JUDICIAL NOTES:

Conway J. Endorsement

This scheduling appointment proceeded before me today by Zoom. It followed the recent attendance before Chief Justice Morawetz. I have been assigned to hear the motion to be brought by Ninth Square Capital Corporation to lift the stay with respect to the conduct of discoveries of three individual directors and officers of MPX International. According to counsel, the Chief Justice had indicated that the motion should be scheduled as soon as possible (by the end of September, if possible). I am not available in early October but am able to hear it on September 29, 2022.

I have therefore scheduled the motion before me on September 29, 2022 at 10 a.m. for one hour (confirmed with the CL office). Counsel are working out the timetable among themselves now that they have the date. If any further directions are required, counsel shall arrange another scheduling appointment before me through the CL office.

Conway J.
