ENDORSEMENT OF JUSTICE CONWAY:

After I released my endorsement yesterday, counsel for the DIP lender, Cortland Credit Lending Corporation (Cortland), requested an urgent attendance before me. In its request, Cortland said that it would be seeking redaction of and a sealing order for certain commercial terms that were included in the CCAA Application materials and which Cortland considered confidential.

I had an urgent Zoom hearing with counsel for Cortland and the Applicants this morning. I noted that no request for a sealing order had been included in the Application materials. I further advised that the court is scrutinizing any such requests to ensure that the requirements of the Supreme Court of Canada in Sierra Club/Sherman Estates have been met.

Counsel advised me that just before the Zoom hearing this morning, they had been speaking and thought they could satisfy themselves that they would not require any changes to the public record or further involvement of the court on this issue.

The public record stands. I make no order today.
