FIRST REPORT OF KSV RESTRUCTURING INC.
AS RECEIVER AND MANAGER

DECEMBER 20, 2021

1.0 Introduction

1. Pursuant to an application (the "Application") by the Ontario Securities Commission (the "OSC") under sections 126 and 129 of the Securities Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. S.5, as amended, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court") made an order on December 10, 2021 (the "Receivership Order") appointing KSV Restructuring Inc. ("KSV") as the receiver and manager (the "Receiver") of the real property listed in Appendix "A" (the "Real Property") and all the other assets, undertakings and properties of the companies (the "Companies") listed in Appendix "B" (together with the Real Property, the "Property"). A copy of the Receivership Order is provided in Appendix "C" and a copy of the Endorsement of Mr. Justice Pattillo is provided in Appendix "D".

2. This report (the “Report”) is filed by KSV in its capacity as Receiver.
3. The principal purposes of the receivership proceedings are to allow the Receiver to take possession and control of the Property and to maximize recoveries for the Companies’ creditors and investors through the sale, refinancing, development or redevelopment of the Real Property.

1.1 Purposes of this Report

1. The purposes of this Report are to:
 - a) provide background information about these proceedings; and
 - b) summarize the Receiver’s activities and its material findings since the date of its appointment.

1.2 Restrictions

1. In preparing this Report, the Receiver has relied upon discussions with Oscar Furtado, the directing mind of the Companies, and Shoaib Ghani, the Companies’ Head of Accounting, the Companies’ unaudited financial information, discussions with various stakeholders in these proceedings, and the Application materials (collectively, the “Information”).
2. The Receiver has not audited or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that complies with Canadian Auditing Standards (“CAS”) pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook and, accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance as contemplated under the CAS in respect of the Information. Any party wishing to place reliance on the Information should perform its own diligence. As the Receivership Order was issued five (5) business days prior to the date of this Report, the findings in this Report are preliminary and subject to change.

2.0 Background

1. The Companies are developers of residential real estate projects in Ontario. The Companies have nine projects under development (each a “Project”, and collectively the “Projects”). The Receiver understands that early-stage construction has commenced on one Project and that the other Projects are in the preliminary development stage.
2. Background information regarding the Companies and the reasons that the OSC sought the appointment of the Receiver are provided in the affidavit of Stephanie Collins (the “Collins Affidavit”), Senior Forensic Accountant in the Enforcement Branch of the OSC, sworn on December 6, 2021. A copy of the Collins Affidavit, together with all other Court materials filed to-date in these proceedings, is available on the Receiver’s website at: <https://www.ksvadvisory.com/experience/case/go-to>.

3.0 Receiver's Activities

1. The Receivership Order was distributed by email to the service list in this matter by Mr. Justice Pattillo shortly after 10:00 pm on Friday, December 10, 2021. At 6:36 am on Saturday, December 11, 2021, the Receiver sent an email to Mr. Furtado to request a meeting with him at the Companies' head office as soon as possible over the weekend. The Receiver also left a voice mail message for Mr. Furtado at approximately 9:30 am on the same day requesting a meeting as soon as possible.
2. Aird & Berlis LLP ("Aird & Berlis"), the Receiver's counsel, was contacted on December 11, 2021 by Miller Thomson LLP ("Miller Thomson"), which advised that it was in the process of being retained as counsel to the Companies. Aird & Berlis and the Receiver attended a call on December 12, 2021 with Miller Thomson to, inter alia, set a time for a meeting between Mr. Furtado and the Receiver. Following the call, Miller Thomson advised that Mr. Furtado was available to meet the Receiver at noon on Monday, December 13, 2021. The Receiver's representatives met with Mr. Furtado and Mr. Ghani during the afternoon of December 13, 2021 and all day on December 14, 2021.
3. A summary of the Receiver's material findings since the date of its appointment is provided below.

3.1 Adelaide LP

1. Go-To Spadina Adelaide Square LP ("Adelaide LP") owns the Real Property located at 355 Adelaide Street West and 46 Charlotte Street in downtown Toronto (the "Adelaide Property"), which is the Companies' most significant Project from a value perspective (the "Adelaide Project").
2. The Application was heard on Thursday, December 9, 2021. On Friday, December 10, 2021, before a decision had been released concerning the Application, Adelaide LP and Go-To Spadina Adelaide Square Inc. executed an agreement of purchase and sale to sell the Adelaide Property (the "Offer"), with a proposed purchaser, whose name is being kept confidential for the purpose of this Report. The Offer is subject to the approval of the Adelaide LP investors, and, if obtained, the proposed purchaser has 120 days to perform due diligence. The Offer includes an insignificant deposit, which the real estate agent for the Adelaide Property (the "Agent") has advised is in the process of being funded.¹
3. In discussions between the Receiver and the Agent, the Agent advised the Receiver that he presented the Adelaide Property opportunity to a small number of parties. The Agent also advised that he has a business relationship with the proposed purchaser and that he presented the opportunity to acquire the Adelaide Property to the proposed purchaser at a price suggested by Mr. Furtado.

¹ The Receiver has not yet determined if this offer should move forward and if so, the terms on which it should move forward.

4. Adelaide LP's trial balance reflects various non-arm's length payables, including amounts owing to Mr. Furtado ($1.3 million) and Hans Jain² ($2.6 million), as well as the balance of a demand loan owing to Adelaide Square Developments Inc. ("ASD") in the amount of $10.4 million, which company and transaction is the subject of extensive discussion in the Collins Affidavit.
5. The Receiver has reviewed Adelaide LP's third quarter interim financial statements dated September 30, 2021 (the "September 30th Statements") (which were provided to at least one investor) and the Companies' audited financial statements for fiscal 2020 (together with the September 30th Statements, the "Financial Statements"). Note 4 of each of the Financial Statements describes the loan from ASD. Each of Mr. Furtado and Anthony Malanca, an individual with several connections to the Companies, is believed to own 11% of ASD. The loan from ASD is not identified as a related party transaction in the Financial Statements.
6. Anthony Marek has invested approximately $13 million in Adelaide LP. He is its largest investor. Through Northridge Maroak Developments Inc. ("Northridge"), Mr. Marek is also a mortgagee of Adelaide LP. The September 30th Statements reflect the principal amount of the loan owing to Northridge as $18,489,000. The loan matures on October 3, 2022.
7. On December 17, 2021, the Receiver and Aird & Berlis spoke with Mr. Marek's legal counsel. Mr. Marek's counsel advised of his client's concerns regarding, inter alia, a lack of financial disclosure by Mr. Furtado, the relationship between Mr. Furtado and ASD and various related party transactions. Mr. Marek's counsel expressed his client's view that Adelaide LP should not remain under the control of Mr. Furtado and advised that he believes that the receivership proceedings should continue.

3.2 Liquidity

1. The Companies have bank accounts at Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC"), The Toronto-Dominion Bank ("TD") and Meridian Credit Union ("Meridian"). As reflected in the schedule below, the Companies' cash balances are a small fraction of the Companies' accounts payable³. The Companies do not appear to have liquidity to advance their projects or to fund overhead costs.

(unaudited; $)	Cash	Accounts Payable	Difference
Go-To Glendale Avenue Inc.	125,933	539,624	(413,690)
Go-To Major Mackenzie South Block Inc.	4,058	971,666	(967,608)
Go-To Niagara Falls Chippawa Inc.	541	271,776	(271,235)
Go-To Niagara Falls Eagle Valley Inc.	10,374	1,315,111	(1,304,737)
Go-To Spadina Adelaide Square Inc.	12,798	7,657,763	(7,644,965)
Go-To Stoney Creek Elfrida Inc.	19,514	335,885	(316,371)
Go-To St. Catharines Beard Inc.	111	47,018	(46,906)
Go-To Vaughan Islington Avenue Inc.	9,275	497,051	(487,776)
2506039 Ontario Limited	120,869	266,489	(145,620)
Total	303,474	11,902,383	(11,598,909)

² Mr. Jain is discussed in the Collins Affidavit and is believed to be a related party.

2. Note 1 to the September 30th Statements addresses Adelaide LP's plans to fund its business. It states, "[T]he project development plans have entered into the second round of the submission being presented to Government authorities to seek approval. The timing of final approval is uncertain. Management believes that working capital requirements along with ability to meet existing loan obligations can be met through refinancing and issuance of new Partnership units." (Emphasis added.) This note confirms Adelaide LP's liquidity issue and the proposed solution – refinancing and the issuance of new partnership units.

3.3 Eagle Valley Project

1. On Wednesday December 15, 2021, the Receiver advised the project manager (the "EV Project Manager")⁴ of the Eagle Valley Project of the inability of Go-To Niagara Falls Eagle Valley LP (the "Go-To Niagara LP") to fund the construction costs of the Eagle Valley Project due to its illiquidity. On Friday, December 17, 2021, the Receiver sent a letter to the EV Project Manager advising that work on the site should be suspended as there is no ability to pay for services and supplies at this time. The Receiver intends to work with the EV Project Manager to consider how to advance the Eagle Valley Project, including sourcing funding for it, if possible.
2. The Receiver understands that at the commencement date of the receivership, Mr. Furtado and the EV Project Manager were in the process of negotiating financing for the Eagle Valley Project. The Receiver understands that Mr. Furtado was also in the process of negotiating various other loans and/or refinancings for certain of the other Projects. The Receiver does not presently have sufficient information as to whether these transactions can be completed or the stage of each of the financing discussions.
3. A lien in the amount of $431,940 was filed on December 10, 2021 against the Eagle Valley Project by HK United Construction Ltd. ("HK"). Liens have also been filed against the Eagle Valley Project by two other parties.

3.4 Vaughan Project

1. The Receiver spoke with the former project manager (the "Vaughan Project Manager") of the Project (the "Vaughan Islington Project") owned by Go-To Vaughan Islington Avenue LP ("Vaughan Islington LP"). The Vaughan Project Manager advised that it terminated its project management agreement in early 2021 with Vaughan Islington LP and Go-To Developments Holdings Inc. due to concerns regarding the contemplated development for that Project.

⁴ The EV Project Manager is also the construction manager of the Eagle Valley Project. The EV Project Manager is also the project and construction manager on three additional Projects, and has various other financial interests in these Projects.

3.5 Glendale Project

1. Torkin Manes LLP (“Torkin Manes”) was counsel to Mr. Furtado and to the Companies prior to these proceedings and it continues to have roles for both. On December 15, 2021, the Receiver and Aird & Berlis discussed with Torkin Manes certain matters related to the receivership proceedings. These discussions included:
 - a) a potential refinancing of the mortgages on the Real Property of the Go-To Glendale Avenue LP Project (the “Glendale Project”) by a loan from a private lender. At this time, it is uncertain if the private lender is prepared to proceed with the refinancing. The Receiver advised Torkin Manes that it requires time to understand the terms of the refinancing and the status of the Glendale Project; and
 - b) the Glendale Project has approximately twenty (20) to twenty-five (25) condominium presales. Torkin Manes advised that all presales are to friends and family of Mr. Furtado. On the day prior to the issuance of the Receivership Order, seven (7) of the purchasers of the pre-sold units terminated their agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Glendale Project. The Receiver does not know the reason for the termination of these agreements.

3.6 Other Activities

1. In addition to the activities described above, the Receiver’s activities have included:
 - a) having Aird & Berlis register the Receivership Order on title to the Real Property;
 - b) commencing a review of the viability of each of the Projects, including working with certain of the Companies’ consultants for this purpose;
 - c) reviewing the status of the Companies’ refinancing efforts;
 - d) sending notices advising of the receivership to mortgagees registered on title, investors, unsecured creditors and Canada Revenue Agency;
 - e) speaking and corresponding with various mortgagees on the Real Property;
 - f) arranging with RBC, TD Bank and Meridian for the Companies’ bank accounts to be restricted to processing deposits only;
 - g) arranging for a third-party contractor to attend at each Project location for the purpose of understanding the state of each Project and the Real Property;
 - h) making arrangements with the third-party contractor and the EV Project Manager to address safety issues at certain of the Real Property;
 - i) reviewing the Companies’ insurance policies and confirming that insurance is in place;
 - j) arranging with Mr. Ghani to update the Companies’ accounting records;
 - k) corresponding with the property manager of the Adelaide Property;

- l) imaging the Companies' server, the computers and emails of its employees and the personal electronic devices of Mr. Furtado and Mr. Ghani;
- m) negotiating a privilege protocol with Miller Thomson concerning the imaged documentation; and
- n) preparing this Report.

The relevant landlord shall be entitled to have a representative present in the leased premises to observe such removal and, if the landlord disputes the Receiver's entitlement to remove any such fixture under the provisions of the lease, such fixture shall remain on the premises and shall be dealt with as agreed between any applicable secured creditors, such landlord and the Receiver, or by further Order of this Court upon application by the Receiver on at least two (2) days' notice to such landlord and any such secured creditors.

11. THIS COURT ORDERS that no Proceeding against or in respect of any of the Receivership Respondents or the Property shall be commenced or continued except with the written consent of the Receiver or with leave of this Court and any and all Proceedings currently under way against or in respect of any of the Receivership Respondents or the Property are hereby stayed and suspended pending further Order of this Court, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the commencement or continuation of any investigation or proceedings in respect of the Receivership Respondents, or any of them, by or before the OSC and its enforcement staff.

NO EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OR REMEDIES

12. THIS COURT ORDERS that all rights and remedies against any of the Receivership Respondents, the Receiver or affecting the Property are hereby stayed and suspended except with the written consent of the Receiver or leave of this Court, provided however that this stay and suspension does not apply in respect of any "eligible financial contract" as defined in the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the "BIA"), and further provided that nothing in this paragraph shall (i) empower the Receiver or the Receivership Respondents to carry on any business which the Receivership Respondents are not lawfully entitled to carry on, (ii) exempt the Receiver or the Receivership Respondents from compliance with statutory or regulatory provisions relating to health, safety or the environment, (iii) prevent the filing of any registration to preserve or perfect a security interest, or (iv) prevent the registration of a claim for lien.

services, centralized banking services, payroll services, insurance, transportation services, utility or other services to any of the Receivership Respondents are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the Receiver, and that the Receiver shall be entitled to the continued use of the Receivership Respondents' current telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the Receiver in accordance with normal payment practices of the Receivership Respondents or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and the Receiver, or as may be ordered by this Court.

RECEIVER TO HOLD FUNDS

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that all funds, monies, cheques, instruments and other forms of payments received or collected by the Receiver from and after the making of this Order from any source whatsoever, including, without limitation, the sale of all or any of the Property and the collection of any accounts receivable in whole or in part, whether in existence on the date of this Order or hereafter coming into existence, shall be deposited into one or more new accounts to be opened by the Receiver (the "Post Receivership Accounts") and the monies standing to the credit of such Post Receivership Accounts from time to time, net of any disbursements provided for herein, shall be held by the Receiver to be paid in accordance with the terms of this Order or any further Order of this Court.

16. THIS COURT ORDERS that all employees of the Receivership Respondents, if any, shall remain the employees of the Receivership Respondents until such time as the Receiver, on the Receivership Respondents' behalf, may terminate the employment of such employees. The Receiver shall not be liable for any employee-related liabilities, including any successor employer liabilities as provided for in section 14.06(1.2) of the BIA, other than such amounts as the Receiver may specifically agree in writing to pay, or in respect of its obligations under sections 81.4(5) or 81.6(3) of the BIA or under the Wage Earner Protection Program Act.

PIPEDA AND ANTI-SPAM LEGISLATION

17. THIS COURT ORDERS that, pursuant to clause 7(3)(c) of the Canada Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, the Receiver shall disclose personal information of identifiable individuals to prospective purchasers or bidders for the Property and to their advisors, but only to the extent desirable or required to negotiate and attempt to complete one or more sales of the Property (each, a "Sale"). Each prospective purchaser or bidder to whom such personal information is disclosed shall maintain and protect the privacy of such information and limit the use of such information to its evaluation of the Sale, and if it does not complete a Sale, shall return all such information to the Receiver, or in the alternative destroy all such information. The purchaser of any Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Receivership Respondents, and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Receiver shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Receiver's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

22. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Receiver and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

23. THIS COURT ORDERS that prior to the passing of its accounts, the Receiver shall be at liberty from time to time to apply reasonable amounts, out of the monies in its hands, against its fees and disbursements, including legal fees and disbursements, incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Receiver or its counsel, and such amounts shall constitute advances against its remuneration and disbursements when and as approved by this Court.

FUNDING OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

24. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver be at liberty and it is hereby empowered to borrow by way of a revolving credit or otherwise, such monies from time to time as it may consider necessary or desirable, provided that the outstanding principal amount does not exceed $250,000.00 (or such greater amount as this Court may by further Order authorize) at any time, at such rate or rates of interest as it deems advisable for such period or periods of time as it may arrange, for the purpose of funding the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon the Receiver by this Order, including interim expenditures. The whole of the Property shall be and is hereby charged by way of a fixed and specific charge (the "Receiver's Borrowings Charge") as security for the payment of the monies borrowed, together with interest and charges thereon, in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subordinate in priority to the Receiver's Charge and the charges as set out in sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA.

25. THIS COURT ORDERS that neither the Receiver's Borrowings Charge nor any other security granted by the Receiver in connection with its borrowings under this Order shall be enforced without leave of this Court.

26. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver is at liberty and authorized to issue certificates substantially in the form annexed as Schedule "D" hereto (the "Receiver's Certificates") for any amount borrowed by it pursuant to this Order.

27. THIS COURT ORDERS that the monies from time to time borrowed by the Receiver pursuant to this Order or any further order of this Court and any and all Receiver's Certificates evidencing the same or any part thereof shall rank on a pari passu basis, unless otherwise agreed to by the holders of any prior issued Receiver's Certificates.

Appendix “D”

DATE: 20211210

HEARD: December 9, 2021

L. A. PATTILLO J

[1] On December 6, 2021, the Ontario Securities Commission (the “Commission”) issued two freeze directions under s. 126(1) of the Securities Act, R.S.O. 1990 c.s.5 (the “Act”) which require the respondent Oscar Furtado (“Furtado”) to maintain and refrain from imperiling assets derived from investor funds and require RBC Direct Investing to maintain the assets in Furtado’s RBC Direct Account.

[2] The Commission brings this application to continue those directions and for the appointment of KSV Restructuring Inc. as receiver and manager of the respondent Go-To entities.

[3] At the outset of the hearing, Furtado requested a short adjournment to permit him to retain new counsel (Mr. Mann appears on a limited retainer) and file responding material. He submitted, notwithstanding the Commission’s Staff’s investigation has been ongoing since March 2019, he was only advised of this proceeding on Monday and did not receive the Commission’s material until Monday evening. He disagrees with the Commission’s allegations, particularly that he misled Staff during the investigation and wants to respond. Nothing in the Commission’s material indicates anything precipitous was about to happen.

[4] In support of his request, Furtado has offered terms including continuing the freeze directions (with some access for living expenses and legal fees), production of the investigation transcripts and the appointment of a monitor as opposed to a receiver at the Commission’s expense.

[5] The Commission opposed the request. It submitted that a monitor would not be sufficient as it would leave Furtado in charge. Rather, in light of the record, a receiver was necessary to safeguard the interests of the investors. Further, while it could have proceeded ex parte under s. 129 of the Act, it gave Furtado notice and sufficient time to file material if required. In that regard, in the absence of material, many of Furtado’s submissions were unsubstantiated.

[6] Based on the allegations concerning Furtado’s actions in respect of his dealings with the Go-To projects and specifically the Go-To Spadina Adelaide Square Limited Partnership. (“Adelaide LP”) as set out in the Commission’s material and which I will address shortly, I was satisfied, despite the length of time the Commission’s investigation has been ongoing, that it was necessary having regard to the interests of the investors to deal with the application rather than adjourn it to a future date and leave Furtado in charge. I also was of the view that Furtado had sufficient notice to file material.

[7] Accordingly, I dismissed Furtado’s adjournment request.

[8] Furtado is the founder and directing mind of the Go-To entities which are limited partnerships. Between 2016 and 2020, Furtado and the respondent Go-To Developments Holdings Inc. (GTDH) raised almost $80 million from Ontario investors for nine Go-To real estate projects by selling limited partnership units. The projects are not complete, and the investors’ funds remain outstanding.

[9] One of the projects is Adelaide LP, whose business is described as purchasing, holding an interest in, conducting pre-development planning with respect to development and construction of two properties, 355 Adelaide St. W. and 46 Charlotte Street in downtown Toronto (the “Properties”). Beginning in February 2019, Furtado began to raise capital for Adelaide LP by selling units.

[10] The Adelaide LP agreement provides that investors would be paid returns pro-rata, after all investors received a return of their capital. It also provides no investor could require return of any capital contributions back until the dissolution, winding up or liquidation of the partnership.

[11] The purchase rights to the Properties were secured by Adelaide Square Developments Inc. (ASD) a company owned, in part, by AKM Holdings Corp. (AKM) which was in turn owned by the wife of Alfredo Malanca (Malanca). Furtado negotiated the Adelaide LP’s acquisitions of the Properties with Malanca as a representative of ASD.

[12] In late March, early April 2019, Adelaide LP and ASD entered into agreements whereby ASD assigned the purchase and sale agreements for the properties to Adelaide LP (the purchase price for the Properties was $53.3 million plus a density bonus on one of the properties). They also entered into an Assignment Fee agreement which provided Adelaide LP would pay ASD an assignment fee of $20.95 million. Adelaide LP paid the assignment fee from investors monies.

[13] At the same time, Furtado pledged the assets of two other Go-To LP’s to secure Adelaide LP obligations contrary to the LP agreements and without notice to any of the unit holders.

[14] On April 4, 2019, Adelaide LP entered into a demand loan agreement with ASD for $19.8 million. The proceeds were paid by ASD to an investor in Adelaide LP for its redemption of $16.8 million units and a $2.7 million flat fee return and $300,000 to Goldmount Financial Group Corp. (Goldmount), a mortgage brokerage in which Malanca is a director, as a referral fee for introducing the investor.

[15] On April 15, 2019, the respondent Furtado Holdings Inc. and AKM each received from ASD 11 shares of ASD and $388,087.33 paid by ASD out of the assignment fee.

[16] On September 19 to 30, 2019, Furtado raised $13.25 million for Adelaide LP from four investors. On October 1, 2019, Adelaide LP paid ASD $12 million on the demand loan although no payment was due or demand made. On the same day, ASD paid both Furtado Holdings and AKM a “dividend” of $6 million each. Furtado denied that he planned to profit on Adelaide LP’s purchase of the Properties and said that ASD decided to give Furtado Holdings “a thank you”.

[17] By August 2020, Furtado Holdings had used the bulk of the $6 million dividend to transfer $2.25 million to Furtado’s personal bank account and loan or otherwise transfer approximately $3.265 million to every Go-To General Partner (GP), GTDH and Go-To Developments Acquisitions Inc. The Commission states it appears the transfers to the GPs were spent on operating costs and payments due to LP investors.

[18] Further, from Furtado’s bank account, approximately $2.026 million was transferred to his RBC Direct Investing account in close proximity to the transfers received from Furtado Holdings.

[19] In addition to the above events involving Adelaide LP, Furtado and ASD, the Commission also submits that Furtado misled Staff during its investigation in respect of some of the answers he gave. As noted, Furtado denies that allegation and submits that he co-operated with Staff and answered all of their questions.

[20] Section 129(1) and (2) of the Act gives the court the discretion, on application by the Commission, to appoint a receiver and manager of the property of any person or company where: (a) it is in the best interests of the creditors, security holders, or subscribers of such person or company; or (b) it is appropriate for the due administration of securities law.

[21] In Ontario Securities Commission v. Sextant Strategic Opportunities Hedge Fund L.P., 2009 CanLII38503 (ONSC) at para. 54, Morawetz J. (as he then was) emphasized that the analysis of the “best interests” of the creditors and security holders in s. 129 is broader than the solvency test. Instead the court should consider “all the circumstances and whether, in the context of those circumstances, it is in the best interests of creditors that a receiver be appointed. The criteria should also take into account the interests of all stakeholders.”

[22] In my view, having regard to all the circumstances, I am satisfied based on the Commission’s evidence of Furtado’s dealings in respect of Adelaide LP that it is in the best interests of the investors in the Go-To projects that a receiver be appointed to ensure that the Go-To projects are managed in a proper fashion to protect the investors’ investments.

[23] The Commission’s investigation has revealed evidence of undisclosed payments to Furtado arising from Adelaide LP’s purchase of the Properties, resulting in misappropriation and improper use of Adelaide LP funds through his dealings with ASD.

[24] The Commission’s evidence establishes Furtado:

- a) Arranged to personally profit from Adelaide LP’s purchase of the Properties;
- b) Misused other Go-To LP assets to secure Adelaide LP’s acquisition of the Properties; and
- c) Gave false and/or misleading evidence to Staff about his dealings with ASD and Furtado Holdings’ receipt of shares and moneys from ASD.

[25] While I acknowledge that Furtado disputes the Commission’s allegation that he mislead Staff, in my view his dealings in respect of Adelaide LP and the cross-collateralization are of great concern by themselves.

[26] I agree with the Commission’s submission that the gravity of the potential breaches of the Act indicated by the evidence raises significant concerns about Furtado’s ability to operate in capital markets in a manner compliant with securities laws.

[27] Accordingly, I am satisfied the Commission has met the requirements of s. 126 of the Act. The appointment of a receiver will ensure that the investors’ interests are protected and that the Go-To entities are properly administered.

[28] Furtado submits that the appointment of a receiver will be the “death knell” for the Go-To projects. It will result in defaults under the various Go-To LP loan agreements. The receivership is not in respect of an insolvency. There is no reason that the various projects can not continue under the control of a receiver. Further, with a stay in place, none of the loan agreements can be placed in default.

[29] Section 126(5.1) of the Act permits the court to continue a freeze direction where it is satisfied that such order would be reasonable and expedient in the circumstances, having due regard to the public interest and either (a) the due administration of Ontario securities law; or (b) the regulation of capital markets in Ontario.

[30] In order to continue a freeze direction, the Commission must establish: (a) there is a serious issue to be tried in respect of the respondents' breaches of the Act; (b) there is a basis to suspect, suggest or prove a connection between the frozen assets and the conduct in issue; and (c) the freeze directions are necessary for the due administration of securities laws or the regulation of capital markets, in Ontario or elsewhere: OSC v. Future Solar Developments, 2015 ONSC 2334 at para. 31.

[31] In my view, the evidence establishes all three parts of the above test. There is at least a serious issue to be tried as to potential breaches of the act by Furtado and Furtado Holdings, including fraud; the directions freeze Furtado's RBC Direct Account and any other assets he derived from investor funds. The evidence of Furtado's uses of the $6 million dividend shows at least a basis to "suspect, suggest or prove" a connection between the assets frozen and the conduct in issue. Finally, continuation of the directions is necessary for the due administration of securities laws. They address inappropriate use of investor funds, dissipation of assets and preservation of assets.

[32] The application is allowed. KSV is appointed as receiver and manager without security of the respondent Go-To entities and the directions are continued until withdrawn or altered by the Commission or further order of the court.

[33] The Commission shall redact any personal information concerning any individual (excluding name, title, contact information or designation of business, profession or official capacity) contained in the exhibits to the affidavit filed in support of the application.
