NOTICE OF MOTION
(returnable October 30, 2017)

THE MOVING PARTY, Guy Gissin, the Israeli Court-appointed functionary officer and foreign representative (the "Foreign Representative") of Urbancorp Inc. ("UCI"), will make a motion to a judge presiding over the Commercial List on October 30, 2017 at 9:30 a.m., or as soon after that as the motion can be heard, at 330 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

THE PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The motion is to be heard orally.

THE MOTION IS FOR an Order:

1. Authorizing and directing KSV Advisory Inc., in its capacity as monitor of the Applicants (the "Monitor"), to pay the professional fees of the Foreign Representative from the $8 million professional fee reserve (the "Fee Reserve") established in the Urbancorp Cumberland I LP ("Cumberland I") estate; and,
2. Such further and other relief that the moving party may request and this Honourable Court may consider just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:Background

1. On April 21, 2016, certain direct and indirect subsidiaries (the “NOI Entities”) of UCI commenced bankruptcy proposal proceedings pursuant to Section 50.4(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended (the “BIA”). KSV Kofman Inc. (“KSV”) was appointed as the Proposal Trustee;
2. On April 25, 2016, pursuant to an application under Israel’s insolvency regime brought by the indenture trustee (the “Indenture Trustee”) of certain notes issued by UCI on the Israeli Stock Exchange (the “Bond Issuance”), the District Court in Tel Aviv-Jaffa, Israel (the “Israeli Court”) granted an order appointing the Foreign Representative as functionary officer of UCI and giving him certain management powers, authorities and responsibilities over UCI (the “Israeli Proceeding”);
3. On May 11, 2016, the Israeli Court granted an order authorizing the Foreign Representative to enter into a protocol between the Foreign Representative and KSV (the “Protocol”). The Protocol contemplated, among other things, that the NOI Entities and Applicants would file for protection under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”, and the “CCAA Proceedings”);
4. On May 18, 2016, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Ontario Court”) granted an initial order under the CCAA in respect of the Applicants (the “Initial Order”) and appointed KSV as monitor in this proceeding (the “Cumberland One CCAA”). The Initial Order approved the Protocol;
5. On May 18, 2016, the Ontario Court also granted two orders, the Initial Recognition Order and the Supplemental Order, under Part IV of the CCAA in file number CV-16-11392-00CL (the “Part IV Proceeding”);
6. The Initial Recognition Order recognized the Israeli Proceeding in respect of UCI as a “foreign main proceeding” and recognized the Foreign Representative as foreign representative of UCI in the Part IV Proceeding;

Foreign Representative's Professional Fees

7. The Monitor has established a Fee Reserve in the Cumberland I CCAA from proceeds of realizations in the CCAA Proceedings;
8. UCI is the only material and non-contingent creditor of Cumberland I, and had previously consented to an increased distribution to the other accepted creditors in order to obtain this status. UCI also directly and indirectly holds all of the issued ownership units in Cumberland I and, as such, is the sole beneficiary of the Cumberland I estate (other than amounts already reserved for disputed claims);
9. In the interest of administrative efficiency, the Foreign Representative is seeking an Order authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the Foreign Representative's Canadian professional fees from the Fee Reserve as these represent amounts to which UCI is entitled, (other than the fees that might be paid to the Monitor and its counsel and the Applicants' counsel under the Initial Order). Doing so would avoid duplicative transfers of funds from Canada to Israel that would be remitted back to Canada to pay the Canadian professional fees and which would increase costs to UCI creditors;
10. The Israeli Court has already approved the engagement of the Canadian professional advisors;

General

11. Authorizing the Monitor to pay the Foreign Representative's professional fees from the Fee Reserve will allow for the continued efficient and equitable administration of the Part IV Proceedings and the Foreign Representative's involvement in the Cumberland One CCAA and various other Canadian proceedings in which UCI has an interest;
12. Rules 1.04(1), 1.04(2), 2.03, and 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194; and,
13. Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE WILL BE USED AT THE HEARING OF THE MOTION:

1. The Fourth Report of the Foreign Representative dated October 24, 2017; and,
2. Such further and other evidence as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may admit.

The Protocol contemplated, among other things, that the NOI Entities and certain other entities (together, the “Urbancorp CCAA Entities”) would file for protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA", and the "CCAA Proceedings").

4. On May 18, 2016, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Ontario Court") granted an initial order under the CCAA in respect of the Urbancorp CCAA Entities (the "Initial Order") and appointed KSV as monitor (the "Monitor"). The Initial Order also approved the Protocol.
5. On May 18, 2016, the Ontario Court also granted two orders, the Initial Recognition Order and the Supplemental Order, under Part IV of the CCAA.
6. The Initial Recognition Order recognized the Israeli Proceeding in respect of UCI as a "foreign main proceeding" and recognized the Foreign Representative as foreign representative of UCI. A copy of the Initial Recognition Order is attached as Appendix "A" hereto. Pursuant to the Supplemental Order, KSV was appointed as information officer of UCI. A copy of the Supplemental Order is attached as Appendix "B" hereto.
7. The Israeli Court has extended the Foreign Representative's appointment several times and the Ontario Court has granted recognition orders in respect of each extension. As the Plan Approval Order (as defined herein) appoints the Foreign Representative as trustee of the UCI estate, no further extension of his appointment is required under Israeli law.
8. The Foreign Representative has incurred certain Canadian professional fees in connection with these proceedings, and is seeking reimbursement for these expenses from the reserve established by the Monitor for professional fees (the "Fee Reserve") in the Urbancorp Cumberland I LP ("Cumberland I") estate. For the Foreign Representative, it is more efficient to have these fees paid ahead of amounts that would be sent to Israel than having them remitted them back to Canada.
9. The Foreign Representative has scheduled a motion before the Ontario Court, returnable on October 30, 2017 at 9:30 a.m., for an Order recognizing the Plan Approval Order and authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the ongoing Canadian professional fees of the Foreign Representative from the Fee Reserve.

B. PURPOSE OF THE REPORT

10. The purpose of this Fourth Report is to:
 - a. Report to the Ontario Court on the Plan (as defined herein) and the Plan Approval Order; and,
 - b. Request an Order of the Ontario Court:
 - i. recognizing the Plan Approval Order; and,
 - ii. authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the Foreign Representative's Canadian professional fees from the Fee Reserve established in the Cumberland I estate.

C. ISRAELI PLAN APPROVAL ORDER

11. On January 9, 2017, the Israeli Court granted an order (the "Israeli Creditors' Meeting Order"), among other things, authorizing the Foreign Representative to convene a meeting of secured and unsecured UCI creditors in order to vote on a creditors' arrangement plan (the "Plan"). The Ontario Court recognized the Israeli Creditors' Meeting Order on January 27, 2017.
12. In accordance with the Israeli Creditors' Meeting Order, the meeting of secured creditors took place in Israel and the unsecured creditors' meeting was held concurrently in Israel and in Canada. Both meetings took place on May 24, 2017. A meeting of UCI bondholders was also held, in advance of the creditors' meetings, at which the bondholders voted to instruct the Indenture Trustee to vote in favour of the Plan.
13. An overwhelming majority of creditors approved the plan, with 99.9% of secured creditors and 98.7% of unsecured creditors in value voting in favour. Accordingly, the Foreign Representative brought a motion before the Israeli Court to approve the Plan, which was supported by the Israeli Official Receiver.
14. At the approval motion, the Israeli Court considered the terms of the Plan, the votes tendered at the creditors' meetings, and the objections raised by certain stakeholders, including the current shareholders and former Canadian directors of UCI. As an immaterial number of creditors abstained from voting, the Israeli Court held the requisite majority vote of participants at the creditors' meetings had been obtained. On September 26, 2017, the Israeli Court released its decision (the "Plan Approval Order") approving the Plan and dismissing the objections, with costs awarded against the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders (as each term is defined herein) in favour of the Foreign Representative, the Indenture Trustee, and the Israeli Official Receiver. An official translation of the Plan Approval Order is attached to the affidavit of Nadine Amiel, affirmed October 18, 2017, which is attached as Appendix "C" hereto.

15. The key terms of the Plan provide for an immediate interim distribution to UCI's secured creditors in the amount of approximately CAD 20 million from proceeds of realizations in the CCAA Proceedings, the reimbursement of the Indenture Trustee for financing legal proceedings, the establishment of reserves for disputed claims, administrative costs, and professional fees, costs, and expenses related to the filing of third party claims on behalf of UCI's creditors. The Plan also provides for continuing the realization of UCI's group assets and the assignment of UCI creditor claims against third parties in connection with the Bond Issuance to the Foreign Representative to pursue on their behalf.
16. A number of stakeholders objected to the Plan. Objections were filed by Tuvia Facthold (a bondholder, "Facthold"), Alan Saskin, Philip Giles, David Mandel, John Biran, and James Cameroon Somerweil (collectively, the "Canadian Directors"), Fuller Landau Group Inc., in its capacity as Alan Saskin's proposal trustee (the "Proposal Trustee"), and The Webster Trust, TCC/Urbancorp Bay Stadium LP, and Urbancorp Management Inc. (collectively, the "UCI Holdco Shareholders").
17. Facthold opposed the interim distribution contemplated by the Plan and sought to establish a NIS 13 million reserve pending the resolution of his class action claim against UCI for, among other things, losses incurred due to the diminished resale value of his UCI bonds, which remains in the early stages of certification. In its analysis of Facthold's objection, the Israeli Court considered, among other things, that his share in the UCI debt is marginal (as he had a nominal amount of bonds), that his class action claim is conditional, and that UCI creditors will suffer serious damage if no distribution is made pending the resolution of the class action given the significant interest that will continue to accrue on the distribution amount. The Israeli Court ultimately held that it would allow the Foreign Representative to establish the reserve on the condition that Facthold provide a personal undertaking by October 15, 2017, to compensate creditors for any damage caused as a result of holding back the reserve. Facthold did not provide this undertaking and, accordingly, the Foreign Representative paid the reserve to the Indenture Trustee.

18. The Canadian Directors opposed the Plan because it did not indemnify them against claims advanced against them as officers and directors of UCI. Two of the Canadian Directors, Alan Saskin and David Mandell, had filed proofs of claim in respect of such indemnification, which were disallowed by the Foreign Representative. The remaining Canadian Directors did not file claims. Alan Saskin appealed the disallowance of his claim. For this reason, the Foreign Representative and the Israeli Official Receiver respectively argued that the Canadian Directors could not oppose the Plan as they are not UCI creditors and do not have standing to object to the Plan. The Israeli Court held that the Canadian Directors' objection could not prevent approval of the Plan because it was approved by a significant majority of UCI creditors. However, to address the Canadian Directors' concerns, the Israeli Court ordered that distributions would not be made to UCI's Israeli directors, who had negotiated a settlement with the Foreign Representative that subordinated their indemnity claims, until the disputed claims of the Canadian Directors were resolved.
19. The Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders did not oppose the interim distribution contemplated by the Plan but objected to the approval of the Plan generally on the basis that, among other things, the motion to approve the Plan was not supported by the Foreign Representative's affidavit, the Plan does not specifically outline a process for its termination, the Foreign Representative does not have authority to liquidate UCI's assets, and that the assignment of creditors' rights to the Foreign Representative is too general. The Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders also sought clarification regarding the Plan and opposed the approval of the Foreign Representative's fees. The Foreign Representative has maintained that the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders do not have standing to object to the Plan.

20. The Israeli Court considered, as a preliminary threshold matter, whether the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders' objections should be taken into account, given that shareholders' interests defer to the interests of creditors under Israeli insolvency law and are only considered where there is a reasonable possibility that shareholders will receive distributions. The Israeli Court rejected the assertion, advanced by the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders, that shareholders will likely receive distributions on the basis that it was only generally stated and was not supported by any evidence. Instead, the Israeli Court relied on the Foreign Representative's reports which showed that even creditors were unlikely to recover the full amount of their claims. Despite concluding that Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders failed to satisfy the preliminary threshold test, the Israeli Court proceeded to consider, and dismiss, all of their objections to the Plan.
21. The Israeli Court also considered, and dismissed, the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders' objection to the approval of the Foreign Representative's fees. Notably, the Israeli Court held that the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders could not dispute the fees incurred by the Foreign Representative in connection with his investigation of them and the lawsuit filed against the UCI Holdco Shareholders and Alan Saskin, given the conflict of interest that arises in doing so. Rather, the Israeli Court held that deference should be given to the UCI creditors and the Israeli Official Receiver's approval of the Foreign Representative's fees and noted that the Israeli Court and the Israeli Official Receiver had itself previously approved these fees.
22. The Israeli Court awarded costs against the Proposal Trustee and the UCI Holdco Shareholders in connection with their objections in favour of the Foreign Representative, the Indenture Trustee, and the Israeli Official Receiver.
23. The Foreign Representative is seeking an Order of the Ontario Court recognizing the Plan Approval Order, which is effective as of its issuance without regard for any subsequent appeal, unless an order staying the execution of the Plan Approval Order is specifically obtained. No appeals have been filed to date.

D. PAYMENT OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

24. The Monitor has established the Fee Reserve in the Cumberland I estate from proceeds of realizations in the CCAA Proceedings.
25. UCI is the only non-contingent creditor of Cumberland I, and had previously consented to an increased distribution to remaining accepted creditors in order to obtain this status.
26. UCI also holds a 99.99% ownership interest in Cumberland I and a 100% interest in Urbancorp Cumberland I GP Inc., which holds the remaining 0.001% ownership interest in Cumberland I. As such, UCI is the sole beneficiary of the Cumberland I estate (aside from the disputed claims which have been fully reserved for).
27. In the interest of administrative efficiency, the Foreign Representative is seeking an Order of the Ontario Court authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the Foreign Representative's ongoing Canadian professional fees from the Fee Reserve in Cumberland I. Doing so would avoid additional administrative costs and duplicative transfers of funds from Canada to Israel that would be remitted back to Canada to pay the Canadian professional fees. The Israeli Court has already approved the engagement of the Canadian professional advisors.

E. RECOMMENDATIONS

28. The Foreign Representative respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant an Order:
 - a. recognizing the Plan Approval Order; and
 - b. authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the Foreign Representative's Canadian professional fees from the Fee Reserve.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 24 day of October, 2017

Decision

General

1. Before me is an urgent request for the provision of temporary reliefs and for the appointment of a functionary in Urbancorp Inc. (hereinafter: "the Company"), pursuant to Regulation 14(a) of the Companies Regulations ((Request for Compromise or Arrangement), 5762-2002 (hereinafter: "the Arrangement Regulations") and Article 350 of the Companies Act, 5759-1999 (hereinafter: "the Companies Act").

Summary of the Facts

2. The Company incorporated in Canada and it is registered in the county of Ontario. Its main occupation is leasing and initiating real-estate for residential and commercial purposes at the location of its incorporation. The Company operates geothermal systems in several of its projects, which are used for providing heating and cooling for the properties, while using green energy. It is in the control of Mr. Alan Saskin, a citizen of Canada and a resident thereof (hereinafter: "the Controlling Party").

In December 2015 the Company raised bonds from the Israeli public, amounting to approximately 180 million ILS, with an interest of 8.15%. The bonds were raised pursuant to a prospectus dated 30/11/2015 and later completions thereof, and were registered for trade at the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange. It shall be stated that Midroog Ltd. has granted the bonds a rating of A3, a medium-high rank. The underwriter of the issuance was Apex Issuances Ltd., the prospectus was drafted by Shimonov & Co. Law Firm, and the Deloitte firm Brightman, Almagor, Zohar & Co., Accountants. The trustee for the bond holders is Reznik Paz Nevo Trusts Ltd., which has submitted the application. (hereinafter: "the Trustee").

The consideration of the issuance was intended to serve for shareholders' loan for the Company's subsidiaries which are also incorporated in Canada (hereinafter: "the Subsidiaries") and for providing equity for paying off loans in their various projects, as specified in the bill of trust, as well as for the payment of taxes.

The application states that during the months following the issuance, there has been a severe deterioration in the Company's financial state and in its capability to sustain itself, which is the result of a number of events, when according to the Applicant it is impossible to rule out that the share of those had already been known prior to the issuance, but they were not reported. The outcome was that all Company directors, apart from the Controlling Party, have resigned; the Company's trade in securities has ceased; the ranking has ceased, and more. In light of the foregoing, there has been very intensive contact with the Controlling Party, who was supposed to sign a Stand-Still document, and has asked to delay the taking of actions against the Company. Nevertheless, the Trustee was surprised to find out that the Subsidiaries, which excess cash flows were supposed to serve the debt for the holders of bonds, have recently begun an insolvency proceeding in Canada, and a trustee on behalf of the court there has been appointed to them.

The Request

- 3. The Trustee points in his request, to a series of severe failures in the Company's conduct, which also constitute a breach of the bill of trust, and give rise to a cause for providing the debt for immediate repayment and taking proceedings against the Company. For this matter, it has been claimed that it is necessary to immediately intervene in the Company's businesses by appointing a functionary, who shall be granted the authorities of the Company's directorate; who shall exercise the Company's power of control in its Subsidiaries; who shall examine the insolvency proceedings taken by the Subsidiaries; who shall negotiate with the trustee appointed to them; who shall act to obtain all required information pertaining to raising the capital; who shall formulate a recovery plan for the Company, inasmuch as it shall be possible; and who shall enter the Company's premises and its offices and shall seize its assets, including accounts and financial deposits.

- 4. The request was submitted on 24/04/2016, during the Passover recess, and I have instructed holding an urgent discussion today in the presence of the Company, its former functionaries who provide services to it, the Israeli Securities Authority, the Official Receiver and more. In my decision from yesterday, an order for the prohibition of disposition was also granted, according to which the Company and anyone on its behalf is prevented from making any transaction, of any sort and type whatsoever, with its property.

The Court Discussion

- 5. The following were present at the discussion: the Trustee and its representatives; the representative of the recently resigned Company directors; the Company's former legal consultants; the representative of the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange and members of its legal department; the representative of the Official Receiver, as well as Gad Ticho, Adv., on behalf of the Company, who has notified that he had taken on representing the Company the previous evening.

The Trustee's representative, Yoel Freilich, Adv., has repeated the request during the discussion, and has emphasized the need for granting the urgent reliefs. He clarified that the Trustee has engaged with a law firm in Canada, which shall assist the functionary, should he be appointed, in fulfilling his position; that there is no conflict of interests for the intended functionary, and more.

According to the Company's representative, its client does not object to leaving the order of prohibition of disposition effective, however she does not see the need for appointing a functionary and for granting the requested authorities, and she objects to the identity of the suggested functionary due to conflict of interests. In addition, the Company's representative has claimed that there is no need for the drastic requested reliefs, that the Company should be given leave to submit a proper response, that in any case a meeting of the holders of bonds is scheduled for May 1, 2016 – in which the meeting shall decide with regards to continuing the proceeding – and that no irreversible damage shall occur should the order not be granted.

The representative of the Official Receiver holds the opinion that the state of the Company justifies granting a relief against it, similar to other cases in which the court has instructed appointing a functionary, even if it is for a limited period of time, until the situation is clarified.

Discussion and Ruling

- 6. We are dealing with a request which was submitted urgently during the Passover recess, and which requires an urgent decision, therefore I shall suffice with a brief reasoning.

The Rule

The request, by nature, is a request for temporary relief, and prior to submitting the primary proceeding. Therefore, it should be examined by the rules used for temporary reliefs, namely, does the Applicant meet the test of prima facie reliable evidence in the cause of the action as well as the balance of convenience test, and as set in the Civil Procedure Regulations, 5744-1984 and in rulings, when between the two there is a "parallelogram of forces" (see Civil Leave of Appeal 2174/13 D.K. Shops for Rent in Herzlia HaTze'ira Ltd. Vs. Avraham Cohen & Co. Contracting Company Ltd. (published on the website of the Judicial Authority, 19/04/2016).

I shall emphasize, that under the circumstances of the request before me, when the primary relief has not yet been requested, the court is required to take extra precautions when ruling on a request for temporary relief, especially given the drastic temporary reliefs requested therein.

The request is accompanying to a primary proceeding which the Trustee is intending to submit pursuant to the provisions of Article 350 of the Companies Act, which deals with an arrangement between a company and its creditors, a proceeding which, according to the word of the law, can also be taken by a creditor of the company, in addition to the company itself, or a participant or a liquidator. As is known, it is possible to appeal for temporary reliefs even before beginning the primary proceeding, provided that the applicant has met the required conditions stated above.

Another basis for the request, as mentioned, is Regulation 14(a) of the Arrangement Regulations, which authorizes the court to appoint a functionary when discussing a request for arrangement in accordance with Article 350 of the Companies Act, saying:

“To appoint a functionary, who shall have all authorities and duties which shall be determined by the court, including managing the company or supervising its management, keeping its assets, as well as examining claims of debt and claims for amending the registry of shareholders in the method specified in Chapter C; the court shall appoint a functionary once it was convinced that the candidate is suitable for the position due to his skills or his experience in formulating compromise arrangements or an arrangement[...].”

From the General to the Specific

- 7. Viewing the statements of claim and their appendixes paints a grim picture, to say the least, of the state of the Company.

On the surface it appears that it is failing to meet the conditions of the bill of trust, in a way which gives rise to a cause for providing the debt for immediate repayment. For this matter, I shall list the breaches, each of which is sufficient to give rise to the stated cause, let alone when put together: the trade in the Company's bonds has been stopped; the Company's rating by Midroog Ltd. has also been stopped; all of the Company's Israeli directors have resigned, as well as its legal consultants and its internal auditor;

And severe failures in the Company's activity have been found, as specified in the report it submitted pertaining to its financial data, dated April 20, 2016. Amongst those: a loss of 15 million Canadian Dollars compared with the current activity in the last quarter of 2015; a decrease in the value of the right of the Controlling Party assigned to the Company to receive loans from corporations in his control, thus from an estimated value of approximately eight million Dollars, the value is expected to drop to an insignificant amount; concern that the Company shall decrease the value of the geothermal assets at a total ranging between four and six million Canadian Dollars. The end of the report even states that it is possible that the Company's state is far worse and that its losses shall be high.

25/04/2016

Another event teaching of failures in the Company which should be stated, is the decision of the Canadian Home Organization Trion dated April 4, 2016, to not extend the Company's license, namely, the Company is not entitled to continue its activity of initiating and selling planned projects.

This is joined by the fact stated above, that the Subsidiaries have recently begun a stay of proceedings in Canada, as part of which a trustee was appointed to them. The Company and the Controlling Party have not brought this important fact to the knowledge of the Trustee, let alone given details pertaining to the proceeding taken, its significance, its implication on the Company and such.

The conclusion drawn from the stated above is that there is total uncertainty with regards to the Company's financial state, its equity, its capability of sustaining itself, and concern for the fate of the investments made by the holders of bonds. Another conclusion is that there is a substantial lack of information pertaining to the occurrences in the Company, and the Trustee is forced to seek in the dark, all when there is concern for the fate of the Company and its assets, including with regards to the occurrences in the Subsidiaries and their assets, which have enjoyed the monies of capital raised by the holders of bonds.

In my opinion, the stated above is sufficient basis for appointing a functionary to the Company, who shall be authorized to receive all information pertaining to the Company, its activity, its property and its rights, including the Subsidiaries and the proceedings conducted in Canada. Simultaneously, the functionary shall be able to track the Company's property, to locate it, to seize it and to prevent making irreversible actions. I shall add that obtaining the information shall also enable making an educated decision regarding taking appropriate proceedings with regards to the Company, to minimize damages and to redirect, as much as possible, the monies which would be could be paid to the holders of bonds.

Needless to say, the Company is in the twilight zone of insolvency, when there is concern for its fate and for the fate of the monies of investors, unless urgent actions are taken. As stated by the representative of the Official Receiver, the court discussing insolvency has a wide range of reliefs at its disposal, which also apply to a situation where the Company is in the twilight zone of insolvency. In this regard I shall refer to a recent ruling by the Supreme Court, as said by the Honorable Justice E. Hayut in Civil Appeal 3791/15 Synergy Cables vs. Hever, paragraph 8 (published on the website of the Judicial Authority on 19/04/2016);

The District Court has not ruled pursuant to which legal authority it appoints the respondent, but as rightfully stated by the respondent, reality shows that there are cases [...] where the court appoints functionaries in proceedings in which the corporation is in the "zone of insolvency", even prior to issuing an order for stay of proceedings or for the liquidation of the company (compare, for example: Liquidation File (Tel-Aviv) 36681-04-13 Hermetic Trusts (1975) Ltd. vs. IDB Development Ltd. (30/04/2013), in which the District Court in Tel-Aviv (Justice E. Orenstein) has decided to appoint a functionary who was defined as an "observer" for the company, while relying for this purpose of the wide authority granted to him in accordance with Regulation 14(a)(1) of the Companies Regulations [...]

(Emphasis not in the original – E.O.)

This rule also applies to the matter before us.

In my opinion, the circumstances of the case meet the tests required for granting a temporary relief. For this matter, the Company has allegedly breached its undertakings towards the holders of bonds in a way which grants the holders of bonds the right to provide the debt for immediate repayment, and to claim the reliefs due as a result thereof. I shall add that the balance of convenience also leans towards granting the temporary relief. In this context, I shall state that according to the Company's representative, these days a substantial transaction is to be executed, of selling the Company's property, which should provide it with a substantial amount of money; it is not improbable that the consideration shall not be given to the holders of bonds, despite the order of prohibition of disposition, in the absence of practical capability for enforcement, thus causing irreversible damage. Therefore, only a functionary who could also track the stated transaction, could possibly prevent irreversible damage to the holders of bonds.

This conclusion is emphasized noticing the recent problematic conduct of the Controlling Party. As is evident in the request, he has failed to disclose to the Trustee during contacts conducted these days that the Subsidiaries intend on taking the proceeding of insolvency as they have done.

In fact, the Company has no management core, whereas all directors, apart from the Controlling Party, have resigned, it has no internal auditor, and even the legal consultants have terminated their engagement with it. In this state of affairs, the Company is given to the good will of the Controlling Party, and in light of the problems I have pointed pertaining to him, and in the absence of supervision on his conduct, it would be best to appoint an authority who shall take the Company's reigns and shall supervise the occurrences in the Company at least until the picture is clarified.

I have not ignored the claim made by the Company's representative regarding the damage which could be caused to the Company due to appointing the functionary, but I have not seen that it leads to a different conclusion. I believe that the weight of the reasons I have specified above, exceeds by far the concern raised by Advocate Ticho in this regard. In any case, it is possible to find the required balance between guaranteeing the Company's conduct and the argued damage, by limiting the authorities which shall be granted to the Trustee and the period of time in which he shall be appointed. I shall emphasize that the concern raised by Advocate Ticho, which, according to him, may be a result of appointing a temporary liquidator to the Company, can be abated by not appointing a temporary liquidator, which has not even been requested.

I have also answered the argument made by Advocate Ticho regarding the conflict of interest in which the offered functionary is allegedly in, due to him representing the Trustee. I have not found this argument sufficient reason for not appointing Advocate Gissin, and I shall clarify: Gissin & Co. Law Firm has accepted the representation of the Trustee only recently, as Advocate Freilich has said in the discussion. The firm has not represented the Trustee in the process of preparing the prospectus, its publication and the issuance of the bonds, nor in the following period, but only following the Company's getting into trouble. Therefore, it is impossible to say that he is involved in proceedings preceding this request. In addition, should it be found out in the future, that there is a conflict of interest, the argument shall be made before the court and shall be examined by itself, and the argument shall not prevent the appointment at the preliminary stage we are in.

8. To complete the picture I shall state that there is no dispute regarding the authority of the court in Israel to grant the requested relief. In this context, I shall refer to the various documents attached by the Trustee to the request, including the prospectus and the bill of trust, which state that the Company acknowledges the authority of the court in Israel to grant the reliefs (see clause 34 of the bill). In addition, I shall state that Article 39a of the Securities Law, 5728-1968, which applies to the prospectus, rules that the provisions of the Companies Act shall apply to any foreign company which has issued securities. Needless to say, the authority of the court to discuss the request is also pursuant to the court ruling given in a case with similar circumstances, and I shall refer to Civil Appeal 2706/11 Sybil Germany Public Co. Limited vs. Hermetic Trusts (1975) Ltd. (published on the website of the Judicial Authority on 04/09/2015).

האחרון של שנת 2015, הפתוח שוי זכותו של בעל השליטה שחומחת לחברה, לקבל חלואות מתאגידים המוחזקים בדין, כך שמשווי מוערך בסך כשמונה מיליון דולר העך צפוי לצנוח לסכום זניח; חשש שהחברה תפחית את שוויים של חונסים חגאותרמיים בסך המע בין בין ארבעה לשישה מיליון דולר קנדי. בסוף הדיווח אף נכתב כי ייתכן שמצבה של החברה גרוע בתרבה וכי הפסדית יהיו גבוהים.

אירוע נוסף המלמד על כשלים בחברה ושיש לצינו הוא החלטת ארגון הכותם הקנדי Tsion מיום 04.04.16 שלא לחאריך את תוקפו של רישיון החברה, משמע החברה אינה רשאית להמשיך בפעילות חיווס והמכירה במיזמים בתכנון.

לכך מצטרפת העובדה שצוינה לעיל, החברות חבנות נקטו בימים האחרונים בחליך של הקפאת החליכים בקנדה שבמסגרתו מונה לזון נאמן, חברה ובעל השליטה לא הביאו עובדה חשובה זו לידיעת הנאמן, ומקל וחומר לא ניתנו פרטים באשר לחליך שנקט, למשמעותו, להשכלתו על החברה וכיוצא באלה.

המסקנה המתבקשת מהמקובץ דלעיל היא שקיים חוסר ודאות מוחלט באשר למצבה חכספי של החברה, להונה העצמי, ליכולתה לחוסיף ולהתקיים, וחשש לגורל חשקעתם של מחזיקי האג"ח. מסקנה נוספת הינה שקיים חוסר מידע מחותני באשר למתרחש בחברה והנאמן נאלץ לגשש באפלה ותכל כאשר קיים חשש לגורל החברה ולכסיה, לרבות באשר למתרחש בחברות חבנות ונכסיהם, שזון אשר נהנו מכספי גיוס החון מן המחזיקים באיגרות החוב.

לא למותר לציין שחברה נמצאת באזור חדמזמים של חדלות פירעון, כאשר קיים חשש לגורלה ולגורל כספי תמשקיעים אם לא ייקטנו פעולות חדופות. כפי שציין בא"כוח חכניר, באמתתו של בית המשפט הון בחדלות פירעון מעוד רחב של טעדים, נאלה חלים גם במצב שבו חברה נמצאת באזור חדמדומים של חדלות הפירעון. בחקשר זה אפנה לפסיקות בית המשפט העליון מונעת האחרונה, לרברי כבוד חשופטת א' חיות בע"מ 3791/15 סינרגי בבליים נ' חבר, פסקה 8 (פורטס באר"ש, 19.04.2016).

(ההדגשה אינה במקור-א.א.)

יפה ההלכה דלעיל גם על ענינו.

לטעמי נסיבות המקרה וענות על המבחינים הדרושים למען סעד זמני. לעיין זה החברה הפרה לכאורה את התחייבויותיה כלפי מחזיקי האג"ח ובאופן שמקנה למחזיקי האג"ח את הזכות להעמיד את החוב לפירעון מירי ולתבוע את הסעדים המגיעים כתוצאה מכך. אוסיף שגם מאזן הנוחות נוטה למתן הסעד הזמני. בתקשר זה אציין שלדברי בא"מח החברה, בימים אלה אמורה לצאת לפועל יסקה מהותית של מכירת רכוש החברה ושעתיד לחניב לה סכום כסף ניכר; לא מן הנמנע כי התערה לא תגיע לכיסם של מחזיקי האג"ח, חרף צו איסור הדיספוזיציה בהעדר יכולת אכיפה מעשית, ובכך יגרם נזק בלתי הפיך. משכך רק ביל תפקיד שיוכל להתחקות גם אחר העסקת האמורה יוכל למנוע במידת האפשר פגיעה בלתי הפיכה במחזיקי האג"ח.

מסקנתי זו מתעצמת בשים לב להתנהלות הבעייתית של בעל השליטה בעת האחרונה. זה, כמולה מהבקשה, לא גילה לנאמן במהלך חמגעים המתנהלים בימים אלו כי בכונת החברות חבנות לנקוט את החליף של חדלות הפירעון כמות שנגעה על ידם.

נתתי דעתי גם לטענת עו"ד טיכו בדבר ניגוד העניינים שבו שרזי כביכול בעל התמקיד המוצע, בחינתו מייצג את הנאמן. לא מצאתי בטענה זו סיבה מספקת שלא למנות את עו"ד גיסין, ואבחיר: משרד גיסין ושות' קיבל את ייצוג הנאמן דק באחרונה, כדברי עו"ד פרייליך בדיון. המשרד לא ייצג את הנאמן בחליף חכנת התשקיף, פרסומו וחנפסת אגרות החוב ואף לא בתקופה שלאחר מכן אלא רק בעקבות ההסתבכות של החברה. משכך לא ניתן לומר כי הוא מעורב בחליכים שקדמו לבקשה זו. נוסף על כך, אם יתברר בעתיד שקיים ניגוד עניינים תיטען הטענה לפני בית המשפט ותישקל לגופה ואין בכוחה של הטענה למנוע את חמינוי בשלב המקדמי שבו אנו מצויים.

לחלמת הדברים אציין שאין עוררין על סמכותו של בית המשפט בישראל ליתן את חסעד המברקש. אמנה בחקשר זה למסמכים השונים שצירף הנאמן לבקשה, ובחם התשקיף וטר הנאמנות, שבחם נקבע שהחברה מכירה בסמכותו של בית המשפט בישראל לחעניק את חסעדים נראו סעיף 34 לטר). כמורכ אציין שבתשקיף חוחל סעיף 39 לחוק ניירות ערך, התשכ"ח-1968, אשר קובע כי הוראות חוק החברות תחולנת על כל חברה זרה שהנמיקה ניירות ערך. לא למוטר להוסיף כי סמכותו של בית המשפט לדון בבקשה נובעת גם מחלכה של בית המשפט שניתנה במקרה שניסיתנו דומות ואמנה לע"מ 2706/11 SYBIL GERMANY PUBLIC CO. 4 Placed before me is the motion of Adv. Guy Gissin, who has been appointed as the Functionary
5 of the company "Urbancorp Inc.", in the matter of the approval of the Creditors' Arrangement
6 (hereinafter respectively: "the Functionary"; "the Company"; "the Creditors' Arrangement") 7 (Motion 42). Also placed before me are the Functionary's motions: to disburse an intermediate 8 dividend in the amount of NIS 70 million to secured creditor (Motion 47); to approve an 9 intermediate legal fees (Motion 48); to continue to present the Company in the Class Action 10 and to approve the legal fees for dealing with the [Class] Action (Motion 50).

11 For the sake of efficiency, I have chosen to give a combined ruling.

12 2. Background

September 26, 2017

The District Court in Tel Aviv – Jaffa

Company Liquidation File 44348-04-16 Reznik Paz Nevo Trusts Ltd. v. Urbancorp Inc.,
Canadian Company 2471774, et al.
Motions 42, 47, 48, 50

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 The Company was incorporated in Canada and dealt mainly with the leasing and development of 2 real estate for commercial and residence in Canada. In the month of December 2015 the 3 Company raised capital in the amount of NIS 180 million by means of issuing debentures in the 4 Security Exchange in Tel Aviv. The subscriber in the issuance was the Company Apex Issuances 5 Ltd. ("Apex").

6 A few months after the issuance there was a deterioration in the Company's financial state, 7 which inter alia, resulted in the resignation of the Company's directors, and the trading halt in 8 the Company's debentures. The subsidiaries, whose income was destined to serve the debt of 9 holders of the debentures, have taken insolvency proceedings in Canada and a trustee was 10 appointed on behalf of the Canadian court. In light of the above mentioned, the trustee of the 11 bondholders, "Reznick, Paz Nevo Trusts Ltd." (hereinafter: "the Trustee") submitted a motion to 12 appoint a functionary. In the decision dated April 25, 2016 Adv. Guy Gissin was appointed as 13 the Functionary in the Company.

14 At the same time, the controlling shareholder of the Company, Mr. Alan Saskin found himself in 15 insolvency proceedings and the Canadian monitor, the Company, The Fuller Landau Group Inc.
16 (as proposal trustee of Alan Saskin), was proposed as trustee of his assets (hereinafter 17 respectively: "the Debtor"; "the Canadian Trustee").

18 To complete the picture to point out that against the Company a class action was also filed and a 19 motion to approve it as such, at the Economic Department of the District Court in Tel Aviv Yafo, 20 by Mr. Tuvia Facthold (hereinafter: "Facthold") (Class Action file 1746-04-16). In this proceeding 21 claims of breaches and omissions that were carried out by the Company, the Debtor and other 22 Functionaries contrary to the provisions of the Securities Law, 5728 - 1968, (hereinafter: "the 23 Securities Law") were alleged. The amount of the claim stands in the amount of NIS 42 million 24 and is found in the first stages of clarifying the motion to approve the action as a class [action].
25 An additional class action was filed against Apex by Mrs. Noami Monrov ("Monrov") (Class 26 Action file 16652-04-16), and in this matter the lack of disclosure that was tantamount to a 27 misleading detail in the Prospectus contrary to the Securities Law (both of the above mentioned 28 class actions are collectively referred to as "the Class Actions"). Apex filed a motion in the 29 Insolvency court to permit it to file a third-party notice against the Company (Motion 24), and to 30 appeal the Functionary's decision which rejected the debt claim that was submitted to him, as 31 will be detailed in due course.

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 3. The Company's Creditors

2 The main creditors of the Company are the bondholders that operate through the Trustee and 3 in accordance with the Trustee's documents between the Trustee and the bondholders that are 4 not part of the composition (entanglement) of the file before us. The Trustee filed a debt claim 5 to the Functionary in the amount of NIS 180 million and this was approved in full by the 6 Functionary and recognized as a secured debt up to the limit of the amount that will actually be 7 received.

8 Additional creditors of the Company are suppliers and service providers, officers and 9 subsidiaries of the Company whose cumulative crediting stands at about NIS 8.5 million. Out of 10 the amount, as stated, the Functionary approved an amount of about NIS 1.6 million. The 11 Functionary, inter alia, recognized the debt claims for the Directors fees and expenses and the 12 debt claim of various service providers. The Functionary rejected part of the debt claims: debt 13 claims from law offices, contingent indemnification claims that were filed by officers and 14 directors of the company and Apex, payments for mediation services and etc.

15 On the Functionary's ruling of the debt six appeals were filed: four appeals were filed with the 16 attorneys of the functionary in Canada. Two appeals were filed in this court: one, by the 17 Company's Israeli Directors, Messrs, Eyal Geva, Ronen Nekar, Daphna Aviram (hereinafter: "the 18 Israeli Directors") (Different civil appeal 33007-01-17) for which they requested to be 19 compensated from the Company for the claims submitted against them was rejected by the 20 Functionary. From decisions dated March 1, 2017 and March 2, 2017 the consent of the parties 21 was approved according to which the rights of the Israeli directors by virtue of the letter of 22 indemnification have the status of a deferred debt as determined therein. The second was filed 23 by Apex, (Different civil appeal 5249-06-17) and it will focus on the Functionaries rejection of 24 Apex's debt claim for compensation from the Company contrary to the subscription agreement, 25 as far as it may be adjudicated to its liability expenses in the class action proceedings that has 26 been filed against it.

27 On the abovementioned background, the Motions placed on my doorstep will be examined.

28 4. The Motion to Confirm the Creditors' Arrangement

29 4.1 The Principles of the Creditors' Arrangement

30 The Creditors' Arrangement is condensed and includes a number of provisions in the matter:

The Disbursement of a Dividend; the approval of the disbursement of dividends to creditors from proceeds of existing realization and the approval of the disbursement of future monies, as far as these will be received from different sources amongst them the realization of assets and different legal proceedings. According to the Creditors' Arrangement, an intermediate dividend will be disbursed to secured creditor, in other words, the Trustee in the amount of Canadian dollars 20 million, whose value is approximately NIS 70 million. The motion for this disbursement was requested by the Functionary as an independent Motion also (Motion 47) as detailed later.

The Reimbursement Expenses in the Proceeding and Secured Creditors; the approval of the reimbursement of the financing of legal proceedings that have been transferred to the Functionary by the Trustee at the commencement of the proceedings in the amount of NIS 500,000. With respect to secured creditors, it is to be clarified that that any amount that may be received from the realization of "back up projects" as defined in the Prospectus, will be used to repay the secured debt until full repayment. It should be noted further that that proceeds in the amount of Canadian dollars 64.7 million has been received by the monitor, managing the Group's assets.

Maintaining Reserves; an amount will be preserved to finance claims under dispute and reserves to finance class actions out of monies that are destined for disbursement to unsecured creditors. It is furthermore requested to preserve reserves to finance the expenses of the Creditors' Arrangement.

Realization of the Remaining Assets of the Group; The Functionary shall continue to operate to examine the possibility of realizing the Group's remaining assets in Canada, including the rights in the Downview project and the geothermal assets of the Company and the Company's subsidiaries.

Assignment of claims right and taking legal proceedings; The Company's creditors assign to the Functionary with an absolute and irrevocable assignment their entire claim rights towards third parties including: the State authorities, Company's officers and others, whether in Israel or in Canada, with respect to the reasons leading up to the collapse of the Company. The Functionary will, subject to the confirmation of the court, be authorized to take legal steps (proceedings)

1 against said third parties and all as detailed in the Letter of Assignment attached to the Motion
2 to confirm the Creditors' Arrangement.

3 4.2 The Essence of the Creditors' Arrangement

4 The Creditors' Arrangement before me is not a classical arrangement, because the majority of 5 Creditors' Arrangements include provisions according to which the creditors waive a part of 6 their debt; arrange the continuation of the Company's activities, whether by the controlling 7 shareholder who contributes from his sources to the arrangement fund, or otherwise; the 8 possibility of recovery, etc.

9 Different, from the regular Creditors' Arrangement, the essence of the Creditors' Arrangement 10 on the agenda is the disbursement of monies to creditors and the assignment of a claim right of 11 the Company's creditors to the Functionary. The Functionary, details the reasons regarding the 12 need of Creditors' Arrangement for the Company, which is in fact the only alternative, given that 13 the other option is liquidation. After examination of the issues, I did not see any reason in the 14 abovementioned difference for not approving the Creditors' Arrangement and the Functionary's 15 position is acceptable to me. In connection with this, it should be clarified that we are dealing 16 with a Canadian company and in this manner difficulty exists to instruct on the liquidation 17 thereof, all the more so this matter is likely to cause complex, legal complications, with respect 18 to the influence of the liquidation on the insolvency proceedings in Canada. Thus for example, 19 the process of liquidation, is likely to give rise to questions of the Functionary's authority as well 20 as the authority of the court, and this is especially true when in Canada different possibilities 21 were raised concerning the continued operations of the Company and in order to realize the 22 different alternatives, and in this way it appears that the way of Creditors' Arrangement is 23 preferable compared to that of liquidation.

24 I emphasize that the Creditors' Arrangement is also possible in the sense of the fact that it is a 25 default option whilst there is no other mechanism that allows for the granting of suitable 26 remedies. In this context, it has occurred to me to express my position in the liquidation of the 27 Company (Tel Aviv District) 35560-80 Sella Capital Real Estate Ltd. v. the shareholders in the 28 Company (published in Nevo, November 7, 2010), paragraph 23 and is apt/appropriate in our 29 matter also:

30 "In general, Section 350 of the Companies Law grants the court the authority to approve a 31 different compromise or arrangement in companies in a general statutory framework, whose 32 aim is to assist the application of implementing various arrangements in companies, whilst

1 adapting to the changing economic needs in accordance with the spirit of the times. We are 2 dealing with a framework section which is used to implement a wide variety of arrangements 3 and it is impossible to refute that in the appropriate case this provision also constitutes the 4 possible legal framework to purchase shares.

5 My approach is in line with the court ruling with respect to the implementation of Section 350
 6 of the Companies Law. In this matter we turn to Miscellaneous Civil Applications (TA) 4139/01 7 Carmel Investments Group Ltd. v. the Phoenix Israeli Insurance Company Ltd. 33 (1)772".

 9 In light of the abovementioned conclusion, I will detail the continuation of the development of 10 the events in connection with the Creditors' Arrangement.

11
 12 5. The Creditors' and Shareholder's Meetings

13 On May 24, 2017, secured and unsecured creditors meeting were held in Israel and Canada. The 14 meetings were preceded by a Company's bondholders meeting dated May 16, 2017, where the 15 bond holders instructed the Trustee how to vote at the creditors' meetings.

16 The secured creditors: The secured creditors' meeting confirmed the arrangement with a claim 17 majority of 99.9%. The Trustee voted on behalf of all the debenture voters with secured claims 18 in the amount of NIS 135,411,391. The bondholders that requested to exclude themselves are:
 19 Facthold, who voted against the Creditors' Arrangement on the basis of a claim in the amount of 20 NIS 2,662 and Mr. Zuckerman, with a claim in the amount of NIS 7,475 who abstained from 21 voting.

22 The unsecured creditors: The unsecured creditors meeting confirmed the arrangement with a 23 claim majority of 98.7%. The Trustee voted claims of the bondholders in the amount of NIS 24 51,237,242 of the unsecured bondholders; that is all the bondholders, except for the 25 bondholders that requested to exclude themselves: Mr. David Mandel, a Company director, 26 through a power of attorney Mr. Ted Saskin, who voted against the Creditors' Arrangement, his 27 claim in the amount of NIS 18,545; the company West Side Gallery Lofts Inc. through the Debtor 28 and the Canadian Trustee, who objected to the Creditors' Arrangement and its claim in the 29 amount of NIS 430,096. The Israeli directors abstained from voting on the Creditors' 30 Arrangement, their claims are in the amount of NIS 221,018 which is the amount that was 31 approved as directors' remuneration. Additional bondholders who excused themselves, objected to the Creditors' Arrangement by virtue of claims in the amount of NIS 1,007 and abstaining by virtue of claims in the amount of NIS 2,828.

Given that the Trustee represents the absolute majority of the bondholders, that is, beyond the claims' value majority, there is a majority of voters in two of the creditors votes, as well.

The shareholders: At the shareholder's meeting the company Urbancorp Holdco Inc. participated through the Debtor and the Canadian Trustee, which according to its declaration holds (possesses) the full voting rights on behalf of the Company. The shareholder voted against the Creditors' Arrangement.

6. After the voting the Functionary petitioned to confirm the Arrangement and which made it possible for the creditors to file objections. Three organized objections were submitted: the first, by Facthold, the second by the Canadian creditors: the Debtor and Messrs Philip Giles, David Mandel, John Biran, James Cameroon Somerweil (hereinafter collectively: "the Canadian Directors"); the third by the Canadian Trustee, and indirectly, the Companies: The Webster Trust; TCC/Urbancorp Bay Stadium LP; Urbancorp Management Inc. (hereinafter collectively: "the Shareholders").

7. A hearing in the presence of the parties

In the light of filing objections whose principles will be detailed in due course (later), a hearing was held on September 17, 2017, [a hearing] in the presence of the parties, during the course of which the lawyers for the parties emphasized their objections and the Functionary, the Trustee and the Official Receiver, related to these. For the sake of efficiency, I shall deal with each objection, in its own right.

8. The Will of the Majority of the Creditors

Before discussing the merits of the objections, I should preface by noting that under the provisions of Section 350(1) of the Companies Law, 5759-1999 (the "Companies Law"), it is required that the meetings of each series (type) approve the Settlement with a majority of three-fourths of the debt and a majority of participants, meaning:

"If, in each series (type) meeting gathered under Subsection (A), most of the participants in the vote (less the abstainers), jointly holding three-fourths of the debt represented in the

1 vote, agreed to the settlement or arrangement, and the court certified the settlement or 2 arrangement, these shall bind the Company and all of the creditors or shareholders or any 3 series thereof, as applicable, and if it is in the process of winding up – the liquidator and any 4 participant (contributory).”

5 To apply this to our case, none dispute that in our case, each series meeting, apart from the 6 meeting of shareholders, approved the Creditors’ Arrangement by a landslide – well beyond the 7 requirements of Section 350(l) of the Companies Law. Thus, in absence of special circumstances, 8 the Court must certify the Creditors’ Arrangement by accepting the required majority of the series 9 meetings, and subject to ruling on any objections and weighing the decision of the shareholders’ 10 meeting. It is a fundamental principle that the will of the creditors must be respected, and the 11 Settlement that merited the support of required majority of creditors participating in the vote and 12 holding 75% of the debt must be certified. The rationale for this is that the creditors are in the best 13 position to evaluate whether or not the Creditors’ Arrangement is to their advantage. On this note, 14 I refer to Civil Appeal 3782/09 Legin Food Packaging Ltd. v. Bank Leumi Israel Ltd. (published on 15 Nevo, February 25, 2014), para. 15:

16 “As stated, even in cases where the creditor meetings have voted in favor of the settlement, 17 the court must certify the settlement (see Section 350(l) of the Companies Law). The court will 18 generally tend towards certifying a settlement that the creditor meetings have voted in favor 19 of. The reason for this is that the vote of the creditor meetings reflects the preferences of the 20 majority of creditors with respect to the proposed settlement. It can be assumed that the 21 creditors themselves are in the best position to evaluate whether or not the settlement is to 22 their advantage. Thus, as a rule, the court will not substitute the judgment of the creditors 23 with its own. Only in exceptional cases of lack of reasonableness or unfairness will the court 24 decide not to certify the settlement (Alshich and Orbach, pp. 617).”

25 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Court has the authority to refuse to certify the Creditors’ 26 Arrangement, even if it received the support of the majority of the creditors; however, this will only 27 be done in exceptional circumstances, such as when it is proven that a defect occurred in the voting 28 process of the creditor meetings, or where there were ulterior economic motives that are sufficient 29 to disqualify the Creditors’ Arrangement. I refer to Liquidation (Nazareth District) 21285-02-13 Amir

 4 18; Alshich and Orbach, Suspension of Proceedings (Second Edition, 2010) ("Alshich and Orbach"), 5 pp. 622; I have established additional considerations in the ruling on Liquidation (Tel Aviv District)
 6 11478-06-13 I.D.B. Holdings Ltd. v. the Official Receiver (published on Nevo, December 17, 2013), 7 pp. 17.

8 9. As stated, the creditor meetings approved the Creditors' Arrangement with an absolute majority of 9 99.9% of the debt from the secured creditors and an absolute majority of 98.7% of the debt from 10 the unsecured creditors, i.e., well beyond the majority required by law. A majority of participants 11 was also achieved in each of the meetings. Thus, I will consider the reasons for the objections, the 12 significance of the opposition of the shareholder meeting and whether these pose a reason not to 13 certify the Creditors' Arrangement.

14 10. Fachtold's Opposition

15 Fachtold, who holds NIS 2,662 in the Company's bonds, opposes the full disbursement of the 16 interim dividend to the secured creditor – i.e., the Trustee – unless the Functionary retains NIS 13 17 million in his treasury until the ruling on the class action.

18 The Functionary and the Trustee oppose the position of Fachtold, and believe that there is no 19 reason to suspend payments, considering that the ruling on the class action will not be for a long 20 time, during which period serious damages will be incurred by the creditors who do not receive 21 their payments, and given the enormous sum of interest that will accrue on the sum of the balance 22 that is suspended and not disbursed at Fachtold's request. It was further argued that Fachtold did 23 not explain how he arrived at the sum of NIS 13 million.

24 The Official Receiver indicated that we are dealing with a conditional debt, starting with the 25 recognition of the class action and continuing with the acceptance of the claim itself, as well as the 26 damages that will be incurred as a result of the delay.

27 10.1 I don't believe that Fachtold's opposition is sufficient to prevent the certification of the 28 Creditors' Arrangement; to be clear.

1 Fachtold represents a marginal share of the debt, since, as noted, he holds a negligible sum 2 of bonds that is not sufficient to negate the adoption of the Settlement, as far as the scope of 3 the debt is concerned. It is also clear that Fachtold's objection alone is not sufficient to 4 negate the required majority for the approval of the Settlement, as far as the number of 5 voters supporting the Creditors' Arrangement is concerned.

6 Ex gratia, even if the entire debt alleged by Fachtold in the name of the class of plaintiffs he 7 purports to represent is recognized, and even if he is recognized as a secured creditor of the 8 Company, this would still be clearly insufficient to negate the required majority for approving 9 the Settlement. As stated, Fachtold has filed claim in the name of all of the plaintiffs in the 10 class action, for a sum of NIS 42 million – a sum comprising some 23.5% of the scope of the 11 secured debt. Since the rest of the secured creditors have supported the Settlement, there is, 12 in any event, a required majority of the debt for approval of the Creditors' Arrangement –
13 even if the class action in its entirety is accepted. Therefore, the conclusion is that Fachtold's 14 opposition is not sufficient to prevent the result of the meeting of secured creditors 15 approving the Creditors' Arrangement with the required majority, whether with respect to 16 the value or the quorum.

17 I should note that Fachtold's motion to consolidate NIS 13 million for the class members he 18 purports to represent in the framework of the class action proceeding was adjudicated 19 before me in Motion 34. I reasoned that the motion to consolidate funds to secure Fachtold's 20 claim essentially amounted to a temporary injunction; therefore, it was appropriate that the 21 motion be adjudicated in the framework of the class action, given that the class action court 22 has the tools to evaluate the chances of the claim, and, in this framework, the motion to 23 consolidate funds to secure it. Thus, in my ruling of July 3, 2017, I instructed Fachtold to refer 24 his motion to the court adjudicating the class action. A leave of appeal to the Supreme Court 25 was filed on that ruling (Leave of Civil Appeal 5846/17), and the Supreme Court's ruling of 26 September 13, 2017 determined that, given the lack of clarity with respect to the type of 27 debt represented by Fachtold – i.e., secured or unsecured – the insolvency court should 28 establish whether we are dealing with a secured or unsecured debt, for the purpose of 29 Fachtold's motion to consolidate funds. It was further determined that the insolvency court 30 will determine the manner of adjudication with which to investigate the type of debt

1 represented by Fachtold. The difficulty is that, even if I were to determine the type of debt 2 represented, this would not be sufficient to quantify the scope of Fachtold's debt, nor 3 whether or not it is a certain debt.

4 Fachtold is a conditional creditor, since he must first convince the court adjudicating the class 5 action to accept his motion to certify the class action. If and to the extent that he succeeds in 6 this task, he will need to convince the court to accept the class action itself. There is no doubt 7 that this is a process that will take a long time, not least considering the possibility of an 8 appeal, should one be filed. One must consider that, during this entire period, a sum of NIS 9 13 million – out of the total sum of NIS 70 million, i.e. nearly 20% of the sum intended to be 10 disbursed – should be retained at Fachtold's request, without this Court so much as having 11 the tools to investigate whether there is any justification for retaining said sum.

12 10.2 Reflection on the significance of the class action hovering over the Creditors' Arrangement: 13 When the certification of a Creditors' Arrangement is sought for a company that is also the 14 subject of a class action, the prospect of the claim clouds the Creditors' Arrangement, since 15 there is no way to truly know how the class action will affect the Creditors' Arrangement, 16 considering it is a conditional claim. Class actions, which are subject to recognition or 17 certification as class action, are usually complex and complicated, involve large sums, and 18 don't require the movant to pay a fee, which increases the uncertainty and significantly 19 reduces the rate of the dividend that can be disbursed to the creditors – even if these 20 deserve higher dividends. This difficult issue was expressed by the scholars Alshich and 21 Orbach, pp. 702-707:

22 "It's not difficult to see that the class action contains all of the elements that could 23 prove destructive to the Creditors' Arrangement: Legal-factual complexity making it 24 unsuited to determination by the trustee, and often causing it to continue for several 25 long years; a tendency to reach enormous sums, especially when filed in the name of a 26 large class of alleged injured parties; and the fear of abuse by "professional" 27 blackmailers and plaintiffs."

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 I concur with the opinion of these scholars as to the difficulty generated by pending claims 2 that frustrate the progression of the Creditors' Arrangement proceedings and raise the 3 specter of undermining the Creditors' Arrangement, all the while being unable to negate the 4 possibility of same being entirely unjustified – such as in the event that the motion to certify
 5 the class action, or the class action itself, are dismissed. This difficulty also exists with respect 6 to regular claims that are filed, such as tort claims; however, its potency is less than when 7 dealing with class actions, for the reasons I have listed above.

8 I should note that the secondary legislator was aware of the problems stated above, and, for 9 this reason, created a legislative mechanism in the form of Regulation 24(B) of the 10 Companies Regulations (Motion for Settlement or Arrangement), 5762-2002 (the 11 "Settlement Regulations"), which determines that:

12 "If a debt claim is filed for a conditional or unfixed debt, the functionary shall 13 determine the chances, by its estimation, of the condition's fulfillment, or the value of 14 the debt, as applicable; should the functionary determine that an unfixed debt cannot 15 be fairly estimated, said debt claim shall not be allowed to vote; should the 16 functionary believe that the chances of the realization of a conditional debt cannot be 17 determined, it shall refer the matter to the court, and the court shall determine the 18 entitlement of the conditional debt's creditor to vote in the meetings."

19 It would appear to be fitting that I order the activation of the mechanism set out in 20 Regulation 24 of the Settlement Regulations, such that the Functionary would examine 21 Fachtold's debt claim in accordance with the mechanism stated in the regulation, and only 22 following and subject to such examination, advance the Creditors' Arrangement and consider 23 how the meetings should vote. This being said, I don't believe Regulation 24 of the 24 Settlement Regulations applies in our case. On this note, I should clarify that Fachtold claims 25 to be a secured creditor, along with the class he claims to represent. This being the case, he 26 is not required to file a debt claim. Therefore, the mechanism set out in Regulation 24 of the 27 Settlement Regulations is inapplicable in our case. Moreover, Fachtold did not appeal to 28 prevent the convening of the creditor meetings until after the decision regarding his debt, its

1 scope and its type. For this reason, as will, there is no reason to reopen the convening of the 2 meetings, nor the manner of their voting.

3 Above and beyond – As stated, in our matter, even if the class action is granted in full, and 4 Fachtold's debt claim, as well as the class he purports to represent as a secured creditor are 5 recognized, this alone shall not be sufficient to deny the Creditors' Arrangement at this point.
 6 This is the case given that the full amount of the debt according to the class action falls 7 below the scope of debt that may have prevented the confirmation of the Creditors' 8 Arrangement with regard to the majority of the debt stipulated in Section 350(l) of the 9 Companies Law, since, in any event, over three quarters of the scope of the required credit 10 to confirm the Creditors' Arrangement was attained.

11 The problematic nature of Fachtold's motion to consolidate the funds in the case before me 12 is intensified given that Fachtold is motioning to withhold the payment to the secured 13 creditors, and in light of the considerable amount that he is motioning to withhold NIS 13
 14 million. This is further intensified given that he is still a conditional creditor since the action 15 has yet to be recognized as a class action, and in any event, the action has yet to be ruled on 16 its merits. As stated, the insolvency court does not have the tools to assess the odds of the 17 class action's certification, nor the odds of the action itself. These are determined by the 18 court hearing the class action. However, the Supreme Court's decision instructing the stay for 19 disbursing dividends until September 27, 2017 must be implemented in order to enable 20 Fachtold to file an appropriate motion. Although, as detailed above, the ruling shall not 21 determine the scope of the debt, nor the certainty of the creditor, but rather only the type of 22 creditor. I deliberated/considered whether there is room to delay the clarification of the 23 decision regarding the type of creditor until after the clarification of whether the 24 prerequisites were fulfilled. However, in light of the Supreme Court's ruling, I found that the 25 deliberation of the dispute regarding the creditor's classification should advance.

26 10.3 For the sake of caution and in light of the Supreme Court's order, according to which the 27 disbursement of funds shall be delayed in the rate petitioned by Fachtold, the order shall 28 remain in place until another decision is reached. However, I believe that if it later becomes 29 apparent that there was no basis for the stay that harmed the creditors, they must be

1 allowed to file an action against Fachtold for the damage it caused, if any. In this regard, one
2 must draw an analogy from the temporary injunctions chapter in the Civil Procedure
3 Regulations, 5744-1984 (the "Civil Procedure Regulations"), and from the case-law that laid 4 the legal foundation required to charge a plaintiff at whose request a temporary injunction 5 was filed, for damages caused as a result of granting the injunction, after his action was 6 rejected. Similarly, one may draw the analogy from Regulations 364-365 of the Civil 7 Procedure Regulations. Therefore, as a condition for the stay, Fachtold must sign on a 8 personal undertaking to pay for any damages caused, if any, as a result of granting the 9 temporary stay for disbursing dividends to the creditors.

10 10.4 Therefore, I instruct that the sum of NIS 13 million from the total funds that the Functionary 11 motions to disburse shall be retained at Fachtold's request until another ruling is reached, 12 subject to Fachtold signing a personal undertaking by October 15, 2017, as required 13 according to Article 365(B) of the Civil Procedure Regulations, mutatis mutandis.

14 Fachtold shall file a motion to be recognized as a secured creditor by November 1, 2017. The 15 Functionary shall respond to the motion by December 1, 2017. The motion shall be brought 16 for my review on that date. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties shall file a copy of the 17 pleadings to the clerk by the stipulated date, in addition to filing a copy on Net HaMishpat.

18 10.5 As an aside, reference to the other reasons of Fachtold's opposition, including the 19 assignment of the plaintiff's rights, will be discussed in the continuation of the judgment, 20 since these reasons were also raised by additional opponents.

21 11. Opposition of the Canadian Directors

22 The Canadian Directors oppose the Creditors' Arrangement, primarily since it does not include the 23 indemnification to which they are entitled to the extent that they will be charged with actions filed 24 against them due to them being officers in this Company. This is as opposed to the Israeli Directors 25 who received the status of the Company's deferred creditors.

26 The Functionary disputes the Canadian Directors' objections, and claims that their objections are 27 intended to prevent their investigation and the filing of legal proceedings against them. The 28 Functionary further claims that the Canadian Directors' objections should be rejected once the debt

1 claim that they filed was dismissed and they did not file an appeal, thereby implying that we are 2 dealing with a final dismissal, and they shall not be considered creditors of the Company. The 3 Official Receiver believes that Canadian Directors do not have standing since they did not appeal the 4 ruling regarding the Functionary's debt.

5 In the hearing, the Canadian Directors' representative claimed that his client still has the right to file
 6 an appeal regarding the Functionary's ruling rejecting the Director's debt action. The representative 7 even petitioned to present a document in this regard. In contrast, the Functionary claimed that the 8 date had already passed, as stated in his response. I did not see fit to receive the document given 9 that we are dealing with a factual matter that must be supported by an affidavit, that the Canadian 10 Director's representative did not have, as well as the fact that they did not appear at the hearing. I 11 believe that there is no place for this Court to make determinations regarding the factual dispute 12 between the Canadian Directors and the Functionary with regard to the former's [sic] rights to 13 appeal the Functionary's ruling. This dispute shall be heard before the competent authority in the 14 context of the appropriate proceeding, if filed, and there is no place to require it in the framework 15 of the motion to confirm the Creditors' Arrangement.

16 To the crux of the matter – since the regular/unsecured creditors' meeting confirmed the Creditors' 17 Arrangement by a majority above and beyond the required, as detailed above, the Canadian 18 Directors' opposition cannot prevent the confirmation. Not to mention that their only opposition 19 was based on differences in the settlement between them and the Israeli Directors that will be 20 compromised if it becomes apparent that the Canadian Directors' have the right to appeal the 21 rejection of the debt claim, and insofar as they file an appeal and it is accepted. In order to assure 22 the Canadian Directors, it was clarified that dividends would not be disbursed to the deferred 23 creditors until the fate of the Canadian Directors' creditors is clarified.

24 12. Opposition of the Shareholders

25 The Canadian Trustee and the Shareholders believe that there is a good chance that the Company's 26 whole debt shall be paid, and therefore, in their opinion, weight should be given to their position in 27 confirming the Creditors' Arrangement. The Canadian Trustee and the Shareholders do not oppose 28 to the interim disbursement/ of dividends, but believe that the Creditors' Arrangement should not 29 be confirmed for a number of reasons: the motion to confirm the Creditors' Arrangement is not

1 supported by the Functionary's affidavit; the Creditors' Arrangement is worded in a general manner 2 and does not stipulate an outline that will end the procedure; the Functionary does not have the 3 authority to liquidate the assets since it is delegated to the Canadian Functionaries; the assignment 4 of the creditors' rights to an action is general; clarifications were requested from them on specific 5 topics; the Canadian Trustee and the Shareholders oppose the fees petitioned by the Functionary.

6 In the framework of the motion to disburse an interim dividend (Motion 47), I will refer to the 7 opposition of the Canadian Trustee and Shareholders to keep the sum of NIS 7 million in the 8 Functionary's fund for financing his expenses, since, in their opinion, this amount must also be 9 disbursed to the creditors.

10 12.1 This is the place to note that Fachtold joined some of the Canadian Trustee's and 11 Shareholders' objections that were mentioned above. Among these: Fachtold opposes the 12 Functionary's assignment of rights in light of his petitioned general assignment, and it is 13 likely to overlap the grounds for the class action that he filed, as well as due to the conflict 14 of interests between the Functionary and the Company's creditors. Fachtold further claims 15 that the Creditors' Arrangement should not be confirmed since it is not supported by an 16 affidavit. The Functionary did not specify, in his opinion, the financial scope requested by 17 him to execute the Settlement, and he did not specify the amount of the financial reserves 18 that he wishes to maintain.

19 12.2 The Functionary disagrees with the stance of both the Canadian Trustee and the 20 Shareholders, as well as with Fachtold's stance.

21 As for the essence of the Canadian Trustee's and the Shareholders' opposition, the 22 Functionary claims that these parties do not have standing with regard to the Creditors' 23 Arrangement confirmation.

24 The Functionary's claim to the objections' merits:

25 It is claimed that the motive at the basis of the opposition of the Canadian Trustee and the 26 shareholders is to prevent their investigation and the filing of legal proceedings against them.
27 As for the petition for details of the rights assigned to the Functionary by the Trustee, the 28 Functionary claims that this, along with the findings of his investigation, were intended to

1 expose the legal grounds for which he would make a future claim against the Canadian Trustee
2 and the Shareholders. As for Fachold's claim with regard to the assignment of the actionable 3 rights, the Functionary proposed that insofar that there is overlap between the grounds for the 4 future action that he would take and the grounds for the class action, then he would file a 5 preliminary motion with the court prior to filing the action.

6 With regard to the claims regarding the lack of a supporting affidavit in the motion to confirm 7 the Creditors' Arrangement, the Functionary responded that the motion is based on 8 information that was obtained in the framework of his position, and therefore, he is not 9 required to support it with an affidavit on his behalf.

10 As for the matter of the objection to the proceeding's expenses; the Functionary clarified that 11 the proceeding's expenses up until now in Israel stand at a sum of NIS 192,000. The future 12 expenses are unknown at this stage, and money should be kept in the insolvency fund 13 according to the general estimate in a sum of NIS 7 million, which appears reasonable.

14 As for the Canadian Trustee's and the Shareholders' objection to the fees, the Functionary 15 believes that there is no room to allow them to object to the fees because they are being 16 investigated by him.

17 12.3 The Official Receiver believes that the Creditors' Arrangement should be confirmed. As for 18 the assignment of rights, at first the Official Receiver thought it was appropriate for the 19 Functionary to detail which grounds for the action he wishes to assign. Subsequently, and in 20 light of the sweeping consent of the creditors to the proposed Creditors' Arrangement, the 21 Official Receiver did not insist with the detail requirement, and he even reasoned that it 22 provided a clear and coherent refuge/lodging for the management of the creditors' action.
23 As for the proceedings' expenses, at first the Official Receiver reasoned that there was room
24 for the Functionary to elaborate on the expenses that he spent until now, and the future
25 expenses would be examined in the framework of the reports and in the Functionary's 26 motions. However, after the explanations that were given in the framework of the 27 Functionary's responses, as well as during the hearing, the Official Receiver reasoned that 28 there is no need to continue to elaborate.

1 12.4 The shareholders' stance on certifying the Creditors' Arrangement – the normative 2 framework

3 The case-law states that in the laws of insolvency, the shareholders' interest is deferred to the 4 creditors' interest, such that an action performed on behalf of the creditors has priority even if 5 it may harm the shareholders. The Creditors' Arrangement was made on behalf of the 6 creditors with the aim of increasing their rate of repayment. In light of the aforesaid, the 7 shareholders' stance with regard to the confirmation of the Creditors' Arrangement is minor, 8 and it is doubtful whether there is room to consider their own preferences in the confirmation 9 of the Creditors' Arrangement. In this context, the remarks of the Supreme Court (his Hon.
10 President Grunis) in Leave of Civil Appeal 8417/11 Nemi Trustees Ltd. v. Adv. Shaul Bergerson, 11 Receiver for N.I.L.I Real Estate Ltd. (In Receivership) (published on Nevo, May 7, 2013), p. 11, 12 are appropriate:

13 “However, in the case that that there is no concrete possibility of adopting a 14 settlement that will leave the company's current controlling shareholders ‘in the 15 picture’ even after the attempt to rehabilitate it, the creditors are those who remain 16 at center stage, while the primary goal of the settlement is to benefit them, i.e. to 17 increase the debt repayment rate towards them.”

18 (Emphasis added – E.O.)

19 I shall also reference Liquidation (Tel Aviv District Court) 3706/09 Shtang Construction and 20 Engineering Ltd. (published on Nevo, November 11, 2009), p. 3:

21 “The very concept of the shareholders' deference to the creditors in a state of 22 insolvency shows that when the interest of the former collides with the interest of the 23 latter, the creditor's interest shall prevail. In a situation in which the desire of 24 shareholders to stay in their place conflicts with the creditors' interest in reaching a 25 settlement, preference is given to the shareholders' interest (inter alia, by 26 disqualifying a dilution attempt). In practice, this means their preference over the 27 creditors, and therefore is tantamount to contradicting the insolvency laws.”

I had occasion in the past to express my views on the matter as stated in Liquidation 38222-01-10 Development Company Founded by the Israel Contractors and Builders Center v. Official Receiver (published on Nevo, April 7, 2011), on p. 7:

“I agree with the case-law since, also in my opinion, the court should prefer the interest of the creditors over those of the shareholders in a situation of insolvency and on the principle of rejection of the latter; all the more so in the circumstances of the case before us. The creditors who participated in the creditors’ meeting unanimously supported this creditors’ arrangement from an informed perspective that it would only improve their debtor’s solvency if a settlement is not reached. This stance must be preferred to that of those shareholders who objected in the shareholders’ meeting. In practice, this is sufficient in order to reject Sasson’s opposition.”

Only in the case where there is a reasonable possibility that a balance will remain for the shareholders after the creditors’ debts have been repaid will it also be appropriate to take into consideration the interests of the shareholders. However, insofar as there is no such possibility, then the creditors “remain at center stage” and the primary goal of the Creditors’ Arrangement is to benefit them (also see Liquidation (Tel Aviv District Court) 32984-07-10 Peleg – N.I.A. Ltd. v. Trustee Bonds Holder (Series A) (published on Nevo, November 30, 2010), on p. 9; and Liquidation (Tel Aviv District Court) 35221-07-16 Africa Israel Investments Ltd. v. Official Receiver of the Tel Aviv and Central District (published on Nevo, July 28, 2016), paragraph 12)).

12.5 Implementation in our case:

I should first clarify that, as far as I am concerned, the Canadian Trustee’s position should be seen as the position of the shareholders. This is the person holding the ownership of the Company’s shares, whether directly or indirectly, not least considering that the Canadian Trustee is an officer in the bankruptcy of the Debtor, who is the indirect controlling shareholder of the Company. Thus, these will hereinafter be jointly referred to as “the Shareholders.”

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 I see no reason to accept the Shareholders claim that their position should be considered 2 because they believe there is a good chance that all of the Company's debts will be repaid, 3 and a balance will remain. The claim is made vaguely and without explanation, without 4 references or, at least, an affidavit to support the claim that a balance will remain following 5 the full repayment of the debt to the creditors. The current picture says otherwise, and I 6 refer to the well-grounded reports of the Functionary, which unequivocally show that the 7 creditors will not be repaid their full debt. It is unclear on what basis the Shareholders state 8 their general claim that a monetary balance will remain in the Functionary's fund following 9 the full repayment of the debt to the creditors. It is also worth noting that the Shareholders 10 presented no repayment plan, cash injection, or financial opinion, nor so much as any other 11 reliable reference to support this unsubstantiated narrative. Certainly, as things appear 12 on the surface, based on the Creditors' Arrangement, the list of assets and their liquidation, 13 can be expected that the creditors will not receive full repayment of their debt. We must 14 conclude that the Shareholders' position should be seen as weak and deferred, as detailed 15 in the rulings granted above.

16 Ex gratia, I have also given thought to the Shareholders' other arguments, and did not find 17 that these were sufficient to bring me to a different conclusion.

18 12.6 The Settlement is general and not sufficiently detailed; I found no substance in this 19 argument, and did not understand what provoked the Shareholders' ire. The Functionary 20 spelled out the principles of the Settlement in a clear and orderly manner, including with 21 respect to the monetary disbursements until now, and the forecast of future disbursements 22 given the anticipated receivables and their chances of being realized, as well as their 23 estimated sums. The Functionary further clarified the expenses associated with the 24 proceeding and the essence of the rights assignment, as detailed later on. I didn't find that 25 more details should have been provided than were provided. As stated, we are dealing with 26 orderly and sufficiently explained principles. To the extent that clarifications are required 27 at the time of their implementation, there is nothing preventing these from being sought in 28 order to avoid any doubt; however, presently, I do not see anything lacking.

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

- 1 12.7 Lack of clarity with regards to the costs of the proceeding; The Functionary noted that the 2 total expenses from the proceeding in Israel amounted to NIS 192,000, and even attached a 3 table detailing the expenses until now. As for future expenses, obviously, they cannot be 4 quantified at this stage of the proceeding. The Functionary sought to leave a sum of NIS 7 5 million in the Company's treasury as an estimate of future anticipated expenses. The line of 6 logic, common sense, and life experience teach us that it is better to leave a sum that will be 7 a sufficient source to cover whatever is needed, than to empty the funds and leave no
8 source to serve the monetary needs of the proceeding. I don't believe the Functionary's 9 estimate was unreasonable, given his discretion, his past experience, and the needs of the 10 proceeding, which are often associated with significant costs. It should also be stressed that, 11 in any event, there are control and supervision with regards to the payment of expenses, 12 including through motions filed with the Court, which are also examined by the Official 13 Receiver. Therefore, there is also no concern that the creditors or the Shareholders will be 14 harmed in this respect.
- 15 12.8 The Functionary's lack of authority to liquidate the assets; the prima facie authority to 16 liquidate the assets of the subsidiaries rests with the Canadian Functionaries. However, the 17 Functionary is vested the Company's authorities to act in the subsidiaries, and, in this 18 framework, to receive information about the subsidiaries' operations, properties, and rights 19 (see ruling of April 25, 2016). Moreover, the Functionary, by virtue of his station, represents 20 the interests of the Company and the Company's creditors; therefore, even if he himself 21 does not liquidate the assets of the subsidiaries, he acts in coordination with the Canadian 22 Functionaries, without deviating from his vested authorities. The foregoing does not negate 23 or derogate from the authorities of the Canadian Functionaries.
- 24 12.9 Lack of an affidavit supporting the confirmation of the Creditors' Arrangement; I was 25 bewildered by this argument raised by the Shareholders and Fachtold. That these, who have 26 sown their opposition in a series of factual claims – such as the Shareholders' claim that a 27 balance will remain for the Shareholders in the Company's treasury; Fachtold's claim that 28 the Functionary said that he is considering filing claims under the Securities Law; and more – 29 would also attack the Functionary for lacking an affidavit to support the motion to confirm

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 the Creditors' Arrangement! This brings to mind the saying: "It is good to practice what one 2 preaches."

3 As for the merits of the claim – case-law teaches us that the Functionary is not generally 4 required to support his motions with an affidavit, given that the information is not known to 5 him first-hand (see: Civil Appeal 5709/99 Levin v. Schiller, P.D. 55(4) 925, 937 (2001); Leave 6 of Civil Appeal 3032/08 Efriam Reich v. Adv. Avner Cohen, in his position as Provisional 7 Liquidator, (published on Nevo, September 2, 2009). While some of the information the 8 motion concerns is known to the Functionary, it came into his hands by virtue of his 9 position; therefore, I see no reason to deviate from the precedent case-law by requiring him 10 to file an affidavit. I will add to this that there was no allegation, in the objection in this 11 regard, of a material defect in the motion that would have required the support of an 12 affidavit on the part of the Functionary.

13 12.10 The Functionary's attorneys' fees in the actions he files; I believe that the Shareholders 14 have no standing to ground their allegations concerning the attorneys' fees to be paid to the 15 Functionary for conducting a claim against them, considering they are tainted by a conflict 16 of interest. Moreover, preference must be given to the weight of the creditors and the 17 Official Receiver, who confirmed the framework of fees to be paid to the Functionary.

18 As for its merits; the eligibility for these attorneys' fees are on the basis of success, which 19 may alleviate from the financing burden that would have existed if the fees were paid on 20 hourly basis. This also incentivizes the Functionary to avoid accruing unnecessary expense.

21 12.11 Assignment of the claims rights by the Functionary; As stated, I believe that the 22 Shareholders have no standing with respect to the filing of claims against them, and this 23 includes the assignment of the creditors' claims rights against them. The Supreme Court 24 (Her Hon. Justice Baron) was recently required to address this matter in Civil Appeal 25 7102/12 JKV BETEILIGUNEGES GmbH v. Moonlight Wireless Ltd. (in liquidation) (published 26 on Nevo, September 11, 2017) (the "Moonlight Case"), and her words there are equally 27 relevant to our case:

The District Court in Tel Aviv – Jaffa

Company Liquidation File 44348-04-16 Reznik Paz Nevo Trusts Ltd. v. Urbancorp Inc.,
Canadian Company 2471774, et al.
Motions 42, 47, 48, 50

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 “The motion to issue instructions, as well as the Liquidator’s response to the minority 2 group’s offer, concern an authority that is distinct from the investigative authority 3 granted to the Liquidator in the framework of the liquidation proceeding. This is the 4 authority to file claims in the name of the Company, under Section 307(a)(1) of the 5 Companies Ordinance (see Cohen, Vol. A, p. 287-291). In this regard, as well, the law is 6 that the appellates are given no right to respond. This has already been determined in 7 the primary circuits, and in rulings by single justices in this Court...”

8 See, as well, Civil Appeal 8481/14 Afridar Housing and Development in Israel Ltd. v. Fritzky 9 (published on Nevo, June 26, 2017), p. 2.

10 So as not to miss anything, I will add that the objection, on its merits, is also insubstantial. As 11 stated in the Moonlight case, the Functionary has the authority to file claims in the name of 12 the Company, by virtue of his position, against those who, he reasons, were responsible for 13 its collapse. See: Section 307(a)(1) of the Companies Law, 5743-1983; the Moonlight case, p.
14 22; Civil Appeal 1938/11 The Zohar Construction Tower Ltd. v. Gov Guy Ltd. (published on 15 Nevo, December 1, 2011), p. 10-11. Therefore, it is doubtful whether the Functionary even 16 needs an order in this regard, in the framework of the Creditors’ Arrangement.

17 For these reasons, I cannot accept the motion for an explanation of the assignment of rights 18 sought by the Shareholders. The Canadian Trustee is the Trustee of the Debtor in 19 bankruptcy proceedings he is currently undergoing. Therefore, to the extent that the Debtor 20 is a potential defendant, the Canadian Trustee is the one to substitute him, and the latter 21 should also be treated as a potential defendant – whereby, naturally, the Trustee would 22 have a conflict of interest with the assignment of actionable rights. The Shareholders and 23 the Canadian Directors are also potential defendants, in light of the conclusions of the 24 Functionary’s investigations; therefore, they also should not be allowed to object to the 25 assignment of rights. Moreover, the requested explanation would likely frustrate the filing 26 of a claim against these, or, at least, would serve as an attempt to “fish” for information 27 about the Functionary’s investigations, conclusions and causes of action he intends to use in 28 his claim. This must not be allowed. It is further noted that an assignment of rights is a 29 matter between the assignor of the rights – i.e., the Company’s creditors – and the recipient

1 of the rights, i.e., the Functionary; therefore, it is unclear what standing the shareholders 2 have to intervene in this assignment of rights.

3 As for Fachtold's opposition to the assignment of rights:

4 I cannot accept the argument that the Functionary has a conflict of interest, since the 5 Functionary is acting to increase the Company's creditors' fund, and there is no conflict
 6 between his being the Functionary appointed to the Company and his filing of a claim 7 against those responsible for its collapse – in addition to the precedent rulings I have cited 8 above.

9 As for the claim concerning an overlap between the causes of action in the class action and 10 the Functionary's causes of action, this concerns an internal disagreement between the 11 creditors, i.e., between the bondholders represented by the Trustee and between Fachtold, 12 who purports to represent a group of bondholders. The relations between these are 13 regulated in a series of documents, such as deeds of trust, and are not currently an issue for 14 the insolvency court. All that is required of the insolvency court is to approve the 15 assignment of actionable rights held by the secured creditors. To the extent that there is a 16 dispute amongst the creditors, they are welcome to deliberate it before the appropriate 17 forum.

18 13. I will now discuss the additional motions filed.

19 14. Motion to disburse an interim dividend (Motion 47)

20 As stated, the Functionary filed a separate motion to disburse an interim dividend to the secured 21 creditor amounting to NIS 70 million, and to reimburse the Trustee for NIS 500,000 that he made 22 available to finance the expenses of the proceeding at its inception. The Court was further 23 petitioned to approve leaving the Functionary with a sum of NIS 7 million, to serve as a resource to 24 finance the payment of fees and expenses associated with the claims that will be filed.

25 The confirmation of the Creditors' Arrangement, one of whose matters pertained to the interim 26 disbursement to the secured creditors, has obviated the need to rule on Motion 47.

27 15. Motion to order interim attorneys' fees for the Functionary (Motion 48)

September 26, 2017

The District Court in Tel Aviv – Jaffa

Company Liquidation File 44348-04-16 Reznik Paz Nevo Trusts Ltd. v. Urbancorp Inc.,
Canadian Company 2471774, et al.
Motions 42, 47, 48, 50

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 The Functionary petitions to approve interim attorneys' fees for him, amounting to NIS 2.5 million
2 with the addition of VAT, and office expenses amounting to NIS 16,395, plus VAT. The Official 3 Receiver believes interim attorneys' fees ought to be ordered for the Functionary in a sum of NIS 2 4 million, with added VAT, and that a proper reckoning can be conducted when ordering the final fees.
5 In the ruling of July 18, 2017, the attorneys' fees were approved in accordance with the Official 6 Receiver's position, as detailed therein.

7 The Shareholders objected to the sum of the attorneys' fees approved for the Functionary, inter
8 alia, for the following reasons: The Functionary stipulated the interim attorneys' fees on a 9 disbursement to the secured creditors that has yet to occur; the Functionary took credit for actions 10 he has not executed; he does not supervise the Canadian Functionaries, and requested attorneys'
11 fees for matters regarding which he has requested attorneys' fees separately, such as Fachtold's 12 class action; most of the Functionary's actions are immaterial, and consist of tracking and reporting 13 to the Court; the Functionary's actions did not exceed regular functionary activity; the Functionary 14 did not detail the estimated final attorneys' fees, in contravention of Regulation 14 of the 15 Companies Regulations (Rules concerning Appointment of Receivers and Liquidators and their Fees), 16 5741-1981 (the "Fees Regulations"); the Functionary did not perform disbursements to all of the 17 types of creditors, as required in Regulation 8A of the Fees Regulations; the fees should be limited 18 owing to the fact that the Functionary performed unnecessary actions and repeated actions taken 19 by other functionaries, in accordance with Regulation 13 of the Fees Regulations; the Functionary is 20 not entitled to payment for asset liquidations, since he is not authorized to liquidate the Company's 21 assets, as stated in Regulation 8(A) of the Fees Regulations, and he is not entitled to payment for 22 managing them, since he did not perform any management actions, as stated in Regulation 7(A) of 23 the Fees Regulations; the Functionary did not attach an affidavit; financial statement or references 24 for hours of work, in contravention of Regulation 6 of the Fees Regulations.

25 The Functionary disputes the position of the Shareholders. He argues that the interim attorneys' 26 fees have already been approved by the Court. The Shareholders have not displayed a change in 27 circumstances that justifies reopening the Court's decision. As for the merits of the arguments, the 28 Functionary claims his request for attorneys' fees meets the requirements of the Fees Regulations, 29 since it was approved by the Official Receiver. The Functionary further emphasizes that the interim

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 attorneys' fees he requested are not calculated according to Regulation 8A of the Fees Regulations, 2 but rather, on account of the final fees that will be ordered.

3 The Shareholders argue that the Functionary, in his motion to approve interim attorneys' fees, 4 sought interim attorneys' fees in the wake of a disbursement to the secured creditor under 5 Regulation 8A of the Fees Regulations, while in his response to the Shareholders, he claims that the 6 attorneys' fees are on account of the final fees that will be ordered.

7 15.1 The attorneys' fees ordered for the Functionary are only attorneys' fees on account of the 8 final fees, and do not represent the final fees. In cases involving the vast scope of work 9 required of the Functionary as in the framework of this proceeding, it is customary to pay an 10 advance on account of the final fees, and not to wait for the conclusion of the proceeding to 11 order the fees in their entirety. The rationale for this approach is so that the Functionary is 12 not required to finance the expenses of the proceeding from his own pocket. In 13 consideration of the foregoing, I saw no need to consider the arguments on their merits, and 14 these will be examined, if necessary, at the conclusion of the proceeding, when determining 15 the final fees of the Functionary.

16 Moreover, the facts that have accumulated until now, and the scope of the present 17 disbursement amounting to NIS 70 million, on top of which further disbursements will be 18 added, indicate that the final fees that will be paid to the Functionary in accordance with the 19 Fees Regulations exceed the sum of the interim fees; therefore, I see no reason to grant the 20 motion.

21 15.2 Another reason to dismiss the arguments of the Shareholders is that the secured creditors
 22 did not oppose the Functionary's motion for interim attorneys' fees. To be clear, the secured 23 creditors are the ones directly impacted by the granting of interim attorneys' fees to the 24 Functionary, since this derogates from the sum of their debt that they will receive; whereas 25 the Shareholders are deferred creditors in any event.

26 16. Motion to certify continued representation of the Company in the class action by the Functionary, 27 and his attorneys' fees (Motion 50)

Canadian Company 2471774, et al.
Motions 42, 47, 48, 50

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 The Functionary requests to be granted, with the consent of the Official Receiver, 150 additional 2 hours to conduct the Company's defense in the class action filed by Fachtold.

3 The Shareholders opposed the Functionary's motion, with their main arguments being as follows: no 4 affidavit was filed with the motion; the scope of hours requested is expected to exceed the term of 5 the Functionary's appointment, which is set to expire on October 11, 2017 – therefore, it is 6 requested to limit the attorneys' fees up until the date the appointment expires, and stipulate them 7 on the extension of the appointment, along with setting a ceiling for the attorneys' fees; actions 8 taken in this proceeding by the Functionary may become mixed with actions taken by the 9 Functionary in the framework of the class action – therefore, a detailed affidavit is sought regarding 10 all of the actions taken by the Functionary; the hours detailed in the motion do not include the work 11 hours of Adv. Gissin – therefore, an accounting of these hours is requested, as well as whether or 12 not attorneys' fees will be sought for them.

13 The Functionary disputes the position of the Shareholders. The Functionary noted that the Court has 14 approved his representation of the Company in the class action irrespective of the extension of the 15 appointment, and that each hour of work is examined by the Official Receiver; the Functionary 16 further stressed that the motion was approved by the Official Receiver after the latter approved the 17 table of hours attached to the motion. The Functionary argues that, to the extent that the Creditors' 18 Arrangement is approved, his appointment will be extended regardless.

19 16.1 I did not see fit to accept the arguments of the Shareholders;

20 Since the Creditors' Arrangement was confirmed, the appointment of the Functionary is 21 extended, and he will continue to represent the Company in the class action proceeding filed 22 by Fachtold as well.

23 I found no substance in the allegations made by the Shareholders concerning the actions of 24 the Functionary, since the Functionary's actions are regulated, examined, and approved by 25 the Official Receiver, and, as stated, the motion was filed with the consent of the Official 26 Receiver. The Shareholders did not indicate any reason to doubt the findings of such 27 examinations.

Before Honorable President Eitan Orenstein

1 It seems like the Shareholders' main rationale is an unfounded concern that the 2 Functionary's actions in the insolvency proceeding will become mixed with his actions in the 3 class action proceeding. However, as stated, this concern is unfounded, and I have found no 4 reason to doubt the Official Receiver's examinations. Certainly, considering we are dealing 5 with two entirely distinct legal fields, beyond involving the same Company, it is unclear what 6 sort of overlap could occur between the actions undertaken in the two proceedings.

7 17. In conclusion

8 A verdict is hereby granted dismissing the oppositions to the motion to confirm the Creditors' 9 Arrangement, and I certify it, as detailed above. I hereby appoint Adv. Guy Gissin as Trustee in the 10 execution of the Creditors' Arrangement, who will act to implement the provisions of the Creditors' 11 Arrangement, as detailed therein, including through the disbursement of the dividend to the 12 creditors, and as stated in the ruling.

13 The Trustee for the execution of the Creditors' Arrangement shall postpone, at this stage, the 14 disbursement of a dividend amounting to NIS 13 million, at the request of the creditor Fachtold, 15 subject to Fachtold signing a personal undertaking to secure the damage that may be caused as a 16 result of such postponement, should any such be caused, and as detailed in the ruling. This should 17 be done no later than October 15, 2017.

18 The Canadian Directors reserve the right to undertake appeals proceedings with respect to the 19 dismissal of their debt claim, to the extent that the deadline for its filing has not passed, and subject 20 to any other law.

21 The Canadian Trustee and the Shareholders, jointly and severally, shall bear the expenses of the 22 proceeding, amounting to NIS 23,400 to the Functionary, NIS 8,190 to the Bondholders' Trustee and 23 NIS 7,000 to the Official Receiver.

24 The clerk shall scan the verdict and the rulings in Motions 42, 47, 48 and 50.

25 The clerk shall send the verdict and rulings to the parties.
