CITATION: Man Kin Ng (Re), 2026 ONCA 319

DATE: 20260504

DOCKET: COA-25-CV-1146

Miller, Favreau and Rahman JJ.A.

In the Matter of the Bankruptcy of Gary Man Kin Ng, of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario

Gary Man Kin Ng, acting in person

Mitch Stephenson and Julia Chung, for the respondent, KSV Restructuring Inc., in its capacity as trustee in bankruptcy of Gary Man King Ng

Heard and rendered orally: May 1, 2026

On appeal from the order of Justice Peter J. Cavanagh of the Superior Court of Justice, dated July 22, 2025.

REASONS FOR DECISION

[1] The appellant appeals an order discharging him as a bankrupt if he meets certain conditions, including paying approximately $13.6 million into his bankruptcy estate. He argues that it was improper for the motion judge to impose this monetary condition given that there is no evidence he can fulfill it. He also challenges other conditions imposed by the motion judge.

[2] We see no error in the motion judge's order. He made no error in principle in imposing this monetary condition and it fell within his discretionary powers under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3. The condition was fully justified on the record and in the circumstances of this case. We also see no error in the other conditions imposed.

[3] The appeal is dismissed.

[4] The appellant is to pay costs to the trustee in the amount of $15,000 all inclusive.
