collections area to make payment arrangements. Failure to meet the eligibility criteria for a licence is grounds for the CRA to suspend or cancel an excise licence pursuant to the Regulations. If your licence is suspended or cancelled, you will no longer be authorized to conduct any activities, including production or possession of the goods, for which the licence was issued.

Obligations of a Cannabis Licensee

Changes to Information

The CRA must be informed of any changes to the name, legal entity, business or mailing address, location of books and records or changes to any other information provided in the licence application form. The CRA must also be informed if your business/operations have been discontinued or sold.

Books and Records

All cannabis licensees are required to maintain adequate books and records and provide access to those books and records to excise officers. Denied access to books and records could result in a suspension or the cancellation of a cannabis licence.

Filing of Returns

A form B300, Cannabis Duty and Information Return for each filing division under your cannabis licence must be filed for each calendar month whether or not any duty is payable. Your returns are due at the end of the month following the calendar month for the production being reported. It should be noted that a licensee who fails to file a return for a reporting period as and when required will be subject to penalty. Similarly, if payment is not made as and when required, a licensee will be subject to interest on the late payment.

Electronic filing of the monthly B300 Cannabis Duty and Information Return, the B301 Application for a Refund of Cannabis Duty, as well as other account information, such as account transactions and balances, licence status and account maintenance activities, is available at canada.ca/my-cra-business-account. Electronic filing of returns provides immediate confirmation that your return has been received by the CRA. Enrollment can be completed online, and further information is available at canada.ca/my-cra-business-account or by phone at 1-800-959-5525.

Monthly excise cannabis returns may also be printed from our website at canada.ca/cannabis-excise so that they may be completed and submitted by mail. Please note that should a return and any payment due not be filed or received within the time limits, penalty and interest charges may be applied in accordance with the Act.

Methods of Destruction and Analysis

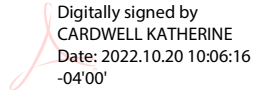

As a reminder, methods for destruction and analysis of cannabis products must be approved by the Minister. Any changes to the previously approved methods must be submitted in writing to the Regional Manager for Excise Duty for approval, prior to implementation of the revised procedures.

Mandatory notification and witness of destruction is not required for regular, routine destruction. However, unusual destruction or the destruction of packaged goods returned from a purchaser are required to be reported and may require witnessing of the destruction by an officer.

Should you have any questions or require clarification regarding the above information, please do not hesitate to contact Amy Gunter at (289) 237-4439. MANITOBA LIQUOR AND LOTTERIES CORPORATION
CORPORATE PURCHASE ORDER - TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Incorporation of Terms and Conditions in Purchase Order

The terms and conditions in this document are incorporated into every requisition for goods or services, or both, that Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries Corporation (MBLL) issues by purchase order. The promises, warranties and representations in this document are deemed to have been given by every recipient of a purchase order from MBLL that has been accepted by MBLL.

2. Acceptance of Purchase Order

The purchase order is MBLL offer to purchase from the Supplier the goods or services or both described in the purchase order. Commencing the provision of the services, shipment of any of the goods, or delivery of any of the goods, whichever occurs first, constitutes acceptance by the Supplier of MBLL offer to purchase, and the terms and conditions outlined herein.

3. Entire Contract

The purchase order, together with these terms and conditions, forms the entire agreement between MBLL and the Supplier (the "Contract").

4. Modifying the Terms and Conditions

No modifications (whether they are deletions, additions or variations and whether they are proposed by MBLL or the Supplier) to the terms and conditions of the Contract are effective or binding on MBLL unless they are specifically agreed to in writing by MBLL. No additional or different terms or conditions in any printed form of the Supplier become part of the Contract unless MBLL has specifically agreed to them in writing.

5. No Substitutions

The Supplier must not substitute a different brand or model if a particular brand or model has been specified in the purchase order, unless the different brand or model has been specifically agreed to in writing by MBLL.

6. Shipping Instructions

The Supplier must comply with best commercial practices to ensure that the goods arrive safely at the destination, and all goods must be shipped freight prepaid, F.O.B. destination, unless otherwise stated. Where MBLL has so authorized in writing, goods may be shipped F.O.B. shipping point, but the Supplier must prepay all shipping charges, route the goods by the most economical common carrier or by the carrier specified by MBLL (if one is specified), and list the shipping charges as a separate item on the Supplier's invoice. All invoices that include shipping charges must be accompanied by a written receipt from the carrier, indicating that such shipping charges have been paid. MBLL reserves the right to reject C.O.D. shipments. The Supplier must not bill MBLL for the cost of insuring the goods during shipment unless MBLL has agreed in writing to pay for the goods to be insured or where the goods are shipped via parcel post.

7. Representations

MBLL is prohibited by law from purchasing or receiving gaming supplies or gaming services from suppliers that should be licensed with Liquor and Gaming Authority (LGA) unless they are licensed as suppliers under The Liquor and Gaming Control Act. Accordingly, if the goods or services being requisitioned in the purchase order are gaming supplies or gaming services subject to LGA licensing, the Supplier makes the following representation and promise to MBLL:

As of the date of acceptance of the purchase order the Supplier will be licensed as a supplier under The Liquor and Gaming Control Act (www.lgamanitoba.ca), and the Supplier promises that it will continue to be registered as long as any part of the purchase order remains unfulfilled, unperformed or undelivered.

8. Handling and Related Charges

The Supplier must pay all charges for handling, packaging, wrapping, bags, containers, crating, storage, commissions and related matters unless otherwise indicated by MBLL in the purchase order.

9. Delivery

Time is of essence and the contract may be terminated by MBLL if the goods are not delivered or if the services are not fully performed by the date or dates specified in the purchase order. In such instance, MBLL may purchase the items or services elsewhere and charge the Supplier with any loss incurred by MBLL. No change in the scheduled delivery or performance dates will be permitted without MBLL written consent. No acceptance of goods or services after the scheduled delivery or performance date affects MBLL right to terminate for such late delivery or performance nor does it constitute a waiver of any term or condition that requires the Supplier to deliver or perform at a future date.

10. Risk of Loss

Regardless of F.O.B. point, the Supplier agrees to bear all risks of loss, injury or destruction of goods ordered which occur prior to receipt of the goods by MBLL. No such loss, injury or destruction releases the Supplier from any of its obligations under the Contract.

11. Payment

Payment for goods or services will only be made once payment has been authorized in accordance with section 16 (of the PO Terms and Conditions). It is MBLL's preference that all payments in Canadian funds (CAD) to Canadian Financial Institutions shall be issued via Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). The Supplier shall provide MBLL with its bank information. For payments in currencies other than CAD, or to bank accounts outside of Canadian Financial Institutions, MBLL will remit payment by mail, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. Standard terms of "net 30 days" apply unless otherwise noted by MBLL.

12. Prices

MBLL will pay the prices stated in the purchase order for the goods or services. The prices indicated must be in Canadian funds unless otherwise specified in the purchase order or agreed to in writing by MBLL. If a price is not stated in the purchase order, MBLL will pay the lowest of the following prices:

- (a) the price last quoted to MBLL by the Supplier;
- (b) the price last paid by another customer of the Supplier; or
- (c) the prevailing market price for such goods or services.

13. Changes

MBLL may make changes to the goods or services requisitioned in a purchase order, including (without limitation) changes to drawings and specifications for specially manufactured goods and place of delivery, and will notify the Supplier of such changes in writing. If the changes affect the cost of the goods or services, or the time required for the goods or services to be delivered or performed, the Supplier must request an adjustment in writing before the Supplier ships or delivers the goods or begins to provide the services. If no adjustment has been requested by the Supplier within 30 days after having received MBLL notice, MBLL will deem the Supplier to have agreed to make the changes without any adjustment to the price or delivery dates or work schedule. The Supplier is not permitted to make any changes unless they have been requested by MBLL or unless MBLL has first approved the changes in writing.

14. Owner's Manual

If applicable, the Supplier must supply an owner's manual or other instructions to MBLL for the installation, operation, maintenance and repair of the goods.

15. Warranties

The Supplier expressly warrants that all goods and services purchased under the Contract conform with the purchase order and all applicable specifications and Canadian standards, are free from defects in material, workmanship and design, and are of a quality satisfactory to MBLL taking into account how they are described in the purchase order. If the Supplier knows, either expressly or by implication, the particular purpose for which MBLL intends to use the goods or services, the Supplier warrants that such goods or services are fit for such purpose. The Supplier further warrants that the goods are wholly new in that they contain only new components and parts throughout, that the Supplier has good and warrantable title to the goods and that goods will, upon delivery to MBLL, be free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances of every kind.

The Supplier warrants that MBLL purchase, installation and use of goods or services provided by the Supplier under the contract will not result in any claim of infringement, or actual infringement, of any patent, trademark, copyright, franchise, moral or other intellectual property right.

The Supplier warrants that the goods and services supplied under the contract have been produced and supplied in compliance with all applicable federal, provincial (or state) and local or municipal laws, orders, rules and regulations.

If the goods have a manufacturer's warranty, MBLL will be entitled to the benefit of the warranty. The Supplier will provide MBLL with a copy of such warranty when it delivers the goods. The Supplier agrees to extend all warranties that it receives from its vendors to MBLL and to MBLL customers.

Breach of the warranties in this section entitles MBLL to all remedies available to MBLL at law or in equity.

MBLL approval of the Supplier's design, materials or goods does not relieve the Supplier of the warranties set out herein. Without limiting any rights that MBLL may have at law because of any breach of warranty, goods that are not as warranted (whether or not apparent on initial inspection) may at any time within the warranty period specified in the purchase order or any applicable manufacturer's warranty, whichever period is longer, be returned at the Supplier's expense. MBLL, at its option, may require the Supplier either to replace such goods without changes, in which case the Supplier must pay all repacking, transportation and handling charges both ways, or to refund the purchase price and any charges incurred by MBLL in connection with the purchase. In addition, MBLL may claim payment of damages for any loss that it may suffer as a result of the goods not being warranted. The Supplier agrees to promptly pay all such amounts to MBLL.

16. Inspection and Testing, and Authorizing Payment for Goods or Services

Facilities and Equipment

MBLL may need to inspect the Supplier's facilities or equipment, or both. The Supplier consents to such an inspection and agrees to give MBLL and its representatives reasonable access to its facilities and equipment for this purpose.

Goods

MBLL will count and inspect goods delivered under a contract. MBLL may wish to test goods requisitioned in a purchase order. If the count, inspection or tests show that the goods do not comply with MBLL specifications or other requirements, the goods will be rejected and returned (if they have been delivered) to the Supplier.

Payment for goods will not be authorized until MBLL has counted, inspected and tested (if applicable) the goods and has found them acceptable. Only written authorization for payment is binding on MBLL and may be relied upon by the Supplier.

Services

MBLL will inspect or review services delivered or performed under a contract. If the inspection or review shows that the services do not comply with MBLL specifications or other requirements, the services will be rejected.

Payment for services will not be authorized until MBLL has inspected or reviewed the services and has found them acceptable. Only written authorization for payment is binding on MBLL and may be relied upon by the Supplier.

Costs Related to Rejected Goods or Services

All costs of MBLL to unpack, inspect, test, repack, store and reship rejected goods are the responsibility of the Supplier. All costs of MBLL to inspect or review rejected services are the responsibility of the Supplier. The Supplier agrees to promptly pay all such costs.

17. Default and Termination

In addition to MBLL other rights under the Contract and without restricting any other remedies available, MBLL may, by written notice to the Supplier, immediately cancel in whole or any part of the Contract in any one or more of the following circumstances, which is deemed to be termination for cause:

- (a) subject to section 17, if the goods are not delivered or if the services are not fully performed by the date or dates specified in the purchase order, or such later date as MBLL may have, in writing, agreed upon;
- (b) if, in MBLL opinion, any of the goods are defective;
- (c) if, in MBLL opinion, any of the goods do not conform to the purchase order;
- (d) if, in MBLL opinion, the Supplier fails to perform any of the other provisions of the Contract;
- (e) if, in MBLL opinion, any services provided by the Supplier are unsatisfactory, inadequate or improperly performed;
- (f) if MBLL becomes aware of information which would reasonably lead MBLL to believe that the goods will not be delivered or the services will not be performed by the date or dates specified in the purchase order, or such later date as MBLL may have, in writing, agreed upon;
- (g) if the Supplier is in breach of any of the terms and conditions of the Contract;
- (h) if the Supplier becomes, or is about to become, bankrupt or insolvent, goes into receivership or takes the benefit of any law pertaining to bankrupt or insolvent debtors (it being understood that the appointment of a receiver, receiver/manager or trustee of property and assets of the Supplier is conclusive evidence of insolvency); or where the Supplier is a corporation, a certificate or order is made or granted, or a resolution is passed, for the dissolution or winding up of the Supplier, voluntarily or otherwise, or the Supplier is otherwise likely to lose its corporate status.
- (i) If the annual budget or funding is not available to continue with the services.

18. Force Majeure and Lock out

Neither party shall be liable for default or delay due to causes beyond its reasonable control and without fault or negligence on the part of such party, including, but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake, snow storm or other natural disaster, as well as, failure of electricity or telephone service, labour lockout or strikes. The Supplier must give MBLL prompt notice in writing when any such cause appears likely to delay delivery of goods or the performance of services and must take appropriate action to avoid or minimize such delay. If any such default or delay threatens to impair the Supplier's ability to meet delivery requirements for its goods or services, MBLL is entitled to cancel the portion or portions of the purchase order so affected, without any liability to the Supplier. MBLL is not liable for the default or delay in performing its obligations due to causes beyond its reasonable control, or as a result of any suspension of the Supplier's obligations.

19. Indemnifications and Liability of Supplier

The Supplier indemnifies and holds MBLL, its officers, employees and agents, harmless from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages, causes of actions and liabilities of every kind of nature, including (without limitation) legal fees on a solicitor and own client basis, arising from or out of:

- (a) any breach of any of the Supplier's obligations or warranties;
- (b) any misrepresentation by the Supplier;
- (c) any other act or omission of the Supplier, its officers, employees, agents or

- subcontractors or by those for whom it is responsible at law, howsoever caused including claims or actions which may be made or instituted by persons who make purchases from MBLL or use products supplied by the Supplier;
- (d) the presence or activity of the Supplier's officers, employees, agents, contractors and subcontractors on MBLL premises where the contract includes services or work to be done on MBLL premises;
 - (e) any builder's lien or claim in any way relating to work or services performed under the contract; or
 - (f) a determination that the contract creates the relationship of employer and employee between MBLL and the Supplier, to the extent that such an indemnity is not prohibited by law.

The Supplier is solely responsible for any personal injury, or loss of life, of its officers, employees, agents, contractors or subcontractors experienced by such persons in the course of performing the services or in any other way related to the requirements of the contract except to the extent it was caused by the wrongful or negligent act of an employee of MBLL while acting within the scope of his or her employment. The Supplier is solely responsible for its officers, employees, agents, contractors and subcontractors while they are on MBLL premises. The Supplier is solely responsible for any damage to, or loss of, its own property or property owned by MBLL or others caused in the course of the services being performed or in any other way related to the requirements of the Contract except to the extent it was caused by the wrongful or negligent act of an employee of MBLL while acting within the scope of his or her employment.

20. Assignment

No part of the Contract, not any interest in the Contract or any claim arising from the Contract, may be transferred, assigned or subcontracted by the Supplier without the prior written consent of MBLL, which consent may be withheld for any or no reason or consent given with or without conditions.

No assignments or transfer of the contract relieves the Supplier of any obligations under the Contract, except to the extent they are properly performed by the Supplier's permitted assigns. Where MBLL approves a third party to perform any part of the services contemplated by the Contract, the Supplier alone will be fully responsible for ensuring that all of the MBLL requirements are carried out by the third party in accordance with this Agreement.

MBLL may transfer or assign the benefits of the contract in whole or in part, including the Supplier's warranties, without notice to the Supplier.

The Contract is binding upon and ensures to the benefit of the successors and assignees of MBLL upon the successors and permitted assignees of the Supplier.

21. Additional Terms for Services

Where the Contract requires services to be performed, including goods to be installed (sometimes also referred to as "work"), the following additional terms apply:

- (a) The Supplier must take precautions to protect all property and persons from damage or injury arising out of the Supplier's services. The Supplier must comply with all applicable laws and regulations prescribed by any relevant governmental authority, including (without limitation) all fire, health and safety, employment, labour, workers' compensation and other applicable laws and regulations, and must obtain all necessary permits at its own cost unless the purchase order specifies that MBLL will obtain them.
- (b) All services must be performed in accordance with current, sound and generally accepted industry practices by qualified personnel, trained and experienced in the appropriate fields.
- (c) All tools, equipment, dies, gauges, models, drawings or other materials paid for or furnished by MBLL for the purpose of performing the services are and remain exclusively the property of MBLL. The Supplier must safeguard all such property while it is in the Supplier's custody or control and will be liable for any loss or damage to such property. MBLL may require the Supplier to insure the property. The Supplier must use the property only for the purposes of performing the services, and return it to MBLL promptly upon request. Any such property described above may be removed by MBLL from the Supplier's premises. The Supplier agrees to waive and does hereby waive any lien it may have in regard to such property.

- (d) The Supplier must obtain and maintain the following insurance coverage until the services have been completed to MBLL satisfaction:
 - (i) workers' compensation coverage;
 - (ii) professional liability insurance coverage for all professionals employed by the Supplier who will be working in their designated professional capacity in providing the services, such coverage to be provided through their membership in a professional association or by a separate professional liability insurance policy, in an amount of at least two million dollar ($2,000,000.00) per occurrence or claim; and
 - (iii) commercial general liability insurance against claims for personal and bodily injury, death or damage to property of other arising out of any services conducted under the contract. Such insurance must provide for coverage of not less than two million dollars ($2,000,000.00) per occurrence and name MBLL, its officers, employees and agents as addition insureds.

The above are minimum insurance requirements intended to provide basic coverage for the Supplier. It is the responsibility of the Supplier and its insurance advisors to determine whether these amounts are sufficient or whether additional or other insurance coverage should be obtained.

- (e) The Supplier must ensure that the services and the property on or in which the services are performed, and all amounts payable under the contract, are kept free and clear of all statutory liens including (without limitation) builders' liens, and other liens and trust claims. If the Supplier fails to do so, MBLL may, without waiving any of its rights or remedies against the supplier for or by reason of such failure:
 - (i) withhold any payment otherwise due to the Supplier until MBLL has received such affidavits, waivers, discharges and releases with respect to the liens or claims as MBLL may require; and
 - (iii) pay such amounts as may be required to obtain discharges or releases of liens or claims, and to deduct them from amounts otherwise due to the Supplier.
- (f) The services remain at the risk of the Supplier until payment for the services has been authorized in writing by MBLL in accordance with section 16. The Supplier must replace, at its own expense, any and all services damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever prior to MBLL having given written authorization to pay for the services.
- (g) The Supplier is an independent contractor and not an agent, employee or representative of MBLL. The Supplier must not hold itself out to be an agent, employee or representative of MBLL.
- (h) The Supplier must perform its services in accordance with the schedules and work programs established by MBLL and must fully cooperate with MBLL and others engaged in work on the project so that the work on the entire project may be performed most efficiently but always consistent with good practices. If conflicts arise between the Supplier's services schedule and those of other engaged to provide services on the project, MBLL may require the Supplier and those other parties to work according to a schedule determined by MBLL.
- (i) The Supplier must carry on its services so that the premises are at all times clean, orderly and free from debris. Upon completion of the services, the Supplier must remove all equipment and unused materials from the project, clean up all refuse and debris, and leave the services site clean, orderly and in good condition.
- (j) Whenever services are performed on MBLL premises or on premises under MBLL control, the Supplier must comply with all reasonable directions and requests of MBLL and with MBLL work and safety rules, and must require its employees, agents, contractors and subcontractors to so comply. MBLL has the right to exclude personnel from MBLL premises who do not comply with such directions, requests or rules and, at MBLL option, to terminate the contract if the Supplier or its employees, agents, contractors or subcontractors fail to comply with this provision.

22. Delay or Suspension

By advising the Supplier in writing, MBLL may, at its sole option from time to time, delay or suspend the delivery of goods or the provision of services under the contract, in whole or in part, for such period of time as may, in the opinion of MBLL, be necessary. Where there is such delay or suspension by MBLL, all terms and conditions of the contract shall continue in full force and effect against the Supplier, except the scheduled performance or delivery dates which shall be postponed accordingly.

23. Severance

If a court or other lawful authority of competent jurisdiction declares any provision of the contract to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the contract continues in full force and effect with respect to all other provisions. All rights and remedies under such other provisions survive any such declaration.

Any invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision must, to the extent permitted by law, be severed and replaced by a valid, legal and enforceable provision that comes as close as possible to the intention underlying the severed provision as may be ordered by a court or other lawful authority of competent jurisdiction or as may be agreed to in writing by MBLL and the Supplier.

24. Set-off or Deduction

All claims for money due or to become due from MBLL under the contract may be set off or reduced by MBLL for any counterclaim arising out of this transaction or for any other claim MBLL may have against the Supplier.

25. Survival of Obligations, Representations, Warranties and Indemnities

The obligations of the Supplier contained in section 28, as well as all representations, warranties and indemnifications made or given by the Supplier, survive in cancellation or termination of the contract, and the performance or completion by the Supplier of its obligations under the contract.

26. Arbitration

If a disagreement arises between MBLL and the Supplier in relation to the contract that cannot be resolved by them, either party may request that the other party agree to submit the matter to arbitration. If the other party agrees, the matter will be arbitrated and arbitrators will be selected in the manner provided below. If the other party does not agree to have the matter submitted to arbitration, the party who requested arbitration is not entitled to have the matter arbitrated.

The arbitrator may either be a single person chosen by and satisfactory to both parties, or an arbitration panel of three, one member to be selected by each party and a third selected by the two members selected by the parties. The decision of the arbitrator or arbitration panel must be accepted as final and binding. The cost of arbitration will be split equally between MBLL and the Supplier. In all other respects, the provisions of The Arbitration Act (Manitoba) govern

27. Advertising

The Supplier, and anyone on the Supplier behalf, must not advertise or publish anything that includes a claim by the Supplier that it has supplied or provided goods or services to MBLL or to any of its staff members unless the Supplier has first obtained the written consent of MBLL.

28. Disclosure of Information

All data and information furnished by MBLL to the Supplier in connection with the contract, including, with limitation, data and information in the form of specifications, drawings, reprints, technical information, equipment, prototypes, forecasts, schedules, or other technical or business information, are the exclusive property of MBLL. Such data and information must be held in strict confidence by the Supplier, its employees, agents, contractors and subcontractors, and must be promptly returned to MBLL upon request by MBLL. The Supplier must ensure that all such data and information is kept confidential and that it is not disclosed to any other person, or used for any purpose other than to provide the goods or services requisitioned in the purchase order, unless and until it comes into the public domain (other than by or through the Supplier) or MBLL consents in writing to its disclosure.

29. Acceptable Laws

The contract must be interpreted, performed and enforced in accordance with the laws of Manitoba and of Canada as are applicable in Manitoba.

30. Notices

Any notice given or other communication sent by a party with respect to the contract must be in writing and must be delivered or sent by registered mail, postage prepaid, or by facsimile transmission, addressed to the other party at the address or facsimile number last provided by that party to the other. Any notice or communication that is:

- (a) delivered is deemed to have been received on the date of the delivery; or
- (b) sent by registered mail is deemed to have been received on the third business day of MBLL following the date of mailing; or
- (c) sent by facsimile transmission is deemed to have been received on the next business day of MBLL following the date of transmission, or,
- (d) emailed is deemed to have been received on the next business day of MBLL following the date of transmission

If mail service is disrupted by labour controversy on the date of mailing or within three business days after the date of mailing, the notice or communication must also be delivered or sent by facsimile transmission. Either party may change its address or facsimile number by giving notice in writing to the other party in the manner set out above.

31. Conflict

If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions in this document and those set out in the purchase order, those in the purchase order prevail.

This is Exhibit “BB” referred to in the Affidavit of Patricia Symmes-Rizakos sworn before me at Toronto, Ontario, this 24th day of July, 2023.

Aleafia and Serruya Family to Enter Cannabis Retail Joint-Venture for Launch of One Plant™

Major Retail Operation Backed by Family behind Iconic Yogen Früz, Second Cup Brands

TORONTO, Sept. 25, 2018 -- Aleafia Health Inc. (TSXV: ALEF; OTCQX: ALEAF, FRA: ARAH) ("Aleafia") or (the "Company"), has entered into a letter of intent to acquire a 51 per cent stake in One Plant™, an adult-use cannabis retail operation led by members of the Serruya Family (the "Serruya Family"), including Aaron Serruya, the president of International Franchise Inc., which has over 4500 franchise locations in over 50 countries. Serruya Family has also been a leading force in the cannabis industry as early investors of Aphria ("TSX:APH") and the majority shareholder of Liberty Health Sciences ("CNSX: LHS"). Together, the two parties will form a joint venture (the "JV").

The JV marks the first phase of a multiphase strategy that will see Aleafia enter the adult use Cannabis industry and related retail operations in Canada, joining Aleafia's two existing business pillars; cannabis cultivation and medical clinic operations. Pending standard due diligence to be completed within 14 days, the execution of definitive agreements and regulatory approvals, the acquisition provides Aleafia the tools to become one of the largest national adult-use cannabis retailers.

JV Highlights:

- Backed and supported by Aaron Serruya, president of International Franchise Inc. which has over 4500 quick service restaurant locations in over 50 countries
- Initial launch to include over 20 retail locations in Ontario, with a subsequent expansion plan across Canada
- Licensing agreements with established international cannabis brands upon store launch
- Turn-key operation with ready-made store design and retail systems in place
- Intellectual property including genetics and packaging
- Vertical integration, with Aleafia cultivation facilities producing cannabis for processing, extraction, packaging and eventual listing in retail locations

Under the terms of the LOI, Aleafia and Serruya Family will establish a new corporation for the JV that will be owned 51% by Aleafia and 49% by Serruya Family. Aleafia will purchase its 51% stake in the JV company by way of the issuance of five million Aleafia shares to the Serruya Family. Aleafia will also contribute to the JV $5 million in cash and cannabis product on industry standard wholesale pricing, among other contributions. Complete details of the JV will be outlined in a definitive shareholders agreement to be entered into between Aleafia and Serruya Family.

The board of directors of the new JV company will consist of two (2) nominees of Aleafia, two (2) nominees of Serruya Family and one (1) independent, and the management team of the JV company will be determined jointly by Aleafia and Serruya Family.

Private Placement

In addition, Aleafia is pleased to announce that The Serruya Family will complete a strategic investment through a non-brokered private placement of $10,000,000 in Aleafia common shares at a price of $3.10 per share. Closing of the private placement is expected to occur on about October 15, 2018, subject to definitive agreements and TSX Venture Exchange acceptance, among other conditions.

"This joint venture positions Aleafia to capture significant national market share in the retail adult-use cannabis market in Canada. The Serruya family are excellent retail entrepreneurs with a proven track record in quickly scaling their businesses to global proportions," said Aleafia CEO Geoffrey Benic. "Our team is very excited to work with the Serruya family to achieve the same result in the global adult-use cannabis market."

"The Serruya family is pleased to joint venture with Aleafia's strong management team in building and scaling a retail cannabis chain with immediate national reach and global expansion plans," said Aaron Serruya, managing director of Serruya Private Equity. "We are excited to once again play an early role in building one of the world's largest cannabis companies."

About Aaron Serruya:

Aaron Serruya began his career at age nineteen as the other co-founder of Yogen Früz®. Aaron was also involved at various levels, in Coolbrands® and Kahala Brands®. Having over three decades of experience in the retail franchising sector, in addition to his position as a Managing Director at SPE, Aaron is currently the President of International Franchise Inc. (home of global brands such as Yogen Früz®, Pinkberry® and Swensen's® Ice Cream), which has over 4,500 quick service restaurants worldwide, in over 50 countries. He has also been a leading force in the cannabis industry, as an early investor in one of the largest global cannabis companies and the current majority owner of Liberty Health Sciences.

Aaron is a major investor in Second Cup, where he and his brother Michael sit on the board of directors.

About Aleafia Health Inc.:

Aleafia is a leading, vertically integrated cannabis company with major cannabis cultivation & processing and medical cannabis clinics business operations. Aleafia owns two cannabis cultivation facilities, one of which is licensed and fully operational and one which will be fully operational in late 2018. Aleafia will reach a fully-funded annual growing capacity of 38,000 kg in 2019. Canabo Medical Clinics are the largest brick and mortar medical cannabis clinic network in Canada with 22 locations and over 50,000 patients.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

Corporate Strategy

The Company sells its products primarily through three core sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. Together, the adult-use, medical and international sales channels are referred to as our branded cannabis product portfolio.

Prior to 2021, the bulk wholesale market was the primary sales channel for the Company where it sold bulk flower, oils, distillate, isolate and other cannabis input materials. With the launch of the Company's adult-use Sunday Market House of Brands in Q1 of 2021, and the improved potency and quality of the Company's outdoor harvest from Port Perry, it is now able to utilize that flower feedstock to support its own branded cannabis products. The Company utilizes its outdoor Port Perry cultivation to supply its pre-roll and milled product offerings and utilizes strategic third-party growers to supply its dried flower product offerings and blend with its own flower feedstock to support its pre-roll and milled product offerings. The Company tactically will sell through the bulk wholesale sales channel where it has excess product or product not suitable for its other sales channels, to maximize net realizable margin from its cultivation sites.

Within the branded cannabis products portfolio, the adult-use sales channel is the largest vertical. For the year ended March 31, 2023, the adult-use revenue increased +24% and net revenue increased 13% over the prior year. The main product categories include pre-roll, milled, dried flower, and vapes in addition to a suite of derivative products. These four product categories account for the largest percentage of total net revenue.

The medical sales channel represents a stable, but higher margin revenue stream, driven by the recurring ordering patterns of our active patient base, referrals from third-party clinics and demand from other medical marketplaces for our branded products. For the year ended March 31, 2023, the medical net revenue increased +7% over the prior year. The majority of sales are cannabis derivative products which generally deliver a higher margin than flower format products, and sales also include medical clinic related revenue. We continue to drive increased patient engagement to improve ordering frequency, basket size and lifetime revenue.

The international sales channel is our most recently added sales channel, highest margin revenue stream, and fastest scaling vertical. For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, the international net revenue increased +318% over the prior year. We continue to seek out new international partnerships to build that sales pipeline. Most recently in January 2023, the Company signed a $1.0 million sales opportunity with a new European partner. This strategic partnership unlocks a new gateway into the growing European medical and burgeoning legalized adult-use market. The international sales are a combination of bulk flower and oils and capsules which are exported into international jurisdictions, delivering the highest sales growth rate and net realizable margin per gram of equivalent flower sold. Germany represents our largest international end-market, and with continued progression towards full legalization of recreational cannabis and two sales commitments representing $5.6 million in total sales, this is anticipated to continue to be the largest international sales channel.

The below charts illustrate the transformation in the business over the last three years, whereby the Company developed, built, and launched its own branded cannabis products to compete in the adult-use sales channel, established international partnerships and customers, and deepened its presence in the Canadian medical market. The international sales channel has expanded from representing 1% of total net revenue in the twelve months ended March 31, 2021, to now representing 5% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, and the Company's entire total branded product sales expanded from representing 58% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2021, to 85% in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023. Within the adult-use sales channel, the Company further diversified its revenue base by expanding into a new province, Manitoba, in fiscal year 2023.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

The Company established four key long-term strategic objectives in 2022:

1. Adjusted EBITDA⁽²⁾ profitability

The Company disclosed guidance in February 2022, anticipating reaching breakeven Adjusted EBITDA profitability by the quarter ended March 31, 2023. The Company attained that goal two quarters earlier than anticipated, achieving breakeven Adjusted EBITDA profitability in the quarter ended September 30, 2022.

In the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the Company delivered Adjusted EBITDA of $0.2 million, an increase of $4.6 million over the prior year. This third consecutive quarter of Adjusted EBITDA profitability was primarily due to the $1.3 million bulk wholesale gross profit before fair value adjustments which represents two bulk wholesale customers. These input materials sold exceeded the Company's near-term supply requirements for its own branded cannabis products and accordingly had previously taken a $1.1 million inventory provision. After completing these sales transactions, the Company has no further obligation or commitment to these two customers. As the sales transactions with these two customers fulfilled two separate product-in-kind obligations, no cash was received. On a go forward basis, the Company anticipates continuing opportunistically entering into bulk wholesale transactions with cash paying Canadian LP customers.

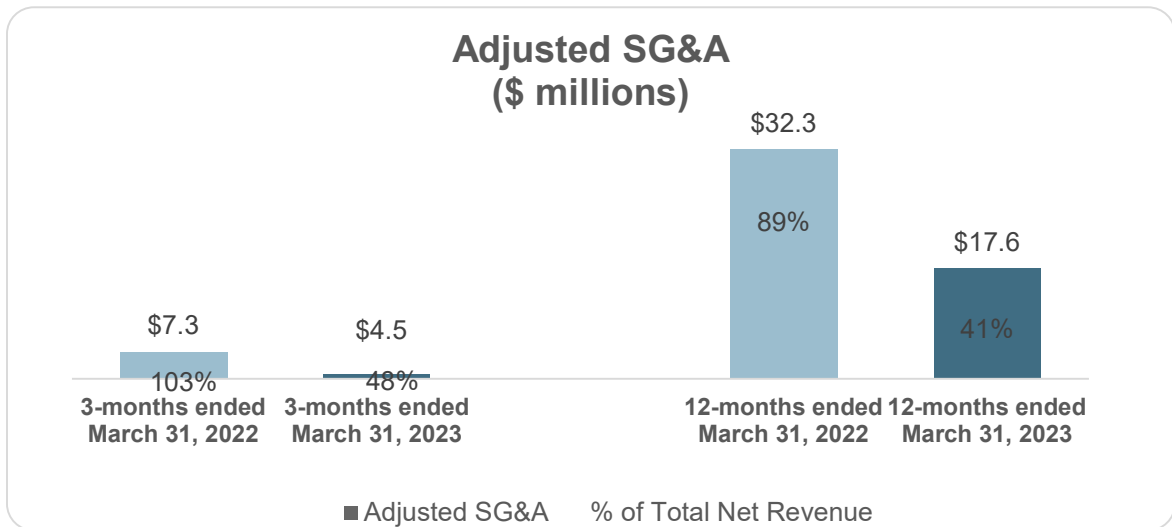

Concurrently with the Company scaling each of its branded cannabis sales channels¹, it is focused on cost of sales optimization, and selling, general & administrative expense containment and strategic rationalizations to continue to improve its Adjusted EBITDA profitability profile. The Company is focused on long-term, sustained, positive cash flow generation in-line with other consumer product goods sectors.

The Company is growing its Adjusted EBITDA profitability by focusing on:

1. Growing sales volumes and capturing market share in pre-roll, milled, flower, concentrate (including infused pre-roll and hash), and vape product sub-categories through new innovative product offerings which deepen penetration in its existing five provincial markets;
2. Building relationships to drive expansion of the adult-use sales channel into other provinces;
3. Migrating its adult-use consumer base from entry level “starter” formats to large size product formats which deliver higher gross profit dollars and margin to the Company;
4. Improving patient engagement to drive higher order frequency, basket size and lifetime revenue in the medical channel;
5. Expanding its newest, and fastest growing sales channel, the international vertical, which delivers the highest net realizable margin per gram of equivalent flower sold;
6. Increasing its gross profit margin profile by driving further operational efficiency in its manufacturing and processing through automation; and
7. Identifying, reducing and containing selling, general and administrative expenses which the Company has found is a key strength in a highly competitive market.

Over the last eight quarters, the Company has decreased Adjusted SG&A⁽¹⁾ by 45% to $4.5 million in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 as compared to the same period two years ago. Over this same timeframe, the Company has driven robust 22% growth in total net revenue.

 (1) See ‘Cautionary Statements Regarding Certain non-IFRS Measures’ section

In September 2021, the Company completed a holistic review of its operations, shared services and organizational structure and evaluated total SG&A savings, which totalled over $16 million on an annualized basis, including:

- the reduction of its workforce by 48% representing $13 million;
- the reduction in the use of external consultants, legal counsel and external advisors representing $2.0 million; and
- the wind down of leased spaces to consolidate operations representing $0.5 million.

In November 2021 the Company completed a portfolio optimization to further improve adult-use profit margins. This aligned our portfolio with the best-selling products formats that deliver the strongest gross profit margins and executed moderate strategic price increases.

In February 2022, the Company provided an update on its cost rationalization strategy. The Company methodically reviewed its cost structure and optimized its talent and resources towards the sales channels which delivered the highest net realizable margin per gram of flower sold – its branded cannabis products.

In April 2022, the Company provided a corporate update on its ongoing cost containment initiatives, including identifying $4.4 million in annualized cost savings to be completed within the quarter. The Company realigned its medical business, integrated its virtual, physical and third-party clinic platform to further improve its general and administrative and wages and benefits cost profile while improving the patient experience through a more cohesive and consistent approach to managing patient interactions. Moreover, the Company overhauled its Grimsby, Ontario hybrid greenhouse and drove operational efficiencies and remapped its processes to allow its cultivation organization to expand throughput of high THC potency flower (“Usable Flower”). The Company assessed procurement practices, resulting in a consolidation of certain vendors leading to cost efficiencies.

In July 2022, the Company enacted a vendor consolidation initiative, to extract economies of scale by aggregating procurement across its four facilities into key trusted vendors. This initiative identified and enacted agreements which represent an annualized cost of sales savings of $2.3 million.

In September 2022, the Company extracted further savings among its third-party copackers based on increased purchase volumes which on an annualized basis represented annualized cost of sales savings of $1.8 million.

In October 2022, the Company identified efficiencies in its information technology, legal and finance functions which represented over $1.5 million in annualized SG&A savings. The primary cost savings related to a further 5% reduction in the Company's headcount. The Company extracted savings from third-parties by focusing on service providers that are appropriate for the Company's size & scale and provide offerings best suited for our industry and growth strategy.

In November 2022, the Company enacted further cost savings initiatives around its flower supply, by initiating the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse which represents an annualized net cost savings of approximately $4.1 million which will further improve go forward profitability. This cultivation facility was historically the primary supplier of usable flower for the dried flower category in the Divvy brand. Over the course of calendar year 2022, the Company was able to secure high-quality dried flower from multiple trusted third-party growers at attractive prices which allows the Company to grow its dried flower sales and achieve an improved margin profile in its adult-use sales channel. Additionally, with continued improvement in grow practices the Company will be utilizing the harvest from the outdoor Port Perry cultivation facility to support the continued growth of its leading pre-roll and milled product categories. The Company is focused on continuing to build its loyal consumer base of its everyday value brand, Divvy, by supplying its consumers with innovative sought-after cultivation strains from the best sources of flower supply, whether that be internally grown or procured from other third-party growers.

In January 2023, the Company completed a review of its adult-use brand and SKU portfolio as a part of its normal course annual review of product life cycles. Based on its review of the market size, consumption patterns, behaviours and evolving trends, the Company concluded that approximately 1/3 of the in-market adult-use SKUs were designated for delisting and two of its brands under its Sunday Market House of Brands would be rationalized: Bogart's Kitchen (edibles), and Nith & Grand (craft flower). This was estimated to result in an approximate $0.9 million in annualized net savings to the Company.

In February 2023, the Company completed the ramp-up of its first automated flower packaging machine. The machine is anticipated to result in operational efficiencies, accuracy, consistency, and improved overhead absorption. The machine is anticipated to result in approximately $0.5 million in annualized cost savings and unlock further flower packaging throughput potential.

In March 2023, the Company completed the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse with only maintenance and security personnel stationed at the facility until its eventual sale. It also negotiated another significant price reduction with its third-party copackers representing $0.5 million in annualized cost savings. It completed a holistic review of its ongoing IT requirements and identified redundancies which could be eliminated in its corporate operating platform and its key seed-to-sale platform representing $0.2 million in annualized cost savings. Further, the Company has reduced its active headcount from 162 as of December 31, 2022 to 158 as at March 31, 2023 representing $0.3 million in annualized cost savings.

The Company believes it has the organizational infrastructure, including a core corporate shared services and distribution relationships to facilitate the continued growth in its branded cannabis net revenue to create further operating leverage and drive improved Adjusted EBITDA profitability in fiscal year 2024.²

² This is forward looking information. Please see cautionary statement on page 40.

2. Increasing Market Share Position in Canadian Adult-Use Market

The Company launched its Sunday Market House of Brands in Q1 of 2021, anchored around Divvy, the everyday brand focused on delivering an exceptional value proposition to consumers. Divvy is consistently a top searched brand on OCS.ca. The Company's product portfolio and SKU listings are focused on the largest adult-use categories: pre-roll, milled, flower, and vapes and represent the majority of the Company's adult-use sales. The Company sells into five provinces with Ontario and Alberta representing its two largest customers. This sales channel represented 82% of Q4 fiscal year 2023 total net revenue.

Brands & Products: The other four supporting brands under the adult-use portfolio, Bogart's Kitchen, Kin Slips, and Noon & Night, are niche brands targeted at specific consumer segments in the market and span from value to premium craft. Over 45 new SKUs launched in fiscal year 2023, including: large format flower (28g) in Divvy cropped products, new Divvy cultivars, Divvy large format pre-roll line extensions, 8 new Divvy vape cartridges, first-to-market Nitecaps under Noon & Night, a third hot sauce as well as THC-infused maple syrup under Bogart's Kitchen. The Company has over 170 provincial listings of its SKUs in the adult-use portfolio, including a full suite of pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vape and cannabis derivative products. The Company has expanded into the concentrate category with the launch of hash products in May 2023 and infused pre-rolls in June 2023. The company has an additional 15 SKUs in the same categories accepted by various provincial boards, set to launch as early as Q1 fiscal year 2024, with additional submissions being evaluated.

Geographic Markets: The adult-use sales channel in Canada is now the Company's largest sales channel based on total net revenue, with distribution agreements and entrenched relationships in five provinces – Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba – representing an estimated 71% of the Canadian population. Manitoba is the most recent province that the Company entered in late November 2022. The Company is actively reviewing opportunities to expand into other Canadian provinces and territories in fiscal year 2024. Any expansion into new geographies is anticipated to be a favourable tailwind for the adult-use sales channel to drive further sales velocity and improved revenue diversification.

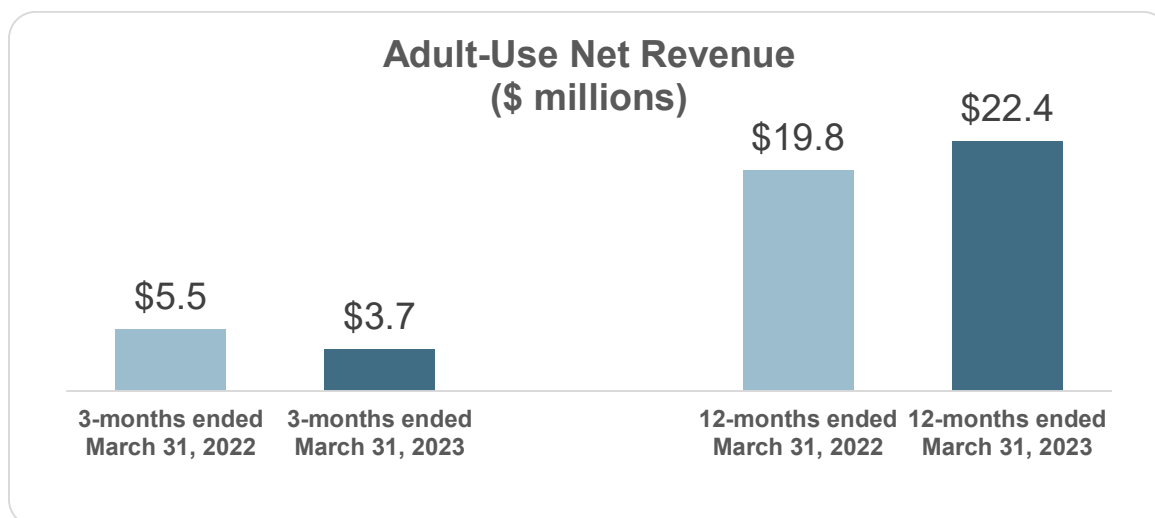

Go-to-Market Approach: The Company markets its products through its internal salesforce and is focused on gaining market share through the continued launch of innovative products in the largest product categories, mainly pre-roll, milled, whole flower, and vapes. The Company's internal sales and marketing team can respond to market trends in a dynamic and rapid fashion to drive sales velocity of its unique cannabis portfolio. The Company is focused on deepening its penetration in its existing core provincial markets, along with expanding into select other provincial markets. The Company believes its internal sales and marketing teams, is a key competitive advantage allowing the Company to respond to and drive key changes in the Canadian adult-use marketplace.

Market Share Capture: The Company has driven the second largest change in market share rankings among the top 15 Canadian Licensed Producers from Q1 2021 #26th, when the Company launched its new adult-use brand portfolio, to Q3 fiscal year 2023 #15th according to data from HiFyre based on the products and four provinces (Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, and Saskatchewan) Aleafia operated in throughout the most recently completed fiscal period ended March 31, 2023. In November 2022 the Company launched successfully into Manitoba, its fifth provincial territory, and the Company continues to target a top 10 Canadian LP standing, as measured by retail sales pull-through, in each of its markets⁵.

The Company Increased revenue by 24% to $36.1 million for the total fiscal year 2023 versus $29.1 million in the prior year. Net revenue improved 13% to $22.4 million compared to $19.8 million. While overall top-line growth is important for the Company, simultaneously, the Company is focused on profitable growth and actively seeks out more profitable product formats, categories and SKUs in favour of higher volume, lower margin SKUs.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the Company saw its whole flower sales decline to its lowest level seen in fiscal year 2023. We believe this was primarily due to: customary yearly seasonality seen in the cannabis retail environment at the turn of every calendar year which typically declines by approximately 10% to 15%; overall price compression in the market due to elevated levels of competition particularly in the largest product format (whole dried flower); and the effects of repeated and prolonged product out-of-stocks in the summer and fall of calendar year 2022 due to the Company’s demand for its whole flower products outstripping the supply of the Company’s Grimsby greenhouse cultivation facility. Consumer demand for the Company’s flower products far exceeded the cultivation supply capacity of its Grimsby greenhouse through most of calendar year 2022. The Company has now mitigated this issue by sourcing usable, high-THC flower from a variety of trusted, strategic third-party growers.

3. Leadership in Medical

The medical sales channel in Canada is core to the Company and supported by our medical ecosystem, offering the ability for new patients to be onboarded, consulted, prescribed, and delivered medical cannabis products. Containing approximately 20,000 active patients with stable ordering patterns, this sales channel has a high level of recurring revenue. The medical sales channel includes revenue from: the sale of medical cannabis in the Canadian markets, clinic fees, and research revenue, and represented 32% of Q4 fiscal year 2023 total net revenue.

Go-to-Market Approach: The Company’s direct-to-patient medical business receives patient referrals from its owned clinic Canabo Medical Clinics® (“Canabo”) and several third-party clinics nationwide. Canabo operations are predominantly virtual, helping patients access treatment services in a convenient and cost-effective setting. Canabo has one long standing physical clinic in St. John’s, Newfoundland. We deliver products direct-to-patient the same day they are ordered in the Greater Toronto Area, Canada’s most populous region. In addition to the direct-to-patient model, the company sells branded medical cannabis products to other Canadian medical sales license holders.

Product Portfolio: The Emblem brand is used exclusively in the Company’s medical sales channel. The Company also offers certain other products from its Sunday Market House of Brands and resells other products procured from third-parties to its medical patients. The majority of sales in the medical sales channel are of cannabis derivative products, including oils, capsules and vapes.

Growth Initiatives: The Company made strategic investments in email platforms to enhance the patient experience, resulting in a significant increase in email engagement and a reduction in overall marketing costs. The Company also implemented new targeted email marketing campaigns to increase brand loyalty, improve the patient experience through education, and drive sales growth. In addition, the Company continues to enhance its support and product offerings for Veteran patients. This includes the launch of new flower SKUs, edibles and specialized “white-glove” service.

The Company increased net revenue in the medical channel sales channel by 19% to $3.0 million in Q4 fiscal year 2023 versus $2.5 million in the prior year. This increase was primarily driven by continued penetration into the Quebec market and higher sales to veteran patients. Additionally, it benefited from an improved patient journey following the Company’s integration of its physical clinics, virtual clinics, and third-party clinic platform completed in April 2022. The Company has driven this growth by increasing its market share in a flat to declining overall medical market. Continued penetration into the Quebec market and higher sales to veteran patients. Additionally, it benefited from an improved patient journey following the Company’s integration of its physical clinics, virtual clinics, and third-party clinic platform completed in April 2022. The Company has driven this growth by increasing its market share in a flat to declining overall medical market.

4. Well-Positioned for International Growth

One of the Company’s fiscal year 2023 objectives was to expand its international sales channels. In parallel to serving the Canadian medical market, the Company is well-positioned to benefit from the expansion of the global medical cannabis market and the continued legalization of global recreational markets. The Company has identified $5.6 million in sales opportunities, with more demand for its products in international markets than current supply. This sales channel represented 5% of total net revenue for fiscal year 2023 compared to 1% in fiscal year 2022.

Strategic Focus: The Company is focused on expanding its international sales as it sees the opportunity to supply flower and cannabis derivative products in bulk-form to select international medical markets. Given the high regulatory and other barriers to entry of supplying these international jurisdictions, the Company enjoys an early mover advantage. The Company further sees expanding its international medical sales as a potential foothold should cannabis be legalized recreationally in the same international jurisdictions. The sales agreements for international sales typically are longer in duration than the Canadian medical or adult-use channels, with guaranteed minimum purchase commitments and no required Canadian excise duties. Moreover, they typically deliver the highest net realizable margins per gram of flower equivalent sold than the other sales channels.

Select Key International Markets: The Company's products have been successfully exported into key global markets including Germany, the UK and Australia. The Company continues to engage in discussions to deepen its penetration in these markets and selectively expand into other jurisdictions where it could also enjoy an early mover advantage. The Company is actively pursuing increased penetration into the European market where the addressable market is multiples larger than the Canadian market.

Recent Agreements: In July 2022, the Company secured an estimated $4.6 million³ international sales agreement to supply bulk flower into the European market. It is a two-year agreement, with a minimum annual sales commitment estimated at $2.0 million⁴ per year based on a variable price per gram of flower. The Company successfully shipped product under this agreement in the quarter ended December 31, 2022 which is destined for Germany. Additionally, in January 2023, the Company secured an additional international sales order for approximately $1.0 million⁵ in annual sales with a new European based strategic partner. This expands the Company's international sales and improves access into the existing European medical market and burgeoning legalized adult-use markets.

International net revenue was $0.4 million in the Q4 fiscal year 2023, compared to nil in the prior year. The Company is looking to further develop this channel with an active pipeline of opportunities for fiscal year 2024.

OUTLOOK

The Company's overall objectives for fiscal year 2023 built upon the successes it recognized during fiscal year 2022. During fiscal year 2023, the Company focused on growth as a branded cannabis producer in the Canadian adult-use and medical markets, while continuing to advance the Company's international expansion efforts; rationalizing its cost structure to drive profitability; and building its capacity to sustainably deliver Usable Flower through its own outdoor cultivation facility as well as its ecosystem of trusted, strategic, third-party growers. The Company's overall objectives for fiscal year 2023 were as follows⁶:

- Total net revenue of between $44.0 million and $46.0 million;
- Develop a pathway and momentum towards attaining top 10 market share positions in each of its provincial Canadian adult-use markets based on retail sales pull through;
- Maintaining a leadership position in the medical market;
- Achieving Gross Profit Margins before Fair Value Adjustments of between 32% and 38%;
- Adjusted SG&A of between $17.2 and $18.0 million; and
- Adjusted EBITDA of between -$0.5 million and $0.5 million.

The Company generated $42.8 million of total net revenue, representing 3% less than the low end of the targeted guidance. The Company believes this difference is primarily related to the Company's liquidity constraints, challenges in making timely payments to high priority vendors, the increasingly competitive market environment, and unforeseen external factors including the cybersecurity attack on the Ontario

⁶ The foregoing projections are Forward Looking Information. Please see the cautionary statement on page 40.

Cannabis Store, a labour strike in British Columbia, and a lack of usable high-THC flower due to the Grimsby greenhouse supply behind outstripped by demand.

The Company significantly increased its presence and deepened consumer awareness of its branded products, increasing its average market share ranking from #15 in fiscal year 2022 to #13 in fiscal year 2023.

The Company has maintained a leadership position in the Canadian medical market, and increased its net revenue by 7% to $12.1 million in the 12 months ended March 31, 2023, as compared to $11.3 million in the 12 months ended March 31, 2022.

The Company generated 33% in gross profit margin before fair value adjustments, in-line with its targets for fiscal year 2023.

The Company achieved Adjusted SG&A of $17.5 million in fiscal year 2023 compared to $31.3 million in the prior year.

The Company achieved total Adjusted EBITDA of -$0.2 million in fiscal year 2023. This is well ahead of the initial guidance provided in February 2022 of achieving a range of between -$7.5 million and -$2.5 million. The Company believes this is an incredible milestone given the competitive market conditions in the Canadian cannabis industry, the Company's capital constraints, and the Company's transformation from being a bulk wholesale producer to a branded cannabis producer supplying into three core sales channels: adult-use, medical, and international. The Company remains focused on bringing innovative and differentiated cannabis products to Canadian consumers that deliver on the commitment of offering high quality cannabis wellness products at competitive prices. While all objectives are important to the Company, ultimately the Company is focused on driving sustainable, long-term profitability as its primary objective.

Due to the Company's ongoing liquidity risk and lack of sufficient capital resources for the next twelve months, and the ongoing challenges to maintain payments such that our accounts were in good standing with high priority vendor relationships, the Company has not initiated any guidance for fiscal year 2024.

Adult-Use Brand Portfolio

Divvy is the Company's main adult-use brand. It represents the vast majority of the Company's sales in the adult-use sales channel. In addition to Divvy, there are four other supporting brands serving distinct segments of the adult-use market.

Divvy Cannabis brings frequent cannabis users good quality products at value-oriented price-points. With flower harvested from our hybrid greenhouse and outdoor operations, Divvy flower products include whole flower, milled flower, pre-rolls, vapes and oils.

NOON & NIGHT

Noon & Night is a CBD-forward line of familiar wellness products. Noon & Night is highly differentiated, filling a gap in the cannabis brand landscape with its exclusive focus on wellness-conscious consumers.

Kin Slips are cannabis-infused sublingual strips, an edible alternative that are discreet, precise, and provide rapid onset. Kin Slips are formulated with peppermint oil to deliver a fresh minty sensation. They are vegan, sugar-free, contain only natural ingredients, and come in roughly the size of a postage stamp.

Medical Brand Portfolio

The Company serves the Canadian medical cannabis market with the Emblem brand. It also opportunistically offers select products from its Sunday Market House of Brands and other limited time promotional products to its medical patients to better serve their needs.

From our team of growers to our client care team, each member of the Company's team works toward giving patients the best medical cannabis experience. Emblem is the heart of Aleafia Health's unique medical cannabis ecosystem, as a trusted brand and secure ecommerce marketplace with a reputation for product excellence.

1. PRODUCT PORTFOLIO

The Company currently produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis products which it sells into the provincial adult-use sales channels, to medical cannabis patients, to other Licensed Producers, and internationally to the Germany and Australia medical-use markets. The Company continued its strategic expansion of its product portfolio, as outlined below. The Company aims to utilize its diverse craft indoor and outdoor cultivation in high margin, unique product formats tailored to the various need-states of cannabis consumers and patients.

With the improvement in Usable Flower from its Port Perry outdoor facility, the proportion of sales generated by pre-roll and milled products has now reached 35% in the most recent quarter ended March 31, 2023.

Total Branded Net Revenue by Product Format

Note: Other includes sublingual strips, edibles, and topicals

a) Pre-rolls

The Company utilizes flower from its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility to supply its pre-roll offering, which represents the second largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. The 2022 Port Perry harvest delivered a new record with respect to high THC potency usable flower supply, which when combined with the strategic outsourcing of pre-roll manufacturing, allows Aleafia Health to deliver significantly improved product availability, and new larger format SKUs including a 12-pack of 0.35 gram pre-rolls in a recognizable, reusable package. In Q1 FY2023, the Company launched a 7-pack of 1-gram pre-rolls in the Alberta and Ontario markets (May 2022 and June 2022, respectively) which were well-received by consumers. Further pre-roll formats launched in Spring 2023, including 12-packs and 56-packs of traditional 0.5 gram pre-rolls, and the Company is scheduled to launch into the fast growing infused pre-roll market later in Q1 FY2024.

b) Milled (Cropped)

Driven by the expansion of its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility and relentless focus on high-quality usable flower, the Company has launched and seen tremendous success in its pre-ground milled offering. Having launched in Q3 2021, the milled products under the Divvy brand have quickly gained market share, reaching a peak #2 market share ranking for fiscal year 2023 in Ontario, the largest provincial market in Canada. Building upon the success of the initial two SKUs, both Alberta and Ontario have picked up the product in larger formats as well as a CBD offering.

c) Dried Flower

The Company has undertaken an expansion of its dried flower offering, which is the largest product category in the Canadian cannabis market, according to data from HiFyre. Driven by the continued ramp-up of procurement from third-party growers, the Company is able to deliver greater product availability, and new larger format stock-keeping-units ("SKU") including 7, 14, and 28-gram flower pouches. Sales of these products and other new dried flower SKUs commenced during Q2 & Q3 2022, under the Divvy brand.

d) Vapes

The Company's vape portfolio is inspired by a robust portfolio of cultivars. The custom-made, unique terpene blends in Divvy vapes deliver robust flavours and consistent effects. Additional Divvy SKUs, including new THC-dominant flavour profiles, a CBD dominant full-spectrum, and a balanced THC: CBD vape have been listed in multiple markets. New bold flavour profiles are entering the market this Spring, and the Divvy Puff 'n Pass SKU, a 1 gram 510 thread vape cartridge, launched in January 2023, provides a platform for a rotation of new, exciting flavours.

e) Oils

Cannabis oil products remain a core product category for wellness-oriented medical patients and adult-use consumers. Line extensions include the innovative Omega CBD Soft Gels which feature full-spectrum, single strain CBD extract, and is one of the first Canadian cannabis products to be suspended in fish oil containing omega-3.

f) Sublingual Strips

Kin Slips, cannabis-infused sublingual strips, typically offer a fast onset time relative to other non-combustible cannabis products. Placed under the tongue, the active ingredients enter the bloodstream through the sublingual gland, delivering a typical onset time of 10 to 15 minutes. Kin Slips are classified as ingestible extracts, and can therefore contain up to 1000 milligrams of THC per package, as opposed to traditional cannabis edible products which are restricted to 10 milligrams of THC per package.

g) Edibles

The Company launches highly artisan and seasonal edible products which complement its product portfolio anchored around pre-roll, milled, flower and vape formats. During Q1 2021, the Company released its first cannabis edible product, soft chews, with two THC and one CBD-dominant offering. The Company followed that up with Salted Caramel Pretzel Bites, Cluster Pucks as well as an infused hot sauce with well-known Canadian hot sauce maker Heartbeat Hot Sauce, all launched under the Bogart's Kitchen edibles brand. The brand currently contains the collaboration hot sauces and launched a THC-infused Maple Syrup product in Winter 2022, just in time for the holiday season.

h) Bath & Body

The Noon & Night brand launches bath & body products focused on the wellness space. During Q2 2021, the Company launched Lavender Fizz CBD bath bombs along with the Freshly Minted Roll-on. The peppermint-scented roll-on is designed to provide a soothing, aromatic experience through local application on the hairline, neck, forehead and shoulders. The brand also began offering CBD-Omega soft gels in Q2 2021.

KEY DEVELOPMENTS

Amendment to Convertible Debentures

The Convertible Debentures amendments became effective on June 28, 2022. The amendments entailed the exchange of the Convertible Debentures for new convertible debentures (the "New Convertible Debentures") issued in three equal, separate tranches, maturing in 2, 4 and 6 years from the date of issuance (the "2024 Debentures", "2026 Debentures", and "2028 Debentures", respectively). The interest rate remained at 8.5%, but the New Convertible Debentures have no mandatory cash interest payment for 24 months as interest will initially be paid-in-kind ("PIK") with additional New Convertible Debentures (the "PIK Debentures"), reducing near-term debt servicing requirements. The conversion price was reduced to $0.25 for the 2024 Debentures, $0.30 for the 2026 Debentures, and $0.35 for the 2028 Debentures. The New Convertible Debentures were granted security against certain assets of the Company but are fully subordinated to the Company's existing senior secured debt. The Company is precluded from incurring further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and strategically accretive acquisitions. Debenture holders who approved the Debenture Amendments received a fee (the "Consent Fee") calculated as the amount of accrued interest on the existing Convertible Debentures between July 1, 2021 and the effective date of the Debenture Amendments, payable in additional 2028 Debentures at par. Effective as of October 31, 2022, the New Convertible Debentures were listed on the TSX.

See Subsequent Events section for proposed amendments.

$5.6 Million Equity Financing

On June 24, 2022, the Company closed a private placement of 68,151,515 units issued at a price of $0.0825 each (the “Issue Price”). Each unit consists of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. A warrant is exercisable into one common share at an exercise price of $0.1025 for a period of four years from the date of issuance. The expiry date of the warrants can be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days’ notice, if the closing price of the common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading days following the date that is 4 months and one day after the date of issuance and prior to the expiry date of the Warrants. The net proceeds from the Private Placement will be used to fund working capital and capital expenditures for the Company’s continued growth, and other general corporate purposes. A finder’s fee of 3,407,500 common shares was paid to a finder (the “Finder’s Shares”) in connection with the Private Placement.

Amendment to August 2021 Credit Facility

On June 23, 2022, the Company made its second amendment to its August 2021 Credit Facility, whereby amongst other things it agreed to prepay an amount equal to $622,500 as a prepayment of interest under the loan agreement in respect of the period beginning June 24, 2022 and ending June 24, 2023. In addition, the Company agreed to grant to the lender a general security interest from the Company in favour of the Lender.

$4.5 Million Promissory Notes

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued three promissory notes totaling $4.5 million carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023 and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023. All three notes become due and payable upon the earlier of a Change of Control transaction or December 31, 2024. The interest on these notes is paid bi-monthly. The use of proceeds of these promissory notes was to fund working capital.

Branded Cannabis

Total revenue for the fiscal year grew by 24% to $57.4 million and total net revenue also grew by 19% to $42.8 million. Branded net revenue grew by 16% to $36.6 million, with growth across all three of its core branded cannabis sales channels. Wholesale net revenue grew by 39% to $6.2 million.

Adult-use net revenue grew by 13% to $22.4 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, from $19.8 million in the prior year. The Company's market share ranking reached #13th compared to #15th a year earlier and market share increased to 2.1% from 1.5% a year earlier. Fiscal year 2023 saw tremendous growth in the pre-roll, milled and flower product format categories in particular with the expansion of larger format sizes. A focus on high velocity sales categories have been key to this successful growth. Additionally, the Company continues to redirect an increasing share of the Usable Flower supply from its Port Perry outdoor cultivation facility away from the bulk wholesale towards the adult-use sales channel, achieving higher net revenue and net realizable margin per gram. At the same time, the Company has been focusing on generating higher margins from its product portfolio by optimizing its product portfolio to focus on larger formats.

Medical net revenue grew by 7% to $12.1 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, from $11.3 million in the prior year. The growth in medical was accomplished despite the ongoing challenging contraction of the medical market. Further, there was an increase in average order value ("AOV") through focusing on high value patients and improving engagement with its active patient base. The Company estimates its market share ranking to be top 5 within the Canadian medical market⁷.

International net revenue increased by $1.6 million or 318% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 over the prior year. This increase was driven by European bound shipments of medical cannabis related to the Company's new international partner announced in August 2022.

The branded cannabis gross profit before fair value adjustments was $12.7 million in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, representing a 35% margin compared to 32% in the prior year. This improvement in margin was driven by:

- Building its international sales pipeline - the Company is actively seeking out and onboarding new international sales opportunities which provide improved revenue and cash flow, reduced cash conversion cycle and higher margin than adult-use sales channel.
- Growing its medical recurring "sticky" revenue, high-margin medical business - driving market share capture by focusing on improving engagement with existing patients to grow average order values, access new regions and retaining our high value patients.
- Innovative products - continually augmenting the Company's portfolio with margin accretive SKUs, including larger size formats, and focus its efforts on curating a portfolio of innovative sought-after products that deliver attractive value for its consumers.
- Portfolio optimization - aligning the Company's portfolio with the best-selling product formats that deliver the strongest gross profit margins. The Company completed its first portfolio optimization in November 2021 and its most recent one in January 2023 to respond to emerging market trends.
- Strategic flower sourcing arrangements - procuring high-THC usable flower from third-party growers to drive improved whole flower product out-of-stock performance.

⁷ Data on cannabis for medical purposes. Health Canada. <https://www.canada.ca/en/health-canada/services/drugs-medication/cannabis/research-data/medical-purpose.html>

- Co-packing - identifying areas where operational efficiencies can be extracted by outsourcing certain manufacturing and processing functions. These outside service providers allow the Company to rapidly scale throughput and focus its capital allocation in areas that are anticipated to deliver a higher return in the long-term.
- Focusing on high quality usable flower - optimizing grow practices to focus on the yield of high potency, usable flower for its branded products. This strategic shift away from focusing on total quantity and towards usable flower continues to optimize the yield and drive down the cash cost to grow flower.
- Selective automation – where products begin to mature in their packaging format, sizes, and consumption preferences the Company strategically deploys capital to automate certain parts of its processing. Most recently acquiring its first automated flower packaging machine and ramping it up in February 2023.

Bulk Wholesale

Bulk wholesale net revenue was higher for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 at $6.2 million compared to $4.5 million in the prior year. Despite the company's being primarily focused on growing its branded cannabis sales, this increase primarily came from the completion of two product-in-kind arrangements that saw the Company complete its obligations with these two Canadian LPs. Additionally, the Company opportunistically sold off-spec, low potency flower and other aged inventory in the bulk wholesale sales channel to other Canadian LPs. The Company continually evaluates its anticipated cultivation yield and requirements for its forecasted sales to optimize its inventory on hand and increase inventory turnover.

Total gross profit⁸ improved by $3.0 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 compared to the prior year. This was driven by higher net revenue versus the prior year, the nonrecurrence of negative gross profit margin wholesale transactions as was the case in fiscal year 2022, and an improved gross profit margin in its branded cannabis product portfolio.

⁸ This is a non-IFRS measure. Please see page 34 for more information.

Total	5,781	8,437	24,653	42,514	53,388

The total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2023 declined 31% to $5.8 million, compared to the previous year's expenses of $8.4 million, despite a 33% increase in total net revenue. The total operating expenses for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 declined 42% to $24.7 million, compared to the prior year's expenses of $42.5 million. The decline is primarily driven by significant headcount reductions, winddown of physical medical clinics, IT consolidation of platforms, integration of the physical, virtual, and third-party clinic platform, rationalizations in consultants, advisors and legal costs, and various other cost optimization initiatives. The Company's full-time equivalent headcount has decreased by 43% from 276 at March 31, 2022 to 158 as at March 31, 2023. For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, bad debt expense decreased as the Company continues to improve the credit quality of its receivables with increased focus on branded cannabis sales which have negligible credit risk as they are mostly government agencies. In the prior year the bad debt expenses was higher due to increased bulk wholesale sales related allowances for doubtful accounts. Business transaction costs were down for the three months and twelve months ended March 31, 2023, mainly due to non-recurring marketing, consultant, brand development and product formulation costs related to the launch of new product formats in the prior year comparative quarter. There were restructuring costs for the year of $0.4 million related to the winddown of the Grimsby greenhouse.

Other expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2023 was $4.3 million compared to $4.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022. The increase in fair value through profit and loss adjustments relates to a reduction in the fair value of the Company's investments.

Other expenses for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 was $16.0 million compared to $105.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Prior year included profit and loss adjustments of $29.9 million related to a decrease in the fair value of the Company's investments, impairments to property, plant, and equipment (PPE) classified as held for sale and determined that the carrying amount of one of its assets was no longer recoverable, and impairments to intangible assets.

NON-IFRS MEASURES

ADJUSTED SG&A

Adjusted selling, general and administrative (“Adjusted SG&A”) is defined as SG&A expenses adjusted to exclude non-recurring costs. These non-recurring items may relate to certain transaction costs, one-time subsidies, and severances. Adjusted SG&A is not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, it may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors.

($,000s)	Three months ended		Twelve months ended		Fifteen months ended

Medical Clinic Supply Services	-	557	-	2,059	2,059
Adjusted SG&A	4,533	7,282	17,575	32,264	41,174

The Company considers Adjusted SG&A an important key metric to measure the Company’s cost structure outside of production and inventory related costs as it drives continued operating leverage and improved Adjusted EBITDA profitability. The Company believes tightly containing and finding further cost efficiencies is a competitive strength. It is mostly fixed in nature with some variability depending on sales volume for marketing and other sales-oriented expenditures.

The Company has aggressively contained and rationalized its Adjusted SG&A cost profile, resulting in a 51% decline to $4.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $7.3 million in the prior year comparative quarter. This was achieved despite total net revenue increasing 33% over the same period to $9.4 million from $7.0 million in the prior year. See the explanations of the changes in operating expenses for further information on SG&A.

There was a decline by 46% to $17.6 million in the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $32.3 million in the prior year comparative quarter. This was achieved despite total net revenue increasing 19% over the same period.

The Company considers Adjusted EBITDA a key metric for measuring operating performance and cash flow, to manage working capital, debt repayments and capital expenditures. Adjusted EBITDA is calculated as net income (loss), excluding (i) amortization and depreciation, (ii) fair value changes in biological assets and changes in inventory sold, (iii) share-based payments, (iv) bad debt expense, (v) business transaction costs, (vi) non-operating expenses (income), (vii) taxes, (viii) interest expenses, (ix) one-time sale of assets, (x) unrealized gain (loss) on marketable securities and (xi) other non-recurring expenses (income). Adjusted EBITDA is not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, it may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors.

Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended March 31, 2023 was a gain of $0.2 million, compared to a loss of $4.4 million in the prior year comparative quarter. The increase was primarily due to the $1.3 million bulk wholesale gross profit before fair value adjustments which represents two bulk wholesale customers.

The Company entered into five sales transactions representing $2.2 million in bulk wholesale net revenue and $1.3 million in gross profit before fair value adjustments with two customers to settle a product-in-kind obligation. These input materials exceeded the Company’s near-term supply requirements for its own branded cannabis products and accordingly had previously taken a $1.1 million inventory provision. In management’s estimation at the time of recording the inventory provisions, the cost of the inventory exceeded management’s estimate of the net realizable value. After completing these sales transactions, the Company has no further obligation or commitment to these customers. As the sales transactions with these two customers fulfilled two separate product-in-kind obligations, no cash was received.

The Company will continue to sell product that is in excess of its needs to supply its own branded cannabis products in bulk wholesale transactions in order to maximize net realizable margin from its cultivation sites and improve its liquidity position.

The improvement in Adjusted EBITDA also benefitted from the reduction in selling, general and administrative expenses. There was certain marketing, consultant, brand development and product formulation costs related to the launch of new product formats, most of which are non-recurring in nature. In conjunction with the Company’s focused cost containment and rationalizations, which has delivered a dramatically improved SG&A expense profile.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company’s objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to support its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans while maintaining healthy liquidity reserves and access to capital for at least the next twelve months.

In the management of liquidity risk of the Company, the Company maintains a balance between continuity of funding and the flexibility through the use of borrowings. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure. On March 31, 2023, the Company’s contractual obligations consist of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, net tax payable, credit facilities, and lease liability, which has a contractual maturity date within one year.

The following table sets forth the use of proceeds from the Company’s equity offering and debt financings completed over the last four quarters.

Date	Type	Gross Proceeds	Initially Intended Use of Proceeds	Actual Usage of Proceeds
June 24, 2022	Equity Financing Private Placement	$5.6 million	The Company expected to use the net proceeds to fund working capital and capital expenditures for the Company’s continued growth, and other general corporate purposes. Operating Activities

Cash used in operating activities was $1.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in operating activities of $3.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in operating activities has decreased by $1.7 million driven by improved gross profit margin, reduced SG&A expense profile, enhanced accounts receivable and inventory working capital efficiency and the closure of the Grimsby greenhouse.

Cash used in operating activities was $3.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in operating activities of $25.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in operating activities has decreased by $22 million driven by higher total net revenue, improved gross profit margin, reduced SG&A expense profile, and enhanced accounts receivable and inventory working capital efficiency.

Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities was $0.1 million and $1.4 million for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $0.7 million and $4.2 million for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2022. Cash used in investing activities has declined significantly, due to the completion of significant capital projects at the Company's owned production facilities and the winddown of the Grimsby greenhouse. The Company continues to invest in ongoing equipment and other capital expenditures to maintain and make modest enhancements to the efficiency of its two cultivation facilities, including the investment in an automated flower packaging machine.

Financing Activities

Cash provided by financing activities was $1.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2023, compared to cash used in financing activities of $5.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022.

The gross proceeds from the issuance of two promissory notes was $3.5 million and this was partially offset by the $1.2 million decline in the drawn balance on the revolving credit in the quarter ended March 31, 2023.

Cash generated by financing activities was $4.0 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, compared to $13.5 million for the twelve months ended March 31, 2022. The Company raised $5.6 million from the issuance of common shares and $4.5 million from the issuance of promissory notes. This cash inflow was partially offset by $2.0 million in interest payments, $2.3 million credit facility repayment, $1.3 million in lease liabilities and other debt related costs.

Contractual Obligations & Capital Expenditures

As of March 31, 2023, the Company had the following contractual obligations:

($,000s)	Within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 year and thereafter
Convertible debentures	-	12,350	-	12,350	14,736
Credit facilities	12,882	-	-	-	-
Lease obligations	260	1,072	511	11	2
Promissory notes	-	4,500	-	-	-
Purchase commitments	506	-	-	-	-
Total	13,648	17,972	511	12,361	14,738

The purchase commitments all represent outstanding purchase orders to be fulfilled by vendors.

Convertible Debt

In June 2019, Aleafia Health issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Debenture Units”) for gross proceeds of $40.3 million. Each Debenture Unit consisted of one $1,000 principal amount of an unsecured convertible debenture of Aleafia Health and 680 common share purchase warrants, which debentures contained the following terms:

- a maturity date of June 27, 2022;
- an interest rate of 8.5% per annum; payable semi-annually;
- convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder; and
- Aleafia Health may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of Aleafia Health on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2.9 million debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37.3 million.

During the year ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $0.3 million debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37.0 million.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37.0 million principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2.4 million principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company’s existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

December 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12.0 million and access to a revolving facility up to $7.0 million. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime rate with a floor of 3.45% plus 9%, annually. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

As of March 31, 2023, the facility was fully paid off with an overpayment of $0.2 million, resulting in an undrawn balance of $7.2 million.

The available undrawn balance of the revolving facility, based on the eligible accounts receivable criteria, at the date hereof is $0.7 million.

August 2021 Credit Facility – Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10.0 million for working capital, general corporate purposes and capital expenditures. The term of the loan was for one year and it bears simple interest at a rate of 12%, with an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. The first six months following the amended agreement allows for interest to accrue. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The loan was initially secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. The mortgages against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities were subordinated and a first lien mortgage was granted on the Port Perry, Ontario facility. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023 and the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5.0 million against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

Promissory Note – Non-Current

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued three promissory notes totaling $4.5 million carrying a fixed 12.75% interest rate. The first note of $1.0 million was issued on December 16, 2022, the second note of $1.5 million was issued on January 24, 2023 and the third note of $2.0 million was issued on February 28, 2023. All three notes become due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on these notes is paid bi-monthly. The use of proceeds of these promissory notes was to fund working capital.

Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to the Financial Statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10 million in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if a settlement cannot be reached earlier. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayt's on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500 million (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5.0 million in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy ("CEWS") for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem Cannabis Corporation and has proposed a claw back in the amount of $3.2 million related to the CEWS funds provided to the Company. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings and intends to file a Notice of Objection. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received CEWS funds. At this time, it is not possible to make a reasonable and reliable estimate of the likelihood of the outcome of the dispute. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

Excise Duties

The Company has excise duties which are accrued for in the normal course as incurred. As a result, of ongoing liquidity issues the Company has accumulated overdue excise duties and is incurring interest at the statutory posted rate on said amounts. The total excise duty payable as at March 31, 2023 was $9.4 million. The Company is in discussions with the CRA to formulate a formal repayment plan. No assurances can be provided as to the length or outcome of these discussions.

Off-balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Related Party Transactions

Other than compensation and benefits paid to directors or key management personnel in the normal course of business, the Company had no transactions with its related parties (as defined under IFRS) during the reporting period.

SELECTED QUARTER & ANNUAL INFORMATION

The following information has been prepared in accordance with IFRS in Canadian dollars.

($,000s) except per share amounts	Three months ended		Twelve months ended

Total non-current liabilities	33,197	6,908	33,197	6,908	38,382

The fluctuations in reported results during the three months ended March 31, 2023 resulted primarily from the following factors:

- Net revenue increased 33% to $9.4 million from $7.0 million in the prior year primarily due to an increase in wholesale revenue.
- Cost of sales decreased 11% to $5.4 million from $6.1 million in the prior year. Cost of sales % improved to 58% of net revenue compared to 87% in the prior year primarily due to an increase in the proportion of branded cannabis sales and the gross profit margin expansion in branded cannabis sales.
- Total operating expenses decreased 32% to $5.8 million from $8.4 million in the prior year. The decline is primarily driven by significant headcount reductions, winddown of physical medical clinics, integration of the physical, virtual, and third-party clinic platform, rationalizations in consultants, advisors and legal costs, reduction in amortization and depreciation expense, and various other cost optimization initiatives.
- Total other expenses were slightly higher at $4.3 million compared to $4.0 million in the prior year. The increase is due to fair value through profit and loss adjustments related to a change in share price of investments and marketable securities.
- Total non-current liabilities increased which following the convertible debenture refinancing completed in June 2022 were reclassified from current to non-current liabilities.

Fluctuations in results for the twelve month period ended March 31, 2023 compared to the prior periods resulted primarily from the following factors:

- Net revenues improvement of 17% and 25% compared to the periods ended March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021 respectively. This trend is a result of the company's strategic shift to branded cannabis products.
- Cost of sales over the twelve month period ended March 31, 2023 improved by 11%. The Company methodically reviewed its cost structure and optimized its talent and resources towards branded cannabis products which delivered the highest net realizable margin per gram of flower sold.

- Operating expenses have significantly improved over the past twelve months because of the company's ongoing cost containment strategy. The Company realigned its medical business, integrated its virtual, physical and third-party clinic platform to further improve its general and administrative and wages and benefits cost profile while improving the patient experience through a more cohesive and consistent approach to managing patient interactions. The Company assessed procurement practices, resulting in a consolidation of certain vendors leading to cost efficiencies.
- Net loss and comprehensive losses in the year's ended March 31, 2022 and 2021 included significant impairments of goodwill, intangible assets, and impairment of property, plant and equipment.

The Company is exposed to seasonality with respect to its branded cannabis sales. Sales are typically slower in the first quarter of each calendar year and then increase into the summer periods.

SG&A expenses have trended lower over the past eight quarters reflecting the success of the company's focus on cost containment and rationalization.

SUMMARY OF OUTSTANDING SHARE DATA

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares. Subsequent to March 31, 2023, 121,220 common shares were issued under the Company's share-based plans. The total number of common shares issued and outstanding is 403,265,146 as of the date hereof.

In addition, the Company has the following securities outstanding which are convertible into common shares:

- 34,765,475 warrants;
- 50,874,190 stock options;
- 1,935,750 restricted share units;
- 12,082,004 deferred share units;
- $12,887,493 of Series A Debentures;
- $12,887,493 of Series B Debentures; and
- $15,378,043 of Series C Debentures.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The table below summarizes the categories under IFRS 9 for the financial assets and financial liabilities:

($,000s)	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, and marketable securities)	697	2,759
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables, net tax receivable, and investments)	6,666	10,672
Liabilities, amortized cost (accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities, liabilities held for sale, promissory note and convertible debt)	68,838	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by Level within the fair value hierarchy:

Fair value measurements using	Quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments	Significant other observable inputs	Significant unobservable inputs	Total
	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)
	$	$	$	$
Cash	465	-	-	465
Restricted cash	162	-	-	162
Marketable securities	65	5	-	70
Total, March 31, 2023	692	5	-	697

The carrying value of trade receivables, accounts payable and net tax payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facilities, promissory notes and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at March 31, 2023.

Financial Instruments Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The primary goals of the Company's risk management strategy are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward to maximize shareholder value.

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12.0 million term facility and the drawn amount of the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rate and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Investment risk

The Company is exposed to investment risk arising from its holdings in various securities, including publicly traded securities and a long-term investment in a privately held company. Investment risk encompasses a range of factors that could impact the value and performance of these securities.

The Company's investments in publicly traded securities are subject to market-related risks, including share price volatility and fluctuations. These risks are influenced by factors such as market conditions, investor sentiment, economic trends, and company-specific developments. The Company monitors market conditions, including share price movements, and evaluates the performance of its investments regularly. By staying informed about market trends and conducting ongoing evaluations, the Company aims to make informed investment decisions and manage risks effectively.

The Company holds a long-term investment in a privately held retail company, which introduces unique investment risks. These risks include factors such as business performance, market dynamics, regulatory changes, competitive landscape, and other industry-specific risks. The value and success of the investment are dependent on the ability of the underlying company to achieve its strategic objectives and generate sustainable returns. The Company regularly monitors the performance and prospects of this investment and incorporates risk assessments into its investment strategies.

The Company evaluates the business performance, market conditions, and industry-specific risks affecting the investment. By conducting ongoing assessments and incorporating risk assessments into its investment strategies, the Company strives to manage investment risk effectively.

It is important to note that investment risk cannot be completely eliminated, as it is inherent in the investment process. The Company recognizes that investments carry inherent uncertainties, and actual outcomes may differ from estimates and projections. Therefore, the Company remains diligent in its investment activities, continuously evaluates investment opportunities, and adjusts its investment strategy as necessary to navigate investment-related risks effectively.

d) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and cash equivalents as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of trade receivables, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

For the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, the expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables were assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to be incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is revaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	2,787	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	512	250
31 – 60 days past due	248	95
61 – 90 days past due	156	69
90 + days past due	1,184	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(871)	(654)
Other receivables	259	452
Total	4,275	7,751

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they primarily originate from government agencies, national insurance companies and a credit card company.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 82% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 59% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

During the year, the Company settled $2 million in accounts payable by delivering its products to a counterparty from whom the Company had made purchases, resulting in an equivalent accounts receivable balance. This transaction led to the offsetting of accounts receivable and accounts payable, effectively setting them to zero. Consequently, no cash flow was generated from the wholesale revenue, and both the accounts payable and accounts receivable were fully eliminated.

e) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million. For the year ended March 31, 2023, cash flow from operations is negative due in part to the high rate of revenue growth the Company has experienced which has driven a requirement for working capital and selling, general & administrative investment.

As at March 31, 2023, the Company has total current assets of $25.8 million (March 31, 2022 - $36.8 million) and total current liabilities of $31.3 million (March 31, 2022 - $73.0 million), providing for net current liability of $5.4 million (March 31, 2022 – $36.2 million). The significant change during the twelve months ended March 31, 2023 is primarily a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 convertible debenture.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position. The Company manages liquidity risk by seeking out new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, exploring and surfacing equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, divesting of non-core assets and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company potentially has options to meet its liquidity needs including, converting its non-cash working capital to cash, issuance of common shares via a private placement offering, issuing common shares via a public equity offering, and seeking out new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Divesting of its assets held for sale;
- Refinance or amend the terms of its credit facilities;
- Raise additional debt financing;
- Raise additional equity financing; and
- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

While, the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing to maintain operations in the normal course in the future on terms favourable for the Company. In this regard, reference should be had to the section below regarding the Company's going concern assumption.

f) Compliance with TSX, OTCQX and OTCQB Requirements

On March 22, 2022, Aleafia Health received notice from the OTCQX that its bid price had closed below

US$0.10 for more than 30 consecutive calendar days and no longer met the Standards for Continued Qualification for the OTCQX International tier. Aleafia Health was given a 180-day cure period for its share price to trade above US$0.10 for ten consecutive days. If, by September 19, 2022, Aleafia Health's bid price did not stay at or above the US$0.10 minimum for ten consecutive trading days during the cure period, and, as a result, Aleafia Health was delisted from the OTCQX on September 21, 2022. However, Aleafia Health has instead been moved to the OTCQB as of September 21, 2022 where its common shares continue to trade.

On May 3, 2022, the TSX approved the application by the Company for an exemption from certain voting requirements relating to the Private Placement and Debenture Amendments on the basis of "financial hardship." As a result, the Company was subject to a remedial delisting review by the TSX. It is routine for the TSX to require any issuer utilizing the financial hardship exemption to be the subject of such a review. On September 16, 2022, the TSX announced that it would extend the delisting review period until November 29, 2022. On November 24, 2022, the TSX confirmed that it completed its delisting review and Aleafia Health satisfied the TSX's requirements to remain listed on the TSX.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. The consolidated financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimate is revised and future years if the revision affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Going concern assumption

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $527.8 million (March 31, 2022 – $493.2 million) and net working capital deficit of $5.4 million (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36.2 million). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The proposed business combination transaction with Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB"), along with the related subsequent events as described in Note 25, have the potential to significantly affect the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Please refer to Note 25 for more details regarding this subsequent event.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and strives to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options which could potentially meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, selling non-core assets, issuing common shares via a public or private placement equity offering, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business;
- Remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date, there can be no assurances whether it will be able to obtain sufficient funds from financing in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations.

Biological assets and inventory

In calculating the value of the biological assets and inventory, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, harvesting costs, selling costs, sales price, wastage and expected yields for the cannabis plant.

In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value, estimated useful lives and impairment of CGUs and goodwill.

Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale are no longer depreciated and are presented separately in the statement of financial position at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is regarded as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction, rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale and its sale must be highly probable.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

Depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment are dependent upon estimates of useful lives, which are determined through the exercise of judgment. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets.

Revenue recognition

Estimates are used when the Company recognizes certain research revenue depending on how frequently patients visit the clinics and what portion of the upfront deposits are considered deferred. Also, significant judgment is exercised to determine if all the specific requirements for the transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met and revenue can be recognized. Significant judgment is exercised to determine when certain conditions have been met for products destined for international markets.

Valuation of share-based payments

In calculating the share-based compensation expense, key estimates such as the rate of forfeiture of options granted, the expected life of the option, the volatility of the Company's stock price and the risk-free interest rate are used. In calculating the fair value of the warrants, the Company includes key assumptions such as the volatility of the Company's stock price, the value of the common share, and the risk-free interest rate.

Income taxes

Income taxes and tax exposures recognized in the consolidated Financial Statements reflect management's best estimate based on facts known at the reporting date. When the Company anticipates a future income tax payment based on its estimates, it recognizes a liability. The difference between the expected amount and the final tax outcome has an impact on current and deferred taxes when the Company becomes aware of this difference. In addition, when the Company incurs losses for income tax purposes, it assesses the probability of taxable income being available in the future based on its budgeted forecasts. These forecasts are adjusted to take into account certain non-taxable income and expenses and specific rules on the use of unused credits and tax losses. When the forecasts indicate that sufficient future taxable income will be available to deduct the temporary differences, a deferred tax asset is recognized for all deductible temporary differences.

DISCLOSURE AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Aleafia Health's disclosure controls and procedures (DCP), as defined in National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings (NI 52-109) are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our filings is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in securities legislation. They are also designed to provide reasonable assurance that all information required to be disclosed in these filings is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding public disclosure. Our management, including the CEO and CFO, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the DCP as of March 31, 2023 and concluded they were effective.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (ICFR), as defined in NI 52-109. ICFR means a process designed by or under the supervision of the CEO and CFO, and effected by our board of directors, management and other personnel to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS, and includes those policies and procedures that:

- pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the Company's financial position;
- are designed to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and
- are designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

All internal control systems have inherent limitations and therefore our ICFR can only provide reasonable assurance and may not prevent or detect misstatements due to error or fraud. Our management, including the CEO and CFO, conducted an evaluation of our ICFR and concluded that they were effective as of March 31, 2023.

It should be noted that a control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that its objectives are met. Because of the inherent limitations in any control system, no evaluation of control can provide absolute assurance that all control weaknesses including, for example, any instances of fraud, have been detected. Inherent limitations include: (i) that management's assumptions and judgements could ultimately prove to be incorrect as conditions and circumstances vary; (ii) the impact of any undetected errors; and (iii) controls may be circumvented through the unauthorized acts of individuals, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override. The design of any system of control is also based upon assumptions as to the likelihood of future events and there is no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its goals under future conditions.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter that materially affected, or were reasonably likely to materially affect, our ICFR.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Forward Looking Information

Certain statements herein relating to the Company constitute "forward looking information", within the meaning of applicable securities laws, including without limitation, statements regarding future estimates, business plans and/or objectives, sales programs, forecasts and projections, assumptions, expectations, and/or beliefs of future performance, are “forward-looking information”. Such forward-looking statements involve unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual and future events to differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to our market share, net revenue, net branded revenue, gross profit, gross profit margin, Adjusted SG&A, Adjusted EBITDA, and other financial outlook projections for financial year 2023, our commercial operations, including production and / or sales of cannabis, quantities of future cannabis production, anticipated revenue in connection with such sales, and other Information that is based on forecasts of future results, estimates of production not yet determinable, and other key management assumptions. The following material factors or assumptions were used to develop the forward looking information: market size and growth of the Canadian adult-use and medical cannabis markets, retail store penetration, script ordering frequency, retention and average order value trends, cultivation and processing capacity, costs of production, flower procurement costs, inflation, interest rates, gross and net revenue per gram.

Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward looking statements and involve risk and uncertainties relating to: future cultivation yield and quality, ability to procure additional Usable Flower, actual operating performance of facilities, product launches, facility licenses and amendments, patient retention ability to enter new provincial adult-use markets, average selling prices, cost of goods sold, operating expenses, Adjusted EBITDA, regulatory changes in the Canadian and international markets, and other uninsured risks. The forward looking information was approved by Management as of June 13, 2023. The Company assumes no responsibility to update or revise forward-looking information to reflect new events or circumstances unless required by law. The forward looking information is provided for information purposes only and readers are cautioned that it may not be appropriate for other purposes. This presentation is provided for general information purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any security in any jurisdiction

Cautionary Statement Regarding Non-IFRS Measures

This MD&A contains non-IFRS financial performance measures which the Company believes provides users with relevant information regarding operation performance. These measures are not recognized or defined under IFRS, and as a result, they may not be comparable to the data presented by competitors. These non-IFRS measures include, but are not limited to:

- Cannabis net revenue is sale of cannabis revenue less excise duties
 - Adult-use cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for Canadian adult-use sales.
 - Medical cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for Canadian medical sales and clinic revenue.
 - International cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue for international medical sales.
 - Bulk Wholesale cannabis net revenue is net cannabis revenue in sales to other LPs.
- Branded Cannabis Net Revenue is calculated as Adult-use cannabis net revenue, Medical cannabis net revenue and International cannabis net revenue. It excludes bulk wholesale net revenue
- Total Branded Cannabis Revenue is calculated as Adult-use cannabis revenue, Medical cannabis revenue and International cannabis revenue. It excludes bulk wholesale cannabis revenue.
- Gross profit margin before fair value adjustments on branded cannabis net revenue represents gross profit margin on branded cannabis net revenue. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to bulk wholesale and dividing by branded cannabis net revenue.
- Gross profit before fair value adjustments on bulk wholesale represents gross profit on bulk wholesale. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to bulk wholesale net revenue.
- Gross profit margin before fair value adjustments on bulk wholesale represents gross profit margin on bulk wholesale. It is calculated by subtracting costs of sales relating to cannabis net revenue and dividing by bulk wholesale net revenue.
- Gross profit before fair value adjustments margin is the gross profit before fair value adjustments and inventory provision divided by total net revenue. Management believes that this is a useful metric to assess the profitability of cannabis sales, as it eliminates the effects of non-cash fair value changes in inventory and biological assets.

- Adjusted EBITDA margin is calculated as Adjusted EBITDA divided by total net revenue.

RISK FACTORS

Due to the nature of the Company's business and the legal and economic climate in which it operates, the Company is subject to significant risks. The risks presented below should not be exhaustive and may not be all of the risks that the Company may face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently considers immaterial may also impair its business and operations. If any of the following or other risks are realized, the Company's business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially adversely impacted. In that event the trading price of the Company's shares could decline, and investors could lose all or part of their investment. There is no assurance that risk management steps taken will avoid future loss due to the occurrence of the risks described below or other unforeseen risks.

REGULATORY AND LEGAL RISKS

Compliance with Laws

The adult-use and medical cannabis industries and markets are subject to a variety of laws in Canada and internationally.

The business and activities of the Company are heavily regulated. The Company's operations are subject to various laws, regulations and guidelines by governmental authorities, particularly Health Canada, relating to the manufacture, marketing, management, transportation, storage, sale and disposal of cannabis, and also including laws and regulations relating to health and safety, healthcare practitioner services, the conduct of operations and the protection of the environment. Laws and regulations, applied generally, grant government agencies and self-regulatory bodies broad administrative discretion over the activities of the Company, including the power to limit or restrict business activities as well as impose additional disclosure requirements on the Company's products and services.

To the knowledge of management, the Company is currently in compliance under the Cannabis Act. Failure to comply with the laws and regulations applicable to its operations may lead to possible sanctions including the revocation or imposition of additional conditions on its Licences, issued in accordance with the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations ("Licences") to operate the Company's business; the suspension or expulsion from a particular market or jurisdiction or of its key personnel; and, the imposition of fines and censures. To the extent that there are changes to the existing or the enactment of future laws and regulations that affect the sale or offering of the Company's product or services in any way it may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Any amendment to or replacement of the Cannabis Act or other applicable rules and regulations governing the Company's activities may cause adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

There is also a risk that the Company's interpretation of laws, regulations and guidelines, including, but not limited to the associated regulations and applicable stock exchange rules and regulations, may differ from those of others, including those of governmental authorities, securities regulators and exchanges, and the Company's operations may not be in compliance with such laws, regulations and guidelines.

Achievement of the Company's business objectives is contingent, in part, upon compliance with regulatory requirements enacted by governmental authorities and, where necessary, obtaining regulatory approvals. The impact of regulatory compliance regimes, and the impact of any delays in obtaining or failures to obtain regulatory approvals required by the Company may significantly delay or impact the development of the Company's business and operations and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, the Company is subject to ongoing inspections by Health Canada to monitor compliance with licensing requirements. The Company's existing Licences and any new licences that it may obtain in the future in Canada or other jurisdictions may be revoked or restricted at any time in the event that the Company is found not to be in compliance. Should the Company fail to comply with the applicable regulatory requirements or with conditions set out under its Licences or should its Licences be revoked, the Company may not be able to continue producing or distributing cannabis in Canada.

The Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to regulatory compliance. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations may result in enforcement actions thereunder, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed, and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures or remedial actions. The Company may be liable for civil or criminal fines or penalties imposed for violations of applicable laws or regulations.

Changes in Laws, Regulations and Guidelines

The legislative framework pertaining to the Canadian recreational cannabis market is subject to significant provincial and territorial regulation, which varies across provinces and territories resulting in an asymmetric regulatory and market environment, different competitive pressures and significant additional compliance and other costs and/or limitations on the Company's ability to participate in such markets.

The laws, regulations and guidelines applicable to the cannabis industry domestically and internationally may change in ways currently unforeseen by the Company. The Cannabis Act came into effect on October 17, 2018. However, uncertainty exists with respect to the implementation of the Cannabis Act, federal regulations thereunder as well as the various provincial and territorial regimes governing the distribution and sale of cannabis for adult-use, recreational purposes.

Since cannabis remains illegal under U.S. federal law (other than the legalization of hemp) any engagement in cannabis-related activities may lead to heightened scrutiny by regulatory bodies and other authorities that could negatively impact the Company and/or its personnel.

The impact of these new laws, regulations and guidelines on the business of the Company, including increased costs of compliance and other potential risks, cannot be fully predicted; accordingly, the Company may experience adverse effects.

Reliance on Licenses and Permits

The Company's ability to grow, store and sell cannabis in Canada is dependent on its Licences from Health Canada. Failure to comply with the requirements of the Licences or any failure to maintain its Licences would have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

The Port Perry facility Licence will expire on October 9, 2023, the Paris facility Licence will expire on January 20, 2028, the Grimsby facility Licence will expire on June 13, 2023, and the Distribution Centre Licence will expire on February 12, 2024. The Company has ceased all activities at its Grimsby facility and is no longer dependent on the facility or its licence.

Although management believes it will meet the requirements of the Cannabis Act, for extension of the Licences, there can be no guarantee that Health Canada will extend or renew the Licences or, if it is extended or renewed, that it will be extended or renewed on the same or similar terms. Should Health Canada not extend or renew the Licences, or should it renew the Licences on different terms or not provide the amendments as requested for anticipated capacity increases, the business, financial condition and results of the operations of the Company will be materially adversely affected.

The Company is dependent upon its Licences for its ability to grow, store and sell cannabis and other products at its production facilities. The Licences are subject to ongoing compliance, reporting requirements and renewal.

In addition to the Licences, the operations of the Company may require other Licences and permits from various governmental authorities, including, but not limited to, local municipalities. The Company currently has all non-federal permits and Licences that it believes are necessary to carry on its business. The Company may require additional Licences or permits in the future and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain all such additional Licences and permits. In addition, there can be no assurance that any existing Licences and permits will be renewable if and when required or that such existing Licences and permits will not be revoked.

Regulatory or Agency Proceedings, Investigations and Audits

The Company's businesses require compliance with certain laws and regulations. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations could subject the Company to regulatory or agency proceedings or investigations and could lead to damage awards, fines and penalties.

The Company may become involved in a number of government or agency proceedings, investigations and audits. The outcome of any regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations, audits, and other contingencies could harm the Company's reputation, require the Company to take, or refrain from taking, actions that could harm its operations or require the Company to pay substantial amounts of money, harming its financial condition.

There can be no assurance that any pending or future regulatory or agency proceedings, investigations and audits will not result in substantial costs or a diversion of management's attention and resources or have a material adverse impact on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operation.

Reliance on Facilities

The Port Perry facility, the Paris facility, and the Distribution Centre are integral to the Company's business and adverse changes or developments affecting any of them may impact the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Adverse changes or developments affecting the Port Perry facility, Paris facility, and/or the Distribution Centre, including but not limited to a force majeure event or a breach of security, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and prospects. Any breach of the security measures and other production facility requirements, including any failure to comply with recommendations or requirements arising from inspections by Health Canada, could also have an impact on the Company's ability to continue operating under its existing licence or the prospect of renewing the licence or could result in a revocation of the licence.

Constraints on Marketing Activities

The development of the Company's business and operating results may be hindered by applicable restrictions on sales and marketing activities and the potentially broad interpretation of such restrictions imposed by Health Canada. The regulatory environment in Canada limits the Company's ability to compete for market share in a manner similar to other industries. If the Company is unable to effectively market its products and compete for market share, or if the costs of compliance with government legislation and regulation cannot be absorbed through increased sales prices for its products, the Company's sales and operating results could be adversely affected.

Intellectual Property

The Company's success depends in part on its ability to protect its rights to intellectual property and/or to license intellectual property rights on favourable terms. The Company relies upon various forms of intellectual property protection, including copyright and trademarks, as well as contractual provisions, to protect intellectual property rights. Despite precautionary measures, the steps the Company takes may not prevent misappropriation of the Company's intellectual property, and the agreements the Company enters into may not be enforceable. It may also be possible for third parties to obtain and use the Company's intellectual property without authorization. Policing unauthorized use of intellectual property is difficult, time-consuming and costly. Further, some foreign laws do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as the laws of Canada.

With respect to the trademark applications that the Company has filed, the Company cannot offer any assurances about whether such applications will be granted. Even if trademark applications are successfully approved, third parties may challenge their validity, enforceability, or scope, which may result in such trademarks being narrowed, found unenforceable or invalidated. Even if they are unchallenged, any trademark applications and future trademarks may not adequately protect the Company's intellectual property or provide exclusivity for its products or processes. Any of these outcomes could impair the Company's ability to prevent competition from third parties, which may have an adverse impact on the Company's business.

Trademark protection is an important factor in establishing product recognition. The Company's ability to protect its trademarks from infringement could result in injury to any goodwill which may be developed in those trademarks. Moreover, the Company may be unable to use one or more of its trademarks because of successful third-party claims.

To protect the Company's intellectual property, it may become involved in litigation, which could result in substantial expenses, divert the attention of management, cause significant delays, materially disrupt the conduct of business or adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, other parties may claim that the Company's products infringe on their proprietary or patent protected rights. Such claims, whether or not meritorious, may result in the expenditure of significant financial and managerial resources and legal fees, result in injunctions or temporary restraining orders or require the payment of damages.

The Company also relies on certain trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information that are not protected by patents to maintain its competitive position. The Company's trade secrets, technical know-how and proprietary information, which are not protected by patents, may become known to or be independently developed by competitors, which could adversely affect the Company.

OPERATING RISKS

The Cannabis Industry in Canada

As a LP, the Company is operating its business in a relatively new industry and market. In addition to being subject to general business risks, the Company must continue to build brand awareness in this industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance and compliance with regulations. In addition, there is no assurance that the industry and market will continue to exist and grow as currently estimated or anticipated or function and evolve in the manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that adversely affects the cannabis industry, such as the imposition of restrictions on sales and marketing or restrictions on sales in certain areas, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial conditions and results of operations.

Operating in a New and Evolving Industry

The nature of the new and rapidly evolving industry and developing market for cannabis may result in management having to change focus and strategy and adapt to an evolving and changing market and industry. In addition, the Company will be susceptible to adverse developments in this new market and industry, the sole market in which it operates, such as new developments, changing demographics, changing regulatory regime and other factors.

If the Company is unable to successfully operate as a LP, this could substantially reduce its earnings and its ability to generate cash flow from its operations and may reduce the value of the common shares and adversely affect the Company's ability to raise additional capital.

Reliance on Third Party Suppliers, Manufacturers and Contractors

The Company's business is dependent on a number of fundamental inputs and their related costs including raw materials and supplies related to its growing operations, as well as electricity, water and other local utilities. Any significant interruption or negative change in the availability or economics of the supply chain for certain inputs could materially impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. Some of these inputs may only be available from a single supplier or a limited group of suppliers. If a sole source supplier was to go out of business, the Company might be unable to find a replacement for such a source in a timely manner or at all. If a sole source supplier were to be acquired by a competitor, that competitor may elect not to sell to the Company in the future. Any inability to secure required supplies and services or to do so on appropriate terms could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company and materially adversely impact the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Third Party Transportation

In order for customers of the Company to receive products from the Company, the Company must rely on third party mail and courier services. This can cause logistical problems with and delays in customers obtaining their orders and cannot be directly controlled by the Company. Any delay by third party transportation and/or rising costs associated with these services may adversely affect the Company's financial performance.

Moreover, security of the product during transportation to and from the Company's facilities is critical due to the nature of the product. A breach of security during transport could have material adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition and operating results of the Company. Any such breach could impact the Company's ability to continue operating under its Licences or impede the prospect of renewing its Licences.

Reputational Risk to Third Parties

The parties with which the Company does business may perceive that they are exposed to reputational risk as a result of the Company's cannabis business activities. Failure to establish or maintain business relationships could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Supply Shortages and Overages

The Company may not be able to obtain from third parties, or produce, enough cannabis to meet demand. This may result in lower than expected sales and revenue and increased competition for sales and sources of supply.

In the future, LPs in Canada may produce more cannabis than is needed to satisfy the collective demand of the Canadian adult-use and medical markets, and they may be unable to export the oversupply into other markets where cannabis use is also legal. As a result, the available supply of cannabis could exceed demand, resulting in a significant decline in the market price for cannabis. If such supply or price fluctuations occur, the Company's revenue and profitability may fluctuate materially and its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected.

In addition, demand for cannabis and cannabis products is dependent on a number of social, political and economic factors that are beyond the Company's control. A material decline in the economic conditions affecting consumers can cause a reduction in disposable income for the average consumer, change consumption patterns and result in a reduction in spending on cannabis products or a switch to other products obtained through illegal channels. There can be no assurance that market demand for cannabis will continue to be sufficient to support the Company's current or future production levels.

Disruption of Supply Chain

Conditions or events including, but not limited to, those listed below could disrupt the Company's supply chains, interrupt operations at its facilities, increase operating expenses, resulting in loss of sales, delayed performance of contractual obligations or require additional expenditures to be incurred:

- (i) extraordinary weather conditions or natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, fires, extreme heat, earthquakes, etc.;
- (ii) a local, regional, national or international outbreak of a contagious disease, including the COVID-19 coronavirus, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, H1N1 influenza virus, avian flu, or any other similar illness could result in a general or acute decline in economic activity (see also, "Public Health Crises, including COVID-19");
- (iii) political instability, social and labour unrest, war or terrorism; or
- (iv) interruptions in the availability of basic commercial and social services and infrastructure including power and water shortages, and shipping and freight forwarding services including via air, sea, rail and road.

Public Health Crises, including COVID-19

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), a global pandemic. Government measures to limit the spread of COVID-19, including the closure of non-essential businesses, continued to disrupt the Company's operations during the year ended March 31, 2023.

The production and sale of cannabis and cannabis-derived products have been recognized as essential services across Canada; however, COVID-19 related challenges have persisted, including, but not limited to, reduced staffing levels, production inefficiencies resulting from increased health and safety measures, and limited supply chain issues.

Due to the ongoing developments and uncertainty surrounding COVID-19, it is not possible to predict the continuing impact that COVID-19 will have on the Company, its financial position, and/or its operating results in the future. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's consolidated financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19, and the effect of any such changes could be material. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of its business.

Effectiveness of Quality Control Systems

The quality and safety of the Company's products are critical to the success of its business and operations. As such, it is imperative that the Company's (and its service providers') quality control systems operate effectively and successfully. Quality control systems can be negatively impacted by the design of the quality control systems, the quality training program, and adherence by employees to quality control guidelines. Although the Company strives to ensure that all of its service providers have implemented and adhere to high caliber quality control systems, any significant failure or deterioration of such quality control systems could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results of the Company.

Development of New Products and Technologies

The Company and its competitors are actively seeking to develop new products in order to keep pace with any new market developments and generate revenue growth. The Company may not be successful in developing effective and safe new products, bringing such products to market in time to be effectively commercialized, or obtaining any required regulatory approvals, which, together with any capital expenditures made in the course of such product development and regulatory approval processes, may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The technologies, processes and formulations the Company uses may also face competition or become obsolete. Rapidly evolving markets, technology, emerging industry standards and frequent introduction of new products characterize the cannabis business. The introduction of new products and new technologies, including new manufacturing processes or formulations, and the emergence of new industry standards may render the Company's current products obsolete, less competitive or less marketable.

The process of developing new products is complex and requires significant continuing costs, development efforts and third-party commitments. The Company may be unable to anticipate changes in customer requirements that could make its existing technology, processes or formulations obsolete. The Company's success will depend on its ability to continue to enhance its existing technologies, develop new technology that addresses the increasing sophistication and varied needs of the market, and respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a timely and cost-effective basis. Failure to develop new technologies and products and the obsolescence of existing technologies or processes could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Reliance on Skilled Workers and Equipment

The ability of the Company to compete and grow cannabis will be dependent on it having access to, at a reasonable cost and in a timely manner, skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. No assurances can be given that the Company will be successful in maintaining its required supply of skilled labour, equipment, parts and components. It is also possible that the final costs of any major capital expenditures contemplated by the Company may be significantly greater than anticipated by management, and may be greater than funds available, in which circumstance the Company may curtail, or extend the timeframes for completing, its capital expenditure plans. This could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

Attraction and Retention of Key Personnel

The Company has a small management team and the loss of a key individual or inability to attract suitably qualified management could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. While employment and management services agreements are customarily used as a primary method of retaining the services of key personnel, these agreements cannot assure the continued services of such persons.

The Company may also encounter difficulties in obtaining and maintaining suitably qualified staff in certain of the jurisdictions in which it conducts business. In addition, there is a risk that management or key personnel will fail to execute in their roles or falter in judgment in certain circumstances, all of which could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial results of the Company.

FINANCIAL RISKS

Compliance with TSX, OTCQX and OTCQB Requirements

On March 19, 2019, the common shares of Aleafia Health ceased trading on the TSXV and commenced trading on the TSX under the symbol "ALEF", which was subsequently changed to "AH" on May 27, 2020.

Aleafia Health is subject to changing rules and regulations promulgated by a number of governmental and self-regulated organizations, including, but not limited to, the Canadian Securities Administrators, the TSX,

the OTCQB and the Ontario Securities Commission. These rules and regulations continue to evolve in scope and complexity, creating many new requirements.

On March, 22, 2022, Aleafia Health received notice from the OTCQX that its bid price had closed below US$0.10 for more than 30 consecutive calendar days and no longer met the Standards for Continued Qualification for the OTCQX International tier. Aleafia Health has been given a 180 day cure period for its share price to trade above US$0.10 for ten consecutive days. If, by September 19, 2022, Aleafia Health's bid price has not stayed at or above the US$0.10 minimum for ten consecutive trading days, then its shares will be delisted from the OTCQX on September 21, 2022. However, Aleafia Health has instead been moved to the OTCQB as of September 21, 2022 where its common shares continue to trade.

On May 3, 2022, the TSX approved the application by the Company for an exemption from certain voting requirements relating to the Private Placement and Debenture Amendments on the basis of "financial hardship." As a result, the Company is subject to a remedial delisting review by the TSX which is anticipated to occur in September 2022. It is routine for the TSX to require any issuer utilizing the financial hardship exemption to be the subject of such a review. On September 16, 2022, the TSX announced that it would extend the delisting review period until November 29, 2022. On November 24, 2022, the TSX confirmed that it completed its delisting review and Aleafia Health satisfied the TSX's requirements to remain listed on the TSX.

Volatile Market Price of the Common Shares

The market price of the common shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. This volatility may affect the ability of holders of common shares to sell their securities for a profit, or at all. Market price fluctuations in the common shares may be due to the Company's operating results failing to meet expectations of securities analysts (including short-sellers) or investors in any period, downward revision in securities analysts' estimates, adverse changes in general market conditions or economic trends, acquisitions, dispositions or other material public announcements by the Company or its competitors, along with a variety of additional factors.

Financial markets have historically at times experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have particularly affected the market prices of equity securities of companies and that have often been unrelated to the operating performance, underlying asset values or prospects of such companies.

Accordingly, the market price of the common shares may decline even if the Company's operating results, underlying asset values or prospects have not changed. Additionally, these factors, as well as other related factors, may cause decreases in asset values that are deemed to be other than temporary, which may result in impairment losses. There can be no assurance that continuing fluctuations in price and volume will not occur. If such increased levels of volatility and market turmoil continue, the Company's operations could be adversely impacted, and the trading price of the common shares may be materially adversely affected.

Obligations as a Public Company

As a public company, Aleafia Health is subject to corporate governance and public disclosure requirements that may increase Aleafia Health's compliance costs and risk of non-compliance, which could adversely impact the price of the common shares.

Dilution

Aleafia Health's articles permit the issuance of an unlimited number of common shares and shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights in connection with such further issuance. Aleafia Health's may issue additional securities in the future, which may dilute a shareholder's holdings in Aleafia Health.

Cash Flow from Operations

Operating cash flow may decline in certain circumstances, many of which are beyond the Company's control. There is no assurance that sufficient revenues will be generated in the near future. Since the Company expects to continue incurring significant working capital investment to grow its revenue, the Company will continue to experience negative cash flow until it reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses. An inability to generate positive cash flow until the Company reaches a sufficient level of sales with positive gross margins to cover operating expenses or raise additional capital on reasonable terms may adversely affect the Company's viability as an operating business.

Additional Financing and Restrictions

The continued development of the Company may require additional financing. Even if its financial resources are sufficient to fund its current operations, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve its business objectives. The failure to raise additional capital could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of current business objectives or the Company becoming insolvent. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, on terms that are favourable or acceptable to the Company.

In addition, from time to time, the Company may enter into transactions to acquire assets or the shares of other corporations. These transactions may be financed in whole or in part, by debt, which may increase the Company's debt levels above industry standards. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions. Debt financings may also contain provisions which, if breached, may entitle lenders or their agents to accelerate repayment of loans and/or realize upon security over the assets of the Company, and there is no assurance that the Company would be able to repay such loans in such an event or prevent the enforcement of security granted pursuant to such debt financing.

Joint Venture Vehicles

The Company currently operates parts of its business through joint ventures with other companies, and it may enter into additional joint ventures and strategic alliances in the future. Joint venture investments may involve risks not otherwise present for investments made solely by the Company, including: control, additional expenditures, conflicting interests and exit strategy, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company, its financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the Company may, in certain circumstances, be liable for the actions of its joint venture partners.

Ability to Achieve or Maintain Profitability

The Company has incurred losses in recent periods. The Company may not be able to achieve or maintain profitability and may continue to incur significant losses in the future. In addition, the Company expects to continue to increase operating expenses as it implements initiatives to continue to grow its business. If the Company's revenues do not increase to offset these expected increases in costs and operating expenses, the Company will not be profitable.

Impact of the Illicit Supply of Cannabis

Despite the legalization of medical and adult-use cannabis in Canada, illegal operations remain. Illegal dispensaries and market participants may be able to:

- (i) offer products with higher concentrations of active ingredients that are either expressly prohibited or impracticable to produce under current Canadian regulations;
- (ii) use delivery methods, including certain edibles, concentrates and extract vaporizers, that we are currently prohibited from offering to individuals in Canada;

- (iii) use marketing and branding strategies that are restricted under the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations; and
- (iv) make claims not permissible under the Cannabis Act and other regulatory regimes.

As these illicit market participants do not comply with the regulations governing the medical and adult-use cannabis industry in Canada, their operations may also have significantly lower costs.

As a result of the competition presented by the illicit market for cannabis, any unwillingness by consumers currently utilizing these unlicensed distribution channels to begin purchasing from LPs for any reason or any inability or unwillingness of law enforcement authorities to enforce laws prohibiting the unlicensed cultivation and sale of cannabis and cannabis-based products could:

- (i) result in the perpetuation of the illicit market for cannabis;
- (ii) adversely affect the Company's market share; and
- (iii) adversely impact the public perception of cannabis use and LPs, all of which could have a materially adverse impact on the Company's business, operations and financial condition.

Employee Health and Safety Regulations

The Company's operations are subject to laws and regulations concerning employee health and safety and the Company will incur ongoing costs and obligations related to compliance with such matters. Failure to comply with safety laws and regulations may result in additional costs for corrective measures, penalties or in restrictions on the Company's manufacturing operations. In addition, changes in employee health and safety or other laws, more vigorous enforcement thereof or other unanticipated events could require extensive changes to the Company's operations or give rise to material liabilities, which could result in a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company.

ENVIRONMENTAL RISKS

Environmental Regulations and Risks

The Company's operations are subject to environmental regulation federally and in the municipal and provincial jurisdictions in which it operates. These regulations mandate, among other things, the maintenance of air and water quality standards. They also set forth limitations on the generation, transportation, storage and disposal of waste. Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner which will require increasingly stricter standards and enforcement, increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees. There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulation, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations.

Risks Inherent in an Agricultural Business

The Company will be subject to the general risks inherent in the ownership and operation of the business of planting, growing, harvesting and marketing cannabis, which, as an agricultural product, is subject to the general risks associated with all agricultural products such as disease, insect pests, changes in raw material costs, the risk and uncertainties of planting, growing and harvesting, environmental matters, considerations relating to product quality, grading and branding, changes in laws and other general economic and market conditions.

Weather conditions and climate, which can vary substantially from year to year, may have a significant impact on the size and quality of the harvest of the crops processed and sold by the Company. Such adverse weather patterns could result in more permanent disruptions in the quality and size of the available crop, which could adversely affect the Company's business.

Like other agricultural products, the quality of cannabis grown outdoors is affected by weather and the environment, which can change the quality or size of the harvest. If a weather event is particularly severe, such as a major drought or hurricane, the affected harvest could be destroyed or damaged to an extent that it would be less desirable to the Company's customers, which could result in a reduction in revenues. If such an event is also widespread, it could affect the Company's ability to acquire the quantity of products required by customers. In addition, other items can affect the marketability of cannabis grown outdoors, including, among other things, the presence of non-cannabis related material, genetically modified organisms and excess residues of pesticides, fungicides and herbicides.

OTHER RISKS

Competition

To date, Health Canada has issued hundreds of Licences to produce, cultivate and/or sell cannabis. As a result, the Company has significant competition from other companies, some of which have longer operating histories and greater financial resources, operating and marketing experience than the Company. Additionally, a large number of companies appear to be applying for production licences, some of which may:

- (i) have significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources;
- (ii) be able to devote greater resources to the development, promotion, sale and support of their products and services; and
- (iii) have more extensive customer bases and broader customer relationships.

Should the size of the cannabis market increase as projected the demand for products will increase as well, and in order for the Company to be competitive it will need to invest significantly in research and development, marketing, production expansion, new client identification, and client support. If the Company is not successful in attaining sufficient resources to invest in these areas, the Company's ability to compete in the market may be adversely affected, which could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, its financial conditions and operations.

New Industry and Market

The Company's business as a LP represents a relatively new industry and nascent market. In addition to being subject to general business risks and to risks inherent in the nature of an early stage business, a business involving an agricultural product and a regulated consumer product, the Company will need to build brand awareness in the new industry and market through significant investments in its strategy, its production capacity, quality assurance, and compliance with regulations, especially against competitors who have already spent some time building their brands. These activities may not promote the Company's brand and products as effectively as intended, or at all.

This new market and industry into which management is entering will have competitive conditions, consumer tastes, patient requirements and unique circumstances, and spending patterns that differ from existing markets. There are no assurances that this new industry and market will exist or grow as estimated or anticipated, or function and evolve in a manner consistent with management's expectations and assumptions. Any event or circumstance that affects this new market and industry may materially and adversely affect the business, financial conditions and results of operations of the Company.

Product Liability

As a manufacturer and distributor of products designed to be ingested by humans, the Company faces an inherent risk of exposure to product liability claims, regulatory action and litigation if its products are alleged to have caused significant loss or injury. In addition, the sale of the Company's products involves the risk of injury to consumers due to tampering by unauthorized third parties or product contamination.

Previously unknown adverse reactions resulting from human consumption of the Company's products alone or in combination with other medications or substances could occur. The Company may be subject to various product liability claims, including, among others, that the Company's products caused injury or illness, include inadequate instructions for use or include inadequate warnings concerning possible side effects or interactions with other substances.

A product liability claim or regulatory action against the Company could result in increased costs, could adversely affect the Company's reputation with its clients and consumers generally, and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition of the Company. There can be no assurances that the Company will be able to obtain or maintain product liability insurance on acceptable terms or with adequate coverage against potential liabilities. Such insurance is expensive and may not be available in the future on acceptable terms, or at all. The inability to obtain sufficient insurance coverage on reasonable terms or to otherwise protect against potential product liability claims could prevent or inhibit the commercialization of the Company's potential products.

Product Recalls

Manufacturers and distributors of products are sometimes subject to the recall or return of their products for a variety of reasons, including product defects, such as contamination, unintended harmful side effects or interactions with other substances, packaging safety and inadequate or inaccurate labelling disclosure. If any of the Company's products are recalled due to an alleged product defect or for any other reason, the Company could be required to incur the unexpected expense of the recall and any legal proceedings that might arise in connection with the recall. The Company may lose a significant amount of sales and may not be able to replace those sales at an acceptable margin or at all. In addition, a product recall may require significant management attention.

Although the Company has detailed procedures in place for testing its products, there can be no assurance that any quality, potency or contamination problems will be detected in time to avoid unforeseen product recalls, regulatory action or lawsuits. Additionally, if the Company is subject to a recall, the reputation of the Company could be harmed. A recall for any of the foregoing reasons could lead to decreased demand for the Company's products and could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of the Company. Additionally, product recalls may lead to increased scrutiny of the Company's operations by regulatory agencies, requiring further management attention, potential loss of applicable Licences and potential legal fees and other expenses.

Managing Growth

The Company may be subject to growth-related risks including capacity constraints and pressure on its internal systems and controls. The ability of the Company to manage growth effectively will require it to continue to implement and improve its operational and financial systems and to expand, train and manage its employee base. The inability of the Company to deal with this growth may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In order to manage growth and changes in strategy effectively, the Company must

- (i) maintain adequate systems to meet customer demand;
- (ii) expand sales and marketing, distribution capabilities and administrative functions; and
- (iii) attract and retain qualified employees, including in respect of its management team.

While it intends to focus on managing its costs and expenses over the long term, the Company expects to invest to support its growth and may have additional unexpected costs. It may not be able to expand quickly enough to exploit potential market opportunities. The Company could also fail to successfully integrate acquired entities into the business of the Company.

Fraudulent or Illegal Activities by Employees, Contractors or Consultants

The Company's employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct that violates:

- (i) government regulations;
- (ii) manufacturing standards;
- (iii) federal and provincial healthcare fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or
- (iv) laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data.

It is not always possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against the Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on the Company's business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, and curtailment of the Company's operations, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Insurance Coverage

The Company has insurance to protect its assets, operations, directors and employees. While the Company believes the insurance coverage addresses all material risks to which it is exposed and is adequate and customary in the current state of operations, such insurance is subject to coverage limits and exclusions and may not be available for the risks and hazards to which the Company is exposed.

In addition, no assurance can be given that such insurance will be adequate to cover the Company's liabilities or will be generally available in the future or, if available, that premiums will be commercially justifiable. If the Company were to incur substantial liability and such damages were not covered by insurance or were in excess of policy limits, or if the Company were to incur such liability at a time when it is not able to obtain liability insurance, the business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

Litigation

The Company may become party to litigation from time to time in the ordinary course, which could adversely affect its business. Should any litigation in which the Company becomes involved be determined against the Company, such a decision could adversely affect the Company's ability to continue operating and the value of the common shares and require the Company to devote significant resources to such matters. Even if the Company is involved in litigation and wins, litigation may redirect many of the Company's resources, including the time and attention of management and available working capital. Litigation may also create a negative perception of the Company's brands.

Conflicts of Interest

Certain directors and officers of the Company hold, and may in future hold, interests in other companies involved in the same or similar businesses to the Company and as such may, in certain circumstances, have a conflict of interest, which could be adverse to the Company and, whether the conflict of interest is real or perceived, put the reputation of the Company at risk.

Conflicts of interest, if any, which arise will be subject to and governed by procedures prescribed by the Company's governing corporate law statute which requires a director of a Company who is a party to, or is a director or an officer of, or has some material interest in any person who is a party to, a material contract or proposed material contract with the Company to disclose his or her interest and, in the case of directors, to refrain from voting on any matter in respect of such contract unless otherwise permitted under applicable law.

Information Technology Systems and Cyber-Attacks

The Company has entered into agreements with third parties for hardware, software, telecommunications and other information technology ("IT") services in connection with its operations. The Company's operations depend, in part, on how well it and its suppliers protect networks, equipment, IT systems and software against damage from a number of threats, including, but not limited to, cable cuts, damage to physical plants, natural disasters, intentional damage and destruction, fire, power loss, hacking, computer viruses, vandalism and theft. The Company's operations also depend on the timely maintenance, upgrade and replacement of networks, equipment, IT systems and software, as well as pre-emptive expenses to mitigate the risks of failures. Any of these and other events could result in information system failures, delays and/or increase in expenses. The failure of information systems or a component of information systems could, depending on the nature of any such failure, adversely impact the Company's reputation and results of operations.

The Company has not experienced any material losses to date relating to cyber-attacks or other information security breaches, but there can be no assurance that the Company will not incur such losses in the future. The Company's risk and exposure to these matters cannot be fully mitigated because of, among other things, the evolving nature of these threats. As cyber threats continue to evolve, the Company may be required to expend additional resources to continue to modify or enhance protective measures or to investigate and remediate any security vulnerabilities.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information regarding the Company, including in the Financial Statements and our most recent annual information form dated June 29, 2022 for the year ended March 31, 2022 (the "Annual Information Form"), is available under the Company's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On June 6, 2023, Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB") and Aleafia (the "Company") entered into a Binding Letter Agreement whereby RWB has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the "Proposed Transaction") to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario).

Under the terms of the Binding Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an "Aleafia Share") will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of the Company (each, an "RWB Share"), subject to customary adjustment (the "Exchange Ratio"). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the "Combined Company") and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

Summary of the Proposed Transaction

The Proposed Transaction is expected to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, RWB will acquire all of the issued and outstanding Aleafia Shares in exchange for RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Aleafia shareholders in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (“MI 61-101”), at a special meeting of Aleafia shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “Aleafia Meeting”); (b) debenture holders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (“Debentureholder Approval”); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “RWB Meeting”).

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by on October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”). October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”).

A copy of the Letter Agreement will be filed on Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com. Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, all members of the board of directors of Aleafia, all officers of Aleafia and certain other security holders of Aleafia, will enter into customary support and voting agreements.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Concurrent with entering into the Binding Letter Agreement, the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain subsidiaries as borrowers, with other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP as lender, and subsequently amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023, was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

On June 6, 2023, concurrent with the execution of the Binding Letter Agreement Aleafia was advanced $1.5 million.

As part of the Proposed Transaction, the Company expects to settle the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2024, the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2026, and the 8.5% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2028 (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) for an aggregate of $6,000 at the Effective Time (subject to Debentureholder approval). The funding for the settlement of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, along with the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, is intended to be funded through a new secured $30,000 credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The New Credit Facility will also serve to support working capital requirements, growth initiatives, and the RWB Credit Facility, a $17,500 credit facility being negotiated by RWB and Aleafia. The RWB Credit Facility will facilitate cash settlement, working capital requirements, and promissory note repayment, and will include covenants and reporting requirements.

The specific terms of the New Credit Facility and the RWB Credit Facility will be confirmed upon the execution of final funding agreements and the completion of the Proposed Transaction. These actions aim to enhance liquidity and improve financial flexibility by supporting working capital requirements and funding growth initiatives. The negotiations for the RWB Credit Facility are being conducted in accordance with customary practices and are expected to be finalized within 30 days.

As at the consolidated financial statements’ balance sheet date of March 31, 2023, the Proposed Transaction and the related subsequent events had not yet been completed. Consequently, the consolidated financial statements do not reflect the impact of the Proposed Transaction. The Company will reassess and determine the appropriate accounting treatment once the Proposed Transaction is finalized and all necessary approvals are obtained.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health Inc.:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") were prepared by management, which is responsible for the integrity and fairness of the information presented, including the many amounts that out of necessity are based on estimates and judgements. These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded, and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements.

The Board of Directors oversees the responsibilities of management for financial reporting through an Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors. This Audit Committee reviews the consolidated financial statements and recommends them to the Board of Directors for approval. They meet regularly with management to review internal control procedures and advise directors on accounting matters and financial reporting issues.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2023 and 2022 and the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the 12-month and 15-month periods then ended, respectively, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at March 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and cash flows for the 12-month and 15-month periods then ended, respectively, in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 2(c) in the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Company had an accumulated deficit of $527.8 million and net working capital deficit of $5.4 million as at March 31, 2023. These events or conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 2(c), indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect to this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2023. The matter discussed below was addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on this matter. The key audit matter to be communicated in our auditors' report is as follows:

Valuation of biological assets and cannabis inventory

We draw attention to Notes 2(f), 2(j), 7 and 8 to the consolidated financial statements. Biological assets are measured at fair value less cost to sell at the stage of completion. The Company values inventories of harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

In estimating the fair value of biological assets, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, average yield per plant, harvesting costs, selling costs, selling price, and the allocation of indirect costs, which form part of the standard cost per gram to complete production. In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value.

We identified measurement of the fair value of biological assets and net realizable value of cannabis inventory as key audit matters as a high degree of auditor judgment was required to evaluate the significant assumptions and estimates made by management.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We performed sensitivity analyses over the Company's significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of biological assets to assess the impact of changes in those assumptions on the Company's determination of fair value.
- We tested the stage of growth by observing the plants at year-end.
- We tested the average expected yield per plant by comparing actual results of the current year to historical results of operations.
- We tested the average selling price per gram by comparing to estimates used by management to actual sales prices per gram in actual sales transaction during and subsequent to year-end.
- We also tested the net realizable value of inventory by comparing the carrying value of inventory to the prices earned from sales transactions near and subsequent to year-end.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information, which comprises the information included in the Company's Management's Discussion and Analysis to be filed with the relevant Canadian securities commissions.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion on thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditor's report. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going-concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Christopher Hiestand.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements.

Note 1 Nature of Operations

The Company is a publicly traded corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health's head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

The Company is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis products in Canada and destined for international markets, including Australia and Germany. The Company operates a virtual medical cannabis clinic staffed by physicians and nurse practitioners which provide health and wellness services across Canada.

The Company operates three licensed cannabis production facilities all in the province of Ontario, including the largest, outdoor cannabis cultivation facility in Canada. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vapes, oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual strips, and topicals, for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets, and in select international jurisdictions.

The common shares of the Company commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") (symbol "AH"), on May 27, 2020.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies and Judgments

IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the carrying values of certain assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Actual results may differ from these judgments, estimates, and assumptions.

Significant accounting policies, which affect the consolidated financial statements as a whole, as well as key accounting estimates and areas of significant judgment are highlighted in this section. This note also describes change in accounting policies, new accounting standards, which have been adopted during 2023, and new accounting pronouncements, which are not yet effective but are expected to impact the Company's consolidated financial statements in the future. Accounting policies, estimates, or judgments that have a significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements include the valuation of investments (Note 4), estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment (Note 6), inventory (Note 7), biological assets (Note 8), convertible debentures (Note 13), share-based compensation (Note 14), and the fair value of financial instruments (Note 19).

a) Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"), and interpretations of the IFRS Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

The Company's consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. The amounts in the tables are expressed in Canadian dollars and rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise stated.

The consolidated financial statements were approved and authorized for issue by the Board of Directors of the Company on June 13, 2023.

b) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, which are entities controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. Such control is generally evidenced through ownership of more than 50% of the voting rights or through contractual arrangements. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. All subsidiaries, except for the holding companies and the inactive subsidiaries, are actively engaged in carrying out the Company's business in the normal course and are domiciled in Canada.

The Company's subsidiaries during the year ended March 31, 2023 are as follows:

	Operating Status	Percentage Ownership
Aleafia Inc.	Active	100%
Canabo Medical Corporation ("Canabo")	Active	100%
Aleafia Farms Inc. ("Aleafia Farm")	Active	100%
Emblem Corp. ("Emblem")	Active	100%
Emblem Cannabis Corporation ("ECC")	Active	100%
GrowWise Health Limited ("GrowWise")	Active	100%
Emblem Realty Ltd. ("Emblem Realty")	Inactive	100%
Aleafia Brands Inc.	Inactive	100%
Aleafia Retail Inc.	Inactive	100%
2672533 Ontario Inc.	Inactive	100%
2676063 Ontario Inc.	Inactive	100%

c) Going concern assumption

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $527,810 (March 31, 2022 – $493,203) and net working capital deficit of $5,418 (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36,160). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The proposed business combination transaction with Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB"), along with the related subsequent events as described in Note 25, have the potential to significantly affect the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Please refer to Note 25 for more details regarding this subsequent event.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options which could potentially meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, selling non-core assets, issuing common shares via a public or private placement equity offering, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business
- Remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing in the future on terms favourable for the Company.

d) COVID-19 estimation uncertainty

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), a global pandemic. Government measures to limit the spread of COVID-19, including the closure of non-essential businesses, continued to disrupt the Company's operations during the year ended March 31, 2023.

The production and sale of cannabis and cannabis-derived products have been recognized as essential services across Canada; however, COVID-19 related challenges have persisted, including, but not limited to, reduced staffing levels, production inefficiencies resulting from increased health and safety measures, and supply chain issues.

Due to the ongoing developments and uncertainty surrounding COVID-19, it is not possible to predict the continuing impact that COVID-19 will have on the Company, its financial position, and/or its operating results in the future. In addition, it is possible that estimates in the Company's consolidated financial statements will change in the near term as a result of COVID-19, and the effect of any such changes could be material. The Company is closely monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of its business.

e) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash in the consolidated statements of financial position is comprised of cash in banks and on hand, and short-term deposits which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash and are subject to insignificant risk with respect to its value and liquidity.

f) Restricted cash

Restricted cash includes cash held as collateral against certain bank credit card facilities. It also includes Canadian bank issued preferred shares, which is subject to trading restrictions that are greater than 90 days.

g) Biological assets

The Company measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from the changes in fair value less cost to sell during the period are recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets between the initial planting to the point of harvest including labour, labour related, fertilizer, utilities and facility costs and amortization of related production equipment. Seeds are measured at fair market value. Upon harvest, the fair value adjustments including all the capitalized costs are transferred from biological assets to inventory and form the cost basis of the inventory.

h) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using weighted average method. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses. Inventories are written down to net realizable value when the cost of inventories is estimated to be unrecoverable due to obsolescence, damage, or declining market prices. When the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist or when there is evidence of an increase in selling price, then the amount of the write-down previously recorded is reversed.

The cost of inventories comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs of purchase include the purchase price, non-recoverable taxes, and transport, handling and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of finished goods, materials or services. The costs of conversion include direct material and labour costs, and a systematic allocation of fixed and variable overheads incurred in converting materials into finished goods.

The Company's inventories include harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods, which are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Harvested cannabis is initially recorded at fair value less costs to sell at the point of harvest, which becomes the inventory's cost. This fair value includes capitalized costs and unrealized fair value adjustments. Any subsequent post-harvest costs are capitalized to inventory to the extent that they are less than the net realizable value. The cost of fertilizers and nutrients includes the costs of purchases net of vendor allowances and other costs, such as transportation, that are directly incurred to bring the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Storage costs, indirect administrative overhead, and certain other selling costs related to inventories are expensed in the period incurred.

i) Property, plant, and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes all costs directly attributable to the acquisition.

Land is not depreciated. Depreciation of other items of property, plant and equipment is calculated on components that have homogeneous useful lives by using the straight-line method or declining balance method to depreciate the initial cost down to the residual value over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Computer equipment and software	30% on a declining basis
Office furniture and equipment	20% on a declining basis
Buildings	25 years on a straight-line basis
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line over the remaining term of the lease

Useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed at each year-end. Such a review takes into consideration the nature of the assets, their intended use and technological changes.

Gains or losses on disposals are determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount and are recognized in "Other expenses (income)" in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.

j) Leases

The Company leases some items of property, plant and equipment.

As is permitted under IFRS 16, the Company elected to expense its short-term leases (term of 12 months or less) and leases of low-value assets on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

For its other contracts, the Company assesses whether its new or amended contracts contain a lease.

A lease represents the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Company assesses the following to determine whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset:

- The identified asset is directly or indirectly specified in the contract, or it represents substantially all of the capacity of a physically distinct asset.
- The right of use covers substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the identified asset for a period of time.
- The Company has the right to direct the use of the identified asset. In cases where the use is predetermined, the Company operates the asset or designed it in a way that predetermines how and for what purpose the asset will be used.

When a lease is identified, the Company allocates the consideration in the contract to each of the lease components, separately from the non-lease components, on the basis of their relative stand-alone price. However, as is permitted under IFRS 16, the Company elected to account for all contracts of land and buildings it occupies as leases.

A right-of-use asset (a "lease asset") and a lease liability are recognized in the statement of financial position at the lease commencement date.

k) Right of use assets

The Company recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease [i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use]. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Unless the Company is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful life and the lease term. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment.

l) Lease obligation

At the commencement date of the lease, the Company recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

m) Share-based payments

Share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the estimated fair value of the instruments issued on the grant date and amortized over the vesting period. Share-based payments to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued if it is determined the fair value of the goods or services cannot be reliably measured and are recorded at the date the goods or services are received. The amount recognized as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards expected to vest. The offset to the recorded cost is to equity settled share-based payments reserve.

Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital and the related equity settled share-based payments reserve is transferred to share capital. Charges for options that are forfeited before vesting are reversed from contributed surplus.

Share-based compensation expense relating to deferred share units is accrued over the vesting period of the units based on the quoted market price on the date of issuance. As these awards can be settled in cash, the expense and liability are adjusted each reporting year for changes in the underlying share price.

n) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when it is probable that the Company is required to settle an obligation (legal or constructive), as a result of a past event, and the obligation can be reliably estimated. The provision represents the Company's best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting year. When a provision is determined using the expected cash flow method, the carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When some or all of the amounts required to settle a provision are expected to be recoverable from a third party, a receivable is recognized when it is virtually certain reimbursement is receivable and the expected reimbursement can be reliably measured.

o) Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted loss per share data for its common shares, calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share does not adjust the loss attributable to common shareholders or the weighted average number of common shares outstanding when the effect is anti-dilutive.

p) Income taxes

Current income taxes are the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted, and includes any adjustments to tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. Deferred income taxes are recorded using the liability method whereby deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the date of the statements of financial position. Deferred tax is not recognized for temporary differences which arise on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting, nor taxable profit or loss.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

q) Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. In the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”) transaction costs are included in the carry amount of the asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVTPL are expensed in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. Financial assets are subsequently measured at:

- a. FVTPL
- b. Amortized cost
- c. Fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”)
- d. Equity instruments designated at FVOCI; or
- e. Financial instruments designated at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at:

- f. FVTPL
- g. Amortized cost

The classification is based on whether the contractual cash flow characteristics represent “solely payment of principal and interest” as well as the business model under which the financial assets are managed. Financial liabilities held by the Company are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost.

r) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of the Company’s non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment at each statement of financial position date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the cash-generating unit, or “CGU”). The recoverable amount of an asset or a CGU is the higher of its fair value, less cost to sell, and its value in use. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment charge is recognized immediately in profit or loss by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the recoverable amount. Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the lesser of the revised estimate of recoverable amount and the carrying amount that would have been recorded had no impairment loss been recognized previously.

s) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses, on a forward-looking basis, the expected credit losses associated with its financial instruments carried at amortized cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether the asset originated from a contract that is in the scope of IFRS 15 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (IFRS 15) or if there have been significant increases in credit risk.

Accounts receivable - For accounts receivable and contract assets, the Company applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by IFRS 9 - Financial Instruments (IFRS 9), which requires the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all accounts receivable and contract assets within the scope of IFRS 15. The Company has established a provision based on the Company’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Cash equivalents - For cash equivalents and short-term investments at amortized cost, the Company applies the general approach to providing for expected credit losses. These instruments are considered to be low credit risk, and therefore, the impairment provision is determined using a 12-month expected credit loss basis.

t) Segment reporting

IFRS 8 - Operating Segments requires operating segments to be determined based on internal reports that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker for the purpose of allocating resources to the segment and to assessing its performance. The Company has one reportable segment, the cultivation of cannabis plants, and production and sale of cannabis flower, extracts and other derivatives, all of which supply four different sales channels: adult use, medical, international and wholesale.

u) Revenue recognition

The Company derives revenue primarily from the sale of cannabis and cannabis products. Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of the promised goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Performance obligations are satisfied, and revenue is recognized, either over time or at a point in time. Certain activities may give rise to deferred revenue, which are contract liabilities under IFRS 15 and relate to payments received in advance of performance under contracts with customers. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue as (or when) the Company satisfies its performance obligations under the contracts.

Under bill-and-hold arrangements – whereby the Company bills a customer for product to be delivered at a later date – control typically transfers when the product is still in the Company’s physical possession, and title and risk of loss has passed to the customer. Revenue is recognized when all specific requirements for transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met. There are no bill and hold arrangements as at March 31, 2023.

The provision for sales returns is an estimate used in the recognition of revenue in connection with contract liabilities identified in contracts with customers. The Company has a return policy that allows wholesalers to return product within a specified period prior to, and subsequent to, the expiration date. Provisions for returns are recognized in the period in which the underlying sales are recognized, as a reduction of product sales revenue. The Company estimates provisions for returns based upon historical data to determine return percentages and current market conditions, representing management’s best estimate. Historical experience may not always be an accurate indicator of future returns, and therefore the Company continually monitors return provisions and adjusts when it believes that actual product returns may differ from amounts recorded.

Amounts disclosed as net revenue are net of sales tax, duty tax, allowances, returns provision, price adjustments, discounts and rebates.

Sale of cannabis: Revenue from the sale of cannabis is recognized when the Company transfers control to the customer upon delivery or the time of the product pickup from the Company’s facilities by the customer based on the contract-by-contract basis between the Company and the customer, or in the case of bill-and-hold arrangements, when specific requirements have been met.

Medical consultation: The Company provides medical services to patients on a scheduled appointment fixed fee basis. Performance of the service is considered complete at the conclusion of the appointment and revenue is recognized at a point in time.

Storage Revenue: Revenue from storage services is recognized over time as the services are provided, based on the agreed-upon storage rates and the passage of time.

Shipping Revenue: Revenue from shipping services is recognized when control of the goods has transferred to the customer, typically upon delivery to the customer's specified destination.

Solar Panel Revenue: Revenue from the generation of electricity by the solar panels is recognized based on the actual amount of electricity generated.

v) Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale are no longer depreciated and are presented separately in the statement of financial position at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is regarded as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction, rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale and its sale must be highly probable.

w) Foreign currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction. At each reporting date, foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at year-end exchange rates. Exchange differences arising from the transactions are recorded in profit or loss for the period.

x) Future changes in accounting policies

The following IFRS standards have been recently issued by the IASB with an effective date after March 31, 2023, and have not yet been adopted by the Company. Pronouncements that are irrelevant or not expected to have a significant impact have been excluded:

Amendments to IAS 1: Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current

The amendments to IAS 1 clarify the requirements relating to determining whether a liability should be presented as current or non-current in the statement of financial position. Under the new requirements, the assessment of whether a liability is presented as current or non-current is based on the contractual arrangements in place as at the reporting date and does not impact the amount or timing of recognition. The amendments will apply retrospectively for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

Amendments to IAS 8: Definition of Accounting Estimate

The amendments introduced a new definition for accounting estimates, clarifying that the estimates are monetary amounts in the financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty which is defined as an uncertainty that arises when monetary amounts in financial reports cannot be observed directly and must instead be estimated. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

Amendments to IAS 1: Disclosure of Accounting Policies

The IASB has issued amendments to IAS 1 and IFRS Practice Statement 2 on the application of materiality to disclosure of accounting policies in deciding which accounting policies to disclose in the financial statements. The key amendments to IAS 1 include requiring companies to disclose their material accounting policies rather than their significant accounting policies; clarifying that accounting policies related to immaterial transactions, other events, or conditions are immaterial and need not be disclosed; and clarifying that not all accounting policies that relate to material transactions, other events, or conditions are material to a company's consolidated financial statements. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

Amendments to IAS 12: Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction

The amendments narrowed the scope of certain recognition exemptions so that it no longer applies to transactions that, on initial recognition, give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. A company applies the amendments to transactions that occur on or after the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented. It also, at the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented, recognizes deferred tax for all temporary differences related to leases and decommissioning obligations and recognizes the cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings (or other component of equity, as appropriate) at that date. The amendments will be effective for the annual period beginning on or after January 1, 2023, and the Company has chosen not to early adopt the amendments. The Company will evaluate the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements when they become applicable.

As of March 31, 2023, the Company has not yet adopted the above-mentioned IFRS standards that have an effective date after this reporting period. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements and will adopt them when they become applicable in accordance with the relevant IFRS standards. The evaluation process includes assessing the potential impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations, and disclosures in the financial statements.

It should be noted that the potential impact of these amendments on the consolidated financial statements cannot be determined with certainty until the Company completes its evaluation process. Therefore, the Company cannot provide any assurance that the impact of these amendments will not be material to the consolidated financial statements in the period of initial application or in future periods.

This note is provided for informational purposes only and does not represent a comprehensive analysis of all potential accounting impacts that may arise from the adoption of these IFRS standards. The Company encourages users of its financial statements to refer to the full text of the applicable IFRS standards and related guidance for a more detailed understanding of the potential impact on its financial statements.

Note 3 Marketable Securities

As at March 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company held the following marketable securities:

Financial asset Hierarchy level	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	WDSL	Millgauss	-
	$	$	$	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	1,190	-	-	1,190

Unrealized gain (loss) on changes in fair value	(5,425)	-	-	(5,425)
Balance, March 31, 2022	1,190	-	-	1,190

On May 10, 2021, the Company, through its subsidiaries Canabo and GrowWise, sold certain clinic assets to Myconic Capital Corp (d.b.a Wellbeing Digital Sciences Limited "WDSL"). In exchange, WDSL issued 7,000,000 common shares with a fair value of $12,250 at the time of closing. The sale resulted in the derecognition of assets and lease obligations with a net book value of $586, resulting in a gain of $12,092.

The shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss, and are categorized as Level 2 on the fair value hierarchy as they have quoted market prices in an active market.

On August 30, 2021, KetamineOne Capital Limited completed a spin-off of Milgauss Investments Ltd, and distributed one one-hundred-thenth of a Milgauss share and one new common share of KetamineOne for each KetamineOne share held before the effective date of the transaction. As part of the spin-off, the Company received 60,795 shares.

The shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss and are categorized as Level 2 on the fair value hierarchy due to the unavailability of some inputs in the market.

Note 4 Investments

One Plant (Retail) Corp. is a private Canadian company that focuses on cannabis retail business. The Company holds 9.4% of One Plant (Retail) Corp.'s common shares as an investment. The investment is accounted for under IFRS 9 - Financial Instruments and is initially recognized at cost, which includes the transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the investment.

The Company evaluates its investment in One Plant (Retail) Corp. for impairment at each reporting date or when there is an indication of impairment. As of March 31, 2023, there is no indication of impairment, and the investment is carried at cost. No dividends have been received or recognized for the year ended March 31, 2023 and 2022.

Any future dividends received from One Plant (Retail) Corp. will be recognized in the Company's profit or loss as income when the right to receive payment has been established. Any transaction costs related to the disposal of the investment will be recognized in profit or loss when the disposal occurs.

Note 5 Right-of-Use Asset and Lease Liability

The changes in the carrying value of right-of-use assets are as follows:

Depreciation relating to manufacturing equipment and production facilities for owned and right-of-use lease assets is capitalized to biological assets and inventory and is expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company recognized depreciation expense of $5,978 (March 31, 2022 – $12,093), of which $3,150 (March 31, 2022 – $4,417) was included in cost of sales, biological assets and inventory, and $2,828 (March 31, 2022 – $7,676) was included in operating expenses.

Note 7 Inventory

Inventory is comprised of the following items as at:

	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Finished goods	3,977	4,454
Work-in-progress	18,582	27,992
Supplies and consumables	3,127	2,940
Inventory provision	(9,081)	(13,722)
Total inventory	16,605	21,664

The inventory provision solely relates to work-in-progress inventory as of March 31, 2023, and 2022. It accounts for estimated losses due to obsolescence, slow-moving inventory, and other factors affecting the recoverability of the carrying amount, as determined by management.

Note 8 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of assets in the future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate the expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future periods.

The change in the carrying value of biological assets during the period area as follows:

Opening balance	1,179	2,511
Production costs capitalized	14,902	22,053
Changes in fair value less cost to sell due to biological transformation	5,158	1,333
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(18,835)	(24,718)
Total biological assets	2,404	1,179

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following significant assumptions in the valuation model:

	March 31, 2023		March 31, 2022
	Indoor	Outdoor	Indoor	Outdoor
Average fair value per gram ($)	2.00	0.17	0.98	0.16
Average yield per plant (grams)	244	238	60	750
Average of growth cycle (weeks)	13	20	13	16

The Company values cannabis plants at fair value. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins at the time of planting and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between thirteen and twenty weeks from propagation to harvest.

The Company estimates the harvest yields for the cannabis on plants at various stages of growth, based on expected yield of mature plants. As of March 31, 2023, it is expected that the Company's biological assets will yield 19,759 kg of cannabis when eventually harvested. The Company's estimates are, by their nature, subject to change, and differences from the expected yield will be reflected in the fair value adjustment to biological assets in future periods. The Company accretes fair value on a straight-line basis according to stage of growth. As a result, a cannabis plant that is 50% through its 13-week growing cycle would be ascribed approximately 50% of its harvest date expected fair value less costs to sell (subject to wastage adjustments).

The fair value adjustment to biological assets and inventory sold consists of the following for twelve and the fifteen months ended:

Change in fair value on growth of biological assets	1,380	1,333
Realized fair value amounts included in inventory sold	(361)	120
Fair value changes in biological assets and inventory sold	1,019	1,453

Note 11 Credit Facilities

December 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12,000 and access to a revolving facility up to $7,000. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime (with a floor of 3.45%) rate plus 9%, annually, with an effective interest rate of 14.8%. Under the agreement, the Company prepaid interest of $749. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances.

The Company received net proceeds of $10,798 on December 24, 2021.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement on the Company.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

August 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10,000 for working capital and general corporate purposes. The term of the loan was for one year with a fixed interest rate of 12% and an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The facility is secured by a first lien mortgage on the Port Perry, Ontario facility.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. Second lien mortgages were granted against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023, the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%, and the interest to begin paying in June 2022.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5,000 against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility including the prepayment of one year of interest, from June 2022 to June 2023, in the amount of $623.

Note 12 Promissory Notes

Promissory Note

On December 16, 2022, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $1,000 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 15.77%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

On January 24, 2022, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $1,500 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 15.09%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

On February 28, 2023, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $2,000 for general corporate purposes. The note bears a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 13.86%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

The amortization of the promissory notes as at March 31, 2023 is as follows:

Note 13 Convertible Debt

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40,300 (the “June 2019 Convertible Debenture”). The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022,
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually,
- Convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder, and
- The Company may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2,900 debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,350.

During the year ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $301 debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,049.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37,049 principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2,387 principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company’s existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

The below table summarizes the changes in the total consolidated convertible debentures.

Balance, March 31, 2022	36,401
Interest accretion	4,076
Conversion into equity	(301)
Derecognition of June 2019 Convertible Debenture	(40,175)

Balance, June 30, 2022	23,493
Interest accretion	3,679
Balance March 31, 2023	27,172

The modifications to the June 2019 Convertible Debenture were determined to be substantial and therefore accounted for as an extinguishment.

The liability component of the New Debentures is recorded at the present value of the future interest and principal payments using the discount rate of 19.5%. The equity component represents the residual amount attributed to the Company’s liability to equity conversion option amounting to $16,047 and is recorded in the contributed surplus in the interim condensed consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 14 Share Capital

Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at March 31, 2023, there were 403,143,926 common shares issued and outstanding.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued 68,151,515 common shares at a price of $0.0825 plus 3,407,500 common shares as finder's fee, by way of a private placement offering on June 24, 2022, resulting in net proceeds of $5,623. Each common share also has one half of one common share purchase warrant (refer to "warrant" section below).

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the "Plan"), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The total stock option expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the year ended March 31, 2023 was $1,571 (March 31, 2022 – $2,607).

The following table summarizes information relating to outstanding and exercisable stock options as at March 31, 2023:

The fair values of the stock options granted during the year ended March 31, 2023 and 2022, were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following weighted average assumptions:

	2023	2022
Weighted average share price	$0.05	$0.21
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	2.87%	0.69%
Weighted expected life-years	3.2 years	2.8 years
Weighted average expected daily volatility	87.5%	87.0%
Weighted expected dividends	0.00%	0.00%
Forfeiture rate	5.65%	0.00%

The volatility assumption is based on an analysis of historical volatility over a period equivalent to the life of the options.

Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”)

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based compensation expense anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date.

During the year ended March 31, 2023, 2,000,000 RSUs were granted (March 31, 2022 – 1,274,000). The total RSU expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the year ended March 31, 2023 was $126 (March 31, 2022 – $292).

A summary of the RSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2023 and 2022, is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2020	–

Balance, March 31, 2023	1,935,750

There are no RSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

At the Company's annual general meeting on June 30, 2020, shareholders passed a resolution approving the Company's deferred share unit plan (the "DSU Plan"), which was implemented during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with other director compensation, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board. The deferred share units are settled in shares.

A summary of the DSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2023 and 2022 is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2020	148,431

As at March 31, 2023, an amount of $16 (March 31, 2022 – $429) was due to directors and management. These amounts are non-interest bearing, unsecured, due on demand and included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 17 Loss per Share

Loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the year March 31, 2023 was 386,358,769 (March 31, 2022 – 327,012,541).

Diluted income per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding taking into consideration the weighted average impact of dilutive securities. All of the Company's potentially dilutive securities are anti-diluted during the periods presented due to losses incurred.

Note 18 Management of Capital

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to:

- sustain a sufficient capital base to maintain investor, creditor, supplier, and customer confidence; and
- sustain the future development of the business.

The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders' equity, credit facilities, lease liabilities, promissory note, and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and adjusts it to reflect changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash. In the current period, the Company manages its capital with a heightened focus on maintaining and improving its liquidity. For the year ended March 31, 2023, there has been no other significant changes to the management of capital.

Note 19 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, promissory note, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments by measurement category:

Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, and marketable securities)	697	2,759
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables, net tax receivable, and investments)	6,666	10,672
Liabilities, amortized cost (accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities, liabilities held for sale, promissory note and convertible debt)	68,838	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following table sets out for the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	465	-	-	465
Restricted cash	162	-	-	162
Marketable securities	65	5	-	70
Total, March 31, 2023	692	5	-	697

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,347	-	-	1,347
Restricted cash	222	-	-	222
Marketable securities	1,185	5	-	1,190
Total, March 31, 2022	2,754	5	-	2,759

The carrying value of trade receivables, accounts payable and net tax payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facilities, promissory notes and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at March 31, 2023.

Assets Held for Sale

The fair value of assets held for sale, primarily comprising the land and building of the Grimsby greenhouse facility, is determined based on Level 3 inputs within the fair value hierarchy. The fair value measurement incorporates various factors, including third-party valuation reports, advisor opinions of value, the range of purchase proposals received, and comparisons to comparable asset sale list prices and actual sale prices. These inputs are used to formulate the fair value less cost to sell.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The Company has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is a responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

The Company has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the twelve months ended March 31, 2023, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12,000 term facility, and the drawn amount on the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rates and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Investment risk

The Company is exposed to investment risk arising from its holdings in various securities, including publicly traded securities and a long-term investment in a privately held company. Investment risk encompasses a range of factors that could impact the value and performance of these securities.

The Company's investments in publicly traded securities are subject to market-related risks, including share price volatility and fluctuations. These risks are influenced by factors such as market conditions, investor sentiment, economic trends, and company-specific developments. The Company monitors market conditions, including share price movements, and evaluates the performance of its investments regularly. By staying informed about market trends and conducting ongoing evaluations, the Company aims to make informed investment decisions and manage risks effectively.

The Company holds a long-term investment in a privately held retail company, which introduces investment risks. These risks include factors such as business performance, market dynamics, regulatory changes, competitive landscape, and other industry-specific risks. The value and success of the investment are dependent on the ability of the underlying company to achieve its strategic objectives and generate sustainable returns. The Company regularly monitors the performance and prospects of this investment, market conditions, and industry-specific risks affecting the investment and incorporates risk assessments into its investment strategies.

It is important to note that investment risk cannot be completely eliminated, as it is inherent in the investment process. The Company recognizes that investments carry inherent uncertainties, and actual outcomes may differ from estimates and projections. Therefore, the Company remains diligent in its investment activities, continuously evaluates investment opportunities, and adjusts its investment strategy as necessary to navigate investment-related risks effectively.

d) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of certain trade receivables with other Canadian licensed producers, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

The expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables was assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to have incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is reevaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	2,787	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	512	250
31 – 60 days past due	248	95
61 – 90 days past due	156	69
90 + days past due	1,184	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(871)	(654)
Other receivables	259	452
Total	4,275	7,751

The following table shows the changes in the provision for credit losses for trade and other receivables:

	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Opening balance	654	762
Write-offs	-	(1,976)
Expected credit losses	217	1,868
Total	871	654

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they primarily originate from government agencies, national insurance companies and a credit card company.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 82% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 59% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

During the year, the Company settled $2,000 in accounts payable by delivering its products to a counterparty from whom the Company had made purchases, resulting in an equivalent accounts receivable balance. This transaction led to the offsetting of accounts receivable and accounts payable, effectively setting them to zero. Consequently, no cash flow was generated from the bulk wholesale revenue, and both the accounts payable and accounts receivable were fully eliminated.

e) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $527,810. For the year ended March 31, 2023, cash flow from operations is negative. Refer to note 2, Going Concern.

As at March 31, 2023, the Company has total current assets of $25,848 (March 31, 2022 – $36,835) and total current liabilities of $31,266 (March 31, 2022 – $72,995), providing for net current liability of $5,418 (March 31, 2022 – net current liability of $36,160). The significant change during the year March 31, 2023 is a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 Convertible Debenture.

The Company has the following undiscounted future payments for convertible debenture, credit facilities, lease obligations, loan payable, and purchase commitments as at March 31, 2023:

	within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years and thereafter
	$	$	$	$	$
Convertible debenture	-	12,350	-	12,350	14,736
Credit facilities	12,882	-	-	-	-
Lease obligations	260	1,072	511	11	2
Promissory note	-	4,500	-	-	-
Purchase commitments	506	-	-	-	-
Total	13,648	17,922	511	12,361	14,738

Note 20 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these consolidated financial statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10,000 in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if an early settlement is not achieved. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500,000 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy ("CEWS") for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem Cannabis Corporation and has proposed a claw back in the amount of $3,200 related to the CEWS funds provided to the Company. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings and intends to file a Notice of Objection. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received

CEWS funds. At this time, it is not possible to make a reasonable and reliable estimate of the likelihood of the outcome of the dispute. Accordingly, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

Note 21 Income Taxes

The Company has non-capital losses carried forward of approximately $263,000 available to reduce income taxes in future years which expire from 2030 to 2041. The Company has not recognized any deferred income tax assets. The Company recognizes deferred income tax assets based on the extent to which it is probable that sufficient taxable income will be realized during the carry forward periods to utilize all deferred tax assets.

The following table reconciles the amount of income tax recoverable on application of the statutory Canadian federal and provincial income tax rates for the twelve and fifteen months ended, respectively:

Loss and comprehensive loss for the year	(34,607)	(169,867)

Note 22 Segment Reporting

An operating segment is a component of an entity for which separate financial information is available and whose operating results are reviewed regularly by the entity's chief operating decision maker to make resource allocation decisions and assess performance. An operating segment also engages in business activities from which it may earn revenue and incur expenses. The Company has determined that it has only one operating segment that meets the above criteria, and for which separate financial information is available.

The Company's revenue is derived from different geographic regions. During the year, the revenue breakdown was as follows: 95% of the total net revenue originated from Canada (March 31, 2022 - 98%), and 5% was originated from Europe and Australia (March 31, 2022 - 2%).

All of the Company's long-lived assets are located in Canada.

Note 23 Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale

In connection with the Company's business transformation plan, during the year ended March 31, 2023, the Company initiated the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse and listed the asset for sale.

The most significant estimates and assumptions include those related to the inputs used in accounting for assets classified as held for sale including the estimated fair value less costs to sell. In calculating the estimated fair value less costs to sell, management is required to make a number of estimates, including determining the appropriate comparable assets, calculating the estimated costs to get the asset ready for sale, and the estimated costs required to execute and complete the sale. In formulating management's estimated fair value less costs to sell, management reviewed third-party valuation reports, proposals received, actual selling prices of other greenhouses, and asking prices of other greenhouses, among other sources of information. The Company estimated the fair value less costs to sell of $10,000, and accordingly has recorded an impairment loss of $3,000 and $5,578, for the three and twelve months ended March 31, 2023. The impairment loss was included in impairment of property, plant and equipment in the Consolidated Statements of Profit or Loss and Comprehensive Profit or Loss. The facility is actively being marketed and readily available for sale. The sale of the facility is considered probable as multiple proposals have been put forth to the Company. The sale of the Grimsby greenhouse facility is expected to occur within a year.

The following table presents the major classes of assets and liabilities related to the operations of the Grimsby greenhouse:

	March 31, 2023
Land	1,051
Building	8,949
Assets held for sale	10,000
Credit facility	4,375
Liabilities held for sale	4,375

The liability held for sale was determined by comparing the estimated relative fair value of the Grimsby property to the Paris property at the time the facility/loan was granted. This ratio was utilized to establish the loan balance when the Grimsby property was classified as held for sale. The term facility is secured by a first lien on the Paris and Grimsby facilities, as disclosed in Note 11 - Credit Facilities.

Note 24 Comparative Figures

Reclassifications have been undertaken for the prior period comparative figures to enhance comparability with the current period financial statements. The objective of these reclassifications is to present more detailed information in the consolidated statement of financial position by adjusting the grouping of specific accounts. These reclassifications had no impact on the net loss or shareholders' equity. Their purpose of is to facilitate a better understanding of the financial position, provide a higher level of granularity, and enhance the overall presentation of the consolidated statement of financial position.

The following reclassifications were made to enhance the disclosure of certain figures:

Consolidated Statements of Financial Position	As Reported	Adjustment	As Reclassified
Cash	1,356	(9)	1,347
Restricted cash	213	9	222
Trade and other receivables, net	11,085	(3,334)	7,751
Net tax receivable	-	530	530
Prepays and deposits	3,775	(823)	2,952
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	27,626	(3,627)	23,999

Note 25 Events After the Reporting Period

On June 6, 2023, Red White & Bloom Brands Inc. ("RWB") and Aleafia (the "Company") entered into a Binding Letter Agreement whereby RWB has agreed to acquire Aleafia and its subsidiaries in a business combination transaction (the "Proposed Transaction") to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario).

Under the terms of the Binding Letter Agreement, each outstanding common share in the capital of Aleafia (each, an "Aleafia Share") will be exchanged for 0.35 of a common share in the capital of the Company (each, an "RWB Share"), subject to customary adjustment (the "Exchange Ratio"). Upon the completion of the Proposed Transaction, existing RWB shareholders are expected to own approximately 76% of the Combined Company resulting from the Proposed Transaction (the "Combined Company") and Aleafia shareholders are expected to own approximately 24% of the Combined Company.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction, at which time additional information will be provided in a subsequent press release.

Summary of the Proposed Transaction

The Proposed Transaction is expected to be completed by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, RWB will acquire all of the issued and outstanding Aleafia Shares in exchange for RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding options and warrants to purchase Aleafia Shares will become exercisable to acquire RWB Shares on the same terms and conditions, on the basis of the Exchange Ratio. Outstanding restricted and deferred share units of Aleafia will be settled upon closing in RWB Shares on the basis of the Exchange Ratio.

The Proposed Transaction will require the approval of: (a) (i) two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders of Aleafia, and, if required, (ii) a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Aleafia shareholders in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions ("MI 61-101"), at a special meeting of Aleafia shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the "Aleafia Meeting"); (b) debenture holders of the requisite percentage of the principal amount of each series of Aleafia Convertible Debentures (“Debentureholder Approval”); and (c) if required, RWB shareholders at a special meeting of RWB shareholders expected to take place in the third quarter of 2023 (the “RWB Meeting”).

Completion of the Proposed Transaction will be subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of necessary court and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval. Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, the Proposed Transaction is expected to close by on October 31, 2023 (the “Effective Time”).

A copy of the Letter Agreement will be filed on Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com. Prior to entering into a definitive arrangement agreement, all members of the board of directors of Aleafia, all officers of Aleafia and certain other security holders of Aleafia, will enter into customary support and voting agreements.

The Letter Agreement provides for the parties to enter into a definitive arrangement agreement setting out the final terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction on or before July 31, 2023. The Letter Agreement contains, and the arrangement agreement will continue to contain, standard non-solicitation and superior proposal provisions and a break fee of C$2 million. The Letter Agreement includes, and arrangement agreement will continue to include other provisions such as conditions to closing the Proposed Transaction, and representations and warranties and covenants customary for arrangement agreements. Further details with respect to the Proposed Transaction will be included in the arrangement agreement and in an information circular to be mailed to Aleafia shareholders in connection with the Aleafia Meeting and to holders of Aleafia Convertible Debentures, as applicable, and to RWB shareholders in connection with the RWB meeting (if required). Once available, copies of the arrangement agreement and information circular will be filed on each of Aleafia and RWB’s SEDAR profiles at www.sedar.com, as applicable.

Concurrent with entering into the Binding Letter Agreement, the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, made as of December 24, 2021, between Aleafia and certain subsidiaries as borrowers, with other subsidiaries as guarantors, and NE SPC II LP as lender, and subsequently amended on March 28, 2022, June 17, 2022, April 26, 2023, May 15, 2023, and May 31, 2023, was assigned by NE SPC II LP to RWB.

On June 6, 2023, concurrent with the execution of the Binding Letter Agreement Aleafia was advanced $1.5 million.

As part of the Proposed Transaction, the Company expects to settle the 8.5% Series A Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2024, the 8.5% Series B Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2026, and the 8.5% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures due June 30, 2028 (collectively, the “Aleafia Convertible Debentures”) for an aggregate of $6,000 at the Effective Time (subject to Debentureholder approval). The funding for the settlement of the Aleafia Convertible Debentures, along with the assignment of the Aleafia Senior Secured Loan Agreement, is intended to be funded through a new secured $30,000 credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”). The New Credit Facility will also serve to support working capital requirements, growth initiatives, and the RWB Credit Facility, a $17,500 credit facility being negotiated by RWB and Aleafia. The RWB Credit Facility will facilitate cash settlement, working capital requirements, and promissory note repayment, and will include covenants and reporting requirements.

The specific terms of the New Credit Facility and the RWB Credit Facility will be confirmed upon the execution of final funding agreements and the completion of the Proposed Transaction. These actions aim to enhance liquidity and improve financial flexibility by supporting working capital requirements and funding growth initiatives. The negotiations for the RWB Credit Facility are being conducted in accordance with customary practices and are expected to be finalized within 30 days.

As at the consolidated financial statements’ balance sheet date of March 31, 2023, the Proposed Transaction and the related subsequent events had not yet been completed. Consequently, the consolidated financial statements do not reflect the impact of the Proposed Transaction. The Company will reassess and determine the appropriate accounting treatment once the Proposed Transaction is finalized and all necessary approvals are obtained.

Twelve Months Ended December 31, 2020

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health Inc.:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") were prepared by management, which is responsible for the integrity and fairness of the information presented, including the many amounts that out of necessity are based on estimates and judgements. These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded, and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements.

The Board of Directors oversees the responsibilities of management for financial reporting through an Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors. This Audit Committee reviews the consolidated financial statements and recommends them to the Board of Directors for approval. They meet regularly with management to review internal control procedures and advise directors on accounting matters and financial reporting issues.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2022 and the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the 15-month period then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at March 31, 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and cash flows for the 15-month period then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the 15-month period ended March 31, 2022. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. The key audit matters to be communicated in our auditors' report are as follows:

Impairment of goodwill, intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

We draw attention to Notes 3(b), 7 and 8 to the consolidated financial statements. Goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets are not amortized, but are reviewed for impairment annually or more frequently when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of a cash generating unit ("CGU") exceeds its recoverable amount. Intangible assets with finite lives and property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. During the 15-month period ended March 31, 2022, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $11.3 million for goodwill, $53.1 million for intangible assets and $28.8 million for property, plant and equipment. Estimating the recoverable amount of CGUs and intangible assets is complex and is subject to significant judgments in relation to assumptions used by management. Significant assumptions used by management to estimate the recoverable amount include growth and discount rates, as well as future revenues, gross margins and recoverable values.

We identified the evaluation of the impairment of goodwill and intangible assets as a key audit matter as significant auditor judgment and the involvement of professionals with specialized skill and knowledge were required to evaluate the Company's methods and use of estimates, assumptions and judgments in estimating the recoverable amount of the Company's CGUs.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We obtained an understanding of the controls and control activities in place related to the determination and management's review of significant assumptions used in the calculation.
- We performed sensitivity testing to consider the impact of changes in certain assumptions on the estimate of recoverable amount.
- With the assistance of a valuation specialist:
 - 1) We evaluated whether the valuation techniques used in estimating the recoverable amounts were appropriate.
 - 2) We compared the discount rate used to the weighted average cost of capital and evaluated the reasonableness based on publicly available information for comparable companies.
 - 3) We compared growth rates used by management to historical information, approved budgets, the Company's production capacity, as well as industry standards.

Valuation of biological assets and cannabis inventory

We draw attention to Notes 3(a), 13 and 14 to the consolidated financial statements. Biological assets are measured at fair value less cost to sell at the stage of completion. The Company values inventories of harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

In estimating the fair value of biological assets, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, average yield per plant, harvesting costs, selling costs, selling price, and the allocation of indirect costs, which form part of the standard cost per gram to complete production. In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value.

We identified measurement of the fair value of biological assets and net realizable value of cannabis inventory as key audit matters as a high degree of auditor judgment was required to evaluate the significant assumptions and estimates made by management.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We performed sensitivity analyses over the Company's significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of biological assets to assess the impact of changes in those assumptions on the Company's determination of fair value.
- We tested the stage of growth by observing the plants at year-end.
- We tested the average expected yield per plant by comparing actual results of the current year to historical results of operations.
- We tested the average selling price per gram by comparing to estimates used by management to actual sales prices per gram in actual sales transaction during and subsequent to year-end.
- We also tested the net realizable value of inventory by comparing the carrying value of inventory to the prices earned from sales transactions near and subsequent to year-end.

Emphasis of Matter – Restated Comparative Information

We draw attention to note 23 to the consolidated financial statements, which explains that certain comparative information presented for the year ended December 31, 2020 has been restated. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

The consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2020, excluding the adjustments that were applied to restate certain comparative information as described in note 23, were audited by another auditor who expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements on March 24, 2021.

As part of our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the period ended March 31, 2022, we also audited the adjustments that were applied to restate certain comparative information for the year ended December 31, 2020 as described in note 23. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information, which comprises the information included in the Company's Management's Discussion and Analysis to be filed with the relevant Canadian securities commissions.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion on thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditor's report. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going-concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Christopher Hiestand.

Note 1 Nature of Operations

Aleafia Health (the “Company”) is a publicly traded corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health’s head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

The Company is a vertically integrated and federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis health and wellness services and products in Canada. The Company also sells cannabis products destined for international markets, including Australia and Germany to third parties. The Company owns and operates a virtual network of medical cannabis clinics staffed by physicians and nurse practitioners.

The Company owns three licensed cannabis production facilities and operates a strategically located distribution centre all in the province of Ontario, including the first large-scale, outdoor cannabis cultivation facility in Canadian history. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual strips, topicals and vapes, for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets, and in select international jurisdictions.

The common shares of the Company commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) (symbol “AH”), on May 27, 2020. Previously, common shares were traded on the TSX Venture Exchange Inc. under a different ticker symbol from March 18, 2019.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

These consolidated financial statements were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution from the Board of Directors on June 27, 2022.

Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, with the exception of financial instruments which are measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies set out below. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information. The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar.

In February 2022, Company changed its reporting year end from December 31 to March 31 to accommodate the shortage of personnel in public accounting firms. Accordingly, the current period is for the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 whereas the comparative period is for the twelve months ended December 31, 2022.

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all years presented in these consolidated financial statements.

Going concern assumption

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $493,203 (December 31, 2020 – $323,336) and a working capital deficiency of $36,160. In addition, the Company did not pay a scheduled interest payment on its convertible debentures on December 31, 2021 and is currently working under a Forbearance Agreement with certain debenture holders. These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

These consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options to meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, issuance of common shares via its at-the-market equity financing program, issuing common shares via a public equity offering, share capital, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Refinance or amend the term of its convertible debentures and credit facility.
- Raise additional debt and equity financing; and
- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing in the future on terms favourable for the Company.

Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, as presented below. Subsidiaries are those entities which the Company controls by having the power to govern the financial and operational policies of the entity. This control is generally evidenced through owning more than 50% of the voting rights or currently exercisable potential voting rights of a company's share capital. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. All Subsidiaries, except for the inactive are for the purpose of carrying out the Company's business in the normal course and are domiciled in Canada. Inactive subsidiaries are holding companies.

a) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash in the consolidated statements of financial position is comprised of cash in banks and on hand, and short-term deposits which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash and are subject to insignificant risk with respect to its value and liquidity.

b) Restricted cash

Restricted cash includes cash held as collateral against certain bank credit card facilities. It also includes Canadian bank issued preferred shares, which is subject to trading restrictions that are greater than 90 days.

c) Biological assets

The Company measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from the changes in fair value less cost to sell during the period are recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets between the initial planting to the point of harvest including labour, labour related, fertilizer, utilities and facility costs and amortization of related production equipment. Seeds are measured at fair market value. Upon harvest, the fair value adjustments including all the capitalized costs are transferred from biological assets to inventory and form the cost basis of the inventory.

d) Inventory

The Company's inventories include harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Inventories of harvested cannabis are transferred from biological assets at their fair value at harvest, which becomes the initial cost. Fair value includes capitalized costs and unrealized fair value adjustments. Any subsequent post-harvest costs are capitalized to inventory to the extent that cost is less than net realizable value. Inventories of fertilizers and nutrients include costs of purchases net of vendor allowances plus other costs, such as transportation, that are directly incurred to bring the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. The cost of inventories is determined using the weighted average cost basis.

Inventories are written down to net realizable value when the cost of inventories is estimated to be unrecoverable due to obsolescence, damage, or declining market prices. When the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist or when there is apparent evidence of an increase in selling price then the amount of the write-down previously recorded is reversed. Storage costs, indirect administrative overhead, and certain other selling costs related to inventories are expensed in the period incurred.

e) Property, plant, and equipment

The Company's property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment write-downs.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of the asset. The cost includes the cost of materials and direct labor, site preparation costs, installation and assembly costs, and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the assets to the location and conditions necessary for the assets to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. The cost of property, plant and equipment also includes any applicable borrowing costs. Borrowing costs are capitalized to property, plant, and equipment until such time that the constructed asset is substantially complete and ready for its intended use.

Property, plant, and equipment are depreciated at the following annual rates and methods:

Computer equipment and software	30% on a declining basis
Office furniture and equipment	20% on a declining basis
Buildings	25 years on a straight-line basis
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line over the remaining term of the lease

Estimates for depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting period and adjusted, if appropriate.

Significant components of property, plant and equipment that are identified as having different useful lives are depreciated separately over their respective useful lives. Depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values, if applicable, are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, on a prospective basis at the end of each fiscal year as a change in estimate. Gains and losses on disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of the property, plant and equipment and are recognized in profit or loss.

f) Leases

Right of use assets

The Company recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease [i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use]. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Unless the Company is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful life and the lease term. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment.

Lease obligation

At the commencement date of the lease, the Company recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

g) Share-based payments

Share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the estimated fair value of the instruments issued on the grant date and amortized over the vesting period. Share-based payments to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued if it is determined the fair value of the goods or services cannot be reliably measured and are recorded at the date the goods or services are received. The amount recognized as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards expected to vest. The offset to the recorded cost is to equity settled share-based payments reserve.

Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital and the related equity settled share-based payments reserve is transferred to share capital. Charges for options that are forfeited before vesting are reversed from contributed surplus.

Share-based compensation expense relating to deferred share units is accrued over the vesting period of the units based on the quoted market price on the date of issuance. As these awards can be settled in cash, the expense and liability are adjusted each reporting year for changes in the underlying share price.

h) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when it is probable that the Company is required to settle an obligation (legal or constructive), as a result of a past event, and the obligation can be reliably estimated. The provision represents the Company's best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting year. When a provision is determined using the expected cash flow method, the carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When some or all of the amounts required to settle a provision are expected to be recoverable from a third party, a receivable is recognized when it is virtually certain reimbursement is receivable and the expected reimbursement can be reliably measured.

i) Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted loss per share data for its common shares, calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share does not adjust the loss attributable to common shareholders or the weighted average number of common shares outstanding when the effect is anti-dilutive.

j) Income taxes

Current income taxes are the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted, and includes any adjustments to tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. Deferred income taxes are recorded using the liability method whereby deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the date of the statements of financial position. Deferred tax is not recognized for temporary differences which arise on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting, nor taxable profit or loss.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

k) Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. In the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit and loss ("FVTPL") transaction costs are included in the carry amount of the asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVTPL are expensed in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. Financial assets are subsequently measured at:

- a. FVTPL
- b. Amortized cost
- c. Fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”)
- d. Equity instruments designated at FVOCI; or
- e. Financial instruments designated at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at:

- f. FVTPL
- g. Amortized cost

The classification is based on whether the contractual cash flow characteristics represent “solely payment of principal and interest” as well as the business model under which the financial assets are managed. Financial liabilities held by the Company are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost.

l) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of the Company’s non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment at each statement of financial position date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the cash-generating unit, or “CGU”). The recoverable amount of an asset or a CGU is the higher of its fair value, less cost to sell, and its value in use. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment charge is recognized immediately in profit or loss by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the recoverable amount. Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the lesser of the revised estimate of recoverable amount and the carrying amount that would have been recorded had no impairment loss been recognized previously.

m) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses, on a forward-looking basis, the expected credit losses associated with its financial instruments carried at amortized cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether the asset originated from a contract that is in the scope of IFRS 15 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (IFRS 15) or if there have been significant increases in credit risk.

Accounts receivable - For accounts receivable and contract assets, the Company applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by IFRS 9 - Financial Instruments (IFRS 9), which requires the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all accounts receivable and contract assets within the scope of IFRS 15. The Company has established a provision based on the Company’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Cash equivalents - For cash equivalents and short-term investments at amortized cost, the Company applies the general approach to providing for expected credit losses. These instruments are considered to be low credit risk, and therefore, the impairment provision is determined using a 12-month expected credit loss basis.

n) Intangible assets

Intangible assets consist mainly of Health Canada Licenses to produce and sell cannabis, power contracts, brand names and licenses, patient lists and scientific and medical research assets. Acquired Health Canada Licenses to produce and sell cannabis, power contracts and similar assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. Any impairment of intangible assets is recognized in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss but increases in intangible asset values are not recognized.

Estimated useful lives of intangible assets are the shorter of the economic life and the year the right is legally enforceable. The assets' useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each statement of financial position date.

At each financial position reporting date, the carrying amounts of the Company's long-lived assets, including property and equipment and intangible assets, are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets are impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. Where the asset does not generate cash flows that are independent from other assets, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the asset belongs.

Finite-lived intangible assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the following terms:

Health Canada licenses	24 years
OPA power contracts	14 years
Brand names and licenses	5 to 15 years
Patient lists	10 years
Scientific and medical research agreement	7 years
IP & R&D	indefinite

The estimated useful life and amortization methods are reviewed at the end of each reporting year, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

o) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the price paid for the acquisition of an entity over the fair value of the net identifiable tangible and intangible assets and liabilities acquired on the date of acquisition less any impairment losses. Goodwill is allocated to the CGU to which it relates. Goodwill is measured at historical cost and is evaluated for impairment annually and more often if events or circumstances indicate there may be impairment.

Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing if the carrying value of a CGU, including the allocated goodwill, exceeds its recoverable amount determined as the greater of the estimated fair value less costs to sell and the value in use. Impairment losses recognized in respect of a CGU are first allocated to the carrying value of goodwill and any excess is allocated to the carrying amount of assets in the CGU. Any goodwill impairment is recorded in other expenses in the year in which the impairment is identified. Impairment losses on goodwill are not subsequently reversed.

p) Segment reporting

IFRS 8 - Operating Segments requires operating segments to be determined based on internal reports that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker for the purpose of allocating resources to the segment and to assessing its performance. The Company has one reportable segment, the cultivation of cannabis plants, and production and sale of cannabis flower, extracts and other derivatives, all of which supply four different sales channels: adult use, medical, international and wholesale.

q) Revenue recognition

The Company derives revenue primarily from the sale of cannabis and cannabis products. Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of the promised goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Performance obligations are satisfied, and revenue is recognized, either over time or at a point in time. Certain activities may give rise to deferred revenue, which are contract liabilities under IFRS 15 and relate to payments received in advance of performance under contracts with customers. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue as (or when) the Company satisfies its performance obligations under the contracts.

Under bill-and-hold arrangements – whereby the Company bills a customer for product to be delivered at a later date – control typically transfers when the product is still in the Company's physical possession, and title and risk of loss has passed to the customer. Revenue is recognized when all specific requirements for transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met. There are no bill and hold arrangements as at March 31, 2022.

The provision for sales returns is an estimate used in the recognition of revenue in connection with contract liabilities identified in contracts with customers. The Company has a return policy that allows wholesalers to return product within a specified period prior to, and subsequent to, the expiration date. Provisions for returns are recognized in the period in which the underlying sales are recognized, as a reduction of product sales revenue. The Company estimates provisions for returns based upon historical data to determine return percentages and current market conditions, representing management's best estimate. Historical experience may not always be an accurate indicator of future returns, and therefore the Company continually monitors return provisions and adjusts when it believes that actual product returns may differ from amounts recorded. As at March 31, 2022, contract liabilities of $120 (December 31, 2020 – $nil) is recorded in accounts payable and accrued liabilities in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Amounts disclosed as net revenue are net of sales tax, duty tax, allowances, returns provision, price adjustments, discounts and rebates.

Sale of cannabis: Revenue from the sale of cannabis is recognized when the Company transfers control to the customer upon delivery or the time of the product pickup from the Company's facilities by the customer based on the contract-by-contract basis between the Company and the customer, or in the case of bill-and-hold arrangements, when specific requirements have been met.

Medical consultation: The Company provides medical services to patients on a scheduled appointment fixed fee basis. Performance of the service is considered complete at the conclusion of the appointment and revenue is recognized at a point in time.

Note 3 Significant Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. These consolidated financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimate is revised and future years if the revision affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions, and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income, and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

a) Biological assets and inventory

In calculating the value of the biological assets and inventory, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, harvesting costs, selling costs, sales price, wastage and expected yields for the cannabis plant.

In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value, estimated useful lives and impairment of CGUs and goodwill.

b) Valuation of intangibles and goodwill

The impairment test for each CGU to which goodwill is allocated based on the value in use of the CGU, is determined in accordance with the expected cash flow approach. The calculation is based on assumptions used to estimate future cash flows, the cash flow growth rate and the discount rates. The Company exercises significant judgement in determining CGUs. Due to the realignment and cost rationalizations enacted by the Company in the current period, the Company has identified two CGUs, down from four in the prior year, which are Emblem Cannabis Corporation and Aleafia Farms . During the twelve months ended December 31, 2020, there were four, 1. Aleafia Farms Inc., 2. Emblem Cannabis Corporation, 3. Canabo Medical Corporation (“CMC”) and 4. branded cannabis product development and related retail operations.

Depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are dependent upon estimates of useful lives, which are determined through the exercise of judgment. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets.

c) Revenue recognition

Estimates are used when the Company recognizes certain wholesale revenue depending on when quality inspection periods have either lapsed or the Company is confident have been satisfied. Also, significant judgment is exercised to determine if all the specific requirements for the transfer of control under a bill-and- hold arrangement have been met and revenue can be recognized. Significant judgment is exercised to determine when certain conditions have been met for product destined for international markets.

d) Valuation of share-based payments

In calculating the share-based compensation expense, key estimates such as the rate of forfeiture of options granted, the expected life of the option, the volatility of the Company’s stock price and the risk-free interest rate are used. In calculating the fair value of the warrants, the Company includes key assumptions such as the volatility of the Company’s stock price, the value of the common share, and the risk-free interest rate.

e) Income taxes

Income taxes and tax exposures recognized in the consolidated financial statements reflect management’s best estimate based on facts known at the reporting date. When the Company anticipates a future income tax payment based on its estimates, it recognizes a liability. The difference between the expected amount and the final tax outcome has an impact on current and deferred taxes when the Company becomes aware of this difference. In addition, when the Company incurs losses for income tax purposes, it assesses the probability of taxable income being available in the future based on its budgeted forecasts. These forecasts are adjusted to take into account certain non-taxable income and expenses and specific rules on the use of unused credits and tax losses. When the forecasts indicate that sufficient future taxable income will be available to deduct the temporary differences, a deferred tax asset is recognized for all deductible temporary differences.

Note 4 Accounting Pronouncements Recently Adopted

Interest Rate Benchmark Reform - Phase 2 (Amendments to IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, IFRS 9, Financial Instruments, IFRS 4, Insurance Contracts, IFRS 16, Leases, and IAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement): The amendments address the effects of the reform on a company's financial statements that arise when, for example, an interest rate benchmark used to calculate interest on a financial asset is replaced with an alternative benchmark rate. The amendments address specific hedge accounting requirements and permit a practical expedient for modifications of financial assets, financial liabilities, and lease liabilities required by the IBOR (interbank offered rate) reform. The amendments also require additional disclosures for users to understand the nature and extent of risks arising from the IBOR reform and how the entity manages those risks. The objective is to support companies in applying IFRS Standards when changes are made to contractual cash flows or hedging relationships because of the reform; and assist companies in providing useful information to users of financial statements. The amendment applies for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2020, with earlier application permitted.

The Company adopted the amendment effective January 1, 2020, resulting in no impact on the Company's Financial Statements.

Amendments to IFRS 16, Leases. The amendments to IFRS 16 issued in May 2020 provided lessees with an exemption from assessing whether a COVID-19-related rent concession is a lease modification, and instead required lessees that applied the exemption to account for COVID-19-related rent concessions as if they were not lease modifications. The amendment extended the applicable payments due on or before June 30, 2022. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2021 and are to be applied retrospectively.

The Company did not receive rent concessions as a result of COVID-19, resulting in no impact on the Company's Financial Statements.

Future Accounting Pronouncements

Standards issued but not effective up to the date of issuance of these consolidated financial statements are described below. Pronouncements that are irrelevant or not expected to have a significant impact have been excluded. The Company will adopt these standards as they become effective.

Amendments to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements. In January 2020, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements to specify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments specify that the conditions which exist at the end of the reporting period are those which will be used to determine if a right to defer settlement of a liability exists. The amendments clarify the situations that are considered settlement of a liability. The new guidance will be effective for annual periods starting on or after January 1, 2023.

Amendments to IAS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors. In February 2021, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 8 to introduce a new definition of accounting estimates to help entities to distinguish between accounting policies and accounting estimates. The amendments clarify what changes in accounting estimates are and how these differ from changes in accounting policies and corrections of errors. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the Company.

Amendments to IFRS 9, Financial Instruments. The amendments to IFRS 9 clarify which fees an entity includes when it applies the "10 percent test" in assessing whether to derecognize a financial liability. An entity includes only fees paid or received between the entity (the borrower) and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the entity or the lender on the other's behalf. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022 and are to be applied prospectively.

The Company will apply the amendment to financial liabilities that are modified or exchanged on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendment. The implementation of this amendment is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company.

Amendments to IAS 12, Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction. In May 2021, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 12 to reduce diversity in the way that entities account for deferred tax on transactions and events, such as leases and decommissioning obligations, that lead to the initial recognition of both an asset and a liability. The amendment clarifies that the initial recognition exception does not apply to the initial recognition of leases and decommissioning obligations. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company will apply the amendment as necessary.

Amendments to IAS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment. In June 2019, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 16 which prohibits entities from deducting from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment (PP&E), any sales proceeds earned from selling items produced while bringing that asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Instead, such sales proceeds must be recognized in profit or loss. The amendment will also require an entity to identify and measure the cost of items produced before an item of PP&E is available for use, applying the existing measurement requirements of IAS 2 Inventories, not require additional specific presentation and disclosure requirements in relation to the sale of items that are part of the entity's ordinary activities, and will require additional disclosures in relation to the sale of items that are not part of an entity's ordinary activities. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022, with early adoption permitted. The amendment is not expected to have a material impact on the Company.

Amendments to IFRS 3, Definition of a business: The amendment to IFRS 3 Business Combinations clarifies that to be considered a business, an integrated set of activities and assets must include, at a minimum, an input and a substantive process that, together, significantly contribute to the ability to create output. Furthermore, it clarifies that a business can exist without including all of the inputs and processes needed to create outputs. These amendments had no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Company but may impact future periods should the Company enter into any business combinations.

Note 5 Marketable Securities

On May 10, 2021, the Company (specifically, wholly owned subsidiaries, Canabo and GrowWise) completed the sale of certain clinic related assets to Myconic Capital Corp (d.b.a Wellbeing Digital Sciences Limited "WDSL"). Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA"), certain inventory and equipment was sold, in addition to the assignment of research revenue and clinic leases. The Company continues to staff and operate the clinics through a service agreement. In consideration for the sale and assignment of certain agreements, Myconic Capital Corp, issued and delivered a total of 7,000,000 common shares subject to statutory and contractual lock up provisions, with a fair value of $12,250 on the date of closing.

The sale resulted in the derecognition of certain right of use assets with a net book value of $255 and related lease obligations of $329. In addition, equipment with a net book value of $232 were sold.

The gain on sale of Canabo and GrowWise net assets was determined as follows:

Consideration	12,250
Assets sold/assigned	(487)
Liabilities assumed	329
Gain on sale	12,092

The Myconic Capital Corp common shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss. The marketable securities are classified as Level 1 on the fair value hierarchy as they have quoted prices in an active market.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, 5,600,000 common shares became available to trade. The remaining 1,400,000 common shares became available to trade on May 11, 2022.

On April 11, 2022, the Company terminated its Clinic License and Services Agreement with WDSL. As a result, certain revenue streams that were assigned to WDSL as part of the Services Agreement will revert to the Company such as Provincial billings for physician services and clinic education fees. Additionally, any unexpired leases which were unassigned as of the date of the termination reverted to the Company. The termination does not impact any consideration paid to the Company and the remaining shares became available to trade on May 11, 2022.

Note 6 Right-of-Use Asset and Lease Liability

The Company entered into an office lease agreement, commencing June 1, 2020 for its corporate operations. The term of the lease is 5 years and expires on July 31, 2025. As at March 31, 2022, the undiscounted commitment for the remaining office lease term is approximately $2,984. The balance of the lease right of use assets and obligations are relate to leased equipment.

Depreciation relating to manufacturing equipment and production facilities for owned and right-of-use lease assets is capitalized to biological assets and inventory and is expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods. During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recognized depreciation expense of $12,093 (December 31, 2020 – $7,258), of which $2,256 (December 31, 2020 – $834) was included in cost of sales, $7,676 (December 31, 2020 – $4,219) was included in operating expenses, and the remaining balance of $2,161 (December 31, 2020 – $2,205) was included in biological assets and inventory.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company had additions of $4,659, of which $892 was previously recorded as deposit on the consolidated statements of financial position.

In response to indicators of impairment identified during the three months ended December 31, 2021, the Company estimated the fair value less costs of disposal of certain property, plant and equipment based on information including appraisals, which resulted in an impairment of $5,312 to its equipment and furniture and $23,488 to its buildings. The total impairment of $28,800 is recorded in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The estimated fair value less costs of disposal of the property, plant and equipment at March 31, 2022 used Level 3 inputs and involved significant management estimates and adjustments. Management's estimates could differ in future periods.

Note 8 Goodwill and Intangible Assets

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recognized non-cash impairment charges of $11,314 related to goodwill and $53,093 related to its intangible assets subject to amortization. In response to indicators of impairment identified during the third quarter, specifically a significant decline in market capitalization, and recent and projected financial performance not meeting the Company's expectations due to changes in market dynamics, increased competition and price compression in the industry, the Company performed an impairment analysis on its intangible assets subject to amortization and goodwill for both CGUs. The recoverable amount for each CGU were based on its value in use ("VIU") which was determined to be less than its carrying value. The VIU was estimated using level 3 inputs (refer to Note 19) and a discounted cash flow analysis approach. The significant assumptions applied in the determination of the recoverable amount are described below for the discounted cash flow method. Estimated cash flows were projected based on actual operating results from internal sources as well as industry and market trends. Estimated cash flows are based on historical trends, planned growth initiatives, industry and market growth trends and third party research reports and estimates. The Company utilized a five year forecast and accounted for long-term growth using a terminal value assuming a 2.5% growth rate. The weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") of 18% (December 31, 2020 - 21.5% to 24.2%), was estimated based on the risk-free rate, equity risk premium and after-tax cost of debt. As a result of the analysis, it was determined that the two CGUs had carrying values greater than the recoverable amounts.

As at March 31, 2022, the net book value of the goodwill and intangibles is $Nil (December 31, 2020 – goodwill $11,314; intangible assets $54,715). As a result of the write off of the intangible assets, the related deferred tax liability of $2,854 was written off.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recognized amortization expense of $1,621 (December 31, 2020 – $4,421), of which $678 (December 31, 2020 – $1,274) was included in cost of sales and $943 (December 31, 2020 – $3,147) was included in operating expenses.

Note 9 Share Capital

Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at March 31, 2022, there were 331,124,351 common shares issued and outstanding.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company issued 387,500 common shares, under its at-the-market equity program with an average price per share of $0.40, resulting in net proceeds of $154.

On March 9, 2021, the Company closed a bought deal offering for a total issuance of 27,390,000 units of the Company at a price per unit of $0.83 for gross proceeds of $22,734, which includes a partial exercise of the over-allotment option. Each unit consists of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase one common share at an exercise price of $1.05, for a period of 24 months following the closing of the offering. On March 9, 2021, the market price of the Company's common shares was $0.69 per share. Using the residual method, the Company assigned a value of approximately $3,835 to the 13,695,000 warrants issued. The Company paid approximately $1,712 in transaction costs. In connection with the bought deal, the Company issued 621,000 compensation warrants to the brokers. Each of the compensation warrants entitles the holder to purchase one common share at an exercise price of $0.83, for a period of 24 months following the closing of the offering. The fair value of the compensation warrants was determined to be nominal.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company issued 781,250 common shares for stock options exercised with gross proceeds of $625. The Company reclassified fair value of $334 for the options from contributed surplus to share capital in connection with the option exercises.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company issued common shares for deferred share units ("DSUs") exercised. As a result, the DSU liability was reduced by $96 with a corresponding increase to share capital.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company issued 1,050,890 common shares for warrants exercised with gross proceeds of $761. The Company reclassified the fair value of $958 for the warrants from contributed surplus to share capital in connection with the warrant exercises.

During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company issued 23,000,000 common shares at a price of $0.65 per share for aggregate gross proceeds of $15,000 which includes the full exercise of the over-allotment option and paid $1,890 as transaction costs in cash and issuance of brokers' warrants. Each unit consisted of one common share of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant with an exercise price of $0.80 and expiring in three years. In connection with the bought deal, the Company issued 1,207,500 compensation warrants and 11,500,000 subscriber warrants.

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the "Plan"), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The total stock option expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 was $2,607 (December 31, 2020 – $2,690).

The following table summarizes information relating to outstanding and exercisable stock options as at March 31, 2022:

The fair values of the stock options granted during the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following weighted average assumptions:

Weighted average share price	$0.21
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	0.69%
Weighted expected life-years	2.8 years
Weighted average expected daily volatility	87%
Weighted expected dividends	Nil
Forfeiture rate	0%

The volatility was calculated using the historical daily trading prices over a period commensurate with the expected life.

The following table summarizes the outstanding and exercisable options held by directors, officers, employees and consultants as at March 31, 2022:

Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”)

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based compensation expense anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, 1,274,000 RSUs were granted in total (December 31, 2020 – $Nil) with a weighted fair value of $0.42 per RSU. The RSUs vest in tranches with 1/12 vesting every three months over 36 months, commencing September 30, 2021, except for 114,000 RSUs which cliff vests on April 1, 2022. The total RSU expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 was $292 (December 31, 2020 – $Nil).

A summary of the RSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2022, is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2020	–

There are no RSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

At the Company's annual general meeting on June 30, 2020, shareholders passed a resolution approving the Aleafia Health Inc. deferred share unit plan (the "DSU Plan"), which was implemented during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with the other director compensation mechanisms of the Company, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board.

The deferred share units are settled in either cash or shares or combination of both, at the election of the board of Directors. The DSUs have been classified as liability in anticipation of cash settlement and are revalued at each reporting period using the quarter end Company stock price.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company granted 2,229,529 DSUs (December 31, 2020 – 148,431 DSUs). As at March 31, 2022, there were 2,030,033 DSUs issued and outstanding. As at March 31, 2022, the fair value of the DSU liability is $244 (December 31, 2020 – $73). The DSU liability is included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the consolidated statements of financial position.

A summary of the DSUs granted and outstanding as at March 31, 2022 is as follows:

Balance, December 31, 2019	–
Granted	148,431
Balance, December 31, 2020	148,431
Granted	2,229,549
Exercised/released	(347,977)
Balance, March 31, 2022	2,030,033

There are no DSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Warrants

The Company has the following warrants outstanding:

	Warrants outstanding	Weighted average exercise price

The warrants expire between June 27, 2022 and May 29, 2023.

Note 10 Key Management Compensation

Parties are considered a related if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions.

Related parties may be individuals or corporate entities. A transaction is considered a related party transaction when there is a transfer of resources or obligations between related parties. Key management includes directors and key executives of the Company.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 and twelve months ended December 31, 2020, the Company had the following transactions with the officers and directors of the Company:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020
Wages and benefits: Directors	827	371
Wages and benefits: Management	3,247	2,613
Share based compensation: Directors	57	276
Share based compensation: Management	1,680	1,860
Termination benefits: Management	730	150
	6,541	5,270

As at March 31, 2022, an amount of $429 (December 31, 2020 – $150) was due to directors and management. These amounts are non-interest bearing, unsecured, due on demand and included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 11 Loss per Share

Loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of share outstanding for the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 was 327,012,541 (December 31, 2020 – 291,589,929).

Diluted income per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding taking into consideration the weighted average impact of dilutive securities. All of the Company's potentially dilutive securities are anti-diluted during the periods presented due to losses incurred.

Note 12 Management of Capital

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to sustain a sufficient capital base so as to maintain investor, creditor, supplier, and customer confidence and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders' equity, credit facilities, lease liabilities, and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash. In the current period, the Company manages its capital with a heightened focus on maintaining and improving its liquidity. During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, there has been no other significant changes to the management of capital.

Note 13 Inventory

Inventory is comprised of the following items as at:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020
Finished goods	4,454	3,890
Work-in-progress	27,992	21,919
Supplies and consumables	2,940	1,433
Inventory provision	(13,722)	–
Total inventory	21,664	27,242

Inventory provision mostly relates to work-in-progress. In addition to the inventory provision, during the period, the Company wrote off inventory of $5,926 (December 30, 2020 – $24,922).

Note 14 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of assets in the future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate the expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future years. As at March 31, 2022, the biological assets strains consisted of indoor plants which were on average 63% complete. There were no outdoor plants.

The following table depicts the changes in the fair value measurement (unrealized gain/loss resulting from fair value changes on growth of biological assets) and the fair value of biological assets as of March 31, 2022 and December 31, 2020 as required by IFRS 13 fair value measurement.

Balance, December 31, 2019	971
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	7,870
Production costs capitalized to biological assets	5,419
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(11,749)
Balance, December 31, 2020	2,511
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	1,333
Production costs capitalized to biological assets	22,053
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(24,718)
Balance, March 31, 2022	1,179

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following significant assumptions in the valuation model:

	Indoor	Outdoor
Average fair value per gram ($)	0.98	0.16
Average yield per plant (grams)	60	750
Average of growth cycle (weeks)	13	16

The Company values cannabis plants at fair value. Management determined cost approximates fair value from the date of receiving the vegetative plants until halfway through the flowering cycle of plants. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins in the fourth week prior to harvest and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between twelve and sixteen weeks from propagation to harvest.

The fair value adjustment to biological assets and inventory sold consists of the following for the fifteen and twelve months ended:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020 restated – note 23
Realized fair value amounts included in inventory sold	120	18,591
Change in fair value on growth of biological assets	1,333	(7,870)
Fair value changes in biological assets and inventory sold	1,453	10,721

Note 15 Expenses by Nature

The consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss include the following expenses by nature for the fifteen and twelve months ended:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020
Salaries, bonuses and benefits	24,601	11,576
Share-based compensation	2,899	2,690
Termination benefits and severance costs	1,362	364
Total	28,862	14,630

Salaries, bonuses and benefits relating to manufacturing and production facilities are capitalized to inventory and then expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods. During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recognized salaries, bonuses and benefits of $24,601 (December 31, 2020 – $13,781), of which $7,842 (December 31, 2020 – $3,559) was included in cost of sales and $16,759 (December 31, 2020 – $8,017) was included in operating expenses.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recorded $400 from the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy as a reduction to wages and benefits in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. For the twelve months ended December 31, 2020, the Company recorded $4,700 as a reduction to wages and benefits. The Company does not have a defined contribution or defined benefit plan.

Note 16 Convertible Debt

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40,300. The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022,
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually,
- Convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder, and
- The Company may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2,900 debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,350.

On December 31, 2021, the Company did not make a scheduled interest payment of $1,587 and did not make the payment within the 30-day cure period, thereafter. The Company has entered into a Forbearance Agreement with Debenture holders representing 62% of the Debentures’ aggregate principal amount outstanding (the “Holders”). The Forbearance Agreement’s initial term extends to February 28, 2022, and the agreement automatically renews for 14-day periods thereafter unless notice to the contrary is provided. Under the Forbearance Agreement, the Holders, among other considerations, forebear in enforcing their rights or remedies against the Company under the Indenture and otherwise at law with respect to the non-payment of interest until the expiry of the Term. Under the Forbearance Agreement, the Holders and the Company have agreed to work expeditiously and in good faith to negotiate a potential transaction to amend the terms associated with the Convertible Debt. The accrued interest in the amount of $2,379 is recorded in accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Refer to subsequent event note 22.

Emblem Convertible Debt

On March 14, 2019, Aleafia Health acquired Emblem Corp. by way of a statutory plan of arrangement under the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act (the “Arrangement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Aleafia Health acquired all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Emblem, following Emblem’s amalgamation with Aleafia Health’s wholly-owned subsidiary, 11208578 Canada Inc., to form a new wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company continuing as Emblem Corp.

On completion of the Arrangement, Aleafia Health assumed the obligations of the convertible debentures previously issued by Emblem Corp. in February 2018 pursuant to a supplemental trust indenture dated March 2019 (the “Supplemental Indenture”). These convertible debentures were originally sold at a price of $1,000 per unit for gross proceeds of $25,000. Under the Supplemental Indenture, the convertible debentures are subject to the following terms:

- a maturity date of February 2, 2021,
- an interest rate of 8% per annum, payable semi-annually, and
- convertible at $2.3875 per share, subject to adjustment in certain events, at the option of the holder.

Upon maturity on February 2, 2021, the debt was repaid in full.

The below table summarizes the changes in the total consolidated convertible debentures.

Balance, December 31, 2019	51,009
Amortization of transaction costs	2,081
Interest accretion	3,712
Balance, December 31, 2020	56,802
Repayment of convertible debt	(25,650)
Interest accretion	5,249
Balance, March 31, 2022	36,401

Note 17 Credit Facilities

Credit Facility – Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12,000 and access to a revolving facility up to $7,000. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime (with a floor of 3.45%) rate plus 9%, annually, with an effective interest rate of 14.8%. Under the agreement, the Company prepaid interest of $749. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding.

The Company received net proceeds of $10,798 on December 24, 2021.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement on the Company.

During the period, the Company breached its financial covenant under the term facility and incurred an acknowledgement fee of $60, which is included in the amortized cost. The amount drawn from the revolving facility as at March 31, 2022 was $500.

The amortization of the credit facility as at March 31, 2022:

Balance, December 31, 2020	—
Amortized cost	11,440
Penalty	60
Interest accretion	73
Interest expense	397
Interest paid	(397)
Credit facility	11,573
Revolver	500

Subsequent to March 31, 2022, the Company drew down an aggregate of $1,271 against the revolving facility. The remaining undrawn balance available is $5,229.

Credit Facility – Non Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10,000 for working capital and general corporate purposes. The term of the loan is for one year and bears simple interest at a rate of 12%, with an effective interest rate of 17.3%.

Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model.

The facility is secured by a first lien mortgage on the Port Perry, Ontario facility. On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. Second lien mortgages were granted against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023 and the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5,000 against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The remaining number of common share purchase warrants of 250,000 will vest equally over the original term of the facility on May 20, 2022 and August 20, 2022.

As a result of the amendments to the credit facility, the present value of the amended terms decreased the amortized cost by $152. This amount is offset with the interest expense of $628 and is recorded as a reduction to interest expense in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.

Balance, December 31, 2020	—

Adjustment to amortized cost	(152)
Balance, March 31, 2022	5,075

Note 18 Investments

On November 22, 2018, the Company entered into a Master Joint Venture Agreement (“the Agreement”) with SPE Finance LLC (“SPE”) to establish a joint venture for the purpose of owning and managing retail stores with a focus on selling cannabis and cannabis-related products across Canada and internationally (excluding the United States of America). The intention is to create, fund and govern the operations of the joint venture in the form of a corporation to carry on biological business. The joint venture was incorporated under the name One Plant (Retail) Corp. (“OPC”).

The Company paid $4,000 for the issuance of 99 common shares of OPC and as a result owns 9.4% of the outstanding common shares of OPC. For accounting purposes, the Company classified its interest in OPC at fair value through profit and loss and as an investment.

OPC is a private entity without observable market prices for its common shares and this investment is measured at its estimated fair value which is calculated based on a valuation technique that uses inputs derived by management which are considered level 3 in the fair value hierarchy (refer to note 19). The Company has reviewed the results of operations of OPC based on the financial information provided by management of OPC and prepared a cash flow projection. The Company used a discount rate of 15% to estimate the fair value as at December 31, 2020, and March 31, 2022.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company recorded a decrease in the fair value of the investment OPC of $1,609 as a fair value through profit and loss adjustment in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The estimated fair value of the Company's investment in OPC required management to use significant estimates and judgments including the estimated forecasted cash flows and discount rate assumption.

The Company invested $100 in CannaPacific in January 2019, $600 in April 2019 and $216 in June 2021.

CannaPacific is a private entity without observable market prices for its common shares and this investment is measured at its estimated fair value which is calculated based on a valuation technique that uses inputs derived by management which are considered level 2 in the fair value hierarchy (see Note 19).

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the Company determined that its investment in CannaPacific was more than likely not to be recoverable due to current market conditions and recorded a decrease in the fair value of its investment of $2,836. The change in fair value is recorded in the fair value through profit and loss adjustment in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss. The estimated fair value of the Company's investment in CannaPacific required management to use significant estimates and judgments including the estimated forecasted cash flows and discount rate assumption.

Note 19 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments by measurement category:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020 restated – note 23
Fair value through profit and loss (i)	5,150	37,149
Assets, amortized cost (ii)	11,085	9,311
Liabilities, amortized cost (iii)	83,530	80,208

- (i) Cash, restricted cash, investments, and marketable securities
- (ii) Trade receivables
- (iii) Accounts payable, lease liability, credit facilities and convertible debt

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following tables sets for the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at March 31, 2022 and December 31, 2020:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,356	–	–	1,356
Restricted cash	213	–	–	213
Marketable securities	1,190	–	–	1,190
Investments	–	–	2,391	2,391
Total, March 31, 2022	2,759	–	2,391	5,150

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	29,968	–	–	29,968
Restricted cash	561	–	–	561
Investments	–	2,620	4,000	6,620
Total, December 30, 2020	30,529	2,620	4,000	37,149

The carrying value of trade receivables and accounts payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at March 31, 2022.

During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 there were no transfers between Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3 fair value measurements. There has been no change in fair value of the Company's investment in OPC (classified as Level 3) as disclosed in Note 18. The value of investment is assessed based on a discounted cash flow model. The following factors have a potential impact on net earnings/loss based on various combinations of changes in unobservable inputs in the Company's internal valuation models for its investment in OPC:

- Fair value of investment: $2,391
- After-tax discount rate: 13% to 19%

Adjustment of management revenue received due to risk and uncertainties: (15%) / +15%

Hypothetical $ change effect on fair value measurement and net earnings / loss for the year: ($1M) - $2M.

The analysis assumes variation within a reasonable possible range determined by the Company based on an analysis of the return, management's knowledge of the cannabis retail store market and the potential impact on the changes in the interest rates.

The impact on the internal valuation models from changes in significant unobservable inputs deemed to be subject to the judgement and estimates disclosed above shows the hypothetical increase (decrease) in net earnings / loss. Changes in the after-tax discount rates, adjustment for risk and uncertainty over amounts of payment to be received, each in isolation, would hypothetically change the fair value of the Company's investments as noted above. Generally, an increase (decrease) in long term growth rates, or a decrease (increase) in after-tax discount rates, would result in higher (lower) fair value of the Company's investment in OPC.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The Company has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is the responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

The Company has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. The Company is attracting foreign investments. During the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12,000 term facility and the drawn amount of the $7,000 revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rate and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

For the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022, the expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables was assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to be incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is reevaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	6,364	1,379
0 – 30 days past due	250	537
31 – 60 days past due	95	145
61 – 90 days past due	69	83
90 + days past due	1,041	79
Provision for credit losses	(519)	(762)
Other receivables	3,785	7,850
Total	11,085	9,311

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 76% [December 31, 2020 – 75%] of total revenue came from three [2020 – four] customers and approximately 79% [2020 – 38%] of total trade accounts receivable is due from three [2020 – two] customers.

d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $493,203. Cash flow from operations is negative. Refer to note 2, Going Concern.

As at March 31, 2022, the Company has total current assets of $40,462 (December 31, 2020 – $74,656) and total current liabilities of $76,622 (December 31, 2020 – 45,041), providing for net current liability of $36,160 (December 31 2020 – net current asset of $29,615). The significant change during the fifteen months ended March 31, 2022 is a result of the convertible debentures approaching maturity and continued losses from operations.

The Company has the following undiscounted future payments for convertible debenture, credit facilities, lease obligations, and purchase commitments as at March 31, 2022:

	within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years and thereafter
	$	$	$	$	$
Convertible debenture	39,729	–	–	–	–
Credit facilities	–	17,650	–	–	–
Lease obligations	918	1,028	1,033	171	6
Purchase commitments	129	60	60	–	–
Total	40,776	18,738	1,093	171	6

The interest on the credit facilities not included in the table above is approximately $2,400 within one year and approximately $1,800 due between one year and two years.

Note 20 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these consolidated financial statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10,000 in damages. The claim is being contested and the action is proceeding to mediation in the latter half of fiscal 2022. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500,000 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

Note 21 Income Taxes

The Company has non-capital losses carried forward of approximately $263,000 available to reduce income taxes in future years which expire from 2030 to 2040. The Company has not recognized any deferred income tax assets. The Company recognizes deferred income tax assets based on the extent to which it is probable that sufficient taxable income will be realized during the carry forward periods to utilize all deferred tax assets.

The following table reconciles the amount of income tax recoverable on application of the statutory Canadian federal and provincial income tax rates for the fifteen and twelve months ended, respectively:

	March 31, 2022	December 31, 2020 restated – note 23

Note 22 Subsequent Events

Convertible Debenture Amendments

On May 12, 2022, the Company announced it had reached an agreement in principle with the convertible debenture holder-nominated steering committee to amend certain key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture, maturing June 27, 2022. The agreement includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028. The new convertible debentures will be secured against certain assets of the Company, however subordinated to the Company's other secured credit facilities.

On June 20, 2022, Debenture holders representing approximately 76% of the aggregate principal amount of Debentures outstanding had executed consents in favour of the amendments to the Debentures (the "Debenture Amendments"), exceeding the required 66 2/3% for the written extraordinary resolution to approve the Debenture Amendments. The transaction is expected to close the week of June 27, 2022.

Equity Financing Private Placement

Contemporaneously, on May 12, 2022, the Company entered into a Subscription Agreement comprising of common shares and warrants (the "units") for total aggregate gross proceeds of $5,600, by way of private placement (the "Private Placement"). Under the Private Placement the Company will issue 68,151,515 units at a price of $0.0825. Each unit consists of one common share and one-half warrant. A full warrant is exercisable at a price of $0.1025 for up to four years from date of issuance. The Company can elect to accelerate the expiry date after four months of issuance in the event the share price exceeds $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading days. The closing of the Private Placement was completed on June 24, 2022.

Note 23 Restatement of Corresponding Amounts

The Company has restated its consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2020 and its consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020. In the course of preparing the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022, a misinterpretation was discovered involving two non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel recorded in the quarters ended June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020.

In the periods ended June 30 and September 30, 2020, the Company recorded net revenue of $6,163 and $2,104, respectively. Both of these non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel were to one customer. These transactions provided the wholesale customer with extended payment terms which were initiated upon shipment to the customer. Some products which were shipped to the customer were later returned to the Company. No payment to date has been received by the Company for either of these two non-recurring transactions.

The following tables present the impact of the restatement adjustments on the Company's previously reported consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2020, as well as the impacts on the consolidated statement of financial position as at January 1, 2021. The "Restated" columns for 2020 reflect final adjusted balances after the restatement.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

To the Shareholders of Aleafia Health Inc.:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") were prepared by management, which is responsible for the integrity and fairness of the information presented, including the many amounts that out of necessity are based on estimates and judgements. These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded, and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements.

The Board of Directors oversees the responsibilities of management for financial reporting through an Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors. This Audit Committee reviews the consolidated financial statements and recommends them to the Board of Directors for approval. They meet regularly with management to review internal control procedures and advise directors on accounting matters and financial reporting issues.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders and Directors of Aleafia Health Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Aleafia Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2020. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. The key audit matters to be communicated in our auditors' report are as follows:

Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets

We draw attention to Notes 3(b), 4 and 7 to the consolidated financial statements. Goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets are not amortized but are reviewed for impairment annually or more frequently when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the cash generating unit ("CGU") exceeds its recoverable amount. Intangible assets with finite lives are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $177 million for goodwill and $22 million for its intangible assets. Estimating the recoverable amount of a CGU and an intangible asset is complex and is subject to significant judgment in relation to assumptions used by management. Significant assumptions used by management to estimate the recoverable amount include growth and discount rates, as well as future revenues and gross margins.

We identified the evaluation of the impairment of goodwill and intangible assets as a key audit matter as significant auditor judgment and the involvement of professionals with specialized skill and knowledge were required to evaluate the Company's methods and use of estimates, assumptions and judgements in estimating the recoverable amount of the CGU and intangible assets.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We obtained an understanding of the controls and control activities in place related to the determination and management's review of significant assumptions used in the calculation.
- We performed sensitivity testing to consider the impact of changes in certain assumptions on the estimate of recoverable amount.
- With the assistance of our internal valuation specialist:
 - We evaluated whether the valuation techniques used in estimating the recoverable amounts were appropriate.
 - We compared the discount rate used to the weighted average cost of capital and to a range developed using publicly available information for comparable companies.
- We compared growth rates used by management to historical information, approved budgets, the Company's production capacity as well as industry standards.

Valuation of biological assets and cannabis inventory

We draw attention to Notes 3(a), 11 and 12 to the consolidated financial statements. Biological assets are measured at fair value less cost to sell at the stage of completion. The Company values inventories of harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

In estimating the fair value of the biological assets, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, average yield per plant, harvesting costs, selling costs, selling price, and the allocation of indirect costs, which form part of the standard cost per gram to complete production. In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value.

We identified the assessment of the measurement of the fair value of biological assets and net realizable value of cannabis inventory as a key audit matter as a high degree of auditor judgment was required to evaluate the significant assumptions and estimates made by management.

Our audit response to the key audit matter was as follows:

- We performed sensitivity analyses over the Company's significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of biological assets to assess the impact of changes in those assumptions on the Company's determination of fair value.
- We tested the stage of growth by observing the plants at year-end.
- We tested the average expected yield per plant by comparing actual results of the current year to historical results of operations.
- We tested the average selling price per gram by comparing to estimates used by management to actual sales prices per gram in actual sales transaction during and subsequent to year-end.
- We also tested the net realizable value of inventory by comparing the carrying value of inventory to the prices in sales near and subsequent to year-end.

Recognition of revenue

We draw attention to Note 2(q) to the consolidated financial statements. The Company recognizes revenue from the sale of cannabis when control of the product transfers to the customer, which is typically when the product is delivered or the time the product is received by the customer. From time-to-time, the Company enters into agreements that transfer control of the product to the customer, but the product is not delivered until a later date. Management is required to exercise a significant amount of judgment in making the determination as to whether the revenue recognition criteria have been met.

We identified the recognition of revenue for these types of sales as a key audit matter as a high degree of auditor judgment was required to evaluate whether the revenue recognition criteria were met.

Our audit response to this key audit matter was as follows:

- We examined each of the contracts with customers.
- We confirmed the key terms of the contracts with customers and the reason for the transaction.
- We obtained confirmations from customers as to the amount of revenue earned from them under these agreements
- On a test basis we observed inventory that was the subject of these agreements and examined evidence of delivery subsequent to year end.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information, which comprises the information included in the Company's Management Discussion & Analysis to be filed with the relevant Canadian securities commissions.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed on this other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Fernando J. Costa.

ALEAFIA HEALTH INC.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019

(Amounts reflected in thousands of Canadian dollars, except share and per share amounts)

Note 1 Nature of Operations

Aleafia Health is a publicly traded corporation existing under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health's head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

Aleafia Health Inc. ("Aleafia Health") is a vertically integrated and federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering health and wellness services. The Company's four primary business units are Cannabis Cultivation & Products, Health & Wellness Clinics, Cannabis Education and Consumer Experience with e-commerce, retail distribution and provincial supply agreements.

The Company owns three cannabis product and cultivation facilities, which are licensed and operational. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of commercially proven, high-margin derivative products including flower, pre-rolls, oil drops, oil capsules and oil sprays. Aleafia Health operates the largest national network of medical cannabis clinics and education centers staffed by physicians, nurse practitioners and educators.

Aleafia Health was originally incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) as Wyn Metals on February 2, 2007. On March 26, 2018, concurrent with the completion of a business combination with Canabo Medical Inc., the Company changed its name to "Aleafia Health Inc." On June 27, 2018, the Company continued into Ontario under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). For further information on these transactions, please refer to the Company's Annual Information Form dated March 18, 2020.

On March 14, 2019, the Company acquired Emblem Corp. by way of a statutory plan of arrangement under the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "Arrangement"), pursuant to which, among other things, Aleafia Health acquired all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Emblem Corp. following Emblem's amalgamation with Aleafia Health's wholly-owned subsidiary, 11208578 Canada Inc., to form a new wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company continuing as "Emblem Corp." ("Emblem"), see "Note 4. Business Combination and Asset Acquisition".

Following the completion of the Arrangement, on March 19, 2019, the common shares of the Company ceased trading on the TSX Venture Exchange Inc. ("TSXV") and commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") under its existing symbol "ALEF" which was subsequently changed to "AH" on May 27, 2020. Emblem Shares were delisted from the TSXV on March 18, 2019.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

These consolidated financial statements were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution from the Board of Directors on March 24, 2021.

Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, with the exception of financial instruments which are measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies set out below. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information. The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar.

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all years presented in these consolidated financial statements.

a) Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, as presented below. Subsidiaries are those entities which the Company controls by having the power to govern the financial and operational policies of the entity. This control is generally evidenced through owning more than 50% of the voting rights or currently exercisable potential voting rights of a company's share capital. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

b) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash in the consolidated statements of financial position is comprised of cash in banks and on hand, and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are readily convertible into a known amount of cash.

c) Biological assets

The Company measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from the changes in fair value less cost to sell during the period are recognized in the consolidated statement of comprehensive loss. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets between the initial planting to the point of harvest including labor, labor related, fertilizer, utilities and facility costs and amortization of related production equipment. Seeds are measured at fair market value. Upon harvest, the fair value adjustments including all the capitalized costs are transferred from biological assets to inventory and form the cost basis of the inventory.

d) Inventory

The Company values inventories of harvested bulk cannabis and finished goods at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Inventories of harvested cannabis are transferred from biological assets at their fair value at harvest, which becomes the initial cost. Fair value includes capitalized costs and unrealized fair value adjustments. Any subsequent post-harvest costs are capitalized to inventory to the extent that cost is less than net realizable value. Inventories of fertilizers and nutrients include costs of purchases net of vendor allowances plus other costs, such as transportation, that are directly incurred to bring the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. The cost of inventories is determined using the weighted average cost basis.

Inventories are written down to net realizable value when the cost of inventories is estimated to be unrecoverable due to obsolescence, damage, or declining market prices. When the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist or when there is apparent evidence of an increase in selling price then the amount of the write down previously recorded is reversed. Storage costs, indirect administrative overhead, and certain other selling costs related to inventories are expensed in the period incurred.

e) Property, plant, and equipment

The Company's property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of the asset. The cost includes the cost of materials and direct labor, site preparation costs, installation and assembly costs, and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the assets to the location and conditions necessary for the assets to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. The cost of property, plant and equipment also includes any applicable borrowing costs. Borrowing costs are capitalized to property, plant, and equipment until such time that the constructed asset is substantially complete and ready for its intended use.

Property, plant, and equipment are depreciated at the following annual rates and methods:

Computer equipment and software	30% on a declining basis
Office furniture and equipment	20% on a declining basis
Buildings and houses	25 years on a straight-line basis
Leasehold Improvements	Straight-line over term of the lease

Estimates for depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting period and adjusted, if appropriate.

Significant components of property, plant and equipment that are identified as having different useful lives are depreciated separately over their respective useful lives. Depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values, if applicable, are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, on a prospective basis at the end of each fiscal year as a change in estimate. Gains and losses on disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of the property, plant and equipment and are recognized in profit or loss.

f) Share-based payments

Share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the estimated fair value of the instruments issued on the grant date and amortized over the vesting period. Share-based payments to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued if it is determined the fair value of the goods or services cannot be reliably measured and are recorded at the date the goods or services are received. The amount recognized as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards expected to vest. The offset to the recorded cost is to equity settled share-based payments reserve.

Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital and the related equity settled share-based payments reserve is transferred to share capital. Charges for options that are forfeited before vesting are reversed from equity settled share-based payment reserve.

Share-based compensation expense relating to deferred share units is accrued over the vesting period of the units based on the quoted market price on the date of issuance. As these awards can be settled in cash, the expense and liability are adjusted each reporting year for changes in the underlying share price.

g) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when it is probable that the Company is required to settle an obligation (legal or constructive), as a result of a past event, and the obligation can be reliably estimated. The provision represents the Company's best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting year. When a provision is determined using the expected cash flow method, the carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When some or all of the amounts required to settle a provision are expected to be recoverable from a third party, a receivable is recognized when it is virtually certain reimbursement is receivable and the expected reimbursement can be reliably measured.

h) Loss per share

The Company presents basic and diluted loss per share data for its common shares, calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share does not adjust the loss attributable to common shareholders or the weighted average number of common shares outstanding when the effect is anti-dilutive.

i) Income taxes

Current income taxes are the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted, and includes any adjustments to tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. Deferred income taxes are recorded using the liability method whereby deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the statement of financial position date. Deferred tax is not recognized for temporary differences which arise on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting, nor taxable profit or loss.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

j) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. In the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”) transaction costs are included. Transaction costs of financial assets are carried at FVTPL are expressed in the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss. Financial assets are subsequently measured at:

- FVTPL
- Amortized cost
- Fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”)
- Equity instruments designated at FVOCI; or
- Financial instruments designated at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at:

- FVTPL
- Amortized cost

The classification is based on whether the contractual cash flow characteristics represent “solely payment of principal and interest” as well as the business model under which the financial assets are managed. Financial liabilities held by the Company are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost.

k) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of the Company’s non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment at each statement of financial position date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the cash-generating unit, or “CGU”). The recoverable amount of an asset or a CGU is the higher of its fair value, less cost to sell, and its value in use. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment charge is recognized immediately in profit or loss by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the recoverable amount. Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the lesser of the revised estimate of recoverable amount and the carrying amount that would have been recorded had no impairment loss been recognized previously.

l) Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those classified as FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at the end of the reporting years. Financial assets are considered to be impaired when there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the investment have been affected.

m) Business combinations

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired, and the liabilities assumed are recognized at their fair value, except deferred tax assets or liabilities, which are recognized and measured in accordance with IAS 12 – Income Taxes. Subsequent changes in fair values are adjusted against the cost of acquisition if they qualify as measurement year adjustments. The measurement year is the year between the date of the acquisition and the date where all significant information necessary to determine the fair values is available and cannot exceed 12 months. All other subsequent changes are recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

The purchase price allocation process resulting from a business combination requires management to estimate the fair value of identifiable assets acquired including intangible assets and liabilities assumed including any contingently payable purchase price obligation due over time. The Company uses valuation techniques, which are generally based on forecasted future net cash flows discounted to present value. These valuations are closely linked to the assumptions used by management on the future performance of the related assets and the discount rates applied. The determination of fair value involves making estimates relating to acquired intangibles assets, property and equipment and contingent consideration. In certain situations, goodwill or a bargain purchase gain may result from a business combination. Goodwill is measured as the excess of the consideration transferred over the net amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. If, after reassessment, the net of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the excess is recognized immediately in the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss as a bargain purchase gain. Acquisition related costs are recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive loss as incurred.

n) Intangible assets

Intangible assets consist mainly of Health Canada Licenses to produce and sell cannabis, power contracts, brand names and licenses, patient lists and scientific and medical research assets. Acquired Health Canada License to produce and sell cannabis, power contracts and similar assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. Any impairment of intangible assets is recognized in the statement of operation and comprehensive loss but increases in intangible asset values are not recognized.

Estimated useful lives of intangible assets are shorter of the economic life and the year the right is legally enforceable. The assets' useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each financial statement of financial position date.

At each financial position reporting date, the carrying amounts of the Company's long-lived assets, including property and equipment and intangible assets, are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets are impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. Where the asset does not generate cash flows that are independent from other assets, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit ("CGU") to which the asset belongs.

Finite-lived intangible assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the following terms:

Health Canada Licences	24 years
OPA power contracts	14 years
Brand names and licences	5 to 15 years
Patient lists	10 years
Scientific and medical research	7 years
Agreement	7 years
IP & R&D	indefinite

The estimated useful life and amortization methods are reviewed at the end of each reporting year, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

o) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the price paid for the acquisition of an entity over the fair value of the net identifiable tangible and intangible assets and liabilities acquired on the date of acquisition less any impairment losses. Goodwill is allocated to the Cash Generating Units (“CGU”) to which it relates. Goodwill is measured at historical cost and is evaluated for impairment annually and more often if events or circumstances indicate there may be impairment.

Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing if the carrying value of a CGU, including the allocated goodwill, exceeds its recoverable amount determined as the greater of the estimated fair value less costs to sell and the value in use. Impairment losses recognized in respect of a CGU are first allocated to the carrying value of goodwill and any excess is allocated to the carrying amount of assets in the CGU. Any goodwill impairment is recorded in income in the year in which the impairment is identified. Impairment losses on goodwill are not subsequently reversed.

p) Segment reporting

The Company operates in one reportable segment. The Company focuses on the medical and recreational cannabis industry, which includes support services such as Canabo Clinics and GrowWise Clinics.

q) Revenue recognition

The Company derives revenue from 1) providing medical consultation services to patients suffering from chronic pain and disabling illnesses, 2) conducting medical research associated with the use of medical cannabis and 3) the sale of cannabis and cannabis products in Canada in accordance with the Cannabis Act . Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of the promised goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration of the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Performance obligations are satisfied, and revenue is recognized, either over time or at a point in time. Certain activities may give rise to deferred revenue, which are contract liabilities under IFRS 15 and relate to payments received in advance of performance under contracts with customers. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue as (or when) the Company satisfies its performance obligations under the contracts.

Under bill-and-hold arrangements – whereby the Company bills a customer for product to be delivered at a later date – control typically transfers when the product is still in our physical possession, and title and risk of loss has passed to the customer. Revenue is recognized when all specific requirements for transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met.

Amounts disclosed as net revenue are net of sales tax, duty tax, allowances, discounts and rebates.

- Medical consultation: The Company provides medical services to patients on a scheduled appointment fixed fee basis. Performance of the service is considered complete at the conclusion of the appointment and revenue is recognized at a point in time.

- Medical research: The Company provides customers with access to non-specific patient data relating to the use of medical cannabis in the treatment of various illnesses as well as the opportunity to conduct targeted research on the impact medical cannabis may have on specific ailments. Customers are billed a subscription fee for access to data or negotiated contract amounts related to targeted research. In the case of subscription fees, revenue is recognized evenly over the subscription year and revenue from targeted research amounts are recognized based on the extent of progress towards completion of the specific performance obligations related to each individual research project.
- Sale of cannabis: Revenue from the sale of cannabis is recognized when the Company transfers control to the customer upon delivery or the time of the product pickup from the Company's facilities by the customer based on the contract-by-contract basis between the Company and the customer.

r) Joint arrangements

A joint arrangement classified as such when the arrangement provides joint control to the parties. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of parties sharing control. The Company recognizes joint arrangements as either joint ventures or joint operations depending on the circumstances of each arrangement. The assets, liabilities and results of joint operations are included within the respective line items of the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position, Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Loss, Consolidated Statements of Changes in Equity and Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows where an arrangement is classified as a joint operation.

Arrangements classified as a joint venture are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. The Company's interest in an investee is initially recorded at cost and is subsequently adjusted for the Company's share of changes in the net assets of the investee, less any impairment in the value of individual investments, and any dividends paid.

Note 3 Significant Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting year. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. These consolidated financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimate is revised and future years if the revision affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions, and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income, and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

a) Biological assets and inventory

In calculating the value of the biological assets and inventory, management is required to make a number of estimates, including estimating the stage of growth of the cannabis up to the point of harvest, harvesting costs, selling costs, sales price, wastage and expected yields for the cannabis plant.

In calculating final inventory values, management is required to determine an estimate of spoiled or expired inventory and compares the inventory cost to estimated net realizable value, estimated useful lives and impairment of cash-generating units and goodwill.

b) Valuation of intangibles and goodwill

The impairment test for cash generating units (“CGUs”) to which goodwill is allocated based on the value in use of the CGU, determined in accordance with the expected cash flow approach. The calculation is based on assumptions used to estimate future cash flows, the cash flow growth rate and the discount rates. The Company exercises significant judgement in determining CGUs. The Company has identified four CGUs the Company identified four CGU's, namely Aleafia Farms Inc. (AFI), Emblem Corp. (EC), Canabo Medical Corp. (CMC), Flying High Brands and Flying High Retail (FHB and FHR) representing its cannabis cultivation (AFI), processing, sales, and cannabis education operations (EC), medical research operations (CMC), cannabis retail operations (FHB and FHR).

c) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

Depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are dependent upon estimates of useful lives, which are determined through the exercise of judgment. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets.

d) Business combinations

Judgment is used in determining whether an acquisition is a business combination or an asset acquisition. In a business combination, all identifiable assets, liabilities, and contingent liabilities acquired are recorded at their fair values. In determining the allocation of the purchase price in a business combination, including any acquisition related contingent consideration, estimates including market based and appraisal values are used. The contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

e) Revenue recognition

Estimates are used when the Company recognizes certain research revenue depending on how frequently patients visit the clinics and what portion of the upfront deposits are considered deferred. Also, significant judgment is exercised to determine if all the specific requirements for the transfer of control under a bill-and-hold arrangement have been met and revenue can be recognized.

f) Valuation of share-based payments

In calculating the share-based compensation expense, key estimates such as the rate of forfeiture of options granted, the expected life of the option, the volatility of the Company's stock price and the risk-free interest rate are used. In calculating the fair value of the warrants, the Company includes key estimates such as the volatility of the Company's stock price, the value of the common share, and the risk-free interest rate.

g) Income taxes

Income taxes and tax exposures recognized in the consolidated financial statements reflect management's best estimate based on facts known at the reporting date. When the Company anticipates a future income tax payment based on its estimates, it recognizes a liability. The difference between the expected amount and the final tax outcome has an impact on current and deferred taxes when the Company becomes aware of this difference. In addition, when the Company incurs losses for income tax purposes, it assesses the probability of taxable income being available in the future based on its budgeted forecasts. These forecasts are adjusted to take into account certain non-taxable income and expenses and specific rules on the use of unused credits and tax losses. When the forecasts indicate that sufficient future taxable income will be available to deduct the temporary differences, a deferred tax asset is recognized for all deductible temporary differences.

Note 4 Business Combination and Asset Acquisition Flying High Brands Inc.

On November 22, 2018, the Company entered into a Master Joint Venture Agreement ("the SPE Agreement") with SPE Finance LLC ("SPE") to establish a joint venture for the purpose of licensing from SPE, certain brands of cannabis and cannabis products in Canada. The joint venture was incorporated under the name Flying High Brands Inc. The Company paid $1.0 million for 30 common shares of Flying High and issued 6,000,000 common shares with a fair value $12.1 million for 480 common shares of Flying High, giving the Company 51% ownership of Flying High, with the other 49% owned by SPE. It is intended that Flying High will have multiple income streams throughout the retail value chain and will use the Company's cannabis products for those purposes.

For accounting purposes, the Company controls FHBI and as a result has consolidated its operations from the date of acquisition. The Company determined that this transaction is an asset acquisition as the assets acquired did not constitute a business as defined by IFRS 3. The purchase price of the shares was allocated to intangible assets – license. The Company also incurred acquisition costs of $0.2 million.

During the year ended December 31, 2020 the Company provided for an impairment charge of $10.6 million against the carrying value of the license.

Emblem Corp.

On March 14, 2019, the Company completed the acquisition of Emblem Corp. pursuant to a plan of arrangement under the provisions of the Canada Business Corporation Act. Pursuant to the Arrangement, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding Emblem shares in exchange for common shares of Aleafia following Emblem's amalgamation with the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, 11208578 Canada Inc., to form a new wholly owned subsidiary of the Company continuing as "Emblem Corp". Pursuant to the Arrangement, Emblem shareholders were entitled to receive 0.8377 of an Aleafia Health common share for each Emblem share held prior to the Arrangement (the "Consideration") with any fractional Aleafia common share being rounded down to nearest whole Aleafia Health common share. The Emblem shares were delisted from the TSXV at the close of business on March 18, 2019.

Prior to the completion of the Arrangement, Emblem had outstanding three classes of warrants to purchase Emblem shares listed on TSXV. The listed warrants, with the exception of any listed Emblem Warrants that were exercised prior to closing of the Arrangement, remain outstanding as warrants of “Emblem Corp” that upon exercise will entitle the holder thereof to receive the Consideration.

Former options to purchase Emblem shares were replaced, pursuant to the Arrangement, with replacement Aleafia Health options (on the same terms as the Emblem options), such that upon exercise will entitle the holder thereof to receive the Consideration.

The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination as the assets acquired and liabilities assumed constitute a business. The transaction was accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting whereby the assets acquired, and the liabilities assumed were recorded at their estimated fair value at the acquisition date. The Company applied various valuation techniques in order to measure the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in the business combination. These provisional amounts may be adjusted during the measurement period, or additional assets or liabilities may be recognized, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognized at that date.

The allocation of the components of total consideration to the net assets acquired was as follows:

Consideration
Common shares issued (110,823,349 shares at $2.28)	$ 252,677
Warrants issued	42,775
Replacement share options	5,922
Total consideration	$ 301,374
Net assets acquired
Working Capital	$ 34,397
Long-term advances and deposits	20,847
Property, plant, and equipment	39,797
Emblem brand	9,025
GrowWise brand	4,428
Symbol brand	1,647
Paris license	34,000
PR, R&D	600
SDM distribution agreement	1,300
Convertible debt	(20,458)
Deferred income tax liability	(285)
	125,298
Goodwill acquired	176,076
Total net assets acquired	$ 301,374

Included in working capital is $2.6 million of trade receivables.

The resulting goodwill represents the sales and growth potential of Emblem Corp. and will not be deductible for tax purposes. The Company has goodwill of $12.7 million from other previous amalgamations.

Had the business combination occurred on January 1, 2019, management estimated that the revenue of the Company would have increased by approximately $9,200 (unaudited) and the net loss of the Company would have increased by approximately $11,700 (unaudited) for the year ended December 31, 2019. Emblem expenses include approximately $13,100 (unaudited) in one-time, non-recurring expenses as a result of the acquisition of Emblem by the Company, including advisory fees and termination payments.

Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets

During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company recognized non-cash impairment charges of $177.5 million related to goodwill and $22.1 million related to its intangible assets. The Company performed its annual impairment test on its indefinite life intangible assets and goodwill for each CGU. The recoverable amounts for each CGU was based on its value in use (“VIU”) which was determined to be greater than its fair value less costs of disposal. The VIU was estimated using level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow analysis approach.

The significant assumptions applied in the determination of the recoverable amount are described below for the discounted cash flow method:

Cash flows - Estimated cash flows were projected based on actual operating results from internal sources as well as industry and market trends. Estimated cash flows are primarily driven by sales volumes, selling prices and operating costs. The utilized a five-year forecast and account for long-term growth through the use of a terminal value assuming a 2.5% growth rate.

Pre-tax discount rate - In its estimates, the Company used pre-tax discount rates ranging from 21.5% to 24.2%. The weighted average cost of capital (“WACC”) – the Company WACC was estimated based on the risk-free rate, equity risk premium and after-tax cost of debt based on corporate bond yields.

As a result of the analysis it was determined that the Emblem and Canabo CGUs carrying values were greater than the recoverable amounts. The goodwill related to Emblem CGU of $176.1 million was fully written-off at December 31, 2020. The goodwill related to Canabo CGU was written down by $1.4 million to $6.5M at December 31, 2020.

The remaining amortization and impairment of other intangible assets have been recorded in operating expenses for the year.

Note 8 Share Capital Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at December 31, 2020, there were 301,269,686 units issued and outstanding. On May 29, 2020 the Company issued 23,000,000 common shares at a price of $0.65 per share for aggregate gross proceeds of $15.0 million which includes the full exercise of the over-allotment option and paid $1.0 million as transaction costs in cash and issuance of brokers' warrants. Each unit consisted of one common share of the Company and one half of one common share purchase warrant with an exercise price of $0.80 and expiring in three years.

Warrants

On May 29, 2020 the Company issued 805,000 compensation warrants and 11,902,500 subscriber warrants to the shareholders of the bought deal. As at December 31, 2020 the Company had following warrants outstanding:

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the “Plan”), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The fair values of the stock options granted above were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following assumptions.

Restricted Share Units

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based payments anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date. Under the plan, a maximum of 4,000,000 common shares may be issuable. There were no RSUs issued and outstanding as at December 31, 2020.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company has implemented a deferred share unit plan (the “DSU Plan”).

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with the other director compensation mechanisms of the Company, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board. During the year the Company issued 148,431 DSUs which were outstanding at December 31, 2020.

Note 9 Related Party Balances and Transactions

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions. Related parties may be individuals or corporate entities. A transaction is considered to be a related party transaction when there is a transfer of resources or obligations between related parties. Key management includes directors and key officers of the Company.

During the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company had the following transactions with the officers and directors of the Company:

	December 31, 2020	December 31, 2019
Wages and benefits	$ 2,984	$ 2,509
Short term benefits	150	606
Share based compensation	2,136	1,674

As at December 31, 2020, an amount of $0.15 million (2019: $0.6 million) was due to directors and management. These amounts are non-interest bearing, unsecured, due on demand and included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Note 10 Management of Capital

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to sustain a sufficient capital base so as to maintain investor, creditor, and customer confidence and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders' equity, long term debt and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash.

Increase in fair value on growth of biological assets	(7,870)	(15,277)
	$ 29,133	$ (13,219)

The $16,973 write-down of inventory is due to the decrease in the estimated net realizable value of these inventories based on the evolving nature of the adult-use market.

Note 12 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered to be level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of biological assets in future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future years. As of December 31, 2020, the biological assets strains at the harvesting phase were on average 100% complete for outdoor plants and 69% complete for indoor plants and strains.

The following table depicts the changes in the fair value measurement (unrealized gain/loss resulting from fair value changes on growth of biological assets) and the fair value of biological assets as of December 31, 2020 as required by IFRS 13 fair value measurement.

The carrying value of biological assets are as follows:

Biological assets
Balance, December 31, 2018	$ 233
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	15,277
Acquisition of Emblem	392
Products costs capitalized to biological assets	1,920
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(16,851)
Balance as at December 31, 2019	971
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	7,870
Production costs capitalized to biological assets	5,419
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(11,749)
Balance as at December 31, 2020	$ 2,511

	Estimated KGs	Estimated Total
Biological assets transferred to inventory	31,793	11,749

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following estimates in the valuation model:

Significant assumptions	Indoor	Outdoor
Average transfer price per gram ($)	0.75	0.35
Average yield per plant (grams)	125	750
Average stage of growth (weeks)	12	16

The Company values medical cannabis plants at fair value. Management determined cost approximates fair value from the date of receiving the vegetative plants until halfway through the flowering cycle of plants. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins in the fourth week prior to harvest and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between twelve and sixteen weeks from propagation to harvest.

The unrealized gain for biological assets for the years ended in December 31, 2020 was $7.9 million (December 31, 2019 - $15.3 million).

Sales price used in the valuation of biological assets is based on the average selling price of all cannabis products and can vary based on the different strains being grown as well as the proportion of sales derived from wholesale compared to retail. Selling costs vary depending on methods of selling and are considered based on the expected method of selling and the determined additional costs which would be incurred.

Expected yields for the cannabis plant is also subject to variety of factors, such as strains being grown, length of growing cycle, and space allocated for growing. Management reviews all significant inputs based on the historical information obtained as well as based on planned production schedules. Management has quantified the sensitivity of the inputs and determined the following.

- a) Selling price per gram: A decrease in the average selling price per gram by 5% would result in the biological asset value decreasing by $123,117 and inventory decreasing by $12,079.
- b) Harvest yield per plant: A decrease in the harvest yield per plant of 5% would result in the biological asset value decreasing by $39,194.

These inputs are level 3 on the fair value hierarchy and are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors, which could significantly affect the fair value of biological assets in the future periods.

Note 13 Investments

On November 22, 2018, the Company entered into a Master Joint Venture Agreement (“the Agreement”) with SPE Finance LLC (“SPE”) to establish a joint venture for the purpose of owning and managing retail stores with a focus on selling cannabis and cannabis-related products across Canada and internationally (excluding the United States of America). The intention is to create, fund and govern the operations of the joint venture in the form of a corporation to carry on business. The joint venture was incorporated under the name One Plant (Retail) Corp. (“OPC”).

The Company paid $4.0 million for the issuance of 99 common shares of OPC and as a result owns 9.9% of the outstanding common shares of OPC. On April 1, 2020 Flying High Inc invested $0.8 million in OPC and the Company recorded the transaction as an investment. For accounting purposes, the Company classified its interest in OPC at fair value through profit and loss and as an investment.

OPC is a private entity without observable market prices for its common shares and this investment is measured at its estimated fair value which is calculated based on a valuation technique that uses inputs derived by management which are considered level 3 in the fair value hierarchy (see Note 15). The Company has reviewed the results of operations of OPC based on the financial information provided by management of OPC and prepared a cash flow projection. The Company used a discount rate of 15% to estimate the recoverable cash flows at December 31, 2020.

The Company invested $0.1 million in CannaPacific in January 2019 and $0.6 million in April 2019. CannaPacific is a private entity without observable market prices for its common shares and this investment is measured at its estimated fair value which is calculated based on a valuation technique that uses inputs derived by management which are considered level 2 in the fair value hierarchy (see Note 15). The investment is recorded its estimated fair value of $2.6 million. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company recorded an unrealized gain in fair value of $1.9 million (2019 - $Nil).

Note 14 Convertible Debt

Emblem Convertible Debt

On completion of the Arrangement, Aleafia Health assumed the obligations of the convertible debentures previously issued by Emblem Corp. in February 2018 pursuant to a supplemental trust indenture dated March 2019 (the “Supplemental Indenture”). These convertible debentures were originally sold at a price of $1,000 per unit for gross proceeds of $25.0 million. Under the Supplemental Indenture, the convertible debentures are subject to the following terms:

- a maturity date of February 2, 2021 (see Note 18).
- an interest rate of 8% per annum, payable semi-annually.
- convertible at $2.3875 per share, subject to adjustment in certain events, at the option of the holder; and
- Aleafia Health may require the conversion of the full principal amount of the outstanding convertible debentures at the conversion price on not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of Aleafia Health on the TSX be greater than $4.12 for any 10 consecutive days.

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40.3 million. The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022.
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually.
- Convertible at $1.55 per share until June 27, 2022 at the option of the holder; and
- The Company may require conversion of the full principal amount outstanding convertible debenture at the conversion price on not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

In fiscal year 2019 certain debenture debt holders converted $2.9 million debentures to 1,972,789 equity shares.

Note 15 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments by measurement category:

	December 31, 2020	December 31, 2019
FVTPL (i)	$ 37,149	$ 47,315
Assets, amortized cost (ii)	13,041	4,847
Liabilities, amortized cost (iii)	$ 80,135	$ 72,347

(i) Cash and cash equivalents, investments, and marketable securities

(ii) Trade and other receivables

(iii) Accounts payable, lease liability and convertible debt

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following table sets for the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at December 31, 2020:

	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Instruments (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Total
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 30,529	-	-	$ 30,529
Investments	-	2,620	4,000	6,620
Total	$ 30,529	2,620	4,000	$ 37,149

The carrying value of trade receivables and accounts payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at December 31, 2020.

During the year ended December 31, 2020 there were no transfers between Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3 fair value measurements. There has been no change in fair value of the Company's investment in OPC (classified as Level 3) as disclosed in Note 13. The value of investment is assessed based on discounted cash flow model. The following factors have a potential impact on net earnings/loss based on various combinations of changes in unobservable inputs in the Company's internal valuation models for its investment in OPC:

- Fair value of investment: $4,000
- After-tax discount rate: 13% to 19%

Adjustment of management revenue received due to risk and uncertainties: -15% / +15%

Hypothetical $ change effect on fair value measurement and net earnings / loss for the year: - $1M - $2M.

The analysis assumes variation within a reasonable possible range determined by Company based on an analysis of the return, management's knowledge of the cannabis retail store market and the potential impact on the changes in the interest rates.

The impact on the internal valuation models from changes in significant unobservable inputs deemed to be subject to the judgement and estimates disclosed above shows the hypothetical increase (decrease) in net earnings / loss. Changes in the after- tax discount rates, adjustment for risk and uncertainty over amounts of payment to be received, each in isolation, would hypothetically change the fair value of the Company's investments as noted above. Generally, an increase (decrease) in long term growth rates, or a decrease (increase) in after-tax discounts rates, would result in higher (lower) fair value of the Company's investment in OPC.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. Aleafia has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is the responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

Aleafia has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities. The Company is attracting foreign investments and in future, the Company's financial assets and liabilities may comprise of foreign currency marketable securities, convertible notes, long term investments, accounts receivable and promissory notes.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits and the price risk and cash flow risk on convertible debts. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations.

c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and short-term investments which comprised of marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the statement of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments.

d) Liquidity risk

In the management of liquidity risk of the Company, the Company maintains a balance between continuity of funding and the flexibility through the use of borrowings. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure. As at December 31, 2020 the Company's contractual obligations consist of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, convertible debt, and lease liability, which has a contractual maturity date within one year. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations.

Certain of Emblem's former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015 in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem and ECC in relation to certain services provided to the Emblem parties by an individual. The parties to the claim are: Amos Tayts (Plaintiff/Defendant by Counterclaim), Gordon Fox, Harvey Shapiro, Maxim Zavet, Levy Zavet Professional Corporation, MZ Prime Holdings Ltd., White Cedar Pharmacy Corporation, Emblem Corp. (Defendants), Emblem Cannabis Corporation ("ECC"), Kindcann.com, Inc. (Defendants/Plaintiffs by Counterclaim), and Talya Lev-Mor (Defendant by Counterclaim). The plaintiff has claimed $10.0 million in damages for some unspecified combination of the value of shareholdings in Emblem of which he says he has been wrongfully deprived, the amount by which he claims Emblem has been directly or indirectly unjustly enriched as a result of his labors, and damages for breach of contract, misrepresentation and oppression. The claim is being contested and the action is currently at the discovery stage.

It is the Company's determination that the claim of $10.0 million is primarily against the founders of Emblem and not the Emblem parties. The claim for damages against the Emblem parties, specifically, is not pleaded with sufficiency particularity to allow an accurate assessment of the quantum of damages being sought against the Emblem parties. The likely measure of damages sought will either be the market value of the services the plaintiff alleges to have provided to the Emblem parties or the degree to which Emblem was enriched by those services. The Company is of the view that the amount of the claim bears no relationship to the value of the services provided. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Tayts on March 22, 2019 in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. The claim is contested but pleadings have not yet concluded.

On June 16, 2020 a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem and Aleafia.

The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the Defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action seeking $500 million (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010 as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5million in punitive damages.

Ms Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia. The case is at its earliest stages and has not been certified as a class proceeding. Based on the information available to us the Company appears to have good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. We also note that the $500 million claimed in damages is asserted against all of the defendants and does not appear to be grounded in an analysis of the potential liability, if any, that the Company may have assuming the allegations in the claim were proven to be true.

To date this claim has not advanced in any material way and remains at its earliest stages.

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these audited consolidated financial statements.

Note 17 COVID-19 and its Impact on the Business Environment

General outcome

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19") emerged in China. Since then, it has spread to over a hundred other countries and infections have been reported around the world. Canada confirmed its first case of COVID-19 on January 25, 2020 and its first death related to COVID-19 on March 9, 2020. On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of COVID-19 a global pandemic.

In response to the outbreak, governmental authorities in Canada and internationally have introduced various recommendations and measures to try to limit the pandemic, including travel restrictions, border closures, non-essential business closures, quarantines, self-isolations, shelters-in-place, and social distancing. The COVID-19 outbreak and the response of governmental authorities to try to limit it are having a significant impact on the private sector and individuals, including unprecedented business, employment, and economic disruptions.

The continued spread of COVID-19 nationally and globally could have an adverse impact on the business, operations and financial results and position, including through disruptions to the Company's cultivation and processing activities, supply chains and sales channels, as well as a deterioration of general economic conditions including a possible national or global recession. Due to the speed with which the COVID-19 situation is developing and the uncertainty of its magnitude, outcome, and duration, it is not possible to estimate its impact on business, operations or financial results and position. Further impacts could include an impact on our ability to maintain operations, to obtain and maintain debt and obtain equity financing on attractive commercial terms or at all, impairment of investments, impairments in the value of our non-current assets, or potential future decreases in revenue or the profitability of our ongoing operations, any of which could be material.

COVID-19 and other risks

Disruption of Supply Chain

Conditions or events including, but not limited to, those listed below could disrupt the Company's supply chains, interrupt operations at its facilities, increase operating expenses, resulting in loss of sales, delayed performance of contractual obligations or require additional expenditures to be incurred:

- extraordinary weather conditions or natural disasters such as hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, fires, extreme heat, earthquakes, etc.

- a local, regional, national, or international outbreak of a contagious disease, including the
- COVID-19 coronavirus, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, H1N1 influenza virus, avian flu, or any other similar illness could result in a general or acute decline in economic activity (see also, “Public Health Crises, including COVID-19”).
- political instability, social and labor unrest, war, or terrorism; or
- interruptions in the availability of basic commercial and social services and infrastructure including power and water shortages, and shipping and freight forwarding services including via air, sea, rail, and road.

Public Health Crises, including COVID-19

A local, regional, national, or international outbreak of a contagious disease, such as COVID-19, could have an adverse effect on local economies and potentially the global economy, which may adversely impact the price and demand for the Company’s products. COVID-19 could affect the Company’s ability to conduct operations and may result in temporary shortages of staff, to the extent its workforce is impacted.

Such an outbreak, if uncontrolled, could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, including a potential reduction in patient visits at the Company’s Clinics and, as a result, potential lost revenue.

All three of the Company's production facilities continue to operate. To date there have been no material negative impacts on production due to COVID-19. The Company continues to expand core revenue-generating operations, with new hires completed in product sales, quality control and production. On March 16, 2020, patients at Aleafia Health’s network of medical cannabis clinics were notified that all physical clinic locations would be voluntarily and temporarily closed during the COVID-19 pandemic and that all patient consultations would be conducted through virtual clinic services. Since that time, patient consultations have been completed entirely remotely, ensuring that all patients maintain access to safe, secure, and convenient cannabinoid therapy. As announced on October 17, 2018, the Company previously invested in the technology and training to offer scalable virtual clinic services.

Last-Mile Home Delivery: In recognition of the need for safe, contactless delivery of medical cannabis, the Company advanced its already planned introduction of last-mile home delivery for medical cannabis products. The Company launched last-mile home delivery publicly available for Toronto- based registered Emblem patients.

In March, in addition to temporarily closing physical clinic locations, management enacted a series of measures to ensure business continuity and the safety of team members, including:

- Barring all visits to production facilities and cancelling all non-essential employee travel.
- Increased cleaning frequency throughout facility common areas and enforcing work from home for all non-production essential employees; and
- Adjustment to shift start times, shift length and break structure to eliminate the crossover between groups of employees.

Note 18 Subsequent events

On January 29, 2021 the Company repaid $25M in cash of its 8% unsecured convertible debt which matured on February 2, 2021.

On March 9, 2021, the company closed its previously announced bought deal offering for a total issuance of 27,390,000 units of the Company at a price per Unit of $0.83 for gross proceeds of $22.7 million, which includes a partial exercise of the over-allotment option. Each Unit consists of one common share in the capital of the Company and one-half of one common share purchase warrant. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase one Common Share at an exercise price of $1.05, for a period of 24 months following the closing of the Offering.

Note 19 Income taxes

The Company has non-capital losses carried forward of $108,691 available to reduce income taxes in future years which expire from 2030 to 2040. The Company has not recognized any deferred income tax assets. The Company recognizes deferred income tax assets based on the extent to which it is probable that sufficient taxable income will be realized during the carry forward periods to utilize all deferred tax assets.

The following table reconciles the amount of income tax recoverable on application of the statutory Canadian federal and provincial income tax rates:

	2020	2019

Note 1 Nature of Operations

Aleafia Health (the “Company”) is a publicly traded corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health’s head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

The Company is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis products in Canada and destined for international markets, including Australia and Germany. The Company operates a virtual medical cannabis clinic staffed by physicians and nurse practitioners which provide health and wellness services across Canada.

The Company owns three licensed cannabis production facilities and operates a strategically located distribution centre all in the province of Ontario, including the largest, outdoor cannabis cultivation facility in Canada. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including dried flower, pre-roll, milled, vapes, oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual strips, and topicals, for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets, and in select international jurisdictions.

The common shares of the Company commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) (symbol “AH”), on May 27, 2020. Previously, common shares were traded on the TSX Venture Exchange Inc. under a different ticker symbol from March 18, 2019.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at and for the six months ended September 30, 2022 and 2021 have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and in accordance with IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting (“IAS 34”). The accounting policies, methods of computation and presentation applied in these unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements are consistent with those of the previous fiscal year. These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements reflect the accounting policies and disclosures described in Note 2 and the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022, and accordingly, should be read in conjunction with those audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto.

The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, with the exception of financial instruments and biological assets which are measured at fair value. In addition, these unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information. The functional currency of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar.

In February 2022, the Company changed its reporting year end from December 31 to March 31 to accommodate the shortage of personnel in public accounting firms.

The Board of Directors approved these interim condensed consolidated financial statements on November 8, 2022.

Going concern assumption

These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $490,626 (March 31, 2022 – $493,203) and net working capital of $17,301 (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36,160). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options to meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, issuance of common shares via its at-the-market equity financing program, issuing common shares via a public equity offering, share capital, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business
- Remain in compliance with its credit facility and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing in the future on terms favourable for the Company.

Consolidation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, as presented below. Subsidiaries are those entities which the Company controls by having the power to govern the financial and operational policies of the entity. This control is generally evidenced through owning more than 50% of the voting rights or currently exercisable potential voting rights of a company's share capital. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. All subsidiaries, except for the inactive are for the purpose of carrying out the Company's business in the normal course and are domiciled in Canada. Inactive subsidiaries are holding companies.

Reclassification of comparative period presentation

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current period presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on the reported results of operations. Net tax receivable as at March 31, 2022 has been separately presented instead of being grouped with prepaids expenses and deposits, other receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities on a gross basis. This is consistent with how the Canadian tax authorities treats the Company's sales taxes and excise duty on a net basis.

Note 3 Marketable Securities

On May 10, 2021, the Company (specifically, wholly owned subsidiaries, Canabo and GrowWise) completed the sale of certain clinic related assets to Myconic Capital Corp (d.b.a Wellbeing Digital Sciences Limited "WDSL"). Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA"), certain inventory and equipment was sold, in addition to the assignment of research revenue and clinic leases.

In consideration for the sale and assignment of certain agreements, Myconic Capital Corp, issued and delivered a total of 7,000,000 common shares subject to statutory and contractual lock-up provisions, with a fair value of $12,250 on the date of closing.

The sale resulted in the derecognition of certain right of use assets with a net book value of $255 and related lease obligations of $329. In addition, equipment with a net book value of $232 were sold.

The gain on sale of Canabo and GrowWise net assets was determined as follows:

Consideration	12,250
Assets sold/assigned	(487)
Liabilities assumed	329
Gain on sale	12,092

The Myconic Capital Corp common shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss. The marketable securities are classified as Level 1 on the fair value hierarchy as they have quoted prices in an active market.

On April 11, 2022, the Company terminated its Clinic License and Services Agreement with WDSL. As a result, certain revenue streams that were assigned to WDSL as part of the Services Agreement will revert to the Company such as Provincial billings for physician services and clinic education fees. Additionally, any unexpired leases which were unassigned as of the date of the termination reverted to the Company. The termination does not impact any consideration paid to the Company and the common shares are available to trade.

The current fair value of the owned common shares is $174.

Note 4 Right-of-Use Asset and Lease Liability

The Company entered into a lease agreement, commencing June 1, 2020 for its distribution operations and corporate office. The term of the lease is 5 years and expires on July 31, 2025. As at September 30, 2022, the undiscounted commitment for the remaining office lease term is approximately $2,612. The balance of the lease right of use assets and obligations are relate to leased equipment.

Depreciation relating to manufacturing equipment and production facilities for owned and right-of-use lease assets is capitalized to biological assets and inventory and is expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods.

During the six months ended September 30, 2022, the Company recognized depreciation expense of $3,878 (September 30, 2021 – $4,654), of which $1,890 (September 30, 2021 – $1,104) was included in cost of sales, biological assets and inventory, and $1,988 (September 30, 2021 – $3,550) was included in operating expenses.

Note 6 Inventory

Inventory is comprised of the following items as at:

	September 30, 2022	March 31, 2022

Supplies and consumables	2,908	2,940
Inventory provision	(13,722)	(13,722)
Total inventory	20,844	21,664

Inventory provision mostly relates to work-in-progress.

Note 7 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of assets in the future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate the expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future periods.

The following table depicts the changes in the fair value measurement (unrealized gain/loss resulting from fair value changes on growth of biological assets) and the fair value of biological assets as of September 30, 2022 and March 31, 2022 as required by IFRS 13 fair value measurement.

Balance, March 31, 2022	1,179
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	14,983
Production costs capitalized to biological assets	3,707
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(3,238)
Balance, September 30, 2022	16,631

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following significant assumptions in the valuation model:

	September 30, 2022		March 31, 2022
	Indoor	Outdoor	Indoor	Outdoor
Average fair value per gram ($)	0.98	0.37	0.98	0.37
Average yield per plant (grams)	60	750	60	750
Average of growth cycle (weeks)	13	16	13	16

The Company values cannabis plants at fair value. Management determined cost approximates fair value from the date of receiving the vegetative plants until halfway through the flowering cycle of plants. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins in the fourth week prior to harvest and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between twelve and sixteen weeks from propagation to harvest.

The fair value adjustment to biological assets and inventory sold consists of the following for the six months ended:

	September 30, 2022	September 30, 2021
Change in fair value on growth of biological assets	15,338	7,152
Realized fair value amounts included in inventory sold	(355)	(146)
Fair value changes in biological assets and inventory sold	14,983	7,006

Note 8 Credit Facilities

Credit Facility – Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12,000 and access to a revolving facility up to $7,000. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime (with a floor of 3.45%) rate plus 9%, annually, with an effective interest rate of 14.8%. Under the agreement, the Company prepaid interest of $749. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding.

The Company received net proceeds of $10,798 on December 24, 2021.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement on the Company.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

The amortization of the credit facility as at September 30, 2022:

	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	12,073
Interest expense	905
Drawdown	9,020
Repayment	(7,402)
Balance, September 30, 2022	14,596

Balance, September 30, 2022	14,596

Credit Facility – Non Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10,000 for working capital and general corporate purposes. The term of the loan was for one year with a fixed interest rate of 12% and an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The facility is secured by a first lien mortgage on the Port Perry, Ontario facility.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. Second lien mortgages were granted against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023, the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%, and the interest to begin paying in June 2022.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5,000 against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility including the prepayment of one year of interest, from June 2022 to June 2023, in the amount of $623.

The amortization of the credit facility as at September 30, 2022:

	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	5,075
Interest accretion	438
Interest payment	(623)
Balance, September 30, 2022	4,890

Note 9 Convertible Debt

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40,300 (the “June 2019 Convertible Debenture”). The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022,
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually,
- Convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder, and
- The Company may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2,900 debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,350.

During the three months ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $301 debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,049.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37,049 principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2,387 principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture

Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company's existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

The below table summarizes the changes in the total consolidated convertible debentures.

Balance, March 31, 2022	36,401
Interest expense	4,076
Conversion into equity	(301)
Derecognition of June 2019 Convertible Debenture	(40,175)
Transaction costs	(636)
Issuance of New Debentures	24,128
Balance, June 30, 2022	23,493
Interest expense	1,196
Balance, September 30, 2022	24,689

The modifications to the June 2019 Convertible Debenture was determined to be substantial and therefore accounted for as an extinguishment.

The liability component of the New Debentures is recorded at the present value of the future interest and principal payments using the discount rate of 19.5%. The equity component represents the residual amount attributed to the Company's liability to equity conversion option amounting to $16,047 and is recorded in the contributed surplus in the interim condensed consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 10 Share Capital

Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at September 30, 2022, there were 403,038,591 common shares issued and outstanding.

During the six months ended September 30, 2022, the Company issued 68,151,515 common shares at a price of $0.0825 plus 3,407,500 common shares as finder's fee, pursuant to the private placement dated June 24, 2022, resulting in net proceeds of $5,623. Each common share also has one half of one common share purchase warrant (refer to "warrant" section below).

During the six months ended September 30, 2021, the Company issued 231,500 common shares at an average price per share of $0.41, for gross proceeds of $95 under its at-the-market equity program.

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the “Plan”), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The total stock option expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the six months ended September 30, 2022 was $1,398 (six months ended September 30, 2021 – $1,589).

The following table summarizes information relating to outstanding and exercisable stock options as at September 30, 2022:

	#	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	30,335,946	0.88
Granted	28,789,000	0.09
Forfeited/cancelled	(3,536,925)	0.40
Expired	(100,000)	0.73
Balance, September 30, 2022	55,488,021	0.50
Vested	27,742,146	0.89
Unvested	27,745,875	0.11
Balance, September 30, 2022	55,488,021	0.50

The fair values of the stock options granted during the three months ended September 30, 2022, were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following weighted average assumptions:

Weighted average share price	$0.05
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	2.87%
Weighted expected life-years	3.2 years
Weighted average expected daily volatility	87.5%
Weighted expected dividends	Nil
Forfeiture rate	5.59%

The volatility was calculated using the historical daily trading prices over a period commensurate with the expected life.

Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”)

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based compensation expense anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date.

During the six months ended September 30, 2022, 2,000,000 RSUs were granted (six months ended September 30, 2021 – 987,000). The total RSU expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the six months ended September 30, 2022 was $7 (six months ended September 30, 2021 – $10).

A summary of the RSUs granted and outstanding as at September 30, 2022, is as follows:

	#
Balance, March 31, 2022	717,917
Granted	2,000,000
Exercised/released	(219,167)
Cancelled/forfeited	(122,250)
Balance, September 30, 2022	2,376,500

There are no RSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

At the Company's annual general meeting on June 30, 2020, shareholders passed a resolution approving the Company's deferred share unit plan (the "DSU Plan"), which was implemented during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with other director compensation, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board.

The deferred share units are settled in either cash or shares or a combination of both, at the election of the board of Directors. The DSUs have been classified as liability in anticipation of cash settlement and are revalued at each reporting period using the quarter end Company stock price.

During the six months ended September 30, 2022, 1,704,768 DSUs were granted (six months ended September 30, 2021 – 314,357 DSUs). As at September 30, 2022, there were 3,734,771 DSUs issued and outstanding. As at September 30, 2022, the fair value of the DSU outstanding is $187 (September 30, 2021 – $182).

A summary of the DSUs granted and outstanding as at September 30, 2022 is as follows:

	#
Balance, March 31, 2022	2,030,003
Granted	1,704,768
Balance, September 30, 2022	3,734,771

There are no DSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Warrants

The Company has the following warrants outstanding:

	#	$

Balance, March 31, 2022	56,155,432	1.19
Issued	34,075,758	0.10
Expired	(29,285,900)	1.45
Outstanding and exercisable, September 30, 2022	60,945,290	0.45

In conjunction with the issuance of common shares under the private placement, each holder received one half of one common share purchase warrant. A total of 34,075,758 were issued with an exercise price of $0.1025, expiring June 24, 2026. The expiry date may be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days' notice if the closing price of the common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading day after the four month lock up period and prior to the expiry of the warrants.

The remaining outstanding and exercisable warrants expire between March 9, 2023 and June 24, 2026.

Note 11 Expenses by Nature

The consolidated statements of profit (loss) and comprehensive profit (loss) include the following expenses by nature for the six months ended:

	September 30, 2022	September 30, 2021
Salaries, bonuses and benefits	8,337	12,911
Share-based compensation	1,398	1,589
Termination benefits and severance costs	743	276
Total	10,478	14,776

Salaries, bonuses and benefits relating to manufacturing and production facilities are capitalized to inventory and then expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods. During the six months ended September 30, 2022, the Company recognized salaries, bonuses and benefits of $8,337 (six months ended September 30, 2021 – $12,911), of which $3,227 (six months ended September 30, 2021 – $4,645) was included in cost of sales and $5,110 (six months ended September 30, 2021 – $8,266) was included in operating expenses.

Note 12 Key Management Compensation

Key management includes directors and key executives of the Company.

During the six months ended September 30, 2022 and 2021, the Company had the following transactions with the officers and directors of the Company:

	September 30, 2022	September 30, 2021
Wages and benefits: Directors	-	358
Wages and benefits: Management	656	773
Share based compensation: Directors	128	-
Share based compensation: Management	607	451
	1,391	1,582

Note 13 Profit (Loss) per Share

Loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the three and six months ended September 30, 2022 was 402,859,277 and 364,096,052 respectively (three and six months ended September 30, 2021 – 330,866,674, and 330,697,187 respectively).

Diluted income per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding taking into consideration the weighted average impact of dilutive securities. All of the Company’s potentially dilutive securities are anti-diluted during the periods presented due to losses incurred.

Note 14 Management of Capital

The Company’s objectives when managing capital are to sustain a sufficient capital base to maintain investor, creditor, supplier, and customer confidence and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders’ equity, credit facilities, lease liabilities, and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and adjusts it to reflect changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash. In the current period, the Company manages its capital with a heightened focus on maintaining and improving its liquidity. During the six months ended September 30, 2022, there has been no other significant changes to the management of capital.

Note 15 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company’s financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company’s financial instruments by measurement category:

	September 30, 2022	March 31, 2022
Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, investments, and marketable securities)	4,477	5,150
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables)	7,725	7,751
Liabilities, amortized cost (Accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities and convertible debt)	63,627	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following table sets out for the Company’s financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at September 30, 2022 and March 31, 2022:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
--	---------	---------	---------	-------

	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,739	–	–	1,739
Restricted cash	168	–	–	168
Marketable securities	174	–	–	174
Investments	–	–	2,396	2,396
Total, September 30, 2022	2,081	–	2,396	4,477

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,347	–	–	1,347
Restricted cash	222	–	–	222
Marketable securities	1,190	–	–	1,190
Investments	–	–	2,391	2,391
Total, March 31, 2022	2,759	–	2,391	5,150

The carrying value of trade receivables and accounts payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facility and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at September 30, 2022.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The Company has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is a responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

The Company has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the six months ended September 30, 2022, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12,000 term facility and the drawn amount on the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rates and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations.

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of trade receivables, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

For the six months ended September 30, 2022, the expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables was assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to have incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is reevaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

	September 30, 2022	March 31, 2022
Current	6,477	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	21	250
31 – 60 days past due	7	95
61 – 90 days past due	1	69
90 + days past due	1,385	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(654)	(654)
Other receivables	488	452
Total	7,725	7,751

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they are mostly due from government agencies.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 90% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from four (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 74% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $490,626. Cash flow from operations is negative. Refer to note 2, Going Concern.

As at September 30, 2022, the Company has total current assets of $49,874 (March 31, 2022 – $36,835) and total current liabilities of $32,573 (March 31, 2022 – $72,995), providing for net current assets of $17,301 (March 31, 2022 – net current liability of $36,160). The significant change during the six months ended September 30, 2022 is a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 Convertible Debenture.

The Company has the following undiscounted future payments for convertible debenture, credit facilities, lease obligations, and purchase commitments as at September 30, 2022:

	within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years and thereafter
	$	$	$	$	$
Convertible debenture	-	15,669	-	15,678	18,638
Credit facilities	14,596	5,000	-	-	-
Lease obligations	682	817	641	14	3
Purchase commitments	365	60	60	-	-
Total	15,643	21,546	701	15,692	18,641

The interest on the credit facilities included in the table above is approximately $110 within two years.

Note 16 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these consolidated financial statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10,000 in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if an early settlement is not achieved. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500,000 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

Note 17 Restatement of Corresponding Amounts

The Company has restated its consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2020 and its consolidated statements of profit (loss) and comprehensive profit (loss), consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020. In the course of preparing the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022, a misinterpretation was discovered involving two non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel recorded in the quarters ended June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020.

In the three months ended June 30 and September 30, 2020, the Company recorded net revenue of $6,163 and $2,104, respectively. Both of these non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel were to one customer. These transactions provided the wholesale customer with extended payment terms which were initiated upon shipment to the customer. Some products which were shipped to the customer were later returned to the Company. No payment to date has been received by the Company for either of these two non-recurring transactions.

As a result of the aforementioned, the restatement impacts the bad debt expense subsequently recorded during the six months ended September 30, 2021 amounting to $7,855. The following tables present the impact of the restatement adjustments on the Company's previously reported unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at and for the six months ended September 30, 2021. The "Restated" columns for 2021 reflect final adjusted balances after the restatement.

Net tax payable (receivable)	(13)	1,075	1,062

Note 18 Subsequent Event

In November 2022, the Company enacted further cost savings initiatives around its flower supply, by initiating the winddown of its Grimsby greenhouse which represents an annualized net cost savings of approximately $4,100 which will further improve go forward profitability. The Company will commence the process of ceasing operations, effective November 2022, impacting 41 employees. The Company will be assessing alternatives and may potentially pursue selling the asset.

Note 1 Nature of Operations and Basis of Presentation

Nature of Operations

The Company is a publicly traded corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario. Aleafia Health's head and registered office is currently located at 85 Basaltic Road, Concord, Ontario, and its corporate website is www.AleafiaHealth.com.

The Company is a federally licensed Canadian cannabis company offering cannabis products in Canada and destined for international markets, including Australia and Germany. The Company operates a virtual medical cannabis clinic staffed by physicians and nurse practitioners which provide health and wellness services across Canada.

The Company owns three licensed cannabis production facilities and operates a strategically located distribution centre all in the province of Ontario, including the largest, outdoor cannabis cultivation facility in Canada. The Company produces a diverse portfolio of cannabis and cannabis derivative products including pre-roll, milled, dried flower, vapes, oils, capsules, edibles, sublingual strips, and topicals, for sale in Canada in the medical and adult-use markets, and in select international jurisdictions.

The common shares of the Company commenced trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") (symbol "AH"), on May 27, 2020. Previously, common shares were traded on the TSX Venture Exchange Inc. under a different ticker symbol from March 18, 2019.

Basis of presentation

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. They do not include all the information required for a complete set of financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). As such, they must be read in conjunction with the annual audited consolidated financial statements for the period ended March 31, 2022 and the notes thereto. However, selected notes are included that are significant to understanding the Company's financial position and performance since the last annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022. The unaudited interim financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. The amounts in the tables are expressed in Canadian dollars and rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise stated.

The Board of Directors approved these unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements on February 10, 2023.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies applied in these unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements are the same as those applied in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022. The annual consolidated financial statements are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. These policies have been applied throughout the periods reported.

Going concern assumption

These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of normal business activities and the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business as they come due in the foreseeable future.

The Company has experienced recurring losses, has a cumulative deficit of $515,760 (March 31, 2022 – $493,203) and net working capital deficit of $1,000 (March 31, 2022 – deficiency of $36,160). These factors indicate that there are material uncertainties that cast significant doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to achieve profitable operations and/or raise equity or debt financing. There is no assurance that any necessary future financing will be sufficient to sustain operations until such time that the Company can generate sufficiently profitable operations to support its requirements.

These unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary, should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern, such adjustments could be material.

The Company's objectives when managing its liquidity and capital resources are to ensure sufficient liquidity to meet its financial obligations and execute its operating and strategic plans for at least the next twelve months. Management closely monitors the liquidity position and expects to have adequate sources of funding to finance the Company's projects and operations. The Company manages liquidity risk by exploring new debt and equity financing options, reviewing its capital structure to optimize the cost of capital, maintaining the continuity of equity and debt funding options, managing its non-cash current assets to ensure the timely conversion to cash, optimizing its fixed assets which in certain instances includes monetizing, and putting plans in place to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

The Company has multiple options to meet liquidity needs including converting its non-cash working capital to cash, issuance of common shares via its at-the-market equity financing program, issuing common shares via a public equity offering, share capital, and new debt financing options.

The Company's ability to meet its commitments to sustain operations and settle its obligations as they become due within the next twelve months and its exposure to liquidity risk is dependent on the Company's ability to:

- Realize cash flow from operations which is subject to significant judgements and estimates, the most significant of which is the Company's sales projections and its ability to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business
- Remain in compliance with its credit facilities and convertible debenture covenants; and
- Raise additional debt and equity financing.

While the Company has been successful in obtaining financing to date and believes it will be able to obtain sufficient funds in the future and ultimately achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations, there can be no assurance that the Company will achieve profitability and be able to obtain sufficient financing in the future on terms favourable for the Company.

Assets and liabilities held for sale

Assets and liabilities held for sale are no longer depreciated and are presented separately in the statement of financial position at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is regarded as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction, rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale and its sale must be highly probable.

Reclassification of comparative period presentation

Certain amounts from prior periods have been reclassified to ensure consistency with the current period's presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on the reported results of operations. Net tax receivable as of March 31, 2022 has been presented separately, rather than being grouped with prepaids expenses and deposits, other receivables, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities on a gross basis. This is consistent with how the Canadian tax authorities treats the Company's sales taxes and excise duty on a net basis.

Note 3 Marketable Securities

On May 10, 2021, the Company, through its subsidiaries Canabo and GrowWise, sold certain clinic assets to Myconic Capital Corp (d.b.a Wellbeing Digital Sciences Limited "WDSL"). In exchange, WDSL issued 7,000,000 common shares with a fair value of $12,250 at the time of closing. The sale resulted in the derecognition of assets and lease obligations with a net book value of $586, resulting in a gain of $12,092.

The shares are classified as fair value through profit and loss, and the Level 1 on the fair value hierarchy as they have quoted market prices in an active market. The current fair value of the owned common shares is $49.

Note 4 Right-of-Use Asset and Lease Liability

The Company entered into a lease agreement, commencing June 1, 2020 for its distribution operations and corporate office. The term of the lease is 5 years and expires on July 31, 2025. As at December 31, 2022, the undiscounted commitment for the remaining office lease term is approximately $2,497. The balance of the lease right of use assets and obligations are relate to leased equipment.

Depreciation relating to manufacturing equipment and production facilities for owned and right-of-use lease assets is capitalized to biological assets and inventory and is expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods.

During the nine months ended December 31, 2022, the Company recognized depreciation expense of $5,227 (December 31, 2021 – $6,821), of which $2,217 (December 31, 2021 – $2,387) was included in cost of sales, biological assets and inventory, and $3,010 (December 31, 2021 – $4,434) was included in operating expenses.

Note 6 Inventory

Inventory is comprised of the following items as at:

	December 31, 2022	March 31, 2022
Finished goods	3,829	4,454
Work-in-progress	30,230	27,992
Supplies and consumables	3,069	2,940
Inventory provision	(14,932)	(13,722)
Total inventory	22,196	21,664

Inventory provision mostly relates to work-in-progress.

Note 7 Biological Assets

Biological assets are valued in accordance with IAS 41. The Company's biological assets consist of cannabis plants. As there is no actively traded commodity market for these, the valuation of these biological assets is obtained using valuation techniques where the inputs are based upon unobservable market data which are considered level 3 inputs under IFRS. These inputs are subject to volatility in market prices and several uncontrollable factors could significantly affect the fair value of assets in the future. The fair value is determined using a valuation model to estimate the expected harvest yield per plant applied to the estimated price per gram less processing and selling costs. The Company capitalizes all the direct and indirect costs as incurred related to the transformation of biological assets and measures biological assets consisting of cannabis plants at fair value less cost to sell up to the point of harvest, which becomes the basis for the cost of finished goods inventories after harvest. Unrealized gains or losses arising from changes in fair value less cost to sell during the year are included in the results of operations of the related year.

The Company's estimates are subject to change and differences from the anticipated yield will be reflected in the gain or loss on biological assets in future periods.

The following table depicts the changes in the fair value measurement (unrealized gain/loss resulting from fair value changes on growth of biological assets) and the fair value of biological assets as of December 31, 2022 and March 31, 2022 as required by IFRS 13 fair value measurement.

Balance, March 31, 2022	1,179
Changes in fair value less costs to sell due to biological transformation	14,805
Production costs capitalized to biological assets	3,906
Transferred to inventory upon harvest	(18,834)
Balance, December 31, 2022	1,056

In determining the fair value of biological assets, management had made the following significant assumptions in the valuation model:

	December 31, 2022		March 31, 2022
	Indoor	Outdoor	Indoor	Outdoor
Average fair value per gram ($)	2.00	0.37	0.98	0.37
Average yield per plant (grams)	244	238	60	750
Average of growth cycle (weeks)	13	20	13	16

The Company values cannabis plants at fair value. Management determined cost approximates fair value from the date of receiving the vegetative plants until halfway through the flowering cycle of plants. Measurement of the biological transformation of the plant at fair value begins at the time of planting and is recognized evenly until the point of harvest. The number of weeks in the growing cycle is between twelve and twenty weeks from propagation to harvest.

The fair value adjustment to biological assets and inventory sold consists of the following for the nine months ended:

Change in fair value on growth of biological assets	4,889	2,153
Realized fair value amounts included in inventory sold	(355)	(1,780)
Fair value changes in biological assets and inventory sold	4,534	373

Note 8 Credit Facilities and Promissory Note

December 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into a new loan agreement that provides for a term facility of $12,000 and access to a revolving facility up to $7,000. The loans bear interest at a rate of the National Bank of Canada prime (with a floor of 3.45%) rate plus 9%, annually, with an effective interest rate of 14.8%. Under the agreement, the Company prepaid interest of $749. The availability under the revolving facility is subject to an advance rate against certain accounts receivable balances. Both facilities are payable on the earlier of demand and two years from funding.

The Company received net proceeds of $10,798 on December 24, 2021.

The facility is secured by first lien mortgages on the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities and certain equipment and a general security agreement on the Company.

On each of March 28, 2022 and June 17, 2022 the Company and the lender agreed to certain amendments to the agreement to provide for ongoing funding under the revolving facility despite one or more breaches of existing covenants.

The amortization of the credit facility as at December 3, 2022:

	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	12,073
Interest expense	1,463

Balance, December 31, 2022	8,111

August 2021 Credit Facility - Current

On August 23, 2021, the Company entered into a secured Credit Agreement, to receive $10,000 for working capital and general corporate purposes. The term of the loan was for one year with a fixed interest rate of 12% and an effective interest rate of 17.3%. Accrued interest may either be paid monthly in arrears or upon maturity of the facility. In addition, up to 1,000,000 common share purchase warrants with an exercise price of $0.32 were granted and vest in four tranches of 250,000 quarterly commencing November 20, 2021. The warrants were ascribed a value of $131, using Black Scholes pricing model. The facility is secured by a first lien mortgage on the Port Perry, Ontario facility.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility. Second lien mortgages were granted against the Paris, Ontario and Grimsby, Ontario production facilities. The maturity date was extended by approximately 16 months to December 24, 2023, the stated interest rate applicable changed to 12.45%, and the interest to begin paying in June 2022.

The Company made a principal repayment of $5,000 against the credit facility, together with accrued interest and fees on January 7, 2022. The first tranche of the common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on November 20, 2021. Due to the early repayment, the second tranche vesting February 20, 2022, was reduced to 190,217 from 250,000. The third tranche of 125,000 common share purchase warrants of 250,000 vested on May 20, 2022 and the remaining 125,000 common share purchase warrants vested on August 20, 2022.

On December 24, 2021, the Company entered into an amendment with its lender to revise certain terms in the credit facility including the prepayment of one year of interest, from June 2022 to June 2023, in the amount of $623.

The amortization of the credit facility as at December 31, 2022:

Promissory Note – Non Current

On December 16, 2022, the Company issued a promissory note to receive $1,000 for general corporate purposes. The term of the loan was for two years with a fixed interest rate of 12.75% and an effective interest rate of 14.41%. The promissory note will be due and payable on December 31, 2024. The interest on the amount of the promissory note will accrue and be paid bi-monthly.

The amortization of the promissory note as at December 31, 2022 is as follows:

Note 9 Convertible Debt

Aleafia Convertible Debt

In June 2019, the Company issued 40,250 additional convertible debentures units (the “Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit”) for gross proceeds of $40,300 (the “June 2019 Convertible Debenture”). The Aleafia Convertible Debt Unit consists of one $1,000 principal amount of unsecured convertible debenture of the Company and 680 common share purchase warrants, under the following terms:

- A maturity date of June 27, 2022,
- An interest rate of 8.5% per annum, payable semi-annually,
- Convertible at $1.47 per share until June 27, 2022, at the option of the holder, and
- The Company may accelerate the expiry date of the common share purchase warrants with not less than 30 days’ notice, should the daily volume weighted average trading price of the outstanding common shares of the Company on the TSX be greater than $3.10 for 20 consecutive trading days.

During 2019, Debenture holders converted $2,900 debentures to common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,350.

During the three months ended March 31, 2022, Debenture holders converted $301 debentures to 204,751 common shares. Accordingly, the remaining principal balance to be paid upon maturity is $37,049.

On June 23, 2022, the Company amended key commercial terms of its unsecured convertible debenture (Debenture Amendments), maturing June 27, 2022. The amendment includes, among other things, exchanging the current convertible debentures for new convertible debentures with maturities in two, four and six years. The interest rate remains the same at 8.5%, with payment in kind with additional new convertible debentures and a reduction in the conversion price from $1.47 to $0.25 for the debentures expiring in 2024, $0.30 for the debentures expiring in 2026, and $0.35 for the debentures expiring in 2028.

The Debenture Amendments were effected by the exchange of the outstanding $37,049 principal amount of unsecured convertible debentures for new, secured convertible debentures, which were issued to existing debenture holders in three equal, separate series (each, a “Series”): (a) 8.50% Series A Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2024 (the “Series A Debentures”), (b) 8.50% Series B Secured Debentures Due June 30, 2026 (the “Series B Debentures”), and (c) 8.50% Series C Secured Convertible Debentures Due June 30, 2028 (the “Series C Debentures” and, collectively with the Series A Debentures and the Series B Debentures, the “New Debentures”).

The interest rate remains at 8.5%, with no mandatory cash interest payment for either 24 and 30 months depending on the length of the term, as interest will be paid-in-kind with additional New Debentures (the “PIK Interest”) during these periods.

In addition, $2,387 principal amount of Series C Debentures were issued as consideration for the consent fee payable to debenture holders who consented in favour of the extraordinary resolution approving the Debenture Amendments.

Following the closing of the Debenture Amendments, the following New Debentures are issued and outstanding on the following terms:

New Debenture	Initial Principal Amount	Maturity Date	Conversion Price
Series A Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2024	$0.25
Series B Debentures	$12,350	June 30, 2026	$0.30
Series C Debentures	$14,736	June 30, 2028	$0.35

The New Debentures are secured against certain assets of the Company and are fully subordinated to the Company's existing credit facilities. The Company is not permitted to incur further senior secured indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions, including to fund working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions.

The below table summarizes the changes in the total consolidated convertible debentures.

	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	36,401
Interest accretion	4,076
Conversion into equity	(301)
Derecognition of June 2019 Convertible Debenture	(40,175)
Transaction costs	(636)
Issuance of New Debentures	24,128
Balance, June 30, 2022	23,493
Interest accretion	2,423
Balance December 31, 2022	25,916

The modifications to the June 2019 Convertible Debenture were determined to be substantial and therefore accounted for as an extinguishment.

The liability component of the New Debentures is recorded at the present value of the future interest and principal payments using the discount rate of 19.5%. The equity component represents the residual amount attributed to the Company's liability to equity conversion option amounting to $16,047 and is recorded in the contributed surplus in the interim condensed consolidated statements of financial position.

Note 10 Share Capital

Authorized

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Issued and Outstanding

As at December 31, 2022, there were 403,061,914 common shares issued and outstanding.

During the nine months ended December 31, 2022, the Company issued 68,151,515 common shares at a price of $0.0825 plus 3,407,500 common shares as finder's fee, pursuant to the private placement dated June 24, 2022, resulting in net proceeds of $5,623. Each common share also has one half of one common share purchase warrant (refer to "warrant" section below).

During the nine months ended December 31, 2021, the Company issued 231,500 common shares at an average price per share of $0.41, for gross proceeds of $95 under its at-the-market equity program.

Stock Options

The Company has adopted a stock option plan (the “Plan”), providing the Board of Directors with the discretion to issue an equivalent number of options of up to 20% of the issued and outstanding share capital. Stock options are granted with an exercise price of not less than the closing share price of the day preceding the date of grant.

The total stock option expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the nine months ended December 31, 2022 was $1,721 (nine months ended December 31, 2021 – $2,014).

The following table summarizes information relating to outstanding and exercisable stock options as at December 31, 2022:

	#	$
Balance, March 31, 2022	30,335,946	0.88
Granted	28,904,000	0.09
Forfeited/cancelled	(5,323,175)	0.34
Expired	(250,000)	0.56
Balance, December 31, 2022	53,666,771	0.51
Vested	34,327,271	0.74
Unvested	19,339,500	0.10
Balance, December 31, 2022	53,666,771	0.51

The fair values of the stock options granted during the nine months ended December 31, 2022, were estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with following weighted average assumptions:

Weighted average share price	$0.07
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	2.87%
Weighted expected life-years	3.2 years
Weighted average expected daily volatility	87.5%
Weighted expected dividends	0.00%
Forfeiture rate	5.59%

The volatility was calculated using the historical daily trading prices over a period commensurate with the expected life.

Restricted Share Units (“RSUs”)

The Company has a restricted share unit plan (the “RSU Plan”). For each RSU granted under the plan, the Company recognizes an expense equal to the market value of a common share at the date of grant based on the number of RSUs expected to vest over the term of the vesting period, with a corresponding credit to equity for share-based compensation expense anticipated to be equity settled. RSUs under the RSU plan may vest immediately or become exercisable in various increments based on conditions as determined by the Board. In determining the amount of share-based compensation, the Company used the closing price of the common shares on the RSU grant date.

During the nine months ended December 31, 2022, 2,000,000 RSUs were granted (nine months December 31, 2021 – 1,274,000). The total RSU expense recognized as share-based compensation expense for the nine months ended December 31, 2022 was $362 (nine months December 31, 2021 – $238).

A summary of the RSUs granted and outstanding as at December 31, 2022, is as follows:

	#
Balance, March 31, 2022	717,917
Granted	2,000,000
Exercised/released	(436,917)
Cancelled/forfeited	(127,500)
Balance, December 31, 2022	2,153,500

There are no RSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Deferred Share Unit Plan for Directors

At the Company's annual general meeting on June 30, 2020, shareholders passed a resolution approving the Company's deferred share unit plan (the "DSU Plan"), which was implemented during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The purpose of the DSU Plan is to promote a greater alignment of long-term interests between eligible participants (being non-executive directors only) and the Company and its shareholders, to provide a compensation system for non-employee directors that, together with other director compensation, is reflective of the responsibility, commitment and risk accompanying membership on the Board and the performance of the duties required of the various committees of the Board. The deferred share units are settled in shares.

A summary of the DSUs granted and outstanding as at December 31, 2022 is as follows:

	#
Balance, March 31, 2022	2,030,003
Granted	5,163,027
Balance, December 31, 2022	7,193,030

There are no DSU's exercisable as they are issued as common shares upon vesting.

Warrants

The Company has the following warrants outstanding:

	Warrants outstanding #	Weighted average exercise price $
Balance, March 31, 2022	56,155,432	1.19
Issued	34,075,758	0.10
Expired	(30,960,932)	1.45
Outstanding and exercisable, December 31, 2022	59,270,258	0.40

In conjunction with the issuance of common shares under the private placement, each holder received one half of one common share purchase warrant. A total of 34,075,758 were issued with an exercise price of $0.1025, expiring June 24, 2026. The expiry date may be accelerated by the Company at any time and upon 30 days' notice if the closing price of the common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange is greater than $0.165 for any 10 consecutive trading day after the four month lock up period and prior to the expiry of the warrants.

The remaining outstanding and exercisable warrants expire between March 9, 2023 and June 24, 2026.

Note 11 Expenses by Nature

The consolidated statements of profit (loss) and comprehensive profit (loss) include the following expenses by nature for the nine months ended:

	December 31, 2022	December 31, 2021
Salaries, bonuses and benefits	11,802	17,098
Share-based compensation	2,083	2,252
Termination benefits and severance costs	1,139	498
Total	15,024	19,848

Salaries, bonuses and benefits relating to manufacturing and production facilities are capitalized to inventory and then expensed to cost of sales upon the sale of goods. During the nine months December 31, 2022, the Company recognized salaries, bonuses and benefits of $11,802 (nine months December 31, 2021 – $17,098), of which $5,169 (nine months December 31, 2021 – $6,227) was included in cost of sales and $6,633 (nine months December 31, 2021 – $10,871) was included in operating expenses.

Note 12 Key Management Compensation

Key management includes directors and key executives of the Company.

During the nine months December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Company had the following transactions with the officers and directors of the Company:

	December 31, 2022	December 31, 2021
Wages and benefits: Management	1,037	1,468
Share based compensation: Directors	308	529
Share based compensation: Management	694	894
	2,039	2,891

Note 13 Loss per Share

Loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the three and nine months December 31, 2022 was 403,061,914 and 381,042,259 respectively (three and nine months December 31, 2021 – 331,029,471 and 330,807,544 respectively).

Diluted income per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding taking into consideration the weighted average impact of dilutive securities. All of the Company's potentially dilutive securities are anti-diluted during the periods presented due to losses incurred.

Note 14 Management of Capital

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to sustain a sufficient capital base to maintain investor, creditor, supplier, and customer confidence and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company does not have any externally imposed capital requirements to which it is subject.

The Company defines capital as the aggregate of its shareholders' equity, credit facilities, lease liabilities, promissory note, and convertible debt. The Company manages the capital structure and adjusts it to reflect changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash. In the current period, the Company manages its capital with a heightened focus on maintaining and improving its liquidity. During nine months December 31, 2022, there has been no other significant changes to the management of capital.

Note 15 Financial Instruments and Financial Risks

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, restricted cash, marketable securities, trade and other receivables, investments, accounts payable, lease liability, promissory note, and convertible debt. The following table summarizes the carrying values of the Company's financial instruments by measurement category:

	December 31, 2022	March 31, 2022
Fair value through profit and loss (cash, restricted cash, investments, and marketable securities)	3,047	5,150
Assets, amortized cost (trade receivables)	6,395	7,751
Liabilities, amortized cost (accounts payable, net tax payable, lease liability, credit facilities, promissory note and convertible debt)	61,611	79,903

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The following table sets out for the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as at December 31, 2022 and March 31, 2022:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	434	-	-	434
Restricted cash	168	-	-	168
Marketable securities	49	-	-	49
Investments	-	-	2,396	2,396
Total, December 31, 2022	651	-	2,396	3,047

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Cash	1,347	-	-	1,347
Restricted cash	222	-	-	222
Marketable securities	1,190	-	-	1,190
Investments	-	-	2,391	2,391
Total, March 31, 2022	2,759	-	2,391	5,150

The carrying value of trade receivables, accounts payable and net tax payable are a reasonable approximation of their fair value due to their short-term nature. The carrying value of lease liability, credit facilities, promissory note and convertible debt are a reasonable approximation of their value based on market interest rates for similar instruments as at December 31, 2022.

Risk Management

Effective risk management is fundamental to the success of the organization and is recognized as key in the Company's overall approach to strategy management. The Company has a strong, disciplined risk culture where managing risk is a responsibility shared by all of the company's employees.

The primary goals of the risk management are to ensure that the outcomes of risk-taking activities are consistent with the Company's strategies and the risk appetite and that there is an appropriate balance between risk and reward in order to maximize shareholder value.

The Company has identified the below potential risk categories:

a) Currency risk

The Company's revenues and expenses are denominated in Canadian dollars. The Company's corporate office is based in Canada and current exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal.

The Company does not have any significant foreign currency denominated monetary assets or liabilities and has few transactions denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars. During the nine months December 31, 2022, there has been no change to the management of this risk.

b) Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on the variable rate of interest earned on bank deposits, the variable rate of interest applicable to the $12,000 term facility, and the drawn amount on the revolving facility. The fair value interest rate risk on bank deposits is insignificant as the deposits are short-term in nature. The interest rate risk on convertible debt is insignificant due to the fixed rate of interest on convertible debt. The Company has not entered into any derivative instruments to manage interest rate fluctuations. The Company monitors interest rates and may enter into derivative instruments to hedge interest rate risk should it deem it economically efficient.

c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with the counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist principally of cash, trade and other receivables and marketable securities. The risk exposure is limited to their carrying values reflected on the consolidated statements of financial position. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high-quality financial institution. There are no expected credit losses with respect to cash and as the Company does not invest in asset backed investments. To manage and mitigate credit risk in respect of trade receivables, the Company has the option in certain cases to receive product in kind.

For the nine months December 31, 2022, the expected credit losses of trade and other accounts receivables was assessed based on the expected loss model in compliance with IFRS 9. Individual receivables that were known to have incurred credit losses are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly, and this is reevaluated and subject to change as the Company reevaluates its credit risk exposure. Pursuant to their collective terms, trade accounts receivable, were aged as follows:

Current	4,108	6,363
0 – 30 days past due	301	250
31 – 60 days past due	128	95
61 – 90 days past due	-	69
90 + days past due	1,738	1,176
Provision for credit losses	(654)	(654)
Other receivables	774	452
Total	6,395	7,751

The standard payment terms applicable to most customers are between 30 – 60 days upon receipt of goods. There is negligible credit risk with respect to other receivables, as they primarily originate from government agencies, national insurance companies and a credit card company.

The Company has concentration risk, as approximately 89% (March 31, 2022 – 76%) of total revenue came from three (March 31, 2022 – three) customers and approximately 68% (March 31, 2022 – 79%) of total trade accounts receivable is due from four (March 31, 2022 – three) customers.

d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company has experienced recurring losses and has a cumulative deficit of $515,760. For the nine months ended December 31, 2022, cash flow from operations is negative. Refer to note 2, Going Concern.

As at December 31, 2022, the Company has total current assets of $32,205 (March 31, 2022 – $36,835) and total current liabilities of $33,205 (March 31, 2022 – $72,995), providing for net current liability of $1,000 (March 31, 2022 – net current liability of $36,160). The significant change during the nine months December 31, 2022 is a result of the extinguishment of the June 2019 Convertible Debenture.

The Company has the following undiscounted future payments for convertible debenture, credit facilities, lease obligations, loan payable, and purchase commitments as at December 31, 2022:

	within 1 year	2 years	3 years	4 years	5 years and thereafter
	$	$	$	$	$
Convertible debenture	-	12,015	-	8,467	6,017
Credit facilities	17,597	-	-	-	-
Lease obligations	670	863	411	11	2
Promissory note	-	1,000	-	-	-
Purchase commitments	952	-	-	-	-
Total	19,219	13,878	411	8,478	6,019

Note 16 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, from time to time, the Company may be involved in various claims related to its commercial and/or corporate activities. Although such matters cannot be predicted with certainty, management does not consider the Company's exposure to these claims to be material to these consolidated financial statements.

Certain of Emblem Corp.'s former executives have been named in a claim commenced March 20, 2015, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice that also identifies Emblem Corp. and Emblem in relation to certain services provided to the parties by an individual. The plaintiff has claimed $10,000 in damages. The claim is being contested and is expected to proceed to trial circa 2024 if an early settlement is not achieved. The outcome of this legal matter is subject to negotiations by the officers of the Company and the Company believes it is unlikely to be impacted and accordingly, no amount has been provided for. A separate claim was also initiated by Amos Tayts on March 22, 2019, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice against Emblem and Emblem Corp. arising out of the same facts and seeking the same damages. It is also being contested.

On June 16, 2020, a class-action lawsuit was issued in Calgary, Alberta by Lisa Marie Langevin as the proposed representative plaintiff. The claim has been filed against most of the cannabis manufacturers in Canada and includes, among the many defendants, Emblem Corp. and Aleafia Health. The claim alleges that the THC and CBD levels in the products manufactured and/or sold by the defendants differed from what was represented on packaging, specifically alleging that THC and CBD levels were found to be significantly higher than indicated in some products while others may have had significantly lower levels. The action is seeking $500,000 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial) for all Canadians who purchased medicinal cannabis products on or after June 16, 2010, as well as Canadians who legally purchased cannabis for recreational purposes on or after October 17, 2018. The claim also seeks $5,000 in punitive damages. Ms. Langevin has not alleged that she ever purchased product from Emblem or Aleafia Health. The case is at its earliest stages. The Company believes it has good defenses to the claim and intends to vigorously defend the claim. Accordingly, at this stage no amount has been provided for in the consolidated statements of financial position in respect of this claim.

On February 8, 2023, the Company received a letter from the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Emblem Cannabis Corporation's previously filed Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy ("CEWS") for the period between March 15, 2020 and March 13, 2021. The CRA has audited said periods for Emblem Cannabis Corporation and has proposed a reduction to the CEWS funds provided in the amount of $3.2 million. The Company is actively reviewing the CRA's findings. Based on the Company's records and external advice, it remains of the belief that it is owed the full amount of the previously claimed and received CEWS funds. The Company is currently in the process of filing an objection to dispute the claim. At this time, it is not possible to conclude on the exact amount of the disallowed claims (if any). As such, the Company has not accrued for any potential disallowed CEWS claims in the period. The Company will continue to assess the matter as the dispute resolution progresses.

Note 17 Restatement of Corresponding Amounts

The Company has restated its consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2020 and its consolidated statements of profit (loss) and comprehensive profit (loss), consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020. In the course of preparing the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022, a misinterpretation was discovered involving two non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel recorded in the quarters ended June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020.

In the three months ended June 30 and September 30, 2020, the Company recorded net revenue of $6,163 and $2,104, respectively. Both of these non-recurring transactions in the bulk wholesale sales channel were to one customer. These transactions provided the wholesale customer with extended payment terms which were initiated upon shipment to the customer. Some products which were shipped to the customer were later returned to the Company. No payment to date has been received by the Company for either of these two non-recurring transactions.

As a result of the aforementioned, the restatement impacts the bad debt expense subsequently recorded during the nine months ended December 31, 2021 amounting to $7,855. The following tables present the impact of the restatement adjustments on the Company's previously reported unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at and for the nine months ended December 31, 2021. The "Restated" columns for 2021 reflect final adjusted balances after the restatement.

Note 18 Assets and Liabilities Held for Sale

The Grimsby greenhouse facility was wound down during the quarter and the land and building became available for sale. The facility is actively being marketed and readily available for sale. The sale of the facility is considered probable as multiple proposals have been put forth to the Company. The sale of the Grimsby greenhouse facility is expected to occur this quarter.

The Company determined that a portion of the carrying amount of its Grimsby greenhouse facility, which is classified as held for sale, was no longer recoverable. As a result of this review, the Company recognized an impairment loss of $3,578 in the statement of profit or loss.

The following table presents the major classes of assets and liabilities related to the operations of the Grimsby greenhouse:

	December 31, 2022
Land	1,051
Building	10,949
Assets held for sale	12,000
Credit facility	4,375
Liabilities held for sale	4,375
